long as such conditions are not exacerbated by HIGHLANDS' negligence or willful misconduct. BETHANY shall remain responsible for compliance with ADA, FEHA, and other applicable building code standards regarding access for any existing compliance issue prior to the date of executions of this MOU. HIGHLANDS shall only assume responsibility for compliance with ADA and FEHA access rights to the extent of any modifications or improvements made by HIGHLANDS. Should any modifications or improvements made by HIGHLANDS change or affect the character of any existing improvements, HIGHLANDS, shall be responsible for bringing said existing improvements into compliance with ADA, FEHA, and other applicable building codes standards. HIGHLANDS shall comply with all licensing, payment and performance bond and prevailing wage laws with respect to all modifications. Should any discharge, leakage, spillage, emission, or pollutions of any type occur upon or from the portions of the site as a result of HIGHLANDS' occupancy thereof, HIGHLANDS, at its sole cost and expense, shall be obligated to clean all the property affected, including, if applicable, any properties in the vicinity of the site, to the satisfaction of BETHANY and any governmental agencies having jurisdiction over the site or any other properties affected by the discharge, leakage, spillage, emission, or pollution. If HIGHLANDS fails to take steps to clean the site or otherwise fails to comply with any requirements regarding the clean up or amelioration of any discharge, leakage, spillage, emission, or pollution of any type, BETHANY reserves the right to take over the clean-up and to take all necessary steps to recoup any and all costs associated therewith from HIGHLANDS, which takeover shall not occur unreasonably.

10. Title to Property.

The Parties acknowledge that title to the site and all improvements are held by BETHANY, and shall remain in procession of BETHANY at all times.

11. Surrender of Premises.

Upon the expiration of this MOU, or any extension thereof, or termination of this MOU, HIGHLANDS shall peaceably vacate the site and any and all improvements located thereon and deliver up to BETHANY in substantially the same condition as existing on the date of commencement of this MOU, reasonable wear and tear, damage by the elements, fire, earthquake, flood, or public calamity excepted. HIGHLANDS shall be financially responsible for any needed repairs to the site due to the HIGHLANDS' acts or omissions, minus normal wear and tear, after vacating the site.

12. Insurance.

HIGHLANDS will procure and maintain Commercial General Liability coverage including bodily injury and property damage liability arising out of the use and occupancy of the premise of no less than $1,000,000 per occurrence and $5,000,000 in the aggregate. HIGHLANDS' insurance shall be secondary unless the claim, injury, or loss is at the active negligence of HIGHLANDS. BETHANY's insurance shall be primary. HIGHLANDS shall procure and maintain insurance for their personal property.

13. Indemnification.

With the exception of any liability, claims or damages caused solely by the active negligence or willful misconduct of HIGHLANDS, BETHANY, shall indemnify, hold harmless, and defend HIGHLANDS, its trustees, officers, employees and agents against any and all claims, demands, actions, causes of action, suits, losses, liability, expenses, penalties, obligations, errors, omissions and costs, including legal costs, attorney's fees and expert witness fees, whether or not suit is actually filed, and/or any judgement rendered against HIGHLANDS, its trustees, officers, employees and agents, that may be asserted or claimed by any person, firm or entity for any injury, death or damage to any person or property occurring in, on or about the site after the Effective Date, HIGHLANDS from, or in connection with, the BETHANY's use of the site or from the conduct of its business, including conduct of its board of directors, administrators, employees, agents, representatives, volunteers, subcontractors, invitees, successors and/or assigns or from any activity, work, or other things done, permitted or suffered by BETHANY, in or about the site; BETHANY's obligation to defend HIGHLANDS and other indemnities identified herein is not contingent upon there being an acknowledgement or determination of the merit of any claims, demands, actions, causes of action, suits, losses, liability, expenses, penalties, obligations, errors, omissions and/or costs. With the exception of any liability, claims or damages caused solely by the active negligence or willful misconduct of BETHANY, HIGHLANDS, shall indemnify, hold harmless, and defend BETHANY, its trustees, officers, employees and agents against any and all claims, demands, actions, causes of action, suits, losses, liability, expenses, penalties, obligations, errors, omissions and costs, including legal costs, attorney's fees and expert witness fees, whether or not suit is actually filed, and/or any judgment rendered against BETHANY, its trustees, officers, employees and agents, that may be asserted or claimed by any person, firm or entity for any injury, death or damage to any person or property occurring in, on or about the site after the Effective Date, BETHANY from, or in connection with, the HIGHLANDS' use of the site or from the conduct of its business, including conduct of its board of directors, administrators, employees, agents, representatives, volunteers, subcontractors, invitees, successors and/or assigns or from any activity, work, or other things done, permitted or suffered by HIGHLANDS, in or about the site; HIGHLANDS' obligation to defend BETHANY and other indemnities identified herein is not contingent upon there being an acknowledgement or determination of the merit of any claims, demands, actions, causes of action, suits, losses, liability, expenses, penalties, obligations, errors, omissions and/or costs.

14. Placement of Signs.

HIGHLANDS may display banners and/or signs at the site that promote HIGHLANDS' classes offered. The cost of banners and/or signage will be at the sole expense of HIGHLANDS. HIGHLANDS will not remove, block, obscure or deface any signs posted on premises.

15. Marketing.

HIGHLANDS and BETHANY will make available space on each other's website to proudly display the partnership between the two organizations. Logos shared on each other's site will contain links connecting viewers to the website page chosen by HIGHLANDS and BETHANY.

16. Access to Inspection.

HIGHLANDS shall permit BETHANY, its agents, representatives or employees, to use the classroom and adjoining rooms during the hours the space is not in use by HIGHLANDS. Further, HIGHLANDS shall permit BETHANY to enter upon the site for the purpose of inspecting same, to make repairs, alterations, or additions to any portion of the site, in the event of emergencies, if there is an imminent threat to the health or safety of occupants, or if access is for the purposes of meeting BETHANY' oversight obligations. BETHANY shall attempt to give reasonable notice where practicable but shall not be obligated to do so.

17. Termination.

The parties understand that implementation of this MOU is dependent on the parties good faith and effort to work together to provide services effectively. In the event that it becomes necessary for a party to cease being a party to this MOU, said party shall notify the other parties, in writing, thirty (30) days in advance of that intention.

18. Taxes.

BETHANY shall be solely liable for any and all taxes which may be levied or assessed upon the personal property, furnishings or fixtures of BETHANY located at the site or used by HIGHLANDS.

19. Notice.

Any notice required or permitted to be given under this MOU shall be deemed to have been given, served and received if given in writing and personally delivered or either deposited in the United States mail, registered or certificated mail, postage prepaid, return receipt required, or sent by overnight delivery service or via email, addressed as follows:

HIGHLANDS: Murdock Smith

Attention: Senior Pastor

Any notice personally given or sent via email shall be effective upon receipt. Any notice sent by overnight delivery service shall be effective the next business day following delivery thereof to the overnight delivery service. Any notice given by mail shall be effective three (3) days after deposit in the United States mail.

20. Subcontract, Assignment and Subletting.

Neither Party shall assign its rights, duties or privileges under this MOU, nor shall a Party attempt to confer any of its rights, duties or privileges under this MOU (including that of sublease) on any third party, without the written consent of the other Party.

21. Independent Status.

This MOU is by and between two independent entities and is not intended to and shall not be construed to create the relationship of agent, servant, employee, partnership, joint venture, or association.

22. Entire Agreement of Parties

This MOU contains the entire agreement between the Parties and supersedes all prior discussions, negotiations and agreements, whether oral or written. There are no promises, terms, conditions or obligations, oral or written, between or among the Parties relating to the subject matter of this MOU that are not fully expressed in this MOU. This MOU may not be modified, changed, supplemented or terminated, nor may any obligations under this MOU be waived, except by written instrument signed by the party to be the otherwise expressly permitted in this MOU.

23. California Law.

This MOU shall be construed in accordance with and governed by the laws and decisions of the State of California.

24. Waiver.

The waiver by and any Party of any breach of any term, covenant, or condition herein contained shall not be deemed to be a waiver of such term, covenant, condition, or any subsequent breach of the same or any other term, covenant, or condition herein contained.

25. Successors and Assigns.

This MOU shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Parties hereto and their respective heirs, legal representatives, successors, and assigns.

26. Counterparts.

This MOU and all amendments and supplements to it may be executed in counterparts, and all counterparts together shall be construed as one document.

27. Captions.

The captions contained in this MOU are for convenience only and shall not in any way affect the meaning or interpretation hereof nor serve as evidence of the interpretation hereof, or of the intention of the parties hereto.

28. Severability.

Should any provision of this MOU be determined to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any respect, such provision shall be severed and the remaining provisions shall continue as valid, legal and enforceable.

29. Recitals and Exhibits.

The Recitals and each exhibit attached hereto are incorporated herein by reference.

30. Email Signatures.

This MOU may be executed and transmitted to any other party via email, which email shall be deemed to be, and utilized in all respects as, an original, wet-inked document.

31. Dispute Resolution.

In the event of any dispute between HIGHLANDS and BETHANY regarding this MOU, including alleged violation, misrepresentation or misapplication of this MOU, the complaining party shall prepare a written statement of the dispute which shall be simultaneously submitted to the BETHANY' and HIGHLANDS' Executive Directors. The Executive Directors shall meet and confer within five (5) business days from the date of receipts of the written statement and attempt to resolve the dispute. In the event the matter is not resolved, the parties shall identify two members of their respective governing boards who shall meet with the Executive Directors within ten (10) business day s and attempt to resolve the dispute. If this meeting fails to resolve the dispute, either party may, within five (5) business days following the meeting, submit the matter to a mutually agreeable mediator, for the finale determination in accordance with any procedure determined and prescribed by the mediator. If the parties are unable to agree to a mediator, they will request that the mediation service appoint a mediator. If neither party submits the matter to mediation the determination of HIGHLANDS shall control. The Parties may thereafter exercise any right or remedy at law or in equity.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Parties hereto have executed this MOU on the Effective Date.

Hi Mayra,

I want to follow up on our recent conversations regarding our agreement with HCCTS. I know in our last conversation you mentioned some options that could work for clients. Since we are in October and I imagine you all are still working through things I have decided we need to go in a different direction,

According to our most recent contract we need to provide a 30 day notice to end our agreement with HCCTS. Please accept this email as our 30 day notice. Our finance team will follow up with any outstanding items. We also have some equipment that likely belongs to HCCTS and we can work with you on returning that property.

We appreciate the partnership with HCCTS and value the opportunities you have provided for so many of our clients. We hope you all the best as you continue to build HCCTS and continue your mission.

Sincerely,

Scott

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING BETWEEN HIGHLANDS COMMUNITY CHARTER SCHOOL
AND
SAINT JOHN'S PROGRAM FOR REAL CHANGE

THIS MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING (hereinafter "MOU") is made and entered into as of this 1st day of July, 2023 (the "Effective Date"), by and between Highlands Community Charter School, a California public charter school (hereinafter "HIGHLANDS") and Saint John's Program for Real Change, a non-profit organization organized and existing under the laws of the State of California (hereinafter "Saint John's").

I. RECITALS

WHEREAS, Saint John's is the owner of a certain real property and its main facilities are located at 8411 Jackson Road, Sacramento CA 95826. Classroom facilities to be utilized under the terms of this agreement are located at 8411 Jackson Road, Sacramento CA 95826 (SITE) and career technical education facilities to be utilized under the term of this agreement are located at 14 Business Park Way, Suite 149, Sacramento, CA 95828 (SITE).

WHEREAS, HIGHLANDS and Saint John's desire to enter into this MOU to document the arrangement and agreement between parties regarding HIGHLANDS use of classrooms at Saint John's SITE during the 2023-24 school years (hereinafter "Applicable Years"), pursuant to conditions set forth below;

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the covenants and agreements herein set forth, HIGHLANDS and Saint John's hereby agrees as follows:

1. General Information.
   A. Both HIGHLANDS and Saint John's agree not to discriminate in the selection or acceptance of any Student pursuant to this MOU because of race, color, national origin, religion, sex, sexual orientation, handicap, age, veterans status, medical condition (cancer-related) as defined in section 12926 of the California Government Code, ancestry, or marital status, or citizenship, within the limits imposed by law or corporation policy.
   B. Each student participating under the terms of this MOU shall be enrolled at HIGHLANDS for academic credit and/or English Language Development.

C. Each student will be subject to policies, rules, and regulations of HIGHLANDS and Saint John's while attending classes at Saint John's.

2. Use of the SITE.

Saint John's hereby grants to HIGHLANDS, on the terms and conditions set for the herein, use of the Jackson Road site for the sole purpose of operating a High School Diploma and Career Technical Education programs. HIGHLANDS's use of the SITE shall comply with all Saint John's policies and regulations and/or practices applicable and maintaining all licenses and/or permits necessary, if any, for conducting a California public charter school. HIGHLANDS further agrees to comply with all applicable ordinances, statues, and regulations related to its use of the SITE and conducting charter school activities.

Each class requires use of the following:

1 Large Classroom

Secure storage for textbooks and supplies

Restrooms

Adequate parking for students and staff

A. Term. HIGHLANDS's use of the SITES shall be for the 2023-24 school years commencing on July 1, 2023 and terminating on June 30, 2024. Within 30 days of expiration of the MOU, if neither party provides written documentation to terminate then the contract will remain in effect under the provisions previously stated.

B. Joint-Use. HIGHLANDS acknowledges that its right to use the SITE shall not interfere with Saint John's shared use of the SITE, if any. Saint John's shared use of the SITE, if any, shall not unreasonably interfere with the HIGHLANDS' use of the SITES.

C. Reversion to Saint John's. Upon the expiration of this MOU by its terms, the right to use and to occupy the SITE and its facilities, and Saint John's equipment thereon, shall revert to Saint John's.

D. Drill Notice. In the event that HIGHLANDS conducts a fire, earthquake or other emergency drill, HIGHLANDS shall provide Saint John's with reasonable advance notice of the time and nature of the drill.

E. Furnishings and Equipment. HIGHLANDS, at its sole cost and expense, shall be responsible for providing and maintaining in good repair and operating condition all equipment and materials (other than buildings) to furnish and equip the facilities for classroom instruction and operation of a charter school. In the alternative, HIGHLANDS may use furnishings and equipment from Saint John's, if available. Upon completion of equipment conducted by Saint John's, HIGHLANDS agrees to maintain an inventory to account for all equipment and a sufficient budget for all repairs or maintenance to equipment and furnishings at the SITE that are within its care, custody or control, with HIGHLANDS further agreeing to repair, maintain, or replace all such equipment or furnishings in keeping with its obligations to provide a safe and suitable educational environment.

F. Acknowledgement of Suitability, Compliance and Waiver. By executing this MOU, HIGHLANDS and Saint John's agree to conduct an inspection of the SITE to determine that the SITE are safe, adequate, and appropriate, to conduct operations. If it is determined that the SITE are not suitable for occupancy (due to non-functioning systems such as plumbing, electrical, HVAC/R, fire or intrusion alarms, ADA compliance, roofing or structural deficiencies, door lock keys, fire extinguishers, legal postings at entry, etc.) Saint John's shall do whatever is necessary to make the space or facility safe or compliant at its sole expense.

3. Facilities Use.
Saint John's agrees to provide space to HIGHLANDS as described in section 2 at a fixed monthly payment of $4,000.00 until either party shall terminate this MOU by giving a written notice of intention to terminate at least (30) days prior to the date of termination or until June 30, 2024.

4. Financial/Recordkeeping Obligations.
HIGHLANDS shall pay a monthly payment for student attendance calculated at $4.00 per day for each qualified and properly enrolled student who attends academic classes and career technical education classes at Saint John's 8411 Jackson Road. Saint John's agrees to maintain attendance records utilizing PowerSchool student information system. Further, Saint John's shall assist and support HIGHLANDS in the administration of the California Student Assessment System (CASAS) and other assessments required, or necessary to monitor student progress.
Saint John's shall prepare a monthly invoice for the educational services provided. This invoice shall be compared to submitted attendance records submitted by Saint John's and paid within 30 days of receipt and approval of invoice.

5. Instruction.
All curricula for classes taught for HIGHLANDS' students must be approved by appropriate HIGHLANDS' staff.

Any and all staff teaching HIGLANDS' students must meet with HIGHLANDS' Credentialing Specialist or designee prior to classroom instruction to ensure proper credentialing is in place. HIGHLANDS will participate in the evaluation process for all teachers. HIGHLANDS' executive staff reserves the right for final approval of hiring and disciplinary process of all staff.

6. Maintenance and Operations.

The ongoing operations and maintenance of the SITE and its facilities shall remain the responsibility of Saint John's; Saint John's will provide its own janitorial service and/or janitorial staff to clean classroom and restroom space.

A. Major Maintenance and Emergency Repair. In the event that HIGHLANDS requires Saint John's to perform emergency or major maintenance and repairs, HIGHLANDS shall notify Saint John's directly. An emergency repair is defined as a situation requiring immediate attention, generally characterized by a dangerous or hazardous condition. Emergency work should be of such importance that immediate action is required to prevent a safety or health hazard, or prevent significant damage to Saint John's property. Saint John's reserves the right to implement a process for submission of maintenance /repair requests.

7. Installation of Improvements by HIGHLANDS.

HIGHLANDS shall not construct or install any improvements on the SITE or otherwise alter the SITE without Saint John's prior written consent. Saint John's approval of any improvements, including the work schedule, work hours, and modifications, shall be at Saint reasonable discretion. All contractors retained by HIGHLANDS with respect to the construction or installation of improvements shall be fully licensed and bonded as required by law and must maintain levels of casualty, liability and workers' compensation insurance and performance and payment bonds consistent with Saint John's construction requirements. The construction or installation of improvements shall be performed in a sound and workmanlike manner, in compliance with all laws applicable including, but not limited to building codes, fingerprinting requirements and prevailing wage laws. Saint John's or its agent shall have a continuing right at all times during the period that improvements are being constructed or installed to enter the premises and to inspect the work, provided that such entries and inspections do not unreasonably interfere with the progress of the construction or interrupt instruction to students, and Saint John's may require the immediate cessation of work if the construction or installation is considered to be unsafe, inadequate or placing the SITE at risk of physical danger or compromise. In the event Saint John's requires the cessation of work, Saint John's and HIGHLANDS will immediately meet to address Saint John's concerns. No construction or installation will resume until Saint John's' concerns are adequately addressed.

8. Provision of Facilities.
The facilities to be provided to HIGHLANDS during the Applicable Year shall be accessible to the Parties no later than July 1, 2023.

9. Security System/Keys.

HIGHLANDS shall be provided access by key or code to all classroom space and all monitored security systems ("Security Systems") provided at the SITE. HIGHLANDS recognizes that the Security Systems currently provided at the SITE may include a separate intrusion alarm system, security camera system, and/or SITE visits/monitoring by a private security patrol.

10. Condition of Property.

HIGHLANDS, at its sole cost and expense, shall comply with all applicable laws, regulations, rules and orders with respect to its shared use and occupancy of the SITE, including, without limitation, those relating to health, safety, noise, environmental protection, waste disposal, and water and air quality. Notwithstanding the above, HIGHLANDS shall not be responsible for any conditions that existed prior to HIGHLANDS' occupancy of the SITE, so long as such conditions are not exacerbated by HIGHLANDS' negligence or willful misconduct. Saint John's shall remain responsible for compliance with ADA, FEHA, and other applicable building code standards regarding access for any existing compliance issue prior to the date of executions of this MOU. HIGHLANDS shall only assume responsibility for compliance with ADA and FEHA access rights to the extent of any modifications or improvements made by HIGHLANDS. Should any modifications or improvements made by HIGHLANDS change or affect the character of any existing improvements, HIGHLANDS, shall be responsible for bringing said existing improvements into compliance with ADA, FEHA, and other applicable building codes standards. HIGHLANDS shall comply with all licensing, payment and performance bond and prevailing wage laws with respect to all modifications. Should any discharge, leakage, spillage, emission, or pollutions of any type occur upon or from the portions of the SITE as a result of HIGHLANDS' occupancy thereof, HIGHLANDS, at its sole cost and expense, shall be obligated to clean all the property affected, including, if applicable, any properties in the vicinity of the SITE, to the satisfaction of Saint John's and any governmental agencies having jurisdiction over the SITE or any other properties affected by the discharge, leakage, spillage, emission, or pollution. If HIGHLANDS fails to take steps to clean the SITE or otherwise fails to comply with any requirements regarding the clean up or amelioration of any discharge, leakage, spillage, emission, or pollution of any type, Saint John's reserves the right to take over the clean-up and to take all necessary steps to recoup any and all costs associated therewith from HIGHLANDS, which takeover shall not occur unreasonably.

11. Title to Property.

The Parties acknowledge that title to the SITE and all improvements are held by Saint John's, and shall remain in procession of Saint John's at all times.

12. Surrender of Premises.

Upon the expiration of this MOU, or any extension thereof, or termination of this MOU, HIGHLANDS shall peaceably vacate the SITE and any and all improvements located thereon and deliver up to Saint John's in substantially the same condition as existing on the date of commencement of this MOU, reasonable wear and tear, damage by the elements, fire, earthquake, flood, or public calamity excepted. HIGHLANDS shall be financially responsible for any needed repairs to the SITES due to the HIGHLANDS' acts or omissions, minus normal wear and tear, after vacating the SITE.

13. Insurance.

HIGHLANDS will procure and maintain Commercial General Liability coverage including bodily injury and property damage liability arising out of the use and occupancy of the premise of no less than $1,000,000 per occurrence and $3,000,000 in the aggregate. HIGHLANDS' insurance shall be secondary unless the claim, injury, or loss is at the active negligence of HIGHLANDS. Saint John's insurance shall be primary. HIGHLANDS shall procure and maintain insurance for their personal property.

14. Indemnification.

With the exception of any liability, claims or damages caused solely by the active negligence or willful misconduct of HIGHLANDS, Saint John's, shall indemnify, hold harmless, and defend HIGHLANDS, its trustees, officers, employees and agents against any and all claims, demands, actions, causes of action, suits, losses, liability, expenses, penalties, obligations, errors, omissions and costs, including legal costs, attorney's fees and expert witness fees, whether or not suit is actually filed, and/or any judgement rendered against HIGHLANDS, its trustees, officers, employees and agents, that may be asserted or claimed by any person, firm or entity for any injury, death or damage to any person or property occurring in, on or about the SITE after the Effective Date, HIGHLANDS from, or in connection with, the Saint John's' use of the SITE or from the conduct of its business, including conduct of its board of directors, administrators, employees, agents, representatives, volunteers, subcontractors, invitees, successors and/or assigns or from any activity, work, or other things done, permitted or suffered by Saint John's, in or about the SITE; Saint John's' obligation to defend HIGHLANDS and other indemnities identified herein is not contingent upon there being an acknowledgement or determination of the merit of any claims, demands, actions, causes of action, suits, losses, liability, expenses, penalties, obligations, errors, omissions and/or costs. With the exception of any liability, claims or damages caused solely by the active negligence or willful misconduct of Saint John's, HIGHLANDS, shall indemnify, hold harmless, and defend Saint John's, its trustees, officers, employees and agents against any and all claims, demands, actions, causes of action, suits, losses, liability, expenses, penalties, obligations, errors, omissions and costs, including legal costs, attorney's fees and expert witness fees, whether or not suit is actually filed, and/or any judgement rendered against Saint John's, its trustees, officers, employees and agents, that may be asserted or claimed by any person, firm or entity for any injury, death or damage to any person or property occurring in, on or about the SITE after the Effective Date, Saint John's from, or in connection with, the HIGHLANDS' use of the SITE or from the conduct of its business, including conduct of its board of directors, administrators, employees, agents, representatives, volunteers, subcontractors, invitees, successors and/or assigns or from any activity, work, or other things done, permitted or suffered by HIGHLANDS, in or about the SITE; HIGHLANDS' obligation to defend Saint John's and other indemnities identified herein is not contingent upon there being an acknowledgement or determination of the merit of any claims, demands, actions, causes of action, suits, losses, liability, expenses, penalties, obligations, errors, omissions and/or costs.

15. Placement of Signs.

HIGHLANDS may display banners and/or signs at the SITE that promote HIGHLANDS' classes offered. The cost of banners and/or signage will be at the sole expense of HIGHLANDS. HIGHLANDS will not remove, block, obscure or deface any signs posted on premises.

16. Marketing.

HIGHLANDS and Saint John's will make available space on each other's website to proudly display the partnership between the two organizations. Logos shared on each other's site will contain links connecting viewers to the website page chosen by HIGHLANDS and Saint John's.

17. Access to Inspection.

HIGHLANDS shall permit Saint John's, its agents, representatives or employees, to use the classroom and adjoining rooms during the hours the space is not in use by HIGHLANDS. Further, HIGHLANDS shall permit Saint John's to enter upon the SITE for the purpose of inspecting same, to make repairs, alterations, or additions to any portion of the SITE, in the event of emergencies, if there is an imminent threat to the health or safety of occupants, or if access is for the purposes of meeting Saint John's' oversight obligations. Saint John's shall attempt to give reasonable notice where practicable but shall not be obligated to do so.

18. Termination.

The parties understand that implementation of this MOU is dependent on the parties good faith and effort to work together to provide services effectively. In the event that it becomes necessary for a party to cease being a party to this MOU, said party shall notify the other parties, in writing, thirty (30) days in advance of that intention.

19. Taxes.

Saint John's shall be solely liable for any and all taxes which may be levied or assessed upon the personal property, furnishings or fixtures of Saint John's located at the SITE or used by HIGHLANDS.

20. Notice.

Any notice required or permitted to be given under this MOU shall be deemed to have been given, served and received if given in writing and personally delivered or either deposited in the United States mail, registered or certificated mail, postage prepaid, return receipt required, or sent by overnight delivery service or via email, addressed as follows:

Any notice sent by overnight delivery service shall be effective the next business day following delivery thereof to the overnight delivery service. Any notice given by mail shall be effective three (3) days after deposit in the United States mail.

21. Subcontract, Assignment and Subletting.

Neither Party shall assign its rights, duties or privileges under this MOU, nor shall a Party attempt to confer any of its rights, duties or privileges under this MOU (including that of sublease) on any third party, without the written consent of the other Party.

22. Independent Status.

This MOU is by and between two independent entities and is not intended to and shall not be construed to create the relationship of agent, servant, employee, partnership, joint venture, or association.

23. Entire Agreement of Parties

This MOU contains the entire agreement between the Parties and supersedes all prior discussions, negotiations and agreements, whether oral or written. There are no promises, terms, conditions or obligations, oral or written, between or among the Parties relating to the subject matter of this MOU that are not fully expressed in this MOU. This MOU may not be modified, changed, supplemented or terminated, nor may any obligations under this MOU be waived, except by written instrument signed by the party to be the otherwise expressly permitted in this MOU.

24. California Law.

This MOU shall be construed in accordance with and governed by the laws and decisions of the State of California.

25. Waiver.

The waiver by and any Party of any breach of any term, covenant, or condition herein contained shall not be deemed to be a waiver of such term, covenant, condition, or any subsequent breach of the same or any other term, covenant, or condition herein contained.

26. Successors and Assigns.

This MOU shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Parties hereto and their respective heirs, legal representatives, successors, and assigns.

27. Counterparts.

This MOU and all amendments and supplements to it may be executed in counterparts, and all counterparts together shall be construed as one document.

28. Captions.

The captions contained in this MOU are for convenience only and shall not in any way affect the meaning or interpretation hereof nor serve as evidence of the interpretation hereof, or of the intention of the parties hereto.

29. Severability.

Should any provision of this MOU be determined to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any respect, such provision shall be severed and the remaining provisions shall continue as valid, legal and enforceable.

30. Recitals and Exhibits.

The Recitals and each exhibit attached hereto are incorporated herein by reference.

31. Email Signatures.

This MOU may be executed and transmitted to any other party via email, which email shall be deemed to be, and utilized in all respects as, an original, wet-inked document.

32. Dispute Resolution.

In the event of any dispute between HIGHLANDS and Saint John's regarding this MOU, including alleged violation, misrepresentation or misapplication of this MOU, the complaining party shall prepare a written statement of the dispute which shall be simultaneously submitted to the Saint John's' and HIGHLANDS' Executive Directors. The Executive Directors shall meet and confer within five (5) business days from the date of receipts of the written statement and attempt to resolve the dispute. In the event the matter is not resolved, the parties shall identify two members of their respective governing boards who shall meet with the Executive Directors within ten (10) business day s and attempt to resolve the dispute. If this meeting fails to resolve the dispute, either party may, within five (5) business days following the meeting, submit the matter to a mutually agreeable mediator, for the finale determination in accordance with any procedure determined and prescribed by the mediator. If the parties are unable to agree to a mediator, they will request that the mediation service appoint a mediator. If neither party submits the matter to mediation the determination of HIGHLANDS shall control. The Parties may thereafter exercise any right or remedy at law or in equity.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Parties hereto have executed this MOU on the Effective Date.

RE: Final Decision to Revoke - Highlands Community Charter School

Dear HCCTS Board of Directors and Mr. Raymond:

The Twin Rivers Unified School District ("District") Board of Trustees ("Board") approved issuance of a Final Decision to Revoke the Charter of Highlands Community Charter School at its special meeting on January 30, 2026. A copy of the Board Resolution approving issuance of the Final Decision is enclosed.

Sincerely,

Steve Martinez, Ed.D
Superintendent
Twin Rivers Unified School District

Enclosure: Resolution No. 1613

McClellan Park, California

RESOLUTION NO. 1613

RESOLUTION OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF THE TWIN RIVERS UNIFIED SCHOOL DISTRICT
Approving Issuance of a Final Decision to Revoke the Charter of Highlands Community Charter School

WHEREAS, the Twin Rivers Unified School District ("District") initially approved the petition for the establishment of Highlands Community Charter School ("HCCS") charter school on June 25, 2019, for a five-year term running through June 30, 2024, and per Education Code section 47607.4, HCCS's Charter was automatically extended by operation of law through June 30, 2027. HCCS is operated and governed independently by Highlands Community Charter and Technical Schools ("HCCTS") and its Board of Directors;

WHEREAS, the District and HCCS entered into a Memorandum of Understanding ("MOU") on or about February 25, 2020, to document the arrangement and agreement between the parties regarding HCCS's program, operation, structure, and obligations. Subsequent amendments to the MOU extended its term through June 30, 2027, and made clarifications regarding the process for approval of any new facility locations, facility safety expectations, and supervisorial oversight;

WHEREAS, as the charter authorizer of HCCS, the District is responsible for overseeing HCCS under Education Code 47604.32. This oversight responsibility includes monitoring whether HCCS is operating in compliance with the conditions, standards, or procedures set forth in its Charter and MOU, meeting or pursuing the pupil outcomes identified in its Charter, failing to meet generally accepted accounting principles, or engaging in fiscal mismanagement, and complying with the law (Education Code section 47607(f));

WHEREAS, as a result of HCCS's failure to remedy several areas of concern despite its receipt of multiple information requests and notices of concern from the District, and/or its failure to implement viable remedial plans to address these concerns, and since the District concluded that grounds for revocation existed, including material violations of the conditions, standards, or procedures of its Charter and MOU, failure to meet generally accepted accounting principles, or engaged in fiscal mismanagement, and violations of law, the District determined that the point has been reached where it was necessary to initiate the first step in the formal revocation process with the issuance of a Notice of Violation per Education Code section 47607 and Title 5, Cal. Code of Regulations, section 11968.5.2 ("Section 11968.5.2");

WHEREAS, on June 17, 2025, the Board unanimously approved issuance of a Notice of Violation ("NOV") to HCCS pursuant to Education Code section 47607 based on findings that HCCS materially violated the conditions, standards, and procedures of its Charter, failed to meet generally accepted accounting principles or engaged in fiscal mismanagement, and violated the law;

WHEREAS, the NOV also provided HCCS with a reasonable opportunity to respond to and/or remedy the violations by September 26, 2025, and placed HCCS on notice that if the violations were not addressed, the District may pursue further steps towards revocation of the Charter;

WHEREAS, at the conclusion of the remedy period, on September 26, 2025, HCCS provided its response to the NOV, however, the supporting evidence was not provided to the District until September 29, 2025;

WHEREAS, District staff evaluated the response from HCCS and all documentation produced with the response, and after conducting a thorough, objective, and data-driven review, District Staff determined that HCCS failed to refute to the District's satisfaction, or remedy all of the violations identified in the NOV, and that significant violations continue to exist, including material violations of the conditions, standards, or procedures of its charter, fiscal mismanagement, and violations of law;

WHEREAS, based upon the substantial evidence demonstrating HCCS's failure to refute and/or remedy multiple violations identified in the NOV, District staff recommended that the Board approve issuance of the a Notice of Intent to Revoke and notice of facts in support of revocation ("Notice of Intent to Revoke") to HCCS pursuant to Education Code section 47607 and Section 11968.5.2, and the Board approved issuance of a Notice of Intent to Revoke at its meeting on November 4, 2025, supported by substantial evidence presented therewith, and further scheduled a public hearing on the issue of whether substantial evidence existed to revoke the Charter;

WHEREAS, on December 2, 2025, the Board of Trustees held a public hearing in compliance with Education Code section 47607, and took testimony from HCCS representatives and the public on the issue of whether substantial evidence existed to revoke HCCS's Charter based on the facts and conclusions in the Notice of Intent to Revoke;

WHEREAS, during a special Board meeting on January 27, 2026, District Staff presented their analysis of the measures taken by HCCTS to refute and/or remedy the violations identified in the Notice of Revocation. While the Board thoughtfully considered Staff's analysis and recommendation regarding revocation, it ultimately did not accept Staff's recommendation and no action was effectively taken regarding HCCS's revocation; and

WHEREAS, the Board has convened on January 30, 2026, to consider whether to approve the issuance of a Final Decision to Revoke the Charter of HCCS.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED AND ORDERED AS FOLLOWS:

1. The Board finds the above-listed recitals to be true and correct and incorporates them herein by this reference.

2. In support of its Final Decision to Revoke HCCS's Charter, the Board adopts the facts and findings contained in the Notice of Intent to Revoke and its exhibits, as initially set forth in the NOV, and as stated herein, as its written factual findings, supported by substantial evidence specific to HCCS, and incorporates such findings into this Resolution as though set forth fully herein; and in support of its decision to issue a Final Decision to Revoke HCCS's Charter, the Board further finds that:

(A) Substantial evidence demonstrates that the violations initially identified in the NOV, and demonstrated in the Notice of Intent to Revoke and exhibits thereto, and as further stated herein, have in fact occurred;

(B) HCCS failed to refute, remedy, or propose remedial action sufficient to remedy all of the violations identified in the NOV;

(C) The violations set forth in the NOV and Notice of Intent to Revoke, have not been sufficiently remedied by HCCS, and attempts at further corrective actions taken by HCCS, although considered by the Board, failed to sufficiently remedy the violations identified in the NOV and substantiated in the Notice of Intent to Revoke, and/or promised unsubstantiated and unreliable future performance and resulting uncertainty regarding future compliance.

3. The Board hereby approves issuance of a Final Decision to Revoke the Charter of Highlands Community Charter School revoking HCCS's Charter effectively immediately. The Superintendent or designee is hereby authorized and directed to notify the Sacramento County Board of Education and California Department of Education regarding the revocation approval and to take any such other actions needed to effectuate the purpose of this Resolution.

PASSED and ADOPTED by the Board of Trustees of the Twin Rivers Unified School District on the 30th day of January 2026 by the following vote.

COMMUNITY CHARTER AND TECHNICAL SCHOOLS

HCCS - 6505

September 26, 2025

Ryan DiGiulio Chief Business OfficialTwin Rivers Unified School District 5115 Dudley Blvd McClellan Park, CA 95652

Subject:Notice of ViolationPursuant to EducationCode 47606 for Highlands CommunityCharter School

Dear Mr. DiGiulio,

On June 12, 2025, Twin Rivers Unified School District (“TRUSD”) provided Highlands CommunityCharter and TechnicalSchools (“HCCTS”) with a formal Notice of Violation.We recognizethe seriousness of the issues outlined and we acknowledge that, under prior leadership,Highlands failedto meet expectationsin several important areas. Mistakes were made, and those mistakes have eroded trust.

Since that time, Highlands has undergone a profound transition. With new leadership and outside experts engaged in financeand compliance,we have embracedaccountabilityand implementedsweeping reforms. HCCTS is also in the process of bringing on a new board of directors to lead the school in improved governance and systems of accountability. Changes include:

- ●New systems for financial oversight and internal controls,
- ●Stronger credentialing processes in partnership with UMass Global,
- ●Clearer academic and attendance standards, with daily monitoring,
- ●Adoption of more than 100 new board policies to strengthen compliance and transparency, and

- A material revision to the HCCS charter which outlines these and other changes to HCCS.

HCCTS is committed to working in close partnership with TRUSD to demonstrate that these changes are not temporary fixes, but lasting improvements. Our goal is to move forward with a constructive relationship, grounded in transparency and shared accountability, to ensure Highlands is in full compliance and able to continue serving our students.

We respectfully submit the enclosed materials as HCCTS' formal response to the Notice of Violation. If you have additional questions or would like further information, please do not hesitate to contact me directly at (617) 823-9341 or jonathan.raymond@hccts.org.

Thank you for your attention and for your ongoing oversight as we work to build a stronger, more accountable Highlands.

Thank you,

Jonathan Raymond
Executive Director
Highlands Community Charter and Technical Schools

I. BACKGROUND

Highlands Community Charter and Technical Schools recognizes and respects TRUSD's role as our authorizer, as outlined in MOU Amendment No. 3 signed on January 23, 2024. This amendment clearly defines the district's oversight responsibilities, including the approval of new facilities, ensuring safe learning environments, and providing supervisorial guidance.

We acknowledge that the Notice of Violation issued on June 12, 2025, falls squarely within TRUSD's responsibilities. We take this notice with the utmost seriousness. Under past leadership, Highlands fell short of meeting expectations in several areas. Mistakes were made, and we own that.

Today, under new leadership,, Highlands is fully committed to addressing every issue raised. In many cases, corrective actions have already been completed; in others, substantial progress is underway. Where issues remain outside of our direct control, we have taken every step possible to mitigate them and are actively working toward full resolution.

This response provides a clear account of the corrective actions already taken, the progress still in motion, and the timelines by which remaining matters will be fully resolved. Our commitment is to demonstrate that Highlands is not only curing past deficiencies but building a sustainable, compliant, and transparent system for the future.

II. VIOLATIONS OF THE CHARTER

A. HCCTS Grade Levels

Education Code section 47604(a)(4) provides in part: "After receiving approval of its petition, a charter school that proposes to expand operations to one or more additional sites or grade levels shall request a material revision to its charter and shall notify the chartering authority of those additional locations or grade levels."

- There are no exemptions for the requirement to submit a material revision request to change grade levels.
- The District is issuing the NOV as part of our oversight responsibilities to address HCCS' failure to submit the required Material Revision request to change grades.

Education Code section 47605(a)(4) makes clear that a charter school seeking to expand operations to additional sites or grade levels must submit a material revision to its charter and notify its authorizer. HCCTS recognizes that there are no exemptions to this requirement and acknowledges that it did not submit a material revision when grade levels were changed beginning in the 2020–21 school year.

In the 2020-2021 school year, leadership at HCCTS shifted from grades 1, 2, and 12 to grades 9, 10, and 12 in order to:

- Create clarity in the community that HCCS was a high school
- Align more closely with traditional high school programs
- Allow English Language Learners the opportunity to earn high school credits and make progress toward their high school diploma
- Show student progress as students move between grade levels
- Create clear pathways for international high school students and high school students to graduation
- To improve graduation rates

While HCCTS communicated with TRUSD staff regarding these changes (Exhibit A) and believed the adjustments had support, the formal requirement for a material revision was not pursued at that time. We recognize this was a failure of process, and we take responsibility for not following the proper procedures.

Since then, Highlands has taken corrective action. In June 2024, HCCTS began preparing a comprehensive material revision. That revision reflects:

- The addition of grade 11, as requested by TRUSD (Exhibits B & C),
- The removal of grades 1 and 2, and
- The continued offering of grades 9, 10, and 12.

The proposed material revision was completed and board approved on September 18, 2025, see Exhibit D, after which it will be submitted to TRUSD for consideration. This action is intended to fully align Highlands' charter with current practice, CDE guidance, and TRUSD oversight. The proposed revision is attached here as Exhibit E.

Accordingly, this issue will be fully resolved once TRUSD acts on the submitted material revision. If the TRUSD Board does not approve the revision, HCCTS will comply by returning to the grade levels specified in the existing approved charter.

Highlands regrets that this process was not followed in the past. Under new leadership, we are committed to full compliance, clear communication, and a constructive working relationship with TRUSD to ensure that changes moving forward are properly authorized and transparent.

Attached you will find the following documents to support HCCTS' response to this issue:

- Exhibit E: HCCS Material Revision Board approved on September 18, 2025

B. HCCS Locations

MOU Amendment No. 3 provides in part: "The terms of the MOU are intended by the District and Charter School to become part of the standards and procedures set forth in the Charter School's Charter approved by the District ("Charter"). Along with the Charter, this MOU will govern the relationship between the District and the Charter School regarding the operation of the Charter School. To the extent the terms of the MOU is/are inconsistent with any terms of the Charter, the MOU shall control. In addition, if the Charter is silent on an issue addressed by the MOU, the MOU shall control. As such, any violation of MOU by Charter School that also constitutes grounds for revocation per Education Code section 47607 will be treated and enforced by the District in the same manner, subject to Education Code Section 47607 and applicable implementing regulations, as it would any other violation constituting a ground for revocation."

- October 3, 17 and November 7, 2024 HCCTS Board approved sites/locations that were not included on MOU Amendment No. 3.
- On multiple occasions the District notified HCCTS of the requirement to submit a material revision request, before occupying a new location. HCCTS failed to comply.
- HCCTS June 1, 2025, newest "tentative" location list still includes sites not approved for operation for HCCS.
- The District is issuing the NOV as part of our oversight responsibilities to address HCCS' failure to submit the required Material Revision request before adding new facilities.

MOU Amendment No. 3 governs the approval and operation of Highlands' facilities and makes clear that any new locations require District authorization through a material revision. Highlands acknowledges that in the past, locations were opened or relocated without first completing the formal material revision process required by the MOU. This was a failure of compliance, and we take responsibility for it.

These missteps were not intentional, but they reflect a lack of attention to detail under prior leadership. Historically, Highlands relied on a more informal process with the District regarding the addition, relocation, or consolidation of sites. In some cases, leadership believed that moves such as opening an additional suite within an existing facility or relocating to a site nearby did not constitute a "new" location requiring a material revision. That interpretation was incorrect, and we recognize that now.

The District's request for an updated site list on June 1, 2025, coincided with a period of significant transition at Highlands, including organizational restructuring and site consolidations. While those circumstances contributed to delays in providing a finalized list, they do not excuse the failure to comply with the MOU requirement.

Highlands has since taken corrective steps. A material revision updating all current operating locations was prepared and sent to the HCCTS Board on September 18, 2025 for submission to TRUSD. Moving forward, Highlands will strictly comply with the requirement to submit a material revision for any facility location change, ensuring that the District is fully informed and that all operations are authorized.

This issue will be fully resolved once the TRUSD Board approves the submitted material revision. If the Board does not approve certain sites, Highlands will immediately limit operations to District-approved locations.

Under new leadership, Highlands is committed to transparency, accuracy, and compliance in its facilities reporting and to maintaining a constructive partnership with TRUSD on all matters related to school sites.

III. ALLEGED VIOLATIONS OF THE LAW

A. HCCTS Annual Independent Audit Report

The Charter School is in violation of Education Code sections 47604.33 and 47605, and its own Charter, for failing to complete and submit its 2023-24 annual independent audit report to the District.

- HCCTS requested an extension to the December 15, 2024, deadline for submitting its 2023-24 audit report.
- The District granted an extension until January 15,2025, but HCCTS failed to meet this deadline and has subsequently missed multiple additional extension deadlines, including March 31, 2025, and April 18,2025.
- To-date HCCTS' audit report has not been submitted to the District.
- The District is issuing the NOV as part of TRUSD oversight responsibilities to address HCCS' failure to submit the 2023-24 annual independent audit report.

Education Code sections 47604.33 and 47605, as well as the HCCTS charter, require timely completion and submission of an annual independent audit report. Highlands acknowledges that the 2023–24 audit has not yet been submitted to TRUSD and that multiple deadlines were missed.

Highlands contracted with Eide Bailly to conduct the 2023–24 audit (Exhibit F). While a draft was provided on May 9, 2025, the process has been significantly delayed due to a combination of external and internal factors (Exhibit G). These include:

- Eide Bailly's 2022–23 audit being selected for review by the State Controller, which diverted capacity and slowed the 2023–24 work,

- Errors identified in the draft related to unduplicated pupil counts, which required national-level review and corrections, and

- Additional testing required following the release of the California State Auditor's report, which heightened risk assessments.

Highlands has consistently provided documentation requested by the auditor and followed up on promised delivery timelines as demonstrated in Exhibit J which details an extensive list of document requests fulfilled by HCCTS staff. However, the final report has not yet been released by Eide Bailly. Legal counsel has formally demanded its completion (Exhibit H) and Highlands continues to press for immediate resolution (Exhibit I).

To date, Eide Bailly has not indicated any significant findings in the draft report. While the delay has been deeply frustrating, Highlands has acted in good faith throughout the process, and the draft report demonstrates that we have been cooperative and responsive.

Moving forward, Highlands will ensure timely completion of audits by:

- Holding vendors accountable through stricter contracts and oversight; and

- Engaging with TRUSD earlier in the process to provide status updates and transparency.

We will provide TRUSD with the completed audit report immediately upon its release by Eide Bailly. We regret the delays and are committed to ensuring this problem does not repeat.

Attached you will find the following documents:

- Exhibit F: Eide Bailly Communication Tracker 2024-2025
- Exhibit G: 2025.04.17 Letter from Eide Bailly regarding State Controller and State Auditor
- Exhibit H: 2025.8.5 Letter to Eide Bailly Requesting Production of Audit
- Exhibit I: 2025.9.11 YM&C Follow-up letter to Eide Bailly
- Exhibit J: Document requests from Eide Baily fulfilled by HCCTS

B. HCCTS Credentialing & Misassignments

HCCS has provided instruction to its students using teachers who do not hold the appropriate credential as required by California Education Code, which is a requirement for receipt of ADA funding.

- HCCTS has submitted ADA revisions for teachers who did not have any credential, but the majority of HCCTS teachers do not have the appropriate, required credentials.
- ADA funding is directly tied to appropriately credentialed teachers.
- HCCTS relied on guidance from a Credentials Technician from San Diego County Office of Education (SDCOE) and her interpretation of credential requirements, but failed to consult with the CTC.
- The District is issuing the NOV as part of our oversight responsibilities to address the disallowed ADA which resulted in misappropriately credentialed teachers.

Highlands agrees that all teachers must hold valid teaching credentials and that paraeducators should not serve as classroom teachers without them. We acknowledge that, under prior practice, Highlands relied on adult education credentials based on guidance previously received from outside agencies (Exhibit K). While this approach was followed for years without audit findings, it did not meet current expectations from CDE and CTC, and we take responsibility for correcting it.

Beginning in 2024–25, Highlands laid off teachers who did not hold the required credentials and re-staffed classes with appropriately credentialed teachers (Exhibit L). We also undertook a full review of our credentialing and staffing systems to ensure alignment with updated guidance and long-term compliance (Exhibit M).

Key corrective actions include:

- Credentialing Review: Examined over 300 staff profiles and held 269 individual consultations with certificated staff to create personalized compliance pathways.

- Support Systems: Established a credentialing support team of staff and consultants; built a centralized credentialing database; and partnered with UMass Global to provide flexible, remote intern credential pathways (Exhibit N and Exhibit O), and are hiring mentor teachers (Exhibit P, Exhibit Q, and Exhibit R)

- Financial and Professional Support: Adopted Board Policy 4112.3 (Exhibit S) to reimburse staff for exam fees and coursework; approved a K–12 Teacher Retention Incentive (Exhibit T), and aligned hiring timelines with CTC testing windows and permit options.

- Hiring Reforms: Suspended instruction in July 2025 to allow time to re-staff with fully credentialed teachers before the school year, implemented structured hiring and rehire processes tied to credential readiness; and issued updated teacher agreements.

- Governance Safeguards: Adopted new board policies requiring all certificated staff to hold valid credentials at hire and renewal, mandating use of Frontline to track compliance, and prohibiting nepotism in hiring through Board Policy 4212.8 (Exhibit U).

Through these actions, Highlands has corrected past practices and put in place systems that ensure all teachers moving forward will hold valid K–12 credentials. Instruction has resumed with properly credentialed staff, and we are committed to ongoing monitoring and support to keep Highlands fully compliant.

This issue is now resolved, and Highlands has turned the page with stronger systems that protect both compliance and instructional quality.

C. HCCS Instructional Minutes

Demonstrating fiscal mismanagement and its non-compliance with the law, HCCS has received ADA funds while not meeting requirements for collecting ADA apportionment as outlined by the Education Code. Specifically, Education Code 47612.5(e)(1) states: "For purposes of calculating average daily attendance for classroom-based instruction apportionments, at least 80 percent of the instructional time offered by the charter school shall be at the schoolsite, and the charter school shall require the attendance of all pupils for whom a classroom-based apportionment is claimed at the school site for at least 80 percent of the minimum instructional time required..."

- It was observed by Scott Leaman and Dennis Snelling (TRUSD Contractors/Consultants) that some students were being sent home with packets, arriving and leaving continuously without intending to stay, and provided work packets as part of the instructional day.

- HCCS submitted ADA revisions for 22-23 and 23-24 school years to address classes taught by non- credentialed teachers and to address items identified by the Attendance Report authored by Dennis Snelling, but the revisions did not address this violation.
- Further compounding the issue and contributing to the disallowed ADA, is the fact that HCCS discarded attendance records, thereby removing any documented evidence of student attendance, which is necessary to verify the accuracy of enrollment reported for ADA.
- HCCTS is required to address the practices outlined above and the disallowed ADA resulting from the violation of Ed. Code.
- The District is issuing the NOV as part of our oversight responsibilities to address HCCS' failure to meet the requirement for at least 80% of instruction to be offered at the school site.

Highlands Community Charter and Technical Schools (HCCTS) acknowledges that past classroom observations identified instances where some students arrived late, left early, or were provided instructional packets when departing. However, Highlands is appealing the State Auditor's findings for both schools because it has always maintained a written policy requiring daily attendance that was and is communicated in the student handbook (Exhibit V) and reinforced during new student onboarding.

In regard to disallowed ADA, there were numerous flaws with the state audit process as noted in our request for summary review for Highlands that was filed with the Education Audit Appeals Panel and the formal appeal that was filed with the Education Audit Appeals Panel for CICA. Among them was the assertion in the state audit report that Highlands did not do enough to enforce its attendance policy, which led to the conclusion that the schools owed back a significant amount of apportionment to the state. Please see our attached appeal and supporting documents (Exhibits W & X) for more information on the legal and factual issues in dispute.

It is important for you to know that Highlands staff made substantial efforts to engage students, including phone calls, texts, and emails during the audit period. More than 5,000 outreach contacts specifically regarding attendance were recorded during the state audit period (Exhibit Y). Highlands also offered wrap-around support such as food pantries, clothing closets, and counseling to reduce barriers to attendance. Technology access was suspended when students were disenrolled for non-compliance.

In short, Highlands is appealing the State Auditor findings because we believe that the Auditor misinterpreted the law and did not consider records provided by Highlands that demonstrate efforts to enforce its attendance policy. Because the appeals process is ongoing, we do not have a final decision as of the date of filing this NOV response, but Highlands is diligently pursuing this appeal.

Highlands also recognizes that its handling of paper back-up records for attendance was inconsistent. While PowerSchool serves as the official record of attendance under Education Code § 44809 and 5 C.C.R. § 401, paper records were intended to provide redundancy in case of system outages. Some records were not centralized, creating the perception that they had been discarded. TRUSD staff are welcome to review our paper attendance records at any time. Highlands acknowledges that best practice is to retain these back-up records for at least three years and has committed to doing so going forward (Exhibit Z).

Notwithstanding the fact that Highlands believes in good faith that they met all legal requirements during the period reviewed by the State Auditor, in response to the state audit and district oversight, Highlands has taken the following additional steps:

- Surveyed all sites to confirm the retention of thousands of paper records from the last three years
- Adopted new procedures to ensure consistent retention of both digital and paper records (Exhibit Z)
- Standardized attendance enforcement across sites, with clear protocols for outreach and intervention (Exhibit Y)
- Contracted with Schoolhouse Partners, LCC to complete a forensic audit (Exhibit AB)

Highlands is committed to continuous improvement in this area. We will ensure attendance expectations are consistently communicated, enforcement is applied uniformly across all sites, and records are retained in accordance with law and best practice (Exhibit Z). Our goal is not only compliance, but to strengthen the systems that keep students engaged, supported, and on track to succeed (Exhibit AA).

To improve in the areas of attendance tracking and enforcement, HCCTS has taken corrective action to address and resolve these concerns, as outlined below. HCCS has strengthened both policies and record-keeping practices as follows:

1. Attendance Enforcement
    a. 5111.5 Disenrollment and Involuntary Removal (Revised and Approved 03/20/2025) - Outlines the involuntary disenrollment for students who accumulate ten consecutive unexcused absences despite HCCS staff's efforts to re-engage them (Exhibit AD).
    b. 5113.1 BP Attendance Enforcement (Approved 03/20/2025) - Outlines 80% attendance rule (Exhibit AA)
    c. 5120 BP Satisfactory Academic Progress (Approved 03/20/25) - Outlines students must maintain active attendance. Requires that all manual attendance records, including sign-in sheets, be retained for a minimum of three years in accordance with the California Code of Regulations, Title 5. (Exhibit AC)

d. 5131 BP Student Conduct (Revised and Approved 03/20/2025) - Outlines the ramifications of students who forge attendance records (Exhibit AE)
e. 6164.5 BP Student Success Teams (Revised and Approved 04/25/2025) - Outlines interventions to support students reportedly struggling with attendance (Exhibit AF)

2. Updated Bell Schedules for the 2025-2026
    a. Contains 5 periods rather than 3 periods for the AM schedule (Exhibit AG)
    b. Has only one track (Exhibit AI)
    c. Meets the minimum number of instructional minutes (Exhibit AH)
    d. Has only one PM schedule for all sites, rather than three (as in the 2024-2025 school year) (Exhibit AG)

3. Class Sizes
    a. 6151 BP Class Sizes and Enrollment (Approved 5/15/2025) - Sets class size and enrollment guidelines to support instruction and student success. Ensures manageable student-to-teacher ratios and adapts to program needs. Aligns class sizes with physical space limits and adjusts as needed (Exhibit AJ)
    b. 6170 BP Student-to-Teacher/Paraeducator Ratios (Approved 6/5/2025) - Sets student-to-teacher and paraeducator ratios to support instructional quality and safety. Limits general class sizes to 40:1 and follows legal ratios for independent study. Assigns paraeducators based on need, targeting 1 per 120 students. Provides extra support for students with SST or 504 plans (Exhibit AK)
    c. 7110 BP Physical Classroom Capacity (Approved 5/15/2025) - Defines and enforces classroom capacity limits to comply with safety codes and building regulations. Coordinates capacity limits with enrollment policies to support safe attendance (Exhibit AL)

4. Additional Attendance Measures:
    a. Automated Attendance Notifications: Robocalls and text alerts will immediately notify students of attendance deficiencies.
    b. Enhanced Teacher Training: Teachers will receive strengthened training on attendance monitoring and engagement tracking.
    c. The 80% Attendance Rule: Students must maintain at least 80% attendance to remain engaged in learning, per California Education Code § 51747. (Exhibit AA)
    d. Administrative Spot Checks: School administrators will conduct random compliance checks to ensure adherence to attendance policies.
    e. Updated Tiered Re-engagement Framework: Students with persistent attendance or academic progress issues will follow a structured re-engagement process.

Those who fail to improve despite interventions may be disenrolled in accordance with school policy BP 5111.5. (Exhibit AD)

HCCTS has taken all steps that it can to improve attendance policies, re-engagement strategies, and employee training to ensure students are re-engaged when there are attendance concerns. These changes should fully cure any outstanding concern that the District could have relating to attendance going forward. HCCTS also has taken all steps necessary to pursue its appeals of apportionment findings with regard to the state audit period where it believes that it met all legal requirements. There is nothing more that HCCTS can do with regard to the audit appeals until such time as a decision is made by the Education Audit Appeals Panel

D. HCCTS Exclusive Partnership Agreement

"Instruction must be provided exclusively in partnership with Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act (WIOA) programs."

- During its 2024–25 oversight review, the District discovered that HCCTS had allowed individuals who were non-students to participate in its Career Technical Education (CTE) Truck Driving program.
- The practice began in 2014 at the direction of a Board member, was supported by the Executive Director, and continued with Board approval through 2024-25.
- The WIOA partnership agreement requires instruction to be provided exclusively in partnership with WIOA.

- Providing instruction to non-students as part of HCCTS' partnership with the Volunteers of America, Local 185 Union, Sacramento County Sheriff's Office, and the Sacramento Police Department, violates this agreement.
- The District is issuing the NOV as part of our oversight responsibilities to address the breach of the exclusive partnership agreement and all resulting funds tied to the agreement.

Highlands acknowledges that past practices in the Truck Driving program violated the requirements of our Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act (WIOA) partnership agreement, which stipulates that instruction must be provided exclusively in partnership with WIOA programs. Beginning in 2014, and with the support of prior leadership, non-students were allowed to participate in the program through informal arrangements with outside organizations.

Highlands takes full responsibility for this lapse. Under current leadership, the practice has been ended and corrective steps have been taken to ensure compliance. Specifically:

- A formal investigation was completed by the Director of HR in 2024–25 (Exhibit AM).
- Disciplinary action was taken against an employee.
- A stop notice was issued in December 2024 prohibiting non-student participation (Exhibit AN).
- Between December 2024 and January 2025, Highlands discontinued informal partnerships with Local 185, the Sacramento Police Department, and the Sacramento County Sheriff's Office.
- On January 6, 2025, Highlands officially ended all non-student participation across programs (Exhibit AO).
- The Truck Driving program was suspended and will remain paused until Highlands can ensure full compliance with WIOA requirements, its charter, and the MOU.

These actions have fully cured the issue. Moving forward, Highlands has strengthened oversight of program partnerships, reinforced compliance training for staff, and adopted new safeguards to ensure all instruction aligns exclusively with WIOA requirements. This reflects our commitment to correcting past mistakes, complying with all partnership agreements, and ensuring that every program we operate directly serves only enrolled students.

IV. FISCAL MISMANAGEMENT

A. HCCTS San Diego Location

Engaged in fiscal mismanagement.

- The condominium advertises being able to "watch the ballgame from your balcony" and is the highest priced unit in the facility.
- The decision to engage in this exorbitant real estate transaction, even though students were not in or around the area is questionable.
- Compounding the issue is the fact that the admin facility lacks any direct connection to educational services or student benefit demonstrating a fiscal mismanagement.
- The District is issuing the NOV as part of our oversight responsibilities to ensure that HCCTS address the fiscal mismanagement.

Highlands acknowledges that the decision to lease a condominium office in San Diego was a misstep that does not align with our mission or our responsibility to ensure all expenditures directly benefit students. While the space was briefly used by a remote employee and originally intended to support exploration of expansion opportunities, the location did not provide meaningful educational value. We recognize that this was poor judgment under prior leadership and understand the District's concern that this constituted fiscal mismanagement.

Highlands has since vacated the property and taken corrective steps to minimize the financial impact. We engaged Newmark Realty on March 27, 2025, to sublease the space, revised the listing in June 2025, and remains prepared to accept any commercially reasonable offer. While it is not possible to control the timing of sublease offers, Highlands is committed to recouping as much value as possible and bringing this matter to resolution (Exhibit AP and Exhibit AQ).

This decision reflects mistakes of the past. Moving forward, Highlands has implemented stronger financial controls and multi-level approval processes to ensure that all facility and spending decisions are directly tied to student learning and educational services. These safeguards are designed to prevent similar errors and to reinforce our commitment to fiscal responsibility, transparency, and compliance.

B. HCCS Marysville 2 Location

"engaged in fiscal mismanagement" regarding the allegations listed below:

- HCCTS terminated the lease effective November 30, 2024, with an agreement that obligates HCCTS to continue paying $33,639.80 in lease payments through April 30, 2026.
- HCCTS sold publicly funded equipment (valued at $52,494.34) to the City of Marysville f or $1.00.
- The ongoing lease payments, the disposal of equipment at a nominal price, and the initial misrepresentation of the site's intended use constitute fiscal mismanagement.

Highlands acknowledges that the decision to open and lease the Marysville 2 site under prior leadership was unsound and did not reflect appropriate planning or stewardship of public resources. Entering into the lease and purchasing equipment were poor decisions that created the appearance — and in practice, the reality — of fiscal mismanagement.

In November 2024, Highlands reached a termination agreement with the City of Marysville that ended the lease early (Exhibit AR). While Highlands remains obligated to make lease payments through April 2026, this arrangement resulted in a net savings of approximately $88,000 compared to the original lease terms. The transfer of equipment for $1 was part of the inducement necessary to secure this early termination and avoid further taxpayer losses (Exhibit AS and Exhibit AT).

While this solution limited financial damage, Highlands acknowledges that the initial decision to enter into the lease and purchase equipment without a detailed instructional or operational plan was a mistake. This is an important lesson, and the current administration is committed to ensuring that all future facility decisions are grounded in sound strategic planning, tied directly to student benefit, and compliant with the requirements of MOU Amendment No. 3.

This matter has been resolved to the fullest extent possible given the circumstances created under prior leadership. Moving forward, Highlands has implemented stronger financial controls and multi-level approval processes to ensure that no facility or equipment decisions are made without thorough analysis, transparency, and clear educational purpose. The current administration did not have the ability to prevent or unwind those initial decisions. Instead, our responsibility now is to mitigate losses and resolve the matter as prudently as possible.

Marysville 2 – Lease, Oversight, and Financial Summary Timeline

1. May 1, 2023 – Lease Execution
   HCCTS entered into a lease with the City of Marysville for Bryant Field at $2,000/month with a 3% annual increase. Intended use: CTE training site (landscaping, sports officiating) and community events. (Exhibit AU and Exhibit AV)

2. June 24, 2023 – Sponsorship Event
   HCCTS hosted "Highlands Night at the Ballpark" with approximately 250 attendees. This event was conducted under the $25,000 sponsorship agreement with the Marysville Drakes.

3. March 14, 2024 – First TRUSD Notice of Concern
   TRUSD raised concerns about the site's use, lack of student enrollment, and legality of the $25,000 sponsorship.

4. April 5, 2024 – HCCTS Initial Response
   HCCTS clarified CTE plans, explained the sponsorship as a marketing expense, and explained lease terms.

5. June 17, 2024 – TRUSD Follow-Up Letter
   TRUSD questioned the lease-before-enrollment practice and raised student health/safety concerns due to the site's outdoor-only nature.

6. July 23, 2024 – HCCTS Second Response
   HCCTS reiterated program planning steps, outlined the plan to expand officiating in August 2024, and confirmed indoor fallback at Marysville 1.

7. August 15, 2024 – Third TRUSD Notice of Concern
   TRUSD requested a final decision on the site's future and additional documentation on the sponsorship under Ed Code §47604.3.

8. September 24, 2024 – HCCTS Response
   HCCTS acknowledged staffing issues, stated that they had no knowledge of how the $25,000 was used by the Drakes, and confirmed lease termination discussions. (Exhibit AW)

9. October 16, 2024 – TRUSD Closure of Sponsorship Inquiry
   TRUSD determined no further action was required regarding the sponsorship and asked to be informed of the lease status. (Exhibit AY)

10. November 30, 2024 – Lease Termination Executed
    The lease was mutually terminated. HCCTS agreed to pay $33,639.80 in lease-equivalent payments through April 30, 2026, and transferred $52,494.34 in equipment to the City for $1, with rights to reclaim if HCCTS reuses the site.

11. January 14, 2025 – HCCTS Lease Termination Report
    HCCTS formally confirmed lease closure, financial commitments, and equipment disposition with the right of retrieval.

12. February 19, 2025 – Final HCCTS Report
    HCCTS documented the marketing event ("Highlands Night at the Ballpark"), confirmed equipment transfer, and noted the option to return if CTE programs are re-established. (Exhibit AZ)

13. June 9, 2025 – TRUSD Notice of Violations and Revocation Consideration
TRUSD issued a formal letter identifying alleged violations by HCCTS, including:
- Misuse of public funds for a private baseball team
- Program inactivity during the lease term
- Transfer of $52,000+ in equipment for $1
- Continuation of lease-equivalent payments post-termination

V. Employment of Celebrities & Professional Athletes and Use of Public Funds

The District has asked Highlands to provide additional information regarding past employment arrangements for individuals identified as "professional/celebrity athletes." Highlands has previously shared details on this matter and offers the following to close out all outstanding questions.

Under prior leadership, salaries and job classifications for these employees were not aligned with established job descriptions or salary schedules. Highlands acknowledges that this was a mistake and understands the District's concern.

Since then, Highlands has taken corrective action:

- Job descriptions for the relevant positions were updated and formally approved by the Board.

- Roles were reviewed and reclassified to ensure alignment with board-approved duties and appropriate compensation structures.

- These employees are no longer employed by Highlands as of the 2025–26 school year so this is not an ongoing issue..

Highlands also recognizes that these issues were symptomatic of a broader lack of policies and procedures to govern hiring, compensation, and promotions. To address this, Highlands has engaged Jennifer Lopez Consulting, LLC to conduct a comprehensive review of all related policies, with recommendations due by December 2025. The Board will consider these recommendations to ensure consistent, transparent practices moving forward.

We further acknowledge the State Auditor's finding that the absence of clear policies created the potential for inequity and favoritism. Highlands is committed to fully implementing the Auditor's recommendations and to ensuring that compensation practices are fair, transparent, and aligned with both law and best practice. Recommendations 22 and 23 from the State Audit Report are below, along with our current status of implementation.

Recommendation 22

To ensure that pay is assigned equitably and based on merit and performance, Highlands should implement policies by December 2025 to create a merit-based structure for devising its salary schedules, evaluating staff, assigning salaries and salary increases, and deciding on annual bonus amounts.

HCCTS BP 4111 (Exhibit BA) establishes the requirement for a structured hiring process including screening of candidates, panel interview requirements, and offers of employment. HCCTS Board Policy 4111.2 (Exhibit BB), establishing a structured and equitable promotion process that recognizes demonstrated competence. In alignment with these policies, HCCTS will collaborate with an independent contractor to develop policies and procedures that ensure a fair and consistent pay structure. Additionally, HCCTS has implemented staff evaluations through the third-party platform Frontline, providing a centralized system for storing and referencing all evaluations.

To prevent favoritism and pay inequity, Highlands should, by December 2025, implement a policy to adhere to its salary schedules and not allow executive management to approve increases outside of salary schedule limits.

Currently no employees at HCCTS have salaries that are outside of the salary schedule based on their job description. HCCTS's new Chief Operations Officer (COO) is currently reviewing all salaries to identify and address potential pay inequities and continuing to improve the process of determining starting salaries for all employees. The COO will work with an independent contractor to ensure that a comprehensive set of policies and procedures, including salary schedules and pay increases, is in place and fully implemented by January 2026.

VI. SUMMARY

This response provides evidence that HCCS has either already fully cured or has taken every possible step to cure all of the concerns raised by the District and will continue to vigorously pursue resolution of the few items that are outside of the school's control.

Subject: Request for Evidence

Dear Ms. Warta,

We have prepared the following response to the TRUSD request for evidence regarding the statement of HCCS approval of adding grades 9 and 10 through a non-material revision process.

If you have any additional questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to contact me at 559-217-3901 or via email at bill.mcguire@hccts.org

Thank you,

Grades 9 and 10
Before adding grades 9 and 10, HCCS enrolled students in grades 1, 2, and 12. In the 2018-2019 school year, there was political pressure from the capitol to enroll all students in high school following a misunderstanding that HCCS had 40-year-old students enrolled in first and second grades with children. HCCTS serves adult students aged 22 and older. However, our students were never in classes learning with children. To address this, in the 2020-2021 school year, HCCTS added high school grades 9 and 10.

HCCTS communicated with TRUSD via email and phone about these changes on several occasions. TRUSD Administration strongly encouraged the change to a 9-12 grade span to more accurately reflect the students we serve and would not require a material revision to the charter. While HCCTS does not possess email evidence of this exchange on October 29, 2020, these communications are reflected in the 2019-2020 Annual Oversight Report from TRUSD drafted on July 7, 2020. The report, which was drafted by Francie Heim of School Business Solutions, clearly states: "It should be noted that Highlands serves ages 22 and older. Before 2020-21, Highlands classified students for LCFF funding purposes as K-3 or 9-12. Starting in 2020-21, all students are reported as 9-12 for LCFF funding purposes, generating a higher level of funding (approximately $1,000 more per student.)"

Please see an excerpt from the report below. Attached is the complete report by School Business Solutions, TRUSD Oversight consultant, which was provided to HCCTS in July 2020.

It should be noted that Highlands serves age 22 and older. Before 2020-21, HIghlands classified students for LCFF funding purposes as K-3 or 9-12. Starting in 2020-21, all students are reported as 9-12 for LCFF funding purposes, generating a higher level of funding (approximately $1,000 more per student).

HIGHLANDS COMMUNITY CHARTER SCHOOL OVERSIGHT REPORT

Prepared by Francie Heim, School Business Solutions LLC

This report summarizes the Highlands Community Charter School (Highlands) for 2019-20 school year activities and includes an update on the 2020-21 school year.

Key Data Points	2017-18	2018-19	2019-20
October Enrollment	1,856	1,980	3,336
Socioeconomically Disadvantaged	89.06%	94.70%	92.24%
English Learners	85.88%	87.10%	90.32%

The report will be divided into seven parts and are aligned with TRUSD board policy on charter oversight.

Part 1 Compliance with Legal Requirements (Board Policy)
Part 2 Student Outcomes and LCAP (Board Policy)
Part 3 Fiscal Condition (Board Policy)
Part 4 Key Demographic Data
Part 5 Site Visit Observations Part 6 Summary
Part 7 Appendix

TWIN RIVERS UNIFIED BOARD POLICY
MONITORING CHARTER SCHOOL PERFORMANCE

The Superintendent or designee shall monitor the charter school to determine whether it complies with all legal requirements applicable to charter schools, including making all reports required of charter schools in accordance with Education Code 47604.32. Any violations of law shall be reported to the Board.

The Board shall monitor each charter school to determine whether it is achieving, both schoolwide and for all groups of students served by the school, the measurable student outcomes set forth in the charter. This determination shall be based on the measures specified in the approved charter and on the charter school's annual review and assessment of its progress toward the goals and actions identified in its local control and accountability plan (LCAP).

The Board shall monitor the fiscal condition of the charter school based on any financial information obtained from the charter school, including, but not limited to, the charter school's preliminary budget, annual update of the school's LCAP, first and second interim financial reports, and final unaudited report for the full prior year. (Education Code 47604.32, 47604.33, 47606.5)

ANNUAL OVERSIGHT REPORT 2019-20

PART I

Board Policy:
The Superintendent or designee shall monitor the charter school to determine whether it complies with all legal requirements applicable to charter schools, including making all reports required of charter schools in accordance with Education Code 47604.32. Any violations of law shall be reported to the Board.

Highland states they filed all required reports with their office, and there are no known violations of law. TRUSD states that all required reports have been filed, and there are no known items to report.

The annual independent audit for 2019-20 is an unmodified opinion. The audit report did restate the ending fund balance, with a $78K accounts receivable overstatement adjustment for Highlands and $15 K for CA Innovative Career Academy.

Board Policy:
The Board shall monitor each charter school to determine whether it is achieving, both schoolwide and for all groups of students served by the school, the measurable student outcomes set forth in the charter. This determination shall be based on the measures specified in the approved charter and on the charter school's annual review and assessment of its progress toward the goals and actions identified in its local control and accountability plan (LCAP).

There are limited ways to measure student outcomes for alternative programs as students do not take the Smarter Balanced Assessments taken in traditional K-12 schools. In March 2019-20, the pandemic resulted in limited data collection and suspended the traditional LCAP process.

Highlands does continue to test students regularly with the CASAS test, which is required as part of the workforce investment grant.

The most recent LCAP (2018-19/2019-20) noted the following:

Goal 1: Improve Academic Performance School-wide.

Outcome: We expect our English Learners (EL) students to make significant progress in the Comprehensive Adult Student Assessment System (CASAS) Reading Assessment, our EL reclassification rate to Re-Designated English Proficient (RFEP) to increase, and 50% of our identified high school students to show increase in their CASAS scores in either ELA or Math. We exceeded our metrics in elementary English language development: 58% of our ELD learners have made significant learning gains on the Comprehensive Adult Student Assessment System (CASAS) reading assessment exceeding our goal of 52%. Shifting significant resources to additional para-educators has been highly effective. Highlands exceeded our goal on teacher credentialing because we recruit highly skilled teachers from the UC and CSU systems. They come to Highlands with Master's Degrees and a wealth of teaching experience but need their Designated Subjects Credential. The use of our 'Navigators' to assist transition from EL classes to defined high school level courses.

Goal 2: Improve College and Career Preparedness through increased research based practices and strategies with increased career-technical educational (CTE) opportunities for all students.

Outcome: 65% of our eligible students complete a defined College or Career Pathway. This includes expanding our CTE Pathways, thereby, increasing the number of options available to students. Highlands is committed to students' success and providing opportunities to obtain a livable wage lifestyle. Highlands provides classes in child psychology and parent education. The CTE courses available consist of Truck Driving Class A License, Early Childhood Education careers, Microsoft Suite Certification, A+ Information Technology, Medical Office Training, Medical Assisting, Cosmetology, Manicuring, Entrepreneurship and Culinary Arts.

Goal 3: Increase Student Engagement and Enhance School Climate.

Outcome: Highlands has supported student and alumni achievement by investing in additional para-educators in classrooms and enhanced technology resources. These investments along with other proven investments have allowed our students to exceed our school wide GPA goal of 2.77 to 3.44. Highlands is on course to meet our high school graduation goal of 41%. We exceeded our goal of 60% of non-exempt alumni gaining and maintaining employment with 62%. 19% of our alumni are enrolled in college or post-secondary education which exceeds our goal of 10%. Highlands provides many activities for students to supplement their education by participating in leadership groups on campus. These include: Student Leadership Committee, Budget Committee, Event Planning Committee, English Language Advisory Committee, and the Community Advisory Council.

Goal 4: Increase instructional technology use to improve student achievement and career readiness.

Outcome: The number of our students that now have access or use a computer in their daily life is 87%. We increased our overall number of available student computers to 1:4 ratio. The overall goal is to attain a 1:1 level.

