5113.1 BP Attendance Enforcement

Board Policy

Purpose

Highlands Community Charter and Technical Schools (HCCTS) is committed to ensuring accurate attendance tracking, compliance with state and federal regulations, and maintaining high academic engagement among students. This policy establishes clear attendance enforcement measures to address chronic absenteeism, fraudulent attendance practices, and disengagement, ensuring all students receive meaningful instruction and meet academic progress expectations.

Scope

This policy applies to all HCCTS students, faculty, and staff responsible for attendance tracking and enforcement.

Policy Statement

To maintain compliance with attendance regulations and uphold educational integrity, HCCTS enforces the following attendance requirements:

- 80% Daily Attendance Rule: Students must be present for at least 80% of scheduled instructional hours weekly.
- 15-Minute Rule: Students who check in but leave within the first 15 minutes of class without prior approval will be marked absent. Repeated violations may result in intervention and disenrollment.
- Meaningful Engagement: Attendance is verified by meaningful engagement. Students who check in but fail to participate meaningfully will be marked absent.
- Forgery of Attendance Records: Any student found falsifying attendance records, including signing in for another student, will face disciplinary action, including possible suspension, expulsion, or disenrollment.
- Independent Study & Attendance Compliance: Students in independent study must meet assignment completion requirements to receive attendance credit. Failure to do so will trigger intervention measures per BP 6158.1 and 6158.2

Progressive Attendance Enforcement & Intervention

HCCTS employs tiered intervention strategies to support students struggling with attendance before taking disciplinary action:

1. Automated Notifications: Robo-calls, text messages, and emails will alert students of attendance deficiencies in real time.
2. Counseling & Support: Students flagged for low attendance will be contacted by counselors to assess barriers and develop a support plan.
3. Attendance Contracts: Students with ongoing attendance issues may be placed on a probationary attendance contract outlining expectations and consequences.

4. Disenrollment Procedures: Students failing to meet attendance requirements after documented interventions may be disenrolled following due process, as outlined in BP 5111.5 (Disenrollment).

This policy outlines procedures for managing class sizes and enrollment, considering the flexible attendance patterns of Highlands Community Charter School (HCCS) students.

Scope

This policy applies to all HCCS students and governs class size management, student-teacher ratios, and enrollment procedures.

Policy Statement

While California does not mandate class size limits for grades 9-12, HCCTS recognizes the importance of maintaining class sizes that promote a productive learning environment, reduce teacher workload, and enhance student engagement. Optimal class sizes are essential to support personalized instruction, improve student outcomes, and foster academic success. The Board of Directors, in consultation with the Executive Director, will establish appropriate class size limits that align with HCCTS' instructional goals and student needs.

Class Size Guidelines

- Student-to-Teacher Ratios: Class sizes will be managed to ensure student-to-teacher ratios that support personalized instruction and academic success.
- Program-Specific Adjustments: Class sizes may vary depending on the nature of the program (e.g., independent study, bridge programs, or high school completion).

Enrollment Management

- Enrollment Caps: Each classroom will have an enrollment cap aligned with physical capacity and instructional goals.
- Monitoring and Rebalancing: HCCS Principals will regularly monitor enrollment and class sizes, making adjustments as needed to maintain educational quality and compliance with capacity guidelines.
- Cross-Reference with Physical Capacity: Class sizes and enrollment numbers will be managed in coordination with physical capacity limits as outlined in BP 7110 Physical Classroom Capacity to ensure compliance with Fire Marshal regulations and building codes.

Impact on Instruction and Student Outcomes

- Teacher Workload: Class size limits will be established to reduce teacher workload and promote effective instruction.
- Student Engagement: Class sizes will be prioritized in courses requiring intensive instruction or student participation.

Ongoing Evaluation of Class Size Effectiveness
The Executive Director or designee shall regularly submit reports to the Board of Directors evaluating the effectiveness of class size policies. These reports will assess the impact on student achievement, teacher workload, and alignment with HCCTS' strategic goals. Adjustments will be made as necessary based on these evaluations.

Oversight and Review
The Executive Director or designee will oversee the implementation of this policy and ensure alignment with HCCS' instructional goals. The Board of Directors will review this policy periodically to assess its effectiveness and adjust class size targets as necessary.

6170 BP Student-to-Teacher/Paraeducator Ratios

Board Policy

Purpose

Highlands Community Charter and Technical Schools (HCCTS) is committed to maintaining student-to-teacher and paraeducator ratios that support instructional quality, student achievement, and compliance with safety standards. This policy outlines guidelines for determining and managing these ratios, considering the flexible attendance patterns unique to HCCTS' K-12 adult learner population.

Scope

This policy applies to all instructional programs, staff, and students at HCCTS, including independent study, bridge programs, and high school completion pathways.

Policy Statement

HCCTS recognizes that maintaining appropriate student-to-teacher and paraeducator ratios is essential to fostering a positive learning environment and meeting individual student needs. While California Education Code does not mandate class size limits for K-12 with adult learners or grades 9-12, HCCTS establishes ratios to promote instructional effectiveness and ensure student safety.

Student-to-Teacher Ratios

- General Instructional Settings:
  - The number of students in any one class will not exceed the capacity of the classroom.
  - Regardless of classroom capacity, no student-to-teacher ratio for a given class will exceed 40:1.
- Independent Study Program:
  - In the Independent Study Program, HCCTS will adhere to the maximum student-to-teacher ratio required by California Education Code § 51745.6 which sets the maximum enrollment ratios at 30:1 with a maximum ADA ratio at 25:1.

Student-to-Paraeducator Ratios

- General Classroom Support:
  - Paraeducators will be assigned based on instructional need, with a target ratio of 1 paraeducator per 120 students shared across classrooms that require additional support for differentiated instruction.
- Specialized Instruction and Student Support Services:
  - Additional staff support will be provided for classrooms where a student has an SST or 504 requires it.

Alignment with Class Capacity and Enrollment Policies

This policy aligns with BP 6151 Class Sizes and Enrollment and BP 7110 Physical Classroom Capacity. Student-to-teacher and paraeducator ratios will be managed in coordination with enrollment numbers and physical capacity limits to ensure a safe, effective, and compliant learning environment.

Monitoring and Adjustments

- Regular Reviews: The Executive Director or designee will regularly review staffing assignments and ratios to ensure they meet instructional goals and student needs.
- Adjustments Based on Program Needs: Ratios may be adjusted for specific programs or instructional settings based on student enrollment, attendance patterns, and instructional goals.

Oversight and Review

The Executive Director or designee will oversee the implementation of this policy, ensuring alignment with HCCTS' instructional goals and compliance with applicable laws. The Board of Directors will review this policy periodically to assess its effectiveness and make adjustments as necessary.

Legal Compliance

This policy complies with applicable California Education Code provisions related to instructional staffing, including § 56362 for paraeducator assignments in special education settings.

Purpose

Highlands Community Charter and Technical Schools (HCCTS) is committed to maintaining safe classroom environments that comply with California Building Codes and Fire Marshal regulations. This policy outlines procedures for determining and enforcing physical classroom capacity to ensure the safety and well-being of students and staff.

Scope

This policy applies to all seat-based classrooms and instructional spaces at Highlands Community Charter School (HCCS).

California Building Code and Fire Marshal Requirements

HCCS will ensure all classrooms and instructional spaces comply with applicable California Building Codes and Fire Marshal occupancy limits. The following steps will be taken to guarantee compliance:

- Occupancy Limits: Classrooms will have clearly posted maximum occupancy limits based on Fire Marshal guidelines.
- Regular Inspections: Facility staff will conduct periodic inspections to ensure compliance with all safety codes.

Non-Compliance and Remediation

- Monitoring: HCCS Principals will monitor classroom capacities for compliance.
- Remediation: Any classroom exceeding its occupancy limit will be identified for remediation, including adjusting classroom configurations or limiting physical attendance.
- Cross-Reference with Class Sizes and Enrollment: Classroom capacity limits will be monitored in conjunction with enrollment and attendance patterns outlined in BP 6151 Class Sizes and Enrollment to ensure that physical safety standards are met while supporting flexible student attendance.

Subject: NOC/RFI - CTE Truck Driving Program
TRUSD Additional Requests for Information re HCCTS' 12/20/24 Response

Dear Ms. Carreon,

On February 3, 2025, HCCTS received a notice of concern/request for information from TRUSD regarding the CTE Truck Driving Program.

On December 16, 2024, the HCCTS HR Department, in collaboration with Pat Keller, a private investigator contracted by HCCTS, began investigating the HCCTS Truck Driving Program. As part of this investigation, Jasmine Gibbs, the Director of HR, together with Mr. Keller conducted interviews with HCCTS truck driving employees, former HCCTS students, employees from Local 185 Union, the Sacramento Police Department, and others.

On March 27, 2025, HCCTS completed the investigation and prepared the following letter in response.

If you would like to discuss the report in greater detail or have any additional questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to contact me at 559-217-3901 or via email at bill.mcguire@hccts.org

Thank you,

Bill McGuire
Executive Director

1. CTE Truck Driving for Non-Students

Work Calendars
Attached you will find Mr. Ivaniuk's employment contracts, which show time and days worked for the 2018-19, 2019-20, 2020-21, 2021-22, and 2022-23 school years.

Class Schedules
Attached you will find the HCCTS bell schedules for the 2018-2019, 2019-20, 2020-21, 2021-22, and 2022-23 school years. The bell schedules utilized in the 2014-17 school years were the same ones utilized for the following two years, 2017-18 and 2018-19.

Non-Student Schedules
During the first two meetings with Sergey Ivanyuk, Truck Driving Program Coordinator, he stated that the non-students would attend class on weekends and they would stop by during the week to take tests. After further investigation, it was discovered that non-students attended the truck driving classes any time during the day. In the interview with Sergeant Nicholas Fox of the Sacramento Police Department held on February 5, 2025, he stated that: "At some point, they were told they could only come in the mornings between 6:00 AM and 8:00 AM". Mr. Fox was unaware of any officers attending the HCCTS Truck Driving Program on the weekends. Due to the number of inconsistencies in interviews and documentation, we are unable to verify the schedules of non-students.

Sergey Ivanyuk is the person responsible for managing the program and creating and keeping all of the administrative records. During the investigation, he provided many documents that were inaccurate, including data discrepancies that cannot be verified.

In response to the following requests:

> A summary of the instances where non-students "stopped by throughout the week" for tests. As part of this summary, include information about whether non-students ever scheduled the visits in advance, how they knew when Mr. Ivaniuk would be available, whether HCCTS students were ever present during these visits, and whether the visits ever took place within Mr. Ivaniuk's HCCTS work hours. HCCTS does not have this information.
> Outline the support Mr. Ivaniuk provided to non-students to assist them in acquiring their license (i.e., 15 hours of "behind-the-wheel" training, study materials for road and/or written tests, instruction to prepare for the road and written tests, etc). HCCTS does not have this information.

Outline the process Mr. Ivaniuk followed when administering tests and include the approximate duration for these assessments. This outline should include information about assessments for pre-trip, general knowledge, drive/road, brake, and skills tests as described in the comments section of the student lesson documents provided by HCCTS. HCCTS does not have this information.

2. Data Discrepancies Between Students and Non-Students

On January 14, 2025, HCCTS Leadership submitted a written directive to Sergey Ivanyuk, the Truck Driving Program Coordinator, to stop serving non-students in the Truck Driving Program. While HCCTS reported the discontinuation of serving non-students effective January 6, 2025, it wasn't until January 14, 2025, that HCCTS stopped the participation of all non-students in all its programs and is only serving enrolled HCCTS students, to the best of my knowledge.

3. Partnerships and Scholarships

HCCTS alumni enrolled in the truck driving program through the Doc Smith Legacy Foundation Scholarship Program (DSLF). To start the process, alumni would submit an application to the foundation, and it would be reviewed by Mike Reid (former HCCTS Chief Operations Officer), current President of the Doc Smith Legacy Foundation and HCCTS Board member, as well as Murdock Smith (former HCCTS Executive Director). If the scholarship application was approved by Mike Reid and Doc Smith, then the DSLF agreed to cover the tuition expenses for the student. Two HCCTS alumni students were granted scholarships to attend the Truck Driving program. According to a statement by Mike Reid via email on March 13, 2025, a transfer of $3800 was made from DSLF to HCCTS for these alumni students. During an interview with Lee Farrand, Director of CTE, she stated: "To my knowledge, no money has ever been exchanged for those students."

According to our financial records and Matthew Lemos, HCCTS Chief Business Official, one fiscal exchange occurred between the DSLF and HCCTS, and it was not related to scholarships.

Partnerships and Local Union 185

On February 25, 2025, in a phone interview with Doyle Radford Jr, the Business Manager at Local 185 Union, the following work was provided to

HCCTS by Local 185 in the 2019-2020 school year:

- Pre-apprentice work, including parking lot slurry and stripping
- The Northern California Construction Training (NCCT) provided demolition work
- Over the last few years, Local 185 purchased some delineators and about $800 in tools that they donated to the HCCTS Truck Driving Program

The union then stopped providing labor to HCCTS over liability concerns in the event someone may be injured.

Please note the distinction between Doyle Radford Senior and Doyle Radford Junior. Doyle Radford Sr was a former HCCTS board member from May 8, 2014 to July 13, 2023. Doyle Radford Jr is a business manager at Local 185 and Doyle Radford Senior's son.

Partnerships and Sacramento Police Department and Sacramento County Sheriff's Office

During the investigation process, Sergey Ivanuyk, the Truck Driving Program Coordinator, stated that no fiscal exchanges occurred between HCCTS and the Police Department or the Sacramento Sheriff's Office. On February 5, 2025, in the phone interview with Sergeant Nicholas Fox from the Sacramento Police Department (SPD), Mr. Fox confirmed that nobody from the SPD paid any money to HCCTS or any HCCTS employees for the driving instructions. The following Sacramento Police Officers attended the training:

- Nicholas Fox
- Andrew Ryan
- Brock O'Shaunessy
- Tyler Curtis
- Fredrick Osmond
- Steve Colombo (Discontinued on January 10, 2025)
- Amber Hickey
- Alexis Grove: He was attending the program when the directive to stop was given

Following the review of canceled DMV checks, the investigator was able to locate a $98.00 check that had been used by Amber Hickey, a Sacramento Police Department officer, in April 2024 for her Commercial Licence Permit. A review of the DOT medical payment records showed that in July 2022, HCCTS paid for a Sacramento Sheriff's deputy's DOT medical and urine test (in the amount of $167. Sergey Ivaniuk, Truck Driving Program Coordinator, admitted he would have been the one that issued the DMV check to her and then stated: " I don't know what happened, but we never covered them."

Ivanyuk continued to say he never gave checks to law enforcement and then said, “I don’t recall why I did it. But yes. That’s me. I did it.”

The investigation into the truck driving program will conclude with disciplinary action. HCCTS has had a new MOU to be provided to the sheriff’s office and police department as other government agencies to provide services in which liability and compensation issues are resolved.

Subject: Notice of Complaint/Request for Information for CTE Truck Driving Program - TRUSD Requests regarding HCCTS' 11/1/24 Response

Dear Ms. Carreon,

On December 2, 2024, HCCTS received a follow-up response from TRUSD regarding the CTE Truck Driving program. We have prepared the following letter in response.

If you have any additional questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to contact me at 559-217-3901 or via email at bill.mcguire@hccts.org

Thank you,

Bill McGuire
Executive Director
Highlands Community Charter and Technical Schools

Volunteer Teacher
Since 2014, there has been only one truck driving teacher at the HCCTS truck driving program, Sergey Ivaniuk who confirmed that he volunteered his time to provide instruction to the non-students.

Non-Student Instructional Days
According to the information provided by Sergey Ivaniuk, Truck Driving Coordinator, in the meeting held on October 18, 2024, with the Director of Accountability and Assessment, Melissa Roberson, the direct instruction and classes for non-students were only held on the first and third Saturday of the month seasonally since 2014. Upon further investigation during the December 4, 2024 meeting between the Director of Accountability and Assessment, Melissa Roberson, Sergey Ivanyuk revealed that while the direct instruction was held on the weekends, students stopped by during the week to take tests. He also stated that he could not turn the students away. According to Sergey, there is no additional documentation regarding the non-student participation in the Truck Driving program.

Non-Student Data Discrepancy
HCCTS informed TRUSD that 49 non-students had utilized the truck driving program since 2014 because that was the information provided by Sergey Ivanyuk on October 18, 2024. As identified by TRUSD, 49 was an error since one student's name occurred on the list twice, so HCCTS should have reported 48.

Following the most recent request from TRUSD which contained an additional list of students and non-students, Sergey revealed that due to poor record keeping, he was unable to verify the total number of non-student participants who had utilized the truck driving program. He did however confirm that of the 12 names on the “Unofficial Class A Awards” document sent by TRUSD to HCCTS, 10 of them were non-students, one was a student at CICA, and one was a student at Highlands. Please see below.

RE: Notice of Complaint/Request for Information for CTE Truck Driving Program - TRUSD Requests regarding HCCTS' 11/1/24 Response

Dear Mr. McGuire:

As the authorizing entity for the Highlands Community Charter and Technical Schools' ("HCCTS"), the Twin Rivers Unified School District ("District") is required to provide oversight of HCCTS regarding compliance with its approved Charter, the Memorandum of Understanding between the District and HCCTS regarding the Charter School's operations and oversight, and laws applicable to their charter school operation.

As a reminder, per Education Code section 47604.3, HCCTS "shall promptly respond to all reasonable inquiries" from the District and "shall consult with" the District "regarding any inquiries." We believe that timely responses by HCCTS to the concerns identified in this Notice is critical to fulfilling our oversight function/responsibilities as authorizer and HCCTS' cooperation is mandated.

On September 6, 2024, the District received a complaint alleging that HCCTS allows non-students to participate in the CTE Truck Driving certification courses. In its Notice of Complaint/Request for Information dated October 3, 2024, the District requested a response to multiple items by no later than 5:00 p.m. on November 1, 2024. HCCTS responded on November 1, 2024 at 3:34 p.m.

Outlined below is a summary of the District's findings and additional actions required based on our review of HCCTS' response.

1. CTE Truck Driving for Non-Students

TRUSD Findings

- HCCTS stated "The teacher of the truck driving program volunteered to teach them on the first and third Saturdays of the month seasonally each year." However, in the RFI CTE Truck Driving Program forms provided by HCCTS the District found only three "Lessons" that occurred on a Saturday and of those three, only one fell on the first or third Saturday.

While these forms may include notes for dates in which students did not attend class, many of the notes do indicate in-person training, specifically as seen in the comments and rating columns.

Information Request – Action Needed

- Confirm that the teacher who volunteered back in 2014 has remained with the program through 2023-24 and/or confirm that all teachers of the CTE Truck driving program that provided instruction to non-students also volunteered their time.

- Explain the discrepancies between HCCTS' assertion that trainings were conducted on the 1st and 3rd Saturday and the documentation which shows trainings mainly taking place Monday – Friday.

2. Data Discrepancy Between Students and Non-Students

TRUSD Findings

- HCCTS stated that 49 non-students in the last 10 years have utilized the truck driving facilities. However, in the 49-page response, HCCTS provided proof of 48 students, with one student listed on two pages (Celest McPeak).

- The District had been made aware of 12 additional students who participated in the CTE Truck Driving course during the 2023-24 school year, which were not included in HCCTS' response.

Information Request – Action Needed

- Please provide documentation for the additional 49th student that was missing in the November 1 response and confirm whether each of the individuals listed in the table below were students or non-students. Include in your response documentation for teacher instruction/in-person training days for the students listed below.

2. Partnerships

TRUSD Findings

- The District noted multiple categories for each non-student including "labor union", "VOA", and "Scholarship". In the November 1 response, HCCTS provided an explanation for the Local #185.

- HCCTS stated that Board Member Doyle Radford tapped the Local #185 union in early days (2014), but this union is referenced as recently as 2021.

Information Request - Action Needed

- Please provide an explanation for the labor unions identified other than Local #185. Include any documentation which reflects agreements and/or partnerships.

- Describe what each designation means, specifically what is "VOA" and what is meant by "scholarship". Include in your response, records/documentation of all moneys collected for the CTE Truck Driving program for non-student participation.

- Since Mr. Radford is no longer on the Board, please clarify your current connection to the Local #185 and outline the agreement regarding free training in return for in-kind improvements/facility repairs for the 2023-24 school year. Include in your response documentation for the improvements and/or repairs that HCCTS received during the 2023-24 school year.

Within 10 calendar days from the date of this letter, please provide a timeline for when HCCTS expects to provide the information and records responsive to this request. Please contact Sharilyn Warta (sharilyn.warta@trusd.net) if you need any clarification regarding the above items.

Your response should be directed to the District for my attention. Thank you for your attention to this correspondence and anticipated cooperation.

Sincerely,

4.2 If Master Lessor's consent or approval of a sublease is required, then Sublessor shall, at Sublessor's sole cost and expense, use Sublessor's reasonable best efforts to obtain such consent or approval, and Agent shall not be entitled to the Agreed Commission for such sublease unless Master Lessor's consent or approval is obtained or waived by Sublessor and sublessee.

4.3 In calculating the Agreed Commission, all forms of consideration payable to Sublessor shall be considered, including, without limitation, Rent, goodwill and key money. If Sublessor is released from future rent liability under the Master Lease, the Agreed Commission shall be calculated on the basis of the total Rent which otherwise would have been due from Sublessor for the remaining term of the Master Lease.

5. ALTERNATIVE TRANSACTION. Agent shall also be Sublessor's sole and exclusive agent for an assignment of Sublessor's interest in the Master Lease ("Alternative Transaction") and represent Sublessor in such Alternative Transaction, under the terms and conditions of this Agreement. If, during the Term hereof, an Alternative Transaction is entered into, then Sublessor shall pay Agent the Agreed Commission.

6. EXCLUDED AND REGISTERED PERSONS.

6.1 Sublessor shall, within 5 business days after the date hereof, provide Agent, in writing, with the names of those persons or entities registered with Sublessor by any other broker under any prior agreement concerning subleasing of the Property ("Excluded Persons", see Paragraph 6.5). If any such names are so provided, then the Commission paid to Agent with respect to consummation of a transaction with an Excluded Person shall be limited as follows: if such transaction is concluded within the first 30 days of the commencement of the Term hereof, then Agent shall be paid a commission equal to the reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred by Agent in the marketing of the Property during said 30 days; or if such transaction is concluded during the remainder of the Term hereof, then Agent shall be entitled to one-half of the Agreed Commission. If no names are provided as specified, it shall be conclusively deemed that there are no Excluded Persons.

6.2 Agent shall, within 5 business days after the expiration of the Term hereof, provide Sublessor, in writing, with the names of those persons or entities with whom Agent either directly or through another broker had negotiated for a sublease of the Property during the term hereof ("Registered Persons", see Paragraph 6.5). Those persons or entities who submitted written offers or letters of intent for a sublease of the Property shall, however, automatically be Registered Persons. If Agent fails to timely notify Sublessor of the existence of any other Registered Persons, then it shall be conclusively deemed that there are no other Registered Persons. If Agent wishes to register the client of a Cooperating Broker, Agent must obtain and submit to Sublessor written approval of such registration signed by such Cooperating Broker. The parties are aware that the registration of certain individuals and/or entities might create a Dual Agency, and Sublessor hereby consents to any such Dual Agency.

6.3 If, within 180 days after the expiration of the Term hereof, Sublessor enters into a contract with a Registered Person for consummation of a sublease of the Property, then Sublessor shall pay Agent the Agreed Commission for such sublease upon the consummation of such sublease.

6.4 If, within 180 days after the expiration of the Term hereof, Sublessor enters into another sublessor-agency or listing agreement with a broker other than Agent for any transaction concerning the Property, then Sublessor shall provide to Sublessor's new broker the names of the Registered Persons, and provide in such new agreement that the new broker shall not be entitled to receive any of the compensation payable to Agent hereunder for consummation of a sublease of the Property with a Registered Person.

6.5 In order to qualify to be an Excluded Person or a Registered Person the individual or entity must have: toured the Property, submitted a letter of interest or intent, and/or made an offer to lease the Property. In addition, Excluded Persons may only be registered by a broker who previously had a valid listing agreement covering the Property, and such broker may only register individuals and entities actually procured by such listing broker.

7. SUBLESSOR'S REPRESENTATIONS.

7.1 Sublessor represents and warrants as follows:

(a) Each person executing this Agreement on behalf of Sublessor has the full right, power and authority to execute this Agreement as or on behalf of Sublessor;

(b) Sublessor has the full right, power and authority to execute and deliver this Agreement, to consummate a sublease of the Property and to perform Sublessor's obligations hereunder;

(c) The execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement by Sublessor or Agent will not breach any provision of the Master Lease;

(d) Sublessor is not the subject of a bankruptcy, insolvency, probate or conservatorship proceeding;

(e) There are no effective, valid or enforceable option rights, rights of first refusal, rights of first offer or any other restrictions, impediments or limitations on Sublessor's right, ability and capacity to consummate a sublease of the Property, except as disclosed in writing pursuant to Paragraph 3.3(d).

8. SUBLESSOR'S ACKNOWLEDGMENTS. Sublessor acknowledges that it has been advised by Agent to consult and retain experts to advise and represent it concerning the legal and tax effects of this Agreement and the subletting of the Property, as well as the condition and/or legality of the Property, including, but not limited to, the environmental aspects. Agent shall have no obligation to investigate any such matters unless expressly otherwise agreed to in writing by Sublessor and Agent. Sublessor further acknowledges that in determining the financial soundness of any prospective Sublessee or security offered, Sublessor will rely solely upon Sublessor's own investigation, notwithstanding Agent's assistance in gathering such information.

9. MISCELLANEOUS.

9.1 This Agreement shall not be construed either for or against Sublessor or Agent, but shall be interpreted, construed and enforced in accordance with the mutual intent of the parties ascertainable from the language of this Agreement. Signatures to this Agreement accomplished by means of electronic signature or similar technology shall be legal and binding.

9.2 All payments by Sublessor to Agent shall be made in lawful United States currency. If Sublessor fails to pay to Agent any amount when due under this Agreement, then such amount shall bear interest at the rate of 15% per annum or the maximum rate allowed by law, whichever is less.

9.3 In the event of litigation or arbitration between Sublessor and Agent arising under or relating to this Agreement or the Property, the prevailing party shall be paid its attorney's fees and costs by the losing party. The term, "Prevailing Party" shall include, without limitation, one who substantially obtains or defeats the relief sought, as the case may be, whether by compromise, settlement, judgment, or the abandonment by the other party of its claim or defense. The attorney's fees award shall not be computed in accordance with any court fee schedule, but shall be in an amount to fully reimburse all attorney's fees reasonably incurred in good faith.

9.4 Sublessor agrees to indemnify, defend (with counsel reasonably acceptable to Agent), and hold Agent harmless from and against any claim or liability asserted against Agent as a result of the failure of Sublessor to make a full and complete disclosure pursuant to law and paragraph 3.3 or as a result of the fact that any of the representations made by Sublessor (see paragraph 7) were not true at the time that this Agreement was signed.

9.5 Sublessor hereby releases and relieves Agent, and waives Sublessor's entire right of recovery against Agent, for direct or consequential loss or damage arising out of or incident to the perils covered by insurance carried by Sublessor, whether or not due to the negligence of Agent.

9.6 Sublessor agrees that no lawsuit or other legal proceeding involving any breach of duty, error or omission relating to the services to be performed by Agent pursuant to this Agreement may be brought against Agent more than one year after the expiration of the Term of this Agreement (see paragraph 1.4) and that the liability (including court costs and attorney's fees) of Agent with respect to any such lawsuit and/or legal proceeding shall not exceed any fee received by Agent pursuant to this Agreement; provided, however, that the foregoing limitation on liability shall not be applicable to any gross negligence or willful misconduct of Agent.

10. ARBITRATION OF DISPUTES.

10.1 ANY CONTROVERSY ARISING UNDER OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE DETERMINED BY BINDING ARBITRATION TO BE CONDUCTED BY: ☑ THE AMERICAN ARBITRATION ASSOCIATION OR ☐ ____ USING THE COMMERCIAL RULES ESTABLISHED BY SUCH ORGANIZATION OR IF NONE THE AMERICAN ARBITRATION ASSOCIATION'S COMMERCIAL RULES. ARBITRATION HEARINGS SHALL BE HELD IN THE COUNTY WHERE THE PROPERTY IS LOCATED.

potential buyer/lessee and the Sublessor: a. Diligent exercise of reasonable skills and care in performance of the agent's duties. b. A duty of honest and fair dealing and good faith. c. A duty to disclose all facts known to the agent materially affecting the value or desirability of the property that are not known to, or within the diligent attention and observation of, the Parties. An agent is not obligated to reveal to either Party any confidential information obtained from the other Party which does not involve the affirmative duties set forth above.

(ii) Agent Representing Both Parties. A real estate agent, either acting directly or through one or more associate licensees, can legally be the agent of both Parties in a transaction, but only with the knowledge and consent of the Parties. In a dual agency situation, the agent has the following affirmative obligations to both Parties: a. A fiduciary duty of utmost care, integrity, honesty and loyalty in the dealings with either Party. b. Other duties to the Sublessor as stated above in subparagraph (i). When representing both Parties, an agent may not without the express permission of the respective Party, disclose to the other Party that the Sublessor will accept rent/purchase price in an amount less than that indicated in the listing or that the buyer/lessee is willing to pay a higher rent/purchase price than that offered.

The above duties of the Agent do not relieve Sublessor from the responsibility to protect its own interests. Sublessor should carefully read all agreements to assure that they adequately express its understanding of the transaction.

DISCLOSURE REGARDING REAL ESTATE AGENCY RELATIONSHIP

(As required by the Civil Code)

When you enter into a discussion with a real estate agent regarding a real estate transaction, you should from the outset understand what type of agency relationship or representation you wish to have with the agent in the transaction.

SELLER'S AGENT

A Seller's agent under a listing agreement with the Seller acts as the agent for the Seller only. A Seller's agent or a subagent of that agent has the following affirmative obligations:

To the Seller: A fiduciary duty of utmost care, integrity, honesty and loyalty in dealings with the Seller.

To the Buyer and the Seller:

(a) Diligent exercise of reasonable skill and care in performance of the agent's duties.

(b) A duty of honest and fair dealing and good faith.

(c) A duty to disclose all facts known to the agent materially affecting the value or desirability of the property that are not known to, or within the diligent attention and observation of, the parties.

An agent is not obligated to reveal to either party any confidential information obtained from the other party that does not involve the affirmative duties set forth above.

BUYER'S AGENT

A Buyer's agent can, with a Buyer's consent, agree to act as agent for the Buyer only. This includes a Buyer's agent under a buyer-broker representation agreement with the Buyer. In these situations, the agent is not the Seller's agent, even if by agreement the agent may receive compensation for services rendered, either in full or in part from the Seller. An agent acting only for a Buyer has the following affirmative obligations:

To the Buyer: A fiduciary duty of utmost care, integrity, honesty and loyalty in dealings with the Buyer.

To the Buyer and the Seller:

(a) Diligent exercise of reasonable skill and care in performance of the agent's duties.

(b) A duty of honest and fair dealing and good faith.

(c) A duty to disclose all facts known to the agent materially affecting the value or desirability of the property that are not known to, or within the diligent attention and observation of, the parties.

An agent is not obligated to reveal to either party any confidential information obtained from the other party that does not involve the affirmative duties set forth above.

AGENT REPRESENTING BOTH SELLER AND BUYER

A real estate agent, either acting directly or through one or more salesperson and broker associates, can legally be the agent of both the Seller and the Buyer in a transaction, but only with the knowledge and consent of both the Seller and the Buyer.

In a dual agency situation, the agent has the following affirmative obligations to both the Seller and the Buyer:

(a) A fiduciary duty of utmost care, integrity, honesty and loyalty in the dealings with either the Seller or the Buyer.

(b) Other duties to the Seller and the Buyer as stated above in their respective sections.

In representing both Seller and Buyer, a dual agent may not, without the express permission of the respective party, disclose to the other party confidential information, including, but not limited to, facts relating to either the Buyer's or Seller's financial position, motivations, bargaining position, or other personal information that may impact price, including the Seller's willingness to accept a price less than the listing price or the Buyer's willingness to pay a price greater than the price offered.

SELLER AND BUYER RESPONSIBILITIES

Either the purchase agreement or a separate document will contain a confirmation of which agent is representing you and whether that agent is representing you exclusively in the transaction or acting as a dual agent. Please pay attention to that confirmation to make sure it accurately reflects your understanding of your agent's role. The above duties of the agent in a real estate transaction do not relieve a Seller or Buyer from the responsibility to protect their own interests. You should carefully read all agreements to assure that they adequately express your understanding of the transaction. A real estate agent is a person qualified to advise about real estate. If legal or tax advice is desired, consult a competent professional. If you are a Buyer, you have the duty to exercise reasonable care to protect yourself, including as to those facts about the property which are known to you or within your diligent attention and observation. Both Sellers and Buyers should strongly consider obtaining tax advice from a competent professional because the federal and state tax consequences of a transaction can be complex and subject to change.

Throughout your real property transaction you may receive more than one disclosure form, depending upon the number of agents assisting in the transaction. The law requires each agent with whom you have more than a casual relationship to present you with this disclosure form. You should read its contents each time it is presented to you, considering the relationship between you and the real estate agent in your specific transaction. This disclosure form includes the provisions of Sections 2079.13 to 2079.24, inclusive, of the Civil Code set forth on page 2. DISCLOSURE REGARDING REAL ESTATE AGENCY RELATIONSHIP

2079.13. As used in this section and Sections 2079.7 and 2079.14 to 2079.24, inclusive, the following terms have the following meanings:
(a) "Agent" means a person acting under provisions of Title 9 (commencing with Section 2295) in a real property transaction, and includes a person who is licensed as a real estate broker under Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 10130) of Part 1 of Division 4 of the Business and Professions Code, and under whose license a listing is executed or an offer to purchase is obtained. The agent in the real property transaction bears responsibility for that agent's salespersons or broker associates who perform as agents of the agent. When a salesperson or broker associate owes a duty to any principal, or to any buyer or seller who is not a principal, in a real property transaction, that duty is equivalent to the duty owed to that party by the broker for whom the salesperson or broker associate functions. (b) "Buyer" means a transferee in a real property transaction, and includes a person who executes an offer to purchase real property from a seller through an agent, or who seeks the services of an agent in more than a casual, transitory, or preliminary manner, with the object of entering into a real property transaction. "Buyer" includes vendee or lessee of real property. (c) "Commercial real property" means all real property in the state, except (1) single-family residential real property, (2) dwelling units made subject to Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 1940) of Title 5, (3) a mobile home, as defined in Section 798.3, (4) vacant land, or (5) a recreational vehicle, as defined in Section 799.29. (d) "Dual agent" means an agent acting, either directly or through a salesperson or broker associate, as agent for both the seller and the buyer in a real property transaction. (e) "Listing agreement" means a written contract between a seller of real property and an agent, by which the agent has been authorized to sell the real property or to find or obtain a buyer, including rendering other services for which a real estate license is required to the seller pursuant to the terms of the agreement. (f) "Seller's agent" means a person who has obtained a listing of real property to act as an agent for compensation. (g) "Listing price" is the amount expressed in dollars specified in the listing for which the seller is willing to sell the real property through the seller's agent. (h) "Offering price" is the amount expressed in dollars specified in an offer to purchase for which the buyer is willing to buy the real property. (i) "Offer to purchase" means a written contract executed by a buyer acting through a buyer's agent that becomes the contract for the sale of the real property upon acceptance by the seller. (j) "Real property" means any estate specified by subdivision (1) or (2) of Section 761 in property, and includes (1) single-family residential property, (2) multi-unit residential property with more than four dwelling units, (3) commercial real property, (4) vacant land, (5) a ground lease coupled with improvements, or (6) a manufactured home as defined in Section 18007 of the Health and Safety Code, or a mobile home as defined in Section 18008 of the Health and Safety Code, when offered for sale or sold through an agent pursuant to the authority contained in Section 10131.6 of the Business and Professions Code. (k) "Real property transaction" means a transaction for the sale of real property in which an agent is retained by a buyer, seller, or both a buyer and seller to act in that transaction, and includes a listing or an offer to purchase. (l) "Single-family residential property" or "single-family residential real property" means any of the following: (1) Real property improved with one to four dwelling units, including a leasehold exceeding one year's duration. (2) A unit in a residential stock cooperative, condominium, or planned unit development. (3) A mobilehome or manufactured home when offered for sale or sold through a real estate broker pursuant to Section 10131.6 of the Business and Professions Code. (m) "Sell," "sale," or "sold" refers to a transaction for the transfer of real property from the seller to the buyer and includes exchanges of real property between the seller and buyer, transactions for the creation of a real property sales contract within the meaning of Section 2985, and transactions for the creation of a leasehold exceeding one year's duration. (n) "Seller" means the transferor in a real property transaction and includes an owner who lists real property with an agent, whether or not a transfer results, or who receives an offer to purchase real property of which they are the owner from an agent on behalf of another. "Seller" includes both a vendor and a lessor of real property. (o) "Buyer's agent" means an agent who represents a buyer in a real property transaction. (p) "buyer-broker representation agreement" means a written contract between a buyer of real property and a buyer's agent by which the buyer's agent has been authorized by the buyer to provide services set forth in subdivision (a) of Section 10131 of the Business and Professions Code for or on behalf of the buyer for which a real estate license is required pursuant to the terms of the contract.

2079.17(a) As soon as practicable, the buyer's agent shall disclose to the buyer and seller whether the agent is acting in the real property transaction as the buyer's agent, or as a dual agent representing both the buyer and the seller. This relationship shall be confirmed in the contract to purchase and sell real property or in a separate writing executed or acknowledged by the seller, the buyer, and the buyer's agent prior to or coincident with execution of that contract by the buyer and the seller, respectively. (b) As soon as practicable, the seller's agent shall disclose to the seller whether the seller's agent is acting in the real property transaction as the seller's agent, or as a dual agent representing both the buyer and seller. This relationship shall be confirmed in the contract to purchase and sell real property or in a separate writing executed or acknowledged by the seller and the seller's agent prior to or coincident with the execution of that contract by the seller.

(d) The disclosures and confirmation required by this section shall be in addition to the disclosure required by Section 2079.14. An agent's duty to provide disclosure and confirmation of representation in this section may be performed by a real estate salesperson or broker associate affiliated with that broker.

2079.18 (Repealed pursuant to AB-1289, 2017-18 California Legislative session)

2079.19 The payment of compensation or the obligation to pay compensation to an agent by the seller or buyer is not necessarily determinative of a particular agency relationship between an agent and the seller or buyer. A listing agent and a selling agent may agree to share any compensation or commission paid, or any right to any compensation or commission for which an obligation arises as the result of a real estate transaction, and the terms of any such agreement shall not necessarily be determinative of a particular relationship.

2079.23 (a) A contract between the principal and agent may be modified or altered to change the agency relationship at any time before the performance of the act which is the object of the agency with the written consent of the parties to the agency relationship. (b) A lender or an auction company retained by a lender to control aspects of a transaction of real property subject to this part, including validating the sales price, shall not require, as a condition of receiving the lender's approval of the transaction, the homeowner or listing agent to defend or indemnify the lender or auction company from any liability alleged to result from the actions of the lender or auction company. Any clause, provision, covenant, or agreement purporting to impose an obligation to defend or indemnify a lender or an auction company in violation of this subdivision is against public policy, void, and unenforceable.

Date: June 20, 2023

To: Mayor and City Council

From: Dan Flores, Community Development Director
Jim Schaad, City Manager

Subject: Lease Agreement for Bryant Field

Recommendation:

Pass a Motion to approve a Lease Agreement for Bryant Field, between the City of Marysville and Highlands Community Charter School.

Background:

Highlands Community Charter School is a Public Adult Community Charter School with a strong presence in the Sacramento and San Diego Region as well as a branch located in the City of Marysville. An important component of the mission of Highlands is building legacies leading to self-sufficiency and generational change through strong community partnerships. Highlands has expressed a desire to lease Bryant Field as a training and event facility, further enhancing its partnership commitment with the City of Marysville.

Discussion and Analysis:

Highlands Community Charter School is an Adult Charter School with over 13,000 students and 30 locations throughout the State of California. Highlands has demonstrated a strong commitment and substantially invested in improving and maintaining Bryant Field. Highlands' commitment and investment have made it possible for the Marysville Drakes Baseball Team to safely play baseball on the field. The Drakes are part of a larger independent professional baseball league called the "Pecos League" with 16 teams throughout the United States including 8 teams in California. The improvements have also created a more attractive environment for other potential events at the ballpark.

Highlands recognized the benefit of training students at Bryant Field and utilizing the stadium for large events related to their school. The City created a mutually beneficial lease agreement. The lease agreement is to be effective May 1, 2023, as Highlands did some maintenance and improvements beginning on that date.

Some key terms of the lease agreement include 1) The lease is for 3 years with the option for renewal. 2) The lease rate is $2,000 per month with a 3% increase each year. 3) The Lessee (Highlands) will be solely responsible for all maintenance and City-approved improvements to the ballpark or field. 4) The Lessee is responsible for all utility expenses (water, sewer, electricity, gas) during the term of the lease. 5) The City will maintain the right to continue holding community and other reserved events at the ballpark under the terms indicated in the lease agreement. 6) All billboards, banners, and other forms of advertising including electronic billboards must be pre-approved by the City. 7) Lessee will have naming rights

LEASE

This Lease ("Agreement") is made effective May 1, 2023 and is by and between the City of Marysville, a Municipal Corporation ("City") and Highlands Community Charter School ("Lessee").

The City anticipates that the Marysville Drakes will reserve baseball games in the Spring and Summer of each year in addition to the baseball home games presently scheduled to be played at Bryant Field at the Property. In addition to baseball home games, the City intends to promote, sponsor and/or stage community events. With the exception of baseball home games and community events, Lessee shall have the right to book, promote, sponsor and/or stage Other Reserved Events on condition that Lessee provide City a minimum of 60 days advance notice of Lessee's proposed Other Reserved Event and obtains the City's consent to same, which consent will not be unreasonably withheld.

Rent and Other Consideration

1. Rent. Lessee shall pay to City monthly Rent of $2,000.00 per month payable in advance on the 1st day of each month. Rents shall commence on the 1st of the month following execution of this Agreement (the "Rent Commencement Date"). Rent shall increase 3% per year on the anniversary of the Rent Commencement Date such that the monthly Rent shall increase by 3% above the Rent in effect for the previous year. Should Lessee exercise the option to extend the term of this Agreement, the 3% annual increases shall continue through the Extended Term.

3. General Public Parking. City agrees to make available on-street and off-street parking, at City's discretion, for Other Reserved Events within a ten (10) minute walk of the Property. Lessee is solely responsible for providing adequate parking attendants at all off-street private property locations where event parking is sanctioned. Lessee shall not close, block or restrict access to any City streets absent a separate written agreement with City concerning the closure or any other restricted access or use of City streets. Except that Lessee may cause C Street to be closed between 14th Street and 16th Street for its other reserved events provided it is in compliance with the other terms and provisions of this Agreement.

4. Media Rights. Lessee has the exclusive right to all radio and television broadcast, telecast, webcast, cablecast, video on demand and all other forms of media and distribution rights for Other Reserved Events and to retain all revenues generated thereby.

5. Utilities. The cost of utility services, namely the water, sewer, gas, electric, as well as trash and recycled product removal and any other services or utilities shall be the responsibility of Lessee to the extent the same are incurred with respect to Lessee's use of the Property. The City will invoice Lessee monthly for all utilities and Lessee shall pay an invoice for the same within fifteen (15) days of receipt of such invoice.

SECTION 5
Capital Improvements, Maintenance, Repairs and Operations

1. Security/Usher Services and Traffic Control. Lessee has the exclusive right and obligation to manage and operate security and ushering services sufficient to control pedestrian traffic within Property and vehicle parking attendants during Other Reserved Events.

2. Set-up and Clean-up for Other Reserved Events. Lessee shall have the exclusive right and obligation to manage and operate the Property during Other Reserved Events and shall, at its sole expense, clean the Property and all improvements therein and keep it in orderly condition. Lessee shall comply with all applicable federal, state and local laws, codes, ordinances, and regulations, including without limitation, ADA and access laws, waste management, recycling, county health and alcoholic beverage sales/license laws.

3. Lessee is Responsible for all Aspects of Maintenance and Repair. During the term of this Agreement in addition to its obligations under paragraph 2 (Setup and Cleanup for Other Reserved Events), Lessee is responsible at its sole expense to fully and completely maintain the Property and all City-owned facilities therein. These maintenance obligations are ongoing. Lessee shall be responsible for all aspects of maintenance and repairs to include without limitation any capital repairs and major maintenance of the Property and all City-owned capital facilities therein. In addition to major maintenance of the Property and all City-owned capital facilities, Lessee shall be responsible for regular maintenance as well. These obligations include clean-up of seating and concession areas and maintenance of seats, public laboratories and restroom facilities, regular and routine maintenance of the HVAC, plumbing, electrical, water, sewage and onsite drainage systems.

As described above, Lessee is further responsible to maintain the facilities which are the subject of this Agreement in a fully operational condition such that the structures and facilities at the Property and all City-owned capital facilities therein shall be in at least as good or better condition at the end of this Agreement than the condition of such facilities on the effective date of this Agreement. Lessee's obligations of maintenance, replacement and repair shall not take into consideration "reasonable wear and tear". To the contrary, Lessee's obligations require Lessee to maintain and repair the Property and all City-owned capital facilities at all times so as to negate the effects of "ordinary wear and tear". Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Lessee is responsible for capital replacement and repairs of the structure, structural members, foundations, footings, roof, balconies, floors, columns, steps, ramps, doors, windows, walls, fixed stadium seats and seating areas, fixed concession areas, water and plumbing systems, electrical systems and electrical lights (including light standards and field lighting/ballasts), pipes and mains, sidewalks, fencing, parking surfaces, the scoreboard and all integral components of the foregoing and all fences and fencing. Such major maintenance and repair responsibilities Lessee apply whether the major maintenance or repair is ordinary or extraordinary, foreseen or unforeseen, necessitated by wear and tear, obsolescence, or any other cause.

4. Discretionary Improvements. Lessee has the right, at its own expense, to make alterations and improvements to the Property as are reasonably necessary or appropriate for Lessee's conduct of its business, subject to prior written approval by City and, once approved, such alterations or improvements are performed in a good and workmanlike manner by qualified personnel. Any necessary operations, maintenance and/or repairs relating to such alterations or improvements are the sole responsibility of Lessee, unless City first agrees in writing to accept responsibility. At the end of the term of this Agreement, any improvement installed by Lessee shall remain at the Property and shall be property of City. Lessee shall obtain all required City permits prior to making any improvements. Lessee shall comply with applicable general plan, zoning and other requirements of the City regarding improvements they install.