Goal 5: Increase stakeholder and community engagement in the students' education and school and community life.

Outcome: Of the 79% of Highlands' students who have children, 67% are actively parenting. Our expansion of play care programs and summer camp activities provide a rich learning environment while allowing their parents to attend school. Highlands' partners with both Twin Rivers Unified School District and Family Hui program to provide supplemental parent education programs.

LCAP

Education Code 47604.32 requires the charter authorizer to review the LCAP as a part of authorizer oversight duties. The TRUSD team has done a review and provided recommendations to Highlands on changes that should be reflected in a revised LCAP (Appendix D). A summary of the LCAP highlights is shown in Appendix C.

Dashboard Alternative School Status (DASS)

In 2013, California's accountability system significantly changed with the adoption of the Local Control Funding Formula (LCFF). This new accountability system, the California School Dashboard (Dashboard), contains state indicators and standards to help identify a school's strengths, weaknesses, and areas in need of improvement. Because these state indicators and standards were developed for traditional (non-alternative) schools, a different measurement tool was needed for Alternative Schools. The Dashboard Alternative School Status (DASS) program replaces the previously administered Alternative Schools Accountability Model (ASAM) and holds alternative schools and alternative schools of choice accountable for modified methods of measurement for accountability indicators, when appropriate.

Highlands DASS 2018-19

Highlands notes that the decline in graduation rate is due in part to students transferring to the CA Innovative Career Academy charter in order to complete remaining credits under an independent study setting.

Board Policy
The Board shall monitor the fiscal condition of the charter school based on any financial information obtained from the charter school, including, but not limited to, the charter school's preliminary budget, annual update of the school's LCAP, first and second interim financial reports, and final unaudited report for the full prior year. (Education Code 47604.32, 47604.33, 47606.5)

Highlands was financially solvent at the close of 2019-20. The audit report reflects unrestricted net assets of $1.28 M at the close of 2019-20. The level of borrowing is concerning, with $2.6 M in revenue anticipation notes (RANs) outstanding at the close of 2019-20 and a $3 M PPP (Paycheck Protection Program) loan payable. An additional $ 6.6 M in RANs were issued in 2020-21.

The TRUSD business team, with leadership provided by Kate Ingersoll, does a detailed review of Highlands budget, interim reports, audit, and LCAP.

Cash and Borrowing Notes:

- Highlands ended 2016-17 with a zero cash balance.
- In August 2017, Highlands issued Revenue Anticipation Notes, Series A (RANs) for $2,900,000 at 5% interest, maturing on September 15, 2018.
- In 2017-18, Highlands used a factoring agreement ($750 K) for cash flow, at the cost of $22K.
- In 2018-19, Highlands used a factoring agreement ($8.55M) for cash flow at the cost of $424 K.
- In 2019-20, Highlands paid off the factoring agreement.
- In 2019-20, Highlands/CA Innovative Career Academy issued RANs for $7M with net proceeds of $5,065 M. $1.9 M was to pay off a previous factoring agreement. The total cost of issuance is significant, along with 4% interest.
- In 2019-20, Highlands received a $3 M PPP loan at 1% interest and may be eligible to apply for loan forgiveness.
- In 2020-21 (August 2020), Highlands/CA Innovative Career Academy issued RANs for $6.6 M with net proceeds of $6.25 M and 4% annual interest.
- Highlands provided follow-up information indicating the RAN was paid in full in March 2021. Highlands established a $9 M line of credit to utilize for cash flow.

2020-21 SECOND INTERIM MULTI-YEAR PROJECTION SUMMARY

Based on data submitted in March 2021 (Second Interim Budget), Highlands projects to be fiscally solvent in 2020-21, 2021-22,2022-23 with a projected ending balance of $10.6 M in 2020-21 (line 7) at approximately 33% of expenditures. A 33% reserve is a greatly improved ending balance over the 2019-20 5% reserve.

Other Key Data Elements

ADA (AVERAGE DAILY ATTENDANCE)/ENROLLMENT GROWTH OVER TIME

Highlands has grown from 207 students (October 2014 count) to 3,225 students (October 2020 count). Charters are funded based on current year P-2 ADA, a cumulative count of student attendance as of the last full school month ending on or before April 15. ADA is significantly less than ADA.

Due to the pandemic, 2020-21 ADA was frozen at the 2019-20 level with the ability to apply for growth ADA, which is why Highlands increased from 2,001 ADA to 2,550.

Highlands Enrollment ADA Trend
Academic Year	Enrollment	ADA	ADA as % of Enrollment
2020-21	3,225	2,550	79%
2019-20	3,336	2,001	60%
2018-19	1,980	1,446	73%
2017-18	1,856	1,249	67%

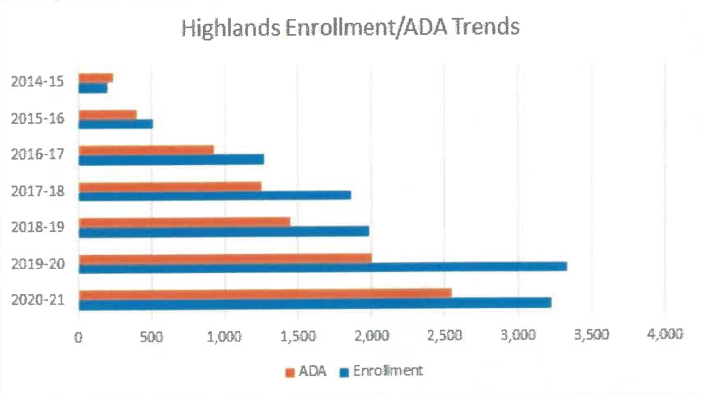
2015-16	518	405	78%
2014-15	207	237	114%



It should be noted that Highlands serves age 22 and older. Before 2020-21, HIghlands classified students for LCFF funding purposes as K-3 or 9-12. Starting in 2020-21, all students are reported as 9-12 for LCFF funding purposes, generating a higher level of funding (approximately $1,000 more per student).

ENGLISH LEARNERS

Highlands has 90% of the population identified as English Learners. A 90% identification rate is higher than TRUSD (33%), Sacramento County (17%), and the State (19%). As noted in the chart below, a significant number of languages are represented in the student population.

PART 5

Site Visit Observations

Murdock Smith is the CEO/Director of Highlands and brings a passion and vision to the charter. Mike Reid is the Chief Operations Officer. Mike will be retiring in June 2021, and a leadership reorganization is underway.

Diana Gonsalves is a new addition to the team, serving as the Director of Fiscal Services. The charter continues to contract with Delta Management Solutions for back-office business support. Highlands is reviewing the possibility of bringing all business functions in-house. As requested in our last oversight report, the charter has added a "fiscal transparency" section to the website, providing budget and interim report updates.

Highlands received an outside consultant report (Terry Bradley, SBC) in May 2020. The report's scope was to review the organizational structure with an emphasis on the business services department. The report also requested a follow-up review of the FCMAT extraordinary audit (May 2018). There were many findings and recommendations, and a summary is provided below:

a) Recognition of the increase in student enrollment and a "healthy" general fund reserve.
b) Recognition of the leadership of Murdock (Doc) Smith and his high visibility in the organization
c) Recognition of the Board of Directors in their trust of the leadership team and holding the team accountable.
d) Improved communication among divisions in the organization was recognized. It was also noted that this is an area of continued focus to improve.
e) The utilization of technology should be a priority throughout the charter organization.
f) Based on interviews of HCCS staff, all 19 internal practices identified in the FCMAT extraordinary audit have been addressed. Staff feels the charter is a better organization due to the FCMAT study and will continue to improve as more systems are developed and implemented.
g) Internal controls need to be in place to ensure that only students 22 years of age or older without high school diplomas can register at HCCS. It should be noted that the October 2019 and October 2020 student counts show no student under the age of 22 enrolled.

The report recommended that further areas of focus/study should be:

Development of a succession plan for HCCS leadership positions.
Review of the existing organizational structure.
Completion of a cost/benefit analysis of establishing a "total" business office operation within the structure of HCCS.

No sites were visited this year due to COVID, but several zoom sessions were conducted with the Charter leadership team, and several classes were visited via zoom. The first meeting with Murdock Smith (CEO/Director), Michael Reid, and Charles Patillo was to establish the protocol and plan for zoom visits. After the class zoom visits, a meeting was held with Murdock Smith, Mike Reid, Katrina Tupper (Director of Instruction and Professional Learning), Niccole Scrogins (Director of Curriculum and Program).

The questions guiding the team discussion are shown in Appendix G. A summary of a year in review with challenges and successes is provided below as noted by the leadership team.

At the start of the pandemic, a distance learning specialist group was brought in to train staff and set the stage for remote learning. For some of the clients, a zoom environment improved attendance. Chromebooks, hot spots, Gmail accounts, were provided to students. "Digital navigators" assisted students and staff with technology. If a student was not in contact for five days, there was outreach to ensure students were OK. Food and clothing closets were provided to assist with other needs.

ADA was determined by google classroom, mobile app, zoom attendance, work submitted, and reading program log-ins. Highlands is considered a school of the district for special education purposes, and special education services are provided by TRUSD.

There were many challenges for teachers in adapting to a Zoom environment, but the success was seeing the great work at the end. The silver lining is the push over the finish line for staff and teachers (and students) on digital literacy (Nicole).

Challenges were the personal hardships, and success was the relationships and connections that were made. The silver lining was creating a system and structures for collaboration, with staff reaching out for more professional development opportunities (Katrina).

Challenge was never taking the foot off the accelerator and pivoting, and the success was creating more pathways for students (Mike).

Success was graduation with 138 graduates in January. Challenges were not receiving COVID funding like traditional school districts. The silver lining was the development of a learning management platform in-house. (Doc).

There were some very specific kudos to the TRUSD team:
Kate Ingersoll for working so closely with Diane Gonsalves and the business office team
Lori Grace for ongoing, consistent communication on COVID to the Highlands team that made them feel very supported by the district.
Kristen Coates for reaching out to ensure good communications with the team.
TRUSD police support, specifically noting an incident with an at-risk student, and the collaboration of the Highland team and TRUSD police department that prevented a potential suicide.

I attended the following Zoom classes:

English Learners	10:00 to 11:00	Tuesday16-Mar	7 students attending
English, History,Govnt	11:00 to 12:00	Tuesday16-March	1 student attending
Math	1:30 to 2:30	Tuesday16-Mar	4 students attending
English	6:00 to 7:00	Wednesday17-Mar	16 students attending
CDL Truck Driving	10:00 to 11:00	Thursday18-Mar	11 students attending
Beg English	11:00 to 12:00	Thursday18-Mar	15 students attending
Algebra (CICA)	5:15 to 6:15	Thursday18-Mar	1 student attending

General Impressions:
Teachers used technology appropriately, with some teachers excelling in providing engaging activities. Students were generally adept at using Zoom and had good connectivity. The English Learner classes were particularly engaging. Many of the students were women with small children, and it was a joy to watch their level of engagement in learning English. As noted previously in the report, attendance has improved since transportation, and child care barriers are no longer issues in a Zoom environment.

SUMMARY

The Highlands team is passionate about its mission and vision and is committed to its students' success. They serve a diverse group of adults, primarily English Learners, under the Workforce Investment Act. The challenges are many. Chronic absenteeism is high at 88.6%, graduation rates are low at 15.3%, and college/career readiness indicators are -0- prepared and 1.6% approaching prepared (2018-19 data).

Our commendations to Highlands for bringing in an outside consultant to review operations and provide recommendations. The report (May 2020) was reviewed as part of this oversight report. The charter has implanted many of the recommendations.

Highlands should be commended for the quick response to align services to students in a virtual environment back in March 2020. As of this report (May 2021), Highlands is still providing services in a virtual environment.

In 2019-20, adequate controls were in place to ensure all students enrolled were age 22 or more.

Highlands has implemented a prior year recommendation that provides for fiscal transparency, with the website posting budgets and interim reports.

Highlands has been creative in partnering with the community on facilities near where the students and community needs are located. Appendix B provides the most current listing of 35 sites.

A stated concern in the past was a lack of cash flow and budget discipline necessary for a growing organization. Highlands has improved its fund balance. They have discontinued expensive factoring agreements used for cash flow. Highlands indicated that in March 2021, they repaid the RANs and acquired a $9M line of credit to utilize for cash flow purposes. They continue to contract with a charter "back office" for financial support but have added staffing in-house to improve financial/budgeting systems. They are projected to be fiscally solvent in 2019-20 and future years.

There continue to be legislative discussions to limit the ability of Charters to serve adults over the age of 22 and receiving LCFF funding. Highlands has been actively working to ensure legislators and others are aware of the impact of their work in the community.

The Accrediting Commission for Schools, Western Association of Schools and Colleges (ACS WASC) Commissioners have determined Highlands Community Charter School (AD - AD) meets the ACS WASC criteria for accreditation and granted a Six-Year Accreditation Status with a Mid-cycle Two-day Visit through June 30, 2025.

PART 7

APPENDIX A HIGHLANDS MISSION/VISION (FROM WEBSITE)

Motto | Vision | Mission

MOTTO: IT'S NEVER TOO LATE!

VISION: TO ERADICATE EDUCATIONAL INEQUALITY.

MISSION:

WE ARE A DIVERSE COMMUNITY FOR SOCIAL JUSTICE, SERVING THE UNSERVED, PROVIDING ACCESS TO EDUCATION, TECHNOLOGY, COMMUNICATION, AND EMPLOYMENT FOR 21ST CENTURY ACHIEVERS. THROUGH COMMUNITY PARTNERSHIPS, WE WILL BUILD NEW LEGACIES LEADING TO SELF-SUFFICIENCY AND GENERATIONAL CHANGE.

SCHOOLWIDE LEARNER OUTCOMES (SLOS):

1. STUDENTS WILL DEMONSTRATE MEASURABLE ACHIEVEMENTS EACH TERM THROUGH ASSESSMENT.

2. STUDENTS WILL MAKE PROGRESS TOWARD THEIR CAREER GOALS.

3. STUDENTS WILL USE TECHNOLOGY TO COMMUNICATE FOR PERSONAL AND ACADEMIC USE.

APPENDIX B

Highlands Community Charter School's main campus is located at 1333 Grand Ave., Sacramento, CA 95838. HCCS students are currently served at 35 locations around the greater Sacramento region.

These sites listed may include jointly utilized California Innovative Career Academy sites.

Per the Charter Petition - All HCCS site are accessible to students by foot, public transportation, or car. HCCS ensures that the facilities align with all building and fire codes for instructional purposes as provided in Education Code Section 47610. In addition, HCCS will alert TRUSD at least 30 days prior to occupancy of every site to be leased, purchased, or controlled by the school for instructional purposes. HCCS will not pursue Proposition 39 facilities from the district.

Greatest Progress

At Highlands, we are proud of increasing services to our unduplicated students by leveraging a variety of funding sources. One of our most creative and innovative services continues to be the deployment of a mobile clothes closet and library which was financed through base funding. Many Highlands students live in poverty and for two years now a free clothes closet was established at our main campus to provide clothes to needy students and their families. Due to the overwhelming success of this project and the high demand for these clothes, and to provide access for students at other sites, Highlands purchased an RV which can now take the clothes to students at all 24 auxillary sites. Additionally, as our students have often indicated their desire for books to read at home, the mobile clothes closet is also a mobile lending library. Students can check-out one book, then exchange it for another at a future date, the books are never overdue. This program was initiated with base funds and is popular with all students. In the next school year, we will continue to expand on this resource to offer free clothes and books to our students.

Another very successful Highlands initiative this year was providing free eye exams and free glasses to 72 of our highest needs students. Highlands applied for a grant through Vision Service Plan called "Eyes of Hope" for those who are in need but can't afford the services. Certificates for a free eye exam and a pair of eyeglasses at any doctor in the VSP network are issued to students identified by their teachers to be in need or "desperate" need of glasses. The results were immediate, these students are empowered to fully participate in class because they now see the Board and read without squinting in their classes.

In response to high-needs students requests for increased access to computers, Highlands secured funds from our Workforce Investment Opportunity Act (WIOA) grant, supplemental and concentration funds to purchase 250 additional student computers. Bringing a 2 year total purchase of 535 student laptops/desktops. These are all pre-loaded with support software or programs for student use. Including Google Chrome, Microsoft Office Suite, Ethernet capability and WiFi available access. This has increased significantly our drive to become a 1:1 student to computer available school.

Last year, we had an identified need to improve the English Language Learner reclassification rates. This year we planned to invest $1,100,000.00 dollars of supplemental and concentration funds to provide para-educators for our students with highest needs . This is an additional $770,000.00 dollars toward classroom assistance. When our local indicators, CASAS scores, and student feedback demonstrated the effectiveness of this strategy, administration allocated an additional $490,000.00 to para-educator salary and benefits. As a result, our actual expenditures outpaced our budgeted expenditures and moreover, our student gains and reclassification rates surpassed our original growth goals. With a particular emphasis on 'literacy rates' improving we are striving for providing intensive in-class assistance. This has proven to be an effective strategy for increasing student success. Investment in para-educators for of our English Language Learners and Socioeconomically Dis-advantaged students has contributed to significant gains throughout our student population. Next year we will continue to provide para-educators as supplemental support for our un-duplicated students.

Last year, we identified a need to improve our 7% CTE participation rate from the 2016-17 school year. This year,we doubled the rate and achieved a 14% participation rate. In addition, we were able to more than double the CTE completion rate of long term students. For the 2016-17 school year, the completion rate was 31%. In the 2017-18 school year the CTE completion rate was 64%, exceeding our goal of 45% completion rate. In the 2018-19 school year, we continued to improve our CTE program as our un-duplicated students rely on this program to prepare them for living wage jobs. At the completion of the 2018-19 school year we reached 48% of our students taking and completing a CTE Pathway.

With regard to other outcomes that were significant to our school's success, we were approved by the Twin Rivers Unified School District's Board of Trustees for a full 5 year re-authorization to continue our work as a charter school. In addition, we went through a full review for accreditation with the Western Association of Schools and Colleges and have been granted a 6 year accreditation (the highest accreditation possible) with a 2 day mid-cycle visit. Additionally, we are still a grantee for the Work Force Investment and Opportunity Act (WIOA for $350,000 annually).

Finally, we have grown from 22 learning sites from the 2018-19 school year to almost 30 available learning sites or partnership locations, thus expanding the opportunity for additional students to access the school either locally or regionally.

Greatest Need

There are 5 areas Highlands will focus attention next year to improve our overall results:
1. Improving CTE participation rate: As a non-college prep-school, we meet Ed. Code § 52060(d)(4)(C) through the number of students who participate in and complete career technical education sequences or programs of study that align with state board-approved career technical education standards and frameworks".
While our school offers a range of CTE programs, we believe we must continue to increase the participation rate.
2. Improving career attainment: By having more students complete our CTE programs through improved instruction and follow up, our graduates should be more equipped to obtain livable wage lifestyle.
3. Improving curriculum and instructional materials: We will continue the process of rolling out a new and improved comprehensive curriculum to promote student learning as well as support teachers through coaching, modeling and professional development. We will also continue to provide supplementary resources to support instruction in response to student requests; moreover, research demonstrates that the quality and availability of the instructional materials is important to how well students learn.
4. Expansion of remedial instruction and intervention: We will expand the use of intervention specialists to target students who need additional academic support. We will offer remedial classes and open a tutoring center to help close the achievement gap by building up basic skills in reading, writing, and math.
5. Increasing our identified 'Cohort Graduation Rate' while decreasing the number of students that would be designated as 'Chronically Absent'.

Performance Gaps

Given the nature of our school, there are fewer internal performance gaps than there are performance gaps between our students and the general population. Most of our students enter the Highlands high school program with academic skills that are significantly below grade level in reading, writing and math. We continue to make remedial instructional opportunities available and plan to stay the course to monitor outcomes associated to academic and career-technical advancement. We have seen a greater number of our identified English Learning students make advancement in leveled instruction as well as 'bridging' into high school.
We are continuing to improve our services for all student groups that have additional needs. Those needs include English learners, low income students, disabled students, former foster youth, ex-offenders and homeless to promote their general academic skills. These services unequivocally close the income gap which nearly all our students face. However, with regard to the 2018-19 State Accountability Dashboard, we still have identified an 87% chronic absenteeism rate, an overall cohort graduation rate of 19% and 0% of our students being

District LCAP TRUSD Review of the LCAP

The charter expressed appreciation to the district for their suggestions and will use the input to improve future LCAPs but did not update the 2019-20 LCAP with the suggested changes below.

Goals, Actions & Services 2019-20

Page 47 - Goal/Action 1.1 has both boxes marked above and below the OR for if the action is Not including or Including to meet increased or improved services for unduplicated students; determine which one it s and eliminate the verbiage in the other section.

Page 50 – is the increased budget from $250,000 to $1,500,000 for 1.3 realistic?

Goal 2 – 2.1, 2.2, 2.3 & 2.4 all say the action is Not including to meet increased or improved services for unduplicated students. If that is the case, then S/C funds should not be used.

Page 78 - is the increased budget from $60,000 to $600,000 correct? If not then an additional $540,000 needs to be added to the LCAP. If it is, is it realistic? And is it above and beyond the base program since S/C funds are being used?

Demonstration of Increased or Improved Services for Unduplicated Pupils

Page 88 - The S/C Grant funds are about $1 million short from the LCFF calculation and what is in the Adopted Budget. The amount should be $5,570,738 and 35.50%.

A list of questions was used with the Charter Leadership teams to guide the Zoom meetings as we discussed 2019-20 and 2020-21 operations.

We last met in January/February 2020, and the world has turned upside down since then. We would appreciate the opportunity to hear from you how this past year has impacted you and your site team.

The following questions will help guide the conversation today and are a suggested guideline for discussion:

Describe how you have delivered services to students this past year?

How have you met other student needs – e.g., breakfast and lunches, social/emotional health, internet resources/support, technology?

Describe how you are returning students to the classroom delivery in the coming months – March through June?

What has been your greatest challenge this past year?

What has been your greatest success?

What has been the greatest challenge for your student population? Teachers' most significant challenge?

How have you measured student success?

What has student "Attendance" looked like this past year?

How have students with special needs (IEP) been addressed?

How do you plan to offer remedial support to students who have not had academic success this past year?

What are you most proud of this past year that you and your team have accomplished?

What are lessons learned? What silver lining has come from the pandemic? Are there learnings from this challenge that will change how you deliver instruction in the future?

RE: Request for Information - Exclusion of 11th Grade and Credit Distribution

Dear. Ms. Valdivia and Board Members:

The Twin Rivers Unified School District ("District") is the authorizing entity for the Highlands Community Charter School ("HCCS") and California Innovative Career Academy (CICA) operated by Highlands Community Charter and Technical Schools ("HCCTS"). HCCTS' educational programs have two main tracks, consisting of a high school diploma and English learner program. The high school diploma program assigns students to grades 9th, 10th and 12th based on units as outlined below:

- 9th Grade: 0-50 Units
- 10th Grade: 51-149 Units
- 12th Grade: 150-200 Units

The District requests information outlining the justification for the uneven assignment of credits in 10th grade and the lack of 11th grade, as would be typical for a high school educational program.

Physical Address: 5115 Dudley Blvd. • McClellan, CA 95652
Mailing Address: 3222 Winona Way • North Highlands, CA 95660
(916) 566-1600 • FAX (916) 566-1784 • www.trusd.net

Action Needed:

- Respond to the District's inquiry regarding the aforementioned items. This includes providing an explanation of the uneven credit assignments between grade levels and the exclusion of 11th grade in the high school program.

The District requests that HCCTS respond to this request for information by no later than 5:00 PM on June 28, 2024. Your responses should be directed to the District for my attention. Thank you for your attention to this correspondence and your anticipated cooperation.

Please contact Sharilyn Warta (sharily.warta@trusd.net) if you need any clarification regarding this information request. Thank you for your attention to this correspondence and anticipated cooperation.

RE: Request for Response Dated August 5, 2024 Relating to 11th Grade

Dear Ms. Carreon:

This is in response to your August 5, 2024 correspondence to Highlands Community Charter and Technical Schools ("HCCTS"). We understand that the Twin Rivers Unified School District ("District"), as the chartering authority for both Highlands Community Charter School ("HCCS") and California Innovative Career Academy ("CICA"), has requested that HCCTS take the following actions:

- The District requests that HCCTS investigate the necessary steps and support needed to add 11th grade to the High School program.

- The District further requests that HCCTS implement the necessary steps to add 11th grade as soon as practical.

HCCS and CICA have been operated by HCCTS since 2014 and 2019, respectively. Both schools serve adults 22 years of age and older in compliance with the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act of 2014 (Pub. L. 113–128, title II, §201.) Both charter documents currently provide for a unique grade level configuration of 1st, 2nd, and 12th grades. Additionally, HCCS and CICA have added grades 9 and 10 to their grade level offerings through a non-material revision to the charter petitions based upon approval of the addition of these grades previously by District staff on October 29, 2020. Upon enrollment, the HCCS charter provides that:

> "Students who are at a high school level (9th through 12th grade) based upon credits and assessment will be assigned to their grade level based upon age. Students who are at a primary school level (8th grade or below) based upon a lack of credits or low assessment > scores, will be assigned to a grade level based primarily upon assessment."

CICA's charter contains identical language pertaining to grade level assignment after enrollment. Neither charter, therefore, currently requires 11th grade. Additionally, the high school curriculum offered by Highlands Community Charter and Technical School and CICA complies with the California Education Code requirements for graduation (Ed. Code §51225.3.)

The educational program of a California public charter school is defined by its charter petition. (Ed. Code §47605.) The educational programs of HCCS and CICA, as defined in the charters, were developed to meet the needs of the unique student population enrolled in both schools. The educational programs, including a grade configuration that does not include 11th grade, was approved by the District and by virtue of this approval found to be a sound educational program. Furthermore, these educational programs comply with the requirements for graduation. (Ed. Code §51225.3.). As such, HCCTS is not legally required to add an 11th grade to the educational programs of either HCCS or CICA.

Although HCCTS does not have a legal obligation so do so, in an ongoing effort to assuage the District's concerns and demonstrate HCCTS' commitment to proper reporting and progress tracking of students and bolstering the educational program of HCCS and CICA to best serve the needs of every student, HCCTS will add an 11th grade as soon as practical to its educational program subject to approval of both the HCCTS Board and the District. In order to plan and implement an 11th grade to the high school program, HCCTS will need to review and analyze both HCCS and CICA's current educational programs, investigate staffing needs and assessment schedules, and train its team on implementation of these changes. As the District is aware, HCCTS is currently responding to a state audit and two separate audits being conducted by representatives of the District, while continuing to operate its two schools and attempting to implement numerous operational changes to satisfy the District and other stakeholders. Therefore, HCCTS does not have the adequate time or staff capacity to plan and implement a new grade within this academic year.

HCCTS takes the advice of the District staff to add an 11th grade seriously and is committed to adding an 11th grade as soon as practical to its educational program. Assuming the District will confirm that the addition of 11th grade is approved as a non-material revision to the charters for both schools with an implementation date of July 1, 2025 or as part of the charter renewal process before our charters expire on June 30, 2027. HCCTS proposes spending the current academic year planning for the 11th grade configuration change and implementing the change to take effect when possible. This would provide HCCTS with adequate time to properly investigate, plan, and implement the addition of the 11th grade to the high school program. Furthermore, this would ensure that there is not a chaotic disruption to the educational program for students in the middle of an academic year and ensure a successful implementation of a new change. HCCTS appreciates the District's willingness to work with us on DASS metrics that will better capture the progress of students enrolling at Highlands given its high levels of immigrant students who often know little English even though they are classified as high school students. Having these metrics in place before adding the 11th grade will also assist stakeholders by ensuring there is reliable data upon which to evaluate student progress.

We hope that this letter fully addresses the District's requests on this matter and we look forward to hearing from you about our proposed implementation timeline and whether the non-material revision is approved by the District. Should you have any further questions in the meantime, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Bill McGuire
Executive Director

Preface

Highlands Community Charter School respectfully submits this charter petition material revision request to the Twin Rivers Unified School District, seeking to continue the effective work of serving students in the District. This material revision is being submitted as the Charter School is requesting the following changes to the charter:

1. Updated Number of Sites
   HCCS requests to maintain 14 sites as detailed in Element P the material revision.

2. Updated Credential Qualifications
   In the 2024-2025 school year, HCCS modified credential requirements for teachers based on a May 2025 update from the CTC and additional guidance communicated by TRUSD. This material revision will align the charter document with our commitment to utilize K-12 credentials rather than adult credentials for its teachers.

3. Proposed Career Technical Education (CTE) Programs for 2025-2026 School Year
   HCCS proposes to operate seven CTE programs in the 2025-2026 school year:
   - Culinary Arts
   - Digital Literacy and Multimedia
   - Early Childhood Education (ECE)
   - Medical Services
   - Microsoft Office Specialist (MOS) Certification
   - Personal Finance
   - Real Estate

4. Addition of Grade 11
   HCCS proposes to add grade 11 in compliance with guidance from TRUSD.

5. Addition of CAST and CAASPP Assessments
   HCCS will test students in both CAST and CAASPP based on guidance from the California Department of Education and TRUSD. While these assessments are intended for students in traditional high school programs, and HCCS serves adults, HCCTS has implemented this assessment to ensure compliance and accountability in its academic programs.

6. Enhanced Curriculum for Improved English Learner Support
   The HCCTS Board has approved the Savvas curriculum for HCCS. Implementation has begun with professional development support from Savvas in alignment with Professional Learning Community (PLC) structures.

7. Lottery Procedures
   HCCS respectfully requests approval to update its current lottery procedures to more accurately reflect the Charter School's existing admission practices. While maintaining full compliance with all applicable provisions of the California Education Code, HCCS seeks to clarify and enhance its written policies and procedures to ensure greater transparency, accessibility, and alignment with the school's mission of serving adult learners. These updates will streamline the admissions process, reflect current operational structures, and better address the needs of the diverse student population.

With TRUSD's approval, HCCS will continue to uphold equitable and compliant admission practices while refining procedures to ensure they are clear, consistent, and supportive of the school's commitment to access and inclusion.

Assurances, Affirmations, and Declarations

As the authorized lead petitioner, I hereby certify that the information submitted in petition for renewal of Highlands Community Charter School ("HCCS" or the "Charter School"), located within the boundaries of the Twin Rivers Unified School District ("TRUSD" or the "District") and outside of the District pursuant to the WIOA exemption to site restrictions contained in the Charter Schools Act of 1992 is true to the best of my knowledge and belief; I also certify that this petition does not constitute the conversion of a private school to the status of a public charter school.

Highlands Community Charter School shall:

- Be nonsectarian in its programs, admission policies, employment practices, and all other operations. (California Education Code (hereinafter "Ed. Code") § 47605(e)(1).)
- Not charge tuition. (Ed. Code § 47605(e)(1).)
- Not discriminate against any pupil on the basis of the characteristics listed in Ed. Code Section 220 (actual or perceived disability, gender, gender identity, gender expression, nationality, race or ethnicity, religion, sexual orientation, or any other characteristic that is contained in the definition of hate crimes set forth in section 422.55 of the Penal Code, including immigration status, or association with an individual who has any of the aforementioned characteristics). (Ed. Code § 47605(e)(1).)
- Admit all pupils who wish to attend Charter School (Ed. Code § 47605(e)(2)(A).) unless HCCS receives a greater number of applications than there are spaces for students, in which case it will hold a public random drawing to determine admission. Except as required by Education Code Section 47605(e)(2), admission to HCCS shall not be determined according to the place of residence of the student or of that student's parent or legal guardian within the State. Preference in the public random drawing shall be given as required by Education Code Section 47605(e)(2)(B)(i)-(iv). In the event of a drawing, the chartering authority shall make reasonable efforts to accommodate the growth of HCCS in accordance with Education Code Section 47605(e)(2)(C). (Ed. Code § 47605(e)(2)(A)-(C).)
- If a pupil is expelled or leaves Charter School without graduating or completing the school year for any reason, notify the superintendent of the school district of the pupil's last known address within 30 days, and shall, upon request, provide that school district with a copy of the cumulative record of the pupil, including report cards or a transcript of grades and health information. If the pupil is subsequently expelled or leaves the school district without graduating or completing the school year for any reason, the school district shall provide this information to the Charter School within 30 days if the Charter School demonstrates that the pupil had been enrolled in the Charter School. (Ed. Code § 47605(e)(3).)
- The Charter School may encourage parental involvement, but shall notify the parents and guardians of applicant pupils and currently enrolled pupils that parental involvement is not a requirement for acceptance to, or continued enrollment at, the Charter School. [Ref. Education Code Section 47605(n)]
- The Charter School shall adhere to each of the conditions in Education Code Section 47605(e)(4)(A)-(D), including: (A) not discouraging a student from enrolling or seeking to enroll in the Charter School for any reason; (B) not requesting a student's records or requiring a parent, guardian, or student to submit the student's records before enrollment; (C) not encouraging a student currently attending the Charter School to disenroll or transfer to another school for any reason; and (D) providing a copy of the California Department of Education ("CDE") notice regarding the requirements in Education Code Section 47605(e)(4)(A)-(D) to a parent/guardian or student if the student is 18 years of age or older: (i) when a parent/guardian or student inquires about enrollment (ii) before conducting an enrollment lottery, or (iii) before disenrollment of a student. [Ref. Education Code Section 47605(e)(4)(A)-(D)]

- Meet all statewide standards and conduct the pupil assessments required pursuant to Education Code section 60605 and any other statewide standards authorized in statute or pupil assessments applicable to pupils in non-charter public schools. (Ed. Code § 47605(d)(1).)
- Consult, on a regular basis, with Charter School's students and teachers regarding the Charter School's educational programs. (Ed. Code § 47605(d)(2).)
- Adhere to all provisions of federal law related to students with disabilities including, but not limited to, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, and the Individuals with Disabilities Education Improvement Act of 2004.
- Meet all requirements for employment set forth in applicable provisions of law, including but not limited to credentials, as necessary. (Title 5 California Code of Regulations § 11967.5.1(f)(5)(C).)
- Ensure that teachers in the Charter School hold the Commission on Teacher Credentialing certificate, permit, or other document required for the teacher's certificated assignment. The Charter School may use local assignment options authorized in statute and regulations for the purpose of legally assigning certificated teachers, in the same manner as a governing board of a school district. (Ed. Code § 47605(l)(1).)
- At all times maintain all necessary and appropriate insurance coverage.
- For each fiscal year, offer, at a minimum, the number of minutes of instruction per grade level as required by Education Code § 47612.5(a)(1)(A)-(D).
- Maintain accurate and contemporaneous written records that document all pupil attendance and make these records available for audit and inspection. (Ed. Code § 47612.5(a)(2).)
- Comply with any applicable jurisdictional limitations to the locations of its facilities. (Ed. Code § 47605; Ed. Code § 47605.1.)
- Comply with all laws establishing the minimum and maximum age for public school enrollment. (Ed. Code §§ 47612(b) and 47610.)
- Comply with all applicable portions of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act ("ESEA'), as reauthorized and amended as the Every Student Succeeds Act ("ESSA").
- Comply with the Public Records Act.
- Comply with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act.
- Comply with the Ralph M. Brown Act.
- Comply with Government Code Section 1090, et seq., as set forth in Education Code Section 47601.1.
- Comply with Political Reform Act, Government Code Section 81000, et seq.
- Meet or exceed the legally required minimum number of school days. (Title 5 California Code of Regulations § 11960.)

Charter School declares that it shall be deemed the exclusive public school employer of Charter School's employees for the purposes of the Educational Employment Relations Act.

Element A The Educational Program

Program Focus: Opportunities for Adult Learners

The Highlands Story
Highlands Community Charter School (HCCS) has been in operation since August 2014 and is one of two public charter schools operated by Highlands Community Charter and Technical Schools. HCCS exists to provide second chances — to serve adult learners aged 22 and older who, for a wide variety of reasons, were unable to earn a high school diploma through traditional pathways.

We serve a uniquely diverse student population, the majority of whom are immigrants and refugees. Some of our students arrive with advanced degrees from their home countries, having previously worked as engineers, teachers, and medical professionals. Others have had little or no formal education and are just beginning to learn to read, write, or speak English for the first time. Our model is built to honor this range of lived experiences — meeting students where they are and helping them reach where they want to go.

HCCS is open to all adult learners over the age of 22 and accepts students according to available capacity and lottery procedures. At our core, we believe that every student — regardless of their starting point — deserves access to a high-quality education, a pathway to a better future, and the unwavering support of a school community that sees their potential.

In July 2025, HCCS entered an era of renewal and accountability under the leadership of Executive Director Jonathan Raymond, former superintendent of Sacramento City Unified. With a sharpened focus on transparency, equity, and academic rigor, we are reimagining what second-chance education can be in California.

Our goal is to urgently rebuild an adult education program on a foundation of institutional integrity and a deep commitment to putting students first in every decision. We are raising standards across the board to implement clear policies for fiscal responsibility, place K-12 credentialed teachers in every classroom, lower class sizes, develop a rigorous and standards-aligned curriculum, enable more professional learning for teachers, and expand access to career training to support workforce needs throughout the regions we serve.

While the school has temporarily cut back staffing and reduced its enrollment capacity as part of program restructuring, it has laid essential groundwork for deep structural change. Every initiative proposed in this revision reflects our commitment to building educational programs that deliver on HCCS's commitment to serving its students, families, and the public.

HCCS has also launched a comprehensive five-year strategic planning process to reimagine how we deliver services and meet the evolving needs of our learners. We are investing in academic excellence, workforce relevance, and a culture of care. With these changes, we believe Highlands can become a statewide model for high-quality adult education that transforms lives.

Mission Statement
HCCS is a diverse community for social justice, serving the underserved by providing access to education, technology, communication, and employment for 21st-century achievers. Through community partnerships, HCCS builds new legacies leading to self-sufficiency and generational change.

Vision
The vision of HCCS is to eradicate educational inequality and promote workforce success.

Executive Leadership
The Executive Leadership at Highlands Community Charter School provides high-quality leadership to create and sustain a meaningful learning environment that supports student academic progress.

Under the direction of the Board, the Cabinet—comprising the Executive Director, Chief Academic Officer, Chief Operating Officer, and Chief Business Officer—develops, implements, and evaluates key school systems and processes, including academic, human resources, finances, assessment, facilities, and accountability.

Leadership Team

Jonathan Raymond, Executive Director
Jonathan Raymond is a nationally respected education leader known for helping institutions navigate moments of deep crisis and emerge stronger, more accountable, and more student-centered. He most recently served as Senior Vice President and Superintendent in Residence at City Year, a national youth development and education nonprofit, where he oversaw education policy and provided strategic guidance to local and national systems working at the intersection of education, equity, and workforce development. As the Superintendent of the City School District of New Rochelle, he led the district through the final stages of the COVID-19 pandemic, investing in whole-child supports, accelerating learning recovery, and strengthening school-community partnerships. His leadership prioritized mental health, expanded after-school and summer enrichment, and delivered resources to students most impacted by the Pandemic.

Prior to that, Raymond served as Superintendent of Sacramento City Unified School District, where he guided one of California's largest urban districts through historic budget deficits, deep structural reform, and the early stages of a statewide shift toward equity-driven education. Under his leadership, the district raised graduation rates, introduced whole-child support, launched early learning and summer programs, and transformed some of its most underserved schools into high-performing campuses — all while navigating one of the toughest fiscal climates in California's history.

Raymond's crisis-tested leadership is grounded in a lifelong commitment to public service. He previously served as Executive Director of the Massachusetts COVID-19 Relief Fund, Chief Accountability Officer of the Charlotte-Mecklenburg Schools in North Carolina, and President of the Stuart Foundation, California's largest K-12 education philanthropy. He began his career as a labor law attorney and brings legal, nonprofit, and philanthropic expertise to every challenge. He is a graduate of the Broad Superintendents Academy, holds a JD from George Mason University School of Law, an MA from The Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy at Tufts University, and a BA from Tufts University. He also completed the Executive Management Program at Harvard Business School.

Throughout his work, Raymond has earned a reputation for putting students first, building trust in fractured environments, and helping systems rise from instability to renewal. As the newly appointed Executive Director of Highlands Community Charter, he brings that same steady hand to a school community that is ready to rebuild and thrive.

Teresa Cummings, Chief Operations Officer
Teresa holds a Ph.D. from the University of Illinois, Chicago, and has worked in the field of education for more than 29 years. Her work as a teacher, administrator, and author of mathematics curricula has spanned the breadth of the education community from PreK-12 through community college and university levels. She has extensive experience in executive-level district administration, as well as research and development for various non-profits, Riverside County Office of Education, and the Stuart Foundation, including co-development of an organizational health review.

Eric Chapman, Chief Academic Officer
Eric Chapman holds a Master of Education from California State University, Sacramento, and has dedicated more than 25 years to the field of education. He began his career as a classroom teacher and instructional coach in the Del Paso Heights School District before moving into school leadership, serving as principal at four sites within Sacramento City Unified School District. In these roles, he led transformative turnaround efforts in literacy, family engagement, and community school models, while guiding schools through continuous improvement cycles, professional learning, and student-centered restructuring initiatives. Since 2008, his leadership has focused on building systems that foster equity, innovation, and academic achievement. Eric now serves as Chief Academic Officer for Highlands Community Charter and Technical Schools, where he directs efforts in career technical education, workforce alignment, and equity-driven systems that expand opportunities for adult learners. Recognized as a mentor and collaborator, he is deeply committed to advancing student success and harnessing the power of schools to strengthen communities.

Matthew Lemos, Chief Business Officer
Matthew Lemos brings more than two decades of leadership experience in finance, operations, and team management across both the education and hospitality sectors. He began his career in the gaming industry, serving as a floor supervisor, pit manager, and head trainer, where he developed expertise in staff development, customer service, and process improvement. Transitioning to the nonprofit and education fields, Matthew has spent the past six years directing financial services for charter schools in California and Nevada. He has overseen multimillion-dollar budgets, compliance with state and federal regulations, and the development of policies and systems that ensure fiscal stability and operational excellence.

Matthew currently serves as Chief Business Official for Highlands Community Charter and Technical Schools, where he provides strategic leadership in finance, operations, and risk management to support the school's mission of preparing career-ready graduates. Known for his strong communication skills, ethical leadership, and collaborative approach, he is dedicated to building sustainable systems that strengthen schools and expand opportunities for students and staff alike.

Melissa Roberson, Director of Accountability and Assessment

Melissa Roberson is the Director of Accountability and Assessment, bringing over a decade of experience in education with a strong foundation in teaching, leadership, and data-driven decision-making. She earned her Master's degree from the University of Southern California in 2016 and went on to serve as a principal for five years, where she championed student outcomes and teacher growth. With a background as an experienced ELD and ESL teacher, Melissa has deep expertise in instructional strategies and supporting English learners. In her current role, she oversees WASC accreditation, state reporting, and manages the relationship with the Twin Rivers Unified School District, ensuring compliance and alignment with school goals. Known for her integrity, student-centered approach, and sharp focus on data, Melissa is dedicated to building systems that elevate teaching and learning for all students.

Mayra Valdivia, Director of School Services

Mayra Valdivia is an educator and administrator dedicated to advancing student success through strategic leadership, community partnership, and program development. She began her career as a high school counselor, supporting students' academic, social-emotional, and career growth, and later served as Lead ELD Counselor, directing programs that expanded services for English learners. She went on to serve as Director of Student Services and Assistant Deputy Director at Highlands Community Charter and Technical Schools, overseeing counseling, student support, and departmental operations while strengthening community partnerships. In 2024, she was appointed Deputy Director of School Services, where she supervises directors, guides program implementation, and represents the organization in legislative and community settings to advocate for policies benefiting students and families. Mayra holds a Master of Science in School Counseling from California State University, Sacramento, and earned her Preliminary Administrative Services Credential in 2024. She has also completed leadership and charter school business officer training through the Charter Schools Development Center. Fluent in English and Spanish, she is a strong advocate for equity and access, committed to expanding opportunities for diverse student populations.

The Population HCCS Desires to Educate

HCCS has the motto "...it's never too late." The school specifically focuses on providing educational opportunities for adults 22 years and older without a US high school diploma who have been unserved or underserved by the traditional educational system. This includes students who were unable to complete high school due to circumstances such as early parenthood, justice system involvement, or economic necessity, as well as immigrants and refugees seeking educational opportunities in the United States. HCCS provides a viable educational choice for adult learners interested in completing their high school education in a supportive environment that recognizes their diverse backgrounds, experiences, and goals.

The school serves students from 89 countries, with the five most represented countries as of the 2024-2025 school year being Afghanistan (5,830 students), Ukraine (1,383), Russia (1,356), Mexico (1,014), and Vietnam (318). This international diversity reflects both global migration patterns and Sacramento's role as a resettlement community for refugees and immigrants.

Student Population Characteristics

Demographics and Geographic Distribution

HCCS enrolls students primarily from Sacramento County, serving a culturally and linguistically diverse population. Women comprise 58.90% of the student body, men 41%, and 0.10% identify as nonbinary. The school serves grades 9-12, with all students being 22 years of age or older.

Language and Cultural Diversity

Approximately 90% of HCCTS students are English Language Learners, though the school also serves English proficient students seeking to complete their education through credit recovery. Based on enrollment data, there are multiple primary languages represented at HCCS, reflecting the diverse countries of origin of the student population. The five most represented countries at HCCS as of Census day for the 2024-2025 school year are Afghanistan, Ukraine, Russia, Mexico, and Vietnam. The table below shows the top five countries of origin for students at HCCS by year for the last three years, along with the number of students enrolled by year for that country.

	2022-2023	2023-2024	2024-2025
1	Afghanistan (2,875)	Afghanistan (3,755)	Afghanistan (5,830)
2	Ukraine (990)	Ukraine (1,305)	Ukraine (1,383)
3	Mexico (920)	Russia (1,239)	Russia (1,356)
4	Russia (634)	Mexico (1,036)	Mexico (1,014)
5	United States (381)	Vietnam (268)	Vietnam (318)

Socioeconomic Status

The overwhelming majority of HCCS students qualify as socioeconomically disadvantaged, with over 97% qualifying for this status in the 2023-2024 census, an increase from the historical 90%+ rate.

Free and reduced lunch eligibility has grown significantly:

Year	Students Eligible for Free/Reduced Lunch
2022-2023	5,690
2023-2024	9,350
2024-2025	11,546

Housing Instability
A significant portion of the student population experiences housing instability:

Year	Enrolled Homeless Students
2022-2023	450
2023-2024	1,584
2024-2025	1,365

Due to the social stigma associated with homelessness, these numbers likely represent underreporting, as many students temporarily staying with friends or family may not identify as homeless.

Student Challenges and Needs

Varied Educational Backgrounds
The educational backgrounds of HCCS students vary dramatically. Some refugee and immigrant students arrive with advanced degrees from their countries of origin and extensive English language experience, while others may have never had formal education and lack literacy in their first language. US-born students typically have experienced interruptions in their education due to various life circumstances.

Multiple Responsibilities
Many students are adults managing multiple responsibilities, including employment, family care, and basic needs. They often lack access to reliable transportation, computer technology, and childcare. Limited free time presents ongoing challenges for academic engagement and completion.

Trauma and Life Experiences
Students frequently arrive having experienced various forms of trauma including displacement, poverty, addiction, homelessness, and incarceration. Ex-offenders face particular challenges re-entering educational settings and often require additional academic and social-emotional support.

Access to Basic Needs
Many students lack access to fundamental necessities including food, appropriate clothing, school supplies, and stable housing. The refugee population faces additional challenges adapting to new customs, culture, and technology while building English proficiency and seeking employment.

Student Goals and Motivations

Students enroll at HCCS with diverse but interconnected goals: improving English language skills, completing their high school education, accessing better employment skills and opportunities, supporting their families, and participating more fully in their communities. For many, earning a high school diploma represents both a long-deferred dream and a critical step toward economic stability and further education. HCCS recognizes that academic achievement must be pursued alongside students' broader life goals, creating pathways that honor both educational attainment and personal aspirations.

Characteristics of an Educated Person in the 21st Century

HCCS holds that an educated person in the 21st century is well-rounded, literate in both academics and the needs of their well-being, and balanced in knowledge of core subjects, communication, career and civic readiness, and the use of technology. In the grades 9-12 high school context, this means students engage in a coherent course of study that builds critical thinking and problem-solving, and helps them act with increasing independence and confidence in academic and professional settings. Our students become empathetic, collaborative members of the community. Through collaboration, they set and pursue personal, academic, and career goals. A climate of mutual trust and support leads students to demonstrate empathy and to engage in respectful, productive communication. Teachers guide students to see themselves as global citizens who are empowered and responsible for making positive changes in their immediate environments and beyond. Accordingly, an educated person in California today is literate in English and able to communicate and function competitively and productively in the workforce, in higher-education classrooms, and in their communities.

Our students seek understanding and peace within multi-age, multicultural classrooms and respect the rights of others to do the same. We support students in developing personal habits for a healthy lifestyle—balancing academics, leisure, work, family, and community. Students who have had limited access to technology learn to use digital tools as a means to succeed in school, work, and civic life.

Our students are scholars who build proficiency in English, Mathematics, Science, and Social Studies/History. As members of the California/ Sacramento community, they communicate effectively and contribute to the world around them. They are prepared to meet the expectations of college classrooms and to engage thoughtfully with new ideas.

Our students are community members who collaborate with others, contribute to projects, and manage and resolve conflicts using the communication tools learned in our classrooms. They are motivated to provide meaningful service and to apply their developing talents in real settings. We send our students into the workforce confident in the skills they have developed and prepared to communicate, collaborate, and contribute.

Our students are citizens of the world who understand the foundations of constitutional democracy, the rights and responsibilities of all, and the importance of staying informed about political, social, and environmental issues. By learning together in diverse classrooms and on our campuses, students deepen their understanding of other political, social, and cultural systems and practice peaceful coexistence.

Our students are members of an increasingly technical and information-based world and are competent, comfortable users of a wide range of technologies. They view technology as an integral part of learning and life and remain open to new tools and approaches as they emerge.

Educational Philosophy and Approach

HCCS supports all adult learners to have agency and to chart the path that will help them achieve their academic vision. We have research-based beliefs about learning in general, learning for adults, and learning for English Language Learners that inform our approach to teaching and learning. Our educational philosophy is grounded in three interconnected beliefs that recognize the complexity and humanity of adult learning. These principles guide every aspect of our instructional design, student support systems, and organizational culture.

Learning Occurs in the Context of Safe and Trusting Relationships

Adult learners, particularly those who have experienced educational trauma or systemic barriers, require learning environments that prioritize psychological safety alongside academic rigor. Trust is not a luxury in adult education—it is a prerequisite for the kind of vulnerable, transformative learning that leads to lasting change.

Trauma-Informed Educational Practices

Many of our students carry the impacts of various forms of trauma, including displacement or systemic oppression. Our approach recognizes that trauma affects learning by impacting memory, concentration, and the ability to take academic risks. We create predictable, supportive environments where students can rebuild their relationship with learning in contexts that feel safe and affirming.

Relational Pedagogy

We understand that learning is fundamentally relational. Students are more likely to engage in challenging academic work when they feel seen, known, and valued by their instructors and peers. Our educators invest time in building authentic relationships with students, learning about their goals, interests, and concerns. This relational foundation allows for the kind of honest feedback and academic push that leads to growth.

Community Building and Peer Support

We intentionally cultivate learning communities where students support each other's growth and success. This includes structured opportunities for peer collaboration, study groups, and mentoring relationships.

Mental Health and Wraparound Services

We recognize that academic success is interconnected with students' overall well-being. Our support systems include connections to mental health resources, basic needs support, and advocacy services that address the systemic barriers our students face. We work in partnership with community organizations to provide comprehensive support that allows students to focus on their learning.

Addressing the Social-Emotional Impacts of Educational Interruption
Students with interrupted formal education often experience complex emotions related to their academic journey, including shame about gaps in their knowledge, anxiety about academic performance, or frustration with the pace of progress. We create learning environments that normalize diverse educational pathways and celebrate the varied forms of knowledge students bring.

Instruction Must Meet Students Where They Are
Meeting students where they are is more than an instructional strategy—it is a fundamental stance that honors the diverse pathways that bring adult learners to our doors. Our students arrive with varying levels of formal education, different cultural approaches to learning, and unique combinations of strengths and areas for growth. This reality requires us to move beyond one-size-fits-all approaches toward responsive teaching that builds on what students already know and can do.

Supporting Students with Interrupted or Inconsistent Formal Education (SIFE)
A significant portion of our student population has experienced interruptions in their formal schooling due to migration, economic necessity, political instability, or family circumstances. These students bring rich life experiences and often sophisticated problem-solving skills, yet they may have gaps in traditional academic content or unfamiliarity with formal educational expectations. We reject deficit-based approaches that focus on what these students lack, instead building comprehensive support systems that honor their strengths while addressing their specific learning needs.

Our approach to supporting SIFE students includes intensive foundational skill development alongside grade-level content engagement, recognizing that these students need both remediation and acceleration. We provide explicit instruction in academic literacy skills—including how to navigate textbooks, online curricula resources, take notes, and engage in classroom discussions—while maintaining high expectations for critical thinking and complex problem-solving.

Asset-Based Assessment and Instructional Design
We begin by understanding each student's full educational profile, including formal schooling, work experience, community involvement, and self-directed learning. This comprehensive view allows us to design learning experiences that connect new knowledge to existing understanding while addressing genuine learning needs. Rather than focusing on deficits, we identify the multiple entry points through which students can engage with rigorous academic content.

Flexible Pathways and Differentiated Support
Meeting students where they are means creating multiple pathways through our curriculum that allow for different paces, learning styles, and life circumstances. Our new curriculum, which covers all disciplines, allows teachers to alter the reading level of the text to meet the student at their level and provide translated background text and videos that build background knowledge to enhance ELLs access to the core grade-level curriculum and the grade 9-12 California State Standards. This includes offering content in various modalities, providing choice in how students demonstrate their learning, and designing support systems that accommodate working adults with family responsibilities and other commitments.

Diagnostic and Responsive Teaching
Our teachers continuously gather information about student understanding and adjust instruction accordingly. This goes beyond initial placement to include ongoing formative assessment that reveals how students are making sense of new concepts and where additional support or challenge is needed. We create learning environments where struggle is normalized as part of the learning process, and where students receive the specific feedback they need to move forward. See more about this in the professional development section.

Cultural and Linguistic Responsiveness
Meeting students where they are requires a deep understanding of the cultural frameworks and prior educational experiences that shape how students approach learning. We work to understand not just what students know, but how they know it—the cultural tools and ways of thinking they bring that can be leveraged for new learning.

Effective Adult Learning Requires Agency and Relevance
Adult learners bring intrinsic motivation and clear goals that can be powerful drivers of academic success when properly leveraged. Our role is to create learning experiences that honor students' autonomy while providing the structure and support they need to achieve their educational objectives.

Self-Directed Learning and Goal Setting
We work with students to identify their short-term and long-term goals and help them understand how their coursework connects to these aspirations. This begins in orientation, where they learn the pathways and requirements so that students can make informed decisions about their academic path. Students participate in setting their own learning objectives within the framework of academic standards, and they regularly reflect on their progress toward these goals. This self-direction increases engagement and helps students develop the metacognitive skills essential for lifelong learning.

Choice and Flexibility in Learning
Adult learners thrive when they have options in how they engage with content and demonstrate their learning. We provide multiple ways for students to explore topics of interest, pursue individual research projects, and showcase their growing knowledge and skills.

Real-World Connections and Application
Learning feels most relevant when students can see immediate applications to their lives and goals. The curriculum we use has many opportunities to connect academic content to contemporary issues, workplace skills, and community engagement opportunities. Students might analyze historical patterns to understand current social issues or conduct scientific investigations related to health or environmental concerns in their communities.

Career and College Integration
We explicitly connect academic learning to students' career and college goals, helping them understand how the skills they're developing will serve them in future educational and professional contexts. This includes developing academic habits of mind, communication skills, and critical thinking abilities that transfer across contexts.

Student Voice and Feedback
Students have regular opportunities to provide feedback about their learning experiences and suggest improvements to courses and programs. Please see the student survey section below for more detailed information. We view students as partners in the educational process, recognizing that their insights about what supports their learning are essential for continuous improvement. This feedback loop helps students develop advocacy skills while ensuring our programs remain responsive to their needs.

Ownership of Learning Outcomes
We support students in developing the ability to assess their own learning and set goals for improvement. This includes teaching students to use rubrics, reflect on their growth over time, and identify specific strategies that support their success.
These three foundational beliefs work together to create learning environments where adult students can achieve their educational goals while developing the skills, knowledge, and confidence they need for continued success in their academic, professional, and civic lives.

Foundational Research and Theories Supporting Our Approach

Adult Education Learning Theories
HCCS applies research-based adult learning theories to design educational programs that recognize adult students have different needs than traditional K-12 students. The school incorporates adult learning theories, differentiated instruction, and student-centered approaches to meet diverse learner needs. Malcolm Knowles' foundational research (1980) identifies key differences between adult and child learners: adults are self-directed, bring rich life experiences, are problem-oriented, and are motivated by internal factors. Patricia Cross (1981) emphasizes that adult learners are typically voluntary participants who may feel insecure about learning but are motivated to solve real-world problems. Cross identifies multiple motivation sources, including personal achievement, social factors, and career advancement.

Sociocultural Theories
According to Sociocultural Theory (SCT), social interaction is the foundation of all learning (Walqui, 2008). Sociocultural perspectives in language acquisition emphasize real-world participation with authentic language and activities that occur in everyday life (Zuengler & Miller, 2006). Some of the primary assumptions of Sociocultural Theories are that learning occurs before development, that language is the primary tool for thought (Mitchell, Myles, & Marsden, 2013), that writing and speaking are connected (Lightbrown & Spada, 2012), that mediation is essential to learning (Walqui, 2008), and that concept-based instruction aids learning (Mitchell, Myles, & Marsden, 2013).

The Zone of Proximal Development (ZPD) and Scaffolding are two very important concepts in Sociocultural Theory. The ZPD is the stage in which the learner can advance as a result of support (scaffolding) that's provided to them by an interlocutor (Lightbrown & Spada, 2012). Scaffolding is defined as, "a process of setting up" the situation to make the student's entry easy and successful and then gradually pulling back and handing the role to the student so that the student becomes independent enough to handle it (Walqui, 2008). For example, in traditional Sociocultural Theory meaningful interactions take place between an expert (teacher) and a novice (student), where the expert provides the learner with scaffolding during the learner's ZPD.

Differentiated Instruction

Each student arrives at a different level, with unique learning styles, interests, and abilities. Recognizing this diversity, differentiated instruction is utilized to ensure the needs of all students are met. Differentiated instruction (also known as differentiated learning) is a teaching framework in which the teacher works to simultaneously address the diverse learning needs of all students in one class (Maloy, Verock-O'Loughlin, Edwards, & Woolf, 2013). It is commonly used in multi-level classrooms to meet the needs of students with special educational needs, English language learners, and with students who are advanced or in talented and gifted programs. It allows students the opportunity to learn through various avenues, and each student has different expectations based on learning styles and abilities.

According to the U.S. Department of Education's Literacy Information and Communication System (2012), differentiated instruction engages students at a range of different levels with various learning styles and makes learning meaningful for students at every level. According to Carol Ann Tomlinson (2003), differences in student learning exist in four categories: readiness (prior knowledge), interest (curiosity), learning profile (formal or informal), and affect (self-regard). Before teachers can differentiate their lessons, teachers must understand their students' levels, abilities, learning styles, interests, strengths, and challenges (Corley, 2005).

Content-Based Instruction (CBI)

CBI is particularly critical for high school English Language Learners because it addresses the dual challenge of mastering academic content while developing the academic language skills essential for school success. By embedding language development within meaningful content learning, CBI creates authentic contexts for language use, builds subject-specific vocabulary, and prepares students for college-level coursework. Research shows this empowering approach encourages learners to become independent, continuing their language development beyond the classroom while simultaneously meeting rigorous academic standards required for high school graduation and post-secondary success.

For students developing foundational language skills such as reading and writing, context plays a critical role in supporting both language and literacy development. Content-Based Instruction (CBI) provides context-rich materials through the curriculum, offering meaningful opportunities for students to build language skills while engaging with relevant academic topics. One of the most critical challenges we face is the persistent and widening vocabulary gap, which can significantly impact the academic progress of learners across all age groups. CBI addresses this challenge.

Supporting our English Learner Population

As a charter school exclusively serving students over the age of 21, the English assessment requirements of federal and state law applicable to students aged 3 through 21, as defined by Education Code section 306, do not apply to HCCS.[1] Almost all of the students at HCCS are classified in CALPADS as adult English Language Learners or ADELs. Therefore, HCCS students do not take the English Language Proficiency Assessments for California (ELPAC) or appear in the California Dashboard for purposes of the English Language Proficiency Indicator (ELPI). HCCS goes to great lengths to serve the needs of our English Language Learners.

Language learning for adults can differ from traditional models of education. It is deeply personal work that builds on the rich linguistic and cultural assets that students bring with them. Because compulsory education requirements do not apply to adult students, myriad factors constantly pull them away from their educational goals. Our approach to supporting English Language Learners recognizes that language acquisition happens most effectively when it is meaningful, relevant, and connected to students' lived experiences and goals.

At HCCS, we understand that our students are not empty vessels waiting to be filled with English. They are accomplished individuals who have navigated complex systems, often in multiple languages, and bring sophisticated problem-solving skills and cultural knowledge that enrich our entire learning community. Our role is to create learning environments where students can leverage these strengths while building academic and professional English proficiency.

Our approach to English language learning is grounded in several research-informed principles that guide our instructional design and student support:

Language and Content Learning Are Interconnected.

Research consistently shows that students learn language most effectively when it is embedded in meaningful, content-rich contexts (see CBI explanation above). Our integrated approach ensures that students are simultaneously building language skills and engaging with rigorous, standards-aligned academic material relevant to their goals.

Students' Home Languages Are Resources, Not Barriers.

Multilingualism is an asset that enhances cognitive flexibility and cross-cultural communication skills. We create space for students to use their full linguistic repertoire as they build English proficiency, recognizing that translanguaging—the fluid use of multiple languages—is a natural and effective learning strategy. We also believe that our students bring life experience, motivation, and clear goals that can accelerate their learning when properly supported.

[1] Education Code section 306, section (a), defines "English learner" for ELPAC and ELPI requirements by incorporating the definition of 20 U.S.C. 7801 (20)(A), i.e. "the term 'English learner', when used with respect to an individual, means an individual who is aged 3 through 21."

Authentic Assessment Drives Responsive Instruction.
We move beyond standardized measures to develop assessment practices that capture the full range of our students' growing capabilities. This includes portfolio-based assessments, project-based demonstrations of learning, and self-assessment tools that help students track their own progress toward their goals.

Language Assessment Upon Enrollment

As a WIOA partner, HCCS assesses all students during the admissions process and monitors their progress through CASAS testing. The first assessment, administered during registration, is the placement exam, which evaluates students' reading, writing, listening, speaking, and grammar skills. This exam is scored with an internally developed rubric.

During orientation, students also complete CASAS reading and listening assessments. CASAS provides standardized progress testing designed to measure learning along a continuum, from beginning literacy and English language acquisition through the completion of secondary-level skills. Several test series monitor student progress, with difficulty levels ranging from below Level A through Level E. Administering CASAS at enrollment establishes a baseline, followed by post-testing after 70–100 hours of instruction to track student progress over time.

If a teacher determines that a placement is inaccurate, a reassessment may be requested. If the reassessment results in a different level placement, the placement team updates the student's record in PowerSchool and informs the teacher of the revised placement.

The placement rubric is updated annually based on teacher and student feedback. Updates are shared with the curriculum team to confirm alignment with HCCS level objectives. Any additional feedback is integrated before the rubric is finalized for use in the upcoming school year.

Reclassification
As an exclusively adult-serving charter school, HCCS serves English Language learners who must be designated in CALPADS as Adult English Language Learners (ADEL). ADEL students do not participate in ELPAC testing and do not appear as English Language learners on the California Dashboard for purposes of the English Language Proficiency Indicator (ELPI). We track and report ESL advancement as determined by CASAS testing.

Enrollment and Class Size to Support Learning Goals
Enrollment at Highlands Community Charter School has increased each year since its opening. In the 2021–2022 school year, enrollment was 3,751; in 2022–2023, enrollment rose to 6,749; and in 2023–2024, enrollment grew again to 9,069 students, according to the DataQuest census day snapshot. By the end of the 2023–2024 school year, HCCS experienced a significant increase in enrollment and heavily impacted classes. Teachers reported that students were often unprepared with essential skills, and frequent roster changes disrupted instruction. In response, the enrollment process was revised for the 2024–2025 school year to better prepare students and support more strategic class planning. In the 2024-2025 school year new students were enrolled on a biweekly basis rather than continuously throughout the term. Orientation was also updated to include study skills, academic planning, and CASAS assessments.

Five-Year Enrollment Rollout Plan
HCCS has dramatically reduced its enrollment due to updated credential requirements for teachers. As a result, HCCS has recently laid off 631 employees (teachers who only possess an adult education credential as well as staff that would support these teachers and the students that they serve).

Although we currently have over 2,700 students on a waitlist waiting to enroll, the school needs to rebuild its capacity to serve them. For the 2025-2026 school year, HCCS currently has approximately 1,000 students enrolled and plans to increase growth at a reasonable pace over the following four fiscal years as it hires and/or trains additional K-12 credentialed teachers. The five-year enrollment rollout plan is as follows:

Year	Number of Students
2025-2026	1,000
2026-2027	1,100
2027-2028	1,210
2028-2029	1,331
2029-2030	1,464

In the 2024-2025 school year, HCCTS adopted a Class Sizes and Enrollment Board Policy (6151BP) which stated that, “While California does not mandate class size limits for grades 9-12, HCCTS recognizes the importance of maintaining class sizes that promote a productive learning environment, reduce teacher workload, and enhance student engagement. Optimal class sizes are essential to support personalized instruction, improve student outcomes, and foster academic success. The Board of Directors, in consultation with the Executive Director, will establish appropriate class size limits that align with HCCTS’ instructional goals and student needs.” For the school year 2025-2026, class sizes are set at 30-1.

Class Size Guidelines

- Student-to-Teacher Ratios: Class sizes will be managed to ensure student-to-teacher ratios that support personalized instruction and academic success.

- Program-Specific Adjustments: Class sizes may vary depending on the nature of the program (e.g., independent study, bridge programs, or high school completion).

Enrollment Management

● Enrollment Caps: Each classroom will have an enrollment cap aligned with physical capacity and instructional goals.
● Monitoring and Rebalancing: HCCS Principals will regularly monitor enrollment and class sizes, making adjustments as needed to maintain educational quality and compliance with capacity guidelines.

● Cross-Reference with Physical Capacity: Class sizes and enrollment numbers will be managed in coordination with physical capacity limits as outlined in BP 7110 Physical Classroom Capacity to ensure compliance with Fire Marshal regulations and building codes.

Impact on Instruction and Student Outcomes

● Teacher Workload: Class size limits will be established to reduce teacher workload and promote effective instruction.

● Student Engagement: Class sizes will be prioritized in courses requiring intensive instruction or student participation.

Admission Process
HCCS has introduced a comprehensive admission process to better prepare and place incoming students. This process includes registration, grade level placement, an overview of student expectations and services, and covers any technology-related needs. This enhanced enrollment process ensures students are fully supported from registration to their first day, setting them up for success at HCCS.

Goals of HCCS Program and Student Learning Outcomes

HCCS has three Schoolwide Learner Outcomes (SLO):

- Academic Growth: Students demonstrate measurable achievement each term through standards-aligned assessments and performance tasks.
- Career Progress: Students make documented progress toward individualized education, workforce skill development, and career goals.
- Digital Communication: Students use technology effectively and responsibly for personal, academic, and workplace communication.

Many of our learners enter HCCS with significant gaps in English language proficiency, academic skills, communication, and technology use. These SLOs are designed to close those gaps and set students on a path to long-term college, career, and community success. To make this real in classrooms, and to build a bridge to content standards, we embed Integrated English Language Development supports within the facilitation of learning across all content areas. We monitor progress through course and credit completion, common formative assessments, and CASAS progress monitoring data.

By offering adult education to learners 22+ who have not yet earned a U.S. high school diploma, we work to reduce educational inequity. Our programs are centered around K-12 state standards shaped by the needs of our students and community, and grounded in a commitment to equity and social justice. We emphasize technology fluency, workforce readiness, and supportive services that remove barriers to learning so students can persist and complete. At HCCS, we believe in our students, we believe in our community partners, and we believe that it's never too late.

The Instructional Leadership Team: Stewards of HCCS's Academic Goals
The goals of the HCCS program are created and supported by the Instructional Leadership Team (ILT), a cross-functional leadership team. The ILT is comprised of the CAO, the principals, teacher leaders, Director of Professional Learning, Director of CASAS testing, and Director of Curriculum. The ILT meets every other week to ensure that HCCS is meeting its academic goals by analyzing student learning data and designing professional learning support that responds to these data as well as to teacher-reported needs. The ILT works to create coherence across our goals and accountability requirements to support teachers in understanding how these efforts overlap and form our core goals.

Common Core Standards
HCCS is committed to providing a rigorous, standards-based education that meets the unique needs of adult English language learners while ensuring students progress toward California State Standards across all subject areas. Our curriculum design and instructional practices are systematically aligned with the California Common Core State Standards for English Language Arts and Mathematics, the Next Generation Science Standards, and the California History-Social Science Standards. We integrate English Language Development (ELD) standards with content area instruction, utilizing sheltered instruction strategies and culturally responsive teaching practices that honor students' diverse linguistic and cultural backgrounds. Teachers employ scaffolded approaches to make grade-level content accessible, incorporating visual supports, collaborative learning structures, and native language resources when appropriate to support comprehension and academic language development. Through regular assessment of both English proficiency growth and content mastery, we continuously monitor student progress, adjusting instruction to meet learners where they are while maintaining high expectations for academic achievement.

Core Subjects
HCCS offers students access to an A-G curriculum in English Language Arts, Mathematics, Science, History/Social Studies and electives.

English Language Arts
The English Language Arts courses guide students through a progressive sequence from foundational grammar and language skills to advanced writing, research, and literary analysis. Rooted in Common Core standards, the curriculum emphasizes critical thinking, effective communication, and collaboration. Students engage with diverse fiction and nonfiction texts from various cultures centered on Social-Emotional Learning themes, developing skills in reading comprehension, argumentation, and narrative writing. The program culminates in advanced coursework focused on research proficiency, source evaluation, and multimedia presentations, preparing learners for academic success and professional communication.

Mathematics
The Mathematics courses build foundational skills through a sequence aligned with California Common Core standards, beginning with Pre-Algebra and progressing to Algebra 1 and Geometry. Students develop proficiency with key concepts such as fractions, decimals, ratios, proportions, equations, and basic geometry. Emphasis is placed on applying mathematical reasoning to real-life contexts like financial calculations and problem-solving. The curriculum fosters critical thinking and the ability to represent mathematical situations numerically, graphically, verbally, and symbolically, preparing students for success in advanced math courses and everyday life.

History-Social Science
The History-Social Science courses provide students with a comprehensive understanding of civics, U.S. history, world history, government, economics, and ethnic studies. Instruction integrates literacy and critical thinking, connecting academic content with learners' personal and community experiences. Students explore foundational principles of democracy, historical events, cultural diversity, and economic systems, emphasizing analytical skills through document analysis and inquiry-based learning. The curriculum prepares students to engage as informed citizens, fostering cultural awareness, social justice, and active participation in society.

Science
The Science courses offer foundational courses in Earth Science and Life Science, fulfilling graduation requirements while building scientific literacy and critical thinking. Earth Science introduces students to the dynamics of Earth and space systems, climate, natural phenomena, and human environmental impact. Life Science covers biological concepts such as chemistry, biodiversity, population dynamics, genetics, and environmental interactions. The curriculum emphasizes conceptual understanding and real-world application of scientific principles.

Visual and Performing Arts
The Visual and Performing Arts courses introduce students to fundamental concepts in stage performance, music theory, and vocal technique. Courses cover stage presence, character development, and the structure of the music industry, alongside foundational music theory, history, and vocal training. Students develop confidence and skills for performance and gain an understanding of music's cultural significance, preparing those interested in careers in music, theater, or entertainment.

Electives
The Electives program offers diverse opportunities for students to develop critical reading, communication, and public speaking skills. Courses like Reading for Pleasure foster a love of reading through engagement with socially relevant themes, enhancing comprehension and analytical abilities. Public Speaking electives build students' rhetorical knowledge, speech planning, and presentation skills while promoting ethical communication and confidence. These courses enrich students' academic experience and prepare them for effective expression in various personal and professional contexts.

English for Work and Life Series
The English for Work and Life Series of courses supports students at all stages of English acquisition, from emerging literacy to intermediate fluency. Courses focus on building foundational language skills through systematic instruction in phonics, vocabulary, grammar, and real-world communication. Students progress from recognizing letters and sounds to composing organized paragraphs and participating in workplace and academic conversations. Through engaging, high-interest content and digital literacy tasks, learners gain the language and confidence needed to succeed in academic, personal, and professional settings.

Curriculum

HCCTS recently engaged in a curriculum adoption process to procure Savvas, a standards-aligned curriculum for HCCS courses. We followed an articulated adoption process and received guidance from our UMass Global credentialing partner who had extensive experience with curricular materials that best serve ELLs. Our process involved reviewing materials utilized by other surrounding school districts as well as following recommendations by EdReports in order to understand the best options for our context. We engaged in vendor demos, received teacher feedback around our top choices, and delivered our final proposal to the board of directors for approval.

The HCCTS board approved the adoption of the Savvas curriculum in August 2025. There were many elements that led to this choice including a single user-friendly platform for both teachers and students, and a high rating on EdReports. The curriculum is also used by Twin Rivers

Unified School District, Elk Grove Unified School District, and Los Angeles Unified School District. In order to support teachers to gain familiarity and comfort with the new curriculum, the start of classes was extended until August 14th and teachers met in professional learning communities (PLCs) to build their knowledge of the standards-aligned curriculum. Our contract with Savvas includes access to both an online digital curriculum and to teacher edition textbooks and student workbooks.

Supports for English Learners Level 0-1

ABCEnglish
A curriculum provided by an external agency, ABCEnglish offers literacy-level lessons ideal for students who are new to learning English. Lessons are presented through accessible slides and worksheets designed for classroom delivery.

Burlington English
An online English language learning platform offering both teacher-led lessons with presentations and printable materials, as well as self-paced student lessons accessible by phone or computer. The program integrates reading, writing, listening, and speaking skills, and includes thematic content, short stories, citizenship, and Workplace English and CASAS practice modules.

EL Civics Curriculum
In-house developed theme packets intended to support English Language Learners with English language acquisition, civic participation, and workforce skills. Aligned to ESL objectives from CASAS and NRS ESL levels.