Term, Termination, Default, Remedies

1. Term and Option to Extend. The Term of this Agreement shall be 3 years commencing with the Rent Commencement Date on the 1st of the month provided Lessee is not in default under the Terms of this Agreement, Lessee shall have the option to extend this Agreement for an additional 3 years by providing written notice to the City no earlier than 6 months nor later than 2 months prior to the expiration of the Original Term.

2. By Destruction. In accordance with Section 7 of this Agreement, City may terminate this Agreement.

3. Default by Lessee. It shall be a default under this Agreement if any of the following occurs:

A. Lessee fails to pay the Rent, and any other costs, surcharges or other monetary obligations as required by this Agreement; or

B. Lessee fails to observe and comply with any other term, condition, covenant or agreement to be observed and complied with by Lessee under this Agreement.

4. Remedies. As to any monetary defaults or obligation of Lessee to pay any monies to City, such default shall continue uncured for a period of three (3) days after Lessee receives notice from City, City shall be entitled to terminate this Agreement. As to any default of Lessee of a non-monetary nature, if such default continues uncured for a period of three (3) days after Lessee receives notice from City specifying the nature of the default in reasonable detail (or such period if such default cannot be reasonably cured within such 3-day period, provided Lessee commences such cure within such 3-day period and thereafter diligently pursues such to completion), City shall have the right, in addition to any other remedy available hereunder, or at law, or in equity, to terminate this Agreement. Termination of this Agreement shall not relieve Lessee of its obligation to make any monetary payment required of it pursuant to this Agreement (including the full payment of all license fees) nor shall Lessee's obligations of indemnity, insurance and other obligations which would naturally survive termination be excused. All such obligations shall continue to be binding upon Lessee until such obligations have been performed and satisfied in full.

5. Lessee's Right to Terminate for Loss of Funding Source. Lessee may, upon 90 days' notice to City, terminate this Agreement in the event they lose their funding source for their operations.

Damage or Destruction

1. In the event the Property is substantially or totally damaged or destroyed so as to be unfit for occupancy or use by Lessee as contemplated, City in its sole and absolute discretion may terminate this Agreement. In the event City elects to terminate this Agreement, it may give Notice of Termination which shall be effective immediately. Whether City elects to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this section, City shall have no liability to Lessee with respect to any losses or damage occasioned by Lessee due to such termination or due to any delays occasioned by the time of repair, construction/reconstruction of the Property facilities. Lessee shall obtain business interruption insurance or take such other financial precautions as it deems necessary for any losses which might arise from the destruction or substantial destruction of the Property.

2. Restoration of the Property. For termination of this Agreement other than for damage or destruction as described in paragraph 1 above (to include expiration of this Agreement according to its terms or termination occasioned by default), Lessee will return the Property to its original or subsequently improved condition, and shall return to City all equipment and tangible personal property owned by City, if any, in good working condition, or reimburse City for reasonable cost of repairing such damage and/or replacing such personal property.

Indemnity; Insurance

1. Indemnity by Lessee. Lessee shall indemnify and hold City, and its representatives officers, directors, employees and agents free and harmless from any and all claims, suits, liens, demands, damages, injuries, liabilities, losses and expenses of any kind (including reasonable attorneys' fees, expert witnesses and costs of investigation with regard to any claim, demand or action) to the extent they arise out of or are in any way connected with the performance of this Agreement by City, its agents, directors or employees or by Lessee, its agents, directors or employees whether such claims, liens, demands, losses or expenses are based upon a contract or upon a claim for personal injury, death, or property damage or upon any other legal or equitable theory whatsoever. Lessee agrees at its own expense and upon written request by City, to defend any claim, suit, action or demand brought against City on any injury, loss, or liability, actual or alleged covered herein. Notwithstanding this defense obligation, Lessee shall not be required to indemnify City from loss or liability to the extent such loss or liability arises from the sole negligence or willful misconduct of City, its agents, directors and employees, at such time that such sole negligence or willful misconduct has been finally determined by a court of competent jurisdiction. Lessee shall provide City with a defense until such determination has been made (i.e., until a court of competent jurisdiction has finally determined that the loss or liability arises from the sole negligence or willful misconduct of City, Lessee shall provide a defense as to such loss or liability). Lessee's obligations of defense and indemnity arise even if the claim is frivolous or lacking in merit. The defense indemnification obligations of this Agreement are undertaken in addition to, and shall in no way be limited by, the insurance obligations contained in this Agreement. The indemnification obligation is not limited in any way by any limitation on the amount or type of damages or compensation payable to or for Lessee or its agents under workers' compensation acts, disability benefit acts or other employment benefit acts. The Lessee shall pay all costs that may be incurred by the City in enforcing this indemnity, including reasonable attorneys' fees. Lessee's indemnity obligations survive this Agreement.

Lessee's duties to defend is separate and independent of its duty to indemnify. The duty to defend includes claims for which the City may be liable without fault of be strictly liable. The duty to defend applies regardless of whether the issues of negligence, strict liability, fault, default or other obligation on the part of the City has been determined. The duty to defend applies immediately regardless of whether the City has paid any sums or incurred any detriment arising out of or relating (directly or indirectly) to any claims. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the City on behalf of itself reserves the right to assume the defense of any action, arbitration or proceeding against which Lessee may have an obligation to defend pursuant to this Agreement including the right to appoint counsel of its choice, without effecting Lessee's obligation to indemnify for the cost of such defense.

Lessee shall be liable to the City for any loss or damage to City property arising from or in connection with Lessee's performance hereunder.

2. Insurance Requirements.

A. Commercial General Liability. During the term of this Agreement, Lessee shall at all times maintain in full force and effect commercial general liability insurance in an amount determined as reasonably necessary from time to time by Northern California Cities Self-Insurance Fund (NCCSIF), a California joint powers agency, or City's subsequent insurance carrier. At the commencement of this Agreement, the commercial general liability insurance shall be $2,000,000 minimum combined single limit and a general aggregate limit of at least $4,000,000. The policy shall cover bodily injury, property damage, personal injury and other covered loss however occurring during the policy term. The coverage shall be primary and any insurance maintained by City shall be excess insurance only. Such insurance shall contain endorsements: (a) deleting any employee exclusion on personal injury coverage; (b) including employees as additional insureds; (c) deleting any liquor liability exclusion; (d) providing for coverage of employer's automobile non-ownership liability.

The commercial general liability insurance policy shall provide coverage on an "occurrence" basis, including products and complete operations, property damage, bodily injury and personal and advertising injury. If a general aggregate limit applies, the general aggregate limit shall apply separately to this Agreement and the Property.

B. Automobile Liability. Lessee shall, during the term of this Agreement maintain coverage for automobile liability using ISO Form CA 00 01 covering any auto (Code 1), hired (Code 8) and non-owned automobiles (Code 9), with limits of no less than $1,000,000 per accident for bodily injury and property damage.

C. Property Insurance. During the term of this Agreement Lessee shall at all times during this Agreement maintain in full force and effect property insurance, special extended coverage or all-risk coverage insurance (including, but not limited to coverage for vandalism and malicious mischief) in the amount of 100% of the full replacement value of all improvements at the Property. Such policy shall contain a replacement cost endorsement and a stipulated amount endorsement. Lessee may maintain the required coverage by means of coverage obtained by City through City's insurance carrier, which may change from time to time, for which Lessee shall reimburse City for coverage required during the Baseball Season.

D. Workers' Compensation. During the term of this Agreement Lessee shall at all times maintain in full force and effect workers' compensation insurance as required by the laws of the State of California. Lessee may be permissibly self-insured in accordance with applicable law.

E. Forms of Policies: Deductibles. All insurance policies required by this section shall provide for severability of interests; shall provide that an act or omission of one of the named or additional insureds shall not reduce or void coverage to the other named or additional insureds, shall not reduce or void coverage to the other named or additional insureds; and shall afford coverage for all claims based on acts, omissions, injury and damage, which claims occurred or arose (or the onset of which occurred or arose) in whole or in part during the policy period. All insurance policies required to be carried under this section shall be (a) written by companies rated A-VII or better in Best's Insurance Guide and authorized to do business in California, and (b) name City, its officers, officials, employees and volunteers as additional insureds. Any deductible amounts in excess of $5,000 under any insurance policies required to be carried by Lessee by this section shall be subject to City's prior written approval. Lessee shall be responsible for any such deductible amount, so that so far as City is concerned, it will be as if the insurance had no deductible.

Each insurance policy required above shall provide that coverage shall not be cancelled, except with no less than thirty (30) days prior notice to City.

Lessee hereby grants to City a waiver of any right to subrogation which any insurer of said Lessee may acquire against City by virtue of the payment of any loss under such insurance. Lessee agrees to obtain any endorsement that may be necessary to affect this waiver of subrogation, but this provision applies regardless of whether or not City has received a waiver of subrogation endorsement from the insurer.

City reserves the right to modify these insurance requirements, including limits, based on the nature of the risk, prior experience, insurer, coverage or other special circumstances.

City, its officers, officials, employees and volunteers are to be covered as additional insureds on the commercial general liability policy with respect to liability arising out of work or operations performed by or on behalf of the Lessee including materials, parts or equipment furnished in connection with such work or operations. General liability coverage can be provided in the form of an endorsement to the Lessee's insurance (at least as broad as ISO Form CG 20 10 11 85 or both CG 20 10 and CG 20 37 forms if later revisions are used).

For any claims related to this Agreement, the Lessee's insurance coverage shall be primary insurance as respect to City, its officers, officials, employees and volunteers. Any insurance or self-insurance maintained by City, its officers, officials, employees or volunteers shall be in excess of Lessee's insurance and shall not contribute to it.

F. Insurance Endorsements: Failure to Deliver. Lessee shall furnish City upon execution of this Agreement, and thereafter within 30 days prior to the expiration of each such policy, amendatory endorsements issued by the insurer carrier of each policy of insurance carried hereunder and such policy endorsement to verify the additional insured status of City. The endorsements shall expressly provide that the policy shall not be cancellable or subject to reduction of coverage or otherwise be subject to modification except after 30 days' prior written notice to City. If Lessee shall fail to procure such insurance or deliver such endorsements, City may, at its option, and in addition to City's other remedies in the event of default by Lessee under this Agreement procure the same for the account of Lessee, and the cost thereof shall be paid to City as an additional license fee. Failure to obtain and maintain the required endorsements prior to the commencement of the Baseball Season in 2023 shall not waive Lessee's obligation to provide them. City reserves the right to require complete, certified copies of all required insurance policies, including endorsements required by these specifications, at any time.

Sublicense or Assignment of Agreement

1. No Assignment or Sublicense. The license granted to Lessee is personal to Lessee and may not be assigned or sublicensed in whole or in part to any third party without the prior written consent of City, which City may withhold in its sole discretion.

2. No Release. Regardless of City's consent, no sublicensing or assignment shall release Lessee of Lessee's obligations or alter the primary liability of Lessee to pay the Rent and all monetary obligations under this Agreement and to perform all other obligations to be performed by Lessee hereunder, to include the indemnity and insurance obligations. Consent to one assignment or sublicensing shall not be deemed consent to any subsequent assignment or sublicensing. In the event of any default an assignee of Lessee, or any successor of Lessee in the performance of any of the terms hereof, City may proceed directly against Lessee without the necessity of exhausting remedies against such assignee or successor. City may consent to subsequent sublicensing or assignment of this Agreement or amendments or modifications of this Agreement with assignees of Lessee, without notifying Lessee, or any successor of Lessee, and without obtaining its or their consent thereto, and such action shall not relieve Lessee of liability under this Agreement.

Additional Agreements

1. Hazardous Materials. For purposes of this paragraph "Hazardous Materials" shall mean any substances or materials classified as hazardous materials, hazardous substances, hazardous waste or toxic waste under any federal, state or local statute, regulation or ordinance, including by not limited to any petroleum products and agricultural chemicals used as pesticides or herbicides. Lessee shall not, and shall not permit any third party to, transport onto, store on or use on the Property any Hazardous Materials. Lessee shall not release or allow any third party to release any Hazardous Materials on any portion of Property. Lessee, at Lessee's sold expense, shall conduct any and all investigation, clean-up and/or eliminate any and all Hazardous Materials released in violation of this paragraph 2.

2. Security. Lessee shall provide reasonable security personnel for Other Reserved Events and related operations conducted at the Property, and any other activities permitted by this Agreement.

SECTION 4
Rent and Other Consideration

1. Rent. Lessee shall pay to City monthly Rent of $5000.00 per month payable in advance on the 1st day of each month. Except that Lessee may cause C Street to be closed between 14th Street and 16th Street for its other reserved events provided it is in compliance with the other terms and provisions of this Agreement.

Lessee shall have the exclusive right and obligation to manage and operate the Property during Other Reserved Events and shall, at its sole expense, clean the Property and all improvements therein and keep it in orderly condition. Lessee shall comply with all applicable federal, state and local laws, codes, ordinances, and regulations, including without limitation, ADA and access laws, waste management, recycling, county health and alcoholic beverage sales/license laws.

3. Lessee is Responsible for all Aspects of Maintenance and Repair. During the term of this Agreement in addition to its obligations under paragraph 2 (Setup and Cleanup for Other Reserved Events), Lessee is responsible at its sole expense to fully and completely maintain the Property and all City-owned facilities therein. These maintenance obligations are ongoing. Lessee shall be responsible for all aspects of maintenance and repairs to include without limitation any capital repairs and major maintenance of the Property and all City-owned capital facilities therein. In addition to major maintenance of the Property and all City-owned capital facilities, Lessee shall be responsible for regular maintenance as well. These obligations include clean-up of seating and concession areas and maintenance of seats, public laboratories and restroom facilities, regular and routine maintenance of the HVAC, plumbing, electrical, water, sewage and onsite drainage systems.

As described above, Lessee is further responsible to maintain the facilities which are the subject of this Agreement in a fully operational condition such that the structures and facilities at the Property and all City-owned capital facilities therein shall be in at least as good or better condition at the end of this Agreement than the condition of such facilities on the effective date of this Agreement. Lessee's obligations of maintenance, replacement and repair shall not take into consideration "reasonable wear and tear". To the contrary, Lessee's obligations require Lessee to maintain and repair the Property and all City-owned capital facilities at all times so as to negate the effects of "ordinary wear and tear". 4. Discretionary Improvements. Lessee has the right, at its own expense, to make alterations and improvements to the Property as are reasonably necessary or appropriate for Lessee's conduct of its business, subject to prior written approval by City and, once approved, such alterations or improvements are performed in a good and workmanlike manner by qualified personnel. Any necessary operations, maintenance and/or repairs relating to such alterations or improvements are the sole responsibility of Lessee, unless City first agrees in writing to accept responsibility. At the end of the term of this Agreement, any improvement installed by Lessee shall remain at the Property and shall be property of City. Lessee shall obtain all required City permits prior to making any improvements. Lessee shall comply with applicable general plan, zoning and other requirements of the City regarding improvements they install.

Term, Termination, Default, Remedies

1. Term and Option to Extend. The Term of this Agreement shall be 3 years commencing with the Rent Commencement Date on the 1st of the month provided Lessee is not in default under the Terms of this Agreement, Lessee shall have the option to extend this Agreement for an additional 3 years by providing written notice to the City no earlier than 6 months nor later than 2 months prior to the expiration of the Original Term.

2. By Destruction. In accordance with Section 7 of this Agreement, City may terminate this Agreement.

3. Default by Lessee. It shall be a default under this Agreement if any of the following occurs:

A. Lessee fails to pay the Rent, and any other costs, surcharges or other monetary obligations as required by this Agreement; or

B. Lessee fails to observe and comply with any other term, condition, covenant or agreement to be observed and complied with by Lessee under this Agreement.

4. Remedies. As to any monetary defaults or obligation of Lessee to pay any monies to City, such default shall continue uncured for a period of three (3) days after Lessee receives notice from City, City shall be entitled to terminate this Agreement. As to any default of Lessee of a non-monetary nature, if such default continues uncured for a period of three (3) days after Lessee receives notice from City specifying the nature of the default in reasonable detail (or such period if such default cannot be reasonably cured within such 3-day period, provided Lessee commences such cure within such 3-day period and thereafter diligently pursues such to completion), City shall have the right, in addition to any other remedy available hereunder, or at law, or in equity, to terminate this Agreement. Termination of this Agreement shall not relieve Lessee of its obligation to make any monetary payment required of it pursuant to this Agreement (including the full payment of all license fees) nor shall Lessee's obligations of indemnity, insurance and other obligations which would naturally survive termination be excused. All such obligations shall continue to be binding upon Lessee until such obligations have been performed and satisfied in full.

5. Lessee's Right to Terminate for Loss of Funding Source. Lessee may, upon 90 days' notice to City, terminate this Agreement in the event they lose their funding source for their operations.

SECTION 7
Damage or Destruction

1. In the event the Property is substantially or totally damaged or destroyed so as to be unfit for occupancy or use by Lessee as contemplated, City in its sole and absolute discretion may terminate this Agreement. In the event City elects to terminate this Agreement, it may give Notice of Termination which shall be effective immediately. Whether City elects to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this section, City shall have no liability to Lessee with respect to any losses or damage occasioned by Lessee due to such termination or due to any delays occasioned by the time of repair, construction/reconstruction of the Property facilities. Lessee shall obtain business interruption insurance or take such other financial precautions as it deems necessary for any losses which might arise from the destruction or substantial destruction of the Property.

2. Restoration of the Property. For termination of this Agreement other than for damage or destruction as described in paragraph 1 above (to include expiration of this Agreement according to its terms or termination occasioned by default), Lessee will return the Property to its original or subsequently improved condition, and shall return to City all equipment and tangible personal property owned by City, if any, in good working condition, or reimburse City for reasonable cost of repairing such damage and/or replacing such personal property.

Indemnity; Insurance

1. Indemnity by Lessee. Lessee shall indemnify and hold City, and its representatives officers, directors, employees and agents free and harmless from any and all claims, suits, liens, demands, damages, injuries, liabilities, losses and expenses of any kind (including reasonable attorneys' fees, expert witnesses and costs of investigation with regard to any claim, demand or action) to the extent they arise out of or are in any way connected with the performance of this Agreement by City, its agents, directors or employees or by Lessee, its agents, directors or employees whether such claims, liens, demands, losses or expenses are based upon a contract or upon a claim for personal injury, death, or property damage or upon any other legal or equitable theory whatsoever. Lessee agrees at its own expense and upon written request by City, to defend any claim, suit, action or demand brought against City on any injury, loss, or liability, actual or alleged covered herein. Notwithstanding this defense obligation, Lessee shall not be required to indemnify City from loss or liability to the extent such loss or liability arises from the sole negligence or willful misconduct of City, its agents, directors and employees, at such time that such sole negligence or willful misconduct has been finally determined by a court of competent jurisdiction. Lessee shall provide City with a defense until such determination has been made (i.e., until a court of competent jurisdiction has finally determined that the loss or liability arises from the sole negligence or willful misconduct of City, Lessee shall provide a defense as to such loss or liability). Lessee's obligations of defense and indemnity arise even if the claim is frivolous or lacking in merit. The defense indemnification obligations of this Agreement are undertaken in addition to, and shall in no way be limited by, the insurance obligations contained in this Agreement. The indemnification obligation is not limited in any way by any limitation on the amount or type of damages or compensation payable to or for Lessee or its agents under workers' compensation acts, disability benefit acts or other employment benefit acts. The Lessee shall pay all costs that may be incurred by the City in enforcing this indemnity, including reasonable attorneys' fees. Lessee's indemnity obligations survive this Agreement.

Lessee's duties to defend is separate and independent of its duty to indemnify. The duty to defend includes claims for which the City may be liable without fault of be strictly liable. The duty to defend applies regardless of whether the issues of negligence, strict liability, fault, default or other obligation on the part of the City has been determined. The duty to defend applies immediately regardless of whether the City has paid any sums or incurred any detriment arising out of or relating (directly or indirectly) to any claims.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the City on behalf of itself reserves the right to assume the defense of any action, arbitration or proceeding against which Lessee may have an obligation to defend pursuant to this Agreement including the right to appoint counsel of its choice, without effecting Lessee's obligation to indemnify for the cost of such defense.

Lessee shall be liable to the City for any loss or damage to City property arising from or in connection with Lessee's performance hereunder.

2. Insurance Requirements.

A. Commercial General Liability. During the term of this Agreement, Lessee shall at all times maintain in full force and effect commercial general liability insurance in an amount determined as reasonably necessary from time to time by Northern California Cities Self-Insurance Fund (NCCSIF), a California joint powers agency, or City's subsequent insurance carrier. At the commencement of this Agreement, the commercial general liability insurance shall be $2,000,000 minimum combined single limit and a general aggregate limit of at least $4,000,000. Lessee may maintain the required coverage by means of coverage obtained by City through City's insurance carrier, which may change from time to time, for which Lessee shall reimburse City for coverage required during the Baseball Season.

Any deductible amounts in excess of $5,000 under any insurance policies required to be carried by Lessee by this section shall be subject to City's prior written approval. Lessee shall be responsible for any such deductible amount, so that so far as City is concerned, it will be as if the insurance had no deductible.

Each insurance policy required above shall provide that coverage shall not be cancelled, except with no less than thirty (30) days prior notice to City.

Lessee hereby grants to City a waiver of any right to subrogation which any insurer of said Lessee may acquire against City by virtue of the payment of any loss under such insurance. Lessee agrees to obtain any endorsement that may be necessary to affect this waiver of subrogation, but this provision applies regardless of whether or not City has received a waiver of subrogation endorsement from the insurer.

City reserves the right to modify these insurance requirements, including limits, based on the nature of the risk, prior experience, insurer, coverage or other special circumstances.

City, its officers, officials, employees and volunteers are to be covered as additional insureds on the commercial general liability policy with respect to liability arising out of work or operations performed by or on behalf of the Lessee including materials, parts or equipment furnished in connection with such work or operations. General liability coverage can be provided in the form of an endorsement to the Lessee's insurance (at least as broad as ISO Form CG 20 10 11 85 or both CG 20 10 and CG 20 37 forms if later revisions are used).

For any claims related to this Agreement, the Lessee's insurance coverage shall be primary insurance as respect to City, its officers, officials, employees and volunteers. Any insurance or self-insurance maintained by City, its officers, officials, employees or volunteers shall be in excess of Lessee's insurance and shall not contribute to it.

F. Insurance Endorsements; Failure to Deliver. Lessee shall furnish City upon execution of this Agreement, and thereafter within 30 days prior to the expiration of each such policy, amendatory endorsements issued by the insurer carrier of each policy of insurance carried hereunder and such policy endorsement to verify the additional insured status of City. The endorsements shall expressly provide that the policy shall not be cancellable or subject to reduction of coverage or otherwise be subject to modification except after 30 days' prior written notice to City. If Lessee shall fail to procure such insurance or deliver such endorsements, City may, at its option, and in addition to City's other remedies in the event of default by Lessee under this Agreement procure the same for the account of Lessee, and the cost thereof shall be paid to City as an additional license fee. Failure to obtain and maintain the required endorsements prior to the commencement of the Baseball Season in 2020 shall not waive Lessee's obligation to provide them. City reserves the right to require complete, certified copies of all required insurance policies, including endorsements required by these specifications, at any time.

Sublicense or Assignment of Agreement

1. No assignment or sublicense. The license granted to Lessee is personal to Lessee and may not be assigned or sublicensed in whole or in part to any third party without the prior written consent of City, which City may withhold in its sole discretion.

2. No release. Regardless of City's consent, no sublicensing or assignment shall release Lessee of Lessee's obligations or alter the primary liability of Lessee to pay the Rent and all monetary obligations under this Agreement and to perform all other obligations to be performed by Lessee hereunder, to include the indemnity and insurance obligations. Consent to one assignment or sublicensing shall not be deemed consent to any subsequent assignment or sublicensing. In the event of any default an assignee of Lessee, or any successor of Lessee in the performance of any of the terms hereof, City may proceed directly against Lessee without the necessity of exhausting remedies against such assignee or successor. City may consent to subsequent sublicensing or assignment of this Agreement or amendments or modifications of this Agreement with assignees of Lessee, without notifying Lessee, or any successor of Lessee, and without obtaining its or their consent thereto, and such action shall not relieve Lessee of liability under this Agreement.

For purposes of this paragraph "Hazardous Materials" shall mean any substances or materials classified as hazardous materials, hazardous substances, hazardous waste or toxic waste under any federal, state or local statute, regulation or ordinance, including by not limited to any petroleum products and agricultural chemicals

Lessee shall, within fifteen (15) days of the date of such notice, advise the City in writing if it intends to negotiate to have a substitute baseball team hold baseball games at the Property. Should Lessee advise the City of such intention, the parties agree to negotiate in good faith to reach an agreement for a substitute team to hold baseball games at the Property. The name of any successor team shall be "the Marysville Gold Sox" unless the City consents to a different name.

The Sponsorship
On March 14, 2023 Highlands Community Charter School received a request for information from TRUSD. On April 5, 2023 HCCTS sent TRUSD a response with the evidence of a proposal for sponsoring the Marysville Drakes Baseball Team dated March 11, 2023. The proposal outlined the various benefits that HCCTS would gain from this sponsorship. As provided in the previous letter, Highlands received the following marketing benefits from the $25,000 sponsorship:

● The field name will be “It’s Never Too Late…” Field with logo graphic provided by HCCTS

● HCCTS will designate a series of home games with allowance to set up, manage, and maintain student recruitment stations

● HCCTS Graphics will be used on game programs, snack bar menus or other printed materials pertaining to Drake's home games

● Banner or painted graphic to be placed on right-center field wall with HCCTS designated logo

● Designated HCCTS Painted Graphic on a home-field dugout

● On Deck Circle Rug with HCCTS, "It's Never Too Late…” Graphic on Home and Visitors station

● 6 VIP Tickets will be made available for 2023 scheduled home games. Optional tickets for visiting tickets to all affiliate Pecos League Team games. Given a written request for those tickets five days in advance of the game desired

● Notification of the Drakes employment for team support positions for local Highlands students or students of Highlands students 16 years or older to be interviewed for potential hire

● ‘It’s Never Too Late…’ HCCTS Logo patch placed on team game day uniforms/or/game day hat

● HCCTS Branding displayed on game day tickets

● One designated HCCTS Group Night

The sponsorship provided to the city of Marysville is unrestricted funds. Highlands has no knowledge of how the money was spent.

CTE Programs at Marysville 2
Highlands Community Charter School signed an MOU with Marysville 2 baseball field) with the intention of creating a CTE program (landscaping) and expanding our sports officiating program to Marysville 2. Due to staffing challenges, and the inability to acquire a qualified and credentialed teacher to lead these programs, we are now meeting with the City of Marysville and resonidering this lease agreement. This consieration reflects our commitment to efficiently allocating resources and prioritizing areas that most benefit our students and the community. Our primary concern remains the best interests of our students.

RE: Notice of Concern – "Marysville 2" Location TRUSD Reply to HCCTS' Response Received September 25, 2024

Dear. Mr. McGuire:

By correspondence dated March 14, 2024, the Twin Rivers Unified School District ("District") sent a Notice of Concern and Request for Information to Highlands Community Charter and Technical Schools ("HCCTS") of our concerns related to the site located at 1431 C Street, Marysville CA, 95901 ("Marysville 2"). The notice also requested information regarding a $25,000 donation HCCTS gave to sponsor the facility upgrades to the field and the privately operated Marysville Drakes baseball team.

Thereafter, by correspondence dated March 29, 2024, HCCTS replied to the above-mentioned letter of concern. On June 17, 2024, the District sent a second Notice of Concern and Request for Information. The District received HCCTS' reply on July 23, 2024. On August 15, 2024, the District sent a follow-up communication to HCCTS.

The August 15, 2024, Notice of Concern and Request for Information also requested that HCCTS take the following actions by no later than 5:00 PM on September 20, 2024:

- Even though the District requested that HCCTS respond to this request by July 31, 2024, to date we have not received any response from HCCTS. This item is not even referenced in HCCTS' latest July 23, 2024 correspondence regarding the Marysville 2 location. Therefore, with this correspondence the District reiterates its request for HCCTS to provide a comprehensive explanation and breakdown of the $25,000 donation/sponsorship.

Physical Address: 5115 Dudley Blvd. • McClellan, CA 95652
Mailing Address: 3222 Winona Way • North Highlands, CA 95660
(916) 566-1600 • FAX (916) 566-1784 • www.twinriversusd.org

- As you are aware, per Education Code section 47604.3, HCCTS "shall promptly respond to all reasonable inquiries" from the District and "shall consult with" the District "regarding any inquiries." It is the District's expectation that HCCTS promptly respond to this request as required by Education Code section 47604.3.

On September 25, 2024, the District received a correspondence from HCCTS dated September 24, 2024, as a reply to District's above-mentioned, Third Letter of Concern and Request for Information.

District Findings

- Based on our review of the September 25, 2024, response regarding HCCTS explanation of the $25,000 donation/sponsorship, the District has determined no further action is required by HCCTS at this time related to that time.

- In the September 25, 2024, you also indicate that due to staffing challenges, and the inability to acquire a qualified and credentialed teacher to lead a planned CTE program (landscaping) and an expanded sports officiating program at the Marysville 2 location, HCCTS is meeting with the City of Marysville to reconsider the lease agreement. Once determined, please notify TRUSD whether HCCTS intends to move forward with a lease agreement for the Marysville 2 location.

Thank you for your attention to this correspondence and anticipated cooperation.

Sincerely,

Ryan DiGiulio

Marysville 2 Lease Termination & Equipment

The termination agreement between HCCTS and the City of Marysville requires that HCCTS will continue to provide payments equal to the lease amount from HCCTS from December 1, 2024, through April 30, 2026, totaling $33,639.80. HCCTS confirms its commitment to meeting the financial obligations post-termination as stipulated in the agreement.

The termination agreement states: "If the Lessee leases the property again in the future, HCCTS has the option to get the equipment back. HCCTS sold it to the City for just $1.00 but it's not a permanent sale. The agreement allows HCCTS to reclaim the equipment later if the property is leased again."

If HCCTS returns to the Marysville 2 in the future, we would have the opportunity to reclaim this equipment for a CTE program. Significant time and resources were invested in this site, and HCCTS may revisit a Career and Technical Education (CTE) program there in the future based on student interest. HCCTS doesn't currently have a transfer or disposal of equipment policy.

Highlands Night at the Ballpark

On June 24, 2023, HCCTS hosted a marketing and recruiting event, "Highlands Night at the Ballpark." This was the only event held under the sponsorship agreement, and it was open to all students, staff members, and their families. Entry was free, and attendees were required to present their staff or student ID. Prior to the event, a calendar invite was sent to all employees and a flyer was distributed at each HCCTS location. According to the Google Calendar invite sent out by Doc Smith, 78 HCCTS employees responded yes. In total, approximately 250 students, staff, and their families participated in the event. Below you will find the names and titles of staff who responded yes to the calendar invite.

3. The Human Resources Department and Credentialing Team (as applicable) will screen applications to ensure compliance with minimum qualifications.

Interview Process

HCCTS has implemented a structured two-round interview process to ensure consistency, fairness, and thorough evaluation of candidates:

1. First Round: Panel interview conducted by a minimum of two representatives from the hiring department and other closely collaborating departments.

    Purpose: To assess the candidate's baseline qualifications, technical skills, and alignment with the role's functional requirements. This round focuses on role-specific knowledge, task experience, and cultural fit at the team level.

2. Second Round: Interview conducted by the supervisor and additional departmental or site representative. All Director positions and above will be interviewed by the Executive Director and an additional designee.

   Purpose: To assess the candidate's potential for long-term contribution, adaptability, leadership capacity (if applicable), and alignment with schoolwide values and strategic priorities. This round also examines the candidate's interpersonal communication, judgment, and growth potential.

3. Interview Questions and Evaluation:
   - All interview questions will stem from an HCCTS-approved questions library, vetted by Legal and HR to ensure alignment with organizational standards.
   - Interviewers will evaluate candidates using standardized interview forms and a numerical scoring system. This system ensures objective feedback and alignment with HCCTS' mission and values.

4. Practical Assessments: Candidates may be required to complete practical assessments relevant to the role to demonstrate their skills and capabilities.

Screening Procedures

1. Background checks will be conducted on all final candidates, including fingerprint clearance, in compliance with state and federal regulations.
2. Reference checks will be performed to verify previous employment and qualifications.
3. Credential verification will be conducted for positions requiring certification.

Offer of Employment

Selected candidates will receive a formal written offer detailing the terms of employment, including salary, benefits, the probationary period, and confirmation that the offer is for at-will employment. No verbal or written offer of employment may be extended without prior written authorization from the Executive Director or designee. All offers are contingent upon the successful completion of pre-employment requirements.

Hiring Requirements

HCCTS adheres to hiring requirements outlined in the Employee Handbook, ensuring all prospective employees meet applicable credentialing, background check, and qualification standards. The hiring process includes:

1. Criminal background checks are conducted through fingerprinting via LiveScan in compliance with the California Education Code and are vetted through the Department of Justice (DOJ) and the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI).
2. Verification of credentialing or certification requirements, as applicable to the role.
3. Tuberculosis (TB) testing as per legal and policy guidelines.

4. Initial salary placement is determined based on relevant education and role classification, with Step 1 as the default placement.
5. Salary advancement and placement processes are governed by Administrative Regulation (AR) 4111.

Performance Evaluation and Advancement

- HCCTS conducts annual performance evaluations for all employees. However, performance ratings will not be used to determine salary placement or advancement.

Discretionary Exceptions

- The Executive Director or Board may authorize exceptions to standard placement procedures for hard-to-fill or high-need positions. These exceptions must be documented and justified in accordance with AR 4111.

Onboarding

1. New employees will participate in an onboarding program that includes:
    - Introduction to HCCTS policies and culture
    - Role-specific training
    - Compliance and safety requirements

Confidentiality & Record-Keeping

1. All hiring records will be maintained in compliance with applicable laws and HCCTS records retention policies.
2. Hiring documentation, including applications, interview notes, and background check results, will be kept confidential.

Compliance

All hiring practices will be conducted in accordance with HCCTS' 4212.8 BP Anti-Nepotism and Employment of Relatives Board Policy. HCCTS will ensure all hiring practices comply with federal and state employment laws, including the California Education Code, the Fair Employment and Housing Act (FEHA), and the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA).

Oversight and Accountability

The Executive Director or designee is responsible for the implementation and enforcement of this policy. Regular audits and reports will be conducted to ensure adherence and effectiveness. Procedures for salary placement, intern classification, and adjustment review processes shall be further detailed in the corresponding Administrative Regulation (AR 4111).

Subject: Notice of Violation Pursuant to Education Code 47606 for Highlands Community Charter School

Dear Mr. DiGiulio,

On June 12, 2025, Twin Rivers Unified School District ("TRUSD") provided Highlands Community Charter and Technical Schools ("HCCTS") with a formal Notice of Violation. We recognize the seriousness of the issues outlined and we acknowledge that, under prior leadership, Highlands failed to meet expectations in several important areas. Mistakes were made, and those mistakes have eroded trust.

Since that time, Highlands has undergone a profound transition. With new leadership and outside experts engaged in finance and compliance, we have embraced accountability and implemented sweeping reforms. HCCTS is also in the process of bringing on a new board of directors to lead the school in improved governance and systems of accountability. Changes include:

- New systems for financial oversight and internal controls,
- Stronger credentialing processes in partnership with UMass Global,
- Clearer academic and attendance standards, with daily monitoring,
- Adoption of more than 100 new board policies to strengthen compliance and transparency, and

- A material revision to the HCCS charter which outlines these and other changes to HCCS.

HCCTS is committed to working in close partnership with TRUSD to demonstrate that these changes are not temporary fixes, but lasting improvements. Our goal is to move forward with a constructive relationship, grounded in transparency and shared accountability, to ensure Highlands is in full compliance and able to continue serving our students.

We respectfully submit the enclosed materials as HCCTS' formal response to the Notice of Violation. If you have additional questions or would like further information, please do not hesitate to contact me directly at (617) 823-9341 or jonathan.raymond@hccts.org.

Thank you for your attention and for your ongoing oversight as we work to build a stronger, more accountable Highlands.

Thank you,

Jonathan Raymond
Executive Director
Highlands Community Charter and Technical Schools

I. BACKGROUND

Highlands Community Charter and Technical Schools recognizes and respects TRUSD's role as our authorizer, as outlined in MOU Amendment No. 3 signed on January 23, 2024. This amendment clearly defines the district's oversight responsibilities, including the approval of new facilities, ensuring safe learning environments, and providing supervisorial guidance.

We acknowledge that the Notice of Violation issued on June 12, 2025, falls squarely within TRUSD's responsibilities. We take this notice with the utmost seriousness. Under past leadership, Highlands fell short of meeting expectations in several areas. Mistakes were made, and we own that.

Today, under new leadership,, Highlands is fully committed to addressing every issue raised. In many cases, corrective actions have already been completed; in others, substantial progress is underway. Where issues remain outside of our direct control, we have taken every step possible to mitigate them and are actively working toward full resolution.

This response provides a clear account of the corrective actions already taken, the progress still in motion, and the timelines by which remaining matters will be fully resolved. Our commitment is to demonstrate that Highlands is not only curing past deficiencies but building a sustainable, compliant, and transparent system for the future.

II. VIOLATIONS OF THE CHARTER

A. HCCTS Grade Levels

Education Code section 47604(a)(4) provides in part: "After receiving approval of its petition, a charter school that proposes to expand operations to one or more additional sites or grade levels shall request a material revision to its charter and shall notify the chartering authority of those additional locations or grade levels."

- There are no exemptions for the requirement to submit a material revision request to change grade levels.
- The District is issuing the NOV as part of our oversight responsibilities to address HCCS' failure to submit the required Material Revision request to change grades.

Education Code section 47605(a)(4) makes clear that a charter school seeking to expand operations to additional sites or grade levels must submit a material revision to its charter and notify its authorizer. HCCTS recognizes that there are no exemptions to this requirement and acknowledges that it did not submit a material revision when grade levels were changed beginning in the 2020–21 school year.

In the 2020-2021 school year, leadership at HCCTS shifted from grades 1, 2, and 12 to grades 9, 10, and 12 in order to:

- Create clarity in the community that HCCS was a high school
- Align more closely with traditional high school programs
- Allow English Language Learners the opportunity to earn high school credits and make progress toward their high school diploma
- Show student progress as students move between grade levels
- Create clear pathways for international high school students and high school students to graduation
- To improve graduation rates

While HCCTS communicated with TRUSD staff regarding these changes (Exhibit A) and believed the adjustments had support, the formal requirement for a material revision was not pursued at that time. We recognize this was a failure of process, and we take responsibility for not following the proper procedures.

Since then, Highlands has taken corrective action. In June 2024, HCCTS began preparing a comprehensive material revision. That revision reflects:

- The addition of grade 11, as requested by TRUSD (Exhibits B & C),
- The removal of grades 1 and 2, and
- The continued offering of grades 9, 10, and 12.

The proposed material revision was completed and board approved on September 18, 2025, see Exhibit D, after which it will be submitted to TRUSD for consideration. This action is intended to fully align Highlands' charter with current practice, CDE guidance, and TRUSD oversight. The proposed revision is attached here as Exhibit E.

Accordingly, this issue will be fully resolved once TRUSD acts on the submitted material revision. If the TRUSD Board does not approve the revision, HCCTS will comply by returning to the grade levels specified in the existing approved charter.

Highlands regrets that this process was not followed in the past. Under new leadership, we are committed to full compliance, clear communication, and a constructive working relationship with TRUSD to ensure that changes moving forward are properly authorized and transparent.

B. HCCS Locations

MOU Amendment No. 3 provides in part: "The terms of the MOU are intended by the District and Charter School to become part of the standards and procedures set forth in the Charter School's Charter approved by the District ("Charter"). Along with the Charter, this MOU will govern the relationship between the District and the Charter School regarding the operation of the Charter School. To the extent the terms of the MOU is/are inconsistent with any terms of the Charter, the MOU shall control. In addition, if the Charter is silent on an issue addressed by the MOU, the MOU shall control. As such, any violation of MOU by Charter School that also constitutes grounds for revocation per Education Code section 47607 will be treated and enforced by the District in the same manner, subject to Education Code Section 47607 and applicable implementing regulations, as it would any other violation constituting a ground for revocation."

- October 3, 17 and November 7, 2024 HCCTS Board approved sites/locations that were not included on MOU Amendment No. 3.
- On multiple occasions the District notified HCCTS of the requirement to submit a material revision request, before occupying a new location. HCCTS failed to comply.
- HCCTS June 1, 2025, newest "tentative" location list still includes sites not approved for operation for HCCS.
- The District is issuing the NOV as part of our oversight responsibilities to address HCCS' failure to submit the required Material Revision request before adding new facilities.

MOU Amendment No. 3 governs the approval and operation of Highlands' facilities and makes clear that any new locations require District authorization through a material revision. Highlands acknowledges that in the past, locations were opened or relocated without first completing the formal material revision process required by the MOU. This was a failure of compliance, and we take responsibility for it.

These missteps were not intentional, but they reflect a lack of attention to detail under prior leadership. Historically, Highlands relied on a more informal process with the District regarding the addition, relocation, or consolidation of sites. In some cases, leadership believed that moves such as opening an additional suite within an existing facility or relocating to a site nearby did not constitute a "new" location requiring a material revision. That interpretation was incorrect, and we recognize that now.

The District's request for an updated site list on June 1, 2025, coincided with a period of significant transition at Highlands, including organizational restructuring and site consolidations. While those circumstances contributed to delays in providing a finalized list, they do not excuse the failure to comply with the MOU requirement.

Highlands has since taken corrective steps. A material revision updating all current operating locations was prepared and sent to the HCCTS Board on September 18, 2025 for submission to TRUSD. Moving forward, Highlands will strictly comply with the requirement to submit a material revision for any facility location change, ensuring that the District is fully informed and that all operations are authorized.

This issue will be fully resolved once the TRUSD Board approves the submitted material revision. If the Board does not approve certain sites, Highlands will immediately limit operations to District-approved locations.

Under new leadership, Highlands is committed to transparency, accuracy, and compliance in its facilities reporting and to maintaining a constructive partnership with TRUSD on all matters related to school sites.

III. ALLEGED VIOLATIONS OF THE LAW

A. HCCTS Annual Independent Audit Report

The Charter School is in violation of Education Code sections 47604.33 and 47605, and its own Charter, for failing to complete and submit its 2023-24 annual independent audit report to the District.

- HCCTS requested an extension to the December 15, 2024, deadline for submitting its 2023-24 audit report.
- The District granted an extension until January 15,2025, but HCCTS failed to meet this deadline and has subsequently missed multiple additional extension deadlines, including March 31, 2025, and April 18,2025.
- To-date HCCTS' audit report has not been submitted to the District.
- The District is issuing the NOV as part of TRUSD oversight responsibilities to address HCCS' failure to submit the 2023-24 annual independent audit report.

Education Code sections 47604.33 and 47605, as well as the HCCTS charter, require timely completion and submission of an annual independent audit report. Highlands acknowledges that the 2023–24 audit has not yet been submitted to TRUSD and that multiple deadlines were missed.

Highlands contracted with Eide Bailly to conduct the 2023–24 audit (Exhibit F). While a draft was provided on May 9, 2025, the process has been significantly delayed due to a combination of external and internal factors (Exhibit G). These include:

- Eide Bailly's 2022–23 audit being selected for review by the State Controller, which diverted capacity and slowed the 2023–24 work,

- Errors identified in the draft related to unduplicated pupil counts, which required national-level review and corrections, and

- Additional testing required following the release of the California State Auditor's report, which heightened risk assessments.

Highlands has consistently provided documentation requested by the auditor and followed up on promised delivery timelines as demonstrated in Exhibit J which details an extensive list of document requests fulfilled by HCCTS staff. However, the final report has not yet been released by Eide Bailly. Legal counsel has formally demanded its completion (Exhibit H) and Highlands continues to press for immediate resolution (Exhibit I).

To date, Eide Bailly has not indicated any significant findings in the draft report. While the delay has been deeply frustrating, Highlands has acted in good faith throughout the process, and the draft report demonstrates that we have been cooperative and responsive.

Moving forward, Highlands will ensure timely completion of audits by:

- Holding vendors accountable through stricter contracts and oversight; and

- Engaging with TRUSD earlier in the process to provide status updates and transparency.

We will provide TRUSD with the completed audit report immediately upon its release by Eide Bailly. We regret the delays and are committed to ensuring this problem does not repeat.

Attached you will find the following documents:

B. HCCTS Credentialing & Misassignments

HCCS has provided instruction to its students using teachers who do not hold the appropriate credential as required by California Education Code, which is a requirement for receipt of ADA funding.

- HCCTS has submitted ADA revisions for teachers who did not have any credential, but the majority of HCCTS teachers do not have the appropriate, required credentials.
- ADA funding is directly tied to appropriately credentialed teachers.
- HCCTS relied on guidance from a Credentials Technician from San Diego County Office of Education (SDCOE) and her interpretation of credential requirements, but failed to consult with the CTC.
- The District is issuing the NOV as part of our oversight responsibilities to address the disallowed ADA which resulted in misappropriately credentialed teachers.

Highlands agrees that all teachers must hold valid teaching credentials and that paraeducators should not serve as classroom teachers without them. We acknowledge that, under prior practice, Highlands relied on adult education credentials based on guidance previously received from outside agencies (Exhibit K). While this approach was followed for years without audit findings, it did not meet current expectations from CDE and CTC, and we take responsibility for correcting it.

Beginning in 2024–25, Highlands laid off teachers who did not hold the required credentials and re-staffed classes with appropriately credentialed teachers (Exhibit L). We also undertook a full review of our credentialing and staffing systems to ensure alignment with updated guidance and long-term compliance (Exhibit M).

Key corrective actions include:

- Credentialing Review: Examined over 300 staff profiles and held 269 individual consultations with certificated staff to create personalized compliance pathways.

- Support Systems: Established a credentialing support team of staff and consultants; built a centralized credentialing database; and partnered with UMass Global to provide flexible, remote intern credential pathways (Exhibit N and Exhibit O), and are hiring mentor teachers (Exhibit P, Exhibit Q, and Exhibit R)

- Financial and Professional Support: Adopted Board Policy 4112.3 (Exhibit S) to reimburse staff for exam fees and coursework; approved a K–12 Teacher Retention Incentive (Exhibit T), and aligned hiring timelines with CTC testing windows and permit options.