Understanding Learning: Using Student Assessments to Support HCCS Goals

We employ multiple forms of assessment to monitor student progress and inform instruction:

- Formative Assessments: These include ongoing evaluation through teacher observation, projects, presentations, and performance tasks.
- Summative Assessments: End-of-unit and semester evaluations measuring mastery of learning objectives. These assessments are part of the core curriculum.
- Portfolio Assessments: Student-led self-assessment using assignments of choice to demonstrate learning in students' focal areas. The ILT is currently mapping the implementation of the portfolio project.
- Student Surveys: Self-perception data helps us to understand the student experience.
- CASAS testing: Comprehensive Adult Student Assessment System, a competency based adult assessment program validated by the U.S. Department of Education for use in adult education conducted after 70-100 hours of instruction time. The assessment is administered every 6-8 weeks.
- CAST: California Science Test, a state assessment mandated for those in high school.
- CAASPP: California Assessment of Student Performance and Progress, a state assessment mandated for those in high school grade 11.
- EL Civics Assessments

Administered 3 times per program year

- ELD Level Placement Test
  Upon enrollment
- ELD Level Exit Test
  Administered to determine readiness to advance to the next ELD level

Professional Development Supporting HCCS Goals

High-quality professional learning is about creating a learning system. It is more than training staff in best practices; it is about creating a culture of curiosity that acknowledges the uncertainty inherent in teaching and learning. Central to our revised professional learning program is creating a practice of inquiry at the leadership level that focuses its interest on the practitioners working most closely with the students. What are teachers learning about their students' learning? Where are teachers' gaps in knowledge and capacity? These are the questions that inform the design and goals of the professional learning offerings.

HCCS leadership works in partnership with HCCS principals and teacher leaders through the ILT to take a partnership approach to designing professional learning. There are several core beliefs about practitioner-based learning that informs the HCCS approach to professional learning:

- Teaching is complex and uncertain work that requires an inquiry stance to ensure that students' needs are being met.
- Agency and relevancy are guiding drivers for adult learners; being able to articulate their own goals and see where they are on the path to achieving those goals is essential for adult learners.
- For instruction to be changed and improved, the learning experience of students must be public (not hidden away).
- Educators (teachers and leaders) are professionals engaged in important work, and they deserve a level of professional support and care that takes their work seriously.
- Pursuing collective goals is essential to supporting systems transformation

Professional Development Focusing on Language Acquisition
Central to HCCS professional development is continuously developing strong instructional strategies to meet the needs of our ELLs. Supporting English Language Learners effectively requires ongoing professional learning and reflection. All HCCS educators engage in continuous inquiry about how to better serve our multilingual learners.

Language-Responsive Teaching Practices
Our professional learning focuses on developing instructional strategies that make content accessible while maintaining high expectations. This includes training in visual supports, collaborative learning structures, and formative assessment techniques that help teachers understand what students know and can do.

Cultural Responsiveness and Asset-Based Thinking

We work to examine our own assumptions about language learning and ensure that our instructional practices build on students' cultural and linguistic strengths. This includes learning about our students' educational backgrounds and understanding how different cultural approaches to learning can inform our teaching.

Data-Informed Decision Making

As part of our inquiry-based PLCs, we develop systems for collecting and analyzing data about student language development that go beyond test scores. This includes documentation of student growth in academic discussions, writing development over time, and students' own reflections on their learning progress through portfolios.

Our commitment to English Language Learners extends beyond language acquisition to encompass the full development of students as confident, capable learners who can succeed in their chosen academic and professional pathways. Ultimately, we measure our success not just by English proficiency gains, but by our students' ability to use their multilingual skills to contribute meaningfully to their communities and achieve their educational goals.

HCCS Professional Learning Structures

There are multiple existing structures that support professional development at HCC for teachers and leaders.

Friday Professional Development Sessions

Our bi-weekly Friday afternoon professional learning sessions are designed as both collaborative inquiry spaces where educators engage in job-embedded learning directly connected to their daily practice, and also an opportunity to receive specialized instructional support that they or the Instructional Leadership Team has requested. These sessions follow a flexible structure that can shift between collective inquiry—examining student work and learning data to collaboratively problem-solve around specific instructional challenges—and targeted professional development that addresses identified needs such as trauma-informed pedagogy, advanced strategies for supporting students with interrupted formal education, or innovative approaches to integrated content-language instruction.

Teachers work in cross-disciplinary teams when engaging in inquiry cycles, analyzing how their students are navigating rigorous academic content and sharing effective practices for maintaining high expectations while providing comprehensive support. When focused on specialized instruction, sessions might feature expert facilitators, peer observations with feedback, or deep dives into research-based strategies that teachers have specifically requested to strengthen their practice. This dual approach ensures that professional learning is both responsive to emerging classroom needs and proactive in building the specialized expertise our diverse adult learner population requires, while maintaining our commitment to practitioner-centered learning that directly impacts student success.

Bi-Monthly Principal PLC

Leading is complex and uncertain work, and HCCS supports its two principals in PLC sessions led by the Chief Academic Officer. This principal learning community operates as a space for collaborative problem-solving where school leaders can examine challenges, share effective practices, and develop coordinated approaches to supporting their unique adult learner populations. Sessions focus on analyzing school-level data to understand how students are progressing toward their educational goals, discussing instructional leadership strategies that support teachers in serving English Language Learners and students with interrupted formal education, and developing systems-level responses to emerging needs within their school communities. The Chief Academic Officer facilitates these meetings using the same inquiry-based approach that guides teacher professional learning, encouraging principals to bring real dilemmas from their practice, examine multiple perspectives, and test solutions collaboratively. This structure ensures that leadership decisions are grounded in evidence and aligned across both school sites, while providing principals with the professional support and intellectual partnership they need to lead effectively in the complex landscape of adult education. The PLC also serves as a space for principals to reflect on their own growth as instructional leaders and to coordinate their efforts in supporting teacher development and student success.

Twice Per Week Teacher PLCs

Teachers engage in professional learning community work twice weekly, with sessions strategically designed to strengthen both instructional planning and data-informed decision making. One session each week is dedicated to collaborative planning time where teachers work in grade-level or content-area teams to design learning experiences that integrate rigorous academic content with the specific supports their English Language Learners and students with interrupted formal education need to succeed. These co-planning sessions allow educators to share strategies, align expectations across courses, and ensure that assessment practices accurately capture student growth while maintaining high standards. The second weekly session follows protocols and practices that focus on collaborative examination of student work and performance data to understand learning patterns, identify instructional adjustments, and develop targeted interventions. During these data inquiry sessions, teachers bring actual student artifacts—writing samples, project work, assessment results—and engage in structured conversations that move beyond simply identifying which students are struggling to understand why certain approaches are or aren't working and what specific instructional moves might better support student learning. This dual structure ensures that teachers have dedicated time for both proactive planning and reflective analysis, creating a continuous cycle of improvement that keeps student learning at the center of all professional practice.

Teacher Coaching

Teaching standards-aligned high school curriculum to newcomer adults with varying degrees of education in their home language and a wide range of English skills is challenging teaching. To support excellent instruction, HCCS is in the process of investing in on the ground coaching for our teachers. This will include the opportunity to observe instructional models, to co-plan with professionals with expertise in supporting students with interrupted formal education, and to engage in guided reflection on the impact of instruction. At the time of the writing of the material revision, we plan to begin Phase 1 of the teacher coaching program by October 15th. Principals, the Director of Professional Learning, the Curriculum Coordinator, and teacher leaders will participate in a rigorous train-the-trainer model to enable sustained on the ground support of teachers ongoing development.

The Role of Data and Assessments in Informing Instructional and Systems Improvement

Assessment is a core to instructional improvement at HCCS. Not only does assessment tell us where our students are in their learning, but patterns in the data reveal where we need to focus our professional learning efforts. HCCS is committed to creating a system that is responsive to what we are learning about our students and their needs. Leadership is curious about what is happening between the teacher and the student and rests its instructional improvement design on the data that comes from the classroom.

Formal Assessment and Improvement
The instructional leadership team (ILT) will review CASAS data to understand students' academic progress and to track areas where we need to improve our instructional approach. In addition, the ILT will use CAASPP and CAST data to understand the general themes in improvement and then support teachers to use more granular classroom data to understand barriers to student progress.

Informal Assessments and Improvement
Working in their PLCs, teachers will use classroom-based data– both qualitative and quantitative to determine the areas of their practice where they would like more support. This is one source of the design for the content input on PL Fridays. The ILT uses classroom observation data to help determine the focus of improvement efforts.

Student Climate Surveys and Systems Improvement
Centering the students' experience as core to our approach to improving the learning experience
The HCCS instructional improvement process involves looking at both student mastery data and student perception data. One important source of student perception data is the student climate surveys. While we do not rely on this self-report data to give us the whole picture of the student learning experience, we do value this source of data to understand HCCS's social and emotional conditions for learning.

Every year, HCCS conducts anonymous student climate surveys. These surveys are sent out to students in the following languages:

- English
- Arabic
- Spanish
- Persian
- Armenian
- Pashto
- Russian
- Turkish
- Ukrainian
- Vietnamese
- Chinese

Students have access to completing these surveys via QR codes, push notifications sent to their cell phones, with the support of their teachers in their classrooms, and via the Brain app.

Teachers encourage and support student participation by engaging students in lessons that have practice surveys. Paraeducators are also utilized to provide language support during this process. The purpose of these surveys is to understand the following:

- Relationships
- Classroom Climate
- Classroom Support and Access to Resources
- Goal Setting & Student Progress
- Safety, Maintenance, and Facilities
- Workforce and CTE Programs
- Lessons, Instruction, and Curriculum

HCCS students are asked to read each statement and indicate their level of agreement with the statement from the following options:

- Strongly agree
- Agree
- Neutral
- Disagree
- Strongly Disagree

The table below shows the percentage of HCCS students who agree or strongly agree with each statement for the year indicated for the last three years.

Student Academic Supports

Because many of our students have little prior education in their native language and, for many of them, they come in with low levels of English, HCCS provides extra support to ensure students' academic success. Classroom teachers are available to meet with students before and after school during their office hours to support students who are struggling academically.

Paraeducators

English proficiency and learning needs vary widely for our incoming students. HCCS paraeducators provide crucial language scaffolding by providing individualized instructional support in students' native languages and creating more opportunities for meaningful English language practice, ensuring that our Level 0 students can fully benefit from our educational programs.

Additionally, paraeducators who share students' cultural backgrounds can create a more comfortable environment that reduces the anxiety often experienced by new students and immigrant populations. While teachers focus primarily on academic instruction, paraeducators provide crucial social-emotional support to help students navigate their educational environment successfully. Paraeducators also help students build digital literacy, fluency with the HCCS systems, and provide academic support.

HCCS hired 32 new paraeducators in 2024–2025 to expand instructional support across its sites. All but two of those paraeducators were released in June 2025 as part of the school's restructuring process, which prioritized staffing of credentialed instructors. HCCS plans to rehire three additional paraeducators this school year as it builds its program capacity and will further increase paraeducator staffing as part of its sustainable five-year growth plan.

Literacy Support
During the 2025-2026 school year, HCCS will hire staff to provide literacy support for English language learners. This will focus on building literacy through phonemic awareness, phonics, vocabulary building, pronunciation, and writing skills.

Tutoring Program
HCCS will implement an in-person tutoring program to replace previous online tutoring opportunities. Based on feedback from students and staff, online tutoring no longer effectively serves the needs of our student population. Key challenges, detailed below, include a lack of digital literacy skills, low student engagement, and limited availability of support. The design of our in-person tutoring program will focus on effectively addressing these findings.

Challenges for Students Accessing Online Tutoring

- Cultural barriers – example: Afghan women
    - Our student population with the highest level of need for one-on-one tutoring
    - Working one-on-one with male tutors would violate cultural and religious norms
    - Afghan women typically have limited experience or skill with technology
    - Afghan women may have limited literacy skills and English language skills
    - Require in-person, one-on-one support by Dari or Pashto-speaking women tutors
- Technology barriers
    - Online login processes may limit access for students with low technical proficiency
    - Our student population may not have access to high-speed internet at home
    - Our student population may not have a device with internet access for use at home
    - Most online tutoring is chat-based, requiring literacy and typing skills
- Linguistic barriers
    - Top 5 languages:
        - Dari
        - Pashto
        - Ukrainian
        - Russian
        - Spanish
    - Online tutoring by English-speaking tutors cannot support students with limited English proficiency

In-Person Tutoring Program Design
HCCS is in the process of contracting with a tutoring business to offer students in-person tutoring that will:

- Account for cultural and technological barriers when assessing student needs
- Staff tutors who can serve specific cultural and linguistic populations of greatest need
- Implement and refine best practices for providing one-on-one academic support
- Develop robust translated learning materials for students in multiple formats

Student Success Team (SST)
At HCCS, the Student Success Team (SST) process is a collaborative, data-driven approach to identify and implement support strategies for students experiencing academic, behavioral, or attendance-related challenges. The goal is to equip educators with additional tools and resources to meet students' needs in the general education setting and, when necessary, connect students with services such as tutoring, counseling, or basic needs assistance. While SST may result in a referral to a 504 committee, its primary function is not to initiate such referrals.

SST Membership and Roles
SSTs are convened by the Director of Student Services or designee and include the student's counselor (as the facilitator), current teacher(s), the student, and guardians when applicable. Additional specialists such as social workers, speech therapists, healthcare providers, paraeducators, and language navigators may be invited based on student needs.

Referral Process
Students may be referred to the SST for persistent academic or behavioral concerns. Before referral, teachers must document the use of differentiated instructional strategies and collaboration with other staff. Referrals are submitted using a standardized form and must include relevant data such as attendance records, academic assessments, behavior logs, and prior interventions.

SST Meeting Process
Scheduling: SST meetings are scheduled promptly based on the urgency of the concern and include all relevant team members.

Data Collection
The team reviews comprehensive student data to inform the discussion.

Intervention Planning
A tailored plan is developed with specific goals, strategies, responsible staff, and a timeline for implementation.

Follow-Up
A follow-up meeting is held six weeks after the initial meeting to assess student progress and adjust the intervention plan as needed.

Documentation
All decisions, meeting minutes, and progress reports are documented and stored in the student's confidential file in accordance with FERPA and HCCTS policy.

SST Outcomes
The SST may recommend continued interventions within the general education setting, changes in instructional methods or placement, referrals to support services or external agencies, or, if appropriate, a referral to the 504 Committee. All recommendations are monitored and evaluated for effectiveness.

Confidentiality and Compliance
SST processes comply with all applicable privacy laws, including FERPA. All records and discussions remain confidential and are shared only with authorized personnel.

Socioeconomically Disadvantaged Students
At Highlands Community Charter School, students from low socioeconomic backgrounds thrive and learn in a nurturing, caring, and collaborative environment. HCCS identifies socioeconomically disadvantaged and low-income students consistent with state and federal definitions upon registration through our Household Income Data Collection form and PowerSchool SIS system. This subgroup makes up a large majority of our student population.

To best serve our socioeconomically disadvantaged and low-income students, HCCS provides professional development that is focused on intentional instruction, reflecting a diagnostic approach that is driven by identified instructional needs. HCCS teachers understand the importance of positive teacher-student relationships and how to incorporate continual monitoring and assessment to guide instruction. Students participate in academic enrichment activities that align with their level-pacing academic plans and learn cognitive strategies such as the structure of language, how to establish goal-setting and procedural self-talk, how to sort relevant from irrelevant cues, and how to use mental models. Additionally, to meet the economic needs of these students, HCCS holds workshops with partners on issues related to economic need and building financial independence.

Instructional Days and Minutes Calculations
HCCS maintains multiple bell schedules that consistently exceed the minimum instructional time required under Education Code Section 47612.5(a), which mandates 64,800 minutes annually. Both AM and PM bell schedules detail 5 consist of 5 instructional days, Monday through Friday with 5 periods each except on 17 modified Friday schedules designed to incorporate time for teacher professional development. The Academic Calendar(found on page 25) includes 197 instructional days, 180 regular and 17 modified Fridays, totaling 65,087 minutes for both AM and PM schedules.

Graduation Requirements
HCCS' high school students are eligible to graduate when they have been awarded 180 high school credits: 110 Academic including a mandatory 10 credits academic credits from Workforce Readiness courses, and 70 in elective or Career Technical Education (CTE) credits. As part of the 180 credits, transfer credits and employment credits count toward this total. As soon as the high school students complete 180 credits and those credits are verified, students are eligible to apply for their diplomas. After students receive their diplomas, they are asked to participate in a graduation ceremony.

Counselors help ensure students meet graduation requirements by developing graduation plans and conducting regular check-ins. During check-ins, counselors update students on their academic progress, including credit attainment and requirements left to graduate. Each student is provided with an academic progress report. In the 2024–2025 school year, we have adopted A–G approved courses to expand college readiness opportunities for our students. As part of this effort, counselors engage students in conversations about their aspirations for higher education as they approach the high school program.

Subject to appropriations by the State, the Charter School will comply with requirements under AB 101 to offer a one-semester course in ethnic studies and will mandate that students complete this course as a graduation requirement commencing with students graduating in the 2029-30 school year.

The Charter School will comply with requirements under AB 2927 to offer a one-semester course in personal finance by the 2027-28 school year and will mandate that students complete this course as a graduation requirement commencing with students graduating in the 2030-31 school year.

Attendance Policy
HCCS recognizes that attendance is a critical indicator of student progress and overall academic success. Despite the inherent challenges in ensuring consistent engagement among adult learners across all instructional periods, the school remains committed to full-day attendance expectations for all students.

In the 2024–2025 school year, HCCS has implemented a series of initiatives aimed at improving student attendance, enhancing the accuracy of attendance reporting, and strengthening accountability measures for both educators and administrators. These efforts include the adoption of a revised Attendance Enforcement Policy (BP 5113.1) by the HCCS Board of Directors on March 20, 2025. Key changes in the updated policy include:

- 80% Daily Attendance Rule: Students must be present for at least 80% of scheduled instructional hours weekly.
- 15-Minute Rule: Students who check in but leave within the first 15 minutes of class without prior approval will be marked absent. Repeated violations may result in intervention and disenrollment.
- Meaningful Engagement: Attendance is verified by meaningful engagement. Students who check in but fail to participate meaningfully will be marked absent.
- Forgery of Attendance Records: Any student found falsifying attendance records, including signing in for another student, will face disciplinary action, including possible suspension, expulsion, or disenrollment.

HCCTS employs tiered intervention strategies to support students struggling with attendance before taking disciplinary action:

- Notifications: Calls, text messages, and emails will provide immediate alerts to students who have not met attendance requirements.
- Outreach & Support: Students flagged for low attendance will be contacted by school staff to assess barriers and develop a support plan.
- Attendance Contracts: Students with ongoing attendance issues may be placed on a probationary attendance contract outlining expectations and consequences.
- Disenrollment Procedures: Students failing to meet attendance requirements after documented interventions may be disenrolled following due process, as outlined in BP 5111.5 (Disenrollment).

Additionally, HCCS has drafted and adopted the following policies to help enforce attendance.

- 5111.5 Disenrollment and Involuntary Removal (Revised and Approved 03/20/2025) - Outlines the involuntary disenrollment for students who accumulate ten consecutive unexcused absences despite HCCS staff's efforts to re-engage them.
- 5120 BP Satisfactory Academic Progress (Approved 03/20/25) - Outlines students must maintain active attendance
- 5131 BP Student Conduct (Revised and Approved 03/20/2025) - Outlines the ramifications of students who forge attendance records
- 6164.5 BP Student Success Teams (Revised and Approved 04/25/2025) - Outlines interventions to support students reportedly struggling with attendance

In addition to the board policies, HCCS has updated the bell schedule for the 2025-2026 school year, which now contains 5 periods rather than 3 periods for the AM schedule. It meets the minimum number of instructional minutes, and it has only one PM schedule for all sites, rather than three (as in the 2024-2025 school year).

Record Retention & Compliance

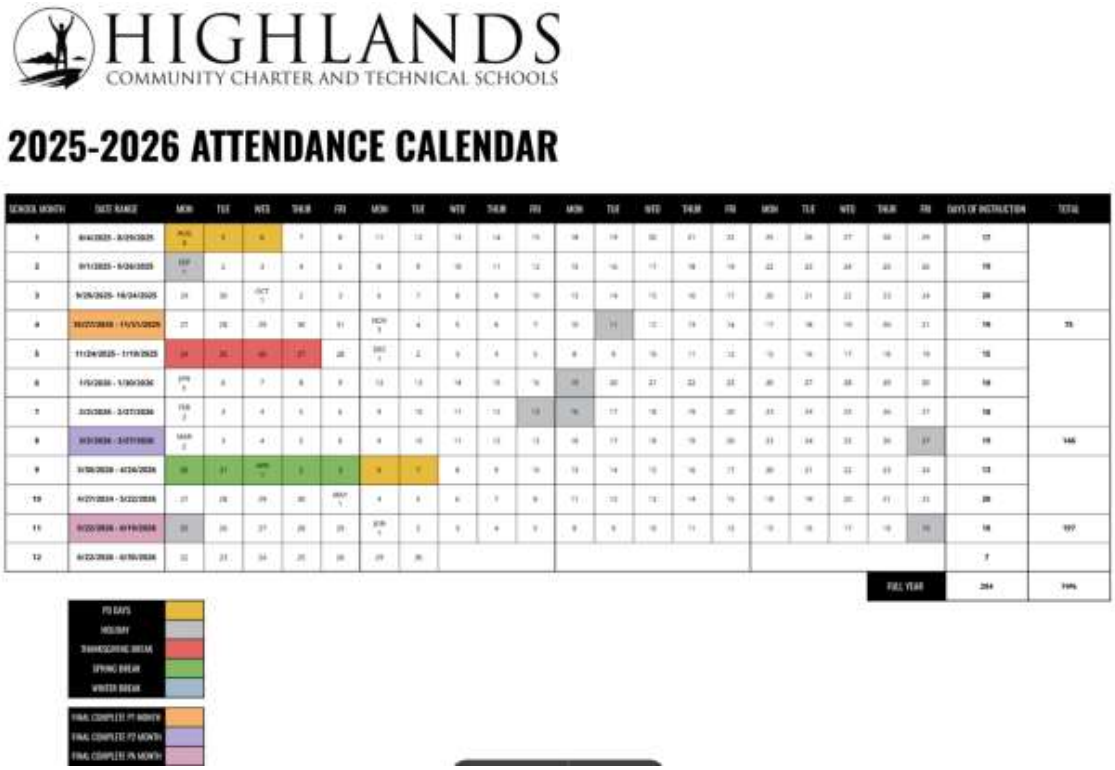
- BP 5120 (Satisfactory Academic Progress) now mandates that manual attendance records, including sign-in sheets, be retained for three years in both physical and digital formats to ensure compliance with California Code of Regulations, Title 5 and facilitate accurate auditing.
- The Director of Attendance is responsible for overseeing record retention and compliance audits to maintain regulatory standards.
- Random attendance audits will be conducted regularly to identify and prevent discrepancies.

We believe in holding our students accountable and supporting them when they need it. Our paraeducators, teachers, and counselors maintain communication with our students when students are absent. We want to ensure that if our students are having personal hardships, we are supporting them and providing them with every service we have available, either at HCCS, at one of our partner organizations, or at an external location.

Attendance Calendars
In the 2024-2025 school year HCCTS contracted with Charter Impact to assist with setting up 20-day Attendance Calendars in PowerSchool to ensure correct divisors in calculating ADA for P-2.

Effective October 2024 HCCTS began using a 20-day calendar as required by Ed Code. This has been corrected for the 24-25 school year and will be accurate for all school years moving forward.

An example of the 20 day calendar can be seen below for the 2025-2026 school year:



Academic Progress
HCCS has established a Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) policy (BP 5120) to ensure that students are consistently advancing toward their academic and career goals. This policy applies to all students enrolled in high school education. To remain enrolled, students must meet SAP standards, which include maintaining a minimum GPA, earning required credits, making measurable progress in English language acquisition (for ELD students), and fulfilling the specific SAP criteria of their CTE programs. SAP is evaluated every six weeks, and students who do not meet the requirements may be placed on Academic Notice. Continued noncompliance will result in disenrollment.

Attendance and engagement are also key components of SAP evaluation, with manual attendance records retained for at least three years in accordance with California regulations. Students who do not meet SAP in their CTE program may appeal by submitting a written reflection and evidence of corrective actions. Approved appeals result in a probationary period during which students must meet SAP standards to maintain enrollment. The policy aligns with state and federal regulations and is reviewed regularly to ensure legal compliance and support for student success.

Career Technical Education (CTE)

CTE programs provide students with hands-on job training while earning course credits and industry recognized certifications. Courses help students build skills for careers, develop student agency and confidence, and build social capital, all while pursuing career pathways that allow students to earn a liveable wage HCCS recognizes the importance of robust Career Technical Education programs, especially for traditionally underserved students. Programs in the past were developed with student interests in mind and course expansion was historically based on student interests. Moving forward, HCCS will align workforce needs with student interests to identify the most viable CTE classes and pathways.

Currently, HCCTS offers one Personal Finance course as part of our CTE program. We are looking to add a licensed real estate class, relaunch the culinary, welding, health services, early childhood education, and digital literacy classes in the new calendar year. Further efforts to expand CTE offerings revolve around business, community organization and school partnership. The redesign effort is just beginning, and involves identifying the leading businesses and industries in the Greater Sacramento Metropolitan that have job opportunities at liveable wages and can support workforce development pathway programs for students with industry aligned certificates. Community-based organizations are serving as intermediaries to facilitate employer and school-based connections, and later to provide adult mentors and internship opportunities for students. The redesign emphasizes clear pathways, flexible schedules, strong language supports, and meaningful work based learning. New courses will be carefully vetted and released in phases.

Highlands Community Charter School currently offers one Personal Finance through the CTE program in 2025-26. To grow capacity and pathway offerings, our CTE program is entering a redesign led by a cross functional team. We are centering student voices and using labor market data and teacher input to shape offerings that put learners first. The plan emphasizes clear pathways based on local and regional employer needs, flexible schedules, strong language supports, and meaningful work based learning. Courses will be carefully vetted and released in phases based on sustainable capacity and resources.

HCCS will have seven CTE programs in the 2025-2026 school year:

- Culinary Arts
- Digital Literacy and Multimedia
- Early Childhood Education (ECE)
- Medical Services
- Microsoft Office Specialist (MOS) Certification

- Personal Finance
- Real Estate

Culinary Arts

Culinary Overview

Introductory culinary skills with emphasis on safety, sanitation, knife skills, basic cooking methods, menu planning, and kitchen teamwork.

Culinary Target Certifications

Program Requirements

- Completion of project-based modules and a curated digital portfolio
- Regular practice in productivity and creative apps; responsible use and digital citizenship modules

Digital Literacy Work-based Learning

- School communications projects, partner briefs, social media content labs, guest designers and media professionals

Digital Literacy Progress
- Curriculum outline drafted; device and software access plan in place with partner sites
- Instructor recruitment plan prepared (internal posting or partner hire)

Early Childhood Education (ECE)

ECE Overview
Prepares students for entry roles in preschool and childcare settings with a focus on child development, safety, learning environments, and family partnerships. Strong language supports are embedded for multilingual learners.

ECE Target Certifications
- Pediatric CPR and First Aid
- California Mandated Reporter Training
- California Child Development Permit pathway awareness; assistance with Assistant or Associate Teacher permit application where eligible

ECE Program Requirements
- Attendance and completion of coursework and practicum tasks
- Readiness for site requirements when applicable (background clearance, TB test, immunizations per host site; program will help students navigate)
- Portfolio with lesson snapshots, observation notes, and reflections

ECE Work-based Learning
- Classroom observations, lab hours, guest talks with site directors, optional short externship when available

ECE Progress
- Hiring teachers for this program
- Curriculum map drafted using English for Work and Life for integrated language routines
- Site partner list in development for observations and talks

Medical Services

Medical Services Overview
Entry-level health care services skills with emphasis on patient safety, infection control, vital signs, medical terminology, front office workflows, and team communication.

Medical Services Target Certifications
- American Heart Association BLS CPR and First Aid
- OSHA Bloodborne Pathogens awareness
- HIPAA privacy and security training
- Where feasible and appropriate: NHA Certified Medical Administrative Assistant exam prep

Program Requirements
- Safety routines, lab skills checklists, and a skills and reflections portfolio
- Completion of required CPR and safety training; appropriate attire for lab days

Work-based Learning
- Guest talks by medical assistants and clinic managers, site tours, mock front desk scenarios, community health events

Microsoft Office Specialist (MOS) Certification Prep

MOS Overview
Hands-on prep for industry-recognized Microsoft Office Specialist exams. Focus on Word, Excel, and PowerPoint with options to extend to Outlook or Access based on student goals.

MOS Target Certifications
- Microsoft Office Specialist Associate exams (Word, Excel, PowerPoint)
- Option to pursue additional exams for Expert level where appropriate

MOS Program Requirements
- Regular practice in Office applications; completion of scenario-based projects
- Exam readiness checks; testing through a Certiport Authorized Testing Center (onsite or partner)

MOS Work-based learning
- Real world admin projects, resume and report formatting, data dashboards for career pathways

MOS Progress
- Two MOS CTE teacher positions posted
- Certiport testing access plan underway (site authorization or partner center)

Personal Finance

Personal Finance Overview
Practical money skills for work and life: banking, budgeting, credit, debt, insurance, taxes, benefits, and introductory investment. Currently offered; will continue within CTE to strengthen career readiness.

Personal Finance Target Certifications
- Local certificate of completion with portfolio evidence
- Optional third-party exam (for example, W!se Financial Literacy Certification) if adopted by the school

Personal Finance Program requirements
- Completion of unit tasks and a capstone budget and benefits plan
- Demonstration of digital skills for online banking simulations and tax prep scenarios

Personal Finance Work based learning
- Speakers from banks and credit unions, mock benefit selection, VITA site visit when available

Personal Finance Progress
- Running now; pacing and assessments aligned to power standards are being finalized for 2025–2026

Personal Finance Progress
- Curriculum outline drafted; lab equipment and site visit scheduling in planning with partner clinics
- Instructor recruitment plan prepared (internal posting or partner hire)

Real Estate

Real Estate Overview
Foundations of residential real estate with emphasis on California practice and principles, ethics, property types, basic finance, contracts, and client communication.

Real Estate Target Certifications
- Preparation for the California Real Estate Salesperson license pathway
    - Completion of required coursework hours and state application steps
    - Exam readiness checks and study support

Real Estate Program Requirements
- Completion of course modules and case studies; portfolio of forms, disclosures, and client communication samples
- Attendance at exam prep sessions; Live Scan and state application guidance provided

Real Estate Work-based Learning
- Guest brokers and agents, office tours, open house observations, neighborhood property walks, mock client meetings

Real Estate Progress
- Curriculum outline drafted; broker partner interest meetings underway
- Instructor recruitment plan prepared (internal posting or partner hire)

CTE Program Accountability and Progress Indicators

- Access: enrollment by site and pathway; ELD levels served
- Engagement: attendance and weekly progress submissions

- Learning: pass rates on unit performance tasks and portfolios
- Credentials: number of certifications earned (ServSafe, MOS, CPR/First Aid, Mandated Reporter, optional personal finance cert)
- Work based learning: hours, site visits, guest speakers, externship participation
- Placement and advancement: students moving into jobs, internships, capstone, or next level training

Workforce Services

The Center for Workforce Solutions is located at the main campus on Hillsdale Blvd. The Center accepts both walk-ins and appointments and connects students to a variety of services including:

- Application help
- Resume and CV writing
- Cover letter writing
- Interview practice and preparation
- Job postings
- On-site interviews and hiring
- Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) support
- College campus tours
- Referrals to partners and other external agencies
- Center for Workforce Solutions

Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act

In 2014, the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act (WIOA) became law, formerly known as the Workforce Investment Act (WIA). It is designed to help job seekers gain access to education, training, and employment and to ultimately help unemployed and underemployed youth, dislocated workers, and workers with disabilities to successfully find jobs.

Under Ed. Code 47605.1(f)(1) HCCS provides instruction exclusively in partnership with the federal Workforce Investment Act of 1998 (29 U.S.C. Sec. 3101 et seq.), now known as WIOA. HCCS partners with The Sacramento Education and Training Agency, the local workforce development board for Sacramento County. All students may only be admitted under the terms of an exclusive partnership agreement, which limits students to those 22 years of age or older.

Under Education Code 47605.1(f), other than being required to have sites in California, there are no other jurisdictional boundaries for campuses of Highlands Community Charter School due to our WIOA exclusive partnership requirement.

Technology

HCCS students have varying levels of knowledge and experience with technology. Some students are very familiar and comfortable using computers and computer programs. Some students have excellent typing, composition, and internet skills, while others struggle to turn on a computer.

HCCS prioritizes and supports the use of technology in our learning environments because increasing experience and proficiency with technology contributes to successful educational outcomes and better career opportunities for 21st-century learners. Because digital resources can provide valuable benefits to our students, we design our learning programs to help them build digital literacy for the modern age.

One goal at HCCS is to help students integrate technology into their lives via classroom lessons, relevant examples, classwork, projects, and opportunities to improve communication skills. Technology standards and objectives are integrated into the curriculum and clearly defined for the teachers. Across varying sites, the teachers incorporate technology into their lessons. Teachers use educational learning videos, tutorials, web-based reading programs, Microsoft Office, and Google Classroom. Teachers model the use of technology in their classrooms and show students how to access and utilize key tools such as email and document sharing. HCCS expects teachers to use and adapt technology as appropriate to accommodate students' varying skill levels and educational needs. In addition, the IT Department and Digital Navigators work diligently to support teachers and students who need assistance expanding their digital skills.

In recent years, HCCS has overcome complex challenges to ensure that its students, teachers, and school sites have equitable access to technology. With support from our IT Department, all HCCS classrooms now have access to the items listed below.

Equipment Available in HCCS Classrooms

Standard Equipment (All Classrooms)

- Projector onto whiteboard
- Document Camera
- Speakers
- 30 Chromebooks
- 30 over-the-ear headphones w/mic
- 1 Charging cart

Available upon Request (All Classrooms)

- Additional Chromebooks and headphones
- Projector Screen
- Student Earbuds

We believe that digital literacy will become increasingly crucial for student success in the 21st century, with benefits for academic achievement, career opportunities, and social engagement. Through consistent exposure to digital tools across courses and targeted instruction in digital literacy, HCCS seeks to ensure that students develop the technological competencies necessary for academic advancement, workplace readiness, and full participation in modern society.

Student Services

Highlands Community Charter School has a unique opportunity to work with adult learners who have faced many life challenges. As a result, our students require a wide range of academic, career, and personal support to achieve their goals. In the 2025-26 school year, we have the opportunity to sustainably grow our student services staff, which faced staffing cuts during restructuring in the first part of the year. At the time of this material revision, we plan to develop an Intervention Coordinator role to support partnerships with community agencies. These agencies provide essential support well beyond what HCCS can offer, such as dental and medical services, nutrition, child care, housing support, and other necessities that will support their academic success.

Orientation/Student Onboarding

HCCS holds an orientation at the beginning of each year to help students become familiar with the school's policies, procedures, and programs, supporting student agency in making informed decisions about their academic plan. In August 2025, the orientation was expanded to provide additional clarity regarding updated academic policies, attendance requirements, the new five-period bell schedule, and our new curriculum, Savvas.

Navigators

To ensure equitable access to our programs, HCCS has employed dedicated staff members to ensure every student understands all the services available to them. With students who speak over 39 languages, often with limited English proficiency, Navigators provide multilingual communication, academic and career support, and access to community resources. HCCS Navigators speak English, Farsi/Dari, Spanish, Russian, Armenian, and Pashto, and travel to all campuses to present on services and programs. In June 2025, as part of organization restructuring, the Navigators were released from their positions. HCCTS plans to redesign and reinstate the Navigator program, with staffing and implementation to begin by January 2026.

English Learner (EL) Services and New Student Supports

HCCS provides comprehensive support for new students and English learners. HCCS student services staff provide comprehensive orientation services that help students navigate the HCCS system. The academic supports are listed in the educational philosophy section. HCCS also provides native language support and cultural transition assistance. Specialized programming for recently arrived immigrant students, including orientation to U.S. school systems, technology set up support, accelerated English language acquisition, academic skill building, and social-emotional support to ease cultural transitions. We provide translation services and family engagement programs to support the entire family's integration into our school community.

Student Advisory Council

In the 2025-2026 school year, HCCS will establish two Executive Student Advisory Councils – one for the AM student cohort and one for the PM student cohort. In Fall 2025, the Chief Academic Officer (CAO) will meet with students nominated for the Advisory Councils. The first student advisory council meeting is set for mid-November. The Councils will meet quarterly with the Executive Director to contribute student perspectives on HCCS initiatives, increasing student agency, belonging, and leadership. The quarterly meetings provide consistent opportunities for students to share their experiences, identify challenges, and contribute to solutions that enhance the educational environment for all newcomers, ultimately supporting their academic success and social-emotional well-being.

Community Partnerships
Highlands Community Charter School serves a very high-needs student population and has developed multiple partnerships with external organizations to address those needs. These partnerships expand the school's reach within the community and increase student access to the tools necessary to achieve their goals. Partnership refers to a collaborative relationship between Highlands Community Charter and Technical Schools (HCCTS) and an external agency that supports students by facilitating access to essential services. In some cases, partnerships include agreements related to shared locations, supporting educational efforts by expanding access to instruction and services in settings where students already utilize essential resources.

These partnerships include the following organizations:

- SALAM Islamic Center
- SHRA
- La Familia Counseling Center
- CalAsian Chamber of Commerce
- Lao Family Community Development
- Department of Human Assistance
- Sacramento Employment and Training Agency (SETA)
- Mack Road Partnership

Many of these community partners provide support that is beyond the scope of HCCS services. This includes connecting students to dental services, food banks, clothing, etc.

Student Support and Counseling
We are proud to have highly trained, compassionate counselors who support every student. Our counselors can provide assistance and information on many issues, including:

- Family issues
- Personal issues
- Conflict management
- Substance abuse and recovery
- Student support groups
- Homeless services
- Accessing government programs
- FAFSA
- Parenting and family resources

Our students face many challenges and have many barriers to completing their education and accomplishing their goals. At HCCS, our counselors understand our students' needs and assist them by addressing barriers because we want our students to complete their classes and graduate. We believe that by meeting our students where they are, they are more likely to continue and complete their programs to graduate.

Services for Students with Disabilities

Overview

Highlands Community Charter School is categorized as an independent LEA, serving adults 22 years of age and older. Therefore, it is not required to join a SELPA pursuant to Education Code 47641(a), either on its own or with a grouping of charter school LEAs as a consortium. As such, HCCS does not receive state and federal revenues in accordance with SELPA's allocation plan.

HCCS will continue to make all necessary arrangements to serve students with disabilities and comply with all applicable federal, state, and school district mandates governing service to students with disabilities, including but not limited to Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act ("Section 504"), the Americans with Disabilities Act ("ADA") and the Individuals with Disabilities Education Improvement Act of 2004 ("IDEIA"). Students will receive information about Section 504 protections when enrolled in the program.

IDEIA applies to children with disabilities and does not apply to adult students over the age of 21.[2] California likewise requires special education services only through age 22, but HCCS integrates IDEIA principles as part of its mission to provide K-12 educational opportunities to adult students in compliance with all applicable laws. For students who provide the school with a copy of a previously approved IEP, the Student Success Team ("SST") will review the IEP and work with the student to identify reasonable accommodations that provide equal access to the student's educational program, including a 504 plan if appropriate. HCCS will incorporate the student's reasonable accommodation needs into the student's educational plan as part of their individual learning strategy based on identified needs in the previous IEP.

Disabled students without a previous IEP may request reasonable accommodation by contacting school staff. Accommodation requests will be referred to the SST, who will evaluate the request, review the student's documented needs, and work with students in an interactive process to determine what accommodation is necessary to support their academic success.

504 services can also begin with a Response to Intervention based on academic challenges identified by Student Success Team members. The team will work with the student to identify individual barriers to academic success and create an academic support plan. If the student does not make satisfactory progress and consents to evaluation, they may be referred for evaluation under Section 504 of the IDEA. Any decision to deny or grant a reasonable accommodation by the SST shall be made in accordance with applicable federal and state law, including IDEA, ADA, and the California Education Code.

HCCS does not require students to provide detailed medical records to document a disability. A doctor's note or other documentation of impairment, including records of academic impairment, may support an accommodation need. Students also have the right to refuse accommodation solutions offered by the school or propose a different alternative as part of the interactive process.

Reasonable accommodation can include, but are not limited to, modifications to school policies, practices, or procedures; auxiliary aids for classroom learning such as transcripts, readers, or modified equipment; altered testing conditions; presence of a student's trained service animal; or other measures necessary to ensure equal access to HCCS's educational programs, as required by 304 C.F.R. 104.44. HCCS may deny accommodation requests by a person with a qualifying disability and documented need if the requested accommodation imposes an undue financial, operational, or administrative burden, or fundamentally alters its educational program, provided no reasonable alternative can be found to meet the student's needs.

Plan and Timeline for Maintaining Western Association of Schools and Colleges (WASC) Accreditation

In the 2024–2025 school year, HCCS completed a comprehensive WASC Self-Study that involved 12 internal focus groups and resulted in the development of a six-year WASC Action Plan aligned with LCAP goals. Over 200 staff members and nearly 100 students participated in the self-study process through these focus groups. In October 2024, a six-person WASC Visiting Committee conducted a three-day site visit, holding eight additional focus groups with staff and students. The committee visited 14 sites in person and reviewed 18 more virtually through pre-recorded tours. Following this extensive review, the Visiting Committee evaluated HCCS across 14 accreditation status factors, rating 11 as Highly Effective or Effective, 3 as Somewhat Effective, and none as Ineffective.

In March of 2025 WASC informed HCCS it was postponing its accreditation decision pending the result of the California State Audit. HCCS remains in probationary status as of September 2025. To ensure compliance with all program requirements, HCCS has developed a three-year plan to maintain its WASC accreditation, including measures to reduce student-teacher ratios, improve professional development, enhance data tracking, and increase EL support.

Recruiting Qualified Teachers

Highlands Community Charter School recruits well-qualified educators to our community by posting vacant teaching positions on the recruitment website www.edjoin.org, a third-party employment entity used throughout California and the greater United States as a central advertising location for many different educational organizations. Additionally, we attend the annual Teacher Recruitment Fair held each spring at Sacramento State University in order to meet with new teachers beginning their careers. We also send out recruitment flyers to additional institutes of higher education in the surrounding area, per the school's staffing needs. More efforts will be made going forward to aggressively recruit and retain exceptional educators with both adult and k-12 credentials, given the unique population of students we serve.

UMass Global

Highlands Community Charter and Technical Schools is partnering with UMass Global to help our intern teachers earn a California Preliminary Teaching Credential. UMass Global provides advising, admissions support, and the required coursework, while Highlands provides a paid classroom placement, a site mentor, and job-embedded coaching. We also recruit and train Mentor Teachers—experienced educators who meet weekly with interns to co-plan, observe, and give feedback. University supervisors and site mentors conduct joint observations, so candidates get clear, consistent guidance as they complete clinical hours and state assessments. Our shared professional learning centers on HCCS priorities like integrated ELD, literacy across the curriculum, and effective use of adopted materials. The partnership is formalized in an MOU and builds a steady, well-supported pipeline of prepared teachers for our classrooms.

Transferability of Courses

Governing Law: If the proposed charter school will serve high school pupils, the manner in which the charter school will inform parents about the transferability of courses to other public high schools and the eligibility of courses to meet college entrance requirements. Courses offered by the charter school that are accredited by the Western Association of Schools and Colleges may be considered transferable and courses approved by the University of California or the California State University as creditable under the "A to G" admissions criteria may be considered to meet college entrance requirements.-- California Education Code § 47605 (c) (5) (A) (iii)

Information about WASC accreditation can be found at HCCS' website. HCCS is currently WASC-accredited on a probationary basis. Further determination will be made by the WASC commission in 2026.

Element B Measurable Student Outcomes and Element C Student Progress Measurements

"The measurable pupil outcomes identified for use by the charter school. "Pupil outcomes," for purposes of this part, means the extent to which all pupils of the charter school demonstrate that they have attained the skills, knowledge, and attitudes specified as goals in the charter school's educational program. Pupil outcomes shall include outcomes that address increases in pupil academic achievement both schoolwide and for all pupil subgroups served by the charter school, as that term is defined in subparagraph (a) of Section 52052. The pupil outcomes shall align with the state priorities, as described in subdivision (d) of Section 52060, that apply for the grade levels served by the charter school." (Ed. Code § 47605(c)(5)(B).)
"The method by which pupil progress in meeting those pupil outcomes is to be measured. To the extent practicable, the method for measuring pupil outcomes for state priorities shall be consistent with the way information is reported on a school accountability report card." (Ed. Code § 47605(c)(5)(C).)

Measurable Goals of the Educational Program

In accordance with Education Code Section 47606.5, the Charter School shall comply with all elements of the LCAP pursuant to regulations and a template adopted by the California State Board of Education and reserves the right to establish additional and/or amend school-specific goals and corresponding assessments throughout the duration of the charter. The Charter School shall submit the LCAP to the District and the County Superintendent of Schools annually on or before July 1, as required by Education Code Section 47604.33. The current LCAP is on file with the District and is also available on our website at http://www.gcccharters.org. The LCAP and any revisions necessary to implement the LCAP, including outcomes and methods of measurement listed in the Charter, shall not be considered a material revision to the Charter, and shall be maintained by SAVA at the school.

HCCS was founded to serve historically disadvantaged populations. It has always served a larger than 90% socially and economically disadvantaged student population. The founding philosophy of HCCS demands that it offers extensive support beyond that which would normally be available to students in a traditional high school setting and far beyond that available in CAEP settings. To that end, all support services are available to all students. This, along with the radically different makeup of the HCCS student population compared to most schools, has led HCCS to set its performance targets for all students rather than for traditionally designated subgroups.

Alignment With State Priorities

STATE PRIORITY #1— BASIC SERVICES The degree to which teachers are appropriately assigned (E.C. §44258.9) and fully credentialed, and every pupil has sufficient access to standards-aligned instructional materials (E.C. § 60119), and school facilities are maintained in good repair (E.C. §17002(d))

Subpriority A: Fully Credentialed Teachers
Goal	100% of core teachers will hold a valid CA Teaching Credential with appropriate English learner authorization as defined by the CA Commission on Teaching Credentialing, and will be appropriately assigned.
Method	In addition to hiring credentialed teachers HCCS will support teachers in the credentialing process including obtaining Intern credentials and the completion of any necessary credentialing program.
Measurement	Initial and annual verification of core teacher credential as reported by the CA Commission on Teacher Credentialing; CALPADS Report 3.5 NCLB Core Course Section Compliance; Annual publication of School Accountability Report Card.
Subpriority B: Access to Standards Aligned Instructional Materials
Goal	100% of pupils will have access to standards-aligned materials and additional instructional materials as outlined in the charter petition.
Method	All instructional materials will be assessed for alignment with state common core standards, CASAS standards and ELP objectives.
Measurement	Executive Director or designee will review all instructional materials before purchase pursuant to E.C. § 60119.

STATE PRIORITY #2— IMPLEMENTATION OF COMMON CORE STATE STANDARDS Implementation of Common Core State Standards, including how EL students will be enabled to gain academic content knowledge and English language proficiency
Subpriority A: Implementation of Standards
Goal	At HCCS 100% of core academic classrooms will offer curriculum aligned to common core state standards.
Method	Offer a wide range of standards-aligned materials to ensure teachers have access to diverse standards-aligned methods and modalities and individual student needs can be met through access to multiple aligned curricula.
Measurement	Engagement with curricula will be tracked for engagement and impact and assessed by the Executive Director, Chief Academic Officer, Director of Curriculum or other designee.

Subpriority B: EL Student Access to Academic Content
Goal	100% of English Language Learners will gain academic content knowledge through implementation of Common Core State Standards.
Method	EL students will be offered differentiated instruction in contexts integrating Common Core State Standards with ELP objectives such as English for Work and Life and EL Civics courses.
Measurement	Student progress will be measured through course completion, level exit tests, EL Civics tests and applicable state testing including CAASPP and CAST.
Subpriority C: EL Students and English Language Proficiency
Goal	100% of English Language Learners will make measurable progress towards English language proficiency.
Method	EL students participate in English Language Arts/Literacy instruction with appropriate in-class instructional support which includes structured English language development, small group teacher support, paraeducator support, and usage of SDAIE strategies.
Measurement	The school will track annual metrics including the rate of progress from Intermediate ESL (equivalent to Federal NRS ESL Level 5) to Bridge (Equivalent to Federal NRS Level 6)

STATE PRIORITY #3— Educational partner involvement. State priority 3 references parental involvement, including efforts to seek parent input for making decisions for schools, and how the school will promote parent participation. However as all HCCS students are 22 years and over HCCS will focus instead on engaging the feedback of educational partners including but not limited to students and community partners.
Subpriority A: Educational partner engagement
Goal	Promote student involvement in setting schoolwide priorities and implementing academic programs and student services through a minimum of 5 educational partner events annually.
Method	Engage students in community partner events to solicit and gather student feedback.

Measurement	Student feedback will be recorded, collated, and analyzed by HCCS staff incorporating both qualitative and qualitative methodologies. Student feedback will be incorporated into the annual LCAP.
Subpriority B: Student Participation
Goal	Each year HCCS will circulate a student satisfaction survey.The survey will be made available in not less than the 5 most widely spoken languages among the student population.
Method	Each year HCCS will circulate a student satisfaction survey. The survey will be made available in no less than the 5 most widely spoken languages among the student population. Additionally, Working in PLCs each teacher has a minimum of 2-3 focal students with whom they are collecting warm/street data to understand the students' learning experience so that they can be responsive.
Measurement	HCCS will track the number and percentage of students participating in the survey. Before and after each survey period HCCS staff will discuss and implement strategies to increase student participation.
Subpriority C: Community Partner Engagement
Goal	Maximize the opportunity for HCCS students and staff to meaningfully engage with community partners by hosting at least 5 events accessible to HCCS students remotely (i.e. through Zoom).
Method	Community partner events will be held throughout the year including job fairs, immigrant resource presentations, Know Your Rights presentations from local agencies, and cultural events celebrating diverse student backgrounds.
Measurement	All community partner events will be assessed for engagement and impact including number of students engaged. This will be documented in the LCAP.

STATE PRIORITY 4: Student Achievement Academic Achievement Metrics, performance on standardized tests, progress of English Language Learners
Subpriority A: Academic Achievement Metrics
Goal	Schoolwide academic achievement metrics will meet targets as agreed upon with our Authorizer as outlined below in HCCS Academic Achievement Metrics.

Method	All HCCS students take regular CASAS tests every 6-8 weeks. All counselors schedule regular meetings with 12th-grade students and provide a personalized graduation plan to ensure all 12th graders graduate within the same program year as admission to the 12th grade.
Measurement	All Academic Achievement measurements are reported to the Authorizer yearly in an annual report.
Subpriority B: Standardized Tests
Goal	Implement two mandatory training on Smarter Balanced assessment for teachers and paraeducators.
Method	HCCS will begin implementation of Smarter Balanced (SBAC) for 11th grade in the 2025-2026 school year. The designated LEA CAASPP coordinator will coordinate training and implementation.
Measurement	The designated LEA CAASPP coordinator will report CAASPP results to HCCS and TRUSD.
Subpriority C: Progress of English Language Learners
Goal	English Language Learners will see consistent growth including average CASAS Reading STEPS gains of 2 points or greater per program year and Measurable Skills Gains as reported to NRS meeting or exceeding the state average.
Method	CASAS tests will be taken by all students every 8 weeks at a minimum, the percentage of students with pre and post test scores will meet or exceed 55%.
Measurement	The CASAS coordinator will review monthly progress reports.

STATE PRIORITY #5— STUDENT ENGAGEMENT Pupil engagement, as measured by all of the following, as applicable: A. School attendance rates B. Chronic absenteeism rates C. Middle school dropout rates (EC §52052.1(a)(3)) D. High school dropout rates E. High school graduation rates
Subpriority A: Student Attendance Rates
Goal	HCCS will ensure an 80% attendance rate.
Method	Attendance with sufficient academic progress will be a requirement of continued enrollment at HCCS. Students not meeting requirements will receive academic support and intervention.

Measurement	HCCS will produce monthly, quarterly, and annual attendance reports and track periodic attendance rates which will be visualized in Schoolytics.
Subpriority B: Chronic Absenteeism
Goal	HCCS will reduce chronic absenteeism by 5% yearly.
Method	HCCS will enforce mandatory attendance policies designed to promote attendance. See the attendance SOP attached in the appendix.
Measurement	HCCS will report chronic absenteeism in Dataquest.
Subpriority C: Graduation Rates
Goal	The HCCS DASS 1-Year graduation rate will meet or exceed 20 percent.
Method	All HCCS 12th graders will be prepared for graduation with personalized graduation plans and extensive academic and counseling support.
Measurement	The reported number of graduates in CALPADS will be compared against the cumulative enrolled population of 12th grade students for the school year.

STATE PRIORITY #6— SCHOOL CLIMATE School climate, as measured by all of the following, as applicable: A. Pupil suspension rates B. Pupil expulsion rates C. Other local measures, including surveys of pupils, parents, and teachers on the sense of safety and school connectedness
Subpriority A: Pupil Suspension Rates
Goal	HCCS will maintain a suspension rate of less than two percent.
Method	HCCS will train teachers, principals, and counselors in social-emotional learning techniques and behavior management.
Measurement	HCCS will track student suspension in PowerSchool and report it in CALPADS.
Subpriority B: Pupil Expulsion Rates
Goal	HCCS will maintain an expulsion rate of less than two percent.
Method	HCCS will train teachers, principals, and counselors in social-emotional learning techniques and behavior management.
Measurement	HCCS will report student expulsion rates using CALPADS.

Subpriority C: School Climate
Goal	HCCS will ensure 90% of enrolled students respond to the student climate survey.
Method	As part of HCCS community partner engagement, the yearly student climate surveys will be distributed to all students by teachers. Teachers will be trained on the survey and participation incentivized.
Measurement	The accountability department will collate and analyze student survey results and present the results to the HCCTS Board of Directors.

STATE PRIORITY #7— COURSE ACCESS The extent to which pupils have access to, and are enrolled in, a broad course of study, including programs and services developed and provided to unduplicated students (classified as EL, FRPM-eligible, or foster youth; E.C. §42238.02) and students with exceptional needs. "Broad course of study" includes the following, as applicable: Grades 9-12: English, social sciences, science, mathematics, visual and performing arts, applied arts, and career technical education.
Goal	100% of students will have access to all content areas. As a school with many credit recovery students, not all students will be enrolled in all subjects, however all students will have access to the courses needed to graduate high school with a broad course of study.
Method	HCCS students with limited English proficiency are enrolled in classes with designated English support which offer integrated access to all content areas.
Measurement	Yearly review of course outlines, descriptions, ELP objectives, and EL Civics content areas.

STATE PRIORITY #8— Pupil Outcomes
Subpriority A: English
Goal	All students will demonstrate an increase in proficiency in English Language Arts/Literacy.
Method	All English learners will be supported with English language instruction integrated with ELA standards. All English proficient high school students will demonstrate mastery through course completion. All students will receive regular CASAS reading testing.

Measurement	Average CASAS reading tests will meet or exceed 2 points per program year. Yearly the program will meet or exceed California state targets for Measurable Skills Gains.
Subpriority B: Social Science
Goal	All EL students will be enrolled in Civics education.
Method	Students will take 3 yearly CASAS Civics exams.
Measurement	The school will maintain an 85% passing rate for Civics exams.
Subpriority C: Mathematics
Goal	All students enrolled in Mathematics will make measurable progress.
Method	Math students will receive pre and post CASAS testing to evaluate the effectiveness of the program.
Measurement	All math students will meet or exceed a 2% CASAS Math Goals gain on average.

Method for Measuring, Analyzing, and Reporting Pupil Progress Toward Outcomes

Assessment

Key Measurement Methods

Measurement Outcome	Method of Measurement	Frequency of Assessment
CASAS Gains	CASAS Reading, Listening, and Math assessments	Every 6 to 8 weeks
English Language Proficiency Progress	Internally developed ESL Level exit test	Term
EL Civics Assessments	CASAS approved assessment plans (COAAPS)	Three times each year in the following months: November, March, June
High School Content Mastery	Course assessments and course grades Savvas imbedded assessments	At the end of every high school course Savvas: mid-unit assessments; formal and informal evaluations
ELA and Math Achievement	Smarter Balanced (CAASPP) Savvas imbedded assessments	CAASPP: Once in grade 11. Savvas: mid-unit assessments; formal and informal evaluations

Science Achievement	CAST Savvas imbedded assessments	Once in high school grades 10 or 12. Savvas: mid-unit assessments; formal and informal evaluations

English Language Proficiency Placement
HCCS assesses all students as part of the admission process. Non-native English speakers receive an internally developed placement test to determine English proficiency. Additionally all students receive CASAS testing to establish a baseline for academic achievement.

State Testing
In compliance with Ed. Code HCCS will offer the California Assessment of Student Performance and Progress (CAASPP) and the Smarter Balanced Assessments Consortium (SBAC) to all students in 11th grade. HCCS also offers California Science Tests (CAST) to all 12th-grade students who have not previously taken the science test in high school. Testing will be coordinated by the Assessment Coordinator with academic staff and test proctors. Because CAASPP testing is new to HCCS, the determination of the details of testing windows and procedures will be an ongoing process by academic and assessment staff.

Student Growth
HCCS uses the Comprehensive Adult Student Assessment System (CASAS), a competency based adult assessment program validated by the U.S. Department of Education for use in adult education. While HCCTS is a K-12 institution there are few assessment programs designed to evaluate the growth of adult students. Consequently, CASAS is an essential tool for the evaluation of student progress at Highlands. The test series used by HCCS are listed below.

Test Series
CASAS Reading STEPS
CASAS Listening STEPS
CASAS Reading GOALS 2
CASAS Math GOALS 2

Students receive CASAS testing every 6-8 weeks. Testing is conducted via an application installed on HCCS Chromebooks. Testing can only occur in a proctored environment and is conducted by test proctors or teachers.

All students receive CASAS reading tests. CASAS Math assessments are administered to all students enrolled in math courses to evaluate the effectiveness of the instruction they receive.

Schoolwide CASAS outcomes include average point gain, measurable skills gains, and pre- and post-testing rates. Below are the average point gains for the previous three program years.

Average Point Gain per Program Year
	2022-2023	2023-2024	2024-2025
ESL Students
CASAS Reading STEPS	5.1 points	6.3 points	5.2 points
CASAS Listening STEPS	4.0 points	4.1 points	5.8 points
Adult Basic Education Students
CASAS Reading GOALS 2	5.4 points	6.4 points	4.9 points
CASAS Math GOALS 2	3.4 points	2.8 points	6.0 points

The data reveals several encouraging trends across both programs. For English Language Learners, CASAS Listening scores have shown steady year-over-year improvement, culminating in a significant gain of 5.8 points in 2024–2025—the highest in three years—indicating that recent adjustments to listening instruction are proving effective. Although reading gains dipped slightly this year, they remain above the 2022–2023 baseline, suggesting partial retention of prior improvements.

At the high school level, CASAS Math scores rose dramatically in 2024–2025, jumping from 2.8 to 6.0 points, signaling substantial progress in math instruction. ABE students also demonstrated consistently strong gains in reading from 2022–2024, reflecting effective literacy practices despite a slight decrease in the most recent year.

Measurable skills gains represent the number of students progressing in an Educational Functioning Level as defined by the National Reporting System (NRS), the federal accountability system. Measurable skills gains are an important indicator of both English language and academic progress.

CA State Average	44.36%	44.8%	TBD

CASAS pre and post tests are essential for measuring student progress but also serve as an important measure of student engagement. .

Percentage of Learners with Pre and Post CASAS Test

2022-2023	2023-2024	2024-2025
56.61%	64.68%	75%

The data above reflects a clear upward trend in the percentage of students who received both a pre- and post-test over the past three years. In 2022–2023, 56.61% of students received both tests. This increased to 64.68% in 2023–2024 and rose again to 75% in 2024–2025. This steady improvement demonstrates HCCS's growing commitment to data-driven instruction and collective efforts to ensure more students are assessed consistently, allowing HCCS to better capture and respond to their academic development.

Teachers, counselors, and proctors at HCCS work diligently to ensure that all students complete both the CASAS pre- and post-tests; however, reaching 100% participation remains a challenge. To address this, HCCS is implementing several strategic measures, including hiring additional proctors, expanding staff training, purchasing more laptops to support testing, and developing a more structured and comprehensive testing schedule. Additionally, the recent hiring (August 2024) of a dedicated CASAS Coordinator has provided focused leadership to further strengthen the assessment processes. Through these efforts, HCCS is committed to increasing the percentage of students completing both assessments in the coming years.

EL Civics Civic Objective and Additional Assessment Plan Data (COAAP)
Integrated English Language and Civics (ELCivics) programs are designed to offer English language learners access to English language literacy instruction while learning crucial concepts for participation in the workforce and civic life in the United States. EL Civics assessments are developed according to assessment plans (COAAPs) supplied by CASAS and reported to the state via TOPSPro Enterprise, a state developed software tool.

For the past five years EL Civics assessments have been conducted through Google Forms. EL Civics data was collated and reported through automated Google API scripts. While initially cost effective the maintenance of an increasingly large dataset became impractical. In 2025 EL Civics implemented a pilot with Edcite to streamline the reporting process, improve the quality of the assessment, and to offer more accurate and detailed data tracking.

High School Graduation
Graduation is the best way to identify course completion for high school students. At HCCS, graduation day is like a holiday worthy of celebration. It is the culmination of years of hard work, determination, perseverance, and overcoming sometimes very serious hardships. HCCS loves to celebrate student success and provide an opportunity for students' families to celebrate this success as well. When students earn their credits, they may petition for their diploma and exit as a graduate. Since this happens on a very regular basis, HCCS provides more than one opportunity a year for students to celebrate and "walk the stage." HCCS holds graduation ceremonies every summer and winter. Each year, the venue has changed in response to graduation growth.

HCCS Graduation Rate
Historically, HCCS has used two graduation rates to track graduation: a one-year graduation rate utilized by DASS schools and the traditional 4-to-5-year cohort rate. The default method of measurement for graduation rate is the 4-to-5-year cohort rate. This measures the percentage of students who graduate in exactly 4 or 5 years after first entering the 9th grade.

HCCS faces a unique situation regarding its 4- and 5-year cohort graduation rate. Before 2021, English language learner students were designated primary students and enrolled in grades 1 and 2. In 2020-2021, all HCCS students were redesignated as high school students to better recognize their adult status. This resulted in a massive increase in 4-year cohort size. However, over 80% of these students still lacked basic secondary education skills, leading a very large number of students to spend extra time in the 9th grade as they develop their English language and academic skills.

Other students have entered HCCS with better English proficiency and more academic achievement in their countries of origin, leading them to graduate much faster. Students in the 2025 Winter graduation were enrolled for 2.5 years on average.

Students who graduate in 1-3 years are not reported as graduates for the graduation rate as presented on the California Dashboard until 4 years after their first entry in a high school. For example, if a student enrolls in the 2022-2023 school year and graduates in the 2024-2025 school year, they will not be counted in the published 4-to-5-year graduation rate until 2026-2027. Students who graduate in more than 5 years will never appear in the published 4-to-5-year graduation rate. So, an adult student who may have dropped out at 18 and finished their diploma at the age of 23 will not be represented in this graduation rate even if it only took them an additional year of school to complete their education.

For a school explicitly intended to serve alternative students who enter with an extremely wide range of educational backgrounds and levels of credit attainment, the cohort graduation rate is at very best a lagging indicator. In practice, it obscures rather than reveals the achievements made by students and the outcomes of the program. Furthermore, the proposed reduction in enrollment over the next five years will ensure that the cohort graduation rate will be at best highly unpredictable.

The chart below demonstrates the scale of the issue. While HCCS will continue to track and report the 4-year cohort rate, it will also track and report the 1-year DASS graduation rate to provide a more comprehensive picture of the outcomes of its academic programs.

While the raw number of HCCS graduates has grown dramatically, only 176 of HCCS' over 800 graduates reported in CALPADS for the 2024-2025 school year will be accounted for in the published 4-year cohort rate.

HCCS 1-Year Graduation Rate

HCCS students must work to overcome a wide variety of barriers to participate in education and achieve academic success. An adult learner is engaged with responsibilities and demands that pay no respect to their academic journey, making them inherently at very high risk of not completing their education. In every sense, these are alternative students. In recognition of this status, HCCS continues to track and report the 1-year graduation rate. The 1-year graduation rate is calculated as follows

$$\frac{\text{\# graduates as reported in CALPADS - (all students without 90 days cumulative enrollment)}}{\text{All students enrolled in 12th grade for the program year (all students without 90 days cumulative enrollment)}}$$

22.8%	32.1%	55.5%

ESL Level Progress

English Language learners progress through courses designed to advance their English Language skills while giving them the opportunity to engage with increasingly in-depth standards aligned content. Level 3 (Intermediate) is a particularly significant milestone. Completion of this level indicates that the student is able to participate in High School with significantly reduced designated support.

Alternative School Status

HCCS is accountable to the California Department of Education to ensure that HCCS students meet the state's standards. In 2013, the Local Control Funding Formula (LCFF) was adopted by California to ensure accountability using the California School Dashboard. The traditional standards were intended for traditional schools and, in many ways, fail to understand the needs of alternative students. As a result, the California Department of Education recognized alternative accountability measures for alternative schools.

In March 2015, HCCS adopted the Alternative Schools Accountability Model (ASAM), and we complied with their requirements. Then the Dashboard Alternative School Status (DASS) replaced the previous ASAM model, and since the beginning of the 2017–18 school year, HCCS has been accountable to the California Department of Education and adhered to the indicators set forth by DASS. In November 2024, HCCS agreed on a formal set of DASS metrics with Twin Rivers. In December 2024, however, HCCS was informed by the CDE that it would lose its DASS status. Despite this, HCCS will continue to track the agreed-upon metrics as Academic Achievement Metrics.

HCCS Academic Achievement Metrics
Academic Achievement
CASAS ESL
1. The percentage of HCCS English Language learners with a pre and post-test achieving a Measurable Skills Gain in the National Reporting System will meet or exceed California state targets, as reported by NRS Performance in TOPSpro Enterprise (TE).
CASAS ABE
1. The percentage of HCCS high school learners with a pre and post-test, achieving a Measurable Skills Gain in the National Reporting System will meet or exceed California state targets, as reported by NRS Performance in TOPSpro Enterprise (TE).

Academic Improvement
CASAS ESL
1. The average Comprehensive Adult Student Assessment Systems (CASAS) Reading Gains for English Language Learners at HCCS enrolled in International High School will meet or exceed an average 2-point gain, as measured by Learning Gains Summary in TOPSpro Enterprise.

Academic Improvement
2. The percentage of HCCS English Language Learners in International High School Level 3 students moving to high school will meet or exceed 5%, as reported by Student Level Gains in PowerSchool.
CASAS ABE
1. The average CASAS Reading Gains for learners enrolled in high school at HCCS will meet or exceed an average 2-point gain, as measured by Learning Gains Summary in TOPSpro Enterprise.
2. The average CASAS math gains for learners enrolled in high school at HCCS will meet or exceed an average 2-point gain, as measured by Learning Gains Summary in TOPSPro Enterprise.
3. The 1-year Graduation Rate for HCCS learners will meet or exceed 20% as reported in California School Dashboard.

Student Engagement
All Levels
1. The percentage of HCCS students with a CASAS pre- and post-test will meet or exceed 55% as measured by NRS Data Integrity in TOPSpro Enterprise.

CAREER TECHNICAL EDUCATION (CTE) & WORKFORCE
CASAS ABE
1. The percentage of 12th-grade HCCS high school students who are enrolled in a CTE program will meet or exceed 10% as measured by CTE Enrollment Percentage in PowerSchool.
2. The percentage of HCCS high school graduates who complete a CTE program will meet or exceed 4% as measured by Graduate CTE Completers in PowerSchool.

Teacher-Designed Formative Assessments

At HCCS, teachers utilize many informal assessment techniques to ensure student learning in the following subjects: reading and vocabulary, writing and grammar, speaking and pronunciation, listening, technology and computer literacy, math and consumer economics, science, history/social science/ community resources/government and law, and health and independent living. Assessment tools used to monitor student progress include:

- Benchmark assessments
- Oral class presentations

- Multimedia presentations
- Journal writing
- Independent class projects
- Essays
- Tests and quizzes
- Daily homework
- Book reports
- Movie reviews
- Portfolios
- Group projects
- Research projects
- Grammar diagnostics
- Reading comprehension checks
- Workbooks

Grading and Progress Reporting Systems
HCCS uses the traditional grading system A, B, C, D, and F. For GPA points, an A has a value of four points, a B has a value of three, a C has two, a D has one, and an F has zero. Although teachers may add a plus or minus to a grade, they do not affect the students' GPA. Students must receive a letter grade of B or better to pass a class or earn credits. If a student receives a grade lower than a B, they must engage in additional work until they demonstrate sufficient effort and mastery to receive a B. Students receive grades after they finish a course, partial course completion, or at the end of a term, whichever comes first.

Evaluation Methods
At HCCS evaluation is based upon a variety of evaluation methods to measure whether students meet requirements; these include teacher evaluation, self-assessment, publisher tests, and samples of work such as homework or portfolios.

High school course completion is tied to end of unit and end of course assessments. Students must receive a minimum of 80% on all assessments to receive credit.

Plan to Collect, Analyze, Use, and Report Academic Performance and Other Data
HCCS uses assessment data in four primary ways. First, assessment serves as a diagnostic tool to identify content areas a student has not yet mastered. This allows instructional staff to gain a clear understanding of each student's strengths and areas for growth, enabling timely and targeted academic support when needed.

Second, aggregated student learning data are used to evaluate overall school performance. A dedicated team of professionals at HCCS analyzes a broad range of academic indicators, including enrollment trends, placement assessments, demographic data, CASAS assessments and gains, course grades, graduation rates, and student retention. By examining student outcomes over time, the school is able to assess performance by teacher, course, program, and schoolwide, and compare results to those of similar institutions.

Third, assessment data inform decisions regarding student progression and formal recognition, such as level completion, graduation, licensure, or certification

Finally, assessments are used to identify students who may be underperforming relative to their peer group, prompting review of placement and potential intervention support. In cases where a student is not adequately progressing in a course, reassignment to a remedial course or additional instructional support from teachers, paraeducators, or specialists may be required to ensure the student is able to complete course materials and meet academic expectations.

Retention
HCCS addresses student retention through the development of school-based student engagement systems and strong partnerships that support teaching, learning, and student achievement. These student engagement systems coordinate efforts to strengthen two-way communication between students and the school. Retention is supported through cooperation between academic staff, counselors, and classified staff. HCCS will ensure specific roles relating to retention and engagement are added to the organization as appropriate to enrollment and student needs.

Program Audit and TRUSD Oversight
HCCS will compile and provide an annual performance report to TRUSD. This report will, at a minimum, include the following data:

- A summary showing student progress toward the pupil outcomes using data from the assessment instruments.
- A summary of major decisions and policies established by the HCCTS Board of Directors during the year.
- Data on the level of student involvement in HCCS and summary data from an annual student satisfaction survey.
- Data regarding the number of staff working at HCCS and their qualifications.
- A copy of the HCCS health and safety policies and/or a summary of any major changes to those policies during the year.
- An overview of HCCS admissions practices during the year and data regarding the numbers of students enrolled, the number on waitlists, and the number of students expelled and/or suspended.
- Analyses of the effectiveness of HCCS's internal and external dispute mechanisms and data on the number and resolution of disputes and complaints.

Element D Governance

"The governance structure of the charter school, including, but not limited to, the process to be followed by the charter school to ensure parental involvement." (Ed. Code § 47605(c)(5)(D).)

Governance Overview

Highlands Community Charter School (HCCS) operates as a directly funded independent charter school under Highlands Community Charter and Technical Schools, a California nonprofit public benefit- corporation, in compliance with applicable California law. HCCS commits to maintaining its nonprofit status in good standing and "active" status throughout the term of its Charter.

The Charter School is governed by the Highlands Community Charter and Technical School's Board of Directors (the "Board.") The Board of Directors provides ongoing oversight of the Charter School's academic performance, financial health, and legal compliance. This oversight includes reviewing regular reports from the Executive Director and leadership team, approving budgets and audits, evaluating progress toward organizational goals, and ensuring that the school remains faithful to the terms of its charter. The Board operates in accordance with its adopted by-laws and delegates management to key HCCS staff, including the Executive Director. The Board is not involved in handling the day-to-day details of running the charter school.

HCCS operates autonomously although in close harmony with Twin Rivers Unified School District, with the exception of the supervisory oversight as required by statute and other contracted services as negotiated between HCCS and TRUSD. Pursuant to California Education Code Section 47604(d), TRUSD will not be liable for the debts and obligations of HCCS, operated by a California public benefit corporation, or for claims arising from the performance of acts, errors, or omissions by HCCS as long as TRUSD has complied with all oversight responsibilities required by law.

Board Composition and Membership

Board of Directors
Mike Reid (Corporate President)

Mike Reid is a Board Member for Highlands. He has been an educator for over 38 years and has served in various roles throughout his career, including teacher, Vice-Principal, Principal, and Schools Superintendent. He has had the opportunity to assist and be recognized for three California Distinguished Schools.

His work in charter schools spans over nine years, during which he oversaw the development of a new charter school and served as the Learning Analyst for another. He also served as a consultant for the state of Hawaii for nearly three years, focusing on school academic improvement.

Sharon Rocco (Corporate Vice-President)

Sharon Rocco was born in Oregon and moved to California in 1959. In 1967, Rocco moved to Manila, Republic of the Philippines, and graduated from Brent Episcopalian Boarding School in Baguio City. In 1969, she returned to Sacramento, California, and completed college at California State University, Sacramento with a Bachelor's degree in Social Work and Corrections. Sharon began her career in 1975 with the California Department of Corrections as a Parole Agent and served both in rank and file and administrative positions until she retired in 2005. Sharon was elected to Highlands Community Charter School's Board of Directors in July 2015.

Mary DeChance (Corporate Treasurer)

Mary DeChance is an educational leader who began her career as a Resource Specialist and later made meaningful impacts as a Principal, District Director of Special Education, District Director, and Interim Coordinator for Early Childhood Education. Mary most recently was Faculty Lead at National University serving from 2005 until her retirement in 2016. Mary holds a BA in Behavioral Science and a Master's Degree in Special Education from the National University. Mary was appointed to the Highlands Community Charter and Technical School board in November 2020.