- Hiring Reforms: Suspended instruction in July 2025 to allow time to re-staff with fully credentialed teachers before the school year, implemented structured hiring and rehire processes tied to credential readiness; and issued updated teacher agreements.

- Governance Safeguards: Adopted new board policies requiring all certificated staff to hold valid credentials at hire and renewal, mandating use of Frontline to track compliance, and prohibiting nepotism in hiring through Board Policy 4212.8 (Exhibit U).

Through these actions, Highlands has corrected past practices and put in place systems that ensure all teachers moving forward will hold valid K–12 credentials. Instruction has resumed with properly credentialed staff, and we are committed to ongoing monitoring and support to keep Highlands fully compliant.

This issue is now resolved, and Highlands has turned the page with stronger systems that protect both compliance and instructional quality.

C. HCCS Instructional Minutes

Demonstrating fiscal mismanagement and its non-compliance with the law, HCCS has received ADA funds while not meeting requirements for collecting ADA apportionment as outlined by the Education Code. Specifically, Education Code 47612.5(e)(1) states: "For purposes of calculating average daily attendance for classroom-based instruction apportionments, at least 80 percent of the instructional time offered by the charter school shall be at the schoolsite, and the charter school shall require the attendance of all pupils for whom a classroom-based apportionment is claimed at the school site for at least 80 percent of the minimum instructional time required..."

- It was observed by Scott Leaman and Dennis Snelling (TRUSD Contractors/Consultants) that some students were being sent home with packets, arriving and leaving continuously without intending to stay, and provided work packets as part of the instructional day.

- HCCS submitted ADA revisions for 22-23 and 23-24 school years to address classes taught by non- credentialed teachers and to address items identified by the Attendance Report authored by Dennis Snelling, but the revisions did not address this violation.
- Further compounding the issue and contributing to the disallowed ADA, is the fact that HCCS discarded attendance records, thereby removing any documented evidence of student attendance, which is necessary to verify the accuracy of enrollment reported for ADA.
- HCCTS is required to address the practices outlined above and the disallowed ADA resulting from the violation of Ed. Code.
- The District is issuing the NOV as part of our oversight responsibilities to address HCCS' failure to meet the requirement for at least 80% of instruction to be offered at the school site.

Highlands Community Charter and Technical Schools (HCCTS) acknowledges that past classroom observations identified instances where some students arrived late, left early, or were provided instructional packets when departing. However, Highlands is appealing the State Auditor's findings for both schools because it has always maintained a written policy requiring daily attendance that was and is communicated in the student handbook (Exhibit V) and reinforced during new student onboarding.

In regard to disallowed ADA, there were numerous flaws with the state audit process as noted in our request for summary review for Highlands that was filed with the Education Audit Appeals Panel and the formal appeal that was filed with the Education Audit Appeals Panel for CICA. Among them was the assertion in the state audit report that Highlands did not do enough to enforce its attendance policy, which led to the conclusion that the schools owed back a significant amount of apportionment to the state. Please see our attached appeal and supporting documents (Exhibits W & X) for more information on the legal and factual issues in dispute.

It is important for you to know that Highlands staff made substantial efforts to engage students, including phone calls, texts, and emails during the audit period. More than 5,000 outreach contacts specifically regarding attendance were recorded during the state audit period (Exhibit Y). Highlands also offered wrap-around support such as food pantries, clothing closets, and counseling to reduce barriers to attendance. Technology access was suspended when students were disenrolled for non-compliance.

In short, Highlands is appealing the State Auditor findings because we believe that the Auditor misinterpreted the law and did not consider records provided by Highlands that demonstrate efforts to enforce its attendance policy. Because the appeals process is ongoing, we do not have a final decision as of the date of filing this NOV response, but Highlands is diligently pursuing this appeal.

Highlands also recognizes that its handling of paper back-up records for attendance was inconsistent. While PowerSchool serves as the official record of attendance under Education Code § 44809 and 5 C.C.R. § 401, paper records were intended to provide redundancy in case of system outages. Some records were not centralized, creating the perception that they had been discarded. TRUSD staff are welcome to review our paper attendance records at any time. Highlands acknowledges that best practice is to retain these back-up records for at least three years and has committed to doing so going forward (Exhibit Z).

Notwithstanding the fact that Highlands believes in good faith that they met all legal requirements during the period reviewed by the State Auditor, in response to the state audit and district oversight, Highlands has taken the following additional steps:

- Surveyed all sites to confirm the retention of thousands of paper records from the last three years
- Adopted new procedures to ensure consistent retention of both digital and paper records (Exhibit Z)
- Standardized attendance enforcement across sites, with clear protocols for outreach and intervention (Exhibit Y)
- Contracted with Schoolhouse Partners, LCC to complete a forensic audit (Exhibit AB)

Highlands is committed to continuous improvement in this area. We will ensure attendance expectations are consistently communicated, enforcement is applied uniformly across all sites, and records are retained in accordance with law and best practice (Exhibit Z). Our goal is not only compliance, but to strengthen the systems that keep students engaged, supported, and on track to succeed (Exhibit AA).

To improve in the areas of attendance tracking and enforcement, HCCTS has taken corrective action to address and resolve these concerns, as outlined below. HCCS has strengthened both policies and record-keeping practices as follows:

1. Attendance Enforcement
    a. 5111.5 Disenrollment and Involuntary Removal (Revised and Approved 03/20/2025) - Outlines the involuntary disenrollment for students who accumulate ten consecutive unexcused absences despite HCCS staff's efforts to re-engage them (Exhibit AD).
    b. 5113.1 BP Attendance Enforcement (Approved 03/20/2025) - Outlines 80% attendance rule (Exhibit AA)
    c. 5120 BP Satisfactory Academic Progress (Approved 03/20/25) - Outlines students must maintain active attendance. Requires that all manual attendance records, including sign-in sheets, be retained for a minimum of three years in accordance with the California Code of Regulations, Title 5. (Exhibit AC)

d. 5131 BP Student Conduct (Revised and Approved 03/20/2025) - Outlines the ramifications of students who forge attendance records (Exhibit AE)
e. 6164.5 BP Student Success Teams (Revised and Approved 04/25/2025) - Outlines interventions to support students reportedly struggling with attendance (Exhibit AF)

2. Updated Bell Schedules for the 2025-2026
    a. Contains 5 periods rather than 3 periods for the AM schedule (Exhibit AG)
    b. Has only one track (Exhibit AI)
    c. Meets the minimum number of instructional minutes (Exhibit AH)
    d. Has only one PM schedule for all sites, rather than three (as in the 2024-2025 school year) (Exhibit AG)

3. Class Sizes
    a. 6151 BP Class Sizes and Enrollment (Approved 5/15/2025) - Sets class size and enrollment guidelines to support instruction and student success. Ensures manageable student-to-teacher ratios and adapts to program needs. Aligns class sizes with physical space limits and adjusts as needed (Exhibit AJ)
    b. 6170 BP Student-to-Teacher/Paraeducator Ratios (Approved 6/5/2025) - Sets student-to-teacher and paraeducator ratios to support instructional quality and safety. Limits general class sizes to 40:1 and follows legal ratios for independent study. Assigns paraeducators based on need, targeting 1 per 120 students. Provides extra support for students with SST or 504 plans (Exhibit AK)
    c. 7110 BP Physical Classroom Capacity (Approved 5/15/2025) - Defines and enforces classroom capacity limits to comply with safety codes and building regulations. Coordinates capacity limits with enrollment policies to support safe attendance (Exhibit AL)

4. Additional Attendance Measures:
    a. Automated Attendance Notifications: Robocalls and text alerts will immediately notify students of attendance deficiencies.
    b. Enhanced Teacher Training: Teachers will receive strengthened training on attendance monitoring and engagement tracking.
    c. The 80% Attendance Rule: Students must maintain at least 80% attendance to remain engaged in learning, per California Education Code § 51747. (Exhibit AA)
    d. Administrative Spot Checks: School administrators will conduct random compliance checks to ensure adherence to attendance policies.
    e. Updated Tiered Re-engagement Framework: Students with persistent attendance or academic progress issues will follow a structured re-engagement process.

Those who fail to improve despite interventions may be disenrolled in accordance with school policy BP 5111.5. (Exhibit AD)

HCCTS has taken all steps that it can to improve attendance policies, re-engagement strategies, and employee training to ensure students are re-engaged when there are attendance concerns. These changes should fully cure any outstanding concern that the District could have relating to attendance going forward. HCCTS also has taken all steps necessary to pursue its appeals of apportionment findings with regard to the state audit period where it believes that it met all legal requirements. There is nothing more that HCCTS can do with regard to the audit appeals until such time as a decision is made by the Education Audit Appeals Panel

D. HCCTS Exclusive Partnership Agreement

"Instruction must be provided exclusively in partnership with Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act (WIOA) programs."

- During its 2024–25 oversight review, the District discovered that HCCTS had allowed individuals who were non-students to participate in its Career Technical Education (CTE) Truck Driving program.
- The practice began in 2014 at the direction of a Board member, was supported by the Executive Director, and continued with Board approval through 2024-25.
- The WIOA partnership agreement requires instruction to be provided exclusively in partnership with WIOA.

- Providing instruction to non-students as part of HCCTS' partnership with the Volunteers of America, Local 185 Union, Sacramento County Sheriff's Office, and the Sacramento Police Department, violates this agreement.
- The District is issuing the NOV as part of our oversight responsibilities to address the breach of the exclusive partnership agreement and all resulting funds tied to the agreement.

Highlands acknowledges that past practices in the Truck Driving program violated the requirements of our Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act (WIOA) partnership agreement, which stipulates that instruction must be provided exclusively in partnership with WIOA programs. Beginning in 2014, and with the support of prior leadership, non-students were allowed to participate in the program through informal arrangements with outside organizations.

Highlands takes full responsibility for this lapse. Under current leadership, the practice has been ended and corrective steps have been taken to ensure compliance. Specifically:

- A formal investigation was completed by the Director of HR in 2024–25 (Exhibit AM).
- Disciplinary action was taken against an employee.
- A stop notice was issued in December 2024 prohibiting non-student participation (Exhibit AN).
- Between December 2024 and January 2025, Highlands discontinued informal partnerships with Local 185, the Sacramento Police Department, and the Sacramento County Sheriff's Office.
- On January 6, 2025, Highlands officially ended all non-student participation across programs (Exhibit AO).
- The Truck Driving program was suspended and will remain paused until Highlands can ensure full compliance with WIOA requirements, its charter, and the MOU.

These actions have fully cured the issue. Moving forward, Highlands has strengthened oversight of program partnerships, reinforced compliance training for staff, and adopted new safeguards to ensure all instruction aligns exclusively with WIOA requirements. This reflects our commitment to correcting past mistakes, complying with all partnership agreements, and ensuring that every program we operate directly serves only enrolled students.

IV. FISCAL MISMANAGEMENT

A. HCCTS San Diego Location

Engaged in fiscal mismanagement.

- The condominium advertises being able to "watch the ballgame from your balcony" and is the highest priced unit in the facility.
- The decision to engage in this exorbitant real estate transaction, even though students were not in or around the area is questionable.
- Compounding the issue is the fact that the admin facility lacks any direct connection to educational services or student benefit demonstrating a fiscal mismanagement.
- The District is issuing the NOV as part of our oversight responsibilities to ensure that HCCTS address the fiscal mismanagement.

Highlands acknowledges that the decision to lease a condominium office in San Diego was a misstep that does not align with our mission or our responsibility to ensure all expenditures directly benefit students. While the space was briefly used by a remote employee and originally intended to support exploration of expansion opportunities, the location did not provide meaningful educational value. We recognize that this was poor judgment under prior leadership and understand the District's concern that this constituted fiscal mismanagement.

Highlands has since vacated the property and taken corrective steps to minimize the financial impact. We engaged Newmark Realty on March 27, 2025, to sublease the space, revised the listing in June 2025, and remains prepared to accept any commercially reasonable offer. While it is not possible to control the timing of sublease offers, Highlands is committed to recouping as much value as possible and bringing this matter to resolution (Exhibit AP and Exhibit AQ).

This decision reflects mistakes of the past. Moving forward, Highlands has implemented stronger financial controls and multi-level approval processes to ensure that all facility and spending decisions are directly tied to student learning and educational services. These safeguards are designed to prevent similar errors and to reinforce our commitment to fiscal responsibility, transparency, and compliance.

B. HCCS Marysville 2 Location

"engaged in fiscal mismanagement" regarding the allegations listed below:

- HCCTS terminated the lease effective November 30, 2024, with an agreement that obligates HCCTS to continue paying $33,639.80 in lease payments through April 30, 2026.
- HCCTS sold publicly funded equipment (valued at $52,494.34) to the City of Marysville f or $1.00.
- The ongoing lease payments, the disposal of equipment at a nominal price, and the initial misrepresentation of the site's intended use constitute fiscal mismanagement.

Highlands acknowledges that the decision to open and lease the Marysville 2 site under prior leadership was unsound and did not reflect appropriate planning or stewardship of public resources. Entering into the lease and purchasing equipment were poor decisions that created the appearance — and in practice, the reality — of fiscal mismanagement.

In November 2024, Highlands reached a termination agreement with the City of Marysville that ended the lease early (Exhibit AR). While Highlands remains obligated to make lease payments through April 2026, this arrangement resulted in a net savings of approximately $88,000 compared to the original lease terms. The transfer of equipment for $1 was part of the inducement necessary to secure this early termination and avoid further taxpayer losses (Exhibit AS and Exhibit AT).

While this solution limited financial damage, Highlands acknowledges that the initial decision to enter into the lease and purchase equipment without a detailed instructional or operational plan was a mistake. This is an important lesson, and the current administration is committed to ensuring that all future facility decisions are grounded in sound strategic planning, tied directly to student benefit, and compliant with the requirements of MOU Amendment No. 3.

This matter has been resolved to the fullest extent possible given the circumstances created under prior leadership. Moving forward, Highlands has implemented stronger financial controls and multi-level approval processes to ensure that no facility or equipment decisions are made without thorough analysis, transparency, and clear educational purpose. The current administration did not have the ability to prevent or unwind those initial decisions. Instead, our responsibility now is to mitigate losses and resolve the matter as prudently as possible.

V. Employment of Celebrities & Professional Athletes and Use of Public Funds

The District has asked Highlands to provide additional information regarding past employment arrangements for individuals identified as "professional/celebrity athletes." Highlands has previously shared details on this matter and offers the following to close out all outstanding questions.

Under prior leadership, salaries and job classifications for these employees were not aligned with established job descriptions or salary schedules. Highlands acknowledges that this was a mistake and understands the District's concern.

Since then, Highlands has taken corrective action:

- Job descriptions for the relevant positions were updated and formally approved by the Board.

- Roles were reviewed and reclassified to ensure alignment with board-approved duties and appropriate compensation structures.

- These employees are no longer employed by Highlands as of the 2025–26 school year so this is not an ongoing issue..

Highlands also recognizes that these issues were symptomatic of a broader lack of policies and procedures to govern hiring, compensation, and promotions. To address this, Highlands has engaged Jennifer Lopez Consulting, LLC to conduct a comprehensive review of all related policies, with recommendations due by December 2025. The Board will consider these recommendations to ensure consistent, transparent practices moving forward.

We further acknowledge the State Auditor's finding that the absence of clear policies created the potential for inequity and favoritism. Highlands is committed to fully implementing the Auditor's recommendations and to ensuring that compensation practices are fair, transparent, and aligned with both law and best practice. Recommendations 22 and 23 from the State Audit Report are below, along with our current status of implementation.

Recommendation 22

To ensure that pay is assigned equitably and based on merit and performance, Highlands should implement policies by December 2025 to create a merit-based structure for devising its salary schedules, evaluating staff, assigning salaries and salary increases, and deciding on annual bonus amounts.

HCCTS BP 4111 (Exhibit BA) establishes the requirement for a structured hiring process including screening of candidates, panel interview requirements, and offers of employment. HCCTS Board Policy 4111.2 (Exhibit BB), establishing a structured and equitable promotion process that recognizes demonstrated competence. In alignment with these policies, HCCTS will collaborate with an independent contractor to develop policies and procedures that ensure a fair and consistent pay structure. Additionally, HCCTS has implemented staff evaluations through the third-party platform Frontline, providing a centralized system for storing and referencing all evaluations.

To prevent favoritism and pay inequity, Highlands should, by December 2025, implement a policy to adhere to its salary schedules and not allow executive management to approve increases outside of salary schedule limits.

Currently no employees at HCCTS have salaries that are outside of the salary schedule based on their job description. HCCTS's new Chief Operations Officer (COO) is currently reviewing all salaries to identify and address potential pay inequities and continuing to improve the process of determining starting salaries for all employees. The COO will work with an independent contractor to ensure that a comprehensive set of policies and procedures, including salary schedules and pay increases, is in place and fully implemented by January 2026.

VI. SUMMARY

This response provides evidence that HCCS has either already fully cured or has taken every possible step to cure all of the concerns raised by the District and will continue to vigorously pursue resolution of the few items that are outside of the school's control.

~~Assurances, Affirmations, and Declarations~~

HCCS proposes to add grade 11 in compliance with guidance from TRUSD.

5. Addition of CAST and CAASPP Assessments
   HCCS will test students in both CAST and CAASPP based on guidance from the California Department of Education and TRUSD. While these assessments are intended for students in traditional high school programs, and HCCS serves adults, HCCTS has implemented this assessment to ensure compliance and accountability in its academic programs.

6. Enhanced Curriculum for Improved English Learner Support
   The HCCTS Board has approved the Savvas curriculum for HCCS. Implementation has begun with professional development support from Savvas in alignment with Professional Learning Community (PLC) structures.

7. Lottery Procedures
   HCCS respectfully requests approval to update its current lottery procedures to more accurately reflect the Charter School's existing admission practices. While maintaining full compliance with all applicable provisions of the California Education Code, HCCS seeks to clarify and enhance its written policies and procedures to ensure greater transparency, accessibility, and alignment with the school's mission of serving adult learners. These updates will streamline the admissions process, reflect current operational structures, and better address the needs of the diverse student population.

   With TRUSD's approval, HCCS will continue to uphold equitable and compliant admission practices while refining procedures to ensure they are clear, consistent, and supportive of the school's commitment to access and inclusion.

Program Focus: Opportunities for Adult Learners

The Highlands Story

Highlands Community Charter School (HCCS) has been in operation since August 2014 and is one of two public charter schools operated by Highlands Community Charter and Technical Schools. HCCS exists to provide second chances — to serve adult learners aged 22 and older who, for a wide variety of reasons, were unable to earn a high school diploma through traditional pathways.

We serve a uniquely diverse student population, the majority of whom are immigrants and refugees. Some of our students arrive with advanced degrees from their home countries, having previously worked as engineers, teachers, and medical professionals. Others have had little or no formal education and are just beginning to learn to read, write, or speak English for the first time. Our model is built to honor this range of lived experiences — meeting students where they are and helping them reach where they want to go.

HCCS is open to all adult learners over the age of 22 and accepts students according to available capacity and lottery procedures. At our core, we believe that every student — regardless of their starting point — deserves access to a high-quality education, a pathway to a better future, and the unwavering support of a school community that sees their potential.

In July 2025, HCCS entered an era of renewal and accountability under the leadership of Executive Director Jonathan Raymond, former superintendent of Sacramento City Unified. With a sharpened focus on transparency, equity, and academic rigor, we are reimagining what second-chance education can be in California.

Our goal is to urgently rebuild an adult education program on a foundation of institutional integrity and a deep commitment to putting students first in every decision. We are raising standards across the board to implement clear policies for fiscal responsibility, place K-12 credentialed teachers in every classroom, lower class sizes, develop a rigorous and standards-aligned curriculum, enable more professional learning for teachers, and expand access to career training to support workforce needs throughout the regions we serve.

While the school has temporarily cut back staffing and reduced its enrollment capacity as part of program restructuring, it has laid essential groundwork for deep structural change. Every initiative proposed in this revision reflects our commitment to building educational programs that deliver on HCCS's commitment to serving its students, families, and the public.

HCCS has also launched a comprehensive five-year strategic planning process to reimagine how we deliver services and meet the evolving needs of our learners. We are investing in academic excellence, workforce relevance, and a culture of care. With these changes, we believe Highlands can become a statewide model for high-quality adult education that transforms lives.

Mission Statement
HCCS is a diverse community for social justice, serving the underserved by providing access to education, technology, communication, and employment for 21st-century achievers. Through community partnerships, HCCS builds new legacies leading to self-sufficiency and generational change.

Vision
The vision of HCCS is to eradicate educational inequality and promote workforce success.

Executive Leadership
The Executive Leadership at Highlands Community Charter School provides high-quality leadership to create and sustain a meaningful learning environment that supports student academic progress.

Under the direction of the Board, the Cabinet—comprising the Executive Director, Chief Academic Officer, Chief Operating Officer, and Chief Business Officer—develops, implements, and evaluates key school systems and processes, including academic, human resources, finances, assessment, facilities, and accountability.

Leadership

~~Community Need for Charter School~~

~~Dropouts in the United States~~

~~In the United States, a student drops out of high school every nine seconds (Lehr, Johnson, Bremer, Cosio, & Thompson, 2004). That is 7,000 students who drop out of high school every single day. Annually that totals 1.3 million students who fail to graduate (Alliance for Excellent Education, 2011, p. 1). This is especially true of minority students and those who are socioeconomically disadvantaged (Balfanz & Legters, 2004). Non-graduates are far more likely than graduates to be unemployed, to rely on government assistance, or to resort to criminal behavior (Alliance for Excellent Education, 2011). Public high schools in the United States have an 80% graduation rate (Hefling, 2014). However, in large urban school districts that cater to large numbers of children from socioeconomically disadvantaged backgrounds, the graduation rate decreases significantly to 50% (Guryan & Ludwig, n.d.). This has a huge impact on the national, state, and local economy for several reasons, among them, lost tax revenue, higher unemployment rates, dependence on government assistance programs, the community cost of crimes committed, and the cost to incarcerate criminals. By providing access to education and training to students 22 years of age or older, we believe that we will not only improve the lives of our students and their families but also improve the community and the economy. By creating taxpayers, reducing the number of people receiving government assistance, and reducing the number of crimes and criminals, we are improving our community.~~

~~Who Is Dropping Out?~~

~~A dropout is defined as a student who is between 16-24 years old who is not enrolled in high school and has not earned a high school diploma or an equivalency. According to a study conducted by the National Center for Education Statistics (NCES), when broken down by race and socioeconomic status, minority students and socioeconomically disadvantaged students are dropping out of school at a much higher rate than non-minority students and socioeconomically advantaged students. American Indian students have a dropout rate of 46%; Hispanic and African-American students have a dropout rate of 43%; and Asian students have a drop-out rate of 17% (Alliance for Excellent Education, 2011, p. 3). Data shows that there is a strong relationship between poverty and high school dropout rates. A study conducted in 2009 showed students from low-income families were five times more likely to drop out of high school than students from high-income families (American Psychological Association, 2012, p. 1). Another study done by the NCES in 2014 concluded that only 2.6% of students who dropped out of high school were from high-income families and 5.4% of students who dropped out of high school were from medium-income families. Of the Hispanic and African American students in the United States, approximately half of them are served by high schools in predominantly low-income neighborhoods where dropout rates fluctuate between 40% and 50% (Balfanz & Legters, 2004). According to the California Department of Education in the 2013-14 school year 56,756 students dropped out of high school in Sacramento and 52,249 dropped out the following school year. Of those who dropped out in the 2013-14 school year, 20.8% were English language learners, 20.3% were black, 18.8% were Native Americans, and 14.4% were socioeconomically disadvantaged.~~ year high school dropouts cost our nation approximately $1.8 billion in lost tax revenue ("High school dropouts cost $1.8 billion every year," 2013). A study on lost tax revenue conducted by Northwestern University found that the estimated cost per high school dropout is $305,000 in potential economic gain through tax revenues to the local, state, and federal governments (Fogg, Harrington, & Khatiwada, 2008, p. vii). If only 50% of the students who dropped out in California's largest metropolitan areas were recovered, it is predicted that the economic benefits to California would be huge. The dropout recovery would invest approximately $247 million more per year into our local economy. Home sales would increase by 2.92 billion dollars. In California alone, it would increase our state and local tax revenues by $129 million every year (Carter, 2011). As a result, the California Legislature is working to address issues surrounding dropout rates such as providing schools with adequate resources to increase dropout recovery and reduce dropout rates.