Board Member Selection Process

The Board of Directors shall consist of a minimum of three and a maximum of eight members; however, following the resignation of any director serving as of September 20, 2024, the maximum number of members shall be reduced to seven. To mitigate the occurrence of tie votes, the Board endeavors to maintain an odd number of members. Furthermore, school districts or county offices authorized to oversee HCCTS schools are entitled to appoint one voting representative to the Board.

Candidates for Board membership are sought from diverse professional backgrounds, including education, finance, law, public policy, human resources, and community leadership. Ideal candidates demonstrate alignment with HCCS's mission, a commitment to its success, and the ability to provide expertise or resources in support of the school.

People who work for the school (or have close family ties to someone who does) cannot serve on the Board. Each director serves a 3-year term and stays in the role until a new director is chosen. If a director leaves—due to resignation, death, legal issues, or missing three meetings—the Board can fill that spot by majority vote. Chartering authorities can fill or remove their own representatives.

In accordance with Education Code Section 47604.2(b)(2), the Board may, upon receipt of a qualifying petition, choose to include at least one student member. If appointed, the student member may be granted preferential voting rights as provided by law.

Board members may resign at any time by submitting written notice. However, no resignation shall be effective if it would reduce the Board below the minimum required membership, unless the Attorney General is notified. Should a vacancy arise due to resignation, death, legal disqualification, or failure to attend three consecutive meetings, the Board may fill the position by majority vote. Chartering authorities retain the right to appoint or remove their own representatives. Reductions in the Board's authorized size will not prematurely terminate current directors' terms.

HCCS will not make contracts or approve actions where a director or key employee have a potential financial interest in the contract or action that precludes HCCS from approving the same pursuant to Section 1090, the PRA, or other statutory, regulatory, or common law preclusions of conflicts of interest. It also will not loan money or property to any director or officer, except that it can advance money for work-related expenses that will be reimbursed. Lastly, HCCS promises to protect and cover legal costs or damages for its directors, officers, employees, and certain others if they face lawsuits or legal actions related to their role, as allowed by law. If someone asks for this protection, the Board will quickly decide if they qualify and approve it if they do.

Officers of the Corporation: Roles, Responsibilities, and Appointments
The Corporation is required to have a Chair of the Board, President, Secretary, and Treasurer, with the option to appoint additional officers as needed. Officers are appointed by the Board, report to the Board, and may have duties outlined in employment contracts. One person can hold multiple officer roles, except the same person cannot be both Chair/President and Secretary/Treasurer. Officers may be removed by the Board or resign with written notice. Vacancies are filled following the same process as original appointments. The Chair leads Board meetings, and the Vice-Chair fills in when the Chair is absent. The President (also called Executive Director) manages the Corporation's daily operations. The Secretary keeps records of Board meetings and official documents, while the Treasurer manages the Corporation's finances, provides reports, and may be required to give a bond to ensure proper handling of funds.

Board Members shall complete annual Brown Act, conflict of interest, sexual harassment, mandated reporter training, and other mandatory training requirements.

Roles of the Board
The Board of Directors is responsible for managing the Corporation's activities and has the authority to make key decisions. This includes hiring and removing staff, setting their duties and pay, relocating offices, operating in or outside California, borrowing money, using a corporate seal, and seeking outside funding to support and expand the organization's services. All actions must follow applicable laws and the Corporation's governing documents. For more information, see the bylaws in the appendix.

The Board may initiate and carry out any program or activity that is not in conflict with or inconsistent with any law and which is not in conflict with the purposes for which charter schools are established, and consistent with the Articles of Incorporation. The Board may execute any powers delegated to it by law, and shall discharge any duty imposed by law upon it and may delegate to an employee of the Charter School any of those duties with the exception of budget approval or revision, approval of the fiscal audit and performance report, and the adoption of Board policies. The Board, however, retains ultimate responsibility over the performance of those powers or duties so delegated. Other key and Executive employee roles and positions seen in the following organizational charts are described below.

Board members participate in retreats and trainings to support ongoing development and stay informed about key school initiatives. These sessions include updates on the State Audit, legal and financial compliance, and accountability and data monitoring. In the 2024 calendar year, the following board trainings and retreats were held:

- March 15th, 2024- Form 700 Training Provided by Young, Minney & Corr
- August 24th, 2024- Board Retreat- Strategic Planning, Gamification & The Brain, Future Data Analysis, Board Training Planning, Twin Rivers Oversight Reports
- September 4th, 2024- Board Training on Governance and Financial Oversight
- October 31, 2024- Collaborative Circles Board Training Session #1

Governance Structure
Highlands Community Charter School (HCCS) affirms that its Board of Directors serves as the sole governing authority of the Charter School. The Board holds ultimate responsibility for the governance and oversight of HCCS, with each member carrying a fiduciary duty to safeguard the long-term success and sustainability of the organization. The Board is charged with addressing all major governance and operational matters in accordance with applicable laws, Board policies, and the terms of the Charter. Key responsibilities include overseeing the school's financial health, ensuring proper expenditure and accountability of public funds, establishing general and curriculum-related policies, approving and monitoring the annual budget and financial procedures, and engaging in strategic planning and fundraising efforts. The Board is also responsible for the selection, evaluation, and, if necessary, dismissal of the Executive Director, as well as the approval and oversight of personnel policies. In addition, the Board works to build broad-based support and strategic partnerships that further the mission of the school. To fulfill its oversight role, the Board meets regularly to review academic and operational data, financial reports, and compliance documentation. Through these processes, it ensures alignment with the school's mission, holds leadership accountable, and monitors key performance indicators to drive continuous improvement.

HCCS has adopted a conflict of interest code that complies with the Political Reform Act, Corporations Code Conflicts of Interest rules, and any charter-specific conflicts of interest regulations. Notwithstanding any rule, regulation, provision, or Corporation Bylaw to the contrary, the HCCS' Board of Directors and the Charter School shall at all times and in all respects comply with all conflict of interests laws generally applicable to the District's Board of Trustees, including but not limited to Government Code section 1090 and the Political Reform Act. The responsibilities of the HCCS Board, as further outlined in the Bylaws, include but are not limited to:

- Uphold the Vision of the Charter School.
- Oversee the implementation of the HCCS's charter.
- Provide notice and hold meetings in compliance with the Brown Act.
- Create and implement goals for the Charter School.
- Ensure compliance with applicable law, such as the Public Records Act and policies such as the Conflict of Interest Code.
- Provide oversight of instructional programs and materials.
- Approve and provide input for student policies.
- Monitor management of school liabilities, insurance, health, safety and risk-related matters.
- Receive and review quarterly financial reports and the yearly financial audit.
- Work with the chief administrator to set goals.
- Enact policies to support the successful operation of HCCS.
- Attend ethics training (AB 2158).

Governance Procedures and Operations

Meeting Requirements and Procedures

All Board meetings are held in accordance with the Brown Act and Education Code Section 47604.1(c) and are open to the public; each agenda includes time for community input regarding Highlands Community Charter School. Governing Board meeting agendas are posted at the entrance of the Charter School's main office and on the Highlands Community Charter School website at least 72 hours prior to any regularly scheduled meeting and at least 24 hours in advance of special meetings. Emergency meetings may be held without standard notice when immediate action is required. Meetings are held at the principal office of HCCS or other publicly accessible, non-discriminatory locations within California designated by Board resolution or meeting notice. Teleconferencing is permitted if the public can attend from all listed locations, and votes are conducted by roll call. Under AB 2449 (effective through January 1, 2026), Board members may also participate remotely under certain conditions without disclosing their location, provided public access is preserved. Meeting minutes are posted to the HCCS website within 72 hours of approval and are available upon request. The Board meets regularly—typically monthly during the school year—and meetings are calendared annually, with rescheduling allowed for holidays.

Decision-Making Procedures

HCCS retains General Counsel to ensure Brown Act compliance for all HCCS board activities, including decision-making procedures. Board members have also been provided with Brown Act reference materials and may participate in yearly meetings held by California Charter Schools Association ("CCSA") and/or Charter Schools Development Center ("CSDC"), which feature ethics presentations, including Brown Act and conflict of interest reviews. All Board members are encouraged to participate in such presentations.

A majority of all voting Board members constitutes a quorum for all business transactions except adjournment. Every action taken or decision made by a majority of Board members present at a duly held Board meeting is considered an act of the Board, subject to more stringent provisions of the California Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation Law, including, without limitation, those provisions relating to:

- Approval of contracts or transactions in which a director has a direct or indirect material financial interest,
- Approval of certain transactions between corporations having common directorships,
- Creation of and appointments to committees of the board, and
- Indemnification of directors.

Meetings may be held by telephone or other telecommunications equipment pursuant HCCS Bylaws and in accordance with the terms and provisions of the Ralph M. Brown Act, California Government Code Sections 54950, et seq., as said chapter may be modified by subsequent legislation.

Educational Partner Involvement

Educational Partner Involvement Plan and Process

It is critical that all students are invested in the success of the Charter School and have a voice in matters critical to the Charter School's success. HCCS believes that student investment is integral to a successful student education, and it is commonly accepted that student involvement can have positive and long-lasting educational results. Therefore, HCCS makes every effort to ensure that student input is considered in the Board's decision-making process. To assure the greatest involvement, HCCS provides multiple opportunities for student feedback.

As part of its continuous improvement efforts, Highlands Community Charter School (HCCS) conducts Educational Partner (EdPartner) events throughout the year, beginning each fall with the distribution of staff and student climate surveys. Starting in the 2024–2025 school year, both surveys are administered via SurveyMonkey to enhance anonymity and encourage honest, constructive feedback.

The staff survey is distributed first and has seen steadily increasing participation, with 346 Highlands staff and 13 Equity Initiatives staff responding in 2024–2025—up from 223 respondents the previous year—resulting in a participation rate of 92.76%. The survey includes questions across several key areas: mission, vision, and schoolwide goals; communication and leadership; workplace culture and environment; onboarding and support; compensation and benefits; digital tools and technology; professional development and growth; and curriculum and instruction. These categories are designed to assess organizational strengths and identify areas for growth. Survey results are presented to the HCCTS Board of Directors and shared with all staff through infographic posters displayed at every school site to promote transparency and engagement.

The student climate surveys are sent out to all students in eleven different language options. In the 2024-2025 school year, the survey was hosted on Survey Monkey, which allowed for ease of use for students as well. Teachers are encouraged to have their students take the survey during class to increase participation.

Highlands' student survey was available to students in 12 languages, including English, Spanish, Russian, Ukrainian, Dari, Pashto, Arabic, Chinese, Vietnamese, Armenian, Turkish, and Hmong, and resulted in 3,610 student responses, compared to 2,169 last year.

In February 2024, HCCS held the Reading with Relevance event to gather information on the curriculum and its impact. Highlands engaged 36 educational partners during this event and had them participate in the Reading with Relevance Book Fair Impact Survey afterward.

During the Black History event in February 2024, Highlands focused on engaging educational partners and collecting feedback. The Black History Month Assembly Feedback Form from February 2024 garnered 27 responses from educational partners.

During the Building a Community School Lunch and Dinner sessions, Highlands concentrated on gathering suggestions for improvements in the domains of wellness, health, social-emotional support, additional academic opportunities, CTE, and community enhancements. HCCS held discussions with educational partners, which resulted in 22 summarized responses on the Building a Community School survey.

In March 2024, Highlands hosted a meeting with principals to gather their insights on the key challenges and opportunities for growth. Following the discussions, participants were requested to complete the Principal Feedback Survey, which provided subsequent data from 6 principals.

In April 2024, HCCS sent out the Leadership Survey to collect the directors' feedback on the following categories: communication, job and role clarity, work environment, recognition, relationships, curriculum, and professional development. HCCS has gathered responses that highlight the enhancements across the categories, alongside some challenges. Seven of the directors participated in the Survey.

In April 2024, Highlands facilitated a Your Voice Matters event for CTE programs at the Grand Avenue campus. HCCS engaged 42 educational partners and gathered feedback on strengths, improvement areas, and solutions.

In the 2023-2024 school year, Highlands hosted educational partner events titled Your Voice Matters at 11 locations, compared to one location in the previous year. The purpose of visiting more sites was to get more feedback from students with different needs at various school locations. For the 2023-2024 school year, HCCS gathered educational partner feedback from a total of 830, including 26 responses from students who enrolled in the Equity Initiatives program at the "Your Voice Matters" events, compared to 270 in the 2022-2023 school year. Combined with the all-staff climate surveys and student surveys, the principal meeting, leadership feedback survey, and other educational partner events, HCCS engaged 4,926 while gathering educational partner feedback.

Each educational partner event had a facilitator and notetaker who led the discussion in three areas: school strengths, growth opportunities, and possible solutions. The responses were recorded in Google Forms. HCCS analyzed the data to identify growth areas and build the LCAP goals and actions. HCCS found a high level of consistency in climate surveys and educational partner responses. After careful review, HCCS used this feedback to determine where to increase and decrease spending.

HCCS encourages students and staff to attend, speak, and present at Board meetings; HCCS requests that students and staff complete various surveys. HCCS proactively reaches out to students regularly to encourage them to meet with the counselors to continue discussing their goals and needs, and HCCS is proudly responsive to the feedback it receives.

HCCS encourages and teaches the students how to maintain direct influence over the direction of their educational process. Students have equal say, and sometimes, greater say, in their learning according to their academic needs. Teachers collaborate with students, other teachers, staff, administration, and community partners to determine what new programs and resources would be most beneficial to student achievement and well-being.

In planning to draft the LCAP, leadership consults with teachers, administrators, other school personnel, partners, and students in developing the annual update. This feedback is provided during EdPartner events. Following these events, the data is reviewed, proposals for a new funding formula are created and presented to the board of directors as well as the executive cabinet. Goals are then amended based on recommendations provided from the school community. Amended plans are then presented for feedback to staff, students, and all other interested parties at regularly scheduled meetings. All stakeholders are invited to submit public comments and final plans are approved at a public board meeting. HCCS will consider TRUSD recommendations and comments when drafting its LCAP. The Charter School shall present a report on the annual update to the LCAP and the local control funding formula budget each year as part of a nonconsent item at a regularly scheduled Board meeting.

Additionally, HCCS uses the school website to keep the students informed of all upcoming activities, important calendar items, and Board meeting minutes. HCCS promotes student involvement by encouraging students to contribute to and drive website content through the sharing of their personal stories which are connected to the website via an Instafeed of social media content.

The Board of Directors may, in its discretion, form Committees, in accordance with the Bylaws and applicable law, to accomplish the objectives and responsibilities of the Board and to ensure that the school achieves its mission and goals.

Element E Employee Qualifications

"The qualifications to be met by individuals to be employed by the charter school." (Ed. Code § 47605(c)(5)(E).)

Qualified Employment

HCCS shall recruit professional, effective, and qualified personnel for all administrative, instructional, instructional support, and non-instructional support roles who align with the school's instructional philosophy, mission, and vision. In accordance with Education Code 47605(e)(1), HCCS shall remain nonsectarian in its employment practices and all other operations. The Charter School shall not discriminate against any individual (employee or pupil) on the basis of actual or perceived disability, gender, gender identity, gender expression, nationality, race or ethnicity, religion, sexual orientation, immigration status, or any other characteristic included in the definition of hate crimes set forth in Section 422.55 of the Penal Code, or based on association with an individual who has any of the aforementioned characteristics.

All employees must possess the personal qualities, knowledge, and relevant experience outlined in the responsibilities and qualifications section of the posted job description, as determined by HCCS staff in coordination with Human Resources. HCCS staff and Human Resources personnel shall recommend applicants suitable for employment. Following the interview process, final approval shall rest with the Executive Director.

Executive Leadership 2025-2026

Executive Director, Jonathan Raymond
Chief Business Official, Matthew Lemos
Chief Operations Officer, Teresa Cummings
Chief Academic Officer, Eric Chapman

For more information on the resumes of each of the cabinet members and their job descriptions, see the appendix.

Administrative Services Credentials

HCCS supports and encourages leadership to obtain administrative services credentials through the CTC. HCCS currently partners with two programs to do this: the Sacramento County Office of Education and the San Diego County Office of Education. As of June 2025, 14 employees at HCCTS have participated in a preliminary and or clear administrative services credential program or have been accepted and will begin in the next cohort.

HCCTS administrators or employees who have completed or are currently enrolled in preliminary or clear administrative credential programs:

1. Eric Chapman, Chief Academic Officer
2. Teresa Cummings, Chief Operations Officer
3. Mayra Valdivia, Senior Director of School Services
4. Christina Martinez, Director of CTE, Workforce and Adult Education

5. Andrew Michaud, Director of Instruction and Professional Learning
6. Isa Cacho, Director of Student Services
7. Melissa Roberson, Director of Accountability and Assessment
8. Carol Zheng, Curriculum Coordinator
9. Niccole Scrogins, Admin on Special Assignment
10. Maya Perry, CICA Principal
11. Khrystsina Talstyka, HCCS Principal

The following employees have been accepted to a preliminary administrative services credential through the Sacramento County Office of Education and will begin in the next cohort:

1. Catherine Thirkill, CASAS Coordinator
2. Vicki Neal, HCCS Principal

HCCS has developed and adopted Board Policy 4331 – Administrative Credential Reimbursement, which outlines the reimbursement procedures for participation in approved credentialing programs. Additional details are provided in the appendix.

Evaluations

In the 2024-2025 school year, the Board Policy: 4115 Personnel Evaluation and Supervision outlined the maintenance of a comprehensive personnel evaluation policy to support continuous improvement, accountability, and alignment with the school's mission. This policy applies to all certificated and classified staff and outlines clear expectations for professional conduct, job performance, stakeholder engagement, and compliance. Evaluations are conducted annually and may include observations, self-assessments, performance appraisals, and goal-setting reviews, depending on the employee's role. Supervisors are responsible for providing timely feedback, maintaining documentation, and supporting employee growth. All evaluation records are kept confidential and stored in personnel files in accordance with privacy laws. For more information regarding Board Policy: 4115 Personnel Evaluation and Supervision, see the appendix.

Frontline is an integrated system used for payroll, employee evaluation, and professional learning management. As part of its evaluation functionality, the platform securely stores all employee evaluations and monitors performance trends over time. It facilitates a standardized evaluation process across the organization and provides automated reminders to supervisors regarding upcoming deadlines. All employees are required to review and electronically acknowledge their evaluations within the system.

Teacher Credentialing

HCCTS agrees that all teachers should hold a valid teaching credential for their certificated assignment in conformance with Education Code Section 47605(l)(1) and that classroom paraeducators should not be permitted to teach as the teacher of record or without the immediate supervision of an appropriately credentialed teacher without valid teaching credentials for their assignment. In prior years, teachers at HCCS held adult education credentials as recommended by the CTC and the San Diego County Office of Education. In February 2025, the CTC decided to enforce K-12 teaching credentials.

HCCS has already implemented the following to improve compliance and accountability. In the 2024–2025 school year, HCCTS significantly changed its credentialing and staffing procedures. The school established a credentialing support team of internal staff and credentialing consultants and reviewed more than 300 staff profiles. Individual credential pathway plans were developed, and 269 one-on-one consultations were held with teachers. HCCTS launched a partnership to create an intern credential pathway with tuition coverage for staff and offered reimbursement for credential exam fees and coursework through Board Policy 4112.3: Teacher Credentialing Reimbursements. All staff with noncompliant assignments were notified, and instruction in July 2025 was suspended to allow credential corrections before the next school year.

Board Policy 4112.2 now requires all certificated staff to hold valid and appropriate credentials at the time of hire and to submit timely proof of renewal. In alignment with updated guidance from the CTC and CDE—and following the loss of DASS status—HCCTS has transitioned away from Adult Education credentials. All teachers are now required to hold single-subject or multiple-subject credentials.

To support compliance, HCCTS created a centralized credentialing dashboard and updated its use of Frontline to track credential status, staff evaluations, and assignment alignment.
Per Board Policy 4112.2, certificated employees must:

- Hold the appropriate credential for their assignment upon hire;
- Maintain active credentials and complete renewals as required;
- Adhere to applicable state and federal regulations;
- Submit proof of credential validity and renewal to Human Resources within required timelines.

For more information from the Board Policy 4112.2: Credentialing Requirements Communications, see the appendix.

Instructional Paraeducators
Instructional paraeducators at Highlands Community Charter School (HCCS) play a vital role in supporting certificated teachers by providing instructional assistance and academic support in students' primary languages. To ensure all paraeducators meet minimum qualifications, HCCS requires a high school diploma or equivalent, successful completion of an English proficiency exam with a score of 70% or higher, and the ability to communicate effectively with diverse student populations. In alignment with state and federal requirements, HCCS verifies educational qualifications and exam results during the hiring process and maintains documentation to ensure compliance.

Applicant Screening
All job applicants at HCCS go through a rigorous pre-employment screening process to ensure they meet all requirements and qualifications for the role they are applying for. HCCS uses the website Edjoin to post job openings. This is also where new applicants apply for positions. Within Edjoin, HR is able to filter applications based on minimum qualifications. Only employees who meet these requirements are eligible for interviews. HCCS BP 4111 outlines the hiring process for external candidates. As part of the pre-employment job application, candidates are asked about their relationships to other employees in order to ensure that no relatives are involved in the hiring decisions and that family members do not report to each other.

HCCTS Hiring and Anti-Nepotism Policy
HCCTS has adopted Board Policy 4212.8, prohibiting relatives from participating in hiring or evaluation processes involving family members to address concerns about nepotism and favoritism. Interviewers must complete disclosure forms, and job postings, evaluations, and offers are now tracked and reviewed centrally by the HR department to ensure consistency and equity.

Organizational Chart & Job Descriptions
HCCTS regularly updates the organizational chart for accuracy based on the roles and structures needed within the organization. During the 2024-2025 school year, HCCTS drafted and revised a total of 25 job descriptions. The purpose is to ensure role clarity for all employees and ensure there is consistency between the work performed, role requirements, and appropriate pay.

Hiring Process
The hiring process at Highlands Community Charter School (HCCS) is designed to ensure consistency, transparency, and alignment with organizational needs and compliance standards. It begins with the submission of a Position Control Form (PCF) whenever a position needs to be backfilled or newly created. The PCF includes essential details such as the job description and a designated leadership contact, and is reviewed weekly by the Executive Cabinet. Upon approval and required signatures, the Human Resources team posts the position on EdJoin.org and communicates the posting status to the hiring manager. This step ensures that each job opening is intentional, well-defined, and appropriately authorized.

Once posted, hiring managers review applicants within EdJoin by evaluating qualifications in relation to the job description. Candidates are categorized as prescreened, interviewed, or removed, providing a clear record of each applicant's status. Notes from prior interviews are required for third interview requests and must be documented either via email or directly in the EdJoin system. For current staff changes, such as promotions or changes in FTE, an EE Update—rather than a PCF—is submitted to accurately reflect the employee's new assignment. Altogether, this structured process supports effective hiring decisions while maintaining clarity, documentation, and compliance across the organization.

Professional Development
In the 2024–2025 school year, HCCS adopted a Professional Development Policy to support the continuous growth of all staff: 4131 BP Professional Development. The policy aligns professional learning with HCCS's mission, vision, and strategic goals, with a focus on improving student outcomes and meeting legal and regulatory requirements.

HCCS offers a variety of professional development opportunities, including in-service training, workshops, online modules, and compliance-focused sessions. In accordance with Education Code 47605.1(f) and its WIOA partnership, HCCTS may conduct professional development at any location in California.

The Executive Director oversees alignment and implementation, while leadership identifies needs and encourages staff participation. Employees are expected to engage actively and apply their learning. Funding is provided in line with organizational priorities, and travel is reimbursed per Board Policy 3350. HCCS evaluates professional development effectiveness through staff feedback, performance data, and evidence of improved practice, with a commitment to equity and access for all staff.

In 2024-2025, HCCS offered extensive internal and external professional development, covering topics like CPR, active shooter response, equity, SEL, and leadership. HCCS provides two all-staff mandatory Professional Development opportunities throughout the year: three days in August and two days in May. All staff training includes Title IX training, Mandatory Reporter & Child Abuse Prevention Training, Sexual Harassment Prevention Training, FERPA, Workplace Violence Prevention Training, and Comprehensive School Site Safety Training.

Teachers and paraeducators receive training on assessments such as the California Science Test (CAST) and English Literacy and Civics (EL Civics) assessments, end-of-level assessments, and CASAS assessments. Additionally, teachers and paraeducators receive training on any curriculum updates and curriculum instructional strategies. Teachers in the process of getting their credential or who have their preliminary credential are assigned a mentor teacher and must meet with them regularly.

Highlands Community Charter School (HCCS) recognizes the critical role of targeted professional development in fostering staff effectiveness and advancing organizational goals. While HCCS offers all-staff professional development days to promote schoolwide alignment and collaboration, a dedicated portion of these days is intentionally reserved for department-specific professional development. This approach ensures that staff receive training that is both relevant to their roles and responsive to the unique needs of their departments.

To coordinate these efforts across departments, the Chief Academic Officer—or their designee—works collaboratively with department directors or lead team members to plan and implement tailored professional development sessions. This decentralized model promotes professional learning that is contextualized, job-embedded, and aligned with departmental objectives, while still supporting the broader mission and strategic priorities of HCCS. For more information on department professional development, see the appendix.

Element F Health and Safety Procedures

"The procedures that the charter school will follow to ensure the health and safety of pupils and staff. These procedures shall require all of the following
That each employee of the charter school furnish the charter school with a criminal record summary as described in Section 44237.

For all schools, the development of a school safety plan, which shall include the safety topics listed in subparagraphs (A) to (M), inclusive of paragraph (2)of subdivision (a)of Section 32282. For schools serving pupils in any of grades 7 to 12, inclusive, the development of a school safety plan shall also include the safety topic listed in subparagraph (N) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 32282.

That the school safety plan be reviewed and updated by March 1 of every year by the charter school." (Ed. Code § 47605(c)(5)(F).

Health and Safety Policies and Procedures

Custodian of Records

HCCS Community Charter School designates the Executive Director to serve as the Charter School's Custodian of Records per California Department of Justice requirements. The Executive Director is confirmed as the Custodian of Records by the California Department of Justice.

Promoting Student Health and Wellness

HCCS will ensure the safety of the students and staff by complying with all applicable state and federal safety laws. HCCS shall adhere to Board policies pertaining to the safety and health of all employees and students.

Emergency Operations Guide

The Emergency Operations Guide for Highlands Community Charter School (HCCS) is a comprehensive manual that outlines the protocols, procedures, and responsibilities necessary to ensure the safety and well-being of students, staff, and visitors in the event of an emergency. Designed to comply with California law, the guide establishes HCCS staff as disaster service workers and provides step-by-step instructions for responding to a wide range of emergencies—including natural disasters, active shooter situations, hazardous material releases, and more. It includes critical contact information, evacuation procedures, communication tools, and detailed roles within the Incident Command System, ensuring a coordinated and effective response to any crisis. All staff are required to review the guide annually and be prepared to carry out assigned emergency duties. For more information about the emergency operation guide, please refer to the appendix.

Social and Emotional Support and Guidance

Teachers, counselors, and all staff members who engage with students are expected to listen actively, provide support, demonstrate empathy, and guide students in developing healthy social and emotional skills. Maintaining an open-minded, trustworthy, and respectful approach is essential to fostering student well-being. HCCS is also committed to identifying students in need of mental health support and actively collaborates with community mental health organizations to connect students with appropriate resources and services.

Staff Safety Training and Protocols

HCCS staff are trained annually in active shooter response protocols, aligned with the procedures outlined in the School Safety Guide and emergency response reports. These trainings are complemented by regular campus-wide drills and communication system tests to ensure preparedness and coordination across all school sites. In addition to emergency preparedness, all staff participate in annual CPR and first aid certification, as well as any additional health and safety training required by state or federal guidelines. Staff contracts reflect agreement to comply with these safety procedures.

Student Drills and Emergency Procedures

To promote student safety and readiness, HCCS conducts fire drills and evacuation drills regularly throughout the academic year at all school sites. These drills are documented and reviewed to ensure efficiency and compliance with fire code and safety regulations.

Academic, College, and Career Counseling

Counselors meet with students one-on-one throughout the school year to discuss academic progress and set SMART goals (specific, measurable, attainable, relevant, and timely). Counselors offer college and career counseling through individual and group sessions.

Background Checks
HCCS certifies that criminal record summary information has been obtained for all staff prior to employment. Classified staff submit fingerprints to a California and multi-state Live Scan prior to employment. The multi-state search should ensure all convictions are reported. Furthermore, HCCS shall comply with the applicable state and federal laws regarding the fingerprinting and background clearance of employees, contractors, and volunteers prior to engaging in employment, volunteerism, or contract services or any other unsupervised contact with students of the Charter School. The Charter School shall not hire any person, in either a certificated or classified position, who has been convicted of a violent or serious felony except as otherwise provided by law, pursuant to Education Code Sections 44830.1 and 45122.1. The HCCS Executive Director or appointed confidential designee shall review California Department of Justice and Federal Bureau of Investigation reports on prospective employees, contractors, and volunteers to determine whether an individual may provide service within the Charter School, except with respect to reports relative to her or himself, in which case a confirmed member of the Board or appointed confidential designee will review the respective report. The Executive Director or appointed confidential designee shall monitor compliance with this policy on a continuous and ongoing basis.

Mandated Child Abuse Reporting
All HCCS employees are mandated child abuse reporters and will follow all applicable reporting laws. HCCS provides all employees and other persons working on behalf of HCCS who are mandated reporters with annual training on child abuse detection and reporting, which shall occur within the first six weeks of each school year, or within the first six weeks of a person's employment if employed after the beginning of the school year.

Tuberculosis (TB) Risk Assessment and Examination
HCCS shall adhere to existing state laws regarding tuberculosis screening of employees. HCCS requires a tuberculosis risk assessment and, if necessary, examination for all employees working in direct contact with students prior to commencing employment and working with students, and for employees at least once each four years thereafter. Highlands Community Charter School certifies that applicable health record information has been obtained for all relevant employees and volunteers prior to initial employment.

Immunizations
HCCS adheres to all applicable laws and existing Board policy related to legally required immunizations and health-related issues for both employees and entering students at HCCS.

CPR/First Aid Training
All designated employees are CPR and First Aid trained as part of internal practice.

Medication in School
The Charter School will adhere to Education Code Section 49423 regarding administration of medication in school. The Charter School will adhere to Education Code Section 49414 regarding epinephrine auto-injectors and training for staff members; per AB 1651 (2023), the Charter School shall store emergency epinephrine auto-injectors in an accessible location upon need for emergency use and include that location in annual notices required by law. To the extent the Charter School maintains a stock of albuterol inhalers to respond to respiratory distress in students, the Charter School shall comply with the requirements of Education Code Section 49414.7, including with respect to training, notices, and the stocking of albuterol inhalers.

Diabetes
The Charter School shall make type 1 diabetes informational materials accessible to the parent or guardian of a pupil when the pupil is first enrolled in elementary school.

Vision, Hearing, and Scoliosis
Students will be screened for vision, hearing, and scoliosis. The Charter School will adhere to Education Code Section 49450 et seq. as applicable to the grade levels served by the Charter School.

Suicide Prevention Policy
The Charter School shall maintain a policy on student suicide prevention in accordance with Education Code Section 215. The Charter School shall review, at minimum every fifth year, its policy on pupil suicide prevention and, if necessary, update its policy. Pursuant to AB 58 (2021-22), the Charter School will also review and update its suicide prevention policy to incorporate best practices identified by the California Department of Education's model policy, as revised.

Prevention of Human Trafficking
The Charter School shall identify and implement the most appropriate methods of informing parents and guardians of students in grades 12 of human trafficking prevention resources.

Menstrual Products
The Charter School shall stock the school's restrooms at all times with an adequate supply of menstrual products, available and accessible, free of cost, in all women's restrooms and all-gender restrooms, and in at least one men's restroom. The Charter School shall post a notice regarding the requirements of Education Code Section 35292.6 in a prominent and conspicuous location in every restroom required to stock menstrual products, as specified. This notice shall include the text of Education Code Section 35292.6 and contact information, including an email address and telephone number, for a designated individual responsible for maintaining the requisite supply of menstrual products.

All Gender Restrooms
As required by law, on or before July 1, 2026, HCCS will provide and maintain at least one all-gender restroom available at all sites.

California Healthy Youth Act
The Charter School shall teach sexual health education and human immunodeficiency virus prevention education to students in grade 12, at least once in high school, pursuant to the California Healthy Youth Act (Education Code Section 51930, et seq.).

Mental Health Education
If the Charter School offers one or more courses in health education to students in high school, the Charter School shall include in those courses instruction in mental health that meets the requirements of Education Code Section 51925, et seq.

Mental Health Information
The Charter School shall create and post a poster at the school site identifying approaches and resources addressing student health in compliance with Education Code Section 49428.5. The poster shall be displayed in English and the primary language(s) spoken by 15 percent or more of the students enrolled at the school site. The poster shall be prominently and conspicuously displayed in appropriate public areas that are accessible to, and commonly frequented by, students at the school site. The poster shall also be digitized and distributed online to students through social media, internet websites, portals, and learning platforms at the beginning of each school year.

Workplace Violence Prevention Plan
The Charter School shall establish, implement, and maintain, at all times in all work areas, an effective workplace violence prevention plan consistent with the requirements of Labor Code Section 6401.9.

Comprehensive School Safety Plan
The Charter School shall adopt a Comprehensive School Safety Plan, to be reviewed and updated by March 1 of every year, which shall include, but not be limited to: (1) an assessment of the current status of school crime committed on Charter School facilities and at Charter School-related functions; and (2) identifying appropriate strategies and programs that will provide or maintain a high level of school safety and address the Charter School's procedures for complying with applicable laws related to school safety, which shall include the development of all of the following pursuant to Education Code Section 32282(a)(2)(A)-(N):

- Child abuse reporting procedures
- Routine and emergency disaster procedures
- Policies for students who committed an act under Section 48915 and other Charter School-designated serious acts leading to suspension, expulsion, or mandatory expulsion recommendations
- Procedures to notify teachers of dangerous students pursuant to Education Code Section 49079
- A discrimination and harassment policy consistent with Education Code Section 200
- Provisions of any school wide dress code that prohibits students from wearing "gang-related apparel," if applicable
- Procedures for safe ingress and egress of pupils, parents, and employees to and from the Charter School
- A safe and orderly environment conducive to learning
- The rules and procedures on Charter School discipline adopted pursuant to Education Code Sections 35291, 35291.5, and 47605
- Procedures for conducting tactical responses to criminal incidents

- Procedures to prepare for active shooters or other armed assailants by conducting a drill, if this topic is covered in the School Safety Plan
- Procedures to assess and respond to reports of any dangerous, violent, or unlawful activity that is being conducted or threatened to be conducted at the school, at an activity sponsored by the school, or on a school bus serving the school
- Procedures to respond to incidents involving an individual experiencing a sudden cardiac arrest or a similar life-threatening medical emergency while on school grounds
- A protocol in the event a pupil is suffering or is reasonably believed to be suffering from an opioid overdose

The CSSP is a detailed, annually updated strategy for preparing for, responding to, and recovering from various emergencies and ensuring a safe learning environment for students and staff. This plan assesses campus risks, addresses potential safety concerns and threats, and outlines procedures for safety-related incidents

More information about the Comprehensive School Safety Plan can be found in the appendix.

Emergency Preparedness
Highlands Community Charter Schools shall adhere to an Emergency Preparedness Handbook drafted specifically to the needs of the facility in conjunction with law enforcement and the Fire Marshal. The handbook shall include, but not be limited to the following responses: fire, flood, earthquake, terrorist threats, and hostage situations. If assuming a facility that was previously used as a school site, any existing emergency preparedness plan for the school site shall be used as a starting basis for updating the handbook for the Charter School.

Staff shall receive training in emergency response, including appropriate "first responder" training or its equivalent.

Disaster procedures included in the School Safety Plan shall address and include adaptations for students with disabilities. To the extent an employee, parent/guardian, educational rights holder, or student brings concerns regarding the procedures to the Site Administrator and, if there is merit to the concern, the Site Administrator shall direct the School Safety Plan to be modified accordingly.

Bloodborne Pathogens
Highlands Community Charter School adheres to state and federal standards for dealing with bloodborne pathogens and other potentially infectious materials in the workplace. HCCS maintains a written infectious disease control plan designed to protect employees and students from possible infection due to contact with blood-borne viruses, including HIV and hepatitis B virus (HBV). This plan includes the training of staff and is included in the Charter School's Comprehensive School Safety Plan. Whenever exposed to blood or other bodily fluids through injury or accident, staff and students will be directed to follow the latest medical protocol for disinfecting and waste disposal procedures.

Drug Free/Alcohol Free/Smoke Free Environment
HCCS maintains a drug, alcohol, and smoke-free environment (workplace and campus).

Integrated Complaint and Investigation Procedure
HCCS utilizes an anonymous complaint process through a third-party vendor called Navex.

Navex
In the 2024-2025 school year, HCCTS partnered with Navex One to improve the process for receiving anonymous complaints and concerns from employees.

Navex is a vendor that allows employees to submit anonymous or non-anonymous complaints to employers. The school's goal for the use of Navex is to ensure clear communication regarding unethical or illegal activities within the organization while remaining anonymous and confidential. Employees can access Navex in three ways:

- By calling a phone line that is connected to HCCTS
- By accessing a website using a computer and a URL
- By scanning a QR code with a cell phone camera

Each Navex case is documented and then shared with the HCCTS Human Resources Department, where each case is investigated. Once enough information has been collected, the case is finalized, and actions are taken. This system has improved communication between employees and HR and has allowed improved transparency in reporting.

Discrimination and Harassment Policies and Procedures
HCCS is committed to providing a charter school free of discrimination, harassment, and retaliation. There are three components to this commitment. All employees receive and sign an employee handbook annually that informs them of HCCS's sexual harassment policy. Additional site-based sexual harassment training is taught to all staff, and annual training is facilitated through "Safe Schools," an online program.

HCCS is also committed to providing a workplace free of discrimination, harassment, and retaliation based upon the real or perceived characteristics of race, religion, creed, color, gender, gender identity, gender expression, immigration status, nationality, national origin, ancestry, ethnic group identification, age, medical condition, marital status, sexual orientation, sex and pregnancy, physical or mental disability, childbirth or related medical conditions, military and veteran status, denial of family and medical care leave, or based on a person's association with a person or group with one or more of these actual or perceived characteristics, or any other basis protected by federal, state, local law, ordinance, or regulation.

HCCS uses policies adopted by the Board regarding discrimination and harassment (including employee-to-employee, employee-to-student, student-to-employee, and student-to-student misconduct). Misconduct of this nature is very serious and will be addressed in accordance with Board policies. Any complaint of unlawful harassment, discrimination, or sexual harassment is actively investigated by HCCS, to include, where appropriate, the retention of outside investigators, in accordance with the Charter School's Uniform Complaint Procedure.

A copy of the policy shall be provided as part of any orientation program conducted for new and continuing pupils at the beginning of each quarter, semester, or summer session, as applicable, and to each faculty member, all members of the administrative staff, and all members of the support staff at the beginning of the first quarter or semester of the school year, or at the time that there is a new employee hired. The Charter School shall create a poster that notifies students of the applicable policy on sexual harassment in accordance with Education Code Section 231.6 and shall prominently and conspicuously display the poster in each bathroom and locker at the schoolsite and in public areas at the schoolsite that are accessible to, and commonly frequented by, pupils.

School Facility Safety
Highlands Community Charter School complies with Education Code 47610 by either utilizing facilities that are compliant with the Field Act or facilities that are compliant with the California Building Standards Code. HCCS adheres to laws specific to charter schools on the local and state levels regarding facilities. HCCS agrees to test sprinkler systems, fire extinguishers, and fire alarms annually at its facilities to ensure that they are maintained in an operable condition at all times.

Bullying Prevention
The Charter School shall adopt procedures for preventing acts of bullying, including cyberbullying. The Charter School shall annually make available the online training module developed by the CDE pursuant to Education Code Section 32283.5(a) to certificated school site employees and all other school site employees who have regular interaction with children.

Supporting LGBTQ Students
Through the completion of the 2029-30 school year, the charter school shall use an online training delivery platform and curriculum at least one hour of required LGBTQ cultural competency training annually to teachers and other certificated employees and maintain records of such training as required by Education Code Section 218.

SAFETY Act
Pursuant to AB 1955 (2024), employees of the Charter School shall not be required to disclose any information related to a pupil's LGBTQ+ identity to any other person without the pupil's consent unless otherwise required by state or federal law. This provision shall not limit a parent's ability to request school records on behalf of their child.

Homicide Threats
The Charter School shall comply with all requirements under Education Code Sections 49390-49395 regarding mandatory reporting in response to homicidal threats. All employees and Board members who are alerted to or who observe any threat or perceived threat in writing or through an action or a student that creates a reasonable suspicion that the student is preparing to commit a homicidal act related to school or a school activity shall make a report to law enforcement.

Gun Safety Notice
At the beginning of the first semester, the Charter School shall distribute a notice to the parents/guardians of each student addressing California's child gun access prevention laws and laws related to firearm safety, utilizing the most updated model language published by the California Department of Education.

Athletic Programs
The Charter School shall comply with all applicable laws related to health and safety policies and procedures surrounding athletic programs at charter schools, including but not limited to providing information to athletes regarding sudden cardiac arrest and annually providing each athlete with an Opioid Factsheet for Patients.

Transportation Services
The Charter School shall comply with the requirements of AB 88 (2023-24), if applicable, relating to background checks, testing, and other requirements for individuals and entities providing transportation services to students.

Extreme Weather Policy
On or before July 1, 2026, the Charter School will develop, adopt, and implement a weather policy that includes protocols for extreme weather conditions, and incorporate the standardized guidelines developed by the CDE.

Title IX
HCCS complies with Education Code Section 221.61 by posting in a prominent and conspicuous location on its website the following information related to the federal regulations implementing Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972:

The name and contact information of the Charter School's Title IX Coordinator, including the Title IX Coordinator's phone number and email address.

The rights of the pupil and the public and the responsibilities of the Charter School, which includes, but is not limited to, internet web links to information about those rights and responsibilities located on the website of the Office for Equal Opportunity and the U.S. Department of Education Office of Civil Rights (OCR), and the list of rights specified in Education Code Section 221.8.

A description of how to file a complaint under Title IX, which shall include all of the following:

A. An explanation of the statute of limitations within which a complaint must be filed after an alleged incident of discrimination has occurred, and how a complaint may be filed beyond the statute of limitations.
B. An explanation of how the complaint will be investigated and how the complainant may further pursue the complaint, including, but not limited to, web links to this information on the U.S. Department of Education OCR website.

C. A link to the U.S. Department of Education OCR complaint form, and the contact information for the office, including the phone number and email address for the office.

Element G Balanced Enrollment

"The means by which the charter school will achieve a balance of racial and ethnic pupils, special education pupils, and English learner pupils, including redesignated fluent English proficient pupils, as defined by evaluation rubrics in Section 52064.5, that is reflective of the general population residing within the territorial jurisdiction of the school district to which the charter petition is submitted." (Ed. Code § 47605(c)(5)(G).)

Assurances

Highlands Community Charter School shall:

- Be nonsectarian in all programs, admission policies, employment practices, and operations; not charge tuition; and not discriminate against any pupil on the basis of disability, gender, gender identity, gender expression, nationality, race or ethnicity, religion, sexual orientation, or any characteristic listed in Penal Code § 422.55.
- Admit all pupils who wish to attend to the extent that space allows; admission shall not be determined by place of residence except as otherwise required by law; and, if applications exceed capacity, offers of admission shall be made by public random drawing (lottery) consistent with Ed. Code § 47605(d)(2).
- Apply any enrollment preferences only as permitted by law and as stated in the charter; preferences will not require mandatory parent volunteer hours as a condition of admission (Ed. Code §47605(e)(2)(B)(iv)) and shall not limit access for pupils protected by Ed. Code §47605(e)(2)(B)(iii).
- Preferences, if given, shall not result in limiting enrollment access for pupils based on nationality, race, ethnicity, or sexual orientation; and shall not result in limiting enrollment access for pupils with disabilities, academically low-achieving pupils, English learners, neglected or delinquent pupils, homeless pupils, or economically disadvantaged pupils, or foster youth. (Education Code § 47605(e)(2)(B)(iii)).
- Not discourage enrollment in the charter school or encourage disenrollment/ transfer of a student from the charter school, for any reason, including but not limited to academic performance or any characteristics of the student listed under Education Code §47605(e)(2)(B)(iii).
- Not request or require submission of a student's IEP, Section 504 plan, or other records prior to admission, participation in any lottery, any pre-enrollment event, or as a condition of enrollment; HCCS may request only the information necessary to apply any admissions preferences stated in the charter.

Achieving and Maintaining Student Population Balance Plan & Goal

Highlands Community Charter School strives, through recruitment and admissions practices, to achieve a racial and ethnic, special education, and English Learner balance among its students that is reflective of the general population residing within the territorial jurisdiction that it serves. HCCS will include an open enrollment policy. Students are considered for admission to the school without regard to ethnicity, national origin, gender, gender expression, gender identity, disability, sexual orientation or any of the characteristics listed in Education Code Section 220. (actual or perceived disability, gender, gender identity, gender expression, nationality, race or ethnicity, religion, sexual orientation, or any other characteristic that is contained in the definition of hate crimes set forth in section 422.55 of the Penal Code, including immigration status, or association with an individual who has any of the aforementioned characteristics).

HCCS will implement a coordinated advertising and recruitment strategy to ensure that all students are informed of the educational opportunities available. These efforts will be ongoing throughout the year and will be designed to reach a broad and diverse audience. In alignment with HCCS's commitment to serving students from all ethnic and cultural backgrounds, a variety of advertising methods will be employed to promote equitable access and inclusive outreach.

Each year, HCCS analyzes enrollment trends in order to optimize efforts to recruit and retain students. An informal designated committee, composed of various stakeholders from the instructional, administrative, and operational sides of the school, meets regularly to discuss a problem-solving plan. Using both quantitative and qualitative feedback from the previous year, the plan allows the team to work together to clearly identify enrollment trends and their root causes, determine potential solutions, and generate strategies to successfully implement and track solutions in the upcoming year. Some of the valuable sources of data for this exercise come from student satisfaction surveys and non-mandatory exit interviews through which feedback is gathered.

Marketing: Advertising and Sponsorship to Increase Student Enrollment

Board Policy 1325, adopted in the 2024-2025 school year, establishes clear guidelines for how HCCTS may allocate funds for advertising, particularly as a strategy to increase student enrollment. All advertising expenditures must align with the school's mission and strategic goals and demonstrate a meaningful return on investment. Advertising is intended to raise awareness of HCCTS programs, highlight the benefits of enrollment, and promote the school's values to prospective students in the broader community.

Advertising campaigns must be pre-approved and fit within an annually reviewed budget that may not exceed 1% of the overall school budget without Board approval. Approval levels for advertising expenditures are tiered by amount, with campaigns over $100,000 requiring direct Board authorization.

Advertising efforts must clearly communicate the educational opportunities HCCTS offers—including adult high school diplomas, career preparation, and hands-on skill development—and use platforms that are cost-effective and aligned with the school's target audiences. All advertising must also comply with legal and ethical standards and adhere to brand identity guidelines to build recognition and trust within the community.

Additionally, advertising effectiveness is monitored and reviewed annually to ensure alignment with HCCTS's enrollment and engagement objectives, with quarterly reporting to the Executive Director and an annual summary to the Board. For more information about the Board Policy 1325, see the appendix.

Element H Admissions Policies and Procedures

"Admission policies and procedures, consistent with [Education Code Section 47605] subdivision." (e). (Ed. Code § 47605(c)(5)(H).)

Admission and Enrollment Requirements

California Innovative Career Academy is nonsectarian in its programs, admission policies, and all other operations. HCCS will not discriminate on the basis of actual or perceived disability, gender, gender identity, gender expression, nationality, race or ethnicity, religion, sexual orientation, or any other characteristic that is contained in the definition of hate crimes set forth in Section 422.55 of the Penal Code, or association with an individual who has any of the aforementioned characteristics [Ed. Code § 47605(e)(1)]. HCCS shall comply with all applicable laws governing minimum age requirements for registration in charter schools. The school shall not use any test, assessment, or interview to determine a student's eligibility for admission. However, following registration, all students may be administered diagnostic assessments, dubbed "placement tests," solely for the purpose of determining appropriate instructional placement. These assessments are used to inform grade-level placement and have no bearing on a student's eligibility for admission.

HCCS admits all students who meet the following criteria:

- Demonstrate a desire to enroll in the academic program
- Fall within the categories the school is legally authorized to serve
- Meet the eligibility requirement of being age 22 or older under the exclusive WIOA agreement
- Students do not have a U.S. high school diploma
- Submit a timely application

Required Documents

- Proof of Identification
- Proof of California Address (may be covered by proof of identification)
- HCCS Online Registration, which includes but not limited to the following:
    - Emergency Consent and Contact Information
    - National School Lunch Program Form (NSLP)
    - Home Language Survey
- CalJOBS Registration (Any forms required by a WIOA partner

Enrollment Period

Initial applications are accepted at any time during the school year. The HCCS admission process consists of the completion of an online student registration form. The admission process also includes students to participate in orientation, grade level placement, and academic planning.

Education Exclusively in Partnership with the Workforce Investment Opportunity Act (WIOA)
Per Ed. Code §§ 47612.1 and 47605.1(f)(1), HCCS provides instruction exclusively in partnership with the Workforce Investment Opportunity Act of 1998 through its partnership agreement with the Sacramento Employment and Training Agency (SETA) or other WIOA organization. As such, HCCS only legally serves students who are receiving WIOA-funded services and does so under the terms of a Partnership Agreement. HCCS will provide a copy of the Partnership Agreement to the District on or before July 1, 2019.

The SETA or other WIOA service provider will provide HCCS students with the services specifically outlined in and attached hereto under "Tab 9—Workforce Agreements." HCCS will provide the District with documentation that confirms SETA or other WIOA service provider is qualified and authorized to provide such services contemplated in the Partnership Agreement.

Not Possessing a U.S. High School Diploma
Students who have a U.S. high school diploma (also known as a "regular high school diploma") will not be admitted to Highlands Community Charter School. Students who possess a GED, CHSPE, foreign credential, or any other alternative degree that is not fully aligned with the academic standards of the State of California may be admitted.

HCCS Proposed Lottery Process
If HCCS receives registrations in excess of its enrollment capacity, the lottery process will be used to select admitted students. HCCS will conduct a public random drawing facilitated by PowerSchool Enrollment School Choice, a third-party platform. The drawing will take place in a public setting at our Hillsdale Campus, located at 5655 Hillsdale Blvd, Sacramento, CA 95842. The lottery will be held up to two weeks before the start of the school year. Notice of the random drawing will be provided through written postings at the school site and on the school's website.

The lottery is open to the public, and prospective students are encouraged to attend; however, they are not required to be present at the time of the drawing to be eligible for admission. Results will be communicated to prospective students.

The lottery will be conducted using student numbers assigned to each prospective student. As numbers are drawn, they will be displayed for everyone in attendance to see. Once all available seats for a specific grade level, site, and schedule preference (regular daytime or evening) have been filled, the designated staff member will announce that any additional students drawn will be placed on the waitlist. Students will be added to the waitlist for that grade level, site, and schedule preference (regular daytime or evening) in the order their numbers are drawn.

Waiting List Priorities
A waiting list will be implemented when the number of applications exceeds the enrollment capacity for a specific grade level, site, and schedule preference (regular daytime or evening). In the event of a lottery, admission will be offered to prospective students based on lottery results until capacity is reached. Once capacity is met, all remaining names drawn will be placed on a waiting list in the order they were selected.

New applicants who register after the lottery deadline will be offered a seat if space is available in their grade level, site, and schedule preference (regular daytime or evening), or they will be added to the waiting list in the order the application was received. As seats become available, they will be offered to students starting with the lowest numerical ranking on the waiting list.

Notifying Students of a Seat Offering
Once a seat becomes available for an applicant who has the lowest numerical ranking on the waiting list, the student will be contacted by the Registration department to confirm their seat. Any admitted students who decline an offered seat or who fail to confirm by the deadline will lose their position to the next applicant on the waiting list. The waiting list is kept on file at the school and is valid for the duration of the school year.

Documenting the Fair Execution of Lottery and Waitlist Procedures
Copies of lottery results and waiting list(s) are readily available for inspection at the school office. These records will be maintained by the Registration department.

Communicating to All Interested Parties
Applications are available digitally online on the HCCS website. HCCS advertises the open application period to the surrounding communities and also communicates the timeline, rules, and procedures for the lottery process if necessary. Typical methods for these communications include, but are not limited to, web advertising, newspaper and magazine ads, radio ads, home mailers, and flyers.

Element I Annual Financial Audits

"The manner in which annual, independent financial audits shall be conducted, which shall employ generally accepted accounting principles, and the manner in which audit exceptions and deficiencies shall be resolved to the satisfaction of the chartering authority." (Ed. Code § 47605(c)(5)(I).)

Annual Audit Procedures

Contracting with an Independent Auditor

Highlands Community Charter School (HCCS) conducts an annual independent fiscal audit in compliance with Education Code Sections 47605(c)(5)(I) and 47605(m). All financial records are maintained in accordance with Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (GAAP), and audits are conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and the State Controller's K–12 Audit Guide.

In the 2024–2025 school year, the HCCS Board of Directors adopted Board Policy 3581 – Data Retention and Record Management, which provides a comprehensive framework for the classification, retention, and secure disposal of records by staff, contractors, and affiliates. The policy applies to all administrative, financial, personnel, student, and instructional records, including communications in paper, digital, audio, or video format. This policy ensures that all audit-related documentation is properly maintained and readily accessible. For additional details, refer to the appendix entry for BP 3581.

Audit Timeline Overview

In alignment with Board Policy 3100 – Budget Development and Oversight, audit procedures are embedded in the school's annual budget cycle and financial governance structure. Each spring, the Executive Director and Chief Business Official (CBO) recommend an independent auditor for approval by the Board of Directors. Following the close of the fiscal year, the CBO finalizes and closes the books, compiles the necessary financial documentation, and coordinates with the independent auditor to conduct the audit.

Upon completion, the auditor prepares a report, which is formally presented to the Board of Directors. The Executive Director and CBO review any audit findings or exceptions and coordinate the necessary corrective actions. In accordance with statutory deadlines, the finalized audit report is submitted to the charter authorizer (Twin Rivers Unified School District), the Sacramento County Superintendent of Schools, the State Controller's Office, and the California Department of Education (CDE) by December 15 of each year. For additional detail, see appendix reference BP 3100.

Audit Completion Timeline
The audit is expected to be finalized within six months of the fiscal year's end. The Board of Directors formally reviews each year's audit findings and takes appropriate action to ensure full compliance with state and federal requirements.

Selection Criteria for Independent Auditors
The selected auditor must be a Certified Public Accountant (CPA) with experience in public school and charter school finance and must be listed as an approved audit provider by the State Controller. HCCS is solely responsible for all associated audit costs. Where applicable, the audit scope will include federal compliance elements outlined in Office of Management and Budget (OMB) Circulars and related federal guidelines.

Resolution of Audit Findings
Any audit exceptions or deficiencies are first reviewed by the HCCS Audit Committee, which provides formal recommendations to the Board of Directors. The Board submits a written report to the charter authorizer describing how identified findings have been addressed, along with supporting documentation. In cases where findings remain unresolved at the time of submission, the report includes a corrective action plan and projected timeline for resolution. HCCS aims to address all audit findings within six months. Disputes regarding the resolution of audit findings will follow the dispute resolution procedures set forth in this charter.

Audit Committee Review & Board Action
The HCCS Audit Committee reviews the CAP and forwards recommendations to the Board of Directors for approval. The CAP remains on the Board's agenda for status reporting each meeting until all items are closed.

Authorizer Notification & Documentation
Within 30 days of Board acceptance, HCCS submits to the charter authorizer a written report describing how each finding has been addressed or will be addressed, with supporting documentation. If any item is not yet resolved, the submission includes the Board-approved CAP and projected completion dates.

Timelines & Monitoring
HCCS aims to fully resolve audit findings within six months of audit issuance. Progress is monitored against milestones; if delays arise, management provides revised timelines and interim controls to the Audit Committee and Board.

Material Weaknesses/Significant Deficiencies
Any material weakness or significant deficiency triggers immediate Board notification, expedited remediation steps, and—if warranted—the engagement of external advisors to strengthen internal controls.

Public Access and Appeals
Audit reports are public records and will be made available upon request. Any audit appeals or requests for summary review will be submitted to the Education Audit Appeals Panel (EAAP) in accordance with applicable law.

Element J Suspension and Expulsion Procedures

"The procedures by which pupils can be suspended or expelled from the charter school for disciplinary reasons or otherwise involuntarily removed from the charter school for any reason. These procedures, at a minimum, shall include an explanation of how the charter school will comply with federal and state constitutional procedural and substantive due process requirements that are consistent with all of the following:
For suspensions of fewer than 10 days, provide oral or written notice of the charges against the pupil and, if the pupil denies the charges, an explanation of the evidence that supports the charges and an opportunity for the pupil to present the pupil's side of the story.
For suspensions of 10 days or more and all other expulsions for disciplinary reasons, both of the following:
(I) Provide timely, written notice of the charges against the pupil and an explanation of the pupil's basic rights.
(II) Provide a hearing adjudicated by a neutral officer within a reasonable number of days at which the pupil has a fair opportunity to present testimony, evidence, and witnesses and confront and cross-examine adverse witnesses, and at which the pupil has the right to bring legal counsel or an advocate.
(iii) Contain a clear statement that no pupil shall be involuntarily removed by the charter school for any reason unless the parent or guardian of the pupil has been provided written notice of intent to remove the pupil no less than five school days before the effective date of the action. The written notice shall be in the native language of the pupil or the pupil's parent or guardian or, if the pupil is a homeless child or youth, or a foster child or youth, in the native language of the homeless or foster child's educational rights holder. In the case of a foster child or youth, the written notice shall also be provided to the foster child's attorney and county social worker. If the pupil is an Indian child, as defined in Section 224.1 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, the written notice shall also be provided to the Indian child's tribal social worker and, if applicable, county social worker. The written notice shall inform the pupil, the pupil's parent or guardian, the homeless child's educational rights holder, the foster child's educational rights holder, attorney, and county social worker, or the Indian child's tribal social worker and, if applicable, county social worker. The written notice shall inform the pupil, the pupil's parent or guardian, the homeless child's educational rights holder, the foster child's educational rights holder, attorney, and county social worker, or the Indian child's tribal social worker and, if applicable, county social worker of the right to initiate the procedures specified in clause (ii) before the effective date of the action. If the pupil's parent or guardian, the homeless child's educational rights holder, the foster child's educational rights holder, attorney, or county social worker, or the Indian child's tribal social worker or, if applicable, county social worker initiates the procedures specified in clause (ii), the pupil shall remain enrolled and shall not be removed until the charter school issues a final decision. For purposes of this clause, "involuntarily removed" includes disenrolled, dismissed, transferred, or terminated, but does not include suspensions specified in clauses (i) and (ii).
(iv) A foster child's educational rights holder, attorney, and county social worker and an Indian child's tribal social worker and, if applicable, county social worker shall have the same rights a parent or guardian of a child has to receive a suspension notice, expulsion notice, manifestation determination notice, involuntary transfer notice, and other documents and related information." Education Code Section 47605(c)(5)(J).

School Climate and Student Discipline System

Highlands Community Charter and Technical Schools (HCCTS) has adopted 5144.1 Suspension and Expulsion Board Policy to promote student learning and ensure campus safety. The policy is closely aligned with California Education Code Section 48900 et seq. and is reviewed annually for updates. Disciplinary actions, including suspension, expulsion, or involuntary removal, are applied fairly and consistently and are clearly outlined in the Student Handbook. Students and families receive written notice of these policies upon enrollment. The policy prohibits corporal punishment and outlines due process protections for all students, including those with disabilities or Section 504 plans. Involuntary removal requires written notice in the student's native language and an opportunity for a hearing. Students remain enrolled during the hearing process unless suspended or expelled for misconduct. For more information about Board Policy 5144.1, see the appendix.

HCCS Discipline Philosophy

Highlands Community Charter School prides itself on meeting student needs and developing action plans to address extenuating circumstances as they arise, recognizing that many students come to the organization due to hardships that have prevented the fulfillment of their educational goals. By addressing the needs of each student directly, barriers to student success are removed.

Should a disciplinary action be required, Student Success Team meetings (SSTs) and 504 plan meetings (when applicable) are organized to review individual extenuating circumstances. Counselors, teachers, directors, and other assigned personnel assist with addressing student needs by creating an action plan for both the staff and the student.

School-Wide Positive Behavior Intervention and Support

The Student Success Team (SST) is a problem solving and coordinating structure that assists students, teachers, staff, and community partners to develop positive solutions for maximizing student potential. It provides an opportunity for school staff, the adult student, community agencies, and other important people to present their concerns about an individual student. The SST focuses in-depth on one student at a time, and invites the adult student to participate in finding solutions. Through discussion and study, they plan a positive course of action and assign responsibilities, as well as monitor the results of a student. This process informs individual actions for students, including referral to the formal SST process and class-wide actions to address issues such as use of class resources, behavior management, and classroom modifications.

The following is implemented during the time of behavioral intervention:

- Asset Based Delivery: The SST always starts with a discussion of a student's strengths/assets and develops solutions that build on these strengths
- Problem Solving: The SST gathers background information regarding the student in the areas of school, home, family, health, and collaboratively brainstorms solutions to address areas of concern.

- Service Coordination: An action plan is developed for interventions and supports are implemented designed to address the students' needs; team members are assigned responsibilities for action items.
- Monitor Results: Actions items are monitored and a follow up SST meeting is scheduled to review the results/outcomes of interventions, make adjustments and continue to strategize positive solutions to ensure student success.

The coordination of school, home and community interventions improve student learning, and provide focused, positive support to teachers, students and staff. An SST can help students who are facing significant concerns relating to:

- Academics
- Attendance problems
- Behavioral/emotional issues
- Consideration for 504 services
- Retention
- Health issues (including substance abuse)
- Social adjustment

Tiered Behavior Intervention

Members of a Student Support Team:

- The Adult Student is always invited to participate in the decisions of their own education and goal setting.
- Designated administrator
- Classroom teacher(s)
- Resource personnel or specialists, such as community outreach consults, social workers, probation officers, community resources representatives, or mental health consultant
- Others invited as appropriate

All SST team members are active contributors, and the process defines special roles that some members of the team must fill to achieve the greatest positive outcome. Team members may change roles from one SST meeting to the next. However, during any meeting each team member's role is clearly defined before the meeting begins and then maintained throughout that meeting.

Facilitator

This person facilitates the working of the team and is the SST coordinator/leader. The success of the team depends largely on this person, who guides the flow of the meeting, and coordinates logistics before and after the meeting.

The facilitator directs but does not dominate the SST meetings, eliciting the most helpful contributions of the group and, most important, keeping a positive tone at the meeting. The facilitator directs the process with respect for all members and accommodates the needs of the group. The facilitator reassures and supports the efforts of colleagues and students.

Recorder

The recorder is responsible for documenting the SST meeting discussion, including students' strengths, concerns, interventions, action items and results. The recorder does this by using the Student Success Plan form or the Student Success Plan Follow-up Form.

Team Member

An effective team member is a positive contributor to the work of the team. The team members participate but do not control the flow of the meeting. Members come prepared with information about the student. Contributions that address difficult problem areas are positive, looking at constructive solutions, rather than characterizing, blaming, or stereotyping. Interventions are linked to the student's strengths.

The Adult Student as a Team Member

The Adult student is a full-fledged member of the SST, and they are always included. At the SST the student can share his/her perspective and concerns, contribute critical problem-related information from home, and share effective and ineffective home interventions. Many times, the adult student can clarify questions for the team and participate in the implementation of strategies developed by the whole team.

Outreach to Students

When connecting with students, care must be taken to ensure the most positive experience possible. Reaching out to and engaging the student is a key element in making the SST process successful. This effort involves much more than sending a written notice of a meeting or making a simple phone call. It involves extending oneself as a representative of the school and serving as a bridge for the student to the classroom and the larger school environment.

Adult students often resist this engagement. The barriers they present to any involvement may mask deeper fears or concerns. Being a student with school or social concerns can cause the student to have feelings of defensiveness or guilt. Many students may feel they will be unfairly attacked or made to feel worse than they already do in an SST meeting. They may have had former experiences with school meetings that were not successful, or they were not kept well informed, and they may be reluctant to trust another meeting at school.

Adult students may also have time, work, child care, or transportation issues barring their way to participating in the meeting. The SST process must include support to students to accommodate these very real issues. Any support provided has both symbolic and concrete meaning to students and contributes to the success of the meeting for both students and team members.

The person performing the outreach/engagement role must be sensitive to these issues. Information about the purpose of the meeting must be presented with an emphasis on the shared concerns and responsibilities. An explanation of the SST process must be provided, emphasizing that the process is a collaborative strategy that builds upon the student's strengths to attain the highest degree of success for the student. The student must also be given an opportunity to ask any questions or share any concerns s/he may have with the upcoming meeting.

Adult students may also have time, work, child care, or transportation issues barring their way to participating in the meeting. The SST process must include support to students to accommodate these very real issues. Any support provided has both symbolic and concrete meaning to students and contributes to the success of the meeting for both students and team members.

Restorative Justice Practices

Student Success Team Follow-up Practices: The action plan created at the SST meeting is only as good as the follow-up practices that ensure its implementation.

Steps for Implementation

Case Management

It is very important to clearly define on the Student Success Plan who is responsible for each "action item" and to designate the administrator in charge of monitoring the implementation of the plan. This creates an accountability system that is monitored and reviewed when the team comes together again for the Follow-up SST meeting(s).

Case manager tasks may include:

meeting with the student and with the teacher regarding the action plan, making phone calls and/or sending reminder notes to team members regarding action items, and/or helping students and their families follow through with referrals to on-site and community-based services.

Feedback to the Referral Source

The administrator, or a designated member, provides the referral source with feedback in a timely manner after the initial SST meeting. Even when the referral source is unable to attend the SST meeting, it is beneficial to involve them in some ownership of the plan, particularly classroom strategies, modifications and adaptations.

Student/Family Support

Working with students to be a part of the plan and to undertake actions on their own behalf is an important part of the follow-up. The student has to feel that s/he has some control over their own goals and plans, and that school staff are their allies, rather than the ones who have all the control. During the SST meeting the student is an equal partner in developing the action plan. The assigned administrator or another staff member who has a relationship with the student may want to check in with the student periodically to offer support toward implementing action items.

Follow-Up SST Meetings / Ongoing monitoring of student progress

At the end of every initial SST, a follow-up SST meeting date is set, preferably within 4-6 weeks. At the follow-up SST meeting action items are reviewed and student progress is discussed. The follow-up SST meeting is documented on the Student Success Plan

Follow-up Form. The action plan may need to be modified and additional interventions added depending on student progress.

Communicating, Teaching, and Modeling: Suspension Alternatives through Professional Development

Staff shall enforce disciplinary rules and procedures fairly and consistently among all students. HCCS staff are trained and annually review de-escalation strategies for students in crises. These strategies focus on developing relationships with students, identifying and avoiding, when possible, triggers for undesirable behavior, and stabilize students who have been triggered safely through the use of de-escalation techniques.

Discipline includes but is not limited to advising and counseling students, conferring with parents/guardians[3], detention during and after school hours, community service, use of alternative educational environments, suspension, expulsion, and involuntary removal.

Corporal punishment shall not be used as a disciplinary measure against any student. Corporal punishment includes the willful infliction of or willfully causing the infliction of physical pain on a student. For purposes of this Pupil Suspension and Expulsion Policy, corporal punishment does not include an employee's use of force that is reasonable and necessary to protect the employee, students, staff or other persons or to prevent damage to school property.

Suspended or expelled students shall be excluded from all school and school-related activities unless otherwise agreed during the period of suspension or expulsion.

A student identified as an individual with disabilities or for whom HCCS has a basis of knowledge of a suspected disability pursuant to the IDEIA or who is qualified for services under Section 504 is subject to the same grounds for suspension and expulsion and is accorded the same due process procedures applicable to regular education students except when federal and state law mandates additional or different procedures. HCCS will follow all applicable federal and state laws when imposing any form of discipline on a student identified as an individual with disabilities or for whom HCCS has a basis of knowledge of a suspected disability or who is otherwise qualified for such services or protections in according due process to such students and shall notify the District of the same.

No student shall be involuntarily removed by the Charter School for any reason unless the student has been provided written notice of intent to remove the student no less than five schooldays before the effective date of the action. The written notice shall be in the native language of the student, and shall inform him or her of the right to initiate the procedures specified below for suspensions, before the effective date of the action. If the student initiates the [3] The Charter School shall ensure that a homeless child or youth's educational rights holder; a foster child or youth's educational rights holder, attorney, and county social worker; and an Indian child's tribal social worker and, if applicable, county social worker have the same rights as a parent or guardian to receive a suspension notice, expulsion notice, manifestation determination notice, involuntary transfer notice, involuntary removal notice, and other documents and related information. For purposes of this Policy and its Procedures, the term "parent/guardian" shall include these parties.

procedures specified below for suspensions, the student shall remain enrolled and shall not be removed until the Charter School issues a final decision.

As used herein, "involuntarily removed" includes disenrolled, dismissed, transferred, or terminated, but does not include suspensions or expulsions pursuant to the suspension and expulsion procedures described below.

In-School Suspension

Authorization and Implementation of In-School Suspensions
HCCS offers in-school suspension as a means of reducing time missed from learning for behavioral issues. Should the need for in-school suspension arise due to a violation of student conduct violations, as defined by the Highlands Community Charter School Student Handbook, in-school suspension will be served through the enrollment of and attendance in the Highlands Community Charter School Alternative Education/Independent Study Program. An assigned advisor will work with the student to arrange a schedule for the student to engage in credit recovery and after-school tutoring as needed to ensure she is able to keep up with his/her school work while on suspension. Grounds for in-school suspension shall not exceed grounds for expulsion as defined by the Student Expulsion policy. Notification procedures and the maximum number of days for in-school suspension per incident as well as academic year are the same as out-of-school suspensions.

To ensure that HCCS adequately provide safety for students, staff, and visitors to the school and serve the best interests of students, in-school suspension will not be offered to any student who:

- Caused, attempted to cause, threatened to cause, or participated in an act of hate violence,
- Engaged in harassment, threats, or intimidation against a pupil or group of pupils or school district personnel, or
- Made terrorist threats against school officials or school property, or both.

Grounds For Suspension and Expulsion

Scope of Disciplinary Jurisdiction
A student may be suspended or expelled for prohibited misconduct if the act is related to school activity or school attendance occurring at any time, including but not limited to: a) while on school grounds; b) while going to or coming from school; c) during the lunch period, whether on or off the school campus; d) during, going to, or coming from a school-sponsored activity.

Suspension Offenses

Discretionary Suspension Offenses
Students may be suspended for any of the following acts when it is determined the student:

A. Caused, attempted to cause, or threatened to cause physical injury to another person.
B. Willfully used force of violence upon the person of another, except self-defense.
C. Unlawfully possessed, used, or otherwise furnished, or was under the influence of any controlled substance, as defined in Health and Safety Code 11053-11058, alcoholic beverage, or intoxicant of any kind.

D. Unlawfully offered, arranged, or negotiated to sell any controlled substance as defined in Health and Safety Code Sections 11053-11058, alcoholic beverage or intoxicant of any kind, and then sold, delivered or otherwise furnished to any person another liquid substance or material and represented same as controlled substance, alcoholic beverage, or intoxicant.
E. Committed or attempted to commit robbery or extortion.
F. Caused or attempted to cause damage to school property or private property, which incudes but is not limited to, electronic files and databases.
G. Stole or attempted to steal school property or private property, which includes but is not limited to, electronic files and databases.
H. Possessed or used tobacco or products containing tobacco or nicotine products, including but not limited to cigars, cigarettes, miniature cigars, clove cigarettes, smokeless tobacco, snuff, chew packets and betel. This section does not prohibit the use of his or her own prescription products by a student.
I. Committed an obscene act or engaged in habitual profanity or vulgarity.
J. Unlawfully possessed or unlawfully offered, arranged, or negotiated to sell any drug paraphernalia, as defined in Health and Safety Code Section 11014.5.
K. Knowingly received stolen school property or private property, which includes but is not limited to, electronic files and databases.
L. Possessed an imitation firearm, i.e.: a replica of a firearm that is so substantially similar in physical properties to an existing firearm as to lead a reasonable person to conclude that the replica is a firearm.
M. Harassed, threatened, or intimidated a student who is a complaining witness or witness in a school disciplinary proceeding for the purpose of preventing that student from being a witness and/or retaliating against that student for being a witness.
N. Unlawfully offered, arranged to sell, negotiated to sell, or sold the prescription drug Soma.
O. Engaged in, or attempted to engage in hazing. For the purposes of this subdivision, "hazing" means a method of initiation or pre-initiation into a student organization or body, whether or not the organization or body is officially recognized by an educational institution, which is likely to cause serious bodily injury or personal degradation or disgrace resulting in physical or mental harm to a former, current, or prospective student. For purposes of this section, "hazing" does not include athletic events or school-sanctioned events.
P. Made terroristic threats against school officials and/or school property, which includes but is not limited to, electronic files and databases. For purposes of this section, "terroristic threat" shall include any statement, whether written or oral, by a person who willfully threatens to commit a crime which will result in death, great bodily injury to another person, or property damage in excess of one thousand dollars ($1,000), with the specific intent that the statement is to be taken as a threat, even if there is no intent of actually carrying it out, which, on its face and under the circumstances in which it is made, is so unequivocal, unconditional, immediate, and specific as to convey to the person threatened, a gravity of purpose and an immediate prospect of execution of the threat, and thereby causes that person reasonably to be in sustained fear for his or her own safety or for his or her immediate family's safety, or for the protection of school property, which includes but is not limited to, electronic files and databases, or the personal property of the person threatened or his or her immediate family. Students may be also recommended for expulsion for conduct described in this provision.

Q. Committed sexual harassment, as defined in Education Code Section 212.5. For the purposes of this section, the conduct described in Section 212.5 must be considered by a reasonable person of the same gender as the victim to be sufficiently severe or pervasive to have a negative impact upon the individual's academic performance or to create an intimidating, hostile, or offensive educational environment. This section shall apply to students in any of grades 4 to 12, inclusive. Students may be also recommended for expulsion for conduct described in this provision.

R. Caused, attempted to cause, threaten to cause or participated in an act of hate violence, as defined in subdivision (e) of Section 233 of the Education Code. This section shall apply to students in any of grades 4 to 12, inclusive. Students may be also recommended for expulsion for conduct described in this provision.

S. Intentionally harassed, threatened or intimidated school personnel or volunteers and/or a student or group of students, in a sufficiently severe or pervasive nature, to the extent of having the actual and reasonably expected effect of materially disrupting class work, creating substantial disorder and invading student rights by creating an intimidating or hostile educational environment. This section shall apply to students in any of grades 4 to 12, inclusive. Students may be also recommended for expulsion for conduct described in this provision.

T. Engaged in an act of bullying, including, but not limited to, bullying committed by means of an electronic act (defined as the transmission of a communication, including, but not limited to, a message, text, sound, or image, or a post on a social network internet website, or an act of cyber sexual bullying, by means of an electronic device, including, but not limited to, a telephone, wireless telephone, or other wireless communication device, computer, or pager) directed specifically toward a student or school personnel.
    1. "Bullying" means any severe or pervasive physical or verbal act or conduct, including communications made in writing or by means of an electronic act, and including acts one or more acts committed by a student or group of students which would be deemed sexual harassment, hate violence or harassment, threats, or intimidation, which are directed toward one or more students that has or can be reasonably predicted to have the effect of one or more of the following:
        i. Placing a reasonable student (defined as a student, including, but is not limited to, a student with exceptional needs, who exercises average care, skill, and judgment in conduct for a person of his or her age, or for a person of his or her age with exceptional needs) or students in fear of harm to that student's or those students' person or property.
        ii. Causing a reasonable student to experience a substantially detrimental effect on his or her physical or mental health.
        iii. Causing a reasonable student to experience substantial interference with his or her academic performance.
        iv. Causing a reasonable student to experience substantial interference with his or her ability to participate in or benefit from the services, activities, or privileges provided by the Charter School.
    2. "Electronic Act" means the creation or transmission originated on or off the school site, by means of an electronic device, including, but not limited to, a telephone, wireless telephone, or other wireless communication device, computer, or pager, of a communication, including, but not limited to, any of the following:

i. A message, text, sound, video or image.

ii. A post on a social network internet website including, but not limited to:

a. Posting to or creating a burn page. A "burn page" means an internet website created for the purpose of having one or more of the effects as listed in subparagraph (1) above.

b. Creating a credible impersonation of another actual student for the purpose of having one or more of the effects listed in subparagraph (1) above. "credible impersonation" means to knowingly and without consent impersonate a student for the purpose of bullying the student and such that another student would reasonably believe, or has reasonably believed, that the student was or is the student who was impersonated.

c. Creating a false profile for the purpose of having one or more of the effects listed in subparagraph (1) above. "False profile" means a profile of a fictitious student or a profile using the likeness of attributes of an actual student other than the student who created the false profile.

iii. An act of cyber bullying.

a. For purposes of this policy, "cyber sexual bullying" means the dissemination of, or the solicitation or incitement to disseminate, a photograph or other visual recording by a student to another student or to school personnel by means of an electronic act that has or can be reasonably predicted to have one or more of the effects in subparagraphs (i) to (iv), inclusive, of paragraph (1). A photograph or other visual recording, as described above, shall include the depiction of a nude, semi-nude, or sexually explicit photograph or other visual recording of a minor where the minor is identifiable from the photograph, visual recording, or other electronic act.

b. For purposes of this policy, "cyber sexual bullying" does not include a depiction, portrayal, or image that has any serious literary, artistic, educational, political, or scientific value or that involves athletic events or school-sanctioned activities.

3. Notwithstanding subparagraphs (1) and (2) above, an electronic act shall not constitute pervasive conduct solely on the basis that it has been transmitted on the Internet or is currently posted on the Internet.

U. A student who aids or abets, as defined in Section 31 of the Penal Code, the infliction or attempted infliction of physical injury to another person may be subject to suspension, but not expulsion, except that a student who has been adjudged by a juvenile court to have committed, as an aider and abettor, a crime of physical violence in which the victim suffered great bodily injury or serious bodily injury shall be subject to discipline pursuant to subdivision (A) and (B).

V. Possessed, sold, or otherwise furnished any knife unless, in the case of possession of any object of this type, the student had obtained written permission to possess the item from a certificated school employee, with the Executive Director's and/or Director of Curriculum and Instruction (or assigned designee's) concurrence.

W. Cheated on school classwork or otherwise has acted in an unethical manner as determined by the Administration based upon school policies and guidelines.

Non-Discretionary Suspension Offenses/Non-Discretionary Expulsion Offenses
Students must be suspended and recommended for expulsion for any of the following acts when it is determined the student:

A. Possessed, sold, or otherwise furnished any firearm, explosive, or other destructive device unless, in the case of possession of any device of this type, the students had obtained written permission to possess the item from a certificated school employee, with the Executive Director's and/or Director of Curriculum and Instruction (or assigned designee's) concurrence.
B. Brandished a knife at another person
C. Unlawfully sold a controlled substance listed in Health and Safety Code Section 11053, et seq.
D. Committed or attempted to commit a sexual assault as defined in Penal Code Sections 261, 266c, 286, 287, 288, or 289 or former Section 288a of the Penal Code, or committed a sexual battery as defined in Penal Code Section 243.4.

Expulsion Offenses

Mandatory Recommendation for Expulsion
Students must be expelled for any of the following acts when it is determined pursuant to the procedures below that the student:

A. Possessed, sold, or otherwise furnished any firearm, explosive, or other dangerous object unless, in the case of possession of any object of this type, the students had obtained written permission to possess the item from a certificated school employee, with the Executive Director's and/or Director of Curriculum and Instruction (or assigned designee's) concurrence. Possession of an imitation firearm is not an offense for which suspension or expulsion is mandatory.
B. Brandished a knife at another person.
C. Unlawfully sold a controlled substance listed in Health and Safety Code Section 11053-11058.
D. Committed or attempted to commit a sexual assault as defined in Penal Code Sections 261, 266c, 286, 287, 288, or 289 or former Section 288a of the Penal Code, or committed a sexual battery as defined by Penal Code Section 243.4.
E. Possession of an explosive.

If it is determined by the Board of Directors that a student has brought a firearm or destructive device, as defined in Section 921 of Title 18 of the United States Code, on to campus or to have possessed a firearm or dangerous device on campus, the student shall be expelled for one year, pursuant to the Federal Gun Free Schools Act of 1994. In such instances, the student shall be provided due process rights of notice and a hearing as required in this policy.

The term "firearm" means (A) any weapon (including a starter gun) which will or is designed to or may readily be converted to expel a projectile by the action of an explosive; (B) the frame or receiver of any such weapon; (C) any firearm muffler or firearm silencer; or (D) any destructive device. Such term does not include an antique firearm.

The term "destructive device" means (A) any explosive, incendiary, or poison gas, including but not limited to: (i) bomb, (ii) grenade, (iii) rocket having a propellant charge of more than four ounces, (iv) missile having an explosive or incendiary charge of more than one-quarter ounce, (v) mine, or (vi) device similar to any of the devices described in the preceding clauses.
A decision to expel a pupil shall be based on a finding that other means of correction are not feasible or have repeatedly failed to bring about proper conduct, or that due to the nature of the act, the presence of the pupil causes a continuing danger to the physical safety of the pupil or others.

Discretionary Recommendation for Expulsion
Students shall be recommended for expulsion, unless the Executive Director or the Executive Director's designee determines that expulsion should not be recommended under the circumstances or that an alternative means of correction would address the following acts:

A. Causing serious physical injury to another person, except in self-defense.
B. Possession of any knife or other dangerous object of no reasonable use to the pupil.
C. Unlawfully possessing any controlled substance, as defined in Health and Safety Code Sections 11053-11058 except for either the first offense of possession of not more than one avoirdupois ounce of marijuana, other than concentrated cannabis, or the possession of over-the-counter medication for use by the pupil for medical purposes or medication prescribed for the pupil be a physician.
D. Robbery or extortion.
E. Assault or battery, as defined in Penal Code Sections 240 and 242, upon any Charter School employee.

Out-Of-School Suspension Procedures

Suspension Authority
HCCS will ensure that the process for investigating incidents and collecting evidence will be fair and thorough before a student is suspended. A student may only be suspended by the Executive Director and/or Chief Academic Officer, or in the case of the Executive Director and Chief Academic Officer's absence or inability to carry out proper suspension procedures, an assigned designee.

Conference
Suspension will be preceded, if possible, by a conference conducted by the Executive Director and/or Chief Academic Officer or an assigned designee with the student and, whenever practical, the teacher, supervisor, or Charter School employee who referred the student to the Executive Director and/or Chief Academic Officer and Instruction or assigned designee.

The conference may be omitted if the Executive Director and/or Director of Curriculum and Instruction or an assigned designee determines that an emergency situation exists. An "emergency situation" involves a clear and present danger to the lives, safety, or health of students or charter school personnel. If a student is suspended without this conference, the student will be notified of the student's right to return to school for the purpose of a conference.

At the conference, the student will be informed of the reason for the disciplinary action, including the other means of correction that were attempted before the suspension, and the evidence against him or her, and will be given a meaningful opportunity to present his or her version and evidence in his or her defense. This conference will be held within two school days, unless the student waives this right or is physically unable to attend for any reason, including, but not limited to, incarceration or hospitalization. No penalties may be imposed on a student for failure to attend a conference with Charter School officials. Reinstatement of the suspended student shall not be contingent upon attendance by the student at the conference.

Student Notification
Students will have due process rights with regard to suspensions and expulsions. At the time of the suspension, an administrator or designee will make a reasonable effort to contact the student by telephone or in person. Initial contact will be followed by a written notice. This notice will state the specific offense(s) committed by the student. In addition, the notice will also state the date and time the student may return to school.

Maximum Suspension
The length of the suspension will be determined by the Executive Director and/or the Chief Academic Officer or an assigned designee based on the severity of the offense(s), as evidenced by witness statements, physical evidence, and other relevant factors. For students with IEPs, the students SST team will consult with the Executive Director and/or the Chief Academic Officer or an assigned designee on additional factors that are relevant to the decision. The length of suspension for students may not exceed a period of 5 consecutive days per suspension. The total number of days for which a student may be suspended from school shall not exceed 20 school days in any school year.

Meaningful Education for Suspended Students
A student on suspension will be provided meaningful access to education during the term of the suspension. An advisor of the suspended student will collect and provide the student with classroom material and current assignments to be completed at home during the length of the suspension. Missed tests will also be coordinated to be completed either at home or upon return. Written notification listing all required assignments will be given to the student, and all needed materials will be left in the front office.

In accordance with Education Code Section 47606.2(a), upon the request of a parent, a legal guardian or other person holding the right to make education decisions for the student, or the affected student, a teacher shall provide to a student in any of grades 1 to 12, inclusive, who has been suspended from school for two (2) or more school days, the homework that the student would otherwise have been assigned.

In accordance with Education Code Section 47606.2(b), if a homework assignment that is requested pursuant to Section 47606.2(a) and turned into the teacher by the student either upon the student's return to school from suspension or within the timeframe originally prescribed by the teacher, whichever is later, is not graded before the end of the academic term, that assignment shall not be included in the calculation of the student's overall grade in the class.

Suspension Pending the Outcome of an Expulsion Process
Upon a recommendation of expulsion by the Executive Director and/or the Chief Academic Officer or the Administrative Panel, the student or representative will be invited to a conference to determine if the suspension for the student should be extended pending an expulsion hearing. This determination will be made by the Executive Director and/or the Chief Academic Officer or the Administrative Panel upon either of the following: 1) the student's presence will be disruptive to the education process; or 2) the student poses a threat or danger to others or property. Upon either determination, the student's suspension will be extended pending the results of an expulsion hearing. The maximum number of days a student may be suspended is thirty days (30) unless the expulsion hearing is postponed for good cause, in which case the suspension could be extended further. Procedures for providing a student on suspension with meaningful access to education during the term of the suspension pending the outcome of an expulsion process is outlined above in the section titled, "In School Suspension."

Expulsion Procedures

Rules and Procedures for Student Expulsion
Prior to making an expulsion recommendation, students will be provided adequate notice of the reason for disciplinary actions and a meaningful opportunity to be heard by invitation to a conference to determine if the student should be placed on suspension or if an existing suspension for the student should be extended pending an expulsion hearing. This determination will be made by the Executive Director and/or Director of Curriculum and Instruction (or assigned designee) upon either of the following findings:

- The student's presence will likely be disruptive to the educational process
- The student poses a threat or danger to others or property.

Upon this determination, the student placed on suspension or will have his/her suspension extended pending the results of an expulsion hearing.

Students will be recommended for expulsion if at least one of the following findings may be substantiated:

- Other means of correction are not feasible or have repeatedly failed to bring about proper conduct.
- Due to the nature of the violation, the presence of the student causes a continuing danger to the physical safety of the student or others.

Authority to Expel
As required by Education Code Section 47605(c)(5)(J)(ii), students recommended for expulsion are entitled to a hearing adjudicated by a neutral officer to determine whether the student should be expelled. The procedures herein provide for such a hearing and the notice of said hearing, as required by law. A student may be expelled either by the HCCS Board following a hearing before it or by the HCCS Board upon the recommendation of the Executive Director and/or the Director of Curriculum and Instruction, or a neutral and impartial Administrative Panel may be assigned by the Board as needed. The Administrative Panel should consist of at least three members who are certificated and neither a teacher of the student nor a Board member of the Charter School's governing board. The Executive Director and/or the Director of Curriculum and Instruction or the Administrative Panel may recommend expulsion of any student found to have committed an expellable offense, and the HCCS Board of Directors shall make the final determination.

Expulsion Procedures
Students recommended for expulsion are entitled to a hearing to determine whether the student should be expelled. Unless postponed for good cause, the hearing will be held within thirty (30) school days after the Executive Director and/or the Director of Curriculum and Instruction or an Administrative Panel or designee determines that the student has committed an expellable offense.

In the event an Administrative Panel hears the case, it will make a recommendation to the Board for a final decision on whether to expel. The hearing shall be held in closed session (complying with all student confidentiality rules under FERPA) unless the student makes a written request for a public hearing three (3) days prior to the hearing.

Written notice of the hearing shall be forwarded to the student at least ten (10) calendar days before the date of the hearing. Upon mailing the notice, it shall be deemed served upon the student. The notice shall include:

1. The date and place of the expulsion hearing,
2. A statement of the specific facts, charges and offenses upon which the proposed expulsion is based,
3. A copy of HCCS disciplinary rules which relate to the alleged violation,
4. Notification of the student's obligation to provide information about the student's status at HCCS to any other school district or school to which the student seeks enrollment,
5. The opportunity for the student to appear in person or to employ and be represented by counsel or a non-attorney advisor,
6. The right to inspect and obtain copies of all documents to be used at the hearing,
7. The opportunity to confront and question all witnesses who testify at the hearing, and
8. The opportunity to question all evidence presented and to present oral and documentary evidence on the student's behalf including witnesses.

Reasonable accommodations, including language support for a student whose primary language is other than English will be made available at the hearing, upon request.

Special Procedures for Expulsion Hearings Involving Sexual Assault or Battery Offenses HCCS may, upon finding good cause, determine that the disclosure of either the identity of the witness or the testimony of that witness at the hearing, or both, subject the witness to an unreasonable risk of psychological or physical harm. Upon this determination, the testimony of the witness may be presented at the hearing in the form of sworn declarations that shall be examined only by the HCCS Board or the hearing officer. Copies of these sworn declarations, edited to delete the name and identity of the witness, shall be made available to the student.

1. The complaining witness in any sexual assault or battery case must be provided with a copy of the applicable disciplinary rules and advised of his/her right to (a) receive five days' notice of his/her scheduled testimony, (b) have up to two (2) adult support persons of his/her choosing present in the hearing at the time s/he testifies, which may include a parent, guardian, or legal counsel, and (c) elect to have the hearing closed while testifying.
2. HCCS must also provide the victim with a room separate from the hearing room for the complaining witness's use prior to and during breaks in testimony.
3. At the discretion of the person or panel conducting the expulsion hearing, the complaining witness shall be allowed periods of relief from examination and cross-examination during which s/he may leave the hearing room.
4. The person or panel conducting the expulsion hearing may also arrange the seating within the hearing room to facilitate a less intimidating environment for the complaining witness. The person or panel conducting the expulsion hearing may also limit time for taking the testimony of the complaining witness to the hours s/he is normally in school, if there is no good cause to take the testimony during other hours.
5. Prior to a complaining witness testifying, the support persons must be admonished that the hearing is confidential. Nothing in the law precludes the person presiding over the hearing from removing a support person whom the presiding person finds is disrupting the hearing. The person or panel conducting the hearing may permit any one of the support persons for the complaining witness to accompany him or her to the witness stand.
6. If one or both support persons are also a witness, HCCS must present evidence that the witness's presence is both desired by the witness and will be helpful to HCCS. The person presiding over the hearing shall permit the witness to stay unless it is established that there is a substantial risk that the testimony of the complaining witness would be influenced by the support person, in which case the presiding official shall admonish the support person or persons not to prompt, sway, or influence the witness in any way. Nothing shall preclude the presiding officer from exercising his or her discretion to remove a person from the hearing whom s/he believes is prompting, swaying, or influencing the witness.
7. The testimony of the support person shall be presented before the testimony of the complaining witness, and the complaining witness shall be excluded from the courtroom during that testimony.
8. Especially for charges involving sexual assault or battery, if the hearing is to be conducted in public at the request of the student being expelled, the complaining witness shall have the right to have his/her testimony heard in a closed session when testifying at a public meeting would threaten serious psychological harm to the complaining witness and there are no alternative procedures to avoid the threatened harm. The alternative procedures may include videotaped depositions or contemporaneous examination in another place communicated to the hearing room by means of closed-circuit television.
9. Evidence of specific instances of a complaining witness' prior sexual conduct is presumed inadmissible and shall not be heard absent a determination by the person conducting the hearing that extraordinary circumstances exist requiring the evidence to be heard. Before such a determination regarding an extraordinary circumstance can be made, the witness shall be provided notice and an opportunity to present opposition to the introduction of the evidence. In the hearing on the admissibility of the evidence, the complaining witness shall be entitled to be represented by a parent, legal counsel, or other support person. Reputation or opinion evidence regarding the sexual behavior of the complaining witness is not admissible for any purpose.

Record of Hearing
A record of the hearing shall be made and may be maintained by any means, including electronic recording, as long as a reasonably accurate and complete written transcription of the proceedings can be made.

Presentation of Evidence
While technical rules of evidence do not apply to expulsion hearings, evidence may be admitted and used as proof only if it is the kind of evidence on which reasonable persons can rely in the conduct of serious affairs. A recommendation by the Administrative Panel to expel must be supported by substantial evidence that the student committed an expellable offense. Findings of fact shall be based solely on the evidence at the hearing. While hearsay evidence is admissible, no decision to expel shall be based solely on hearsay. Sworn declarations may be admitted as testimony from witnesses of whom the Board, Panel, or designee determines that disclosure of their identity or testimony at the hearing may subject them to an unreasonable risk of physical or psychological harm.

If, due to a written request by the expelled student, the hearing is held at a public meeting, and the charge is committing or attempting to commit a sexual assault or committing a sexual battery as defined in Education Code Section 48900, a complaining witness shall have the right to have his or her testimony heard in a session closed to the public.

The decision of the Administrative Panel shall be in the form of written findings of fact and a written recommendation to the Board who will make a final determination regarding the expulsion. The final decision by the Board shall be made within ten (10) school days following the conclusion of the hearing. The Decision of the Board is final.

If the Administrative Panel decides not to recommend expulsion, the student shall immediately be returned to his/her educational program.

Written Notice to Expel
The Executive Director and/or the Director of Curriculum and Instruction or an Administrative Panel, following a decision of the Board to expel, shall send written notice of the decision to expel, including the Board's adopted findings of fact, to the student. This notice shall also include the following: (a) Notice of the specific offense committed by the student; and (b) Notice of the student's obligation to inform any new district in which the student seeks to enroll of the student's status with HCCS.

The Executive Director and/or the Director of Curriculum and Instruction or an Administrative Panel, shall send a copy of the written notice of the decision to expel to the authorizer. This notice shall include the following: (a) The student's name; and (b) The specific expellable offense committed by the student.

Disciplinary Records
HCCS shall maintain records of all student suspensions and expulsions at HCCS. Such records shall be made available to the authorizer upon request.

No Right to Appeal
The student shall have no right of appeal from expulsion from HCCS, as the HCCS Board's decision to expel shall be final.

Expelled Students/Alternative Education
HCCS shall ensure that students suspended from HCCS are provided with an appropriate alternative educational program (class work and homework assignments, etc.) during the period of the student's suspension from school. Whenever a student is expelled from HCCS, HCCS shall notify the student and the student in writing of the student's duty to attend the public school district in which the residency of either the parent or legal guardian is located. HCCS shall also notify the public school district in which the residency of either the parent or legal guardian is located whenever a student is expelled from HCCS.

Rehabilitation Plans

Rehabilitation Plans, Criteria, and Expulsion
Students who are expelled from HCCS shall be given a rehabilitation plan upon expulsion as developed by the Board at the time of the expulsion order, which may include, but is not limited to, periodic review as well as assessment at the time of review for readmission. The rehabilitation plan should include a date not later than one year from the date of expulsion when the student may reapply to HCCS for readmission.

Readmission
The decision to readmit a student or to admit a previously expelled student from another school district or charter school shall be in the sole discretion of the Board following a meeting with the Executive Director or designee and the student and guardian or representative to determine whether the student has completed the rehabilitation plan and to determine whether the student poses a threat to others or will be disruptive to the school environment. The Executive Director or designee shall make a recommendation to the Board following the meeting regarding his or her determination. The student's readmission is also contingent upon HCCS capacity at the time the student seeks readmission.

Notice to Teachers
The Charter School shall notify teachers of each student who has engaged in or is reasonably suspected to have engaged in any of the acts listed in Education Code Section 49079 and the corresponding enumerated offenses set forth above.

Element K Employee Retirement Systems

"The manner by which staff members of the charter schools will be covered by the State Teachers' Retirement System, the Public Employees' Retirement System, or federal social security." (Ed. Code § 47605(c)(5)(K).)

Certificated, Classified, and Other Staff Members

All full-time certificated employees at Highlands Community Charter School participate in a qualified retirement plan, including, but not limited to, the State Teachers Retirement System (STRS) or the federal Social Security system, based on their eligibility to participate. HCCS teachers participate in STRS. Non-certificated/classified staff participate in a 401A defined contribution plan.

HCCS employees may be eligible to participate in school-sponsored retirement and benefit plans, as outlined in policies adopted by the Board of Directors. In the event that the Internal Revenue Service enacts regulations prohibiting nonprofit entities from participating in publicly funded retirement systems such as the California State Teachers' Retirement System (CalSTRS), employees will instead be enrolled in Social Security and/or an alternative employer-sponsored retirement plan approved by the HCCS Board. Prospective employees are informed of their retirement system options during the application process and advised that employment with HCCS may affect their eligibility for continued participation in a previous retirement system. The Executive Director is responsible for ensuring appropriate retirement coverage is arranged for all staff. To support recruitment and retention of highly qualified personnel, HCCS offers a competitive compensation and benefits package that reflects market conditions and professional experience.

STRS reporting is conducted in collaboration with Charter Impact, HCCS's contracted fiscal services provider specializing in payroll taxes and CalSTRS compliance. While contributions and deductions are processed through HCCS's internal payroll department, Charter Impact oversees all reporting, auditing, and submission of required documentation to CalSTRS. The HCCS Finance Department performs regular reconciliations to ensure accuracy and alignment with STRS liability reporting cycles.

Element L Public School Attendance Alternatives

"The public school attendance alternatives for students residing within the school district who choose not to attend charter schools." (Ed. Code § 47605(c)(5)(L).)

Informing Students of Public School Attendance Alternatives

No student may be required to attend Highlands Community Charter School. Students who reside within the District who choose not to attend HCCS may attend school according to District policy or at another school district or school within the District in accordance with existing enrollment and transfer policies of their district or county of residence. Each student enrolled in HCCS is informed on admissions forms that the students have no right to admission in a particular school of a local education agency (or program of any local education agency) as a consequence of enrollment in HCCS, except to the extent that such a right is extended by the local education agency. This information is also communicated to students through orientation and registration staff, who are available to answer questions and provide support in multiple languages as needed.

Element M Rights of District Employees

"The rights of an employee of the school district upon leaving the employment of the school district to work in a charter school, and of any rights of return to the school district after employment at a charter school." (Ed. Code § 47605(c)(5)(M).)

No public school employee will be required to work at Highlands Community Charter School. Employees of the District who choose to leave the employment of the District to work in the Charter School will have no automatic rights of return to the District after employment by HCCS unless specifically granted by the District through a leave of absence or other agreement or policy of the District as aligned with the collective bargaining agreements of the District.

All employees of HCCS will be considered the exclusive employees of HCCS and not of Twin Rivers (TRUSD), for the purposes of the Education Employment Relations Act, unless otherwise mutually agreed in writing. Employment by HCCS provides no rights of employment at any other entity, including any rights in the case of closure of HCCS.

HCCS has a board approved Employee Handbook which outlines employee rights as well as employee responsibilities. The Employee Handbook for 2024-2025 is linked in the appendix.

Employee Representation

Governing Law: The petition does not contain a declaration of whether or not the charter school shall be deemed the exclusive public school employer of the employees of the Charter School for the purposes of Chapter 10.7 (commencing with Section 3540) of Division 4 of Title 1 of the Government Code.
--California Education Code Section 47605 (c) (6).

HCCS shall be deemed the exclusive public school employer of the employees of HCCS for the purposes of the Education Employment Relations Act ("EERA"). HCCS shall comply with the EERA.

HCCS is independent from Twin Rivers Unified School District, and any District employees who choose to work at HCCS shall resign their status as employees of Twin Rivers Unified School District or other school district and all of their rights and benefits thereof. All persons employed by HCCS shall not be deemed to be employees of Twin Rivers Unified School District for any purpose whatsoever. HCCS employees shall have no employment rights of any kind with Twin Rivers Unified School District.

HCCS will develop and maintain an Employee Handbook detailing the rights and responsibilities of all HCCS employees and shall comply with all anti-discrimination and sexual harassment employment laws applicable to public agencies. On or before the first day of operation, and by August 1 of each subsequent year, HCCS shall provide Twin Rivers Unified School District with two (2) copies of the Employee Handbook. HCCS shall annually update and revise the Employee

Handbook to reflect changes in the law and/or policies. HCCS shall be solely responsible for the hiring and compensation of HCCS employees, including but not limited to, salary, health benefits, sick leave, vacation, and retirement benefits. Twin Rivers Unified School District shall have no obligation to provide beginning teacher support or assessment to any HCCS teacher or employee.

HCCS will provide all instruction exclusively in partnership with the Greater Sacramento Urban League (GSUL). Per Education Code, all education provided by HCCS to GSUL will be provided at no cost to the partner or student. The Greater Sacramento Urban League will inform their clients about their ability to participate in HCCS. The Partnership Agreement between HCCS and GSUL will detail the terms required for clients of GSUL to join HCCS.

Element N Mandatory Dispute Resolution

"The procedures to be followed by the charter school and the chartering authority to resolve disputes relating to provisions of the charter." (Ed. Code § 47605(c)(5)(N).)

Written Notification of Mandatory Dispute Resolution

Disputes Arising from within HCCS

It is the intent of Twin Rivers Unified School District (TRUSD) and HCCS that complaints and disputes be resolved quickly and informally in an atmosphere of cooperation whenever possible. If employees are represented by a union, they must first exhaust their internal remedies before filing a grievance.

Complaints regarding the operation of HCCS, which do not involve TRUSD liability or issues of student health or safety, will be forwarded to HCCS for processing according to procedures adopted by HCCS prior to being addressed by TRUSD. HCCS procedures will include reasonably expeditious timelines and a full opportunity for students who are minors directly affected to express their concerns. TRUSD will not address the dispute if HCCS is able to fully resolve the problem unless HCCS requests TRUSD's involvement.

The Charter School shall also maintain a Uniform Complaint Policy and Procedures as required by state law.

Disputes between HCCS and TRUSD

HCCS and TRUSD will always attempt to resolve any disputes amicably and reasonably without resorting to formal procedures.

In the event of any dispute between HCCS and TRUSD, excluding revocation of the Charter but including audit exceptions and deficiencies, the complaining party will prepare a written dispute statement, which will be simultaneously submitted to the TRUSD Superintendent or designee and the HCCS Executive Director. The Executive Director and the Superintendent or designee will meet and confer within five (5) business days from the date of receipt of the written dispute statement and attempt to resolve the dispute. In the event that this conference fails to resolve the dispute, each party will identify two members of their respective governing boards who shall meet with the Superintendent or designee and the Executive Director within ten (10) business days and attempt to resolve the dispute. If this joint meeting fails to resolve the dispute, either party will, within five (5) business days following the meeting, submit the matter to the Sacramento County Superintendent of Schools. The parties agree to be bound by the County Superintendent's decision and will indicate as such when submitting the matter to the County Superintendent. If the County Superintendent declines to hear the matter, the parties may agree to submit their dispute to a mutually agreeable, neutral third-party mediator for resolution in accordance with any procedure determined and prescribed by the mediator and agreed to by the parties. Review by the County Superintendent or mediator will be held within forty-five (45) business days of receipt of the initial dispute statement. The cost of the mediator will be equally shared between TRUSD and HCCS. If the parties are unable to resolve the matter before a mutually agreeable mediator, either party may pursue any other remedy available under the law.

Unless directed otherwise, all written dispute notifications between the District and Charter School shall be addressed as follows:

In the event that the TRUSD Board of Trustees believes that the dispute relates to an issue that could lead to revocation of the charter in accordance with Education Code Section 47607, this will be noted in the written dispute statement. However, participation in the dispute resolution procedures outlined in this section shall not be interpreted to impede the TRUSD's ability to proceed with revocation in accordance with Education Code Section 47607 and its implementing regulations.

HCCS shall timely notify TRUSD of any and all complaints filed against HCCS by its employees, students, and vendors, involving violations of the Charter, the MOU, State or federal law, or alleged financial mismanagement.

Revocation Protocol

HCCS and Twin Rivers Unified School District (TRUSD) agree that the dispute resolution procedure set forth above will not apply to any matter that could lead to revocation of the Charter. Prior to revocation of the Charter, TRUSD shall provide HCCS with written notice of its belief and an opportunity to meet with and respond to TRUSD within a reasonable time, which shall be not less than five (5) business days, prior to issuing a written notice to "cure and correct," unless TRUSD determines in writing that the violation constitutes a severe and imminent threat to the health or safety of the pupils in accordance with Education Code section 47607(g) and its implementing regulations. Thereafter, if TRUSD determines that revocation is warranted, it will comply with the procedures set forth in Education Code Section 47607.

Element O Charter School Closure Procedures

"The procedures to be used if the charter school closes. The procedures shall ensure a final audit of the charter school to determine the disposition of all assets and liabilities of the charter school, including plans for disposing of any net assets and for the maintenance and transfer of pupil records." (Ed. Code § 47605(c)(5)(O).)

Closure Agents

The following procedures shall apply in the event HCCS closes. The following procedures apply regardless of the reason for closure.

Closure of HCCS will be documented by official action of the Board of Directors of HCCS. The action will identify the reason for closure. The official action will also identify an entity and person(s) responsible for closure-related activities. The HCCS Board shall promptly notify TRUSD, within 10 business days, of the closure and the effective date of the closure. The entity responsible for implementing the closure procedures will be experienced in dissolution and closure of public educational programs and will comply with all legal requirements regarding the confidentiality of student records. The Chair of the Board of Directors will serve as the official contact for purposes of implementing the closure protocol set forth in the Charter and its plan for maintaining and transferring student records, payment of debts and liabilities, and distribution of remaining assets. Closure initiated by the HCCS Board will not take effect before the end of the normal school year in June unless agreed to in writing by TRUSD.

The HCCS Board of Directors will promptly notify students of HCCS, TRUSD, the Sacramento County Office of Education, the Charter School's SELPA, the retirement systems in which HCCS's employees participate (e.g., Public Employees' Retirement System, State Teachers' Retirement System, and federal social security), and the California Department of Education of the closure as well as the effective date of the closure. This notice will also include the name(s) of and contact information for the person(s) to whom reasonable inquiries may be made regarding the closure; the students' school districts of residence; and the manner in which students may obtain copies of their records, including specific information on completed courses and credits that meet graduation requirements.

The HCCS Board of Directors will ensure timely notification to the students of HCCS of the closure and will provide information to assist students in locating suitable alternative programs. This notice will be provided promptly, within ten (10) business days, following the HCCS Board's decision to close HCCS. HCCS will provide TRUSD with all student contact information promptly following such a decision.

The HCCS Board of Directors will also develop a list of students in each grade level and the classes they have completed, together with information on each student's districts of residence, which the Board will provide to the entity responsible for closure-related activities.

As applicable, HCCS will provide students and TRUSD with copies of all appropriate student records and will otherwise assist students in transferring to their next school. All transfers of student records will be made in compliance with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act ("FERPA") 20 U.S.C. § 1232g. HCCS will store original records of HCCS students in HCCS administrative office until the closure of HCCS. No later than the date of closure, all records will be transferred to TRUSD. If the District will not or cannot store the records, the HCCS will work with the County Office of Education to determine a suitable alternative location for storage.

All state assessment results, special education records, and personnel records will be transferred to and maintained by the entity responsible for closure-related activities in accordance with applicable law.

As soon as it is reasonably practical, HCCS will prepare final financial records. Within six (6) months, following the date of closure, final financial records shall be prepared and an independent audit completed. HCCS will pay for the final audit (Reserve Fund). The audit will be prepared according to standards for public school audits by a qualified Certified Public Accountant experienced in public school audits selected by HCCS and will be provided to TRUSD promptly upon its completion. The final audit will include an accounting of all financial assets, including cash and accounts receivable and an inventory of property, equipment, and other items of material value, an accounting of the liabilities, including accounts payable and any reduction in apportionments as a result of audit findings or other investigations, loans, and unpaid staff compensation, and an assessment of the disposition of any restricted funds received by or due to HCCS.

HCCS will complete and file any annual reports required pursuant to Education Code section 47604.33. On closure of HCCS, all assets of HCCS, including but not limited to all leaseholds, personal property, intellectual property and all ADA apportionments and other revenues generated by students attending HCCS, remain the sole property of the HCCS and shall be distributed in accordance with the Articles of Incorporation upon the dissolution of the non-profit public benefit corporation to another California public educational entity. Any assets acquired from the TRUSD or TRUSD property will be promptly returned upon HCCS closure to the TRUSD. The distribution shall include return of any grant funds and restricted categorical funds to their source in accordance with the terms of the grant or state and federal law, as appropriate, which may include submission of final expenditure reports for entitlement grants and the filing of any required Final Expenditure Reports and Final Performance Reports, as well as the return of any donated materials and property in accordance with any conditions established when the donation of such materials or property was accepted.

On closure, HCCS shall remain solely responsible for all liabilities arising from the operation of HCCS. Should Highlands Community Charter Schools dissolve as a nonprofit public benefit corporation, the HCCS Board will follow the procedures set forth in the California Corporations Code for the dissolution of a nonprofit public benefit corporation and file all necessary filings with the appropriate state and federal agencies.

HCCS will utilize the reserve fund to undertake any expenses associated with the closure procedures identified above.

Element P Additional Provisions

Facilities

"The facilities to be used by the charter school. The description of the facilities to be used by the charter school shall specify where the charter school intends to locate." (Ed. Code § 47605(h).)

Facilities Mission

As a public charter school, the HCCS mission is to provide a safe, stimulating, and vibrant student-centered learning community that primarily addresses the academic and transitional needs of students who are credit deficient and seeking a high school diploma. HCCS:

- provides adequate space on site for maintaining current site activities,
- locates near public facilities that offer services that complement the instructional facilities at HCCS such as libraries, parks, and institutional facilities, and
- provides adequate site space to accommodate necessary support functions, such as staff and visitor parking, loading/unloading for student transportation, and usable and safe outdoor and dining areas.

In order to properly meet the facilities needs of HCCS, an understanding of the proposed educational programs, services, and student trends is required. Including classroom space, the square footage calculations include a variety of administrative and clerical spaces, hallways, student/staff break areas, restrooms, custodial closets, storage area and utilities closets.

Locations

Highlands Community Charter School's main campus is located at 5655 Hillsdale Blvd, Sacramento, CA 95842. HCCS students are served at 12 locations around the greater Sacramento region in the 2025-2026 school year. HCCS locations include the following:

HCCS is nonsectarian in its programs, admission policies, and all other operations, even at sites located at religious institutions. All HCCS sites are accessible to students by foot, public transportation, or car. HCCS ensures that the facilities align with all building and fire codes for instructional purposes as provided in Education Code Section 47610. In addition, HCCS will alert TRUSD at least 30 days prior to occupancy of every site to be leased, purchased, or controlled by the school for instructional purposes. HCCS will not pursue Proposition 39 facilities from the District.

Annual Operational Agreement
HCCS and Twin Rivers Unified School District (TRUSD) will negotiate in good faith on an annual basis to develop an Annual Operational Agreement/Memorandum of Understanding establishing the specific financial, operational, and service relationship between the two parties. Additionally, it may address other matters of mutual interest not otherwise resolved within the terms of HCCS' Charter.

Operational Powers and Liabilities
HCCS shall be fiscally responsible for its own operations and shall manage its operations efficiently and economically within the constraints of its annual budget.

HCCS shall have no authority to enter into a contract that would bind Twin Rivers Unified School District (TRUSD) or to extend the credit of TRUSD to any third person or party without the express written consent of TRUSD. HCCS shall clearly indicate to all vendors and other entities and individuals outside TRUSD with which or with whom HCCS enters into an agreement or contract for goods or services that the obligations of HCCS under such an agreement or contract are solely the responsibility of HCCS and are not the responsibility of TRUSD.

Insurance

Insurance Coverage
HCCS secures and maintains, during the term of the Charter, commercially reasonable general liability, property, errors and omissions, worker's compensation, and other necessary insurance coverage in the amounts specified by the Annual Memorandum of Understanding to protect HCCS from claims that may arise from its operations. Each policy shall include language stating particular who is insured, extent of insurance, locations and operations to which insurance applies, expiration date, to whom cancellation or reduction notice will be sent; and (3) a statement that the District and its officers, employees and agents are named as additional insured.

Coverage amounts will be based on recommendations provided by the District and the Charter School's insurer. The District Board of Education shall be named as an additional insured on all policies of the Charter School. The Charter School will provide copies of certificates of insurance, as provided herein, to the District upon request.

Fiscal Matters
The petitioner or petitioners also shall be required to provide financial statements that include a proposed first-year operational budget, including startup costs, and cash flow and financial projections for the first three years of operation. (Ed. Code § 47605(h).)

Funding
HCCS receives funding according to the Local Control Funding Formula pursuant to Education Code Section 42238.02(d) and its successors will opt to receive its funding directly from the state. An account for HCCS will be maintained at the Twin Rivers Unified School District (TRUSD). Any funds due to HCCS that flow through TRUSD shall be forwarded to HCCS as soon as practical.

Fiscal Strength
HCCS has significant financial strength. This strength includes strong financial reserves to ensure smooth cash flow and the meeting of all obligations. Moving forward HCCS will continue to have very strong financials as can be seen in the five-year budget and financial projections, see appendix.

Budgets and Cash Flow
A five-year budget and financial projections are included in the appendix. This document is based upon the Local Control Funding Formula and the best estimates of revenues and costs available to HCCS at this time.

Financial Reporting
HCCS will provide reports to TRUSD as follows, as required by Education Code Section 47604.33, and may provide additional fiscal reports as requested by TRUSD:

- By July 1, a preliminary budget for the current fiscal year. For a charter school in its first year of operation, financial statements submitted with the charter petition pursuant to Education Code Section 47605(h) will satisfy this requirement.
- By July 1, an annual update (LCAP) is required pursuant to Education Code Section 47606.5.
- By December 15, an interim financial report for the current fiscal year reflecting changes through October 31. Additionally, on December 15, a copy of HCCS's annual, independent financial audit report for the preceding fiscal year shall be delivered to the State Controller, State Department of Education, and County Superintendent of Schools.
- By March 15, a second interim financial report for the current fiscal year reflecting changes through January 31.
- By September 15, a final unaudited report for the full prior year. The report submitted to HCCS shall include an annual statement of all HCCS's receipts and expenditures for the preceding fiscal year.

For reports 1-4, above, HCCS shall also provide with each financial report supporting and/or back up information, including but not limited to multi-year projections for current and two subsequent years, assumptions used for two subsequent years, explanation for major variances by category between reporting periods, enrollment projection, ADA P2 projection by grade level, COLA & Deficit percentage, calculation used for determining general purpose funding, list of statutory benefit rates, list of H&W rates and number of participants, and number of FTEs for certificated and classified employees for each year.

Pursuant to Education Code Section 47604.3, HCCS shall promptly respond to all reasonable inquiries including, but not limited to, inquiries regarding its financial records, cash flow and budget, and ADA P2 projections from the District. HCCS agrees to and submits to the right of the District to monitor the Charter School's ADA projections and cash flow shortages in order to carry out the District's statutorily required oversight.

District Reports

Twin Rivers Unified School District (TRUSD) agrees to file all reports specifically required by law pertaining to their role as an authorizing agent to be filed with the California Department of Education or any other State or federal agency by a local educational agency on behalf of HCCS and/or TRUSD. HCCS will promptly provide TRUSD with any information, data, or documentation necessary for TRUSD to timely file such reports in accordance with law. HCCS will be solely responsible for the accuracy of all data submitted to TRUSD. HCCS will be responsible for filing all other reports as may be required by law.

Attendance Reporting, School Calendar, and Other Data

HCCS will provide Twin Rivers Unified School District (TRUSD) with a copy of the HCCS annual attendance calendar no later than July 1 of each year. HCCS will maintain no less than the minimum number of instructional days and minutes required by the Education Code and/or the California Code of Regulations for each grade level served.

Subject to TRUSD approval, HCCS will establish and maintain an attendance reporting system to record and account for the Charter School's ADA, as defined in Title V California Code of Regulations section 11960. HCCS will timely report ADA figures to TRUSD as necessary to enable the school to receive funding. The Charter School will provide TRUSD with a monthly enrollment report no later than the 15th calendar day of the following attendance month. HCCS will provide all data and reports required by TRUSD in hard copy and electronic data files. HCCS will submit enrollment and demographic information to the CDE to the extent and in the manner specifically required by law or regulations applicable to charter schools. Upon request, HCCS will provide TRUSD with documentation of the teacher/student ratio for the Charter School. HCCS will also provide TRUSD with amended ADA reports for the 2024-2025 school year and all other prior years as recommended by the FCMAT audit report of May 2018.

Annual Review and Notice to District of Change in Status
HCCS will participate in an annual review conducted by Twin Rivers Unified School District (TRUSD), if any, of all programs offered at the Charter School, including their effectiveness and student achievement. Both parties will act reasonably and in good faith in both the review and the response to the review.

HCCS will provide TRUSD no less than thirty (30) days prior written notice of any actions taken by the Charter School that may and/or will affect and/or change the status of HCCS, and which falls within TRUSD oversight responsibilities. Nothing herein shall preclude the parties from negotiating or amending the charter to include additional services not contemplated by this charter.

Regulations and Compliance
HCCS will work diligently to comply with all rules and regulations placed upon it by regulatory entities, such that it follows both the letter of the law and the spirit of the law. We recognize that the California legislature enacted charter school law to encourage innovation in the field of education, and thus, we will use all authority and ability granted to us as a school to innovate and push beyond the status quo. We will do so responsibly and with accountability.

Technology
HCCS will utilize technology in all aspects of how it functions to lower the cost of education, improve efficiency, and improve the effectiveness of education. Recognizing that there is always a cost-benefit tradeoff when using technology, HCCS will purchase hardware, software, and services based on the value it brings to the overall learning process.

HCCS will consider the full cost-benefit of technology purchases, including upfront costs, cost of support, cost of modification, and approximate lifespan of the technology, and compare this with the benefits that the technology adds to the educational process and overall system of the school.

Other Clauses and Procedures

Term of Charter
The term of this charter shall begin on July 1, 2019 and expire June 30, 2027.

Amendment of Charter
Any amendments to this charter shall be made by the mutual agreement of the governing boards of TRUSD and HCCS. HCCS may present a petition to amend the charter at any time, and TRUSD agrees to respond to such petitions pursuant to the process and timelines specified in Education Code Section 47605 or its successors.

Cooperation
Twin Rivers Unified School District (TRUSD) agrees to cooperate with HCCS in all matters related to the implementation of this charter and interactions with the California State Board of Education.

Severability
The manner in which administrative services of the charter school are to be provided. (Ed. Code § 47605(h).)

HCCS conducts or procures all of its own administrative and business services including, but not limited to, academic, special education, financial management, accounts payable/receivable, payroll, human resources, and instructional program development either through its own staff or through an appropriately qualified third-party contractor. All contracts are vetted for conflict of interest as adopted by the HCCS Board of Directors. HCCS provides or procures all administrative services to further ensure high quality services, in a cost-effective manner.

Pursuant to California law, the authorizer will be required to provide oversight and performance monitoring services, including monitoring school and student performance data, reviewing the school's audit reports, performing annual site visits, engaging in any necessary dispute resolution processes, and considering charter amendment and renewal requests. HCCS agrees to and submits to the right of the District to make random visits and inspections in order to carry out its statutorily required oversight in accordance with Education Code Sections 47604.32 and 47607.

Potential Civil Liability Effects
Potential civil liability effects, if any, upon the charter school and upon the school district. (Ed. Code § 47605(h).)

HCCS is operated by a California non-profit public benefit corporation. This corporation is organized and operated exclusively for charitable purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and California Revenue and Taxation Code Section 23701(d).

Pursuant to Education Code Section 47604(d), an entity that grants a charter to a charter school operated by a non-profit public benefit corporation shall not be liable for the debts or obligations of the charter school or for claims arising from the performance of acts, errors, or omissions by the charter school if the authority has complied with all oversight responsibilities required by law. HCCS shall work diligently to assist TRUSD in meeting any and all oversight obligations under the law, including monthly meetings, statutory fiscal reporting, or other requested protocol to ensure the District will not be liable for the operation of HCCS.

Further, HCCS and TRUSD have a memorandum of understanding, wherein HCCS indemnifies TRUSD for the actions of HCCS under this charter.

The corporate bylaws of HCCS provide for indemnification of the HCCS Governing Board of Directors, officers, agents, and employees, and HCCS maintains general liability insurance, Board Members and Officers insurance, and fidelity bonding to secure against financial risks.

As stated above, insurance amounts will be determined by recommendation of TRUSD and the TRUSD insurance company for schools of similar size, location, and student population. TRUSD will be named an additional insured on the general liability insurance of HCCS.

The HCCS Board will institute appropriate risk management practices as discussed herein, including screening of employees, establishing codes of conduct for students, and dispute resolution.

Funding and Oversight Fee

HCCS elects to receive the state aid portion of charter school general-purpose entitlement and categorical block grant funds and any other funding as now computed by the Local Control Funding Formula pursuant to Education Code Section 42238.02 and implemented by Education Code Section 42238.03, and as received by the Charter School for its "Adult Education" programs, directly in accordance with Education Code Section 47651(a)(1). Funds for the Charter School shall be deposited directly into an account for the "Highlands Community Charter School" with the Sacramento County Office of Education ("SCOE"). The SCOE will then remit the funds to the Charter School. The District shall transfer to the Charter School funding in lieu of property taxes in accordance with Education Code Section 47635. HCCS recognizes that the District shall have no responsibilities for funding the Charter School beyond that required by law.

Neither Greater Sacramento Urban League nor any other WIOA service provider in partnership with HCCS receives any type or amount of apportionment. Furthermore, these partners do not operate as an adult school program.

The Charter School agrees that all funding received for the Charter School, from any and all sources, including but not limited to all funding sources set forth in this Charter, or other agreement with the District, shall be used exclusively to operate the Charter School, and shall not be used, either directly or indirectly, or by loan or gift, to fund, assist, pay for the debts of, or towards the operation of, any other school or establishment managed, controlled, or operated by the Corporation or Charter School, or operated by its members, officers, agents, servants, and employers, or for any other purpose whatsoever, unless mutually agreed by the parties.

In consideration for the actual costs of supervisorial oversight by the District, the Charter School shall pay an amount not to exceed one percent (1%) of the revenue of the Charter School (hereinafter, the "Oversight Fee") pursuant to Education Code section 47613. "Supervisorial oversight" for purposes of this section shall be limited to those duties listed in Education Code section 47604.32(a)(1) through (5), only. "Revenue" for purposes of this calculation is defined pursuant to Education Code section 47613(f) in the current fiscal year from the local control funding formula calculated pursuant to Education Code sections 42238.02 and 42238.03. "Revenue" for purposes of this calculation shall not include Charter School fundraising activities, private donations, other public grants, or any other source of income developed by the Charter School.

Payment Schedule

The Charter School shall pay the supervisorial oversight fee and any other fees in quarterly installments for each school year. The District shall invoice the Charter School for fees due as of September 30, December 31, March 31, and June 30, with invoices to be prepared and submitted by the District to the Charter School within thirty (30) calendar days during the year and by September 15 (when the books are closed) at the end of the year. The Charter School shall pay all invoices within fifteen (15) business days of their issuance by the District. In the event payment is not received within five (5) business days following the payment due date, and/or if such payment is returned or unpaid due to insufficient funds, the Charter School authorizes the District to deduct any such fees or payments from future apportionments or any other monies received by the SCOE and/or District for the Charter School. The District may elect to offset and deduct any such fees from the District's in-lieu property tax revenues next payable to the Charter School, in which case the District shall provide the Charter School with a detailed statement showing the amount of any such offset.

Hi Matthew,

Regarding the deadline of tomorrow that cannot be achieved for a report issuance. Currently we are working through final review of workpapers and final drafting of the report and then it will need to go to our national office for their review and approval due to the prior period restatement. I have met with the team just now and we will be moving folks off other projects this week and next so that Highlands is the only priority on everyone's list until it's completed. With that being said it's possible we could issue as soon as next week at the end of the week but I would realistically expect that it's more likely we would have a final draft to you around end of next week with a final review and approval from you and the national office completed the following week and issuance at that time during the week of April 28th. Unfortunately, we had significantly underestimated the time it would take for us to work through the comments, recommendations, and concerns from the various SCO, State Auditor's Office, and the attendance reviews that have been ongoing or were completed as we needed to be careful to address everything noted that may be relevant to the audit.

Thank you,

RE: Demand for Delivery of 2023-2024 Audit on Highlands Community Charter and Technical Schools

This letter shall serve as a formal demand, on behalf of Highlands Community Charter and Technical Schools ("Highlands" or the "School"), that Eide Bailly deliver its long overdue audit on the School, which has been outstanding since December 10, 2024. The audit covers the 2023-24 fiscal year. We are fast approaching eight (8) months past the deadline and Eide Bailly has yet to produce an audit report. Although a draft report was previously sent to the School, a final report was not issued. Your firm has told my client a number of different dates for when the audit report would be produced, but all of those dates have come and gone. Your latest communication to the School indicates that you will produce a final audit on September 1, 2025, but this is unacceptable for the reasons explained below.

Eide Bailly's continued failure to deliver an audit report has become an existential threat to Highlands that could cost Highlands hundreds of millions of dollars. This risk is not an exaggeration. Specifically, the Twin Rivers Unified School District (the "District") has served Highlands with a Notice of Violation for failing to produce a timely audit report. Without Eide Bailly's prompt delivery of its audit report, Highlands cannot cure the District's Notice of Violation. Should the School be unable to cure the Notice of Violation, the Governing Board of Twin Rivers Unified School District could revoke the charters of both schools operated by our nonprofit. We want to make clear to you that such an outcome would lead to catastrophic financial damages to Highlands and, in turn, damages for Eide Bailly if deemed the cause. A revocation would cause thousands of students to be tossed onto the street in the middle of the school year. This would not only be tragic for the students but would create a major public relations nightmare for your firm. Even the consideration of revocation would cause a very public airing of the failure by your firm to deliver a report at an open meeting of the District school board in front of the media. Every major media outlet in Sacramento is already covering this story.

In addition to the potential revocation and the total loss of state funding that would result from revocation, Highlands has received notice from the California School Finance Authority ("CSFA") that it stands to lose millions of additional dollars in funding. These funds are allocated to the School under the Charter School Facility Grant (SB 740) that reimburses Highlands for facilities leases.

The reason for this potential loss in funding is because the School is not in "good standing" while it has an unresolved Notice of Violation. The Notice of Violation pertains to your firm's failure to deliver an audit report for 2023-24. The inability to resolve the Notice of Violation is a direct consequence of Eide Bailly's failure to produce an audit for 2023-24 as required under our client's contract with you.

Time is of the essence for Eide Bailly to produce its long overdue report. Accordingly, to prevent any further financial loss to the School, Highlands respectfully demands that Eide Bailly deliver its audit report no later than August 15, 2025. We understand that you wanted an opportunity to have further review of your draft audit in light of the State Auditor's report, but you have had more than enough time to complete your due diligence, and our client has responded to all of your records requests. There simply is no excuse for these continued delays that are harming not only Highlands, but the general public that we serve.

For the avoidance of any doubt, this demand is not intended to influence Eide Bailly's potential findings, whatever they may be. The School is merely seeking the publication of Eide Bailly's audit report for 2023-24, with whatever findings you deem professionally appropriate, in an effort to prevent a further significant financial loss for the School through revocation or loss of SB 740 facilities reimbursement funding.

Failure to comply with this demand will force Highlands to pursue any and all legal remedies available, including but not limited to filing a complaint with the California Board of Accountancy for Eide Bailly's breach of professional responsibilities. A failure to provide the report will leave the School with no alternative because the School must demonstrate to its authorizing school district that it is taking all reasonable steps to ensure production of an audit report.

Regardless of any other issues between our client and Eide Bailly relating to prior audit periods, we urge you not to expand the issues of potential liability for your firm by continuing to fail to produce the audit report for 2023-2024.

Should you have any questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to contact me directly at (916) 646 –1400. Thank you for your prompt attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Re: Highlands Community Charter and Technical Schools
Request for Delivery of Final 2023-2024 Audit Report

Dear Mr. Hartman,

Thank you for your response regarding our request for the delivery of Highlands Community Charter and Technical Schools' ("Highlands") 2023-24 audit. Since receiving your letter, dated August 15, 2025, our client has reviewed its own documentation on Eide Bailly's requests for information relating to the 2023-24 audit and found that, as of June 30, 2025, it had addressed every request on Eide Bailly's audit portal to the extent possible. The outstanding items in the portal include three duplicate requests, one request for information not in Highlands' possession or control, and two items regarding which our client submitted requests for clarification through the portal on June 26, 2024, and November 14, 2024, but received no response from Eide Bailly. Therefore, we must respectfully dispute your assertion that our client failed to respond to requests or otherwise contributed to Eide Bailly's delayed delivery of the final audit report.

Status of Responses to Information Requests

Specifically, in your previous letter, you stated that "Eide Bailly has undertaken substantial efforts to obtain the information necessary to support an unqualified opinion to no avail." Highlands staff provided the last set of documents, which the portal describes as revised P2 Attendance Reports requested June 27, 2025, on June 30, 2025, more than two months ago. (See Exhibit A, attached.)

Regarding the six outstanding requests listed in the portal, three requests concerned the same "2023-2024 certification regarding Arts and Music in Schools funds," a certification completed in the Principal Apportionment Data Collection ("PADC") portal of the California Department of Education ("CDE"). Our client believes that these requests are duplicative of

Request ID # 85, to which Highlands responded on May 1, 2024, and which Eide Bailly's team marked as "Accepted." For two other outstanding items ("Audit Planning Questionnaire" and "Net Asset Testing"), our client requested clarification but did not receive a response. (Exhibit A, lines 178-179, ID ## 7, 30.)

The final outstanding item in the information portal pertains to the State Audit Report and requests "State Auditor Independent Study Ratio calculations." The State Auditor has not shared the details of their Independent Study Ratio calculations with our client, so this request seeks records that Highland does not possess. While the audit itself is a public record, state law requires strict confidentiality that limits the State Auditor's ability to comment on any item not published in the State Audit Report. We have sought supporting evidence used by the State Auditor for their findings through a California Public Records Act request on August 19, 2025. (See Exhibit B, attached.) We have not received any responsive records at this time, and we cannot guarantee that the Auditor can or will make them available.

With that said, our client maintains that it has provided your audit team with access to all the Highlands records reviewed by the State Auditor. Highlands has diligently responded to all requests through the audit portal, as well as additional informal requests made via email. Based on the portal records, your team has had every opportunity to request and review additional information or records necessary to make its own professional judgments about compliance. Therefore, we conclude that the delayed delivery of Eide Bailly's audit cannot result from a lack of responsiveness on the part of our client.

Audit Disclosures

Separately, your team reached out to our office to see if there are any updates to our legal disclosures to the audit team. Among other things, the request sought updated information about any pending or threatened litigation, claims, and assessments with which we have been engaged but to which we have not devoted substantive attention. Since you have directed us to send all correspondence to you, we are providing our update to you here as opposed to responding directly to your audit team. We trust that you will pass this information on to your team immediately so that there are no further delays in the production of the audit report.

After the publication of the State Audit Report, the CDE issued a notice of exception to the school for the dollar amounts identified in the Report (see Exhibit C, attached). The school is vigorously contesting these claims. In the case of Highlands, the school filed a request for administrative review with the Education Audit Appeals Panel ("EAAP") and now intends to file a formal appeal. In the case of CICA, the school has filed a formal appeal with EAAP.

Given the precedent-setting nature of the legal and factual issues involved, we cannot accurately assess the likelihood of success for these appeals. If Highlands were to lose all issues identified in the state audit and the state refused a reasonable settlement, the anticipated loss would equate to $7,435,445 for CICA and $178,965,128 for Highlands, or a total of $186,400,573. The school would remit the disallowed apportionment through withholding from future apportionment funding over a period of eight years. CDE has confirmed, however, that the exceptions cited in the attached letters do not account for the ADA revisions that Highlands submitted earlier this year. (See Exhibit D, attached.)

In addition to these claims related to the State Audit Report, please find attached a letter that our client dated August 15, 2025, which pertains to a claimed disallowance of WIOA-AEFLA funds for two prior fiscal years. (Exhibit E.) CDE has sought repayment of these funds as well, a total of $1,713,157. Highlands plans to seek a resolution with CDE directly on an informal basis. At this time, we cannot know for certain whether we can resolve the disallowance issue entirely. In a worst-case scenario, Highlands may need to repay all the WIOA-AEFLA funds claimed.

Highlands also received the results of a mold testing report on August 26, 2025, regarding the presence of mold at one of its school sites. Our client is still investigating the extent of the issues. One employee has filed a workers' compensation claim related to this issue. We expect that workers' compensation insurance will cover this claim. We are not aware of any other litigation on this issue, and at this early juncture, it is not possible to know the amount of potential financial risk. However, we disclose it out of an abundance of caution and in the interest of transparency in case there may be future unasserted claims relating to this issue from this or any other individual.

In addition to the above claims, we know of two active workers' compensation claims and four workers' compensation claims in the process of resolution and closure, all handled through WCF Insurance. We also know of one active litigation case for wrongful termination filed by a former employee, which will go to mediation in November, as well as two other pre-litigation employment matters. Jonathan Kim of Murphy, Pearson, Bradley, & Feeney, P.C., represents Highlands on these insured employment-related claims. Currently, we know of no other threatened or pending litigation against our client.

Request for Resolution

We wish to emphasize that we share your interest in a positive and collaborative resolution to this matter. We do not seek to influence the content of the audit or any findings. Yet, our primary goal and priority must remain the protection of our client's best interests. Without receipt of the final audit report from Eide Bailly, Highlands risks millions of dollars in potential penalties. That liability will increase with each month of additional delay. Therefore, we must renew our request that Eide Bailly complete its contractual obligation to provide our client with the timely independent audit that Highlands expected to receive eight months ago.

Because Eide Bailly previously provided Highlands with a draft copy of its audit report, we have reason to believe that the team has completed its work. While we understand that the audit team previously wished to perform additional testing because of the state audit, our client has responded to all requests as fully as possible. Given the information available to us, we find the ongoing delay in delivery difficult to understand. Please advise immediately as to any specific records or information not yet produced by our client that your audit team now finds necessary for completion of their work.

Highlands has collaborated patiently with your team for over a year because it agrees that an unqualified audit would be ideal if that is possible. If Eide Bailly believes it cannot produce an unqualified audit in short order, our client wishes to ask for more clarity on the language that would appear in a qualified audit. We would also ask for a reasonable timeline in which your team would feel comfortable issuing an unqualified audit. This information will help our client to better determine how to proceed. Please advise so that our client may make an informed decision.

We appreciate your efforts to get this audit wrapped up, and we look forward to collaborating with you to ensure that your team can deliver Highlands' final audit report without further delay. Please do not hesitate to reach out should you have any questions or concerns.

Sincerely,

34	Monthly Attendance Detail	Month 2 attendance month (in Excel and PDF)	Accepted	03/20/2024	06/25/2024	Matthew Lemos	Joshua Spoon	Joshua Spoon : the CICA Detail does not seem to tie to the summary. The Summary showing a Month 2 Apportionment of 59095 while the Detail indicates 61492. Which is accurate. I also notice that the Month 2 is just August, which is strange as most Attendance Months tend to include portions of other months. Are we certain these details are pulling from Attendance Month 2 and not just August?

Good afternoon Doc,

It was a pleasure speaking with you today about your adult education credential educators. To clarify authorizations here is a summary:

- single subject and multiple subject credentials: do not authorize teaching in an adult setting
- adult education credentials: authorize the holder to teach the subjects named on the credential in courses primarily for adults (not authorized to teach K-12)

One of the academic subjects that can be verified and listed on an adult education credential, and that most of the HCCTS candidates have, is Elementary and Secondary Basic Skills (ESBS). That subject authorizes the candidate to teach basic K-8 education, arithmetic, reading, GED, citizenship to adults.

Based on the conversation held with your reviewer and educator, it is possible that a confusion/breakdown in language or terminology caused the concern. Mr. Cooc holds a preliminary AE:ESBS (along with Social Science and English) credential so he is authorized to teach math in an adult setting.

I've attached the CTC's CL-697B leaflet, which outlines the requirements and authorizations for an adult education credential, for your reference.

Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have additional questions.

Happy Friday!

Please read. We may need this for JLAC and TRUSD in the future. There is disagreement between whether or not our teachers need a single-subject or adult ed credential. We have been instructed by San Diego County Office of ed to use Adult ed credentials.

HIGHLANDS_Resolution for Credentialed Teachers RIF (4-29-25)(9389715.1)

RESOLUTION OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF HIGHLANDS COMMUNITY CHARTER AND TECHNICAL SCHOOLS APPROVING REDUCTION IN FORCE FOR CREDENTIALED TEACHERS

WHEREAS, Highlands Community Charter and Technical Schools ("HCCTS") is a California nonprofit public benefit corporation that currently operates two California public charter schools: (i) Highlands Community Charter School and (ii) California Innovative Career Academy (collectively referred to as the "Schools");

WHEREAS, in reliance on the most current information provided to the Board from the HCCTS Executive Director and management team, the HCCTS Board of Education ("Board") understands that HCCTS will be required to undergo very significant reductions in enrollment from approximately 13,000 to approximately 3,300 students, resulting in very significant reductions in revenue and operations, for the 2025-26 school year ("FY 2025-26");

WHEREAS, this anticipated considerable reduction in the Schools' enrollment and operations will significantly reduce HCCTS' staffing needs, and significantly reduces available funds to compensate School employees;

WHEREAS, the Board is responsible for prudent budgeting and for utilizing School funding for public school purposes that best benefit the education of students in its schools, in accordance with legal requirements including Education Code section 47633(c) and Article 16, Section 6, of the California Constitution;

WHEREAS, in making decisions about operational staffing needs, the Board is also cognizant of its fiduciary duty to act, in good faith, in a manner that each director believes to be in the best interests of HCCTS and with such care, including reasonable inquiry, as an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would use under similar circumstances, as set forth in Corporations Code section 5231;

WHEREAS, in light of the very significant anticipated reduction in the Schools' enrollment and revenue beginning in FY 2025-26, and based on the information, opinions, reports, statements, and/or data prepared or presented by the officers of the corporation and independent accountants and/or auditors, the Board has determined it is necessary for HCCTS to implement a Reduction in Force ("RIF") for Credentialed Teachers, reducing HCCTS' total Credentialed Teachers from 240.43 FTE to 52.51 FTE (see EXHIBIT A) with an anticipated last day of work of June 30, 2025 for separating employees;

WHEREAS, the Board does not take the decision to reduce staff lightly; however, based on the most current and reliable information available to the Board from the Executive Director and School team, the Board is faced with such a significant overall reduction in the Schools' enrollment, revenue, and organizational size in FY 2025-26, that the organization must undergo the RIF described herein in order for the Board to fulfill its fiduciary responsibilities and for

"ensuring progress toward the mission, faithfulness to the charter, and fiscal viability" as set forth in the Schools' charters; and

WHEREAS, the Board seeks to delegate to the HCCTS Executive Director and/or designee to execute the necessary RIF as set forth herein in accordance with applicable law and organizational policies, including sending 60-day notices to impacted personnel pursuant to the California Worker Adjustment and Retraining Act set forth at California Labor Code section 1400, et. seq..

NOW, THEREFORE, this Board does hereby find, resolve, and order as follows:

Section 1. The foregoing recitals are true and correct, and incorporated herein.

Section 2. The Board hereby approves the RIF for Credentialed Teachers described herein, reducing HCCTS' total Credentialed Teachers from 240.43 FTE to 52.51 FTE with an anticipated last day of work of June 30, 2025 for separating employees.

Section 3. The Board has determined, based on the most current and reliable information available to the Board, that this RIF is necessary and in the best interests of HCCTS in light of the very significant enrollment and revenue reductions for the Schools beginning in FY 2025-26.

Section 4. The HCCTS Executive Director and/or designee, acting alone or together, is(are) hereby authorized and directed to execute the RIF as described herein in accordance with applicable law and organizational policies, including sending 60-day notices to impacted personnel pursuant to the California Worker Adjustment and Retraining Act set forth at California Labor Code section 1400, et. seq., and to take or cause to be taken all such other actions as may be required to fulfill the purposes of the foregoing resolutions.

SECRETARY'S CERTIFICATE

I, _____, Secretary of the Board of Directors of Highlands Community Charter and Technical School ("HCCTS"), a California nonprofit public benefit corporation, County of _____, California, hereby certify as follows:

The attached is a full, true, and correct copy of the resolutions duly adopted at a special meeting of the Board of Directors of HCCTS, which was duly held on April 29, 2025, at which meeting all of the members of the Board of Directors had due notice and at which a quorum thereof was present; and at such meeting such resolutions were adopted by the following vote:

4111.2 BP Credentialing Requirements Communications - February 20, 2025

HIGHLANDS
COMMUNITY CHARTER AND TECHNICAL SCHOOLS

4112.2 BP Credentialing Requirements Communications

Board Policy

Purpose

Highlands Community Charter and Technical Schools (HCCTS) is committed to ensuring that all employees meet and maintain the appropriate credentialing requirements as mandated by state and federal laws. This policy establishes guidelines for communicating credentialing expectations, monitoring compliance, and supporting employees in meeting credential requirements.

Scope

This policy applies to all HCCTS instructional staff, administrators, and other certificated personnel required to hold valid credentials or certifications for their respective roles.

Credentialing Requirements

HCCTS requires that all certificated employees maintain valid and appropriate credentials issued by the California Commission on Teacher Credentialing (CTC) or other relevant licensing bodies as applicable to their roles. Employees must:

- Hold the proper credential or certification for their assignment at the time of hire.
- Maintain active status and renew credentials as required.
- Comply with state and federal regulations, including those under the California Education Code and Title 5 of the California Code of Regulations.
- Provide proof of credential validity and renewal to the Human Resources department within the specified timeline.

Communication of Credential Requirements

To ensure compliance, HCCTS will:

- Notify employees of their credential requirements upon hiring and annually thereafter.
- Provide timely reminders regarding renewal deadlines and required documentation.
- Offer support and guidance through the Credentialing Department to help employees navigate the credentialing process.
- Maintain accessible resources outlining credential requirements on internal platforms.

Monitoring and Compliance

HCCTS will establish procedures for:

- Regularly reviewing employee credential records to ensure compliance.
- Notifying employees of upcoming credential expirations.
- Assisting employees in resolving credential deficiencies.
- Reporting credential status to the California Department of Education (CDE) and other applicable agencies as required.

Support for Credential Attainment and Renewal
HCCTS recognizes the importance of supporting employees in maintaining their credentials and will:

- Provide guidance on credential application and renewal processes.
- Offer reimbursement opportunities for eligible credential-related expenses in accordance with HCCTS reimbursement policies.
- Collaborate with professional development initiatives to support credential compliance.

Non-Compliance Consequences
Failure to comply with credentialing requirements may result in:

- Notification to the employee and provision of a grace period to rectify deficiencies.
- Suspension or termination of employment in accordance with HCCTS policies and applicable labor agreements.

Recordkeeping and Reporting
The Human Resources department is responsible for:

- Maintaining accurate credential records for all certificated employees.
- Providing reports to the Executive Director and Board of Directors as necessary.
- Ensuring confidentiality of employee credential records in compliance with applicable privacy laws.

Oversight
The Executive Director or designee shall be responsible for implementing and overseeing compliance with this policy.

Approved: February 20, 2025

- Completion of Certification of Criminal Background Clearance, Tuberculosis (TB) Clearance and Credential Verification (Attachment B);
- Proof of insurance as it relates to the services provided under Attachment A including an executed Certificate Regarding Workers Compensation in substantially the form attached as Attachment C hereto; and
- Independent Contractor's W-9.

SECTION 6. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY OWNERSHIP. Independent Contractor assigns to HCCTS all patent, copyright and trade secret rights in anything created or developed by Independent Contractor for HCCTS under this Agreement. This assignment is conditioned upon full payment of the compensation due Independent Contractor under this Agreement. Independent Contractor shall help prepare any documents HCCTS considers necessary to secure any copyright, patent, or other intellectual property rights at no charge to HCCTS. Independent Contractor agrees to honor the proprietary information of HCCTS and shall not disclose or circumvent such proprietary information now or in the future. Upon the conclusion of this Agreement, Independent Contractor shall return all records, files, contacts and other proprietary information of HCCTS to HCCTS. However, HCCTS shall reimburse Independent Contractor for all reasonable actual expenses necessary to carry out the terms of this Section.

SECTION 7. TERM OF AGREEMENT. This agreement will become effective when signed by both parties and will terminate the date either party terminates the Agreement as provided below.

SECTION 8. TERMINATING THE AGREEMENT. During the term of this Agreement, either party may terminate the Agreement without cause or advance notice at any time by providing written notice to the other party.

This Agreement terminates automatically on the occurrence of any of the following events: (a) the bankruptcy or insolvency of either party; (b) sale of business of either party; or (c) the death or permanent disability of either party; (d) material breach of any term or condition of this Agreement, including failure to pay any financial obligations within the specified time according to this Agreement; (e) revocation or nonrenewal of either of the HCCTS-operated charter school petitions; or (f) 12 months after the effective date as identified in Section 7 above.

Any provision of this Agreement that expressly or by implication is intended to come into or continue in force on or after termination or expiration of this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect, and termination or expiration will not affect any rights, remedies, obligations or liabilities of the Parties that have accrued up until that date.

SECTION 9. INDEPENDENT CONTRACTOR STATUS. Independent Contractor is an independent contractor, not an employee of HCCTS. Independent Contractor's employees or subcontractors are not HCCTS's employees. Independent Contractor and HCCTS agree to the following rights consistent with an independent contractor relationship:

(a) Independent Contractor has the right to perform services for others during the term of this Agreement.

(b) Independent Contractor has the sole right to control and direct the means, manner and method by which the services required by this Agreement will be performed to the extent the provision of Independent Contractor's services are consistent with the responsibilities set forth herein at Attachment A as dictated by HCCTS.

(c) Independent Contractor has the right to hire assistants as subcontractors, or to use employees to provide the services required by this Agreement.

(d) Independent Contractor or Independent Contractor's employees or subcontractors shall perform the services required by this Agreement; HCCTS shall not hire, supervise or pay any assistants to help Independent Contractor.

(e) Neither Independent Contractor nor Independent Contractor's employees or subcontractors shall receive any training from HCCTS in the skills necessary to perform the services required by this Agreement.

(f) HCCTS shall not require Independent Contractor or Independent Contractor's employees or subcontractors to devote full time to performing the services required by this Agreement.

(g) Neither Independent Contractor nor Independent Contractor's employees or subcontractors are eligible to participate in any employee pension, health, vacation pay, sick pay or other fringe benefit plan of HCCTS.

SECTION 10. WORKERS' COMPENSATION. HCCTS shall not obtain workers' compensation insurance on behalf of Independent Contractor or Independent Contractor's employees. If Independent Contractor hires employees to perform any work under this Agreement, Independent Contractor will obtain workers' compensation insurance for those employees to the extent required by law. Prior to the commencement of services, Contractor shall furnish the School with an executed Certificate Regarding Workers Compensation in substantially the form attached as Attachment C hereto.

SECTION 11. LOCAL, STATE AND FEDERAL TAXES. Independent Contractor shall pay all income taxes and FICA (Social Security and Medicare taxes) incurred while performing services under this Agreement. HCCTS will not:

(a) Withhold FICA from Independent Contractor's payments or make FICA payments on Independent Contractor's behalf;

(b) Make state or federal unemployment compensation contributions on Independent Contractor's behalf; or

(c) Withhold state or federal income tax from Independent Contractor's payments.

If Independent Contractor is required to pay any federal, state or local sales, use, property, or value added taxes based on the services provided under this Agreement, the taxes shall be separately billed to HCCTS. Independent Contractor shall not pay any interest or penalties incurred due to late payment or nonpayment of any taxes by HCCTS.

SECTION 12. CONFIDENTIALITY. Independent Contractor acknowledges that during the engagement he/she will have access to and become acquainted with various trade secrets, inventions, innovations, processes, information, records and specifications owned or licensed by HCCTS and/or used by HCCTS in connection with the operation of its business including, without limitation, HCCTS's business and product processes, methods, pupil/personnel record information, accounts and procedures. All information regarding students of HCCTS will remain confidential to Independent Contractor unless a separate, specific, properly executed consent (including permission from HCCTS's student) for the release of information is obtained prior to such release. Any information regarding student(s) received by HCCTS's personnel or Independent Contractor providing services pursuant to this Agreement shall remain confidential and shall not be communicated to any person or entity other than appropriate HCCTS personnel.

SECTION 13. EXCLUSIVE AGREEMENT. This is the entire Agreement between Independent Contractor and HCCTS. All previous agreements between the parties, if any, whether written or oral, are merged herein and superseded hereby.