~~Dropouts and Lost Tax Revenue~~

Dropouts and Wages

High school graduates and college graduates make significantly more money on average than non-graduates. In 2009, college graduates made an average of $46,930 per year while the average annual wage for a high school graduate was $27,380. The same year, the average annual wage for a high school dropout was $19,540 (Alliance for Excellent Education, 2011, p. 1). Dropouts are three times more likely than college graduates to be unemployed. According to the Georgetown Center on Education and Workforce, 65% of jobs in 2020 will require some form of education.

Dropouts and Crime

High school dropouts are significantly more likely to be convicted of a crime and to be incarcerated than high school and college graduates. A study in 2007 showed that male dropouts aged 16 to 24 were more than six times as likely to be incarcerated than high school graduates. The same study showed that male dropouts were 63 times more likely to be incarcerated than males with a bachelor's degree (American Psychological Association, 2012). In the United States, an overwhelming number of men in our prison system are high school dropouts. According to the Bureau of Justice Statistics, approximately 68% of inmates do not have a high school diploma (Wolf Harlow, 2003), and more than 40% of inmates have less than a high school education. According to the Alliance for Excellent Education, Americans could save 18.5 billion dollars annually in prison systems simply by reducing high school dropout rates by 5% for men age 20-60 (Dianda, 2008).

Dropouts and Public Assistance

Dropouts are also more likely to receive government assistance than high school and college graduates (American Psychological Association, 2012, p. 6). Given the lower wage earning potential and the higher unemployment rates, many high school dropouts have inadequate income to live on their own or support a family (Sum, Khatiwada, & McLaughlin, 2009, p. 13). Due to these income inadequacies, high school dropouts are more likely to be on public assistance or federal assistance for needy families. "If all single mothers obtained at least a high school education, the annual cost savings would be $3.8 billion" (Dianda, 2008, p. 4).

Immigrants in California

According to the Public Policy Institute of California (PPIC), there are approximately 10 million immigrants in California, which is about one quarter of our state's total population. We have more ~~immigrants in California than in any other state in the nation. According to the US Census, half of all children in California have at least one immigrant parent. Of those immigrants, almost 80% of them are working age adults, and approximately 34% of them do not have a high school diploma. Although immigrants are just as likely to work as Americans, they tend to make 24% less money. It is imperative that these immigrants have the opportunity to access education, learn English, complete their high school diploma, and attend vocational and college training. Research shows that many foreign-born immigrants and minorities have lower high school graduation rates. According to the California Department of Education's Fall 2017 of Ed Facts there were 1,271,150 English language learners in the California public school system., which is 20.4% of the total enrollment in California and 2,637,412 speak a language other than English at home. Below is a graph that shows immigrants living in California and the United States by year from 1870-2016.~~

~~(Source: US Census Bureau, Decennial Censuses, and the American Community Survey)~~

~~Sacramento and the Twin Rivers Unified School District~~

~~In 2002, the Civil Rights Project at Harvard University labeled Sacramento the most diverse city in the United States. According to the 2010 US Census, the Sacramento metropolitan area had 2.7 million people; 45% are white, 27% are Hispanic or Latino, 18% are Asian, 15% are black, 7% identified as two or more races, and the remaining are Pacific Islander and Native American (National Center for Education Statistics, 2014). Demographers expect the minority population to continue to grow in Sacramento and it is estimated that by 2050 Sacramento will grow by 54%. It is estimated that in Sacramento 62% of the population speaks English while 38% are English learners. In Sacramento, our minority populations are more likely to experience poverty than the white population. In Sacramento only 14% of the white population is socioeconomically disadvantaged, compared to 28% of the black population, 27% of the Hispanic population, 26% of the Native population, and 23% of people who identified as two or more races, which are all living in poverty. Approximately 63% of people living in Sacramento are participating in the workforce with employment at 56% and unemployment at 10.5%. Minority groups have higher rates of unemployment with 17% unemployment for our black population, 15% for people who identified as two or more races, and 14% for Native Americans. Level of education is directly related to employment with a positive linear relationship. For people living in Sacramento without a high school education, only 56% of them are employed compared to 70% of high~~ ~~school graduates, 78% with some college, and 87% for those with a bachelor's degree or higher. Within the Twin Rivers Unified School District, 31.7% of students drop out between ninth and twelfth grade with nearly 500 more students who stay enrolled through twelfth grade but do not graduate. According to the 2010 Census, almost 20% of adults living in the Twin Rivers Unified School District do not have a high school diploma or equivalent (Public Policy Institute of California, 2012).~~

Jonathan Raymond, Executive Director
Jonathan Raymond is a nationally respected education leader known for helping institutions navigate moments of deep crisis and emerge stronger, more accountable, and more student-centered. He most recently served as Senior Vice President and Superintendent in Residence at City Year, a national youth development and education nonprofit, where he oversaw education policy and provided strategic guidance to local and national systems working at the intersection of education, equity, and workforce development. As the Superintendent of the City School District of New Rochelle, he led the district through the final stages of the COVID-19 pandemic, investing in whole-child supports, accelerating learning recovery, and strengthening school-community partnerships. His leadership prioritized mental health, expanded after-school and summer enrichment, and delivered resources to students most impacted by the Pandemic.

Prior to that, Raymond served as Superintendent of Sacramento City Unified School District, where he guided one of California's largest urban districts through historic budget deficits, deep structural reform, and the early stages of a statewide shift toward equity-driven education. Under his leadership, the district raised graduation rates, introduced whole-child support, launched early learning and summer programs, and transformed some of its most underserved schools into high-performing campuses — all while navigating one of the toughest fiscal climates in California's history.

Raymond's crisis-tested leadership is grounded in a lifelong commitment to public service. He previously served as Executive Director of the Massachusetts COVID-19 Relief Fund, Chief Accountability Officer of the Charlotte-Mecklenburg Schools in North Carolina, and President of the Stuart Foundation, California's largest K-12 education philanthropy. He began his career as a labor law attorney and brings legal, nonprofit, and philanthropic expertise to every challenge. He is a graduate of the Broad Superintendents Academy, holds a JD from George Mason University School of Law, an MA from The Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy at Tufts University, and a BA from Tufts University. He also completed the Executive Management Program at Harvard Business School.

Throughout his work, Raymond has earned a reputation for putting students first, building trust in fractured environments, and helping systems rise from instability to renewal. As the newly appointed Executive Director of Highlands Community Charter, he brings that same steady hand to a school community that is ready to rebuild and thrive.

The Population HCCS Desires to Educate

HCCS has the motto "...it's never too late." The school specifically focuses on providing educational opportunities for adults 22 years and older without a US high school diploma who have been unserved or underserved by the traditional educational system. This includes students who were unable to complete high school due to circumstances such as early parenthood, justice system involvement, or economic necessity, as well as immigrants and refugees seeking educational opportunities in the United States. HCCS provides a viable educational choice for adult learners interested in completing their high school education in a supportive environment that recognizes their diverse backgrounds, experiences, and goals.

The school serves students from 89 countries, with the five most represented countries as of the 2024-2025 school year being Afghanistan (5,830 students), Ukraine (1,383), Russia (1,356), Mexico (1,014), and Vietnam (318). This international diversity reflects both global migration patterns and Sacramento's role as a resettlement community for refugees and immigrants.

Student Population Characteristics

Demographics and Geographic Distribution

HCCS enrolls students primarily from Sacramento County, serving a culturally and linguistically diverse population. Women comprise 58.90% of the student body, men 41%, and 0.10% identify as nonbinary. The school serves grades 9-12, with all students being 22 years of age or older.

Language and Cultural Diversity

Approximately 90% of HCCTS students are English Language Learners, though the school also serves English proficient students seeking to complete their education through credit recovery. Based on enrollment data, there are multiple primary languages represented at HCCS, reflecting the diverse countries of origin of the student population. The five most represented countries at HCCS as of Census day for the 2024-2025 school year are Afghanistan, Ukraine, Russia, Mexico, and Vietnam. The table below shows the top five countries of origin for students at HCCS by year for the last three years, along with the number of students enrolled by year for that country.

~~Highlands Community Charter Schools offers a quality program of instruction that serves students from a wide range of age, ethnic, cultural and language backgrounds, specifically targeting high school dropouts, parents, immigrants, veterans, former foster youth and ex-offenders. Highlands provides the appropriate primary and secondary career technical education to help students from these groups to succeed. As our mission states, we are "serving the unserved."~~

~~At HCCS we understand the community we serve, and we provide that community with educational tools and opportunities. In California, we have a growing immigrant and refugee population. In order for immigrants and English learners to successfully enter the workforce, they need to improve their English. We have an astounding percentage of adults in our community who have been unable to complete a high school diploma or equivalency. At HCCS we love our community, and we believe that by educating adults, we will see economic growth, civic engagement, a reduction in crime, and a reduced number of our community members relying on government assistance. We foresee that we will continue to grow throughout Sacramento and California in order to meet the growing needs of adults in our state and in our community.~~

~~1.2: HCCS Term Performance and Meeting the Needs of the Community~~

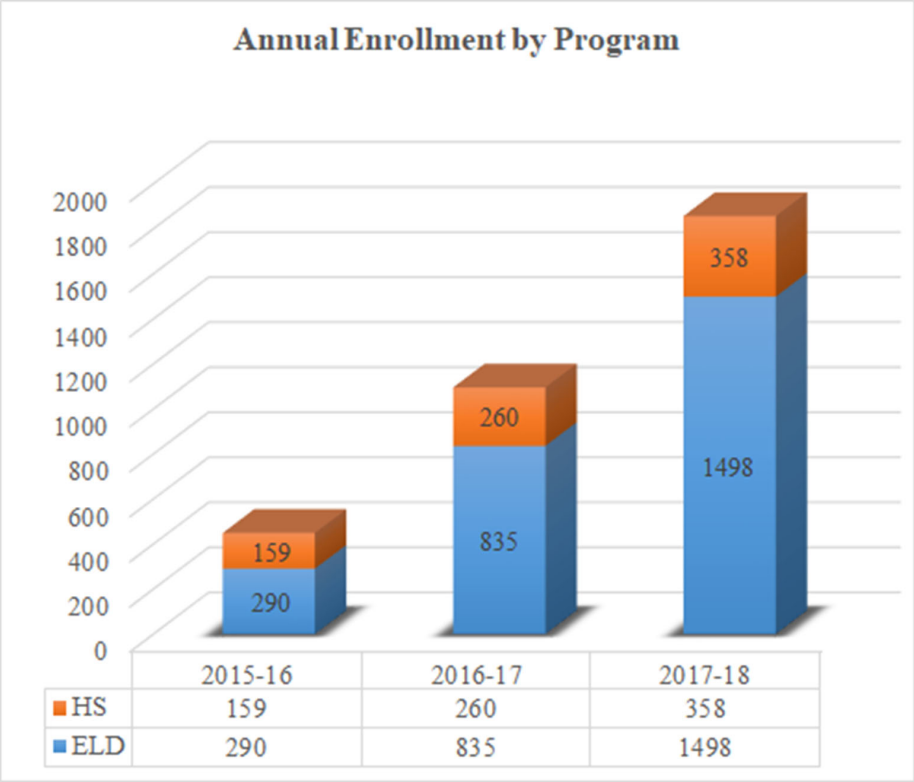
~~Enrollment~~

~~At HCCS our enrollment has grown each year since our doors opened. In the 2015-2016 school year, enrollment was 449; in the 2016-2017 school year, enrollment more than doubled to 1,095; and in the 2017-2018 school year, our enrollment grew again to 1,856 students. In the 2017-2018 school year, the student community experienced a shift in our demographics with a large influx of refugees from Afghanistan. Due to this, the previous primary student language of Spanish was replaced by Farsi/Dari. Many of these refugees were not able to access education in their home countries, and their literacy level at entry was very low. In response to this need, we opened sites in their communities and hired paraeducators who are fluent in Farsi, Dari, and Pashto. HCCS responded to this community need by partnering with community-based organizations that provide refugee assistance like International Rescue Committee, World Relief, Opening Doors and Lao Family Community Development, Inc. Our high school program has also experienced steady growth each year. Even with a very strong labor market, students still continue to enroll into the program and graduate.~~

~~Below is a graph that shows our annual enrollment for the 2015-16, 2016-17, and 2017-18 school years for both English Language Development ("ELD") and the High School Completion Program:~~



~~This shows that the high school program doubled in size in two years from 159 students in the 2015-16 school year to 358 students in the 2017-18 school year. At the same time, the ELD program grew from 290 students in the 2015-16 school year to 1,498 students in the 2017-18 school year.~~

~~Enrollment in CTE~~

~~Current CTE programs at HCCS are unique in that some of these programs are offered through our school, and some are extended to students by way of partnerships. At HCCS we have Truck Driving, Early Childhood Education, and Entrepreneurship as part of our internal CTE programs. Our external CTE programs are with Cosmo Beauty Academy and Asher College. Cosmetology and Manicuring are both located at Cosmo Beauty Academy. We also partner with Asher College to extend three programs: A+ Information Technology ("IT"), Medical Office Administration, and Office Administration which includes Microsoft Office certifications. Enrollment numbers in each of these programs can be seen below over the past three years.~~

Socioeconomic Status

The overwhelming majority of HCCS students qualify as socioeconomically disadvantaged, with over 97% qualifying for this status in the 2023-2024 census, an increase from the historical 90%+ rate.

Free ~~Assessment~~

~~At HCCS we place a high value on student assessment. We use assessments to understand student needs and levels. HCCS also uses assessment to ensure student understanding. The assessment process varies between ELD and high school, but all programs require various assessments during enrollment and throughout the classes/programs. At HCCS our assessment process begins during enrollment and orientation. All new high school students are given a Comprehensive Adult Student Assessment System ("CASAS") reading and math test during~~ their new student orientation. ELD students are also CASAS tested as part of the enrollment process, but ELD students are tested in reading, math, and listening. ELD students are also given an internally normed speaking test and a writing test by a teacher before beginning classes. These assessments are used to place students in the appropriate classes. These CASAS tests, both in ELD and in high school, are the Life Skills Series provided by CASAS. It is imperative that the content of our lessons is meaningful to the students' lives and relevant to our students' goals.

Below is a bar graph that demonstrates CASAS Reading placement assessments for new high school and ELD students for the three previous school years as well as this year:

and reduced lunch eligibility has grown significantly:

For high school students, CASAS assessments are very important. High school teachers and counselors use the CASAS Reading score to determine if students need to be placed in a remedial reading class called Reading Skills or if the student needs to work with a Reading Specialist. The score is also used to determine if high school students have reading scores required to enter any of Highlands Community Charter School's Career Technical Education ("CTE") programs. Our high school students averaged an entry CASAS reading score of 231 for the 2015-16 school year, 228 for the 2016-17 school year, and 225 for the 2017-18 school year.

In the ELD program, reading scores (as well as other test scores) are used to place students into the appropriate class level. Our ELD students scored lower on average than the high school students with an average entry CASAS Reading score of 211 for the 2015–16 school year, 208 for the 2016–17 school year, and 203 for the 2017–18 academic year. This average score is largely impacted by the increased number of refugee students HCCS continues to serve. Of the 1,856 students enrolled, 646 are from Afghanistan, Syria, and Iraq. Many of those students enroll into our ELD program with very low rates of English literacy and some without literacy in their first language. These CASAS Reading assessments allow us to identify pre-literacy, non-literacy, and literacy ELD students who need additional support. They also help us to identify the higher level ELD students who are good candidates for the high school/CTE program.

students over the past three years and what has been gathered for the 2018–19 year so far.

On the CASAS Listening assessment, ELD students had an average score of 203 in the 2015–16 school year, 203 in the 2016–17 school year, 199 for the 2017–18 school year, and 204 for the 2018–19 academic year so far.

~~CASAS Math assessments have always been administered to all incoming high school students during the enrollment process, but we have recently made an increased effort to make sure both ELD and high school students are completing the initial CASAS Math placement exam. The assessments are used in conjunction with students' transcripts to determine their level and to place them in the appropriate classes.~~

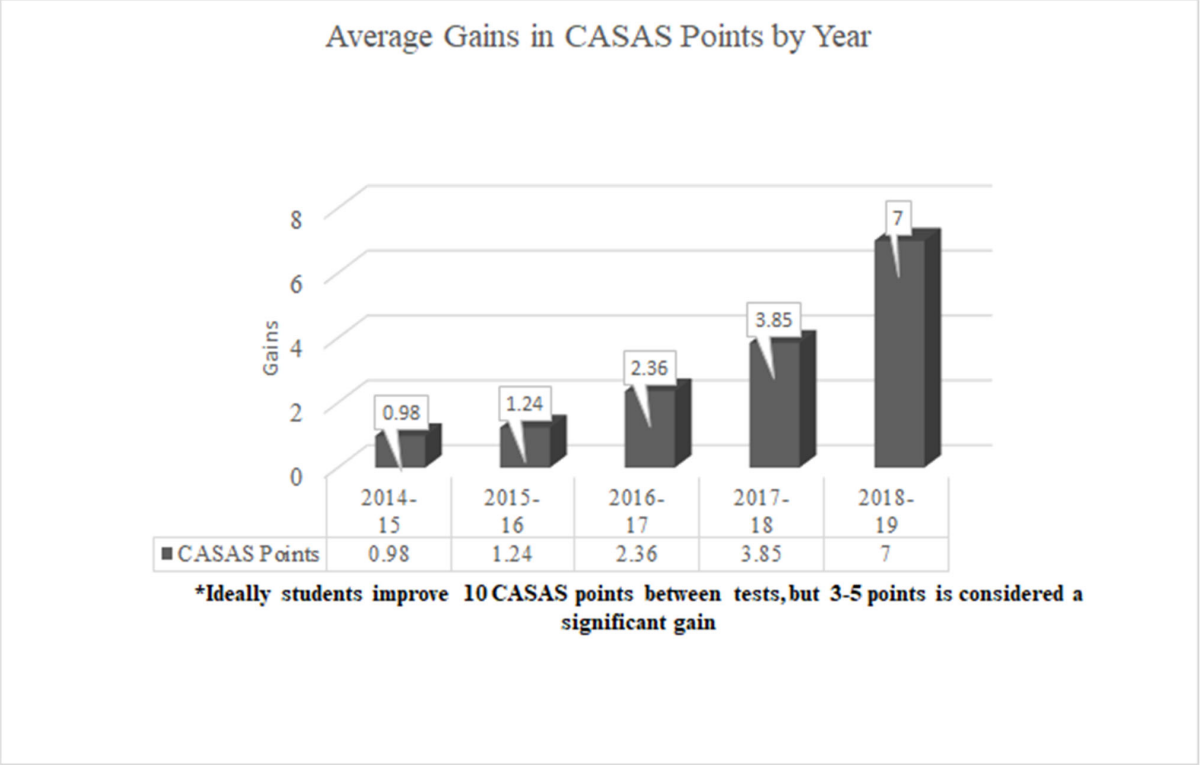
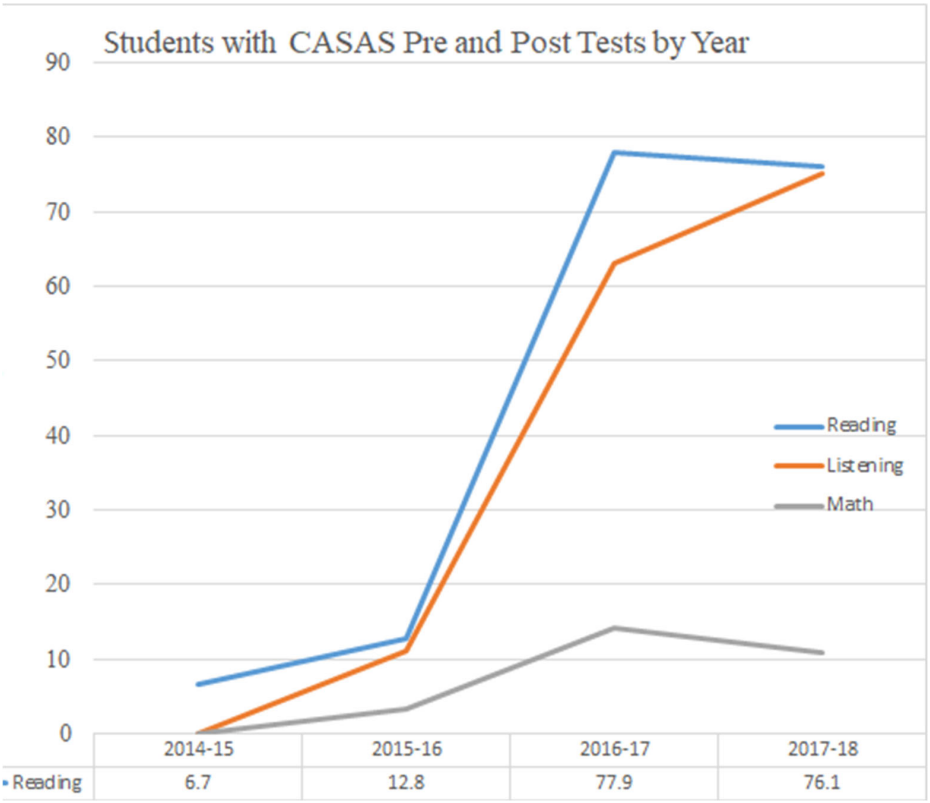
~~Overall, high school students tend to score higher on CASAS Math assessments, but in the 2016-17 school year, ELD students scored slightly higher with an average first score of 220. During the same school year, the high school students averaged 218. Overall, high school students averaged a CASAS Math pre-test of 218, while ELD students averaged 211.~~

~~At HCCS we use CASAS in two primary ways: to assess incoming students for placement and to measure academic progress. Our goal is to have students complete a level between assessments. A complete level is approximately 10 points. If a student came to HCCS and scored 180, they would need 10 points to make it to the next level at 190. However, if a student scored 188, that student would only need a two point gain in order to reach the next level. Below is a graph that depicts our average CASAS gains by year.~~



~~Although we have not captured the number of student gains that we would ideally like to see, we have steadily improved each year from only .98 points in the 2014-15 school year to 3.85 in the 2017-18 year. This year we are projecting an average gain of 7 points based on the gains we have for this school year and the five year trend. In order for us to capture our students' gains, it is imperative that our students consistently receive pre- and post-tests. At HCCS we are committed to increasing our level of CASAS assessments. Below is a graph that shows the number of students who received CASAS pre- and post-tests for the last four school years.~~