SECTION 14. MODIFYING THE AGREEMENT. This Agreement may be supplemented, amended, or modified only by the mutual agreement of both parties. No modification of this Agreement shall be binding unless in writing and expressing an intent to modify the Agreement and signed by both parties.

SECTION 15. DISPUTE RESOLUTION. If a dispute arises under this Agreement, the parties agree to first try to resolve the dispute with the help of a mutually agreed-upon mediator in Sacramento County. Any costs and fees other than attorneys' fees associated with the mediation shall be shared equally by the parties. If it proves impossible to arrive at a mutually satisfactory solution through mediation, the parties agree to submit the dispute to a mutually agreed-upon arbitrator in Sacramento County. Judgment upon the award rendered by the arbitrator may be entered in any court having jurisdiction to do so. Costs of arbitration, including attorneys' fees, will be allocated by the arbitrator.

SECTION 16. LIMITED LIABILITY. This provision allocates the risks under this Agreement between Independent Contractor and HCCTS. Independent Contractor's pricing reflects the allocation of risk and limitation of liability specified below. However, Independent Contractor shall remain liable for bodily injury or personal property damage resulting from grossly negligent or willful actions of Independent Contractor or Independent Contractor's employees or agents while on HCCTS's premises to the extent such actions or omissions were not caused by HCCTS. NEITHER PARTY TO THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE LIABLE FOR THE OTHER'S LOST PROFITS, OR SPECIAL, INCIDENTAL OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES, WHETHER IN AN ACTION IN CONTRACT OR TORT, EVEN IF THE PARTY HAS BEEN ADVISED BY THE OTHER PARTY OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES.

SECTION 17. LIABILITY AND INDEMNIFICATION. With regard to the services to be performed by the Independent Contractor pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, HCCTS shall not be liable to the Independent Contractor, or to anyone who may claim any right due to any relationship with the Independent Contractor, for any acts or omissions of HCCTS, except when said acts or omissions of HCCTS are due to willful misconduct or gross negligence. Independent Contractor shall hold HCCTS free and harmless from any obligations, costs, claims, judgments, attorneys' fees, and attachments arising from or growing out of the services rendered by Independent Contractor pursuant to the terms of this agreement or in any way connected with the rendering of services, except when the same shall arise due to the willful misconduct or gross negligence of HCCTS and HCCTS is adjudged to be guilty of willful misconduct or gross negligence by a court of competent jurisdiction.

SECTION 18. NOTICES. All notices and other communications in connection with this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be considered given as follows:

(a) When delivered personally to the recipient's address as stated on this Agreement;

(b) Three days after being deposited in the United States mail, with postage prepaid to the recipient's address as stated on this Agreement, or

(c) When sent by fax to the last fax number of the recipient known to the person giving notice.

Notice is effective upon receipt provided that a duplicate copy of the notice is promptly SECTION 19. NO PARTNERSHIP. This Agreement does not create a partnership relationship. Neither party has authority to enter into contracts on the other's behalf.

SECTION 20. INTERPRETATION AND OPPORTUNITY FOR COUNSEL. In the event of a controversy or dispute between the parties concerning the provisions herein, this document shall be interpreted according to the provisions herein. The parties hereto acknowledge and agree that each has been given an opportunity to independently review this Agreement with legal counsel.

Scope of Services

Description of Services:

Independent Contractor will deliver the following program, hereafter referred to as "Program" to HCCTS employees:

• 2042 Single Subject Credential Program with English Learner Authorization

The Program prepares individuals to teach a specific subject in a departmentalized classroom and is aligned with the California Commission on Teacher Credentialing Teaching Performance Expectations. Program requirements may be found on the Independent Contractor's academic catalog: https://catalog.umassglobal.edu/education/teaching-credential-programs/single-subject-english-learner-authorization/#programrequirementstext HCCTS shall provide a tuition assistance benefit, to their approved employees, that pays for all tuition and fees of the Program. HCCTS shall identify and approve employees eligible for the tuition assistance benefit. This Agreement applies to HCCTS employees who apply and enroll for a Summer 2, 2025 start of the programs detailed herein.

Admissions and Program Status:

- All admission determinations shall be solely the responsibility of Independent Contractor.
- Independent Contractor does not guarantee the admission of HCCTS approved employees.
- Approved HCCTS employees must meet the admission requirements of Independent Contractor and comply with the terms and conditions set forth in the Independent Contractor academic catalog and student handbook.
- Approved HCCTS employees must be admitted prior to the start of their program.
- Independent Contractor does not guarantee the successful completion of the Program by any HCCTS employee. HCCTS employees must independently complete all coursework and program requirements to complete the Program.
- Independent Contractor will evaluate the California Adult Education Credential for the potential waiver of two introductory courses. The waiver of any course will reduce the total number of credits employees need to satisfy to complete the Program.

Financial Responsibility:

- HCCTS will pay expenses for tuition and fees, textbooks excluded, of the Program.
- Admitted HCCTS employees will be responsible for all textbook costs.
- HCCTS shall provide Independent Contractor a list of employees approved for the tuition assistance benefit.

Docusign Envelope ID: D0648771-637A-4C32-9149-B79390BB29F0

- Independent Contractor shall provide no less than a fifteen percent (15%) scholarship for all HCCTS eligible employees admitted to the Program. This agreement applies to HCCTS eligible employees who apply, are admitted, and enroll for a Summer 1, 2025 start to the Program.
- HCCTS shall pay to the Independent Contractor, the tuition and fees for all employees approved for the tuition assistance benefit.
- Tuition may be subject to increase Fall 2025 and future years.
- Should HCCTS determine that any employee has not met HCCTS grade requirements or other expectations and therefore HCCTS tuition assistance is not applicable, HCCTS shall continue to pay Independent Contractor for tuition assessed and will work with the employee, outside of this agreement, in obtaining reimbursement from the student.
- HCCTS may add or remove employees eligible for the tuition assistance benefit via written agreement. Email from the designated HCCTS contact person is acceptable.
- HCCTS will not be responsible for paying tuition and fees for employees enrolled in coursework for the Master of Arts in Teaching.
- HCCTS will be responsible for paying the prorated tuition for employees who drop their course per the following schedule:

If an employee drops their course, HCCTS is responsible for the following tuition amount:

Course dropped:	Prorated Tuition Amount
Within the first week of session	10%
Within the second week of session	20%
After the second week of session	100%

- Any employee wishing to retake a course for any reason shall be responsible for paying any tuition and fees for the session of that course. For clarity, Independent Contractor shall not bill HCCTS for any courses retaken by HCCTS employees.
- Payment: Independent Contractor will submit the invoice for the tuition and fees of all eligible employees for each session to HCCTS after the final census of enrollment (week 3 of each session). Payment shall be due upon receipt.

Certification of Criminal Background Clearance, Tuberculosis (TB) Clearance, and Credential Verification

This form is to be completed with respect to the Agreement between HCCTS Community Charter School ("HCCTS") and Vendor ("Independent Contractor").

PLEASE CHECK ALL APPROPRIATE BOXES AND SIGN BELOW.

CLEARANCE AND CREDENTIAL REQUIREMENTS SATISFIED:

☐ A. The Independent Contractor hereby certifies to HCCTS that it has completed the criminal background check required by law and has determined that none of its employees who may come into contact with HCCTS students has been convicted of a violent felony listed in Penal Code Section 667.5(c), a serious felony listed in Penal Code Section 1192.7(c), a sex offense listed in Education Code Section 44010, a controlled substance offense listed in Education Code Section 44011, a crime involving moral turpitude (e.g., embezzlement, perjury, fraud, etc.), or any offense which may make the employee unsuitable/undesirable to work around students. The Independent Contractor shall also request and receive subsequent arrest and conviction notifications for all such employees from the California Department of Justice to ensure ongoing safety of students and report any new notifications of arrests and convictions to HCCTS.

☐ B. The Independent Contractor hereby certifies to HCCTS that it has required and verified that all employees who may have frequent or prolonged contact with students have undergone a risk assessment and/or been examined and determined to be free of active tuberculosis. The Independent Contractor requires all new employees to provide the Independent Contractor with a certificate of tuberculosis clearance dated within the sixty (60) days prior to initial employment. The Independent Contractor maintains current TB clearances for all such employees.

☐ C. The Independent Contractor hereby certifies to HCCTS that it has required and verified that all of the Independent Contractor's employees whose assignment at HCCTS requires a teaching or substitute credential or license holds a current, valid credential or license appropriate for the assignment as required by Education Code Section 47605(l).

CERTIFICATE REGARDING WORKERS' COMPENSATION

Labor Code Section 3700

Every employer except the state shall secure the payment of compensation in one or more of the following ways:

(a) By being insured against liability to pay compensation in one or more insurers duly authorized to write compensation insurance in this state.

(b) By securing from the Director of Industrial Relations a certificate of consent to self-insure, either as an individual employer, or as one employer in a group of employers, which may be given upon furnishing proof satisfactory to the Director of Industrial Relations of ability to self-insure and to pay any compensation that may become due to his or her employees."

I am aware of the provisions of Section 3700 of the Labor Code which require every employer to be insured against liability for workers' compensation or to undertake self-insurance in accordance with the provisions of the code, and I will comply with such provisions before commencing the performance of the work of this contract.

COMMUNITY CHARTER AND TECHNICAL SCHOOLS

Teacher Single Subject Credential Pathway Agreement

This Agreement is entered into between Highlands Community Charter & Technical Schools ("HCCTS" or "School") and the undersigned educator ("Teacher") who seeks to obtain a Single Subject Teaching Credential through a California Commission on Teacher Credentialing ("CTC") approved program in accordance with California state laws and regulations.

Purpose:
This Agreement outlines the commitment of the Teacher to pursue and earn a Single Subject Teaching Credential in the following statutory subject(s) agreed upon by Teacher and HCCTS [Science] through the University of Massachusetts Global ("UMass Global") educator preparation program (internship pathway) or another similar CTC-approved university internship credential program approved by the School, and the School's agreement to advance upfront costs related to pre-service coursework and tuition, subject to reimbursement by the Teacher for failure to successfully progress through the pathway.

Important Note:
This Agreement is not an offer of employment or a commitment to continued employment by the School. It is a commitment by the Teacher to complete the credentialing pathway described herein, so long as Teacher remains employed by School, to earn the Single Subject Teaching Credential described herein. Official offers will be extended after acceptance into the credentialing pathway and a mentor is assigned.

1. Pathway Overview

The Teacher agrees to complete the approved credentialing pathway described herein, which includes achieving subject matter competency for enrollment in the program (e.g. completion of pre-service coursework and/or subject matter examination if needed), program coursework, clinical training, and testing components as outlined in the attached UMass Global curriculum and pathway documentation and the CTC's Single Subject Teaching Credential requirements for teachers prepared in California. The School will advance upfront costs for eligible pre-service, program coursework and internship components as set forth herein, with reimbursement required from the Teacher based on unsuccessful completion and progression.

2. Financial Commitments and Reimbursements

The School shall cover all approved costs related to pre-service coursework (if needed), enrollment in the internship pathway program described herein, and associated program tuition and fees necessary to meet the credentialing requirements.

- In order to incentivize eligible employees to obtain their Preliminary Single Subject Credential, HCCTS will directly pay the costs of required pre-service coursework and tuition costs for the employee to enroll in and complete a CTC-approved Single Subject Teaching Credential educator preparation program (internship pathway) selected by HCCTS, subject to reimbursement by the employee for failure to successfully progress through the pathway. (Board Policy 4112.3)

- Once an educator has obtained their Preliminary Single Subject Credential, and for other educators who are required to obtain additional credentials or renew credentials as a condition of their employment, the costs associated with the induction program and/or to obtain an additional credential or renew their credential, will be paid for by the employee and reimbursed by HCCTS provided that the employee fulfills certain pre-determined criteria. (Board Policy 4112.3)

- The Teacher's reimbursement terms and schedule will be detailed in a separate reimbursement agreement, consistent with the pathway requirements for induction.

3. Conditions and Limitations for Financial Assistance (Board Policy 4112.3)

- Financial assistance is subject to budget availability and may be prorated or capped annually or as needed at the discretion of the Executive Director and the Board.

Payment of expenses provided by outside funding sources (e.g., grants) are not eligible for additional financial assistance from HCCTS.

- Employees who voluntarily terminate their employment within one year of receiving the financial assistance may be required to repay a 50% portion of the financial assistance amount.

4. Emergency Permits and Intern Credential

While pursuing and prior to completion of the credentialing pathway, Teacher understands and agrees that HCCTS will pursue/approve on Teacher's behalf the appropriate CTC-issued emergency permit(s)/intern credential based on Teacher's qualifications, as outlined by CTC and in the chart below, for Teacher to legally serve as a teacher at School prior to Teacher's completion of their credentialing pathway:

Type	Purpose	Eligibility	Valid For	Key Notes
PIP Provisional Internship Permit	Allows educator who has not met subject matter competence needed to enter intern program to fill immediate staffing need	BA + successful completion of at least 18 semester units, or 9 upper division semester units, of coursework in the subject to be listed on the permit	1 year (non renewable)	School must verify that a diligent search has been made, and a fully credentialed teacher cannot be found

Docusign Envelope ID: 58234907-0110-41CC-A9EB-2ECAA8793A2D

STSP Short Term Staff Permit	Allows educator who has met subject matter competence for intern program, but	BA + subject matter competency + a degree major in the subject area or successful completion of	Up to 1 school year (non renewable)	School must verify local recruitment efforts, provide orientation to Teacher, assign a mentor teacher, and submit

Pay Type:	Salary
Pay Schedule:	$70,429 - $103,221 (7 Steps)
Pay Method:	Semi-Monthly
Department:	Academics
Reporting to:	Director of Instruction & Professional Learning

Summary of the Position:
The Mentor Teacher will support teachers working on clearing their credentials and/or newly hired teachers to the school. When mentoring teachers who are working toward clearing their credentials, the Mentor Teacher will provide all support required by the County Office of Education's or University credential program. Further, the Mentor Teacher will help acclimate newly hired teachers to the culture of the school, develop teachers' instructional and classroom management skills, and connect newly hired teachers with support structures within the school as needed.

Essential Duties and Responsibilities:

- Maintain familiarity with the California Standards for the Teaching Profession (CSTPs)
- Provide a minimum of five (5) hours per week of support and guidance to the teacher candidate during their clinical practice. This support may include co-planning, modeling lessons, observing and providing feedback, and facilitating reflective discussions
- Support up to six (6) teacher candidates.
- Provide all support required by the credentialing programs for teachers working to clear their credentials, including their ILP (individual learning program)
- Participate in the evaluation process of the teacher candidate, providing input on their progress and areas for improvement
- Work closely with University or County Office of Education program supervisors to ensure the teacher candidate's growth and alignment with the Teaching Performance Expectations (TPEs)

4112.3 BP Teacher Credentialing Reimbursements - May 15, 2025

HIGHLANDS
COMMUNITY CHARTER AND TECHNICAL SCHOOLS

4112.3 BP Teacher Credentialing Reimbursements

Board Policy

Purpose

Highlands Community Charter and Technical Schools (HCCTS) is committed to supporting its certificated staff in obtaining and maintaining the necessary teaching credentials required to fulfill their roles effectively. This policy establishes guidelines for credentialing program payments and reimbursements, ensuring compliance with applicable laws and fostering professional development.

Scope

This policy applies to all eligible certificated employees of HCCTS who are required to obtain credentials or additional credentials or renew credentials as a condition of their employment.

HCCTS' goals are to retain and develop quality teachers while ensuring compliance with California teacher credential requirements and, where possible, empower teachers to earn and maintain the most effective credential for their role.

There are two financial assistance components to this policy for eligible employees:

- Direct Payment for Intern Program to Obtain Single Subject Credential. In order to incentivize eligible employees to obtain their Preliminary Single Subject Credential, HCCTS will directly pay the costs of required pre-service coursework and tuition costs for the employee to enroll in and complete a CTC-approved Single Subject Teaching Credential educator preparation program (internship pathway) selected by HCCTS, subject to reimbursement by the employee for failure to successfully progress through the pathway; and
- Reimbursement for Induction, Other Credentials. Once an educator has obtained their Preliminary Single Subject Credential, and for other educators who are required to obtain additional credentials or renew credentials as a condition of their employment, the costs associated with the induction program and/or to obtain an additional credential or renew their credential, will be paid for by the employee and reimbursed by HCCTS provided that the employee fulfills certain pre-determined criteria.

Eligibility

To qualify for direct payment for pre-service coursework and an intern program to obtain a Single Subject Teaching Credential pursuant to this policy, employees must:

- Hold a permanent or probationary certificated position at HCCTS.
- Be approved by HCCTS for participation for prepayment by HCCTS to obtain a Single Subject Teaching Credential as a part of their employment.
- Successfully complete preservice requirements, enroll in, attend, achieve necessary milestones and complete an HCCTS-approved Single Subject Teaching Credential educator preparation program (internship pathway).

To qualify for reimbursement of costs associated with an induction program and/or to otherwise obtain an additional credential or renew their credential, employees must:

- Hold a permanent or probationary certificated position at HCCTS.
- Attend one of the HCCTS-approved credentialing programs (as applicable).
- Provide proof of successful completion of credentialing requirements, including coursework, exams, and/or other mandated requirements.
- Submit a reimbursement request within the specified timeline and in compliance with HCCTS procedures.

Repayment for Failure to Complete
In the event an employee does not successfully complete their credentialing pathway within the timeframe set forth in the program schedule or fails to meet the required milestones of the program, elects to terminate their employment prior to completion, or is terminated for cause prior to completion, the employee will be required to reimburse HCCTS for all costs paid and/or reimbursed by HCCTS, unless the failure is due to extenuating circumstances approved in writing by the School.

The employee's reimbursement terms and schedule will be detailed in a reimbursement agreement that is approved by the HCCTS Executive Director and consistent with this Board Policy and the employee's credential pathway requirements.

Conditions and Limitations for Financial Assistance
- Financial assistance is subject to budget availability and may be prorated or capped annually or as needed at the discretion of the Executive Director and the Board.
- Payment of expenses provided by outside funding sources (e.g., grants) are not eligible for additional financial assistance from HCCTS.
- Employees who voluntarily terminate their employment within one year of receiving the financial assistance may be required to repay a 50% portion of the financial assistance amount.

Eligible Expenses
HCCTS will pay and/or reimburse, as applicable, expenses related to obtaining and/or renewing a credential as set forth herein, including but not limited to:

- Tuition fees required for coursework at accredited institutions approved by HCCTS.
- Coursework fees for state-mandated professional preparation programs.
- Required exams and tests for the HCCTS-approved subject matter pathway with a maximum of one (1) attempt per required exam or test.
- Other expenses as approved by the Executive Director or designee.

Reimbursement Process
Employees seeking reimbursement must follow the procedures outlined below:

1. Obtain supervisor approval before incurring expenses.
2. Submit a completed reimbursement request form with the following documentation to their supervisor:
    - Proof of payment (receipts, invoices, etc.).
    - Evidence of successful completion (credential copy, test results, transcripts, etc.).
3. Requests must be submitted within 60 days of successful completion.
4. Reimbursements will be processed within 30 days of approval, subject to availability of funds.

Compliance and Oversight
The Credentialing Department will be responsible for implementing of this policy and ensuring compliance with all applicable laws and regulations.

Policy Review
This policy shall be reviewed at least annually by the Board to ensure alignment with HCCTS goals and any changes in credentialing requirements.

HCCTS K-12 Teacher Retention Bonus - Final V_2

HIGHLANDS
COMMUNITY CHARTER AND TECHNICAL SCHOOLS

Teacher Retention Bonus Agreement

This Teacher Retention Bonus Agreement ("Agreement") is entered into by and between Highlands Community Charter & Technical Schools ("HCCTS") and the undersigned employee ("Employee") (collectively referred to as the "Parties") as of the date signed below.

1. Purpose: HCCTS seeks to incentivize its K-12 credentialed teachers to remain committed to the school for the 2025-2026 school year. To that end, HCCTS agrees to provide a retention bonus to qualifying teachers who meet the conditions set forth herein.

2. Eligibility: This bonus is available to any fully K-12 credentialed teacher who is either a new employee or a returning teacher of HCCTS as of the start of the 2025-2026 school year, and who commits to completing the full academic year. Additionally, the Employee must possess a valid preliminary or clear K-12 teaching credential issued by the California Commission on Teacher Credentialing (CTC).

3. Teachers participating in intern or other credentialing programs that do not yet hold a valid preliminary or clear credential are not eligible for this bonus.

4. Bonus Payment Terms: The total bonus amount is $5,000 per eligible employee, payable in two installments:

- First Payment: $2,500, issued in December 24th, 2025
- Second Payment: $2,500, issued in June 25th, 2026

5. Conditions of Payment

a) The Employee must remain employed with HCCTS through the respective payment dates to be eligible to receive the payment.
b) If the Employee voluntarily terminates employment or is involuntarily terminated for cause before the payment date, the Employee shall not be entitled to this payment. For purposes of this Agreement, "cause" includes a violation of the HCCTS' policies or expectations of conduct, failure to satisfactorily perform the Employee's job duties, or failure to maintain the required credential.

HIGHLANDS
COMMUNITY CHARTER AND TECHNICAL SCHOOLS

c) If the Employee is involuntarily terminated without cause before the payment date, the Employee shall be entitled to a pro-rated amount of the next payment in proportion to the time worked.

6. No Guarantee of Employment

Participation in this program does not guarantee continued employment nor does it alter the at-will nature of the employment relationship.

7. Applicable Laws

a) California Labor Laws: This Agreement is governed by and shall be interpreted in accordance with the laws of the State of California.
b) Wage and Hour Laws: Any bonus payments are considered wages under California law and are subject to applicable payroll taxes and withholding.
c) Employment At-Will: Employment with HCCTS is at-will, and either party may terminate the employment relationship at any time, with or without cause or notice, consistent with California law.

8. Miscellaneous

a) This Agreement constitutes the entire understanding between the Parties regarding the bonus.
b) This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of California.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Parties have executed this Agreement as of the date below.

4212.8 BP Anti-Nepotism and Employment of Relatives - December 5, 2024 (2)

HIGHLANDS
COMMUNITY CHARTER AND TECHNICAL SCHOOLS

4212.8 BP - Anti-Nepotism and Employment of Relatives

Board Policy

Highlands Community Charter and Technical Schools (HCCTS) upholds the principles of fairness, transparency, and integrity in employment practices. To prevent conflicts of interest and eliminate favoritism, this policy establishes strict boundaries regarding relatives within HCCTS employment, supervision, and evaluation processes. This policy aims to protect HCCTS' integrity and promote a professional, unbiased working environment.

Purpose and Scope

This policy applies to all HCCTS employees, including full-time, part-time, temporary, and contracted staff, as well as members of the Board of Directors. It governs hiring decisions, promotions, evaluations, transfers, disciplinary actions, and other personnel-related decisions involving employees with relative relationships.

Definitions

- Nepotism: Favoritism in employment or personnel decisions based on relationships rather than on merit or qualifications.
- Relatives: For purposes of this policy, "relatives" are defined to include spouses, registered domestic partners, children, siblings, parents, step-relatives, and in-laws (mother-in-law, father-in-law, daughter-in-law, and son-in-law).
- Conflict of Interest: Consistent with the California Government Code Section 1090, a situation in which an employee's relationships may improperly influence their employment-related decisions, leading to actual or perceived bias.

Policy Provisions

1. Prohibition on Supervisory Relationships
   No HCCTS employee shall be employed in a position where they directly or indirectly supervise, evaluate, or have decision-making authority over a relative. This restriction is essential to maintain impartiality in supervisory relationships.
2. Restrictions on Employment Decisions Involving Relatives
   Employees are strictly prohibited from participating in any hiring, promotion, evaluation, disciplinary, or related process involving a relative. Such processes must be delegated to an impartial third party or the Human Resources Department.
3. Employment of Relatives within the Same Department
   Relatives may work within the same department only if no direct or indirect reporting or supervisory relationship exists. Approval in writing from the Executive Director is required, and the Executive Director may impose restrictions or deny such employment to protect HCCTS' operations, safety, and security.
4. Disclosure Requirements
   Employees must disclose if any other employee is a relative or candidate for employment to both their supervisor and Human Resources. Failure to disclose relationships may result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination. Disclosures are required to assess and address potential conflicts in advance.
5. Corrective Actions for Conflicts of Interest
   When a conflict of interest is identified, HCCTS will implement corrective actions, which may include:

- Reassignment to a different department, supervisor, or role.
- Modification of duties to eliminate conflicts.
- HCCTS may require one or both employees to accept a transfer or resign to resolve the conflict.

6. Marriage or Relatives Developed Post-Hiring
   If a relationship arises after hiring (e.g., through marriage or cohabitation) and creates a direct supervisory relationship or potential conflict, HCCTS may reassign one employee to an alternative role. If a reassignment is not feasible, one or both employees may be required to resign.
7. Pre-Existing Relationships
   Employees with pre-existing relationships in supervisory or evaluative roles prior to this policy's enactment must disclose these relationships to Human Resources. Where conflicts exist, impartial evaluators may be assigned to maintain unbiased operations.
8. Board of Directors and Administrative Staff Restrictions
   Members of the Board of Directors and administrative staff are prohibited from participating in employment decisions affecting relatives. Board members must abstain from voting on or discussing items related to the employment or financial interests of a relative in compliance with conflict-of-interest laws. Any employee hired after November 2024 may not be a relative of a Board Director due to a majority Board of Directors' ability to approve future employment-related issues.

Exceptions and Appeals
Requests for exceptions to this policy must be submitted in writing to the Executive Director and reviewed in consultation with the Human Resources Department and legal counsel. Exceptions will only be granted if no conflict of interest exists and the school's integrity remains intact. Employees may appeal nepotism-related decisions through the standard grievance process outlined in the HCCTS Employee Handbook.

Confidentiality and Non-Retaliation
All information disclosed under this policy is confidential. Employees who disclose potential conflicts of interest or raise related concerns will not be subject to retaliation. Any retaliation will result in disciplinary action.

Compliance
This policy adheres to all applicable laws, including the California Government Code, Education Code, and statutes governing conflict of interest in educational institutions. HCCTS will ensure this policy is regularly reviewed and updated to reflect legal changes.

Enforcement and Disciplinary Actions
The Executive Director and the Human Resources Department are responsible for enforcing this policy. Violations may result in disciplinary actions, including reassignment, suspension, or termination of employment. The Executive Director holds final authority for interpreting and applying this policy, subject to Board review.

2025-2026 HCCTS Student Handbook

STUDENT HANDBOOK

HIGHLANDS
COMMUNITY CHARTER AND TECHNICAL SCHOOLS

Dear Students,

Welcome back! We are so happy you are here!

You made a powerful choice to return to school and work for a better life. That takes courage. You should be proud.

At Highlands Community Charter School (HCCS) & California Innovative Career Academy (CICA), we believe in second chances. We believe in you. This year, our schools are changing for the better with stronger teachers, new classes, and more support to help you succeed.

We also have higher expectations, because we know you are capable of more.
To be a student at HCCS & CICA, you must:

Work towards earning your high school diploma
Take part in required testing
Follow school rules, expectations and meet attendance requirements

If you are enrolled at HCCS, you are expected to come to class every day and attend every period. If you are enrolled at CICA, your attendance will be tracked by completion of your course work. We will help you every step of the way with support in class, help with technology, and staff who care about you.

We know life is hard. But your dreams are worth it. Getting your diploma can open new doors for better jobs, college, and a stronger future for you and your family. You are not alone. We are in this together.

Let's make this your year. Let's build a better future starting now. Because at HCCS & CICA we believe that "It's Never Too Late…"

With pride and hope,

Jonathan Raymond

GENERAL INFORMATION

Purpose of the Handbook

The purpose of the student handbook is to give students an understanding of the general rules and guidelines for attending and receiving an education at Highlands Community Charter and Technical Schools (HCCTS). Students should be aware that this document is reviewed annually since policy and procedure adoption is an ongoing process. The most recently adopted policy or procedure will always prevail. This handbook may be amended at any time and those changes will be communicated by the administration to students and staff.

Student Expectations

- No student has the right to interfere with the education of their fellow students. Respect the rights of other students.
- Express your ideas in a respectful manner, as not to offend or slander others. Be aware of all rules and standards, and conduct yourself accordingly.
- Maintain dress and grooming appropriate for the school setting.
- Assist staff in creating a safe school for all students.
- Exercise proper care when using facilities and equipment.
- Complete all courses satisfactorily while maintaining academic honesty.
- If enrolled at HCCS, attend class every day and every period.
- If enrolled at CICA, complete coursework regularly to meet attendance requirements.
- Assume financial responsibility for any and all damages to facilities, equipment, and personal property.

HCCTS has an exemption to be able to serve adults 22 years of age or older, as long as they are served exclusively in partnership with the Workforce Innovation and Opportunities Act (WIOA), also known as WIA, per Education Code §§ 47612.1 and 47605.1(g).

Attendance Requirements

Daily school attendance at HCCS is critical for students. In our classroom-based program, students are expected to be in school daily and stay for the entire time of your program of study. Regular, punctual attendance is necessary for students to make progress towards learning goals and graduation.

Students who accrue excessive unexcused absences may be subject to involuntary removal pursuant Involuntary Removal Procedures located in Appendix A: Annual Notifications.

Students attending Independent Study through California Innovative Career Academy (CICA) must follow the policies and procedures of the independent study program to receive attendance credit. Students enrolled in a non-classroom-based program shall be subject to an evaluation to determine whether it is in the best interests of the student to remain in independent study upon the following trigger:

When the student fails to complete three (3) assignments in any given twenty (20) school day period.

If it is determined per this evaluation that it is not in the student's best interest to remain in independent study, the student may be involuntarily removed pursuant to the Involuntary Removal Procedures located in Appendix A: Annual Notifications.

For more information, please contact the school for specific program requirements.

Progress Requires Commitment - Commitment Requires Attendance

Leave of Absence

Students will communicate with HCCTS' counselors and/or the assigned enrollment team if the student needs to leave school for a period of time that exceeds ten consecutive school days.

General Complaints

Any student with a complaint who feels they have been treated unfairly has the right to be heard fairly and promptly. The uniform complaint procedure is a formal process used to assure fair and unbiased resolution for conflicts.

If you have a grievance that you wish to have addressed, the uniform complaint procedure provides due process in such matters.

If you have a grievance, please complete the process by doing the following:

1. You should generally try to resolve the issue informally with those involved.
2. If you cannot resolve the issue directly with those involved or feel you would be in some form of danger for attempting to do so, you should then talk with the school administration. If your site does not have school administration available, you can call 916.844.2283 to find the name and contact information of the school administration in charge of the site.
3. If, after contacting school administration, you do not feel the issue has been adequately addressed, you may submit a written grievance (one or more paragraphs) to the Executive Director or designee. All parties involved in allegations will be notified when a complaint is filed, when a complaint meeting or hearing is scheduled, and when a decision or ruling is made. All written complaints will be kept on file and will be available for an accrediting body to review. HCCTS will work to ensure that due process is followed to resolve the complaint.
4. If, after submitting a written grievance, you do not feel the issue has been adequately addressed, you may request time at a HCCTS board meeting to have an agenda item for the issue. Depending upon the nature of the issue and appropriate laws, this may be heard in either open session or closed session. Please note, you always have the right to attend any board meeting of the school and share your issue during the public comment section of the agenda that is used for non-agenda items.
5. Please know, according to the Brown Act, board members cannot generally respond to public comments that have not formally been placed on the agenda.
6. If, after having your grievance heard by the board and any actions taken by the board, you do not feel the issue has been adequately addressed, you may write to any accrediting and oversight bodies that oversee the school. These bodies generally require that the full grievance process has been completed within the school before they will accept a written grievance.

INSTRUCTIONAL PROGRAM

Graduation Requirements

Progress towards graduation shall be met by student's successful mastery of subject material and skills in required courses. To graduate and earn a diploma from HCCTS, students must complete the following course requirements listed below as required by the California Department of Education.

CREDITS NEEDED TO GRADUATE

SUBJECT AREA	CREDITS
English	30
Math	20
World History	10
U.S. History	10
Economics	5
American Government	5
Life Science	10
Physical Science	10
Career Technical Education, World Language, or Visual Performing Arts	10
Electives	70
Total	180

Career Technical Education (CTE Programs)

HCCTS offers a number of Career Technical Education (CTE) programs that once completed and combined with a student's high school diploma will assist you in securing a livable-wage job. All CTE programs require students to actively work towards their high school diploma.

Academic Honesty

HCCTS' Board of Directors believes that academic honesty and personal integrity are fundamental components of your education and character development. The Board expects that you will not cheat, lie, plagiarize, or commit other acts of academic dishonesty.

The Executive Director, or designee, may establish a committee composed of students, staff, administrators, and members of the public to develop standards of academic honesty, measures of preventing dishonesty, and specific consequences for acts of dishonesty.

If you are found to have committed an act of academic dishonesty, you will be subject to discipline.

Academic Expectations

Students are required to make satisfactory academic progress. In order to maintain satisfactory academic progress, students must:

- Maintain a "C" (2.0) grade point average (GPA)
- Make progress towards your high school diploma

RESOURCES FOR STUDENTS

The Center for Workforce Solutions

Recognizing that students' needs are unique leading up to and/or after graduation, the Center for Workforce Solutions offers a variety of services tailored to student's lives. The center focuses on assisting students with job/career development and offers support with:

- Resume Writing
- Employment Application Assistance
- Identifying Job Opportunities
- Interview Preparation

Bus Pass Program

HCCTS offers free daily bus passes to assist students with daily transportation in order to support daily attendance. All actively enrolled students have access to physical bus passes that can be requested from each of the HCCTS' campuses. Availability and specific rules of the physical bus pass program may differ between campuses.

Students must attend school regularly and show consistent academic progress to continue in the HCCTS bus pass program. Physical bus passes are given out daily after the completion of your school day. Please note that replacement passes are not provided for missed school days.

Appropriate disciplinary action, including suspension of digital transit pass/physical bus pass privileges may result for students found to misuse HCCTS' bus pass program.

Counseling Services

HCCTS has a staff of well-trained, compassionate school counselors available to support each and every student. HCCTS counselors not only handle academic issues, such as class and schedule assignments or guidance regarding academic progress and graduation, but also serve as a resource for mental health concerns, conflict mediation, career counseling and resources to other community support. Resources to assist with food, housing, and clothing are also available.

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITIES

Student Dress Code

- Clothing should be neat, clean, and appropriate
- Shoes/Footwear must be worn at all times
- Personal cleanliness should be maintained at all times

Tops (i.e.: shirts, sweaters, sweatshirts, dresses, etc.): No tops may be sheer or expose undergarments. No strapless, racer-back, or off the shoulder tops. No shirts may be worn that expose bare midriff.

Bottoms (i.e.: pants, leggings, skirts, shorts, dresses, etc.): Bottoms must be worn above the hip and underwear should not be visible. Belts must be worn with bottoms that are too big to fit securely around the student's waist. All bottoms must be fingertip length or four (4) inches above the knee without leggings or stockings.

No clothing, jewelry, accessories, or hairstyles which are, or include, a picture, writing, or insignia which is:

1) gang related;
2) presents a safety hazard to the wearer or others;
3) advertises or symbolizes any type of alcohol, drugs, tobacco, or gambling;
4) includes weapons or acts which are illegal, violent, obscene, or hazardous to one's health;
5) sexually suggestive, crude, vulgar, profane; discriminatory, obscene, contain threats, libelous; or
6) offensive or degrading to students or staff on the basis of gender, cultural, religious or ethnic values.

Religious beliefs, medical requirements, or other reasons may be considered for an exception to a specific portion of the dress code policy. Please contact school administration for further information.

Responsible Use Commitment: Internet/Computer Technology and Networks

School issued phones/computers, internet use, and access are considered a school resource and privilege. It is the expectation that you will use the phone/computer/internet in a responsible way. Students have no reasonable expectation of privacy in regard to the use of such devices, and all use is subject to monitoring, to the maximum extent permitted by applicable law. This includes, as permitted, the right to monitor personal communications as necessary. Misuse of the internet may result in disciplinary action, including written warnings, withdrawal of access privileges, and in some cases, suspension or expulsion. HCCTS also reserves the right to report any illegal activities to the appropriate authorities.

HCCTS believes that providing access to technology enhances the educational experience for students. However, student use of computers, networks, and Internet services is a privilege, not a right. To make that experience successful for everyone, students must abide by the following terms and conditions:

1. Security. Students shall not impair the security of technology resources. Students are expected to:
2. Safeguard all personal passwords. Students should not share passwords with others and should change passwords frequently. Students are expected to notify an administrator immediately if they believe their student account has been compromised.
3. Access technology only with their account or with a shared account as directed by their teacher and not to allow others to use their account or to use the accounts of others, with or without the account owner's authorization.
4. Authorized Use. Students may use technology resources when directed by a teacher, when technology has been designated for open student use and for other educational purposes.
5. Protection Measures. While HCCTS is able to exercise reasonable control over content created and purchased by HCCTS, it has limited control over content accessed via the internet and no filtering system is 100% effective. Neither HCCTS nor its staff, employees, officers, directors or volunteers shall be responsible for the failure of any technology protection measures, violations of copyright restrictions, or user mistakes, misuse or negligence. The student agrees not to hold HCCTS or any of its staff, employees, officers, directors or volunteers responsible for the failure of any technology protection measures, violations of copyright restrictions, or user mistakes, misuse or negligence. They also agree to indemnify and hold harmless HCCTS, staff, employees, officers, directors and volunteers for any damages or costs incurred.

6. Inappropriate Use. Technology, hardware, software and bandwidth are shared and limited resources and all users have an obligation to use those resources responsibly. Students are provided access to technology primarily for educational purposes. Students shall not use HCCTS technology or equipment for activities that violate HCCTS policy or local law. These include but are not limited to:
7. Playing games or online gaming.
8. Downloading software, music, movies or other content in violation of licensing requirements, copyright or other intellectual property rights.
9. Installing software on HCCTS equipment without the permission of a teacher or other authorized staff.
10. Downloading, viewing or sharing inappropriate content, including pornographic, defamatory or otherwise offensive material.
11. Conducting any activity that is in violation of HCCTS policy, the student code of conduct or local, state or federal law.
12. Engaging in any activity that is harmful to other student(s), including the use of technology to harass, intimidate, bully or otherwise disrupt the educational process.
13. Conducting for-profit business.
14. Using hacking tools on the network or intentionally introducing malicious code or viruses into the HCCTS network.
15. Using any software or proxy service to obscure either the student's IP address or the sites that the student visits.
16. Disabling, bypassing, or attempting to disable or bypass any system monitoring, filtering or other security measures.
17. Accessing or attempting to access material or systems on the network that the student is not authorized to access.
18. No Expectation of Privacy. Students acknowledge that computer equipment, internet access networks, email accounts, and any other technology resources are owned by HCCTS and provided to students for educational purposes. HCCTS may require staff to monitor and supervise all access to computer equipment, internet access networks, and email accounts. To facilitate monitoring of activities, computer screens may be positioned so that they are visible to the staff member supervising the students. HCCTS reserves the right to access stored computer records and communications, files, and other data stored on HCCTS equipment or sent over HCCTS networks. Such communications, files, and data are not private and may be accessed during routine system maintenance; during inspection of HCCTS equipment at the end of the school year/term or agreed upon use period; and review of individual files or monitoring of individual activity when there is a reasonable suspicion that the student is engaging in an inappropriate use.

19. Disruptive Activity. Students should not intentionally interfere with the performance of the HCCTS network or intentionally damage any technology resources.
20. Unauthorized Networks. Students may not create unauthorized wireless networks to access the HCCTS network. This includes establishing wireless access points, wireless routers and open networks on personal devices.
21. Consequences of Inappropriate Use. Students who violate this agreement will be subject to discipline, which may include loss of access to HCCTS technology resources and/or other appropriate disciplinary or legal action in accordance with the Student Code of Conduct and applicable laws
22. Technology Systems/Equipment Care. Students are not permitted to have food or drink near computers/other technology and must keep equipment and assigned areas free of vandalism.

Harassment/Bullying

The HCCTS' Board of Directors tolerate zero acts of harassment or bullying. Harassment and bullying behavior will result in disciplinary action, including written warnings and in some cases, suspension or expulsion.

What is Harassment?

"Harassment" is behavior that intentionally harasses, threatens, or intimidates a student, group of students, school personnel, or the school itself that is sufficiently severe or pervasive to have the actual and reasonably expected effect of materially disrupting class work, creating substantial disorder, and invading the rights of either school personnel or students by creating an intimidating or hostile educational environment.

What is Bullying?

"Bullying" is any severe or pervasive physical or verbal act or conduct, including acts committed by a student or group of students which would be deemed hate violence or harassment, threats, or intimidation, which are directed toward one or more students, school personnel, visitors, board members and partners. Bullying includes, but is not limited to, bullying committed by means of an electronic act (defined as the transmission of a communication, including, but not limited to, a message, text, sound, or image, or a post on a media by means of an electronic device, including, but not limited to, a telephone, cell phone, or other wireless communication device, or computer) directed specifically toward a student or school personnel.

Mandated Reporting

All teachers, staff, and school administration are mandated reporters and are therefore required to file a report with Child Protective Services (CPS) if they have knowledge of or observe a child who the reporter knows or reasonably suspects has been the victim of child abuse or neglect. In addition, teachers, staff, and school administrators are also required to file a report with Adult Protective Services (APS) if they suspect abuse of an elder (65 + years or older) or dependent adult (18+ years or older) is occurring. According to the California Courts, a dependent adult is someone aged 18-64 who has a mental or physical limitation that limits their ability to carry out normal activities or protect their own rights, regardless of whether they live independently or not.

Weapons and Dangerous Instruments

Students are not allowed to possess, use, or distribute weapons, dangerous objects, or destructive devices of no reasonable use to the student (as determined by Administration) at any HCCTS locations, or at school related or school sponsored activities away from school. This includes imitation firearms. Violation of this policy may result in immediate suspension, expulsion, and/or involvement with law enforcement officials.

Under the power granted to HCCTS to maintain order and discipline in the school and to protect the safety of the students, staff, and the public, school employees are authorized to confiscate weapons, dangerous/destructive objects or devices, and imitation firearms from any person on school grounds.

School administration must notify law enforcement authorities whenever deemed necessary to preserve the safety of students and staff or when required by law. If an HCCTS employee knows that a student possesses any prohibited items, they shall immediately notify school administration, who shall take appropriate action.

When informing school administration about the possession or seizure of a weapon or dangerous device, the employee shall report the name(s) of persons involved, witnesses, location, and the circumstances of any lawful search or seizure based on reasonable suspicion or wrongdoing or possession of a prohibited item.

Possession of Pepper Spray

Students are prohibited from carrying tear gas or tear gas weapons such as pepper spray on campus or at any school activities.

Reporting of Dangerous Objects

HCCTS encourages students to promptly report the presence of weapons, injurious objects, or other suspicious activity to school administration. The identity of a student who reports such activity shall remain confidential to the extent permitted by law.

Vandalism, Theft, and Graffiti

Any HCCTS' student who commits an act of vandalism may face disciplinary action by HCCTS and also may be prosecuted through other legal means. If reparation of damages is not made, HCCTS also may withhold the student's grades, diploma, and/or transcripts in accordance with the law. Vandalism includes the negligent, willful, or unlawful damaging or theft of any school-owned real or personal property, including the writing of graffiti.

Student Discipline Procedures

HCCTS' staff will enforce disciplinary rules and procedures fairly and consistently. Discipline may include the counseling of students, conferencing with administrators, suspension, and expulsion.

When unacceptable behavior occurs, the following steps may be taken:

1. For minor incidents, staff will provide opportunities for re-direction and a chance to "try again"

2. Repeated offenses may initiate a progressive system of consequences, up to and including conferences with school administration and/or suspension and expulsion

3. Serious incidents may lead to an immediate referral for suspension or expulsion. A serious incident may include but are not limited to, the following:

a. Possession of a weapon or dangerous object
b. Causing physical injury to another person
c. Furnishing and/or sale of a controlled substance
d. Robbery
e. Extortion
f. Sexual Assault
g. Battery

Grounds for Suspension and Expulsion of Students

A student may be suspended or expelled for prohibited misconduct if the act is related to school activity or school attendance occurring at any time including but not limited to:

- While on school grounds including going to or coming from school.
- During the lunch period, whether on or off the school campus.
- Going to, during, or coming from a school-sponsored activity including participating in a virtual school-sponsored activity.

When the Pupil Suspension and Expulsion Policy is violated, it may be necessary to suspend or expel a student from regular classroom instruction. The full policy and procedure are available in the office of school administration. HCCTS' staff shall enforce disciplinary rules and procedures fairly and consistently among all students.

Students may be suspended and/or expelled if they commit any of the offenses enumerated within HCCTS' Suspension and Expulsion Policy. A suspension can last from one to five days, unless extended pursuant to a recommendation for expulsion. During a suspension, students have the right to complete and receive credit for their regular school work.

If expulsion is recommended, the student is entitled to a hearing adjudicated by a neutral officer or entity (e.g. the Board or an Administrative Panel on behalf of the Board) to determine whether the student should be expelled. The HCCTS Board shall make the final decision to expel a student.

Suspended or expelled students shall be excluded from all school and school-related activities, including graduation, proms, etc., unless otherwise agreed during the period of suspension or expulsion.

A copy of the complete Suspension and Expulsion Policy is available upon request.

APPENDIX A: ANNUAL NOTIFICATIONS

Availability of Prospectus

Upon request, the HCCTS will make available to any student, a school prospectus, which shall include the curriculum, including titles, descriptions, and instructional aims of every course offered. Please note that, pursuant to law, HCCTS may charge for the prospectus in an amount not to exceed the cost of duplication.

Campus Search and Seizure

HCCTS recognizes and has determined that the occurrence of incidents which may include the possession of firearms, weapons, alcohol, controlled substances, or other items of contraband prohibited by law or HCCTS rules and regulations, jeopardizes the health, safety and welfare of students and HCCTS employees.

The California Constitution requires that all students and staff of public schools have the inalienable right to attend campuses which are safe, secure, and peaceful. As such, HCCTS has adopted a Policy outlining the reasonable search of students and their property, student use areas, and/or student lockers and the seizure of illegal, unsafe, unauthorized or contraband items and materials through a search based upon reasonable suspicion.

Student lockers are school property and remain at all times under the control of HCCTS. Students shall assume full responsibility for the security of their lockers. Student lockers may not be used to store illegal, unauthorized, or contraband materials. The acceptance and use of locker facilities on school campuses by any student shall constitute consent by the student to the search of such locker facilities by authorized school personnel and/or law enforcement. Inspections of lockers may be conducted by school personnel and/or law enforcement through the use of trained dogs.

A student's personal cell phone, smartphone, or other personal electronic device shall not be searched by school officials without a warrant, the student's consent, or a legitimate emergency, unless the device is lost or abandoned. An emergency is any situation involving danger of death or serious physical injury to any person, that requires access to the information located or reasonably believed to be located on the electronic device. If HCCTS has a good faith belief that the device is lost, stolen, or abandoned, HCCTS may only access electronic device information in order to attempt to identify, verify, or contact the owner of the device.

HCCTS is not prohibited from seizing/confiscating a student's personal electronic device, without searching its contents, if the student's use or possession of the private electronic device is in violation of HCCTS rules or regulations.

Dangers of Synthetic Drugs

The illicit use and abuse of synthetic drugs represents an emerging and ongoing public health threat in California. The fentanyl crisis specifically, has impacted communities across the state, leading to a sharp increase in fentanyl poisonings and deaths in recent years.

This notice aims to address the crisis with a preventative approach ensuring students and families are educated on the deadly consequences of recreational drug use.

A synthetic drug is a drug with properties and effects similar to a known hallucinogen or narcotic but having a slightly altered chemical structure, especially such a drug created in order to evade existing restrictions against illegal substances. Synthetic drugs include but are not limited to synthetic cannabinoids ("synthetic marijuana," "Spice," "K2"), methamphetamines, bath salts, and fentanyl.

The California Department of Public Health ("CDPH") has expounded on the extreme danger of drugs laced with fentanyl. Illicit fentanyl can be added to other drugs to make them cheaper, more powerful, and more addictive. Illicit fentanyl has been found in many drugs, including heroin, methamphetamine, counterfeit pills, and cocaine. Fentanyl mixed with any drug increases the likelihood of a fatal overdose. Furthermore, it is nearly impossible to tell if drugs have been laced with fentanyl without additional testing, because fentanyl cannot be seen, smelled, or tasted when used as a lacing agent.

Information Regarding Financial Aid

HCCTS shall ensure that each of its students receives information on how to properly complete and submit the 1) Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) or 2) the California Dream Act Application as appropriate, at least once before the student enters 12th grade. HCCTS will provide a paper copy of the FAFSA or the California Dream Act Application upon request.

The FAFSA form and information regarding the FAFSA are available at:
https://studentaid.gov/h/apply-for-aid/fafsa
The California Dream Act Application and information regarding the California Dream Act is available at:
https://www.csac.ca.gov/post/resources-california-dream-act-applica tion

Involuntary Removal Process

No student shall be involuntarily removed by HCCTS for any reason unless the student has been provided written notice of intent to remove the student no less than five (5) schooldays before the effective date of the action ("Involuntary Removal Notice"). The written notice shall be in the native language of the student. The Involuntary Removal Notice shall include the charges against the student and an explanation of the student's basic rights including the right to request a hearing before the effective date of the action. The hearing shall be consistent with HCCTS'expulsion procedures. If the student requests a hearing, the student shall remain enrolled and shall not be removed until HCCTS issues a final decision. As used herein, "involuntarily removed" includes disenrolled, dismissed, transferred, or terminated, but does not include suspensions or expulsions pursuant to HCCTS' suspension and expulsion policy.

Upon a student's request for a hearing, HCCTS will provide notice of hearing consistent with its expulsion hearing process, through which the student has a fair opportunity to present testimony, evidence, and witnesses and confront and cross-examine adverse witnesses, and at which the student has the right to bring legal counsel or an advocate. The notice of hearing shall be in the native language of the student, and shall include a copy of HCCTS' expulsion hearing process.

If the student is nonresponsive to the Involuntary Removal Notice, the student will be disenrolled as of the effective date set forth in the Involuntary Removal Notice. If the student requests a hearing and does not attend on the date scheduled for the hearing the student will be disenrolled effective the date of the hearing.

If, as a result of the hearing, the student is disenrolled, notice will be sent to the student's last known school district of residence within thirty (30) days.

A hearing decision not to disenroll the student does not prevent HCCTS from making a similar recommendation in the future should student truancy continue or reoccur.

Lost or Damaged School Property

If a student willfully damages HCCTS' property or the personal property of a HCCTS employee, or fails to return computer/tablet or other HCCTS property that has been loaned to the student, the student is liable for all damages caused by the student's misconduct not to exceed ten thousand dollars ($10,000), adjusted annually for inflation. After notifying the student in writing of the student's alleged misconduct and affording the student due process, HCCTS may withhold the student's grades, transcripts, and diploma until the damages have been paid.

Mental Health Services

HCCTS recognizes that when unidentified and unaddressed, mental health challenges can lead to poor academic performance, increased likelihood of suspension and expulsion, chronic absenteeism, student attrition, homelessness, incarceration, and/or violence. Access to mental health services at HCCTS and in our community is not only critical to improving the physical and emotional safety of students, but it also helps address barriers to learning and provides support so that all students can learn problem-solving skills and achieve in school and, ultimately, in life. The following resources are available to your child:

Available on Campus:

School-based counseling services – You are encouraged to directly contact a HCCTS counselor by coming into the counseling office during school hours and making an appointment to speak with a counselor. The counseling office can

Nondiscrimination Statement

HCCTS does not discriminate against any person on the basis of actual or perceived disability, gender, gender identity, gender expression, nationality, race or ethnicity, immigration status, religion, religious affiliation, sexual orientation, pregnancy, or any other characteristic that is contained in the definition of hate crimes in the California Penal Code.

HCCTS Board of Directors shall not refuse to approve the use or prohibit the use of any textbook, instructional material, supplemental instructional material, or other curriculum for classroom instruction or any book that includes a study of the role and contributions of Native Americans, African Americans, Latinx Americans, Asian Americans, Pacific Islanders, European Americans, LGBTQ+ Americans, persons with disabilities, or members of other ethnic, cultural, religious, or socioeconomic status groups.

HCCTS adheres to all provisions of federal law related to students with disabilities, including, but not limited to, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 ("ADA"), and the Individuals with Disabilities Education Improvement Act of 2004 ("IDEIA").

HCCTS does not discourage students from enrolling or seeking to enroll in HCCTS for any reason, including, but not limited to, academic performance, disability, neglect or delinquency, English proficiency, for being homeless, economic disadvantage, nationality, race, ethnicity, or sexual orientation. HCCTS shall not encourage a student currently attending HCCTS to disenroll or transfer to another school based on any of the aforementioned reasons except in cases of expulsion and suspension or involuntary removal in accordance with HCCTS' charter and relevant policies. HCCTS does not request nor require student records prior to a student's enrollment.

HCCTS is committed to providing an educational atmosphere that is free of unlawful harassment under Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (sex); Titles IV, VI, and VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 (race, color, or national origin); The Age Discrimination Act of 1975; the IDEIA; and Section 504 and Title II of the ADA (mental or physical disability).

HCCTS also prohibits sexual harassment, including cyber sexual bullying, and harassment based upon pregnancy, childbirth or related medical conditions, race, religion, religious affiliation, creed, color, immigration status, gender, gender identity, gender expression, national origin or ancestry, physical or mental disability, medical condition, marital status, age, sexual orientation, or any other basis protected by federal, state, local law, ordinance or regulation.

HCCTS does not condone or tolerate harassment of any type, including discrimination, intimidation, or bullying, including cyber sexual bullying, by any employee, independent contractor or other person with which HCCTS does business, or any other individual, student, or volunteer. This applies to all employees, students, or volunteers and relationships, regardless of position or gender.

Pursuant to California law and the California Attorney General's guidance to K-12 schools in responding to immigration issues ("Guidance"), HCCTS provides equal access to free public education, regardless of a student's immigration status or religious beliefs. The complete Guidance, including Appendix G – Know Your Rights can be reviewed via the following link:

https://oag.ca.gov/sites/all/files/agweb/pdfs/bcj/school-guidance-model-k12.pdf

HCCTS will promptly and thoroughly investigate any complaint of harassment and take appropriate corrective action, if warranted. Inquiries, complaints, or grievances regarding harassment as described in this section, above, should be directed to HCCTS Uniform Complaint Procedures ("UCP") Compliance Officer:

Stephen Ramazzini
Compliance Officer
stephen.ramazzini@hccts.org
1333 Grand Avenue, Sacramento, CA 95838

The lack of English language skills will not be a barrier to admission or participation in HCCTS' programs or activities. HCCTS prohibits retaliation against anyone who files a complaint or who participates or refuses to participate in a complaint investigation.

Pregnant and Parenting Students

HCCTS recognizes that pregnant and parenting students are entitled to accommodations that provide them with the opportunity to succeed academically while protecting their health and the health of their children. A pregnant or parenting student is entitled to eight (8) weeks of parental leave, or more if deemed medically necessary by the student's physician, which the student may take before the birth of the student's infant if there is a medical necessity and after childbirth during the school year in which the birth takes place, inclusive of any mandatory summer instruction, in order to protect the health of the student who gives or expects to give birth and the infant, and to allow the pregnant or parenting student to care for and bond with the infant. HCCTS will ensure that absences from the student's regular school program are excused until the student is able to return to the regular school program.

Upon return to school after taking parental leave, a pregnant or parenting student will be able to make up work missed during the pregnant or parenting student's leave, including, but not limited to, makeup work plans and reenrollment in courses. Notwithstanding any other law, a pregnant or parenting student may remain enrolled for a fifth year of instruction in HCCTS if it is necessary in order for the student to be able to complete any graduation requirements, unless HCCTS determines that the student is reasonably able to complete the graduation requirements in time to graduate from high school by the end of the student's fourth year of high school.

Complaints of noncompliance with laws relating to pregnant or parenting students may be filed under the Uniform Complaint Procedures ("UCP") of HCCTS. The complaint may be filed in writing with the compliance officer:

Stephen Ramazzini
Compliance Officer
stephen.ramazzini@hccts.org
1333 Grand Avenue, Sacramento, CA 95838

A copy of the UCP is available upon request at the main office. For further information on any part of the complaint procedures, including filing a complaint or requesting a copy of the complaint procedures, please contact the Executive Director.

Safe Storage of Firearms

The purpose of this notice is to inform and to remind students at HCCTS of their responsibilities for keeping firearms out of the hands of children as required by California law. There have been many news reports of students bringing firearms to school. In many instances, the student obtained the firearm(s) from their home. These incidents can be easily prevented by storing firearms in a safe and secure manner, including keeping them locked up when not in use and storing them separately from ammunition.

To help everyone understand their legal responsibilities, this notice spells out California law regarding the storage of firearms. Please take some time to review this notice and evaluate your own personal practices to assure that you and your family are in compliance with California law:

- With very limited exceptions, California makes a person criminally liable for keeping any firearm, loaded or unloaded, within any premises that are under their custody and control where that person knows or reasonably should know that a child is likely to gain access to the firearm without the permission of the child's parent or legal guardian, and the child obtains access to the firearm and thereby (1) causes death or injury to the child or any other person; (2) carries the firearm off the premises or to a public place, including to any preschool or school grades kindergarten through twelfth grade, or to any school-sponsored event, activity, or performance; or (3) unlawfully brandishes the firearm to others.

    - The criminal penalty may be significantly greater if someone dies or suffers great bodily injury as a result of the child gaining access to the firearm.
- With very limited exceptions, California also makes it a crime for a person to negligently store or leave any firearm, loaded or unloaded, on their premises in a location where the person knows or reasonably should know that a child is likely to gain access to it without the permission of the child's parent or legal guardian, unless reasonable action is taken to secure the firearm against access by the child, even where a minor never actually accesses the firearm.
- In addition to potential fines and terms of imprisonment, as of January 1, 2020, a gun owner found criminally liable under these California laws faces prohibitions from possessing, controlling, owning, receiving, or purchasing a firearm for 10 years.
- Finally, a parent or guardian may also be civilly liable for damages resulting from the discharge of a firearm by that person's child or ward.

The county or city may have additional restrictions regarding the safe storage of firearms. Thank you for helping to keep our schools safe. Remember that the easiest and safest way to comply with the law is to keep firearms in a locked container or secured with a locking device that renders the firearm inoperable.

Section 504

HCCTS recognizes its legal responsibility to ensure that no qualified person with a disability shall, on the basis of disability, be excluded from participation, be denied the benefits of, or otherwise subjected to discrimination under any program of HCCTS. Any student who has an objectively identified disability which substantially limits a major life activity, including, but not limited to learning, is eligible for accommodations by HCCTS. Any student suspected of needing or qualifying for accommodations under Section 504 may make a referral for an evaluation to the Director of Student Services. A copy of HCCTS' Section 504 policies and procedures is available upon request at the main office.

Student Records, including Records Challenges and Directory Information

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act ("FERPA") affords students who are 18 years of age or older ("eligible students") certain rights with respect to the student's education records. These rights are:

1. The right to inspect and review the student's education records within 5 business days after the day the HCCTS receives a request for access. Eligible students should submit to the HCCTS' Executive Director or designee a written request that identifies the records they wish to inspect. HCCTS' officials will make arrangements for access and notify the or eligible student of the time and place where the records may be inspected.

2. The right to request the amendment of the student's education records that the eligible student believes are inaccurate, misleading, or otherwise in violation of the student's privacy rights under FERPA.

Eligible students who wish to ask HCCTS to amend a record should write to the HCCTS' Executive Director or designee, clearly identify the part of the record they want changed and specify why it should be changed. If HCCTS decides not to amend the record as requested by an eligible student, HCCTS will notify the eligible student of the decision and of their right to a hearing regarding the request for amendment. Additional information regarding the hearing procedures will be provided to the or eligible student when notified of the right to a hearing. If HCCTS decides to amend the record as requested by the eligible student, the Executive Director must order the correction or the removal and destruction of the information and inform the eligible student of the amendment in writing.

3. The right to provide written consent before HCCTS discloses personally identifiable information ("PII") from the student's education records, except to the extent that FERPA authorizes disclosure without consent.

One exception, which permits disclosure without consent, is disclosure to HCCTS officials with legitimate educational interests. A HCCTS official is a person employed by HCCTS as an administrator, supervisor, instructor, or support staff member (including health or medical staff and law enforcement unit personnel) or a person serving on the HCCTS' Board of Directors. A HCCTS official also may include a volunteer, consultant, vendor, or contractor outside of HCCTS who performs an institutional service or function for which HCCTS would otherwise use its own employees and who is under the direct control of the school with respect to the use and maintenance of PII from education records, such as an attorney, auditor, medical consultant, therapist, or contracted provider of digital educational platforms and/or services; a student volunteering to serve on an official committee, such as a disciplinary or grievance committee; or a student or other volunteer assisting another HCCTS official in performing their tasks. A HCCTS official has a legitimate educational interest if the official needs to review an education record in order to fulfill their professional responsibility.

Upon request, HCCTS discloses education records without consent to officials of another school district in which a student seeks or intends to enroll, or is already enrolled, if the disclosure is for purposes of the student's enrollment or transfer.

Note that HCCTS will not release information to third parties for immigration-enforcement purposes, except as required by law or court order.

4. The right to file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Education concerning alleged failures by HCCTS to comply with the requirements of FERPA. The name and address of the Office that administers FERPA are:

Student Privacy Policy Office
U.S. Department of Education
400 Maryland Avenue, SW Washington, DC 20202

5. The right to request that HCCTS not release student names, addresses and telephone listings to military recruiters or institutions of higher education without prior written consent from the eligible student.

FERPA permits the disclosure of PII from a student's education records, without consent of the eligible student, if the disclosure meets certain conditions found in §99.31 of the FERPA regulations. Except for disclosures to HCCTS officials, disclosures related to some judicial orders or lawfully issued subpoenas, disclosures of directory information, and disclosures to eligible students, §99.32 of the FERPA regulations requires HCCTS to record the disclosure. Eligible students have a right to inspect and review the record of disclosures. HCCTS may disclose PII from the education records of a student without obtaining prior written consent of the eligible student to the following parties:

1. HCCTS officials who have a legitimate educational interest as defined by 34 C.F.R. Part 99;
2. Other schools to which a student seeks or intends to enroll so long as the disclosure is for purposes related to the student's enrollment or transfer. When a student transfers schools, HCCTS will mail the original or a copy of a student's cumulative file to the receiving district or private school within ten (10) school days following the date the request is received from the public school or private school where the student intends to enroll. HCCTS will make a reasonable attempt to notify the eligible student of the request for records at the eligible student's last known address, unless the disclosure is initiated by the eligible student. Additionally, HCCTS will give the eligible student, upon request, a copy of the record that was disclosed and give the eligible student, upon request, an opportunity for a hearing;
3. Certain government officials listed in 20 U.S.C. § 1232g(b)(1) in order to carry out lawful functions.
4. Appropriate parties in connection with a student's application for, or receipt of, financial aid if it is necessary to determine eligibility, amount of aid, conditions for aid or enforcing the terms and conditions of the aid;
5. Organizations conducting certain studies for HCCTS in accordance with 20 U.S.C. § 1232g(b)(1)(F);
6. Accrediting organizations in order to carry out their accrediting functions;
7. Parents of a dependent student as defined in section 152 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986;
8. Individuals or entities, in compliance with a judicial order or lawfully issued subpoena. Subject to the exceptions found in 34 C.F.R. § 99.31(a)(9)(i), reasonable effort must be made to notify the eligible student of the order or subpoena in advance of compliance, so that the eligible student may seek a protective order;
9. Persons who need to know in cases of health and safety emergencies;
10. State and local authorities, within a juvenile justice system, pursuant to specific State law;
11. A foster family agency with jurisdiction over a currently enrolled or former student, a short-term residential treatment program staff responsible for the education or case management of a student, and a caregiver (regardless of whether the caregiver has been appointed as the student's educational rights holder) who has direct responsibility for the care of the student, including a certified or licensed foster parent, an approved relative or nonrelated extended family member, or a resource family, may access the current or most recent records of grades, transcripts, attendance, discipline, and online communication on platforms established by HCCTS for students, and any individualized education program ("IEP") or Section 504 plan that may have been developed or maintained by the Charter School; and/or

12. A victim of an alleged perpetrator of a crime of violence or a non-forcible sex offense. The disclosure may only include the final results of the disciplinary proceedings conducted by HCCTS with respect to that alleged crime or offense. HCCTS discloses the final results of the disciplinary proceeding regardless of whether HCCTS concluded a violation was committed.

"Directory Information" is information that is generally not considered harmful or an invasion of privacy if released. HCCTS may disclose the personally identifiable information that it has designated as directory information without an eligible student's prior written consent. HCCTS has designated the following information as directory information:

1. Student's name
2. Student's address
3. Telephone listing
4. Student's electronic mail address
5. Photograph/video
6. Dates of attendance
7. Grade level
8. The most recent educational agency or institution attended
9. Student ID number, user ID, or other unique personal identifier used to communicate in electronic systems that cannot be used to access education records without a PIN, password, etc. (A student's social security number, in whole or in part, cannot be used for this purpose.)

If you do not want HCCTS to disclose directory information from your education records without your prior written consent, you must notify HCCTS in writing at the time of enrollment or re-enrollment.

Please notify the Executive Director at jonathan.raymond@hccts.org. A copy of the complete Policy is available upon request at the main office.

Please note that data collected and reported by HCCTS to the California Longitudinal Pupil Achievement Data System ("CALPADS"1) pursuant to state law, will be shared with the California College Guidance Initiative ("CCGI"2) and will:

1) Be used to provide pupils and families with direct access to online tools and resources.
2) Enable a pupil to transmit information shared with the CCGI to both of the following:
    a) Postsecondary educational institutions for purposes of admissions and academic placement.
    b) The Student Aid Commission for purposes of determining eligibility for, and increasing uptake of, student financial aid.

Please visit the CCGI website at CaliforniaColleges.edu to access resources that help students and their families learn about college admissions requirements.

1 CALPADS is a database maintained by the CDE which consists of pupil data from elementary and secondary schools relating to, among other things, demographic, program participation, enrollment, and statewide assessments data.

2 CCGI is an authorized provider of an institutional service to all California local educational agencies and part of the state's efforts to make college-going a more streamlined experience for students. The CCGI currently receives enrollment data for all public-school students enrolled in grades six through twelve from the California Department of Education ("CDE")

Uniform Complaint Procedure ("UCP")

HCCTS is the local agency primarily responsible for compliance with federal and state laws and regulations governing educational programs. HCCTS shall investigate and seek to resolve complaints using policies and procedures known as the Uniform Complaint Procedure ("UCP") adopted by our Governing Board for the following types of complaints:

1. Complaints alleging unlawful discrimination, harassment, intimidation, or bullying against any protected group on the basis of the actual or perceived characteristics of age, ancestry, color, mental disability, physical disability, ethnic group identification, immigration status, citizenship, gender expression, gender identity, gender, genetic information, nationality, national origin, race or ethnicity, religion, medical condition, marital status, sex, or sexual orientation, or on the basis of a person's association with a person or group with one or more of these actual or perceived characteristics in any HCCTS program or activity. Unlawful discrimination includes, but is not limited to, noncompliance with Education Code section 243(a).
2. Complaints alleging a violation of state or federal law or regulation governing the following programs:

    - Accommodations for Pregnant, Parenting or Lactating Students:
    - Adult Education;
    - Career Technical Education;
    - Career Technical Education Training;
    - Child Care and Development Programs;
    - Consolidated Categorical Aid;
    - Every Student Succeeds Act;
    - Migrant Education Programs;
    - Regional Occupational Centers and Programs;
    - School Safety Plans.

3. Complaints alleging noncompliance with laws relating to pupil fees. A student enrolled in a public school shall not be required to pay a pupil fee for participation in an educational activity. A pupil fee includes, but is not limited to, all of the following:
    - A fee charged to a pupil as a condition for registering for school or classes, or as a condition for participation in a class or an extracurricular activity, regardless of whether the class or activity is elective or compulsory or is for credit.

- A security deposit, or other payment, that a pupil is required to make to obtain a lock, locker, book, class apparatus, musical instrument, clothes, or other materials or equipment.
- A purchase that a student is required to make to obtain materials, supplies, equipment, or clothes associated with an educational activity.

Complaints of noncompliance with laws relating to student fees may be filed with the Executive Director or the Compliance Officer identified below.

4. Complaints alleging noncompliance with the requirements governing the Local Control Funding Formula ("LCFF") or Local Control and Accountability Plans ("LCAP") under Education Code sections 47606.5 and 47607.3, as applicable. If HCCTS adopts a School Plan for Student Achievement ("SPSA") in addition to its LCAP, complaints of noncompliance with the requirements of the SPSA under Education Code sections 64000, 64001, 65000, and 65001 shall also fall under the UCP.

Complaints other than complaints relating to pupil fees must be filed in writing with the following Compliance Officer:

Stephen Ramazzini
Compliance Officer
stephen.ramazzini@hccts.org
1333 Grand Avenue, Sacramento, CA 95838

Only complaints regarding pupil fees, LCAP, or noncompliance with Education Code section 243 or 244 may be filed anonymously and only if the anonymous complainant provides evidence or information leading to evidence to support an allegation of noncompliance with the respective applicable laws.

Complaints alleging unlawful discrimination, harassment, intimidation, or bullying, must be filed within six (6) months from the date the alleged discrimination, harassment, intimidation, or bullying, occurred or the date the complainant first obtained knowledge of the facts of the alleged discrimination, harassment, intimidation, or bullying. All other complaints under the UCP shall be filed not later than one (1) year from the date the alleged violation occurred. For complaints relating to the LCAP, the date of the alleged violation is the date on which HCCTS' Board of Directors approved the LCAP or the annual update was adopted by HCCTS.

The Compliance Officer responsible for investigating the complaint shall conduct and complete the investigation in accordance with California regulations and HCCTS UCP Policy. The Compliance Officer shall provide the complainant with a final written investigation report ("Decision") within sixty (60) calendar days from HCCTS' receipt of the complaint. This sixty (60) calendar day time period may be extended by written agreement of the complainant.

The complainant has a right to appeal HCCTS' Decision to the California Department of Education ("CDE") by filing a written appeal within thirty (30) calendar days of the date of HCCTS' written Decision, except if HCCTS has used its UCP to address a complaint that is not subject to the UCP requirements. The appeal must include a copy of the complaint filed with HCCTS, a copy of HCCTS' Decision, and the complainant must specify and explain the basis for the appeal of the Decision, including at least one of the following:

1. HCCTS failed to follow its complaint procedures.
2. Relative to the allegations of the complaint, HCCTS' Decision lacks material findings of fact necessary to reach a conclusion of law.
3. The material findings of fact in HCCTS' Decision are not supported by substantial evidence.
4. The legal conclusion in HCCTS' Decision is inconsistent with the law.
5. In a case in which HCCTS' Decision found noncompliance, the corrective actions fail to provide a proper remedy.

A complainant who appeals HCCTS' Decision on a UCP complaint to the CDE shall receive a written appeal decision within sixty (60) calendar days of the CDE's receipt of the appeal, unless extended by written agreement with the complainant or the CDE documents exceptional circumstances and informs the complainant.

Within thirty (30) calendar days of the date of the CDE's appeal Decision pursuant to 5 C.C.R. section 4633(f)(2) or (3), either party may request reconsideration by the State Superintendent of Public Instruction ("SSPI") or the SSPI's designee. The request for reconsideration shall specify and explain the reason(s) for contesting the findings of fact, conclusions of law, or corrective actions in the CDE's appeal Decision.

Complaints alleging noncompliance with Education Code section 243 or 244 may be filed with the SSPI directly, and the SSPI may directly intervene without waiting for an investigation by HCCTS. The complainant shall present the SSPI with evidence that supports the basis for the direct filing and why immediate action is necessary.

If a UCP complaint is filed directly with the CDE and the CDE determines that it merits direct intervention, the CDE shall complete an investigation and provide a written decision to the complainant within sixty (60) calendar days of receipt of the complaint, unless the parties have agreed to extend the timeline or the CDE documents exceptional circumstances and informs the complainant.

If HCCTS finds merit in a UCP complaint, or the CDE finds merit in an appeal, HCCTS shall take corrective actions consistent with the requirements of existing law that will provide a remedy to the affected student as applicable.

A complainant may pursue available civil law remedies outside of HCCTS' complaint procedures. Complainants may seek assistance from mediation centers or public/private interest attorneys. Civil law remedies that may be imposed by a court include, but are not limited to, injunctions and restraining orders. For unlawful discrimination, harassment, intimidation or bullying complaints arising under state law, however, a complainant must wait until sixty (60) calendar days have elapsed from the filing of an appeal with the CDE before pursuing civil law remedies. The moratorium does not apply to injunctive relief and is applicable only if HCCTS has appropriately, and in a timely manner, apprised the complainant of the complainant's right to file a complaint in accordance with 5 C.C.R. § 4622.

Workplace Readiness Week

The week of each year that includes April 28 shall be known as "Workplace Readiness Week." All public high schools, including charter schools, shall annually observe that week by providing information to students on their rights as workers.

APPENDIX B: COMPLETE POLICIES

Title IX Policy Prohibiting Discrimination On The Basis Of Sex

This Title IX Policy Prohibiting Discrimination on the Basis of Sex ("Policy") contains the policies and grievance procedures of Highlands Community Charter and Technical Schools ("HCCTS") to prevent and address sex discrimination, including but not limited to sexual harassment, sex-based hostile environment harassment, discrimination based on pregnancy or related conditions, sex-based discrimination in access to athletics or educational resources, and retaliation against a person who has reported sex discrimination.

HCCTS does not discriminate on the basis of sex and prohibits any acts of sex discrimination in any education program or activity that it operates, as required by California law, Title IX (20 U.S.C. § 1681 et seq.) and the Title IX regulations (34 C.F.R. Part 106), including in admission and employment.3 HCCTS will take actions to promptly and effectively end any sex discrimination in its education program or activity, prevent its recurrence, and remedy its effects.

This Policy applies to conduct occurring in HCCTS' education programs or activities on or after August 1, 2024 including but not limited to incidents occurring on the school campus, during school-sponsored events and activities regardless of the location, and through school owned technology, whether perpetrated by a student, employee, volunteer, independent contractor or other person with whom HCCTS does business.
Inquiries about the application of Title IX and 34 C.F.R. Part 106 (hereinafter collectively referred to as "Title IX") may be referred to the HCCTS Title IX Coordinator, the Office for Civil Rights of the U.S. Department of Education, or both.

3 HCCTS complies with all applicable state and federal laws and regulations and local ordinances in its investigation of and response to reports and complaints of misconduct prohibited by this Policy.

Definitions

Prohibited Sex Discrimination
Title IX and California law prohibit discrimination on the basis of sex, including sex-based harassment and differences in the treatment of similarly situated individuals on the basis of sex with regard to any aspect of services, benefits, or opportunities provided by HCCTS. Discrimination on the basis of sex includes discrimination on the basis of sex stereotypes, sex characteristics, pregnancy or related conditions, sexual orientation, and gender identity.

Prohibited Sex-Based Harassment
Under Title IX, "sex-based harassment" means conduct on the basis of sex that satisfies one or more of the following:

- Quid pro quo harassment occurs when an employee, agent, or other person authorized by HCCTS to provide an aid, benefit, or service under HCCTS' education program or activity explicitly or impliedly conditions the provision of such an aid, benefit, or service on a person's participation in unwelcome sexual conduct.

- Hostile environment harassment is unwelcome sex-based conduct that, based on the totality of the circumstances, is subjectively and objectively offensive and is so severe or pervasive that it limits or denies a person's ability to participate in or benefit from HCCTS' education program or activity (i.e., creates a hostile environment). Whether a hostile environment has been created is a fact-specific inquiry that includes consideration of the following:

    - The degree to which the conduct affected the complainant's ability to access HCCTS' education program or activity;
    - The type, frequency, and duration of the conduct;
    - The parties' ages, roles within HCCTS' education program or activity, previous interactions, and other factors about each party that may be relevant to evaluating the effects of the conduct;
    - The location of the conduct and the context in which the conduct occurred; and
    - Other sex-based harassment in HCCTS' education program or activity.

- Sexual assault, meaning an offense classified as a forcible or nonforcible sex offense under the uniform crime reporting system of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.
- Dating violence, meaning violence committed by a person:
- Who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the victim; and
- Where the existence of such a relationship shall be determined based on a consideration of the following factors:
    - The length of the relationship;
    - The type of relationship; and
    - The frequency of interaction between the persons involved in the relationship.
- Domestic violence, meaning felony or misdemeanor crimes committed by a person who:
    - Is a current or former spouse or intimate partner of the victim under applicable family or domestic violence laws, or a person similarly situated to a spouse of the victim;
    - Is cohabitating, or has cohabitated, with the victim as a spouse or intimate partner;
- Shares a child in common with the victim; or
- Commits acts against a youth or adult victim who is protected from those acts under applicable family or domestic violence laws.
- Stalking, meaning engaging in a course of conduct directed at a specific person that would cause a reasonable person to:
    - Fear for the person's safety or the safety of others; or
    - Suffer substantial emotional distress.

Under California Education Code section 212.5, sexual harassment consists of conduct on the basis of sex, including but not limited to unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors and other verbal or physical conduct on the basis of sex, regardless of whether or not the conduct is motivated by sexual desire, when: (a) submission to the conduct is explicitly or implicitly made a term or a condition of an individual's employment, education, academic status, or progress; (b) submission to, or rejection of, the conduct by the individual is used as the basis of employment, educational or academic decisions affecting the individual; (c) the conduct has the purpose or effect of having a negative impact upon the individual's work or academic performance, or of creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive work or educational environment; and/or (d) submission to, or rejection of, the conduct by the individual is used as the basis for any decision affecting the individual regarding benefits and services, honors, programs, or activities available at or through HCCTS.

Examples of conduct that may fall within the Title IX definition of sex-based harassment, the Education Code definition of sexual harassment, or both:

- Physical assaults of a sexual or sex-based nature, such as:
    - Rape, sexual battery, molestation or attempts to commit these assaults.
    - Intentional physical conduct that is sex-based or sexual in nature, such as touching, pinching, patting, grabbing, brushing against another's body, poking another's body, violence, intentionally blocking normal movement or interfering with work or school because of sex.
- Unwanted sexual advances or propositions, derogatory sex-based comments, or other sex-based conduct, such as:
    - Sexually oriented or sex-based gestures, notices, epithets, slurs,remarks, jokes, or comments about a person's sexuality or sexual experience.
    - Preferential treatment or promises of preferential treatment to an individual for submitting to sexual conduct, including soliciting or attempting to solicit any individual to engage in sexual activity for compensation or reward or deferential treatment for rejecting sexual conduct.
    - Subjecting or threats of subjecting a student or employee to unwelcome sexual attention or conduct or intentionally making the student's or employee's performance more difficult because of the student's or the employee's sex.
    - Retaliation against an individual who has articulated a good faith concern about sex-based harassment.
- Sexual or discriminatory displays or publications anywhere in the work or educational environment, such as:
    - Displaying pictures, cartoons, posters, calendars, graffiti, objections, promotional materials, reading materials, or other materials that are sexually suggestive, sexually demeaning or pornographic or bringing or possessing any such material to read, display or view in the work or educational environment.
    - Reading publicly or otherwise publicizing in the work or educational environment materials that are in any way sexually revealing, sexually suggestive, sexually demeaning or pornographic.

- Displaying signs or other materials purporting to segregate an individual by sex in an area of the work or educational environment (other than restrooms or similar rooms).

The illustrations above are not to be construed as an all-inclusive list of sex-based harassment acts prohibited under this Policy.

Complainant means a student or employee who is alleged to have been subjected to conduct that could constitute sex-based discrimination, or a person other than a student or employee who is alleged to have been subjected to conduct that could constitute sex discrimination and who was participating or attempting to participate in HCCTS' education program or activity at the time of the alleged sex discrimination. Complaints may also be made by: (1) Authorized legal representative with the legal right to act on behalf of a complainant; or (2) HCCTS' Title IX Coordinator. For complaints of sex discrimination other than sex-based harassment, complaints can also be made by any student, employee, or other person who was participating or attempting to participate in HCCTS' education program or activity at the time of the alleged sex discrimination.

Complaint means an oral or written request to HCCTS that objectively can be understood as a request for HCCTS to investigate and make a determination about alleged sex discrimination.

Confidential Employee means an employee of HCCTS whose communications are privileged or confidential under Federal or State law (e.g., a licensed therapist or psychologist, etc.) or an employee whom HCCTS has designated as confidential under Title IX for the purpose of providing services to persons related to sex discrimination.

Party means a complainant or respondent.

Respondent means a person who is alleged to have violated HCCTS's prohibition on sex discrimination.

Supportive Measures are individualized measures offered as appropriate, as reasonably available, without unreasonably burdening a complainant or respondent, not for punitive or disciplinary reasons, and without fee or charge to a party to (1) restore or preserve that party's access to HCCTS' education program or activity, including measures that are designed to protect the safety of the parties or HCCTS' educational environment; or (2) provide support during HCCTS' grievance procedures or during an informal resolution process.

Title IX Coordinator

The Board of Directors of HCCTS ("Board") has designated the following employee as the Title IX Coordinator ("Coordinator"):

Christina Martinez, Director of CTE, Workforce & Adult Ed.
1333 Grand Avenue, Sacramento, CA 95838
christina.martinez@hccts.org
Phone: 916-844-2283

In the event the above-named individual becomes unavailable or unable to serve as the Coordinator, the Board has designated the following employee to serve as a temporary or interim Coordinator until a new Coordinator is designated:

Shaina Miranda, Executive Assistant
1333 Grand Avenue, Sacramento, CA 95838
shaina.miranda@hccts.org
916-844-2283

The Coordinator is responsible for coordinating HCCTS' efforts to comply with the requirements of Title IX, receiving reports and complaints of sex discrimination and inquiries about the application of Title IX, addressing reports and complaints of sex discrimination and taking other actions as required by this Policy, monitoring for barriers to reporting conduct that reasonably may constitute sex discrimination, and taking steps reasonably calculated to address such barriers.

The Coordinator may serve as an investigator and/or decision maker for complaints, except in cases where doing so would constitute a conflict of interest. The Coordinator may delegate one or more of their duties to one or more designees who have received the required Title IX training and do not have a conflict of interest or bias for or against complainants or respondents generally or an individual complainant or respondent. However, the Coordinator must at all times retain ultimate oversight over those responsibilities and ensure HCCTS' consistent compliance with Title IX.

Reporting Sex Discrimination
All employees who are not a confidential employee must promptly notify the Coordinator when the employee has information about conduct that reasonably may constitute sex discrimination under Title IX. This requirement does not apply to an employee when the employee is the person who was subjected to the conduct that reasonably may constitute sex discrimination.

Students are expected to report all incidents of misconduct prohibited by this Policy. Any student who feels they are a target of such behavior should immediately contact a teacher, counselor, the Principal, Coordinator, a staff person or a family member so that the student can get assistance in resolving the issue in a manner that is consistent with this Policy.

Complaints regarding such misconduct may also be made to the U.S. Department of Education, Office for Civil Rights. Civil law remedies, including, but not limited to, injunctions, restraining orders, or other remedies or orders may also be available to complainants.

While submission of a written report is not required, the reporting party is encouraged to submit a written report to the Coordinator. HCCTS will promptly and effectively investigate and respond to all oral and written complaints and reports of misconduct prohibited by this Policy. Reports may be made anonymously, but formal disciplinary action cannot be based solely on an anonymous report.

Privacy
HCCTS acknowledges and respects every individual's right to privacy. All reports and complaints shall be investigated in a manner that protects the confidentiality of the parties and the integrity of the process to the greatest extent possible. This includes but is not limited to keeping the identity of the reporter and other personally identifiable information confidential, as appropriate, except to the extent necessary to comply with the law, carry out the investigation and/or to resolve the issue, as determined by the Coordinator or designee on a case-by-case basis.

Retaliation
HCCTS prohibits any form of retaliation against any individual who files a report or complaint, testifies, assists, participates, or refuses to participate in any investigation or proceeding related to misconduct prohibited by this Policy.

Such participation or lack of participation shall not in any way affect the status, grades, or work assignments of the individual. Individuals alleging retaliation in violation of this Policy may file a complaint in accordance with the grievance procedures set forth in this Policy.

Nothing in this Policy precludes HCCTS from requiring an employee or other person authorized by HCCTS to provide aid, benefit, or service under HCCTS' education program or activity to participate as a witness in, or otherwise assist with, an investigation or proceeding under this Policy.

Confidential Employees

Contact information for the confidential employees at HCCTS, if any, can be found on the HCCTS website or obtained from the Coordinator.

A confidential employee's status as confidential, for Title IX purposes, is only with respect to information received while the employee is functioning within the scope of their duties to which privilege or confidentiality applies or with respect to Information received about sex discrimination in connection with providing services to persons related to sex discrimination.

A confidential employee must explain the following to any person who informs them of conduct that reasonably may constitute sex discrimination under Title IX:

- The employee's status as confidential for purposes of Title IX, including the circumstances in which the employee is not required to notify the Coordinator about conduct that reasonably may constitute sex discrimination;
- How to contact the Coordinator and how to make a complaint of sex discrimination; and
- That the Coordinator may be able to offer and coordinate supportive measures, as well as initiate an informal resolution process or an investigation under the grievance procedures.

Coordinator's Response to Reports of Sex Discrimination

When notified of conduct that reasonably may constitute sex discrimination, the Coordinator or designee must:

- Treat complainants and respondents equitably;
- Promptly offer and coordinate supportive measures, as appropriate, for the complainant;
- If grievance procedures are initiated or an informal resolution process is offered; offer and coordinate supportive measures, as appropriate, for the respondent; and
- Notify the complainant or, if the complainant is unknown, the reporting individual, of the grievance procedures and informal resolution process, if available and appropriate. If a complaint is made, the Coordinator will notify the respondent of the same.

In response to a complaint, the Coordinator will initiate the grievance procedures, or the informal resolution process if available, appropriate, and requested by all parties. In the absence of a complaint or the withdrawal of any or all of the allegations in a complaint, and in the absence or termination of an informal resolution process, the Coordinator must determine whether to initiate a complaint by considering, at a minimum:

- Complainant's request not to proceed with a complaint and the complainant's reasonable safety concerns;
- Risk that additional acts of sex-based discrimination would occur if a complaint is not initiated;
- Severity of the alleged conduct, including whether the discrimination, if established, would require removal or discipline of a respondent to end the discrimination and prevent its recurrence;
- The age and relationship of the parties, including whether the respondent is an employee;
- The scope of the alleged conduct including but not limited to whether there is a pattern, ongoing conduct, or impact to multiple individuals;
- The availability of evidence and the complainant's willingness to participate in the grievance procedures; and
- Whether HCCTS could end the alleged sex discrimination and prevent its recurrence without initiating its grievance procedures.

The Coordinator may initiate a complaint if the conduct as alleged presents an imminent and serious threat to the health or safety of the complainant or other person, or prevents HCCTS from ensuring equal access on the basis of sex to its education program or activity. The Coordinator or designee must notify the complainant before initiating a complaint and appropriately address reasonable safety concerns, including by providing supportive measures.

The Coordinator will take other appropriate prompt and effective steps to ensure that sex discrimination does not continue or recur within HCCTS's education program or activity.

Supportive Measures

Once notified of conduct that reasonably may constitute sex discrimination under Title IX, the Coordinator or designee will promptly contact the complainant to offer and coordinate supportive measures, as appropriate, for the complainant. If the grievance procedures are initiated or informal resolution is offered, the Coordinator or designee will offer and coordinate supportive measures, as appropriate, for the respondent.

Supportive measures may include but are not limited to: counseling; extensions of deadlines and other course-related adjustments; campus escort services; increased security and monitoring of certain areas of the campus; restrictions on contact applied to one or more parties; leaves of absence; changes in class, work, housing, or extracurricular or any other activity, regardless of whether there is or is not a comparable alternative; and training and education programs related to sex-based harassment.

Supportive measures must not unreasonably burden either party or be imposed for punitive or disciplinary reasons. Supportive measures will be designed to protect the safety of the parties or HCCTS' educational environment, or to provide support during the grievance procedures or the informal resolution process.

Parties may contact the Coordinator to discuss modification of any supportive measures. Parties also have the opportunity to seek modification or termination of a supportive measure applicable to them if circumstances change materially.

If the party is not satisfied with the Coordinator's decision on the request to modify supportive measures, the party may contact Jonathan Raymond who is impartial employee or who may designate such an employee, to seek modification or reversal of HCCTS' decision to provide, deny, modify, or terminate supportive measures applicable to them. The impartial employee is someone other than the Coordinator who made the challenged decision and has the authority to modify or reverse the decision.

If a party is a student with a disability, the Coordinator must consult with one or more members of the student's 504 Plan Team, if any, in the implementation of supportive measures for that student.

Informal Resolution
At any time prior to determining whether sex discrimination occurred under HCCTS' Title IX grievance procedures, HCCTS may offer an informal resolution process to the parties. HCCTS does not offer or facilitate informal resolution to resolve a complaint that includes allegations that an employee engaged in sex based harassment of a student, or when such a process would conflict with Federal, State, or local law.

Before initiation of the informal resolution process, the parties will be provided with notice that explains:

- The allegations;
- The requirements of the informal resolution process;
- The right to withdraw and initiate or resume the grievance procedures;
- That the parties' agreement to a resolution at the conclusion of the informal resolution process precludes the parties' use of the grievance procedures arising from the same allegations;
- The potential terms that may be requested or offered in an informal
- resolution agreement (e.g., restrictions on contact and participation in activities or events) including notice that an informal resolution agreement is binding only on the parties; and
- What information is retained and whether and how it may be disclosed by HCCTS for use in grievance procedures if the grievance procedures are initiated or resumed.

Parties will not be required or pressured to agree to participate in the informal resolution process. HCCTS will obtain the parties' voluntary consent to participate in the informal resolution process. Parties may end the informal resolution process and proceed with the grievance procedures at any time.

The facilitator of the informal resolution process will not be the same person as the investigator or the decision maker in the grievance procedures. The facilitator cannot have a conflict of interest or bias for or against complainants or respondents generally or an individual complainant or respondent. The Coordinator will take appropriate prompt and effective steps to ensure sex discrimination does not continue or recur.

Grievance Procedures

Scope and General Requirements

HCCTS has adopted these grievance procedures to provide for the prompt and equitable resolution of complaints made by students, employees, or other individuals who are participating or attempting to participate in HCCTS' education program or activity, or by the Title IX Coordinator, alleging any action that would be prohibited by Title IX. Upon receipt of a complaint, the Coordinator or designee will promptly initiate these grievance procedures, or the informal resolution process if available, appropriate, and requested by all parties.

HCCTS requires that any Title IX Coordinator, investigator, or decisionmaker not have a conflict of interest or bias for or against complainants or respondents generally or an individual complainant or respondent. A decisionmaker may be the same person as the Coordinator or investigator.

HCCTS will treat complainants and respondents equitably. HCCTS presumes that the respondent is not responsible for the alleged sex discrimination until a determination is made at the conclusion of its grievance procedures.

HCCTS may consolidate complaints of sex discrimination against more than one respondent, or by more than one complainant against one or more respondents, or by one party against another party, when the allegations of sex discrimination arise out of the same facts or circumstances.

HCCTS allows for the reasonable extension of timeframes on a case-by-case basis for good cause with notice to the parties that includes the reason for the delay. Requests for extensions must be submitted to the Coordinator in writing at least one (1) business day before the expiration of the timeframe. If a timeframe is extended, the Coordinator or designee will notify the parties of the new timeframe and the reason for the delay.

HCCTS will take reasonable steps to protect the privacy of the parties and witnesses during its grievance procedures. These steps will not restrict the ability of the parties to obtain and present evidence, including by speaking to witnesses; consult with their family members, confidential resources, or advisors; or otherwise prepare for or participate in the grievance procedures. The parties shall not engage in retaliation, including against witnesses.

HCCTS will objectively evaluate all evidence that is relevant and not otherwise impermissible – including both inculpatory and exculpatory evidence.4 Credibility determinations will not be based on a person's status as a complainant, respondent, or witness.

If a party is a student with a disability, the Coordinator or designee must consult with one or more members, as appropriate, of the student's IEP Team and 504 Team, if any, to determine how to comply with the requirements of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act ("IDEA") and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 ("Section 504") throughout the grievance procedures.

Dismissal

In most cases, HCCTS will determine whether a complaint is dismissed within fifteen (15) business days of receipt of the complaint.

4 Inculpatory means tending to impute guilt or fault, and exculpatory means tending to absolve from guilt or fault.

HCCTS may dismiss a complaint if:

- HCCTS is unable to identify the respondent after taking reasonable steps to do so;
- The respondent is not participating in HCCTS' education program or activity and is not employed by HCCTS;
- The complainant voluntarily withdraws any or all of the allegations in the complaint, the Coordinator declines to initiate a complaint, and HCCTS determines that, without the complainant's withdrawn allegations, the conduct that remains alleged in the complaint, if any, would not constitute sex discrimination under Title IX even if proven; or
- HCCTS determines the conduct alleged in the complaint, even if proven, would not constitute sex discrimination under Title IX. Prior to dismissing the complaint on this ground, HCCTS will make reasonable efforts to clarify the allegations with the complainant.

Upon dismissal, the Coordinator or designee must promptly notify the complainant in writing of the basis for the dismissal and the complainant's right to appeal the dismissal on the following grounds within five (5) business days of the dismissal notice:

- Procedural irregularity that would change the outcome;
- New evidence that would change the outcome and that was not reasonably available when the determination whether sex-based harassment occurred or dismissal was made; and
- The Coordinator, investigator, or decision maker had a conflict of interest or bias for or against complainants or respondents generally or the individual complainant or respondent that would change the outcome.

If the dismissal occurs after the respondent has been notified of the allegations, then the Coordinator or designee must also simultaneously notify the respondent in writing of the dismissal, the basis for the dismissal, and the respondent's right to appeal the dismissal on the above grounds within five (5) business days of the dismissal notice.

If the complaint is dismissed, the Coordinator or designee will offer supportive measures to the complainant, as appropriate. The Coordinator or designee will also offer supportive measures to the respondent, as appropriate, if the respondent has been notified of the allegations. The Coordinator will continue to take appropriate prompt and effective steps to ensure that sex discrimination does not continue or recur. Dismissal does not preclude action under another applicable HCCTS policy.

Appeal of a Dismissal
If a dismissal is timely appealed in accordance with this Policy, the Coordinator or designee will promptly notify the parties in writing of the appeal, including notice of the allegations if such notice was not previously provided to the respondent, the contact information for the decision maker for the appeal, and the parties' right to submit a statement to the decision maker of the appeal in support of, or challenging, the outcome within five (5) business days of the appeal notice.

The decision maker for the appeal will be someone who has received the required Title IX training and did not take part in an investigation of the allegations or dismissal of the complaint. The appeal procedures will be implemented equally for the parties. Within fifteen (15) business days of the appeal notice to the parties, the decision maker will notify the parties in writing of the result of the appeal and the rationale for the result.

Notice of the Allegations
Upon initiation of the grievance procedures, the Coordinator or designee will provide notice of the allegations to the parties whose identities are known. The notice will include:

- HCCTS' grievance procedures and any informal resolution process;
- Sufficient information available at the time to allow the parties to respond to the allegations. Sufficient information includes the identities of the parties involved in the incident(s), the conduct alleged to constitute sex discrimination under Title IX, and the date(s) and location(s) of the alleged incident(s), to the extent that information is available to HCCTS;
- A statement that retaliation is prohibited; and
- A statement that the parties are entitled to an equal opportunity to access the relevant and not otherwise impermissible evidence or an accurate description of this evidence; and if HCCTS provides a description of the evidence, the parties are entitled to an equal opportunity to access to the relevant and not otherwise impermissible evidence upon the request of any party.

Emergency Removal

HCCTS may place a non-student employee respondent on administrative leave during the pendency of the grievance procedures in accordance with HCCTS' policies.

HCCTS may remove a respondent from HCCTS' education program or activity on an emergency basis, in accordance with HCCTS' policies, provided that HCCTS undertakes an individualized safety and risk analysis, determines that an imminent and serious threat to the health or safety of any person arising from the allegations of sex discrimination justifies removal, and provides the respondent with notice and an opportunity to challenge the decision immediately following the removal.

This provision must not be construed to modify any rights under the IDEA, Section 504, or the ADA.

Investigation

Investigations of complaints will be adequate, reliable, and impartial. In most cases, a thorough investigation will take no more than twenty-five (25) business days. HCCTS has the burden to conduct an investigation that gathers sufficient evidence to determine whether sex discrimination occurred. The investigator will review all evidence gathered through the investigation and determine what evidence is relevant and what evidence is impermissible regardless of relevance in accordance with Title IX.

The following types of evidence, and questions seeking that evidence, are impermissible (i.e., will not be used, accessed or considered, except by HCCTS to determine whether one of the exceptions listed below applies, and will not be disclosed), regardless of whether they are relevant:

- Evidence that is protected under a privilege recognized by Federal or State law or evidence provided to a confidential employee, unless the person to whom the privilege or confidentiality is owed has voluntarily waived the privilege or confidentiality;
- A party's or witness's records that are made or maintained by a physician, psychologist, or other recognized professional or paraprofessional in connection with the provision of treatment to the party or witness, unless HCCTS obtains that party's or witness's voluntary, written consent for use in the grievance procedures; and
- Evidence that relates to the complainant's sexual interests or prior sexual conduct, unless evidence about the complainant's prior sexual conduct is offered to prove that someone other than the respondent committed the alleged conduct or is evidence about specific incidents of the complainant's prior sexual conduct with the respondent that is offered to prove consent to the alleged sex-based harassment. The fact of prior consensual sexual conduct between the complainant and respondent does not by itself demonstrate or imply the complainant's consent to the alleged sex-based harassment or preclude determination that sex-based harassment occurred.

The parties will have an equal opportunity to present fact witnesses and other inculpatory and exculpatory evidence that is relevant and not otherwise impermissible and to access such evidence. The parties may submit a written response to the investigator within five (5) business days of being provided with access to the evidence or an accurate description of it. The parties' timely submitted written responses, if any, will be considered by the investigator and decision maker before a determination of responsibility is made.

HCCTS will take reasonable steps to prevent and address any unauthorized disclosure of information or evidence by the parties.

Determination of Responsibility
Before making a determination of responsibility, the decisionmaker may interview parties and witnesses to adequately assess a party's or witness' credibility to the extent credibility is in dispute and relevant to evaluating one or more allegations of sex discrimination.

Determinations will be based on an objective evaluation of all relevant and not otherwise impermissible evidence and credibility determinations will not be based on a person's status as a complainant, respondent, or witness. The standard of evidence used to determine responsibility is the preponderance of the evidence standard.

Within fifteen (15) business days of the expiration of the timeframe for the parties to submit a written response to the evidence or an accurate description of it, the decisionmaker will notify the parties in writing of the determination whether sex discrimination occurred including the rationale for such determination, and the procedures and permissible bases for the complainant and respondent to appeal.

Appeal of the Determination of Responsibility

Should a party find HCCTS' determination unsatisfactory, the party may, within five (5) business days of notice of HCCTS' determination, submit a written appeal to the Executive Director, who will serve as the decision-maker for the appeal or designate a decisionmaker for the appeal. The decision-maker for the appeal must not have taken part in the investigation of the allegations.

The decision-maker for the appeal will: 1) notify the other party of the appeal in writing; 2) implement appeal procedures equally for the parties; 3) allow the parties to submit a written statement in support of, or challenging, the outcome within five (5) business days of the appeal or notice of the appeal; and 4) within fifteen (15) business days of the appeal, issue a written decision to the parties describing the result of the appeal and the rationale for the result.

Consequences
Students or employees who engage in misconduct prohibited by this Policy may be subject to disciplinary action up to and including expulsion from HCCTS or termination of employment. If there is a determination that sex discrimination occurred, the Coordinator or designee will coordinate the provision and implementation of any remedies and/or disciplinary sanctions ordered by HCCTS including notification to the complainant of any such disciplinary sanctions. The Coordinator will take appropriate prompt and effective steps to ensure that sex discrimination does not continue or recur within HCCTS's education program or activity.

No party, witness, or other person participating in HCCTS' grievance procedures will be disciplined for making a false statement or for engaging in consensual sexual conduct based solely on HCCTS's determination whether sex discrimination occurred.

Recordkeeping
HCCTS will maintain the following records for at least seven (7) years:

- For each complaint of sex discrimination, records documenting the informal resolution process or the grievance procedures, and the resulting outcome.
- For each notification the Coordinator receives of information about conduct that reasonably may constitute sex discrimination, records documenting the actions HCCTS took to meet its obligations under 34 C.F.R. § 106.44.

- All materials used to provide required Title IX training. HCCTS will make these training materials available upon request for inspection by members of the public.

The above records will be maintained in a secure location until destroyed in accordance with applicable laws and regulations.

Professional Boundaries: Staff/Student Interaction Policy
HCCTS recognizes its responsibility to make and enforce all rules and regulations governing student and employee behavior to bring about the safest and most learning-conducive environment possible.

Corporal Punishment
Corporal punishment shall not be used as a disciplinary measure against any student. Corporal punishment includes the willful infliction of, or willfully causing the infliction of, physical pain on a student.

For purposes of this policy, corporal punishment does not include an employee's use of force that is reasonable and necessary to protect the employee, students, staff or other persons or to prevent damage to property.

For clarification purposes, the following examples are offered for direction and guidance of School personnel:

A. Examples of PERMITTED actions (NOT corporal punishment)

1. Stopping a student from fighting with another student;
2. Preventing a pupil from committing an act of vandalism;
3. Defending yourself from physical injury or assault by a student;
4. Forcing a pupil to give up a weapon or dangerous object;
5. Requiring an athletic team to participate in strenuous physical training activities designed to strengthen or condition team members or improve their coordination, agility, or physical skills;
6. Engaging in group calisthenics, team drills, or other physical education or voluntary recreational activities.

B. Examples of PROHIBITED actions (corporal punishment)

1. Hitting, shoving, pushing, or physically restraining a student as a means of control;
2. Making unruly students do push-ups, run laps, or perform other physical acts that cause pain or discomfort as a form of punishment;
3. Paddling, swatting, slapping, grabbing, pinching, kicking, or otherwise causing physical pain.

Acceptable and Unacceptable Staff/Student Behavior

This policy is intended to guide all School faculty and staff in conducting themselves in a way that reflects the high standards of behavior and professionalism required of school employees and to specify the boundaries between students and staff.

Although this policy gives specific, clear direction, it is each staff member's obligation to avoid situations that could prompt suspicion by students, colleagues, or school leaders. One viable standard that can be quickly applied, when you are unsure if certain conduct is acceptable, is to ask yourself, "Would I be engaged in this conduct if my family or colleagues were standing next to me?"

For the purposes of this policy, the term "boundaries" is defined as acceptable professional behavior by staff members while interacting with a student. Trespassing the boundaries of a student/teacher relationship is deemed an abuse of power and a betrayal of public trust.

Some activities may seem innocent from a staff member's perspective, but can be perceived as flirtation or sexual insinuation from a student point of view. The objective of the following lists of acceptable and unacceptable behaviors is not to restrain innocent, positive relationships between staff and students, but to prevent relationships that could lead to, or may be perceived as, sexual misconduct.

Staff must understand their own responsibility for ensuring that they do not cross the boundaries as written in this policy. Disagreeing with the wording or intent of the established boundaries will be considered irrelevant for disciplinary purposes. Thus, it is crucial that all employees learn this policy thoroughly and apply the lists of acceptable and unacceptable behaviors to their daily activities. Although sincere, competent interaction with students certainly fosters learning, student/staff interactions must have boundaries surrounding potential activities, locations and intentions.

Duty to Report Suspected Misconduct
When any employee reasonably suspects or believes that another staff member may have crossed the boundaries specified in this policy, they must immediately report the matter to a school administrator. All reports shall be as confidential as possible under the circumstances. It is the duty of the administrator to investigate and thoroughly report the situation. Employees must also report to the administration any awareness or concern of student behavior that crosses boundaries or where a student appears to be at risk for sexual abuse.

Examples of Specific Behaviors
The following examples are not an exhaustive list:

Unacceptable Staff/Student Behaviors (Violations of this Policy)

a) Giving gifts to an individual student that are of a personal and intimate nature.
b) Kissing of any kind.
c) Any type of unnecessary physical contact with a student in a private situation.
d) Intentionally being alone with a student away from the school.
e) Making or participating in sexually inappropriate comments.
f) Sexual jokes.
g) Seeking emotional involvement with a student for your benefit.
h) Listening to or telling stories that are sexually oriented.
i) Discussing inappropriate personal troubles or intimate issues with a student in an attempt to gain their support and understanding.
j) Becoming involved with a student so that a reasonable person may suspect inappropriate behavior.

Unacceptable Staff/Student Behaviors without Supervisor Permission
(These behaviors should only be exercised when a staff member has supervisor permission.)

a) Giving students a ride to/from school or school activities.
b) Being alone in a room with a student at school with the door closed.
c) Allowing students in your home.

Cautionary Staff/Student Behaviors

(These behaviors should only be exercised when a reasonable and prudent person, acting as an educator, is prevented from using better practice or behavior. Staff members should inform their supervisor of the circumstance and occurrence prior to or immediately after the occurrence).

a) Remarks about the physical attributes or development of anyone.
b) Excessive attention toward a particular student.
c) Sending emails, text messages or letters to students if the content is not about school activities.

Acceptable and Recommended Staff/Student Behaviors

a) Emails, text, phone and instant messages to students must be very professional and pertaining to school activities or classes (Communication should be limited to school technology).
b) Keeping the door open when alone with a student.
c) Keeping reasonable space between you and your students.
d) Stopping and correcting students if they cross your own personal boundaries.
e) Asking for advice from fellow staff or administrators if you find yourself in a difficult situation related to boundaries.
f) Involving your supervisor if conflict arises with the student.
g) Informing the Principal about situations that have the potential to become more severe.
h) Making detailed notes about an incident that could evolve into a more serious situation later.
i) Recognizing the responsibility to stop unacceptable behavior of students or coworkers.
j) Asking another staff member to be present if you will be alone with any type of special needs student.
k) Asking another staff member to be present when you must be alone with a student after regular school hours.
l) Giving students praise and recognition without touching them.
m) Pats on the back, high fives and handshakes are acceptable.
n) Keeping your professional conduct a high priority.

o) Asking yourself if your actions are worth your job and career.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT AND RECEIPT

I have received my copy of the Highlands Community Charter and Technical Schools Student Handbook. I understand that it is my responsibility to read, familiarize myself with, and comply with the policies and procedures in the Student Handbook. I understand that I am expected and encouraged to seek clarification from my counselor or school administration if I have questions regarding anything contained within this handbook.

By signing below, I agree to follow the policies and procedures in the handbook while I am enrolled with Highlands Community Charter and Technical Schools. Failure to sign this form does not preclude students from responsibility or discipline.

I HAVE READ AND UNDERSTAND THE ABOVE STATEMENT AND AGREE TO READ THE STUDENT HANDBOOK.

Re: Request for Summary Review of Highlands Community Charter School Audit Finding

Dear Ms. Kelly:

Pursuant to Education Code section 41344.1(d)(2),[1] Highlands Community Charter and Technical Schools ("HCCTS" or the "School"), a nonprofit public benefit corporation operating Highlands Community Charter School ("HCCS") and California Innovative Career Academy ("CICA") that are authorized by the Twin Rivers Unified School District ("District" or "Authorizing Agency"), submits this request for summary review of the California Department of Education's (the "CDE's" or the "Department's") letter dated June 30, 2025, stating a determination of withholding for past apportionment ("Determination," attached hereto as Exhibit A.) The Determination seems to implicitly adopt or incorporate findings ("Audit Findings") contained in State Audit Report 2024-106 (the "State Audit Report" or "Report" attached hereto as Exhibit B).

HISTORY OF STATE AUDIT REPORT

The State Audit Report, initiated at the direction of the Joint Legislative Audit Committee, directed the State Auditor ("Auditor") to investigate HCCTS's unique education programs for underserved adult students, including English Learners, immigrants, and students who fell through the cracks during their elementary and high school years in district public schools. (See Exhibit C.) The Report goes beyond recommending consequences for allegations of unintentional compliance exceptions. It moves the goalposts for compliance beyond the affirmative obligations and express requirements of law, threatening HCCTS's survival as well as putting undue political pressure on the District, Sacramento County Office of Education ("SCOE") and the CDE. Now, CDE's Determination proposes a massive apportionment adjustment that would prevent HCCS and CICA's ability to operate in the future—denying its student population access to educational opportunities that are offered by no other adult education program in the region. This outcome does not only harm the students or the school – even the whistleblowers who filed complaints against the school and started this process sought reform and repeatedly emphasized they did not want to see the school close its doors.

[1] All statutory references herein are to the California Education Code unless otherwise stated.

In fact, the State Audit Report itself stated that "We do not recommend that Highlands be fined…" (Exh. B, p. 143.)

STATE AUDITOR FAILED TO CONSIDER EXCULPATORY EVIDENCE

HCCTS specifically asserts that the findings contained in the State Audit Report are not supported by substantial evidence and are based on mistakes of law and fact. The State Auditor downloaded the School's entire PowerSchool database of student information and had access to extensive exculpatory evidence relating to its key Audit Findings during its investigation, including board policies, attendance records, efforts to re-engage students who were not present, and records of attendance-based disenrollments of students, yet still claimed HCCTS could not produce evidence to show an attendance requirement. (See Exh. D & E.)

In order to enforce its attendance requirement, HCCTS trained employees in the attendance requirement, told students the attendance expectations during enrollment, included its Board policy pertaining to attendance requirements in the student handbook, called and texted students who did not show up, sent push notifications to student's electronic devices threatening to turn off access to devices issued by the School if the students did not return to class, provided counseling and other student services to get students back to class (bus passes, clothing closets, etc.) and then notified students that they would be disenrolled for continued non-attendance. Yet despite all of this, the State Auditor was not convinced that they required students to be present 80 percent or more of the instructional minutes. If all of this effort was not enough to demonstrate that in practice they enforced the attendance requirement, then virtually every public school in the State would lose all their apportionment funding. Most schools do far less than this to enforce compulsory attendance, and Highlands students are not even subject to compulsory attendance as adults.

The Auditor based its zero-ADA recommendation for these school years on the conclusion that attendance was not in practice required by HCCS, even though HCCTS's records demonstrate that attendance was required by Board policy, mandatory, and enforced. (See, e.g., Exh. D through O.) HCCTS therefore complied with the requirements of the law. HCCTS requests that EAAP reduce the penalty based on the fact that the School can demonstrate that it met the requirements to claim average daily attendance ("ADA").

SUBSTANTIAL COMPLIANCE ACHIEVED

In the alternative, even if EAAP agreed with the State Auditor's unreasonable and legally unsubstantiated standard, EAAP's authorizing statutes specify that if HCCTS has satisfied the conditions of substantial compliance set forth in section 41344.1, subdivision (d)(3), EAAP should accordingly waive or reduce the $178,965,128 penalty associated with Finding 2024-106, on the condition of written approval from the Department of Finance and the Superintendent of Public Instruction. HCCTS therefore requests that the Educational Audit Appeals Panel ("EAAP") waive the adjustment to HCCTS's prior apportionment funding based on a showing of substantial compliance and no further need for remedial action.

GROUNDS FOR SUBMITTAL FOR ADMINISTRATIVE REVIEW

HCCTS submits this request on the following grounds:

(1) CDE's letter does not meet administrative due process standards because it does not provide adequate notice or substantial evidence to support the penalty imposed, and because the agency did not expressly adopt any findings in the State Audit, identify the specific findings on which it based its determination that HCCTS did not meet funding conditions, make any specific findings of its own, provide HCCTS an opportunity for a written response, or consider the extensive remedial actions already taken or planned by HCCTS.

(2) HCCTS can demonstrate good faith and substantial compliance with extensive documentation of attendance tracking during the 2022-2023 and 2023-2024 school years along with logs showing consistent accountability and enforcement measures for students with poor attendance, as well as remedial compliance actions taken going forward for any inadvertent noncompliance.

(3) The Determination seems based entirely on the findings and conclusions of the State Audit Report, which did not consider substantial controverting evidence provided by HCCTS.

(4) The State Audit Report's findings that HCCTS did not meet credentialing standards for in-classroom instruction does not accurately reflect legal requirements, because California law does not prohibit individuals with an Adult Education Teaching Credential from teaching classes organized primarily for adults, regardless of whether or not those classes take place at a K-12 charter school.

The State Supreme Court has enshrined equal access to education in California is a fundamental right under the state Constitution for over 50 years, and inequitable enforcement of attendance requirements for schools serving exclusively older, economically disadvantaged students would violate the Equal Protection clause of the California Constitution. (See, e.g., Serrano v. Priest (1971) 5 Cal.3d 584, 605 [holding that discrimination in educational access based on socioeconomic status is subject to strict scrutiny]; Crawford v. Board of Education (1976) 17 Cal.3d 280; Serrano v. Priest (1976) 18 Cal.3d 728, 768; Butt v. State of California (1992) 4 Cal.4th 668, 683; Shaw v. Los Angeles Unified School District (2023) 95 Cal.App.5th 740, 766.)

PROCEDURAL FLAWS

This is no ordinary request for an administrative review. The Determination seeks to impose a $178,965,128 penalty, which we believe to be the largest ever imposed on a charter school in state history. When the government seeks to impose such a high penalty, courts will look closely at whether both substantive and procedural due process was properly afforded to the School. For this reason, HCCTS also seeks a decision from the Education Audit Appeals Panel ("EAAP") on a number of crucial procedural issues including jurisdictional authority, due process concerns, and scope of agency discretion, as follows:

(1) While the CDE's Determination states that HCCTS may appeal the State Audit Report's determination by petition to EAAP, HCCTS requests that EAAP make a preliminary finding as to its jurisdiction over this matter under Education Code section 41344(a), based on the fact that the State Auditor and State Audit Report have no authority to require repayment and indeed the State Auditor expressly recommended that CDE review the matter, investigate, and make a determination based on its own findings. CDE has not followed the State Auditor's recommendation guidance, and it does not appear that there is any statutory authority for the CDE to adopt another agency's findings as its own with no investigation, no notice and no opportunity for the affected party to be heard. We believe that the CDE has not performed the necessary procedural steps prior to telling the School that it should see EAAP if it wishes to dispute the State Auditor's findings.

(2) Likewise, HCCTS requests that EAAP make a second preliminary finding as to CDE's statutory authority to withhold past apportionments, because Education Code section 41344 provides for withholding if an audit exception in a particular year requires a repayment based on express conditions of apportionment, but no statutory authority exists for withholding multiple years' apportionment without clear findings and determination of the appropriate withholding amount by the State Controller.

(3) HCCTS further respectfully submits its concern that an unacceptable probability of bias exists in the EAAP's review process because its voting membership includes two members who may be biased. First, the CDE Superintendent who signed the Determination appointed one of the EAAP members. Further, the School is informed that a second agency (FCMAT) which appoints another member of the three voting EAAP representatives was consulted during the state audit process by the State Auditor. Further, the School is informed that FCMAT has been advising the Assembly Education Committee staff on pending legislation (Assembly Bill 84) that would be harmful to HCCTS in relation to topics covered in the State Auditor's Findings.[2] The State Audit Report specifically discusses a prior report by FCMAT relating to the school and asserts that the prior FCMAT report relates to many of the same topics. This brings into question whether HCCTS can receive a fair hearing before unbiased decisionmakers, a key element of procedural due process.

(4) Finally, HCCTS submits for the panel's consideration that even if CDE has the authority to require repayment, made sufficient findings of fact, and gave adequate notice of the affirmative conditions, the penalty is unlawful as a matter of equity because HCCTS reasonably relied on the agency's prior conduct in failing to object to the manner in which HCCTS was operating since the School began serving students on July 1, 2024. HCCTS also > reasonably relied on the findings of independent auditors contained on a list of State Controller-approved independent auditors, which did not raise concerns similar to those in the State Audit. The state cannot on one hand insist that HCCTS hire an auditor off a list of auditors that it has vetted and then on the other hand hold the School at fault when an approved auditor fails to identify a compliance issue.

Over the years of its operation, the school has relied on regulatory guidance from CDE, including attendance requirements flagged by the State Auditor. (See Exh. P & Q.) The CDE knew of HCCTS's unique position as an adult school serving students who sought a K-12 education because the School's charter was filed with CDE upon approval by the District, CDE had ten years to review HCCTS's unique model for reaching an adult student population to whom mandatory attendance does not apply, and certified its funding year after year without notifying HCCTS of additional compliance conditions, even after requesting substantial documentation of HCCTS's policies on these and other issues mentioned in the State Audit Report.

CDE's unsupported Determination of withholding funds now poses an existential threat to HCCTS and its adult student population, notwithstanding HCCTS's documented compliance with previous requirements imposed by oversight agencies. This threat comes despite HCCTS's compliance with all of the State Auditor's recommendations (even those that the State Auditor acknowledged are just best practices rather than legally required) and current efforts to comply with the Auditor's interpretation of the relevant laws and regulations impacting apportionment (even those the School thinks are unsupported by law). These measures include new Board and administrative leadership, staffing changes, meeting new credentialing requirements, tracking attendance each class period, a pending material revision of their charter, plans for an updated curriculum, adopting dozens of new policies governing nearly every aspect of School operations, and greatly reduced enrollment capacity for classroom-based learning as a result. As recommended by the State Auditor, HCCTS continues to work closely with TRUSD to ensure full compliance and remedial actions.

These procedural flaws give EAAP ample discretion to reverse the penalty calculated by the State Auditor in connection with Finding 2024-106 ($178,965,128). Since it exceeds the maximum set by Education Code section 41344.1, subdivision (d)(3) for EAAP staff to be able to waive the penalty alone, HCCTS hereby requests that EAAP conclude that HCCTS has complied or substantially complied with conditions of apportionment set forth in section 41344.1, subdivision (d)(3) and accordingly waive the $178,965,128 penalty associated with Finding 2024-106, with the written approval from the Department of Finance and the Superintendent of Public Instruction.

I. CDE's Letter Lacks Findings and Statutory Authority Required for Due Process.

HCCTS further requests that EAAP find that the Determination in which CDE seeks repayment of every dollar of apportionment for three years has no basis in an "audit or review" under the meaning of the statute because CDE did not investigate and make its own findings as the State Auditor called upon CDE to do. Moreover, the Determination does not fulfill statutory requirements or provide due process, such as adequate notice of violations found or opportunity to correct violations prior to assessment of a penalty.

The California Supreme Court has held that the requirements of due process extend to administrative adjudications affecting charter schools. (Today's Fresh Start, Inc. v. Los Angeles County Office of Education (2013) 57 Cal.4th 197, 214.) Due process requires reasonable notice before governmental action may deprive an individual of a significant property interest. (Bergeron v. Department of Health Services, 71 Cal. App. 4th 17, 23.) Adequate notice must give fair notice of conduct forbidden and required; specifically, "[i]n the administrative law context, the failure to give fair notice to a regulated entity of what is forbidden or required justifies vacating the imposed punishment resulting from the alleged violation of a regulation." (Kerman Telephone Co. v. Public Utilities Com. (2023) 94 Cal.App.5th 920, 931-932.). "More specifically in the administrative context, the Due Process Clause requires that agencies bringing an enforcement action 'provide,' through written guidance, regulations, or other activity, 'a person of ordinary intelligence fair notice of' what is prohibited or required." (Id. at 932, citing F.C.C. v. Fox Television Stations (2012) 567 U.S. 239, 253.)

"No matter the type of law an agency is enforcing, regulated parties are always entitled to fair notice of what is prohibited or required before they can be punished for a violation." (Kerman Telephone Co. v Public Utilities Com., supra at 94 Cal.App.5th, 932 [holding that failing to provide express notice of what constitutes a violation does not meet due process requirements].) Here, CDE's Determination provides vague and conclusory justifications as a basis for its extraordinary punitive action. (Exh. A.) It does not mention whether it in fact found that HCCTS violated any law or indeed what laws or conditions of funding HCCTS failed to satisfy, whether it found HCCTS has failed to address the State Auditor's findings, or any other specific justification. (Id.) It also failed to provide clear guidance in the first instance, which could have prevented this issue altogether.

The lack of specific findings or statutory violations to support CDE's action make it difficult to effectively appeal the decision. Without clear findings or legal authority, the Determination effectively denies HCCTS a meaningful opportunity to fully understand, appeal, or remediate compliance issues which the Department has identified as areas of special concern. In other words, CDE's lack of clear findings, omission of any statutory authority for collecting repayment of apportionment based on findings in a State Audit Report, and inadequate notice violate the school's right to procedural due process.

Crucially, HCCTS did not have fair and adequate notice of what was prohibited or required in this situation to avoid a massive penalty prior to receiving CDE's Determination. The statute does not expressly state that schools must prove students remained in class for the full instructional time in order to qualify for apportionment. The findings of the State Audit Report does not provide this notice because it expands in an ex post facto fashion the required conditions of funding beyond the plain and previously understood meaning of statutory requirements that HCCTS "offer" instructional hours and "require" attendance. (Exh. B, p. 13.) Indeed, the Auditor seemed to hold HCCTS accountable for a burden of proof beyond a reasonable doubt that ADA attendance matched actual attendance, reaching far beyond the ordinary standards of practice for adult learning or for charter schools in an area lacking clear statutory guidance because of the unique nature of HCCTS's student body. (Exh. B, p.18.) For example, the Auditor stated that it based its finding on observations that the school's paper and electronic records did not match—a type of documentary proof not required by any law or statute—despite acknowledging that the school's electronic attendance satisfied the statutory requirement. (Id.)

The CDE's letter likewise provides no guidance to HCCTS as to how it may avoid fatal penalties for past or indeed future compliance requirements. (Exh. A.) The letter does not merely omit clear findings of fact—it provides no citation to statutory authority to justify its demand for repayment of prior apportionments. (Id.) Nor does it cite any statute or regulations with which HCCTS has failed to comply, let alone what the school must do to achieve full compliance. (Id.)

Because the CDE's letter lacks specific findings to support its action, identifies no statutory authority or violations, fails to provide adequate notice of what it requires of HCCTS, and provides no opportunity for corrective action to avoid the massive penalty, its apportionment adjustment does not meet procedural due process requirements for adverse action by an administrative agency. On its face, the lack of adequate notice denies HCCTS an opportunity for a fair appeal. HCCTS therefore requests that EAAP make a determination that the CDE exceeded its authority in this action. HCCTS further requests that EAAP order the agency to investigate, make specific findings of fact, cite the statutory basis for the alleged violations and penalties, and provide HCCTS an opportunity to demonstrate compliance before imposing a penalty, as directed by the State Auditor and required by due process protections.

II. The CDE Exceeded Its Statutory Authority When It Imposed Penalties for Multiple Years of Apportionment Based on Calculations by the State Auditor.

According to the express language of Education Code section 41344, the state can only seek repayment from charter schools when the charter school did not comply with affirmative requirements upon which apportionment was expressly conditioned. This limitation is made even clearer in connection with the calculation of the amount to be withheld, and the specific mechanism by which the withholding is to be effected:

> "The Controller shall withhold the disallowed or penalty amount at the next principal apportionment ... In calculating a disallowed amount, the Controller shall determine the total amount of overpayment received by the local educational agency on the basis of average daily attendance, or other data, reported by the local educational agency that did not comply with one or more statutory or regulatory requirements that are conditions of apportionment." (Ed. Code § 41344, subd. (a)(1).)

Because the Controller has apparently made no such determination here, and no such calculation appears in the CDE's Determination, the conclusions of the State Audit Report do not on their own support withholding of funding.

Education Code section 41344, subdivision (b)(1) further sets forth the formula for computing daily attendance, providing that "a local educational agency's prior fiscal year average daily attendance shall be reduced by an amount equal to any average daily attendance disallowed in the current year, by an audit or review, as defined in subdivision (e)." This subdivision "may not result in a local educational agency repaying more than the value of the average daily attendance disallowed in the audit exception plus interest and other penalties or reductions in apportionments as provided by existing law."

Subdivision (e)(1) defines the type of audit or review which triggers reductions in prior year apportionments: "As used in this section, "audit or review" means an audit conducted by the Controller's office, an annual audit conducted by a certified public accountant or a public accounting firm pursuant to Section 41020, and an audit or review conducted by a governmental agency that provided the local educational agency with an opportunity to provide a written response." As discussed above, the State Auditor is specifically excepted by the APA's definition of an "agency" and therefore, the State Audit Report does not satisfy the statutory requirements to support a reduction of past apportionments.

Moreover, while Education Code section 41344.1 subd. (c) states that "compliance with all legal requirements is a condition to the state's obligation to make apportionments," it does not address the Department's authority to collect apportionments from multiple previous years deemed by CDE as overpayments. The statutory language authorizing repayment of apportionment only contemplates recoupment for apportionment in the "prior fiscal year," and subdivision (b)(2) limits the repayment to the value of the average daily attendance disallowed in the audit exception for the current year. This statute does not appear to contemplate exceptions from an audit spanning more than one year, perhaps because its drafters did not anticipate that the CDE would adopt findings from a multi-year State Audit without performing any audit, review, or independent calculations.

In other words, the plain language of the statute providing authority for funding adjustments on a broad finding like that cited in the CDE's Determination here seems to limit this authority to future-facing withholding. It does not provide clear authority for the Superintendent of Public Instruction to require repayments of prior apportionments based on past noncompliance with legal requirements if the requirements of Education Code section 41344 are not otherwise met.

Notably, under Education Code section 41342, the Superintendent has a separate source of authority for making adjustive apportionments or deductions where required by a judgment "for any fiscal year." Here, however, no judgment has been entered that provides authority to the Superintendent to deduct apportionments for any fiscal year. This statute specifically carves out this authority. If the Legislature intended the Superintendent to have unlimited power to recoup past apportionments beyond the prior fiscal year, it would have stated as much. Instead, the statutes provided limited exceptions for adjustments under specific circumstances.

HCCTS hereby requests that EAAP vacate the imposed penalty described in CDE's letter of June 30, 2025, because CDE exceeded its statutory authority by adjusting apportionments beyond the prior fiscal year.

III. HCCTS Substantially Complied with the Requirements of Law on Which the State Auditor Based Finding 2024-106, to the Full Extent of Feasible Compliance.

HCCTS is a charter school providing K-12 grade education to adult students, age 22 or older, who lack a college degree. Authorized and overseen by the District, HCCTS operates more than 50 classroom-based school sites in California. (See Exh. B, p. 1.) In past years, HCCTS required and enforced attendance with a variety of methods, including reengagement strategies, progressive consequences, loss of access to school-provided mobile devices, and disenrollment for students who did not meet attendance requirements. (See Exh. D through O.) In the wake of the State Audit Report, the school will go even further in the 2025-2026 school year with a plan to closely monitor its student body's attendance each class period. (Exhibit J.)

Education Code section 41344.1, subdivision (c) defines "substantial compliance" for purposes of subdivision (d) as "nearly complete satisfaction of all material requirements of a funding program that provide an educational benefit substantially consistent with the program's purpose." Subdivision (c) further provides that "[a] minor or inadvertent noncompliance may be grounds for a finding of substantial compliance provided that the local educational agency can demonstrate it acted in good faith to comply with the conditions established in law or regulation necessary for apportionment of funding." As shown below, HCCTS satisfies the conditions for substantial compliance, and the basis of its noncompliance—to the extent that HCCTS can ascertain it from the letter and Audit Report—was inadvertent. Even if EAAP were to conclude that HCCTS did not fully comply with the requirements of Education Code section 47612.1 for the school years covered by the audit, HCCTS nevertheless complied substantially with such requirements.

Furthermore, as a matter of law, Education Code section 47612.5(d)(3) expressly states that charter schools are not subject to daily minimum instructional minutes requirements. As mandated by those provisions of Education Code section 47612.5, subdivision (e), defining what qualifies as "classroom-based instruction" for purposes of the 64,800 instructional minute minimum set forth in subdivision (a), HCCTS ensured that during the time period for classroom instruction, its pupils were "engaged in educational activities required of those pupils and [were] under the immediate supervision and control[3] of an employee of the charter school who possesses a valid certification document registered as required by law." HCCTS further ensured that more than 80% of the instructional time offered to its students was synchronous instruction offered in a classroom setting, in which students could ask questions (and receive answers) in real time, and benefit from the presence of and interaction with their fellow classmates.

Nevertheless, because it deemed HCCS's enforcement of in-person attendance so insufficient that the school did not "require" attendance, the State Auditor found that HCCS offered a program in which more than 20% of instruction was nonclassroom-based. (Exh. B, p. 113.) This statement obscures the actual educational program that HCCTS offered in the relevant school years. HCCS is not a non-classroom-based (or "independent study") charter school and never has been. Synchronous, live instruction provided in a classroom setting is at the core of its educational model. (Exh. K, P.)

A. HCCTS Consistently Implemented and Refined Procedures to Ensure Substantial Compliance with ADA Apportionment Requirements.

While Highlands worked hard to ensure that students took advantage of the offered instructional time, it could not force adults to remain in class because compulsory attendance requirements do not apply to adults. During the years examined by the State Audit Report and identified in the CDE's letter as subject to repayment of apportionment, HCCTS's written policies, orientation materials, and teacher trainings consistently stressed the 80 percent in-class attendance requirement.. (See Exh. K, slide 6; Exh. L-O.) HCCTS also implemented a system of consequences and incentives for student attendance. During the time period examined by the State Audit Report, school staff made at least 5,385 contacts to students regarding absences and partial or insufficient attendance, which it logged via the industry standard data software, PowerSchool. (See Exh. D, E, N.) The school made their entire data file available to the Auditor, but the Auditor did not include any mention of this data, falsely stating that the school lacked evidence to support its attendance. (See Exh. B, p. 97)

The Auditor's own survey of HCCTS students (793 respondents total, of which 171, or 21.5%, stated they never were enrolled in the classroom-based program at all) showed that 71% of students attended class 5 days a week and stayed in class for the majority of the class periods. (See Exh. B, Appendix B-2 p. 83.) Yet, the State Audit Report suggests that HCCTS should have implemented punitive consequences for its students to enforce attendance requirements—while making no mention of the extensive accountability process that HCCTS did in fact use to deter insufficient attendance.

Extensive contemporaneous records show that contrary to the State Auditor's findings, HCCTS did and currently does offer, require, and enforce classroom attendance for more than 80% of instructional time. (See Exh. D-O.). Over the period covered by the audit, HCCTS used and continually refined a multi-tier reengagement process, including repeated contacts and escalating consequences to ensure that students made use of the instructional hours offered. Students with poor attendance receive notices of disenrollment which were issued based on regular internal attendance reviews. (See Exh. F.) The school also reviews attendance records and locks students' school-provided mobile phones until the student meets minimum attendance standards. (See Exh. D.) Moreover, the school's records show that it contacted students who did not attend as required to reengage them and ensure they understood the attendance requirements. (See Exh. C.)

HCCTS also maintains supportive services designed to increase student attendance by attempting to address socioeconomic barriers faced by its student population. The school's Student Intervention Team utilizes the student information system to identify students who are chronically absent or identified by their school counselor. This team then reaches out to those high-risk students and develops a support system to help ensure their needs are met. These supports include, but are not limited to, transportation, food distribution, clothing distribution, housing assistance, access to public assistance, and mental health services.

In the 2022-2023 and 2023-2024 school years, HCCTS offered 224 days of in-person, on-site, classroom-based instruction. (See Exh. R.) The school's student orientation materials prominently state that enrollment required a commitment of daily attendance for a minimum of 6.5 hours a day—"Let us know if you're going to be absent or late." (Exh. K, L.)

The proposed academic calendar for the 2025-2026 school years includes more than the minimum instructional days, offering extended learning opportunities and ensuring flexibility while still meeting and exceeding state requirements. (Exh. J) Going forward, HCCTS has planned to implement a bell schedule with per-period attendance designed to consistently exceed the minimum instructional time required under Education Code 46207, or 64,800 minutes annually. (See Exh. J.) Across all schedule configurations, the instructional design will seek to track and enforce compliance through a combination of regular instructional days (Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Friday). Even during the audit period the school met the annual instructional minutes, but this new schedule will allow for more precise tracking of how long students are in class in alignment with the State Auditor's best practice guidance. While this type of schedule does not serve the needs of HCCTS's unique adult student body as well as its previous model, it will satisfy the compliance standards set forth by the State Auditor and now endorsed by the CDE.

Notwithstanding all of this evidence, in the State Audit report the State Auditor responded to correspondence from our office on the 80 percent issue by stating the following:

> "As stated on page 13 of the report, state law requires charter schools to require the attendance of students at the schoolsite for at least 80 percent of the minimum instructional time required by law as a condition of receiving K–12 funding for classroom-based instruction. In the audit report, we note that Highlands lacked policies related to consequences for students' failure to attend, which we determined was relevant to the question of whether students were actually required to attend. However, this is just one factor that we considered in determining that Highlands did not meet the 80 percent attendance requirement for its classroom-based school, HCCS. As we explain on page 14, we also based our conclusion on our observations of classes, instructors' statements that the majority of the class day was optional, and Highlands' executive director's confirmation that students have not been required to attend for 80 percent of the offered instructional minutes because the previous administration focused on enrollment and not attendance. The audit report does not assert that Highlands must academically sanction students for nonattendance in order to meet the 80 percent attendance requirement." (Audit, page 139)

The State Auditor did not stop there. They went on to say that:

> "No Highlands official we spoke with provided any supportable statement indicating that HCCS met the conditions of funding we found it did not meet." (Audit, page 143)

The documents described herein and attached clearly support statements by Highlands employees and our office that the 80 percent requirement was met because the school was requiring student attendance in practice. The fact that the State Auditor did not reference that they had considered, let alone weighed, all exculpatory evidence identified above and attached to this request for administrative review when such a significant amount of funds are involved is unconscionable. And the statements made by the now former Executive Director are irrelevant because he was not even hired until after the conclusion of the audit period in question. He therefore had no firsthand knowledge or experience that would allow him to characterize what was happening in individual classrooms at fifty sites, and at best such statements are inadmissible hearsay. Hearsay alone is not substantial evidence to support administrative action, unless expressly permitted by statute. (Furman v. Department of Motor Vehicles (2002) 100 Cal.App.4th 416)

B. The Doctrine of Impossibility Precludes Any Requirement That HCCTS Prove it Forced Adult Students to Remain in Class for All Offered Instructional Time.

HCCTS has and will continue to comply with the requirements of the law setting forth the requirements of legally cognizable "classroom-based education," to the full extent that it is possible to comply. No school, particularly a school serving exclusively adults, can legally force its students to remain present for a particular number of days or minutes by physically preventing the students from leaving. (See, e.g. Penal Code § 236) California does not impose compulsory education requirements on adult students, even if those adult students lack a K-12 education.

Where, as here, full compliance with a statute is impossible, California law recognizes an implicit exception to such compliance to prevent "unjust application" of the statute. (National Shooting Sports Foundation, Inc. v. State of California (2018) 5 Cal.5th 428, 433, citing Civ. Code § 3531 ["The law does not require impossibilities:]; Washington v. Board of Supervisors (1993) 18 Cal.App.4th 981, 994 ["Where strict compliance with the terms of a statute is impossible, compliance as near as can be has been permitted on the principle that the law does not require impossibilities"]; Bd. of Supervisors v. McMahon (1990) 219 Cal. App. 3d 286, 299-300 [same].)

The underlying legislative history of the "schoolsite" requirement of Education Code section 47612.5 clearly indicates that the legislature did not intend to penalize charter schools for failure to comply with impossible requirements. The Floor Statement for Senate Bill 434 (the 1999 bill that added Education Code section 47612.5) and the accompanying SB 434 Fact Sheet, explained that the annual minimum requirements of section 47612.5 were designed to allow "maximum flexibility" for the charter schools, which may satisfy the requirement "any way they see fit." (See Exh. S attached hereto.)

As additionally noted by the California Supreme Court, the doctrine of impossibilities is closely related to the absurdity canon, which advises courts to avoid any statutory construction that would produce absurd consequences (National Shooting Sports Foundation, Inc. v. State of California, supra, 5 Cal.5th at 433). In the California regulatory regime, "civil penalties may have a punitive or deterrent aspect, [but] their primary purpose is to secure obedience to statutes and regulations imposed to assure important public policy objectives." (City and County of San Francisco v. Sainez (2000) 77 Cal.App.4th 1302, 1315, citing Kizer v. County of San Mateo (1991) 53 Cal.3d 139, 147-148.) A particular civil penalty cannot possibly function to "secure obedience" with its terms when the penalized party is actively prohibited by law from "obeying" the law in question. (See also Civ. Code § 3526 ["No man is responsible for that which no man can control"])

During each year examined by the audit, HCCTS has required and enforced that its students meet face-to-face with their regular, credentialed teachers every school day. HCCTS documented this using a system of physical attendance sheets, an official digital record of attendance created by the teachers through educational data software, and extensive logs of communication with students about consequences such as losing cell phone access or risking disenrollment. (See Exh. D, E, N.)[4] It further implemented multi-tiered engagement strategies in which staff and teachers reached out to students who did not stay in class for the required time. It is difficult to imagine what more HCCTS could possibly have done to require and enforce student attendance and prove, after the fact, that it had done so.

C. HCCTS Satisfied Classroom-based Instructional Requirements for Charter Schools As Expressly Set Forth in Statute, Regulation, and EAAP's Audit Guide.

For purposes of calculating average daily attendance for classroom-based instruction apportionments, the statutory requirements for apportionment funding state that at least 80 percent of the instructional time offered by the charter school shall be at the schoolsite, and the charter school shall require the attendance of all pupils for whom a classroom-based apportionment is claimed at the schoolsite for at least 80 percent of the minimum instructional time required to be offered pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (a). (Ed. Code, § 47612.5, subd. (e)(1).) As noted in our response to the draft audit, instructional minutes are annual in nature for charter schools, not daily as required for other types of schools. (Exh. B, p. 121.)

HCCTS's policies require that 80% of instructional time be offered at their schoolsites and further clearly establish a requirement that students maintain 80% attendance. (Exh. K, L.) Moreover, the audit report's criticism of the school's use of "optional" instructional time to reach the threshold is a plain mistake of law. (Exh. B, pp. 13-14.) The audit provides that, "In our view, the portion of the school day that is optional does not meet the definition of classroom-based instruction that appears in state law because, even if the teacher remains in the classroom to work on lesson plans or answer students' questions, this is not a required educational activity for the students." (Id. at p. 13.) This analysis and resulting standard improperly conflates two separate compliance requirements, the condition of offered instructional time and the condition of required attendance, that does not reflect the complex statutory framework for attendance and apportionment.

The governing statute setting forth the requirement for charter school apportionments makes no requirement of daily minutes of mandatory attendance or instruction beyond the requirement that the school offer more than the minimum number of instructional minutes per year. (Ed. Code § 47612.5, subd. (a)(1).) Moreover, the statute authorizes apportionment reductions for schools that "fails to offer pupils the minimum number of minutes of instruction specified in [Section 47612.5, subd. (a)(1)]." (Emphasis added.) In such cases, withholding is limited to the sum of the school's apportionment "multiplied by the percentage of the minimum number of minutes of instruction at each grade level that the charter school failed to offer."

Even if the above did not fully resolve the matter, EAAP's own Audit Guide provides that verification that a school has provided sufficient instructional minutes can be done by determining "whether the district offered optional classes to satisfy instruction time requirements. If enrollment in optional classes is low, review the district's documentation of class offerings to ensure that the district has acted effectively to comply with the law." (2024-2025 EAAP Audit Guide, p. 16.)[5]

[4] The raw data was provided to the State Auditor in a PowerSchool file on the Auditor's request and was compiled from the same file for the attached exhibits with fields defined for readability.
[5] Available at https://eaap.ca.gov/wp-content/uploads/sites/281/2025/03/2024-25-Audit-Guide-July-1-2025.pdf 2024-25-Audit-Guide-July-1-2025.pdf, retrieved July 24, 2025.

Accordingly, if offering optional classes allows a school to meet the requirement for instruction time, it stands to reason that optional classes could be offered to ensure students are taught in the classroom for at least 80% of their instructional time. Charter schools, after all, have more flexibility than school districts, not less. (Ed. Code § 47610).

The State Auditor concluded that HCCTS should receive zero credit for attendance for the 2022-2023 and 2023-2024 school years based on the Auditor's finding that HCCTS did not "require" attendance, supporting its finding with observations on less than ten occasions that a few students signed in at the beginning of class and left. (Exh. B, p. 12, 113.) As detailed in this petition, the condition that HCCTS "require" attendance by keeping all students present in class for 80% of instructional time appears nowhere in the statutes or regulations and moreover, is impossible and unenforceable as to adult students. Because HCCTS had no notice of any requirement that it must not permit students to leave at will and must log attendance more than once per day, and because its software logged attendance only as Absent or Present—with Absent being the default—the school was not prepared to prove that its students stayed the entire time to the Auditor's satisfaction.

This conclusion should be disturbing to anyone familiar with standards of practice for public education. The process that HCCTS used to document attendance—by taking attendance at the beginning of the school day—is a standard practice used throughout the state in classes where students remain with the same teacher for the full class day, as they did at Highlands. Indeed, CDE's own guidance states, "In order to generate and claim attendance for apportionment, school districts must meet all the applicable instructional time and scheduling requirements, and the students must be in attendance under the immediate supervision and control of a certificated employee of the school district while engaged in educational activities required of them for at least some part of each school day for which attendance is generated."[6] (Emphasis added.) Moreover, "it is the intent of the Legislature that school districts … shall not be required to employ period-by-period attendance accounting." (Ed. Code § 48260 (b).)

Requiring schools to prove that all students marked "present" on a particular day in previous years had stayed for an entire class period or at least 80 percent of the day to avoid millions of dollars in penalties for prior apportionment claims means that virtually all California schools would be at risk. This is just the sort of absurd result that courts must avoid under the rules of statutory construction. It would be infeasible to require teachers across the state to keep a continuous record of attendance throughout the class period and class day while also teaching the class. Such a stringent requirement is also not supported by any known law or regulation, and enforcement of this rule would amount to an underground regulation as defined by Government Code 11340.5(a).

For the foregoing reasons, HCCTS complied or at bare minimum substantially complied with Education Code section 47612.5, subdivision (e), allowing for the full funding of classroom-based education where a charter school offered the required instructional time, required attendance, and enforced its requirements, fully complying with applicable laws and regulations. Any noncompliance was unintentional or indeed unavoidable and impossible.

HCCTS hereby requests that the panel conclude that HCCTS has satisfied the conditions of compliance or in the alternative that it satisfied the conditions of substantial compliance set forth in section 41344.1, subdivision (d)(3) and accordingly requests that it waive or reduce the $178,965,128 penalty associated with Finding 2024-106, on the condition of written approval from the Department of Finance and the Superintendent of Public Instruction.

D. HCCTS Clearly Acted in Good Faith and Satisfied All Material Requirements of Its Funding Program to Provide Educational Benefits Consistent with Its Purpose.

Education Code section 41344.1, subdivision (c), provides that "[a] minor or inadvertent noncompliance may be grounds for a finding of substantial compliance provided that the local educational agency can demonstrate it acted in good faith to comply with the conditions established in law or regulation necessary for apportionment of funding." While no published authorities have addressed the specific definition of "good faith" in the context of compliance for apportionment purposes, the published policies pertaining to attendance, the training programs for employees, the orientation program descriptions of attendance expectations, and the substantial number of follow up communications with students certainly demonstrate that the school operated in good faith.

HCCTS has extensive documentary evidence to show that it "acted in good faith" to completely satisfied "all material requirements of a funding program that provide an educational benefit substantially consistent with the program's purpose." In this regard, HCCTS incorporates by reference all the arguments set forth above. School administrators at the time complied with the applicable regulatory scheme to the best of its ability, but lacked clear, adequate notice of the requirements which CDE now seeks to enforce after the fact as the result of the State Audit. As noted above, the agency has not previously nor now provided guidance as to what they must demonstrate to ensure compliance beyond their policies and procedures requiring attendance.

For example, many HCCTS students are Afghan refugees, Ukrainian and other immigrants who, despite having legal status in the U.S., face the threat of removal due to the U.S. Presidential Administration's aggressive immigration policies. Even before their protective legal status was threatened, these students faced struggles such as significant trauma after escaping violence in their home countries, poverty, lack of job skills, and lack of educational opportunity. Other student groups served by HCCTS include survivors of childhood violence or abuse that disrupted their K-12 education, students with cognitive learning disabilities such as ADHD who did not receive adequate services in traditional schools, English learners, single parents, and homeless adults.

Each of these student populations has significant unique needs and face barriers that make effective service provision difficult. Those same needs often limit their ability to understand and navigate strict or arbitrary procedural rules, including policies that do not allow for the multiple demands of adult life, such as family caregiving, mental health challenges, or inconsistent or unpredictable work schedules.

Recent survey data gathered by HCCTS confirmed that, for one third of its students, grief and mental health was listed as the greatest cause of stress in their lives. (See Exh. N.) HCCTS student surveys also show the positive impact of HCCTS educational opportunities. (Exh. U.) Many of these students have lost family members and loved ones to violence and were now attempting to rebuild in a new and unfamiliar country, while facing threats from changing immigration policies in the United States. On May 1, 2025, students and staff members spoke at the HCCTS board meeting and pleaded for their school to remain open, following the layoff notices issued to hundreds of teachers in response to the State Audit report. At the meeting, one HCCS paraeducator, a woman who immigrated from Afghanistan, described the impact on her community:

> As you may know, immigrant families, especially Afghans, are facing a terrible crisis back home. We are banned from schools, jobs, and basic rights. Many of us have come to the United States to build a better life … This school has been a place where we feel seen, respected, and supported … If this school closes, it is not just a job I lose, my community will lose a lifeline, Afghan women will lose a safe space to heal, learn, and rebuild.

Many students who attended HCCS have gone on to work there themselves, helping give students the same opportunity they were given to improve their lives. HCCS administrative assistant and former student Cynthia Winters spoke at the board meeting about what Highlands means to her:

> I stand before you not only as a staff member but as a living testament to the mission and impact of this institution. I am a former student, and today I am a high school graduate, a college graduate, and an empowered contributing member of our society. This transformation is directly due to the patience, guidance, persistence, and compassion I received from this school. Highlands has long stood as this pillar of hope for individuals who have lost faith in themselves, in their dreams, and in their communities … the school taught me how to believe in myself when I had every reason not to … now we face challenges that risk undermining the very soul of what Highlands represents … I stand here before you today, and I will continue to stand up, speak out, and defend the school that transformed me from a homeless, single mother of eight to a woman of strength, dignity, and purpose.[7]

The student community is not at fault for the alleged deficiencies found by the State Audit Report, but they will suffer the most if the school is forced to shut down. It is therefore most consistent with principles of equity and fairness to conclude that under such circumstances HCCTS "substantially complied" with the requirements of the Education Code and accordingly waive the $178,965,128 penalty of Finding 2024-106 pursuant to Education Code section 41344.1, subdivision (d)(3).

E. Any Noncompliance by HCCTS Was "Inadvertent," Which Supports a Finding of Substantial Compliance

Education Code section 41344.1, subdivision (c) requires that the LEA seeking a finding of substantial compliance only demonstrate that the noncompliance is minor or inadvertent (see, e.g., Rubio v. Superior Court (2016) 244 Cal.App.4th 459, 473 [when used in a statute, the word "or" indicates an intention to designate separate, disjunctive categories]) Because HCCTS's actions involved no intentionality or exercise of will by HCCTS, the noncompliance was certainly "inadvertent." (Heritage Residential Care, Inc. v. Division of Labor Standards Enforcement (2011) 192 Cal.App.4th 75, 83 ["As dictionary definitions reflect, the ordinary meaning of inadvertent is unintentional or not deliberate."].)

Here, HCCTS took deliberate steps, as discussed above, to require, document, and enforce attendance for its all-adult student population that would meet the attendance standards set forth in the Education Code. (See e.g. Exh. D-F.) To the extent that certain students did not actually live up to these attendance requirements, this was unintentional on HCCTS's part.

For these reasons, any deviation by HCCTS from requirements for student attendance was inadvertent on the school's part, and the panel should find that HCCTS was in substantial compliance with the relevant laws. HCCTS hereby requests that the panel conclude that HCCTS has satisfied the conditions of substantial compliance set forth in section 41344.1, subdivision (d)(3) and accordingly waive or reduce the $178,965,128 penalty associated with Finding 2024-106, on the condition of written approval from the Department of Finance and the Superintendent of Public Instruction.

F. No "Other Remedial Measures" Are Needed to Induce Full Compliance in the Future

As seen in the above-cited language, this body can waive an audit penalty pursuant to Education Code section 41344.1, subdivision (d)(3) with written approval of the Department of Finance and the Superintendent, if, inter alia, this body finds that "other remedial measures are sufficient to induce full compliance in the future." Here, this requirement is clearly satisfied, as HCCTS has already enacted multiple remedial measures to ensure full compliance even with State Auditor recommendations intended to implement best practices that are not even requirements of law in addition to all legal requirements. (See Exh. I.)