~~In the 2014-15 school year, we had a very low percentage of pre- and post-tests compared to the 2017-18 school year, when for reading and listening, we had pre- and post-tests at 76.1% and 75.2% respectively. This percentage is based on our Average Daily Attendance (ADA). Every year we have improved in reading and listening, even while our enrollment grew expeditiously. The one test in which we need to improve is math. As this graph indicates, we have not made improvements in the number of CASAS pre- and post- math assessments. In prior years, we did not assess our ELD students in math as part of the enrollment process and instead primarily assessed our high school students. Beginning in the 2018-19 school year, both high school and ELD students will be assessed in math as part of the enrollment process.~~

~~Teachers, counselors, and proctors do their best to get CASAS pre- and post- tests from every student; unfortunately, we have been unable to get them from every student. By hiring several new proctors, training more teachers and staff, purchasing more laptops to run CASAS, and developing a more rigorous testing schedule, HCCS will provide more succinct data regarding CASAS testing pre- and post-tests in the future.~~

~~Grades~~

~~At HCCS we have two systems for student grades: one is for ELD students, and one is for high school students. For the ELD students, we use the letter grades M, A, D, and E. M has a Grade Point Average ("GPA") value of four points, A has a value of three points, D has a value of two, and E has a value of one GPA point. The letter grade of M is equivalent to 90% mastery, where E is 80%, D is 70%, and E is 60% or below. In ELD, the M grade is the only grade that demonstrates level mastery and readiness for level promotion.~~

~~Grades~~Year	~~Descriptions~~Students Eligible for Free/Reduced Lunch
~~M- Meeting~~2022-2023	~~The student is meeting or exceeding standards.~~ 5,690
~~A- Approaching~~2023-2024	~~The student is approaching standards.~~9,350
~~D- Developing~~2024-2025	~~The student is developing an understanding of standards.~~ 11,546
~~E- Emerging~~	~~The student has an emerging understanding of the standards.~~

~~In the 2016-17 school year, ELD students received a total of 1,320 M's and 850 A's for a total of 2,170. For the same year, 121 students earned D's and 32 students earned E's. In the 2017-18 school year, we gave 1,274 students M's, 1,401 students A's, 444 students D's, and 259 E's. So far in the 2018-19 school year, HCCS has only entered grades for one quarter. Last quarter, 288 students earned M's, 484 earned A's, 105 earned D's, and 9 students earned E's.~~

~~It is important to note that this chart shows the total number of each grade given per academic year. The ELD students are graded in the subjects of reading, writing, speaking, and listening. The CASAS post-tests are also utilized as an external assessment to determine a student's grade.~~

Below is a bar chart that shows the distribution of ELD grades by percentage and year:

Our goal at Highlands is for our students to earn M's and A 's and to maintain a schoolwide GPA of 3.0 or higher

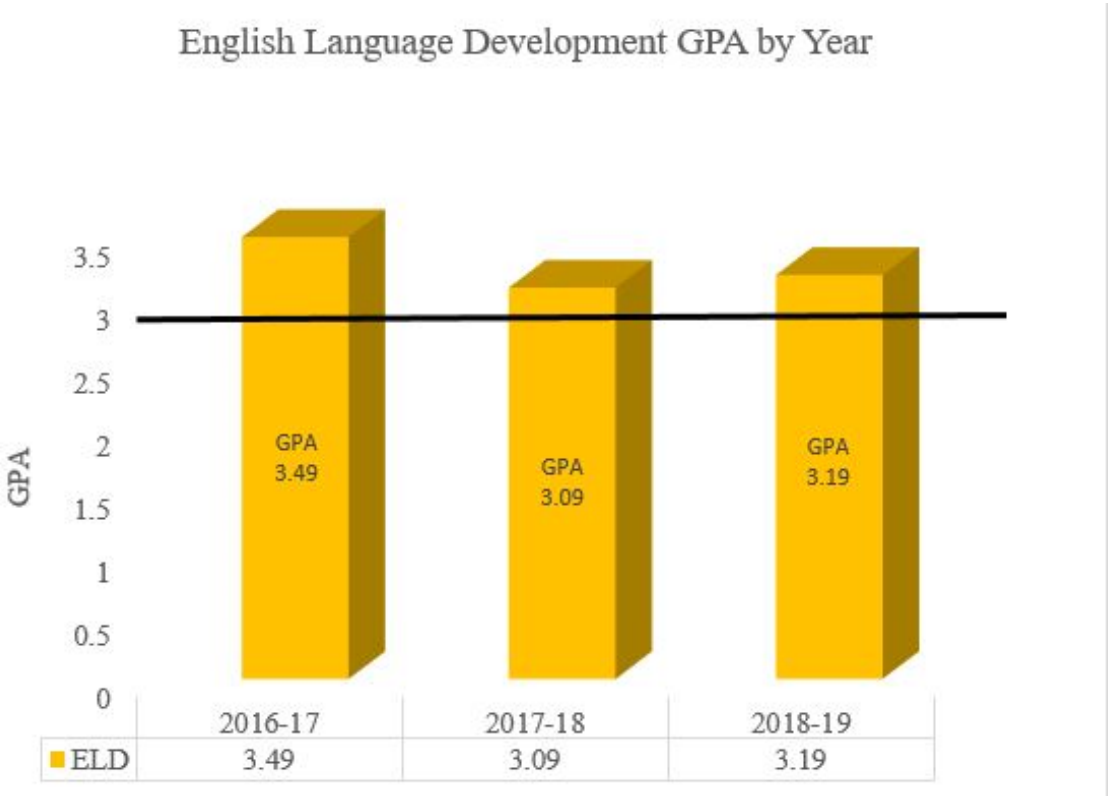
In the 2016-17 school year, 56% of the ELD students completed a level, and 93% of them received either an M or an A. Only 5% received a D, and 1% received an E. In the 2017-18 school year, 38% of the ELD students completed a level and 79% earned either an M or an A. That same year, 13% of the ELD students earned a D, and 7% earned an E. In the 2018-19 academic year, so far 32% of the ELD students have completed a level and earned an M and 87% have earned either an M or an A. Almost 12% of ELD students earned a D and 1% earned an E.

Success and accurate grades for all our students, both ELD and high school, are very important to us. Our goal is to have a schoolwide grade point average of 3.0 or higher. Below is the English Language Development GPA data for the 2016-17, 2017-18, and what has been documented so far in the 2018-19 school year:



~~Since we implemented the MADE grading system for ELD students in the last quarter of the 2016–17 school year, ELD students have maintained a grade point average of 3.0 or higher. In the 2016–17 school year, ELD students had an average GPA of 3.49. During the 2017–18 school year, ELD students had an average GPA of 3.09, and so far in the 2018–19 academic year, they have an average GPA of 3.19.~~

~~As mentioned before, HCCS's schoolwide goal is to have an average GPA of 3.0 or better for all programs. While all of our programs have achieved this goal for the last three years, the high school students tend to have a higher GPA than the ELD students.~~

~~Below is a graph of the High School GPA by year for the past three academic school years:~~

At Highlands our goal is to have a schoolwide GPA of 3.0

~~While the ELD students had an average GPA of 3.49 in the 2016-17 school year, the high school students had an average GPA of 3.53. For the 2017-18 school year, the high school students had an average GPA of 3.58 while the ELD students had a GPA of 3.09 – a considerable difference at .49 GPA points. This year the difference in grade point average between ELD and high school students is declining with a smaller gap of .24 GPA points, where high school students have an average GPA of 3.43, and ELD students have an average GPA of 3.19.~~

~~COAAPS Data~~

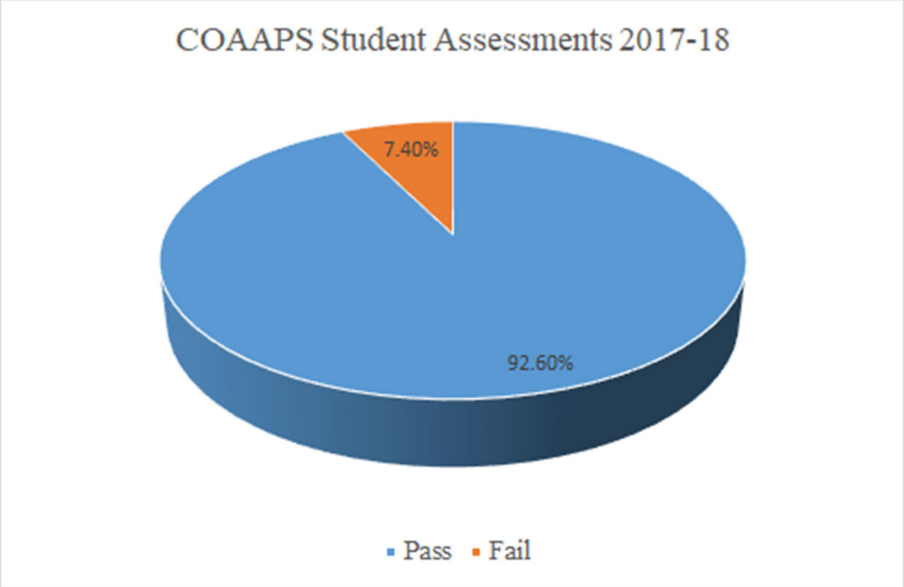
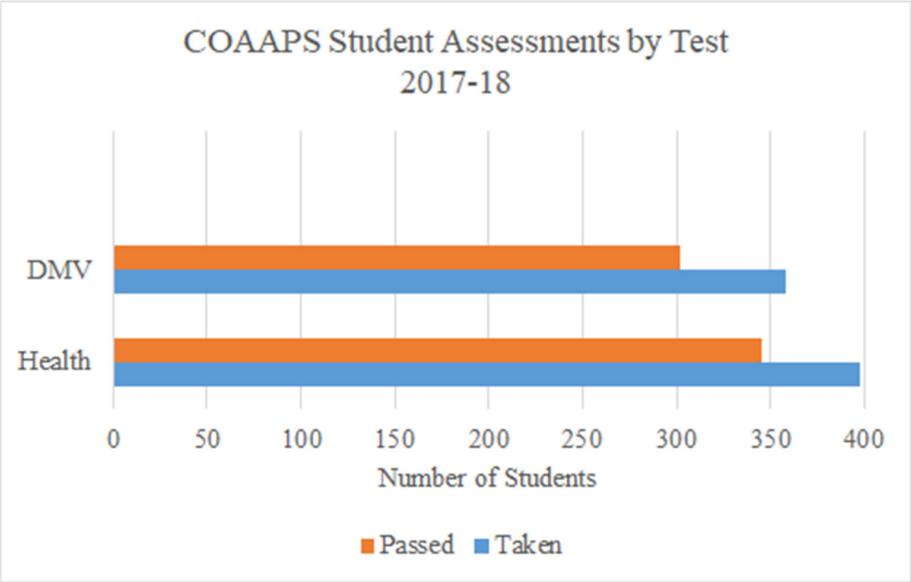
~~In 2016-17, HCCS applied for a Workforce Innovation Opportunity Act ("WIOA") grant and it was awarded for the 2017-18 school year. Then in 2017-18, we began creating EL Civics modules for the students and assessing them on the objectives. For the 2017-18 school year, we selected two themes based on students' greatest needs: community resources (DMV) and health (Healthcare). For the DMV packets, HCCS chose three relevant objectives related to Community Resources (DMV): Reading and Understanding Street Signs (Objectives 12.1, 12.2), Traffic Stops (Objective 12.8), and Citations (Objective 12.10). For Health packets, HCCS chose: Talking to a Doctor (Objectives 28.2, 28.5), Making Doctor Appointments (Objectives 28.4, 28.12), and Completing Medical History Forms (Objective 28.6).~~



~~HCCS asked the ELD teachers to choose at least one of the themes based on their students' interests and needs. Overall, these EL Civics materials were taught in 32 classrooms: DMV was taught in 14 classrooms and Health was taught in 18 classrooms. A total of 756 students were assessed. Below is a graph that shows our student learning data for the 2017-18 school year:~~



~~Of the 756 students who were assessed, 700 of them passed their assessment. Overall, 92.6% of our students passed while the remaining 7.4% of our students did not. Of the 756 students who were taught EL Civics, 358 students studied DMV and 398 studied Health. Our students did slightly better on their EL Civics Health assessments than on the DMV assessments, but overall our students did very well on both.~~

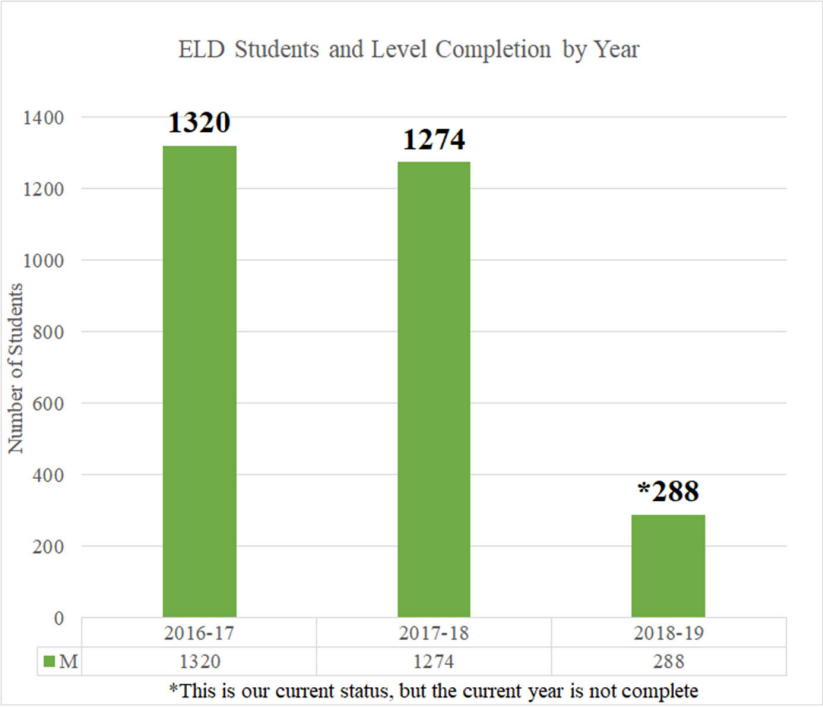
~~Below is a table that shows the number of ELD students who were promoted for the 2016-17, 2017-18, and so far in the 2018-19 school year in one or more of the following areas: reading, writing, speaking, or listening:~~



~~In the 2016-17 school year, 56% of the ELD students completed at least one level compared to 37% in the 2017-18 year, and so far in the 2018-19 school year 288 students have progressed at least one level. At the end of the 2016-17 school year, the grading system was introduced. It is possible that during the first quarter of grading, teachers were still learning to appropriately assign grades. That may have resulted in a high distribution of M grades compared to the 2017-18 school year. We are currently in the second quarter of the 2018-19 school year which explains the low number of M grades and ELD level completions.~~

~~High School Graduation Data~~
~~Rather than promotion, graduation is the best way to identify course completion for our high school students. At HCCS our graduation day is like a holiday worthy of celebration. It is the culmination of years of hard work, determination, perseverance, and overcoming sometimes very serious hardships. HCCS loves to celebrate student success and provide an opportunity for students' families to celebrate this success as well. When students earn their credits, they may petition for their diploma, and exit as a graduate. Since this happens on a very regular basis, we wanted to provide more than one opportunity a year for students to celebrate and "walk the stage." At HCCS we hold a graduation ceremony every summer and winter. Each year the venue has changed in response to graduation growth. Most recently, we held the Summer 2018 Graduation at The Center at Twenty Three Hundred, which is a venue that holds approximately 500 attendees.~~

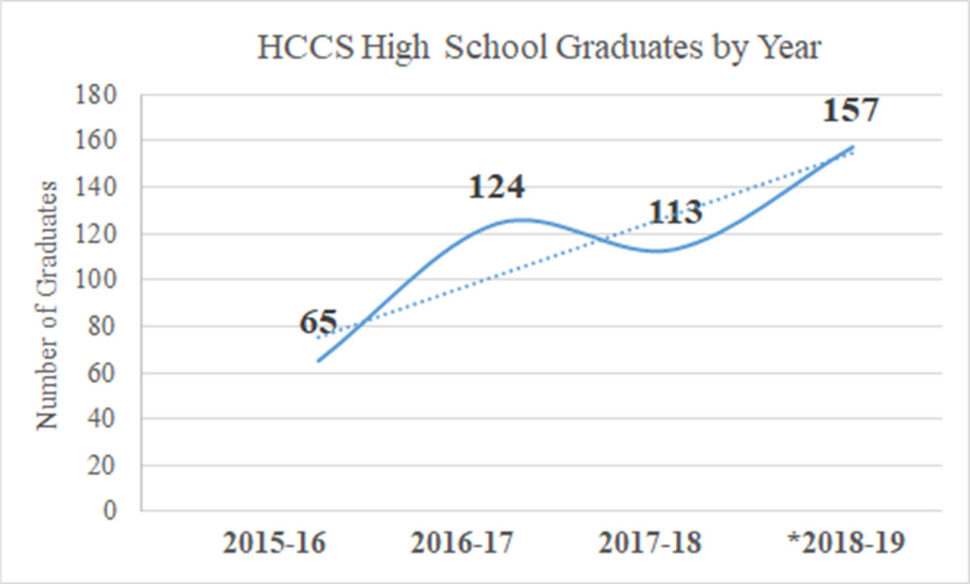
A significant portion of ~~high school graduates per year for the 2015-16, 2016-17, 2017-18 school years, and our graduation projections for the 2018-19 school year.~~



~~*This is projected for the 2018-19 school year based~~

~~The number of students who graduated from HCCS doubled each year for the first two years and has held steady at about 120 students for the past two school years. In the 2015-16 school year, we had 65 students graduate. There were 124 students who graduated in the 2016-17 school year, and 113 students who graduated in the 2017-18 school year. For the 2018-19 school year, we project that of the 350 students we have enrolled in high school, 157 will graduate.~~

~~Re-designation~~
~~At HCCS we want to ensure that we are providing our ELD students with all of the tools they need to achieve their goals. One way we do this is by transitioning our ELD students from our English Language Development program into our high school program and re-designating them as high school students.~~

~~To be re-designated from ELD to high school, each student should satisfy at least three of the following criteria: a minimum CASAS reading score of 225, CASAS minimum listening score of 225, a minimum CASAS math score of 220, a minimum ELD level 6 equivalent rubric score on the HCCS writing assessment, a minimum ELD level 6 equivalent rubric score on the HCCS speaking assessment, a minimum score of "approaching" on the student ELD portfolio rubric. A teacher recommendation may take the place of an ELD portfolio if a student has not produced a portfolio of work. All new students, who have been in attendance less than one month, or incoming students should use the HCCS writing assessment requirement as one of their three criteria.~~

~~Below is a graph that shows the number of our ELD students who have entered our high school program by year:~~

~~For the 2018-19 school year this number is projected based on the trend and enrollment~~

~~Since the 2014-15 school year, we have had a steady increase in the number of ELD students who have been reclassified from our ELD program to our high school program. We saw the biggest increase during the 2017-18 school year. So far for the 2018-19 school year, 31 ELD students have been reclassified as high school students. Based on that figure, we are projecting that 124 ELD students will reclassify by the end of the 2018-19 school year.~~

~~ELD Graduation Data~~
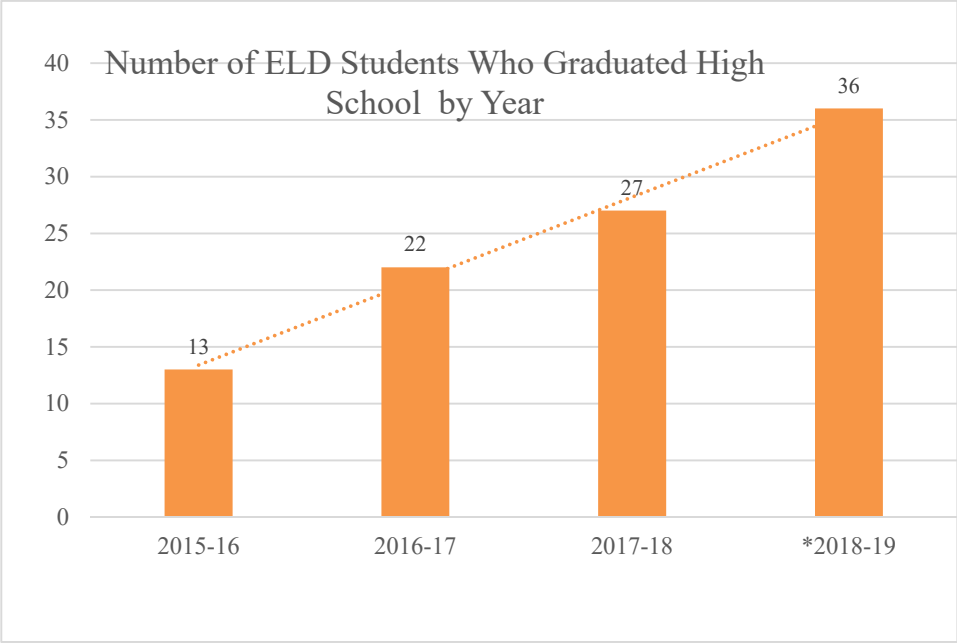
~~Similarly, we have seen a steady increase in the number of ELD students who have graduated from our high school program. From the 2015-16 school year to the 2017-2018 school year, the number of high school graduates more than doubled. Based on the 9 graduates in the first quarter for the current school year, we project 36 students who began instruction at HCCS in our ELD program will graduate from High School this year.~~



~~*For the 2018-19 school year this number is projected based on the trend and enrollment~~

~~CTE Programs~~

~~HCCS recognizes the importance of a robust Career Technical Education program, especially for students who have been traditionally unserved. Programs have been created with our students in mind. We hope that our programs will lead to livable wage careers. Historically, we have sought to expand our programs based on student needs and interests. For example, when students were interested in entering the medical field, HCCS attempted to create a program that would allow students to gain knowledge and experience in that field. In addition to student needs and interests, HCCS has also looked at local workforce and regional plans to grow its current and future programs.~~

~~Community Partnerships~~

~~We know that our students have many needs and that we do not possess the resources to address all of them. For that reason, we have developed many community partnerships with other schools and organizations. Since we opened our doors in the 2014-15 school year, we have created 16 partnerships. Through these partnerships we have a wider reach in our community, and our students have increased access to the tools they need to achieve their goals.~~

~~External CTE Programs~~

We are pleased to have six internal CTE programs and two external CTE programs as part of our high school program at HCCS. We know that our students need more than English Language Development and a high school diploma; they need the tools and skills to get a living wage job. One way that we are able to offer state of the art training and programs is through our partnership with Asher College and Cosmo Beauty Academy. At HCCS we are pleased that a total of 1729 students have participated in our career programs, both internal and external.

Asher College

At HCCS we are proud to partner with Asher College, a vocational and trade school in Sacramento that opened in 1989 to provide hands-on training in medical, business, and information technology. Through this program, we are able to offer our students three information technology programs at no cost. These programs include A+ Information Technology, Medical Office Administration, and Office Administration, which includes Microsoft Office Certifications. Since we began our partnership with Asher College, 191 students have taken Microsoft Office and 208 have taken Computer A+ Tech.