These measures include the resignation of a majority of its Board of Directors pending seating of a new Board, appointing a new Executive Director/CEO with extensive experience in school management, hiring a new Chief Academic Officer and Chief Operations Officer to implement a complete reorganization of its offered programs to ensure its in-classroom instruction meets ADA standards, a layoff of approximately 600 staff including approximately 120 teachers based on the Commission on Teacher Credentialing's interpretation of credentialing standards[8], and adoption of 125 new board policies governing nearly every aspect of its operations. This includes efforts to meet all recommendations of the State Audit Report, such as:

[8] HCCTS disputes the CTC's position that an Adult Education Teaching Credential may not be used to teach adults at a K-12 charter school, an apparent underground regulation unsupported by the law. However, HCCTS has followed the guidance of the CTC on this in the interim as it contests this issue.

Instructional Minutes Policies

- Developed a board policy that mandates a 20-day attendance calendar.
- Filed corrections for prior years' ADA, which was based on incorrect data entry.
- Contracted with Charter Impact to ensure accurate ADA recalculations and reporting.
- Drafted Attendance SOP for the 2025-2026 school year, outlining CDE reporting process.
- Developed a new calendar that aligns with CDE 20-day attendance guidelines.

Attendance Recordkeeping Policies

- Implemented a paper-based attendance system as a backup to PowerSchool.
- Adopted mandatory three-year retention of digital and paper attendance records.[9]
- Hired CBO and staff to oversee regular audits of digital and paper attendance records.
- Trained staff on procedures for accurate documentation.
- Established internal audit schedule to ensure accuracy and integrity of attendance records.

These remedial measures will result in a tremendous reduction in future in-classroom ADA claimed by HCCTS. In other words, HCCTS's own compliance efforts have already dealt a massive financial blow to the school's operations even before the CDE's recouping of the overpayment at issue here. Accordingly, no "other remedial measures" are here warranted.

HCCTS hereby requests that the panel conclude that HCCTS has satisfied the conditions of substantial compliance set forth in section 41344.1, subdivision (d)(3) and accordingly waive or reduce the $178,965,128 penalty associated with Finding 2024-106, on the condition of written approval from the Department of Finance and the Superintendent of Public Instruction.

IV. The State Audit Report Relies on Mistakes of Law and Is Unsupported by the Evidence.

A. California Law Does Not Prohibit an Individual with an Adult Education Teaching Credential from Teaching Exclusively Adults at a K-12 Charter School.

HCCTS is an all-adult K-12 charter school which operates in an exclusive partnership with the federal Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act ("WIOA"). As such, Education Code section 47612.1, subdivision (a)(1), grants HCCTS an exemption from credentialing requirements normally imposed upon ordinary K-12 public schools. HCCTS students are, by definition, exclusively adults with a need for K-12 education as a result of their life circumstances. Historically, many teachers at HCCTS possessed only an adult education teaching credential issued by the California Commission on Teacher Credentialing—not a single subject teaching credential or multiple-subject teaching credential, which would typically be required to teach children at a traditional K-12 site.

California Education Code section 44865 further states, "A valid teaching credential issued by the State Board or the Commission on Teacher Credentialing, based on a bachelor's degree, student teaching, and special fitness to perform, shall be deemed qualifying for assignment as a teacher in the following assignments, provided that the assignment of a teacher to a position for which qualifications are prescribed by this section shall be made only with the consent of the teacher: … (b) Classes organized primarily for adults." An adult education teaching credential is exactly this type of "valid teaching credential."

Moreover, California Education Code section 44865 does not specifically exclude K-12 charter schools as sites where "Classes organized primarily for adults" may be taught. If the Legislature wanted to limit the scope of section 44865 to exclude all-adult K-12 charter schools, it could have done so. Instead, the statute determines the particular credential needed based on the student population for which the classes are organized.

The Commission on Teacher Credentialing Website states that teachers with adult education credentials cannot teach in "traditional K-12 schools," including charter schools. Putting aside the reality that HCCTS is not a "traditional" K-12 school, this policy does not accurately reflect California's laws and regulations. No California law or regulation prohibits the use of an adult education credential to teach adults at a K-12 school, traditional or otherwise, making the imposition of this requirement an underground regulation as defined by Government Code 11340.5(a).

As an administrative agency, the CTC is a creation of the California legislature and exists to enforce the law as set forth by the legislature, not create new laws of its own. It is therefore illegal for the CTC to adopt and enforce a regulation without complying with the legally-required process outlined in the California Administrative Procedure Act ("APA"). If the CTC wants to enforce a rule against using an adult education teaching credential to teach adults at a K-12 charter school, it needs to 1) first go through the steps outlined in the APA process, and 2) ensure that its proposed regulation is not in conflict with existing law.

Because the State Auditor based its understanding of credentialing requirements on an underground regulation not supported by the plain language of California's statutes and regulations, to the extent that the CDE has endorsed the State Auditor's conclusion on this topic, the CDE's decision is based on a mistake of law. Therefore, HCCTS respectfully requests that EAAP vacate the $178,965,128 penalty insofar as its determination relies on findings related to credentialing standards.[10]

[10] The June 30, 2025 letter does not specify whether the CDE found any issue with credentialing affected HCCTS's apportionment or how much of the apportionment reduction relies on this particular State Audit Report finding, making it difficult to ascertain whether credentialling is relevant to this appeal. Therefore, HCCTS includes it to ensure it addresses all possible issues identified by CDE as apportionment significant.

B. Because HCCTS Enforced and Required Attendance for More Than 80% Instructional Time, A Finding of Zero ADA Apportionment is Unsupported by the Evidence.

In the State Audit Report, the State Auditor takes the position that all average daily attendance at HCCS should be denied for purposes of apportionment for two school years (22/23 and 23/24 school years). The State Audit Report bases this conclusion on the Auditor's surveys in-person observations at four out of fifty school sites during a narrow timeframe in 2024-2025, entirely outside the audit period, where observers stated "several" students left after signing in.[11] However, the State Audit Report's survey shows that most students (71% of respondents) attended a majority of instructional minutes offered each day. (Exh. B, Appendix B, p. 83.)

The State Audit Report also seeks to deny HCCTS any attendance credit based on a survey in which 29% of HCCS students stated that they attended only one or two hours during the school day. The Auditor further posed questions in terms that left the answers ambiguous as to how long the students stayed. If classes were 6 hours, 80% would total 4.8 hours. Yet, the Auditor's survey asked if students stayed between "3 to 5 hours" or "6 to 8 hours." In other words, the survey results could be interpreted as showing that most students stayed in class for the required time, but the State Auditor arbitrarily chose the interpretation most prejudicial to HCCTS.

State law governing student attendance does not require any educational institution to forcibly keep students in class by locking the doors or otherwise barring their exit. Moreover, even the state's compulsory education statutes expressly provide that "notwithstanding" enforcement of attendance requirements, "it is the intent of the Legislature that school districts shall not change the method of attendance accounting provided for in existing law and shall not be required to employ period-by-period attendance accounting." (Ed. Code § 48260 (b).) Charter schools are intended to have more flexibility than districts, not less (Ed. Code § 47610). Thus, it would be an absurd result that charter schools should have to take attendance each class period. Although the School is agreeing to do this going forward, we submit that it was never legally required to do so and that the state cannot withhold apportionment funding on this basis.

Of course, compulsory attendance requirements also do not apply to adults over the age of 18. (Ed. Code § 48200.) State regulations go further, carving out an express exception for adult classes from the requirements of traditional high school attendance reporting. (Cal. Code Regs. Tit. 5, § 401.) The regulations provide in subsection (c) that "In all high schools, except those listed in (d) of this section, each teacher shall be required to submit to the principal, at least once each school day, a report of attendance for each period of the day in which he conducts classes, listing the names of all pupils absent in any period." Subsection (d) applies to "all classes for adults, continuation schools, and classes, and regional occupational centers and programs"—excepting these types of classes from per-period attendance requirement.

[11] The Merriam-Webster dictionary defines "several" as "an indefinite number more than two and fewer than many," which suggests these instances were the exception, not the rule, during the auditor's four observational visits. Therefore, HCCTS would challenge the Auditor's findings in this regard as based on isolated instances and not indicative of normal practice. The Report does not state any number more specific than "several," how many times this happened, whether this occurred at every observation, or what site it occurred at. There is no indication, either, that the observers stayed for the entire class period. If they did not, it would seem likely that some of the "several" students may have stepped out to the restroom or to run an errand and returned for the majority of the class.

Education Code section 46010.3 further sets forth that "notwithstanding…any other provision of law, for purposes of calculating days of attendance in order to compute any apportionment of state funding … a pupil enrolled in a regular day class, including opportunity classes and classes conducted in county community schools, for the minimum day that is applicable to that pupil is deemed to be present for the entire schoolday." The minimum school day for high school pupils in an "approved work experience program who attends a school … in which the regularly scheduled period is greater than 60 minutes in length, the minimum day is one or more periods totaling at least 180 minutes in duration." (Ed. Code § 46144.) Education Code section 46141 also establishes the 180-minute standard for non-traditional high school structures.

180 minutes amounts to 3 hours, and 71% of students who responded to the State Audit Report in fact reported they stayed in class anywhere from 3-8 hours. (Exh. B, p. 83, Appendix B.) Therefore, by applying a standard of 80% of instructional time to the minimum time that students must remain in class during an applicable period to be deemed statute, the State Audit Report ignored the statutory "minimum day" calculations set forth in Part 26, governing "attendance for computing apportionments." Again, charter schools are intended to have more flexibility, not less (Ed. Code § 47610). The Report therefore erred in its calculations as a matter of law.

The findings of the State Audit Report on which CDE based its determination also appears to apply a standard exceeding that stated by the guidance available on CDE's public-facing web page detailing "Instructional Time and Attendance Accounting – Finance and Grants." CDE's guidance states, "In order to generate and claim attendance for apportionment, school districts must meet all the applicable instructional time and scheduling requirements, and the students must be in attendance under the immediate supervision and control of a certificated employee of the school district while engaged in educational activities required of them for at least some part of each school day for which attendance is generated."[12] (Emphasis added.)

Additionally, the State Auditor's observations from the 2024-2025 school year alone cannot logically support conclusions about prior years regarding how many students were present and for how much of the day. The State Auditor's surveys demonstrated that more than 70 percent of teachers surveyed about student attendance were not employed during most of the audit period. Thus, their opinions about what may have happened before they worked there are not relevant. What is relevant is what was happening during the audit period, and current teachers are not a reliable source of information for this. The demographics of the student body also shifted during this period to include more immigrant students, which may also have impacted attendance surveys because they have different needs and support than a local student that has extended family to provide childcare or take care of a sick child, for example. (Exh. U.)

If it were reasonable for the State Auditor to use the Auditor's in-person observations during the 2024-2025 school year to support reductions in ADA in prior fiscal years (which it is not), the

[12] Guidance available at Instructional Time and Attendance Accounting - Finance & Grants (CA Dept of Education) (https://www.cde.ca.gov/fg/it/), last accessed July 23, 2025, stating at bottom of page, "last reviewed by CDE on May 16, 2025."

Auditor at minimum would then logically be required to also consider what average daily attendance HCCTS can prove for the school year of the observations to approximate the average daily attendance earned in prior years. The Auditor has only considered classroom observations as a means of justifying that HCCTS failed to meet the criteria for claiming ADA without calculating what those same classroom observations would prove in terms of the portion of ADA that the observations would support. The Auditor did observe many students attending classes and not leaving. How many students were in each of these classes who did not leave during the observation period? None of this data is contained in the Auditor's findings even after HTTCS staff requested that it be considered in the exit interview, which demonstrates bias on the part of the Auditor.

Finally, the Auditor improperly disregarded HCCTS's tremendous volume of physical and digital attendance records. (See Exh. D and E.) HCCTS previously had a practice of taking attendance only once daily. No records therefore exist to prove exactly how long most students attended each class during prior school years, though HCCTS did make thousands of contacts to students who did not attend or stay in class, and required Career and Technical Education ("CTE") students to sign contracts committing to 90% attendance. (Exh. D, E, V.)

In fact, CTE student attendance was tracked hour-by-hour. As a result, the school can demonstrate with 100 percent certainty that the 80 percent rule was met for these students. However, the State Auditor did not even give the School credit for these students. Further, the State Auditor did not use this data to extrapolate out attendance for other sites in the same way they did their very limited classroom visits. Had it done so, most if not all of the attendance would have been supported. We submit that this evidence directly undercuts the entire methodology used by the State Auditor to disqualify the School from $180 million, and demonstrates exactly why the CDE should be forced to do its own investigation, give the School to opportunity to present its evidence, and reach its own findings.

The actual length of time that each student attended each class session is impossible to calculate based on the available data, but it makes no sense to calculate ADA based on a few students who did not stay in class versus the majority who did. It makes more sense to attempt to approximate what the average daily attendance would be, rather than jumping to the illogical conclusion that if several students did not attend, attendance is no better than zero across the board. Indeed, prior independent audit reports gave HCCTS no indication that it risked loss of state apportionment funding because it failed to monitor hourly attendance. (Exh. W.)

For these reasons, HCCTS hereby requests that the panel conclude that HCCTS has complied with the legal requirements to claim apportionment. In the alternative, HCCTS requests that EAAP find that it satisfied the conditions of substantial compliance set forth in section 41344.1, subdivision (d)(3) and accordingly waive or reduce the $178,965,128 penalty associated with Finding 2024-106, on the condition of written approval from the Department of Finance and the Superintendent of Public Instruction.

V. EAAP Lacks Clear Jurisdictional Authority to Review State Audit Findings.

Out of an abundance of caution, HCCTS submits this summary review petition based on the direction provided in the CDE's letter regarding right of review and appeal through EAAP. HCCTS does so in order to preserve any administrative right of review and exhaust any administrative remedies that may apply in this case. The CDE's letter does not, however, clearly set forth authority to support EAAP's jurisdiction in a summary review of State Audit Report findings on which the CDE issued its notice of action. (See Exh. A.) The publicly available cases previously submitted to and reviewed by EAAP, as published on EAAP's website, do not include any previous review by EAAP of the results or findings of a State Audit Report.[13]

The Education Code suggests that an audit result triggers EAAP's jurisdiction if the Local Educational Agency ("LEA") "is required to repay an apportionment specific audit exception or to pay a penalty arising from an audit exception ..." (Ed. Code § 41344(a).) Yet, the State Audit Report does not have authority to require any repayment from HCCTS, nor does it purport to require such repayment. (Exh. B p. 67.) Instead, it recommends that CDE review the Report and investigate before making its own determination. The Determination makes no mention of any independent review efforts by the agency.

The Determination appears to assume that the State Audit Report is an "audit or review" for the purposes of its own authority and EAAP's review powers because it views the State Auditor is a "governmental agency" that provided HCCTS an opportunity to provide a written response. Yet, the State Audit is explicitly not an adjudicative proceeding under Government Code section 11405.20 (Chapter 4.5, Article 2 of the Administrative Procedure Act), defining "agency" for the purposes of the APA, and exists outside the administrative structure of the executive branch. APA Chapter 4.5, from which EAAP's authority derives, applies to "any agency as determined by the statutes relating to that agency" or to adjudicative proceedings of agencies, "except as otherwise provided by statute."

Furthermore, the State Auditor's authorizing statutes expressly provide that the "provisions and definitions of Chapter 3.5, Article 2 of the Administrative Procedure Act [including the definition of "agency"] shall not be construed to include the California State Auditor's Office." (Gov. Code § 8546, subd. (g).). Only the legislative body known as the "Little Hoover Commission" has clear oversight powers over the Auditor.

Education Code section § 41344.1, subd. (a) establishes that EAAP "is hereby established as a separate state agency," an administrative and thus executive branch entity which may "consider audit appeals pursuant to the administrative adjudication provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act." In other words, the EAAP's authority to review government actions derives from the APA, but the State Auditor's Office is a unique, quasi-legislative body which is expressly not an "agency" as defined by the APA.[14] If it is not an "agency" for the purposes of the APA, then its audit report does not fit any condition of Education Code 41344(e)(1), defining EAAP's authority to review "an audit conducted by the Controller's office, [13] As documented at https://eaap.ca.gov/decisions/panel-decisions-and-adoptions/, retrieved on July 24, 2025.

an annual audit conducted by a certified public accountant or a public accounting firm pursuant to Section 41020, and an audit or review conducted by a governmental agency that provided the local educational agency with an opportunity to provide a written response." (Emphasis added.)

EAAP has jurisdiction over a "final audit report resulting from an audit or review" of any part of the operations of a Local Education Agency ("LEA"). (Ed. Code § 41344(d).) By statutory definition, a charter school is an LEA. (Ed. Code § 41344(e)(2).) The statute establishes that an "audit or review" means "an audit conducted by the Controller's office, an annual audit conducted by a certified public accountant or a public accounting firm pursuant to Section 41020, and an audit or review conducted by a governmental agency that provided the local educational agency with an opportunity to provide a written response." (Ed. Code § 41344(e)(1).).

Education Code section 41344 sets forth the process for repayment plans and withholding for overpayment of apportionment "if, as the result of an audit or review, a local educational agency is required to repay an apportionment significant audit exception." (Ed. Code § 41344, subd. (a).) Because the State Auditor has no enforcement power (see e.g. Gov. Code § 8547.7), a State Auditor report does not require the LEA to repay its apportionments, which seems to place the report outside of EAAP's jurisdiction. The State Audit Report states:

> To ensure that it takes appropriate action related to Highlands, the state superintendent should direct CDE to immediately investigate whether Highlands has sufficiently complied with state law, met the conditions of K–12 funding, and appropriately claimed K–12 funding. To the extent that CDE determines that Highlands has failed to significantly address the audit findings in this report and others, or that Highlands has committed any violations of state law, has not met the conditions to receive K–12 funding, has not demonstrated improved pupil achievement, or inappropriately claimed K–12 funding, the state superintendent should take appropriate action, including pursuing adjustments to Highlands' apportionments and making a recommendation to the State Board of Education to take appropriate action, up to and including revoking Highlands' charters.

(See Exh. B, p. 67.) Education Code section 41334.1, subd. (c), creates a "a voluntary, informal, summary appeals process for noncompliant audit exceptions that clearly constitute substantial compliance," with a more formal right of appeal of a summary decision provided for under Education Code section 41334, subd. (d). Education Code section 41334, subd. (d) provides for appeal from "an audit or review of all or any part of the operations of the local educational agency." The statute does not clearly specify whether this subdivision only applies where subdivision (a) already provides jurisdiction, or if it provides separate, independent grounds for agency jurisdiction.

An exercise by EAAP of jurisdiction over State Audit findings related to apportionment may in fact run contrary to legislative intent. The statutes establishing the State Auditor's Office (previously the Bureau of State Audits) clearly state that the legislature intended the office to wield independent review powers over state agencies like CDE and even EAAP itself, as well as local agencies and recipients, "free of organizational impairments to independence…independent of the executive branch and legislative control." (Gov. Code § 8543, subd. (a).) As such, the State Auditor operates under the Milton Marks "Little Hoover" Commission on California State Government Organization and Economy.[15] (Ibid.) The Governor appoints the Auditor from a panel of three candidates nominated by the Joint Legislative Audit Committee, rather than the normal political appointment process. (Gov. Code § 8543.2.)

While the public records available through the Auditor's Office indicate that the Auditor has never audited EAAP itself, the scope of the State Auditor's review powers and its express independence from "executive and legislative control" would seem to preclude any authority otherwise granted to EAAP to review the Auditor's findings, even under a broad reading of the EAAP's jurisdictional authority.

One decision with some possible bearing on this case, In re: Gorman Learning Center, (2008) OAH No. L2008050384, addressed "whether EAAP has authority under the provisions of Education Code sections 41344(d) and 41344.1(b) to determine disputes regarding non-classroom-based funding determination requests" based on the State Board of Education's (SBE's) discretion to adjust funding allocations.

In that case, the panel considered whether the school was "'required to repay' overpayments resulting from 'inaccurate financial data used for the SB 740 Funding Determinations.'" It determined that "EAAP has no authority to determine whether a charter school may be 'required to repay' any amount as a result of audit findings related to the information submitted to SBE on a charter school's SB 740 funding determination request." While not exactly on point, this decision does demonstrate the limits of EAAP's authority as the panel itself views it. In the Gorman case, EAAP found it lacked jurisdiction as to whether an audit required repayment of apportionments.

Because the applicable statutes do not provide clear authority for jurisdiction, HCCTS seeks additional clarity on whether EAAP considers itself an appropriate forum for review in this case. Therefore, as a preliminary matter, HCCTS requests that EAAP make findings and issue a formal decision on whether EAAP has jurisdiction to review an audit report by the State Auditor.

VI. Unacceptable Probability of Bias May Preclude EAAP Review.

While HCCTS submits this request to EAAP in good faith, it does so with awareness of the intense political and internal pressure faced by the CDE and other agencies to respond and comply with the recommendations contained in the State Audit Report. In engaging with the review process offered in the Determination, HCCTS must therefore raise the issue of unacceptable probability of bias in violation of fair hearing requirements, because EAAP's membership consists of representatives from the same agency which made the Determination under review.

In raising concerns of bias, HCCTS does not seek to impugn the professionalism, good intent, or expertise of EAAP's panel members or staff. EAAP's authority to review audit exceptions and penalties in the normal process prescribed by its operating statutes is undisputed. Given the extraordinary circumstances, however, including the large dollar amount at issue as well as an unusual level of public and media attention trained on the State Audit Report, all parties must acknowledge at the outset that the Panel may find it difficult to oppose the action of the Superintendent in this review process.

[15] The Little Hoover Commission is a legislative joint committee "constituted and acting as an investigating committee" with the "powers and duties imposed on such committees by the Joint Rules of the Senate and Assembly." (Gov. Code § 8504.)

To prevail on a claim of bias violating fair hearing requirements, the law does not require the disappointed applicant to prove actual bias. Rather, there must not be "an unacceptable probability of actual bias" on the part of the municipal decision maker. (Nasha v. City of Los Angeles (2004) 125 Cal.App.4th 470, 483; BreakZone Billiards v. City of Torrance (2000) 81 Cal.App.4th 1205, 1236.)

In Golden Day Schools, Inc. v. State Dept. of Education (2000) 83 Cal.App.4th 695, the Court of Appeal found an unacceptable probability of bias where the same person who initiated the refusal to renew a government contract sat on the appellate panel that reviewed that administrative action (id. at p. 701, 99 Cal.Rptr.2d 917) and thus "was in the position of judging the correctness of his own decision" (id. at 710, 99 Cal.Rptr.2d 917). Of course, "'[n]o man is allowed to be a judge in his own cause; because his interest would certainly bias his judgment, and, not improbably, corrupt his integrity.'" Caperton v. A.T. Massey Coal Co., supra, 556 U.S. at p. 876, 129 S.Ct. 2252, quoting Madison, The Federalist No. 10 (Cooke ed.1961) p. 59; see In re Murchison (1955) 349 U.S. 133, 136, 75 S.Ct. 623, 99 L.Ed. 942.)

Further, even having a biased adviser to the decision-makers can be sufficient to overturn administrative action. In Nightlife Partners, Ltd. v. City of Beverly Hills (2003) 108 Cal.App.4th 81, 133 Cal.Rptr.2d 234, the same legal counsel represented a city in connection with a business permit denial and then advised the third-party hearing officer on administrative appeal from that denial. The Court of Appeal found this violated due process because the attorney was in a position to advise on legal rulings and evidentiary objections in the adversarial appeal of an initial decision he had helped obtain. (Id. at pp. 90–94.)

Here, the proceedings involve similar overlaps because two of the three panel members have direct connections to the agencies whose decisions HCCTS seeks to challenge. First, the school seeks to overturn the California State Auditor's recommendations, which in part cite the audit performed by the Fiscal Crisis & Management Assistance Team ("FCMAT") in 2018. Specifically, the State Auditor's report provides that the County Office of Education and CDE took insufficient action to address the FCMAT audit's findings. (Audit Report, p. 58.) Indeed, the State Auditor's report provides that, "[m]any of FCMAT's findings were similar or related to items we reviewed as part of this audit, such as ADA irregularities, enrolling students who did not qualify under its WIOA agreement, questionable use of standardized tests, conflicts of interest, gifts of public funds, and questionable hiring practices." (Audit Report, p. 45.) In its appeal, HCCTS contends both the FCMAT audit and the State Auditor's audit were mistaken, yet the EAAP Chairperson is a designee of FCMAT. (See Ed. Code § 41344.1, subd. (a).) Therefore, HCCTS's appeal of a Determination citing FCMAT's audit recommendations will be overseen by FCMAT's designee.

Furthermore, the School believes that FCMAT was consulted by the State Auditor's team during the audit process. Even being consulted with during the audit process may form a separate basis to challenge the impartiality of the agency representative.

Additionally, the second of three EAAP members includes the designee of the Superintendent of Public Instruction, a position responsible for overseeing the California Department of Education ("CDE"). (See Ed. Code § 41344.1, subd. (a).) In its appeal, HCCTS also contends that the CDE improperly adopted the State Auditor's report without conducting its own investigation or making its own findings. Accordingly, the head of the CDE, through his designee and direct report, will be one of three deciding votes in Highlands' challenge to the CDE's response to the State Auditor's report.

Because the majority of the EAAP are directly connected to the agencies HCCTS seeks to challenge, there is an unacceptable probability of actual bias in the EAAP's adjudication of Highlands' appeal.

VII. The CDE Is Estopped from Demanding Repayment Based on Equitable Principles.

If EAAP finds that CDE acted within its authority, that the State Audit Report made no mistakes of fact or law, and that CDE properly used the State Audit Report's findings in its determination, the penalty assessed by the Superintendent should be estopped based on equitable principles in the interest of justice. The doctrine of estoppel states that a penalty imposed by a public agency will not be upheld if the agency knew the facts, the agency intended the other party to rely on its conduct or acted such that the other party reasonably believed as much, the other party did not know the true facts, the other party relied on the agency's conduct to its detriment, and the agency's action would result in substantial injustice against the public interest.

The California Supreme Court, in Lentz v. McMahon (1989) 49 Cal.3d 393, concluded that equitable estoppel was an issue that could be raised and decided in administrative hearings. In Lentz, citing Canfield v. Prod (1977) 67 Cal. App. 3d 722 and Long Beach v. Mansell [(1970) 3 Cal. 3d 462], the Supreme Court stated the four basic elements of estoppel: (1) the party to be estopped must be apprised of the facts; (2) he must intend that his conduct shall be acted upon, or must so act that the party asserting the estoppel had a right to believe it was so intended; (3) the other party must be ignorant of the true state of facts; and (4) he must rely upon the conduct to his injury.

In Mansell, supra, 3 Cal 3d 462, the court adopted a fifth element for estoppel of government agencies, which requires the balancing of the injustice of failing to apply equitable estoppel: "The government may be bound by an equitable estoppel in the same manner as a private party when the elements requisite to such estoppel against a private party are present, and, in the considered view of a court of equity, the injustice which would result from a failure to uphold an estoppel is of sufficient dimension to justify any effect upon public interest or policy which would result from the raising of an estoppel."

Strong public interest considerations support the continued operations of HCCTS. Even former employees who discussed concerns with the media and publicly with HCCTS's Board of Directors have stated that they do not want the school to close. Due to the State Audit Report and resulting remediation measures, HCCTS has significantly decreased the number of students that its program can currently serve. As a result, the school had approximately 5200 students who want and need this specific type of program waitlisted by the end of the 2024-2025 school year. Currently, over 7000 students have enrolled for the lottery to get one of the school's now extremely limited class spaces. These students will suffer the brunt of CDE's punitive action through loss of opportunity and destruction of the HCCTS community that supports their success.

Most crucially, HCCTS provides a needed service for students that lose out in school district funding priorities. Traditional adult education classes are non-existent in many parts of the state, including the greater Sacramento area where HCCTS operates, because the funding rate is too low for school districts to offer good programs that provide strong support to students. HCCTS also offers vocational programs to assist immigrants and other students in gaining entry-level jobs from which they can build greater economic stability and a better future. Improving the economic future of disadvantaged adult students strengthens California's overall economy, resilience, and helps alleviate strain on the state's social safety net.

The school also provides a huge benefit to the economic development of its region. In November 2020, a University of Nevada study estimated HCCTS contributed close to $50 million in economic activity, hundreds of jobs, and over $20 million in labor income to the Central Valley Area (El Dorado, Placer, Sacramento, San Joaquin, Yolo, and Solano counties). (See Exh. X.) HCCTS has only grown since this study was published.

Requiring the repayment of 100% of apportionments for two years would put HCCTS out of business even though HCCTS has already rectified many of the alleged compliance issues flagged in the State Audit report and has committed to fully address the remaining issues. (Exh. Z, AA.) This is a substantial injustice which damages the public interest, including thousands of adult students in historically underserved communities to whom HCCTS provides educational opportunities and job training they could not receive elsewhere. (Exh. Y.)

Moreover, HCCTS reasonably relied on the guidance and conduct of its oversight agency when it approved HCCTS's charter and its renewal petition, and certified its yearly apportionment for both school years now at issue. The CDE's own guidance on "Instructional Time and Attendance Accounting – Finance and Grants" further states, "In order to generate and claim attendance for apportionment, school districts must meet all the applicable instructional time and scheduling requirements, and the students must be in attendance under the immediate supervision and control of a certificated employee of the school district while engaged in educational activities required of them for at least some part of each school day for which attendance is generated."[16] (Emphasis added.) Publishing guidance on an agency website supports a reasonable belief that CDE intended LEAs, including HCCTS, to rely on the information available on that website.

[16] Guidance available at Instructional Time and Attendance Accounting - Finance & Grants (CA Dept of Education) (https://www.cde.ca.gov/fg/it/), last accessed July 23, 2025 and last reviewed by CDE on May 16, 2025.

After 2018, when FCMAT's audit provided recommendations for improving enrollment, attendance, and reporting procedures at HCCTS, the school has worked hard to respond and implement the required changes. HCCTS also was not put on notice by the independent auditor that it hired off of the State Controller's approved list of education auditors that it had compliance issues that might cause loss of apportionment.

For instance, FCMAT's audit stated that HCCTS could not serve any students under 22 years of age or students with a high school diploma to maintain its status as a program operating within an exclusive partnership under the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act, effective July 1, 2016. (Exh. T, p. 11-12.) FCMAT's audit report also acknowledged that legal minds differ on interpreting the exemption provided by Education Code 47612.1 for WIOA-partnered schools. While HCCTS had previously accepted some students outside the WIOA parameters based on the students' needs, it had not collected apportionment funding for those students, and FCMAT was able to independently confirm this. (Id. p. 15.)

Furthermore, FCMAT did not find evidence that HCCTS intentionally misused these funds and found that the funds benefited the public. (Ibid.) This audit also found that HCCTS did not reject any students or discriminate against any student in its enrollment. (Id at p. 17.) It further found no evidence of fraud. (Ibid.) Moreover, HCCTS took action to ensure that it no longer enrolled students who did not qualify under WIOA. [Exh T.] Yet, the State Audit's findings included a conclusion that HCCTS had failed to remediate issues identified by FCMAT's 2018 audit related to compliance with Education Code section 47612.1. (Exh. T, p. 46-47.) In the wake of this audit process, TRUSD also did not raise ongoing compliance concerns, so if HCCTS remained out of compliance, it had no way to know this. It relied on the conduct and approval of CDE—the single state agency tasked with the oversight of public education which received and certified all attendance reports provided through TRUSD, HCCTS's local authorizing agency—to its detriment and now, if the assessed penalty stands, its certain destruction.

Moreover, in 2023, CDE requested documentation of HCCTS's policies and procedures in response to negative media reports about the school, and HCCTS provided extensive records to demonstrate its compliance. CDE never provided any follow-up determination or indeed any indication that the records provided did not meet the agency's compliance requirements and made no recommendations to HCCTS regarding attendance policies or any other requirement of apportionment. As a result, HCCTS reasonably believed that CDE determined that HCCTS complied with all applicable laws and regulations as well as the recommendations from the FCMAT audit.

A strong interest in public policy supports HCCTS' continued provision of educational opportunities to disadvantaged adult students. CDE knew of HCCTS's policies and procedures, including attendance tracking, and reviewed extensive documentation provided by HCCTS on this and other compliance requirements. In other words, the agency had reason to know if indeed those policies did not meet its standards for apportionment.

Despite this, the CDE continued to certify the apportionment funding of HCCTS and made no indication that it considered HCCTS out of compliance, giving HCCTS reasonable grounds to believe it had substantially complied with apportionment requirements. HCCTS did not know that its attendance policies requiring 80% attendance and daily attendance tracking did not meet CDE's conditions of apportionment. As a result, HCCTS relied on CDE's conduct to its detriment—a detriment so severe that it poses an existential threat to the school today.

As such, the circumstances in which HCCTS finds itself today meets all five elements required for application of equitable estoppel of CDE's Determination. CDE cannot therefore collect the penalty of $178,965,128 because to do so would violate principles of equity and fairness applicable to administrative agency.

VIII. Conclusion

HCCTS is already seating a new Board of Directors, has changed its administrative leadership, laid off more than 600 teachers and staff based on the Auditor's findings that they did not meet required qualifications, and implemented even stricter attendance tracking and new fiscal policies to ensure the school meets the new bar of compliance set by the State Audit. Nonetheless, CDE has acted without providing HCCTS any opportunity to demonstrate their efforts to remediate any issues identified by the State Auditor—an opportunity which HCCTS, and most importantly its students, deserve. For the foregoing reasons, HCCTS respectfully requests that pursuant to Education Code section 41344.1, subdivision (d)(3), this body vacate the Determination issued by CDE and waive the $178,965,128 penalty associated with Finding 2024-106.

Re: Request for Formal Appeal of California Innovative Career Academy Audit Report

Dear Ms. Kelly:

Our office serves as legal counsel for Highlands Community Charter and Technical Schools ("CICA" or the "School"), a nonprofit public benefit corporation operating Highlands Community Charter School ("HCCS") and California Innovative Career Academy ("CICA"). Pursuant to Education Code section 41344.1(d)(2), CICA respectfully requests a formal appeal of a determination by California Department of Education ("CDE" or the "Department") provided by letter dated June 30, 2025. ("Determination," attached hereto as Exhibit A.)

The Determination requires ADA revisions for three school years and the disallowance of $7,485,445 for past apportionment to CICA. In the letter, CDE appears to implicitly adopt or incorporate findings ("Audit Findings") contained in State Audit Report 2024-106 (the "State Audit Report" or "Report" attached hereto as Exhibit B). The School requests an appeal on the grounds that it has substantially complied with all legal requirements, has already fully or partially revised its ADA for the 2022-2023 and 2023-2024 fiscal years in a good faith effort of compliance, and has already begun repayment of a total adjustment which exceeds the total dollar amount of the Determination. Therefore (1) the School substantially complied with Education Code Section 51747(c); (2) the School acted in good faith to comply with Education Code Section 51747(b) and any noncompliance was inadvertent; and (3) despite the School's substantial compliance, the audit report and Determination erroneously made findings of disallowance based on nonstandard calculations without accounting for CICA's recent prior year ADA revisions.

FILING DEADLINE

Under Education Code section 41344, subdivision (d), within 60 days of the date on which a local educational agency ("LEA"), such as a charter school, receives a final audit report resulting from an audit or review of all or any part of its operations, the LEA may appeal a finding contained in the final report by submitting a request to the Education Audit Appeals Panel (the "EAAP"). CDE's Determination adopted the receipt of the State Audit Report as the beginning of the formal appeal period. Based on this timeline, the School has until August 22, 2025, to appeal the audit findings. Because this formal appeal request is made on August 22, 2025, and is made within the sixty (60) day timeline, it is a timely appeal.

STANDARD OF REVIEW

This request for formal appeal is being submitted in accordance with Education Code Section 41344, subdivision (d), which allows for a formal appeal of audit exceptions if the School believes in good faith that it was in substantial compliance with all legal requirements. "Substantial compliance" is defined by Education Code Section 41344.1, subdivision (c) as "nearly complete satisfaction of all material requirements of a funding program that provide an educational benefit substantially consistent with the program's purpose." The Section goes on to state that "inadvertent noncompliance may be grounds for a finding of substantial compliance provided that the local educational agency can demonstrate it acted in good faith to comply with the conditions established in law or regulation necessary for apportionment of funding." Pursuant to Section 41344(c), if the EAAP makes a finding of substantial compliance, the EAAP has the authority to waive or reduce any reimbursement or penalty related to an audit finding.

BACKGROUND

CICA is a California nonprofit public benefit corporation that operates CICA as an all-adult, non-classroom-based K–12 charter school authorized by Twin Rivers Unified School District ("TRUSD"). CICA, opened in August 2019, provides independent study-based instruction to adults 22 years or older who do not have a U.S. high school diploma.

HCCTS operates CICA in an exclusive partnership with the federal Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act ("WIOA"). As such, Education Code section 47612.1, subdivision (a)(1), grants CICA an exemption from requirements normally imposed upon ordinary K-12 public schools. CICA students are, by definition, exclusively adults with a need for K-12 education as a result of their life circumstances. Historically, many teachers at CICA and its sister in-classroom program at Highlands possessed only an adult education teaching credential issued by the California Commission on Teacher Credentialing. CDE and TRUSD had reason to know and never objected to this policy and practice consistently certifying CICA's apportionments since its opening in 2019.

Through its unique learning programs, CICA provides a needed service for students that lose out in school district funding priorities. Traditional adult education classes are non-existent in many parts of the state, including the greater Sacramento area where CICA operates, because the funding rate is too low for school districts to offer good programs that provide strong support to students. CICA also offers vocational programs to assist immigrants and other students in gaining entry-level jobs from which they can build greater economic stability and a better future. Improving the economic future of disadvantaged adult students strengthens California's overall economy, resilience, and helps alleviate strain on the state's social safety net.

On April 25, 2024, the Joint Legislative Audit Committee directed the State Auditor ("Auditor") to investigate CICA's unique education programs for underserved adult students, including English Learners, immigrants, and students who fell through the cracks during their elementary and high school years in district public schools. (See Exhibit C.) The Auditor's conclusions apply a legal standard that moves the goalposts for compliance beyond the affirmative obligations and express requirements of law, threatening the School's survival as well as putting undue political pressure on the District, Sacramento County Office of Education ("SCOE") and the CDE. The Auditor did not consider CICA's recent ADA revisions or take these into account when publishing its findings.

Specifically, the Auditor alleged that California Innovative Career Academy misreported attendance for the 2021-22 through 2023-24 fiscal years and exceeded the maximum allowable independent study ratio resulting in a total disallowance of $7,442,394. At the same time, the State Audit Report itself stated that "We do not recommend that Highlands be fined…" (Exh. B, p. 143.) Indeed, even former whistleblower employees who discussed concerns with the media and publicly with CICA's Board of Directors have stated that they do not want the school to close. Yet, due to the State Audit Report and resulting remediation measures, CICA has significantly decreased the number of students that it can currently serve through its independent study program at CICA, forcing the School to waitlist thousands of students seeking enrollment. These students will suffer the brunt of CDE's punitive action through loss of educational opportunity and loss of eligibility for education-related benefits programs.

CICA is already seating a new Board of Directors, has changed its administrative leadership, laid off more than 600 teachers and staff in an effort to ensure compliance with the newly applied credentialing standards, and implemented even stricter attendance tracking and new fiscal policies as recommended by the State Auditor. Nonetheless, CDE has acted without providing any opportunity for the School to demonstrate their efforts to comply with the recommendations of the Report, including CICA's initiation of a substantial ADA adjustment based on revised ADA for prior years.

BASIS OF APPEAL

The EAAP should waive the reimbursement for the audit penalty for the following reasons:

1. The School Substantially Complied with All Applicable Funding Requirements.

Pursuant to Education Code Section 41344(d), a local educational agency may appeal a finding in a final audit report if the agency "believes in good faith that it was in substantial compliance with all legal requirements." And while "compliance with all legal requirements is a condition of the state's obligations to make apportionments[,]" Education Code Section 41344.1(c) provides that "[a] condition may be deemed satisfied if the [Education Audit Appeals Panel] finds there has been compliance or substantial compliance with all legal requirements. "Substantial compliance" means nearly complete satisfaction of all material requirements of a funding program that provide an educational benefit substantially consistent with the program's purpose. A minor or inadvertent noncompliance may be grounds for a finding of substantial compliance provided that the local educational agency can demonstrate that it acted in good faith to comply with the conditions established in law or regulation necessary for apportionment of funding. The [Education Audit Appeals Panel] may further define "substantial compliance" by issuing regulations or through adjudicative opinions, or both." Here, the EAAP has not further defined "substantial compliance" by regulation or adjudicative opinion.

CICA can demonstrate good faith and substantial compliance with extensive documentation of attendance tracking during the school years at issue, along with logs showing consistent accountability and enforcement measures for students with poor attendance, as well as remedial compliance actions taken going forward for any inadvertent noncompliance. Moreover, the State Audit Report's findings that CICA did not meet credentialing standards for in-classroom instruction do not accurately reflect legal requirements, because California law does not prohibit individuals with an Adult Education Teaching Credential from teaching classes organized primarily for adults, regardless of whether or not those classes take place at a K-12 charter school.

Because CDE's Determination does not state the basis of its withholding calculation, the School refers to Appendix C of the State Audit Report to determine the basis for CDE's findings. (Exhibit B, Appendix C, p. 91.) The State Audit Report found categories of disallowed funding for CICA based on the following categories of alleged violation:

Excluding days of student attendance:

FY 2021-2022: $954,804

FY 2022-2023: $1,329,935

FY 2023-2024: ($408,749)[1]

Total disallowed: $1,875,990

Incomplete attendance documentation for nonclassroom-based instruction:

FY 2022-2023: $7,370[2]

Improper student to teacher ratios for independent study:

FY 2023-2024: $5,559,034

This adds up to $7,442,394 in total, yet CDE determined the School owed $7,485,445.[3] In total, the State Audit report assessed that CICA received $1,883,360 in disallowed funds for attendance misreporting and $5,559,034 for improper student to teacher ratios. The total disallowance found for each fiscal year is as follows:

FY 2021-2022: $954,804

FY 2022-2023: $1,329,935

FY 2023-2024: $5,150,285

[1] The State Audit Report provides, "We found that CICA undereported [sic] its ADA for fiscal year 2023–24, therefore this amount is not disallowed but nevertheless factored into the total amount based on our findings."
[2] Based on one student with missing documentation out of 30 reviewed.
[3] It is unclear what basis CDE found for assessing an additional $43,051, as this amount does not appear anywhere in the audit report, nor does the Determination letter explain this discrepancy.

In several categories, the Auditor based its ADA reductions on isolated issues with attendance documentation and credentialing. In the former case, the Auditor reviewed 30 student records and found a single error in documentation. Here, in 29 out of 30 records reviewed, the Auditor found CICA in full compliance – 96.67% compliance. In the latter case, the Auditor reviewed five teacher records and found one who had not renewed an existing credential – 80% compliance. Moreover, the Auditor based its credentialing findings on guidelines that the California Teaching Commission ("CTC") only released in May of 2025, applying these updated standards retroactively to the years covered by its Report. (Exhibit B, p. 37.)

As noted by the Auditor, CICA believed that the school had adhered to student to teacher ratio requirements in FY 2023-2024. (Exhibit B, p. 38.) The Auditor, however, recalculated the ratio and determined that CICA's student-to-teacher ratio was 28:1. It is unclear whether the Auditor based this calculation on its finding that an adult education credential was not an appropriate credential for teachers at CICA, which only served adult students.

Education Code section 51745.6, subdivision (a)(2) provides that for county-run independent study programs, the ratio "shall not exceed the equivalent prior year ratio of average daily attendance to full-time equivalent certificated employees for all other educational programs operated by the high school or unified school district with the largest average daily attendance of pupils in that county or the collectively bargained alternative ratio used by that high school or unified school district in the prior year." (Emphasis added.) The Auditor did not determine or include information about the ratio of the largest high school or unified school district in the county. Subdivision (d) provides that charter schools may instead use a fixed ratio of 25:1.

The Report acknowledged that the statute provides multiple standards for student-to-teacher ratios, including "the student-to-teacher ratio of the largest unified school district in the county or counties in which they operate," the ratio "negotiated in a collective bargaining agreement," a fixed ratio of 25:1, or a ratio of less than 25 students per teacher. (Exhibit B, p 39.) In other words, if the School met one of these conditions, it complied with the provisions of Education Code section 51745.6.

The largest unified school district in Sacramento County, where CICA operates, is Elk Grove Unified School District (EGUSD).[4] Elk Grove Unified School District's bargaining agreement in place from July 1, 2022 through June 30, 2024 specifies that "[t]he hiring ratio of grades K-6 shall be at most 28:1" and "[t]he hiring ratio of grades 7-12 shall be at most 32:1."[5] In other words, CICA in fact complied with applicable conditions of the 51745.6 statutory standard even if it maintained a ratio of 28:1, because this ratio matched the ratio for K-12 education set forth in the bargaining agreement for the largest school district in CICA's county of operation.

Nonetheless, even if the Auditor's application of the class size ratio requirements were correct, CICA can demonstrate substantial compliance with the requirements for independent study programs based on the School's revision of ADA and repayment of apportionments exceeding the amount assessed by CDE's letter for the three fiscal years at issue.

According to the School's records, as of June 2025, CICA has repaid a total of $233,796.00 through LCFF withholdings after revising their prior year ADA. (See Exhibit D.) In total, CICA's ADA revisions will result in an adjustment totaling $16,819,816 of disallowed funds based on attendance reporting and teacher to student ratios, more than twice the amount assessed in CDE's letter for all three fiscal years at issue. CDE has notified CICA that these revisions would result in future withholdings. (See Exhibit E.) CICA's ADA revisions were based on notes from auditors, CDE's IS Ratio Worksheet, and exclusion based on credentialing issues. (See Exhibit F.) CICA submitted the revisions after receiving appropriate oversight and review by CICA's authorizer, Twin Rivers Unified School District. (See Exhibit G.)

It does not appear that the CDE's Determination or the State Audit Report's published disallowance calculations took these ADA revisions or the amounts paid back through LCFF withholdings into account when CDE issued its June 30, 2025, letter. The State Audit makes no mention of these recent withholdings, and the letter contains no mention of whether CDE considered the latest ADA revisions by CICA. On information and belief, CDE performed no independent analysis or review of the State Auditor's findings prior to issuing the Determination.

Therefore, CICA can demonstrate substantial complied with the requirements of Education Code sections 51745.6 and 47612.5, subdivision (b). Following CICA's revisions, CDE has already begun to collect the disallowed funds – in fact, it will withhold far more than the amount in the Determination based on CICA's self-audited adjustments. EAAP's authorizing statutes specify that if CICA has satisfied the conditions of substantial compliance set forth in section 41344.1, subdivision (d)(3), EAAP should accordingly waive or reduce the assessed penalty. For these reasons, pursuant to Education Code section 41344.1(c), CDE must waive the $7,485,445 penalty assessed based on Finding 2024-106.

2. The School Acted in Good Faith to Comply with the Requirements of the Education Code and any Noncompliance was Inadvertent.

Education Code section 41344.1, subdivision (c), provides that "[a] minor or inadvertent noncompliance may be grounds for a finding of substantial compliance provided that the local educational agency can demonstrate it acted in good faith to comply with the conditions established in law or regulation necessary for apportionment of funding." While no published authorities have addressed the specific definition of "good faith" in the context of compliance for apportionment purposes, the published policies pertaining to attendance, the training programs for employees, the orientation program descriptions of attendance expectations, and the substantial number of follow up communications with students certainly demonstrate that the school operated in good faith.

CICA has extensive documentary evidence to show that it "acted in good faith" to completely satisfied "all material requirements of a funding program that provide an educational benefit substantially consistent with the program's purpose." In this regard, CICA incorporates by reference all the arguments set forth above. School administrators at the time complied with the applicable regulatory scheme to the best of its ability, but lacked clear, adequate notice of the requirements which CDE now seeks to enforce after the fact as the result of the State Audit. As noted above, the agency has not previously nor now provided guidance as to what they must demonstrate to ensure compliance beyond their policies and procedures requiring attendance.

Education Code section 41344.1, subdivision (c) requires that the LEA seeking a finding of substantial compliance only demonstrate that the noncompliance is minor or inadvertent (see, e.g., Rubio v. Superior Court (2016) 244 Cal.App.4th 459, 473 [when used in a statute, the word "or" indicates an intention to designate separate, disjunctive categories].) Because CICA's actions involved no intentionality or exercise of will by CICA, the noncompliance was certainly "inadvertent." (Heritage Residential Care, Inc. v. Division of Labor Standards Enforcement (2011) 192 Cal.App.4th 75, 83 ["As dictionary definitions reflect, the ordinary meaning of inadvertent is unintentional or not deliberate."].)

In making its findings regarding credentialling, the State Auditor acknowledged that "a lack of published guidance from CTC left both Highlands and Twin Rivers unaware that adult education credentials are not appropriate within K–12 settings, even for an adult-serving K–12 school." (Exhibit B, p. 36.) In other words, the Auditor found that the School's noncompliance with credentialling requirements was unknowing and inadvertent due to the lack of published guidance from CTC.

Here, CICA took deliberate and proactive steps, as discussed above, to revise its ADA and repay any disallowed amount. Moreover, any deviation by CICA from requirements for student attendance and class size ratio was inadvertent on the school's part, and the panel should find that CICA was in substantial compliance with the relevant laws. CICA hereby requests a finding that CICA has satisfied the conditions of substantial compliance set forth in section 41344.1, subdivision (d)(3). Because the School complied substantially and in good faith with the requirements of the Education Code and the information provided by its regulatory agencies prior to the publishing of the State Audit Report, CDE must waive the $7,485,445 penalty based on Finding 2024-106, pursuant to Education Code section 41344.1.

3. CICA Needs No "Other Remedial Measures" to Induce Full Compliance.

As seen in the above-cited language, this body can waive an audit penalty pursuant to Education Code section 41344.1, if, inter alia, this body finds that "other remedial measures are sufficient to induce full compliance in the future." Here, this requirement is clearly satisfied, as CICA has already enacted multiple remedial measures to ensure full compliance and will ultimately face withholding of more prior year funding than the Auditor found CICA owed.

These measures include the resignation of a majority of its Board of Directors pending seating of a new Board, appointing a new Executive Director/CEO with extensive experience in school management, hiring a new Chief Academic Officer and Chief Operations Officer to implement a complete reorganization of its offered programs to ensure its non-classroom based instruction meets ADA standards, a layoff of approximately 600 staff including approximately 120 teachers based on the Commission on Teacher Credentialing's interpretation of credentialing standards[6], [6] HCCTS disputes the CTC's position that an Adult Education Teaching Credential may not be used to teach adults at a K-12 charter school, an apparent underground regulation unsupported by the law. However, HCCTS has followed the guidance of the CTC on this in the interim as it contests this issue.

and adoption of 125 new board policies governing nearly every aspect of its operations. This includes efforts to meet all recommendations of the State Audit Report, such as:

Student-to-Teacher Ratio

- Revised ADA proactively and entered a payment plan with CDE.
- Initiated withholding of $16,819,816 via LCFF funding based on revised ADA.

Instructional Minutes Policies

- Developed a board policy that mandates a 20-day attendance calendar.
- Filed corrections for prior years' ADA, which was based on incorrect data entry.
- Contracted with Charter Impact to ensure accurate ADA recalculations and reporting.
- Drafted Attendance SOP for the 2025-2026 school year, outlining CDE reporting process.
- Developed a new calendar that aligns with CDE 20-day attendance guidelines.

Attendance Recordkeeping Policies

- Adopted mandatory three-year retention of digital and paper attendance records.[7]
- Hired CBO and staff to oversee regular audits of digital and paper attendance records.
- Trained staff in procedures for accurate documentation.
- Established internal audit schedule to ensure accuracy and integrity of attendance records.

Orientation

- Informs both students and employees about attendance requirements during new student orientation and professional development.

CICA students include Afghan and Ukrainian refugees and other immigrants who, despite having legal status in the U.S., face the threat of removal due to increasingly aggressive immigration policies. Even before the political threats to their legal status escalated, these students struggled with challenges such as significant trauma and violence in their home countries, poverty, lack of job skills, and lack of educational opportunity. Other student groups served by CICA include survivors of childhood violence or abuse that disrupted their K-12 education, students with cognitive learning disabilities such as ADHD who did not receive adequate services in traditional schools, English learners, single parents, and homeless adults.

Each of these student populations has significant unique needs and face barriers that make effective service provision difficult. Those same needs often limit their ability to understand and navigate strict or arbitrary procedural rules, including policies that do not allow for the multiple demands of adult life, such as family caregiving, mental health challenges, or inconsistent or unpredictable work schedules.

The student community is not at fault for the alleged deficiencies found by the State Audit Report, but they will suffer the most if CDE's unnecessary remedial measures lead to CICA's closure. Moreover, based on its audit history and the continued certification of its ADA reporting, the School in good faith believed that its independent study program and attendance procedures were legally compliant.

Accordingly, no "other remedial measures" are warranted here. CICA satisfied the conditions of substantial compliance set forth in section 41344.1, subdivision (d) and accordingly, CDE must reverse the $7,485,445 penalty assessed against CICA, pursuant to Education Code section 41344.1(c).

4. CDE's Determination Relied on Audit Findings Erroneous in Fact and Law

CICA specifically asserts that the Determination and the underlying findings contained in the State Audit Report are not supported by substantial evidence and are based on mistakes of law and fact. The Determination seems based entirely on the findings and conclusions of the State Audit Report, which did not consider CICA's currently scheduled payments by withholding for ADA revisions accepted by CDE during the 2024-2025 fiscal year. The amount assessed by the Determination does not even match the amounts described in the Audit Report's findings (Exhibit B, Appendix C, p. 91.) The Determination does not explain this discrepancy, nor the calculation used to arrive at this new amount.

Moreover, it appears that the State Auditor failed to correctly apply the statutory standards for student-to-teacher ratios when it found that CICA exceeded a 25:1 student-to-teacher ratio. (Exhibit B, p. 38.) As described above, the Auditor ignored applicable conditions of compliance under Education Code section 51745.6 when it applied the fixed 25:1 ratio without making any effort to determine the student-to-teacher ratio of the largest unified school district in which CICA operates. (Ibid.)

CDE made no findings of its own prior to adopting the State Audit Report's findings and did not consider the School's repayment efforts over the current year when it issued its Determination. As a result, the Determination, if not corrected or waived, will potentially lead to duplicative withholding by CDE when CICA has already gone beyond CDE's requirements with its ADA revisions. The School hereby requests the panel waive the $7,485,445 penalty assessed against CICA based on State Audit Report Finding 2024-106, pursuant to Education Code section 41344.1(c), because CICA substantially complied with its statutory obligations to correct and repay any disallowed apportionment, and CDE failed to consider the prior year revisions already submitted by CICA when it issued its Determination.

5. The CDE Exceeded Its Statutory Authority When It Imposed Penalties Without Review and Certification by the Controller.

According to the express language of Education Code section 41344, the state can only seek repayment from a local educational agency, including a charter school, based on reported average daily attendance. The statute sets forth the calculation of the penalty as follows:

> "In calculating a disallowed amount, the Controller shall determine the total amount of overpayment received by the local educational agency on the basis of average daily attendance, or other data, reported by the local educational agency that did not comply with one or more statutory or regulatory requirements that are conditions of apportionment." (Ed. Code § 41344, subd. (a)(1).)

The Controller has made no such determination here, and the conclusions of the State Audit Report do not on their own support withholding of funding. The State Auditor did not publish the underlying data or calculations it used to arrive at its final exception. Because the Report does not include the actual disallowed ADA in its findings, CDE apparently back-calculated the ADA reductions set forth in its letter from the dollar amounts listed in the audit report, dividing the dollar amounts by the per-ADA value for each category in their Penalty Calculator.[8] Yet, the Penalty Calculator is intended for use in determining the cost in dollars of an ADA exception, and does not provide a calculator for finding ADA reductions from a total dollar amount..[9]

For the reasons stated above and herein, CDE based its Determination on errors of fact and errors of law when it acted on the findings in the State Audit, amounting to an arbitrary and capricious penalty. Therefore, EAAP must direct CDE to waive $7,485,445 penalty assessed against CICA based on State Audit Report Finding 2024-106.

6. The Report Is Not an "Audit or Review" for the Purposes of Apportionment or Review Because the State Auditor Is Not an Agency Governed by the APA.

Subdivision (e)(1) defines the type of audit or review which triggers reductions in prior year apportionments: "As used in this section, "audit or review" means an audit conducted by the Controller's office, an annual audit conducted by a certified public accountant or a public accounting firm pursuant to Section 41020, and an audit or review conducted by a governmental agency that provided the local educational agency with an opportunity to provide a written response." Education Code 41344.1, subdivision (b), further sets forth that the panel shall consider audit appeals "pursuant to the administrative adjudication provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act … Chapter 4.5 (commencing with section 11400) and Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500…)." The State Auditor is specifically excepted by the APA's definition of an "agency" and therefore, the State Audit Report does not satisfy the statutory requirements to support a reduction of past apportionments or allow for EAAP jurisdiction.

The statutes establishing the State Auditor's Office (previously the Bureau of State Audits) clearly state that the legislature intended the office to wield independent review powers over state agencies like the California Department of Education ("CDE") and EAAP itself, as well as local agencies and recipients, "free of organizational impairments to independence…independent of the executive branch and legislative control." (Gov. Code § 8543, subd. (a).) As such, the State Auditor operates under the Milton Marks "Little Hoover" Commission on California State Government Organization and Economy, outside the administrative structure of the executive branch.[10] (Ibid.)

The Governor appoints the Auditor from a panel of three candidates nominated by the Joint Legislative Audit Committee, rather than the normal political appointment process. (Gov. Code § 8543.2.) The EAAP's authority derives in part from the Administrative Procedure Act ("APA"), and the APA does not apply to the State Audit under Chapter 5 of the APA.[11] The State Audit is not an adjudicative proceeding under Government Code section 11405.20 (Chapter 4.5, Article 2 of the APA) and section 11501, subdivision (b).

Education Code section § 41344.1, subd. (a) establishes that EAAP is an administrative and thus executive branch entity which may "consider audit appeals pursuant to the administrative adjudication provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act." While the State Auditor has never audited EAAP itself, the scope of the State Auditors' review powers and its express independence from "executive and legislative control" may preclude EAAP jurisdiction to review the Auditor's findings even under a broad reading of the EAAP's jurisdiction. In fact, allowing EAAP jurisdiction over State Audit findings related to apportionment might arguably be improper or contrary to legislative intent.

In contrast to the normal process for annual audits reviewable by the Education Audit Appeal Panel, the Controller has not certified the State Audit's findings or at least has not provided any such certification to CICA. The Determination's failure to account for prior year adjustments made in the current fiscal year demonstrates why this step is crucial. If CICA has already willingly paid back more through the apportionment process than the total exception found for CICA in the Audit Report, then CICA should not be subject to additional penalty by withholding. CICA hereby requests that EAAP vacate the imposed penalty described in CDE's letter of June 30, 2025, because CDE exceeded its statutory authority by failing to account for prior withholding and adjusting apportionments without reviewing CICA's current revised ADA reporting or seeking certification by the State Controller.

7. CDE's Letter Fails to Provide Administrative Due Process

CDE's letter does not meet administrative due process standards because it does not provide adequate notice or substantial evidence to support the penalty imposed, and because the agency did not expressly adopt any findings in the State Audit, identify the specific findings on which it based its determination that CICA did not meet funding conditions, make any specific findings of its own, provide CICA an opportunity for a written response, or consider the extensive remedial actions already taken or planned by CICA.

CICA further requests a finding that the Determination has no basis in an "audit or review" under the meaning of the statute because CDE did not investigate and make its own findings as recommended by the State Auditor. Moreover, the Determination does not fulfill statutory requirements or provide due process, such as adequate notice of violations found or opportunity to correct violations prior to assessment of a penalty. Indeed, CDE's letter does not reflect the same amount of disallowance reflected in the State Audit Report's findings but does not make any explanation of the discrepancy.

[10] The Little Hoover Commission is a legislative joint committee "constituted and acting as an investigating committee" with the "powers and duties imposed on such committees by the Joint Rules of the Senate and Assembly." (Gov. Code § 8504.)
[11] APA Chapter 4.5 applies to "any agency as determined by the statutes relating to that agency" or to adjudicative proceedings of agencies, "except as otherwise provided by statute."

The California Supreme Court has held that the requirements of due process extend to administrative adjudications affecting charter schools. (Today's Fresh Start, Inc. v. Los Angeles County Office of Education (2013) 57 Cal.4th 197, 214.) Due process requires reasonable notice before governmental action may deprive an individual of a significant property interest. (Bergeron v. Department of Health Services, 71 Cal. App. 4th 17, 23.) Adequate notice must give fair notice of conduct forbidden and required; specifically, "[i]n the administrative law context, the failure to give fair notice to a regulated entity of what is forbidden or required justifies vacating the imposed punishment resulting from the alleged violation of a regulation." (Kerman Telephone Co. v. Public Utilities Com. (2023) 94 Cal.App.5th 920, 931-932.). "More specifically in the administrative context, the Due Process Clause requires that agencies bringing an enforcement action 'provide,' through written guidance, regulations, or other activity, 'a person of ordinary intelligence fair notice of' what is prohibited or required." (Id. at 932, citing F.C.C. v. Fox Television Stations (2012) 567 U.S. 239, 253.)

"No matter the type of law an agency is enforcing, regulated parties are always entitled to fair notice of what is prohibited or required before they can be punished for a violation." (Kerman Telephone Co. v Public Utilities Com., supra at 94 Cal.App.5th, 932 [holding that failing to provide express notice of what constitutes a violation does not meet due process requirements].) Here, CDE's Determination provides vague and conclusory justifications as a basis for its extraordinary punitive action. (Exh. A.) It does not mention whether it in fact found that CICA violated any law or indeed what laws or conditions of funding CICA failed to satisfy, whether it found CICA has failed to address the State Auditor's findings, or any other specific justification. (Id.) It also failed to provide clear guidance in the first instance, which could have prevented this issue altogether.

The lack of specific findings or statutory violations to support CDE's action make it difficult to effectively appeal the decision. Without clear findings or legal authority, the Determination effectively denies CICA a meaningful opportunity to fully understand, appeal, or remediate compliance issues which the Department has identified as areas of special concern. In other words, CDE's lack of clear findings, omission of any statutory authority for collecting repayment of apportionment based on findings in a State Audit Report, and inadequate notice violate the school's right to procedural due process.

Crucially, CICA did not have fair and adequate notice of what CDE required in this situation to avoid a massive penalty prior to receiving the Determination. The CDE knew of CICA's unique position as an adult school serving students who sought a K-12 education because the School's charter was filed with CDE upon approval by the District. CDE knew of CICA's unique model for reaching an adult student population to whom mandatory attendance does not apply and certified its funding year after year without notifying CICA of additional compliance conditions, even after requesting substantial documentation of CICA's policies on these and other issues mentioned in the State Audit Report.

The findings of the State Audit Report do not provide this notice because it expands in an ex post facto fashion the required conditions of funding beyond the plain and previously understood meaning of statutory requirements that CICA "offer" instructional hours and "require" attendance. (Exh. B, p. 13.) Indeed, the Auditor seemed to hold CICA accountable for a burden of proof beyond a reasonable doubt that ADA attendance matched actual attendance, reaching far beyond the ordinary standards of practice for adult learning or for charter schools in an area lacking clear statutory guidance because of the unique nature of CICA's student body. (Exh. B, p.18.) For example, the Auditor stated that it based its finding on observations that the school's paper and electronic records did not match—a type of documentary proof not required by any law or statute—despite acknowledging that the school's electronic attendance satisfied the statutory requirement. (Id.)

The CDE's letter likewise provides no guidance to CICA as to how it may avoid fatal penalties for past or indeed future compliance requirements. (Exh. A.) The letter does not merely omit clear findings of fact—it provides no citation to statutory authority to justify its demand for repayment of prior apportionments. (Id.) Nor does it cite any statute or regulations with which CICA has failed to comply, let alone what the school must do to achieve full compliance. (Id.)

Because the CDE's letter lacks specific findings to support its action, identifies no statutory authority or violations, fails to provide adequate notice of what it requires of CICA, and provides no opportunity for corrective action to avoid the massive penalty, its apportionment adjustment does not meet procedural due process requirements for adverse action by an administrative agency. On its face, the lack of adequate notice denies CICA an opportunity for a fair appeal.

CDE's failure to investigate, make specific findings of fact, cite the statutory basis for the alleged violations and penalties, and provide CICA an opportunity to demonstrate compliance before imposing a penalty, constitutes a violation of administrative due process protections and does not even follow the recommendations of the State Auditor. CICA therefore requests that EAAP determine that the CDE exceeded its authority in assessing an unsupported, unreviewed penalty against CICA without providing sufficient information regarding the basis for its decision. CICA further requests that EAAP direct the agency to reverse its decision on the grounds that CICA substantially complied with the legal requirements at issue.

8. The CDE Is Estopped from Collecting Penalties Based on Equitable Principles.

Even if EAAP finds that CDE acted within its authority, that the State Audit Report made no mistakes of fact or law, and that CDE properly used the State Audit Report's findings in its determination, the penalty assessed by the Superintendent should be estopped based on equitable principles in the interest of justice. The doctrine of estoppel states that a penalty imposed by a public agency will not be upheld if the agency knew the facts, the agency intended the other party to rely on its conduct or acted such that the other party reasonably believed as much, the other party did not know the true facts, the other party relied on the agency's conduct to its detriment, and the agency's action would result in substantial injustice against the public interest.

The California Supreme Court, in Lentz v. McMahon (1989) 49 Cal.3d 393, concluded that equitable estoppel applied in the context of administrative hearings. In Lentz, citing Canfield v. Prod (1977) 67 Cal. App. 3d 722 and Long Beach v. Mansell [(1970) 3 Cal. 3d 462], the Supreme Court stated the four basic elements of estoppel: (1) the party to be estopped must be apprised of the facts; (2) he must intend that his conduct shall be acted upon, or must so act that the party asserting the estoppel had a right to believe it was so intended; (3) the other party must be ignorant of the true state of facts; and (4) he must rely upon the conduct to his injury.

In Mansell, supra, 3 Cal 3d 462, the court adopted a fifth element for estoppel of government agencies, which requires the balancing of the injustice of failing to apply equitable estoppel: "The government may be bound by an equitable estoppel in the same manner as a private party when the elements requisite to such estoppel against a private party are present, and, in the considered view of a court of equity, the injustice which would result from a failure to uphold an estoppel is of sufficient dimension to justify any effect upon public interest or policy which would result from the raising of an estoppel."

Strong public interest considerations support the continued operations of CICA. Requiring the repayment of CDE's assessed penalties on top of the ADA revisions made by CICA has already made would place the School in severe financial straits, even though the School has already rectified many of the alleged compliance issues flagged in the State Audit report and has committed to fully addressing the remaining issues. This is a substantial injustice which damages the public interest, including thousands of adult students in historically underserved communities.

Moreover, the School reasonably relied on the guidance and conduct of its oversight agencies, including CDE, which certified CICA's yearly apportionment for both school years now at issue. The School relied on the conduct and approval of CDE—the single state agency tasked with the oversight of public education which received and certified all attendance reports provided through TRUSD, CICA's local authorizing agency—to its detriment and now, potentially its destruction.

Additionally, in 2023, CDE requested documentation of CICA's policies and procedures in response to negative media reports. In response, the School provided extensive records of its policies and procedures to demonstrate its compliance. CDE never provided any follow-up determination or indeed any indication that the records provided did not meet the agency's compliance requirements and made no recommendations regarding ratios, credentialling, or attendance.

CDE, as the single state agency tasked with implementing statutes and regulations related to public education funding, knew or had reason to know what constituted compliance in connection with ADA reporting. CDE also knew or had reason to know CICA's policies and procedures related to the issues addressed in the audit. Knowing this information, CDE acted in a way which reasonably placed the School under the impression that their policies and procedures were compliant. The School had no reason to think otherwise and reasonably believed that CDE found CICA in compliance with all applicable laws and regulations. As a result, it relied on CDE's conduct to its detriment, resulting in an existential threat to CICA's continued operations in the present.

As such, the circumstances in which CICA finds itself today meet all five elements required for application of equitable estoppel of CDE's Determination. CDE cannot therefore collect the $7,485,445 penalty assessed against CICA based on State Audit Report Finding 2024-106 because to do so would violate principles of equity and fairness applicable to administrative agency.

Conclusion

The School is already seating a new Board of Directors, has changed its administrative leadership, laid off more than 600 teachers and staff based on the Auditor's findings that they did not meet required qualifications, and implemented even stricter attendance tracking and new fiscal policies to ensure the school meets the new bar of compliance set by the State Audit. Nonetheless, CDE failed to provide the School with any advance notice or opportunity to demonstrate its efforts to remediate the issues identified by the State Auditor—an opportunity which CICA, and most importantly its students, deserve. For the foregoing reasons, CICA respectfully requests that pursuant to Education Code section 41344.1 subdivision (d)(3), this body vacate CDE's Determination and waive the $7,485,445 penalty associated with Finding 2024-106.

The digital navigator contacted the teacher prior to contacting the student on 10/28. Teacher reached out to student today but got no answer. Teacher also sent a text and got no reply. Teacher updated the mentor. Student has not completed any work since re-enrolling in the program. Unsure if student is actually committed to working on their diploma. When asked, the student says they're interested but does not follow through with coming in person, picking up tech, or doing anything to indicate interest in completion.

6/29/2023		Concern about student's well being	This is a new student. He recently turned in several English A assignments at the same time. There are a few comments that raised red flags for me. I am attaching some of his work and have highlighted some of the comments. I helped the student edit some other comments that were inappropriate toward women. The other comments included here include profanity and violence (pages 13 and 14). I believe the students plays a lot of video games. He mentioned that he has no plans for the summer vacation other than to play World of Warcraft. Attaching a link to some of the work he submitted in class. On the last page (19) I highlighted that he doesn't feel comfortable sharing feelings with others. This concerns me because some of his comments in class lead me to believe he may have experienced trauma crossing borders and leaving Russia. [redacted]

12/4/2024		Attendance	Student continues to sign and leave. He has plenty of time to confront para-educators and site lead regarding me 'reporting' him to the principal, but he has no time to attend class. Since he is making para-educators uncomfortable, I have told them not to engage with him and send send him to me, but he refuses. I have tried everything to get this student to attend class and actually start learning, but I am at my wits end. Since the school doesn't have a policy regarding students who are just signing and leaving, and because of the lack of support in this matter, I have decided to just give up and let him continue this unacceptable behavior.

			Missed 8 consecutive days again. Contacted the student via email: Hello [redacted], I hope you're doing well. I wanted to reach out regarding your attendance in the trucking program. You have missed eight consecutive days, and according to school policy, this may result in being dropped from the program. If you are currently facing any hardships or health issues, I encourage you to speak with your counselor about the possibility of a Leave of Absence (LOA) and inform us accordingly. If you are still interested in continuing the program and obtaining your CDL with us, your attendance and commitment are essential. You are required to be at school five days a week from 8:30 AM to 3:45 PM and actively make progress to remain in good standing. Please let us know how you would like to proceed. I look forward to your response. Best regards,

And I said "Oh okay, sounds good. But do you have any work done for the books so far?" And she said "Yeah." So I said "Great. That's what I would need to see." She gave me a look and said "I don't understand why you need to see the book if I don't have it all done yet?" And I said "It's just what I was asked to do. Any time that I'm requesting to see something it's not for any personal reason other than to check progress." And she said "Oh. Well I didn't know that. I thought you just were wanting to." And I said "That's interesting, why would you think that? We need to show that you're making some progress because if we look at the last time you've made progress in a class until now, it's been a long time." Interaction ended with her saying "Well, regardless, you're going to get these books by next week so boom, you'll have it by then." Then she left. 7/25/2024		attendance policy	[redacted] interrupted my class today to let me know that he is not happy about the strict attendance policy. He told me his wife 'has a lot of problems and can't come to class' due to their child being disabled. I explained to him this is not a classroom rule that I made up, and that the whole school and all teachers and staff need to follow it. He replied 'I guess I'll need to talk to the manager then'. I told him we could set up a meeting with the principal, but that we absolutely cannot mark people present when they are not attending class. I offered CICA as an alternative and he said he had already talked to Fatemeh about it. I told him I was in the middle of instruction, and that I would be happy to continue the conversation after class. He got up and left. I then checked the attendance sheet and noticed signatures for both him and his wife. Since I have never seen her, I don't know if she was actually present on site today. I immediately reported this to my principal, and a meeting between him and [redacted] was scheduled.

9/24/2024	engagment	The student notified us and provided a doctor's note for his absence over the past two weeks.
10/21/2024	Falsifying Attendance	During a meeting with Michael, the counselor, on 10/21/24, I reviewed the student's graduation progress and noticed that the student had signed my attendance sheet for the entire week of 10/14/24-10/19/24. However, according to my daily attendance submission on Powerschool, the student was only present for two out of the five days during that week. This indicates that the student falsified her attendance by signing in for days she was not present.
2/20/2025	Homework and Attendance	I made multiple attempts to contact the student regarding their homework and attendance, but they did not respond.
3/19/2025	In-person Re-engagement	This week on Monday I called the student to remind him about our 10-day disenrollment policy. At the time of the phone call the student was on site to socialize and not to attend class. The student answered the phone call and came to the classroom to talk in person with me and the teacher. He was notified that he missed 10 days in a row, and he agreed to attend at least 3 times a week.

3/10/2025	Low attendance	Student usually just signs in but doesn’t stay for lessons or participate. They often leave early or don’t engage.
3/10/2025	Low attendance	Student has been absent most of the time and leaves early when they do attend. There has been no improvement in their work, and they show little interest in learning or participating.

[redacted]	[redacted]	3/24/2025	Low attendance	The student has the current attendance of 30%. She comes to classes without any preparation, never shows her teacher ANY homework she completed. There was no written work submitted by her during the time of her attendance. During the class she doesn't actively participate, she leaves the classroom during teacher's important explanations and/or practice, reducing already little time for herself to learn more. At the same time the student consistently expects the teacher to cater exclusively to her learning needs, anticipating explanations tailored solely to her requests irrespective of the presence of 40 other students in the class. The student's resentful reactions aren't uncommon, as she frequently exhibits a begrudging attitude which doesn't help create an efficient educational path for her despite the teachers efforts.
		10/24/2024	Meeting with Student on Falsifying Atten	Spoke to student to explain the situation about falsifying attendance. She explained that she forgot what day it was and signed for the incorrect date. I informed her that if she mistakenly signs in for the wrong day in the future, she must notify me immediately so that I can correct and sign it off. I also clarified that failure to do so would be considered falsifying attendance, which would need to be reported and could result in disciplinary action. Student acknowledged this and agreed to comply with the procedure. However, shortly after our conversation, she signed the attendance sheet for the wrong day again. I corrected the mistake and signed it off.