Cosmo Beauty Academy

We are also proud to partner with Cosmo Beauty Academy (Cosmo), a vocational beauty school that offers cosmetology, esthetics, and manicuring programs. It first opened in 2007 in Sacramento and is accredited by the Board of Barbering and Cosmetology, the Bureau of Private Postsecondary Education, and the National Accrediting Commission of Career Arts & Sciences. Since we began partnering with Cosmo in the 2015-16 school year, 46 of our students have participated in their program.the Academic Support and Student Support Services

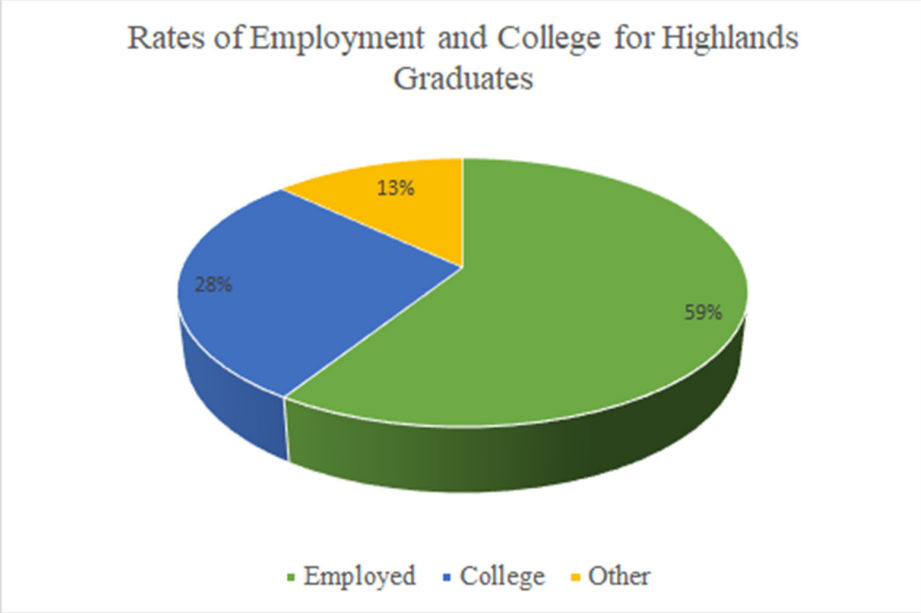
At HCCS we have the unique opportunity to work with adult learners who have faced many challenges and who require both academic and personal support in order to successfully meet their academic and career goals. Over the last five years, our students have demonstrated and communicated the things they need and ways they need to be supported. In response to our students' needs, we have developed several academic services and student support services. Academically, we support our students through our Career Success Center, ELD Navigators, library and reading services, and CTE programs and partnerships, as well as many other academic support services. Our student support services include homeless services, a free clothing closet, and a Civics 101: Rights and Responsibilities class presented by the District Attorney's Office. Our students have faced many academic and personal challenges throughout their educational journeys, and it is truly our pleasure to support them through our educational programs while they achieve their goals. We recognize that our students have many needs. While many of their needs are academic, some are personal. Our student-centered teachers, staff, and counselors interact with our students regularly to understand the areas where they need the most help. We want to improve our students' lives through our services. We have found that many of our students are unable to succeed in their classes when their basic physiological needs are not being satisfied. At HCCS we have created extensive academic and student support services to meet the needs of our student population.

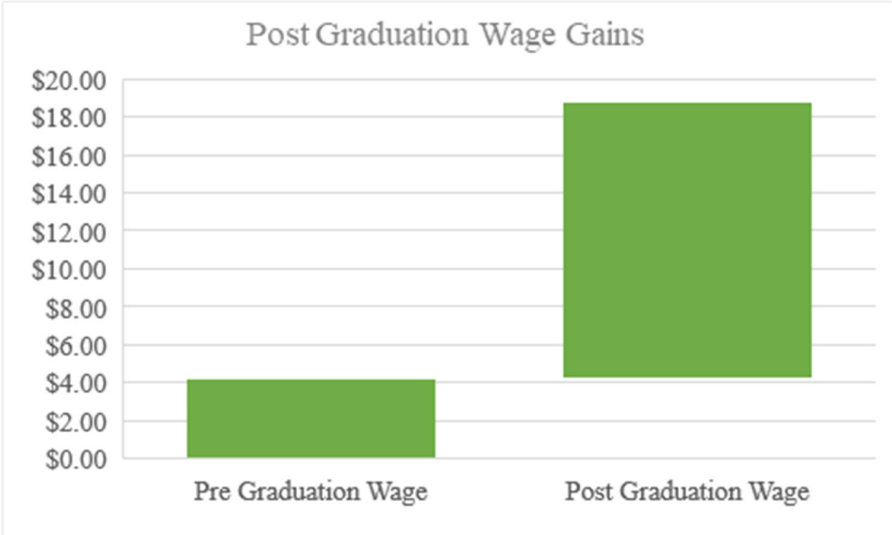
Employment/Wage Gain Data

~~At HCCS we have contacted over 300 high school/CTE graduates and asked them about their lives and careers after graduation. Below is a pie chart that represents the percentage of high school/CTE graduates who are employed and/or in college and those who are not:~~



~~Of the students contacted, 28% are attending community colleges, state colleges, or private colleges while 59% are employed. The remaining 13% were unemployed or not pursuing further education. This means that of the students surveyed, 87% of our graduates are either working or are in college. At HCCS we pride ourselves on turning tax takers into tax payers and helping student create legacies where there may not have been any before.~~

In addition to employment rates and higher education, we have also collected information on wages. Part of our mission is to build new legacies leading to self-sufficiency and generational change. One of the ways we do this is through wage gains. Below is a graph that compares our students' average wage when they enrolled at HCCS compared to the average wage of our high school graduates.



At HCCS our average graduate wage gain is $10.37 per hour post-graduation. When our students enrolled we documented their wages and then compared them to the wage they were earning after graduating from HCCS. This makes a direct impact on students' abilities to establish self-sufficiency. Our students' prior average wage was very low because many students had never worked or were relying on public assistance. Providing CTE training through the high school program enables students to earn livable wages upon high school completion. Some of our CTE programs, like Truck Driving, have a higher average wage upon completion due to the labor market for that specific occupation. The average wage for a truck driver upon completion of the program is $21.50.

Academic Support Services

Career Success

Our Career Success Center ("CSC") was created in the 2015-16 school year to review our students' resumes. Today we provide many services to our students in order to assist them with finding employment. We currently have four employees who work in our Career Success Center, including two Transition Specialists, a Student Engagement Liaison, and a Career Center Supervisor. The Career Success Center is located at our main campus on Grand Avenue and it's open from 8am to 3pm, Monday through Friday. In addition to our Career Success Center, our ~~support staff organizes workshops and field trips. At our Career Success Center, we accept both walk-ins and appointments and we connect our students to the following services:~~

- ~~Job fairs~~
- ~~Job search~~
- ~~Assistance with CalJOBS~~
- ~~Application help~~
- ~~Contacting employers~~
- ~~Resume and CV writing~~
- ~~Cover letter writing~~
- ~~Interview practice and preparation~~
- ~~Job postings~~
- ~~On-site interviews and hiring~~
- ~~Expungements~~
- ~~Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) support~~
- ~~College campus tours~~
- ~~One-on-one academic support~~

~~At HCCS our students have many goals, but all of them want to improve their lives. We support our students through academic and employment support. For our ex-offenders, we work alongside them to get their records expunged when possible. These services are available to our current ELD and high school students as well as our alumni because, At HCCS "it's never too late." At the beginning of the 2018-19 school year, we began tracking services provided at the Career Success Center, and so far this year, we have seen 191 students in the Center as well in workshops. Here is a breakdown of students using our services:~~

~~In July 2018, we began tracking our students' logins to our Career Success Center and workshops. So far this year, the majority of our students visiting the Career Success Center have needed help with their resumes or CVs, at 54%. Resource assistance was the next most common service with 18% of students needing help with resources. Resource assistance refers to resource outsourcing. When students need access to a service that we do not provide, we offer a referral to a partner or an organization equipped to assist our students. Around 14% of our students required general knowledge or support; students often have questions about the types of services offered at our Career Success Center. Next, 10% of our students needed help with housing services while only 4% needed support with expungements.~~

~~Expungements~~

~~Our expungement process begins at the Career Success Center. Our Career Success Center has employees who are experienced in the expungement process. We have forms and contact information to begin the process. Our staff collaborates with our students to ensure that all of the steps are followed. We will even attend court with our students. We have had many students go through the process and clear their record of DUI's, narcotic offenses, property offenses, and many other criminal cases.~~

~~ELD~~ ~~Navigators~~

~~At HCCS we have amazing programs and opportunities for our students, and we want to ensure that every student understands all of the services that we provide. With the 24 campuses we currently have and students who speak over 39 languages, there have been some barriers to clear communication. In October 2018 we extended our counseling services to include ELD Navigators. Our Navigators serve a critical role by communicating with our ELD students and~~ providing academic and career support. This program was developed to ensure that all of our students at HCCS have access to all of the community resources, school activities, and support that they need. Our Navigators speak English, Farsi/Dari, Spanish, Russian, Armenian, and Pashto, and they travel to all of our campuses to present our school's services and programs. Since we've implemented this program, our Navigators have presented in 13 classrooms at eight of our sites. Following their site presentations, our ELD Navigators work one-on-one with our ELD students (in our students' native languages) to address their individual needs.

Library Services

We started our library in September 2016 to provide books to our students. We started the library by taking book donations from various resources throughout Sacramento. When we first started our library, we only had 100 books. Our vision was to have a library conveniently located at our main campus where students of all reading levels could borrow books. Today, we have over 1500 book titles logged into our library system using Book Retriever. We have approximately 15 teachers and 130 students regularly utilizing our library resources. Additionally, we provide access to our books through our Mobile Library, a repurposed RV, which delivers both clothes and books to our off-site locations. We currently have 50 books in the Mobile Library, and more than 300 books are being stored for future off-site delivery. Through the mobile library service we hope to significantly increase the number of teachers and students using our library services.

Reading Services

At HCCS most of our students enroll into our high school program at a remedial reading level and need to improve their reading and literacy skills in order to complete their diploma. Through CASAS reading assessments and teacher recommendations, we realized that our students desperately needed academic support in this area. In the 2015-16 academic school year we implemented two supplemental reading classes for our high school students: Reading Skills I and Reading Skills II. These classes introduce the Systematic Instruction and Phoneme Awareness, Phonics, and Site Words (SIPPS). SIPPS is a foundational reading program that builds reading skills and improves reading comprehension. It is designed for students who struggle with decoding. This program is used as a tool for intervention and assists teachers in helping remedial readers at the K-12 reading level. This class is treated as an elective class and lasts for six weeks. Students could earn up to five credits over the duration of the course. After six weeks of the class, the majority of students showed gains in confidence and in reading level. Students also showed improvements on the Slosson Oral Reading Test. Some students remained in the reading skills class to finish their five credits, and others moved on to complete academic credits. Some students who needed more reading improvement continued in reading skills, moving on to part II.

Then in the 2017-18 school year, we re-evaluated our high school reading program. We realized that we had many high school students struggling in their classes as a result of their reading level, so we decided to expand our remedial reading services. The idea was that if students could improve their reading comprehension, then our other academic high school classes would become more accessible to them. We hired a Reading Specialist in order to help tackle this task. The Reading Specialist travels to our high school sites and works with both individuals and groups who need remedial reading support. Our Reading Specialist has also created a curriculum to combat low literacy. It is focused on: decoding, fluency, spelling, and reading ~~comprehension. We hope that by providing additional academic support to our remedial high school readers, they will have one more tool to succeed and achieve their goals.~~

~~Student Support Services~~

~~Positive Direction~~

~~Positive Direction is a student group that meets weekly at lunch. During this student group, lunch is provided to our students at no cost to them. The primary purpose of this group is to provide our students with strategies for managing stress. This is also a place where we provide tools to our students to help them overcome barriers. It is a confidential place where all of our students are welcome. In addition to managing stress, weekly discussions focus on improving interpersonal communication skills and nurturing healthy relationships with friends and family. Other topics of discussion include time management skills, study skills, and active listening. Finally, the group also addresses personal issues our students may have, such as coping skills for dealing with anxiety, depression, and past trauma. At HCCS we know that our students have overcome many challenging obstacles before enrolling, and we want to ensure that we are supporting the whole student.~~

~~Homeless Services~~

~~One of the obstacles that many of our students face is homelessness. While only a small percentage of our students live in shelters, in cars, or on the street, many of them are in transitional or short-term housing, staying with friends or family, or sleeping on couches. To address this need, we created a Homeless Services program as part of our student support services. Through our Homeless Services program, we serve our homeless student population though prevention, early intervention, and emergency support. We coordinate and collaborate with other agencies to connect our students with emergency, short-term housing (such as shelters) and long-term housing solutions. We work in conjunction with Sac Steps Forward to find housing placements and to meet the needs of our homeless students. We believe that by helping our students secure safe housing they can focus on meeting their educational and career goals.~~

~~Clothing Closet~~

~~One of the services we are very proud of is our Clothing Closet. We began working to open our Clothing Closet in March 2017 to provide our students with free, gently used, professional interview wear for our students with job interviews. In April 2017, we had our grand opening. When we started, we had open hours every morning, at lunch, and an hour in the afternoon. To get things started, our staff and teachers went through their closets and donated everything they could part with. One of our high school students volunteered to wash, dry, hang, and organize all of the donations. Upon her graduation, that student was hired at HCCS and continued to work in that capacity. Although the primary goal was to collect work attire, we accepted every type of clothing, even children's clothes. As the closet grew, we began receiving requests from students for additional products such as diapers and toilet paper. Although our primary goal is to provide clothes, we will take any student request. We frequently receive notifications from our students about household items, strollers, and furniture that our students need. Our students at Grand Avenue were very happy with the service, but due to the limited transportation and mobility of our off-site students, they were unable to access our Clothing Closet. Therefore, in September~~

2017, we purchased an RV to mobilize our closet and provide access to our students at our off-site locations. Since we started the Clothing Closet, we have served approximately 1800 of our students at 11 of our locations. For many of our students, their inability to purchase professional clothes was a barrier to employment and to ultimately achieving their goals. This is one way we are able to meet some of our students' immediate needs and support them while they actively take steps to improve their lives.

District Attorney's Office: Rights and Responsibilities

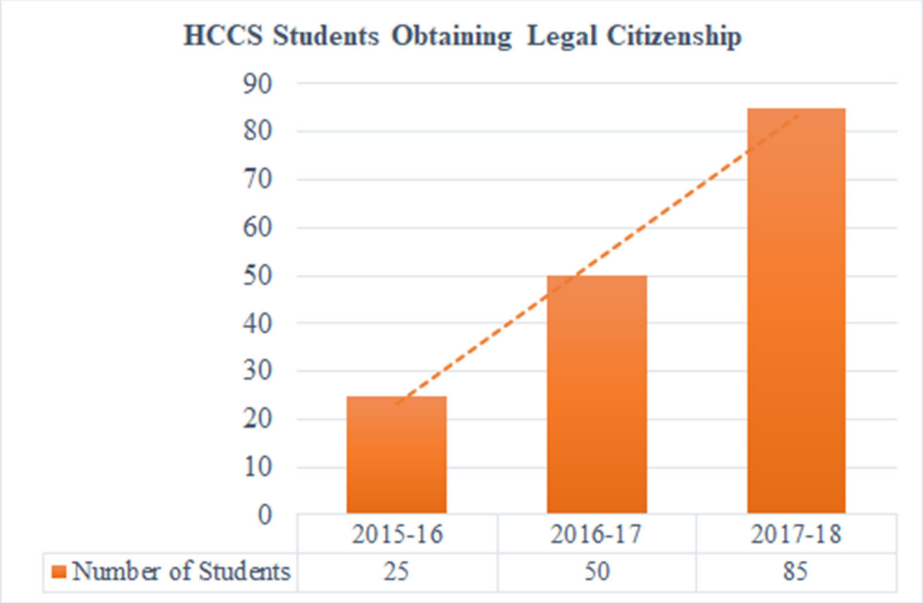
In March 2018, we began partnering with the Sacramento County District Attorney's Office, Sacramento County Sheriff's Office, Sacramento Police Department, County Code Enforcement, and the Sacramento City Attorney's Office to provide Civics 101, Rights and Responsibilities to our ELD students. Most of our ELD students are immigrants and refugees who are new to the United States. The class provides an overview of essential laws and practices that protect immigrants in the United States and covers the following topics:

- The First Amendment and the right to assemble peacefully
- The Fourth Amendment and the right to privacy from government intrusion
- The Fifth Amendment and due process
- The criminal justice system in the United States
- Renters' rights and legal actions
- Police and community partnerships
- How to interact with a police officer
- Laws in the United States
- Traffic laws, traffic stops, and citations
- Reporting crimes and emergencies
- When to call 9-1-1 and how to report a non-emergency
- Educational systems, compulsory attendance for K-12 students, and truancy
- Using public transportation (busses and trains)
- Neighborhood watch and community safety

Last year this class was taught in English and translated into six languages. The class will begin again in November 2018 and will be taught through April 2019. We expect 1580 of our ELD students to complete the class in the 2018-19 school year.

Citizenship

Since 2015, we have served more than 400 students in our Citizenship Preparation classes: 387 of them in the last three years and the 25 who are currently enrolled. In this class, our foreign-born students study and learn how to complete the N-400 application for naturalization and prepare for the United States naturalization interview. Since the interview has two components, Civics and English, the course covers the requirements for both. In Civics, our students learn the principles of American democracy and American government, and their rights and responsibilities as citizens. Our students practice reading, writing, and speaking in English while they role-play and prepare for the interview. Throughout the class, students also have access to legal advising through our community partner, Opening Doors. Below is a graph that shows the number of students who completed the citizenship class and became naturalized, obtaining legal US citizenship through our classes:



~~Since we started offering citizenship classes through our ELD program, the classes have grown each year. We have had over 400 students enrolled in our classes, but not every student completes the application or has the interview immediately following the course. Above is the data for our students who completed the process immediately following the class. In 2015-16 which was our first year offering the class, we had 25 students become legal citizens. That number doubled to 50 in the 2016-17 school year. Then in the 2017-18 school year, we had 85 students become naturalized legal citizens. For the 2018-19 school year, so far we have had six students become legal citizens. Since we started, that is a total of 166 HCCS students who have become legal citizens through the support of our classes.~~

~~At HCCS we are not only proud of the number of students who have become citizens, but we are also very proud of our students' pass rates. The national average is 91% and at HCCS our pass rate is 98%, seven points higher than the national average. With the success of this program, we have decided to expand it for the 2018–19 school year with additional teachers teaching the~~ ~~course and at more of our off-site locations.~~

~~Field Trips~~

~~At HCCS our teachers, students, and staff value getting authentic community~~ experiences ~~and actualizing their classroom knowledge in real-life situations. This is reflected in our Local Control Accountability Plan ("LCAP") data and budget. Every year, teachers take our students on engaging and educational trips outside of their traditional learning environments. Past field trips have included:~~ housing instability:

- ~~Sacramento's State Capitol~~
- ~~Sacramento Public Libraries~~
- ~~A tour at Raley Field~~
- ~~Sacramento River Cats baseball game~~
- ~~Sacramento City College information sessions~~
- ~~Resume workshops~~
- ~~A 4th of July fireworks display in Old Town Sacramento~~
- ~~The Crocker Art Museum~~
- ~~Sutter's Fort and the State Indian Museum~~
- ~~Career fairs~~
- ~~The Sacramento History Museum~~
- ~~Lighthouse Charter School~~
- ~~Mission North Park~~
- ~~A parenting class hosted by UC Davis' MIND Institute~~

~~Hundreds of our students have benefited from these field trips, and they have greatly contributed to our students' learning, cultural awareness, and community involvement and participation. Below you can see a previous ELD Conversation Club at the State Capitol:~~

~~Student and Staff Satisfaction Surveys~~

~~At HCCS we want to ensure that we are meeting the needs of both our students and staff. In order to understand what we are doing well and where we need to improve, we utilize student and staff satisfaction surveys.~~

~~Student Satisfaction~~

~~Staff Satisfaction~~

~~During the 2018-19 Staff Satisfaction Survey, 130 of our 154 staff were surveyed. The results reflected are the opinions of the 84% of our staff who participated. Of our staff who participated, 98.4% said that they either strongly agree or agree that they are happy with the work that they do while 97% of our staff agreed that we foster a culture of diversity and 94.7% said that they are proud to work for HCCS. Areas where we need to improve are related to technology. Of our staff surveyed, 66.2% said that technology issues are addressed in a timely manner, and 67% agreed that our Information Technology Department was open to employee ideas and suggestions. These surveys are essential to understanding our staffs' needs, and we look forward to improving our school and our staff experience and improving our Information Technology Department.~~

~~Challenges~~

~~We started HCCS in 2014 in response to the unmet educational needs of adults in our community. On our first day of classes, we started with 7 students and one site, and today we have 2,050 students enrolled and a total of 24 sites. We have grown very quickly, legitimizing how important we are in the communities that we serve. At HCCS we do our best to respond to the needs of our community. We have worked to adapt to the changing needs of our students as our student demographic has shifted from primarily serving ex-offenders in high school to serving immigrants and refugees in English Language Development/Citizenship and high school/CTE. Although we have many points of pride, primarily the success of our students, we recognize that as a school, we have areas where we need to improve.~~

~~At HCCS we have faced some obstacles in consistently implementing CASAS pre-tests and post-tests for some of our students at our satellite locations. We have experienced significant growth each year, and we have opened many new sites, which has created the need for a significant level of additional test proctors, computer technology, and internet access to maintain testing consistently. CASAS testing is a standard practice for most schools serving adults in~~

California, it is mandated by WIOA that CASAS assessments are reported for adult participants, and it is one of our standard assessments; therefore, it is imperative that we improve our CASAS assessment practices. At HCCS we have made a significant organizational commitment to improving our testing practices schoolwide. We have increased the number of administrative staff, proctors, and teachers who are CASAS trained, and over the last two school years, we have hired five additional proctors as well as a Lead Proctor. All of our clerical administrative staff are currently CASAS certified. We are currently implementing a new CASAS testing schedule to ensure that new students are tested each week at our satellite sites as part of their enrollment process and our proctor's CASAS schedule is going to ensure every site is retested every six to eight weeks.

At HCCS we are accountable to the California Department of Education to ensure that our students meet the state's standards.
In 2013, the Local Control Funding Formula (LCFF) was adopted by California to ensure accountability using the California School Dashboard. The traditional standards were intended for traditional schools and in many ways fail to understand the needs of alternative students. As a result, California Department of Education recognized alternative accountability measures for alternative schools. In March 2015, we adopted the Alternative Schools Accountability Model (ASAM) and we complied with their requirements. Then the Dashboard Alternative School Status (DASS) replaced the previous ASAM model, and since the beginning of the 2017–18 school year, we have been accountable to the California Department of Education and adhered to the indicators set forth by DASS.

1.3: HCCS Target Student Population

At HCCS our school's target student population is adults who are 22 years and older without a US high school diploma. We specifically serve adults who have been unserved by the traditional educational system in the United States. This includes students who have been unable to complete high school such as young parents and ex-offenders. It also includes English Language Learners such as immigrants and refugees. Our demographic data shows that we have students from 71 countries. The ten most represented countries at HCCS are Afghanistan, Mexico, United States, Ukraine, Russia, China, Vietnam, Syria, Moldova, and El Salvador. Women make up 65% of our student population At HCCS and men make up the remaining 35%.

We have two programs: high school and English Language Development. Career Technical Education (CTE) is part of our high school program and Citizenship is part of ELD program. Our ELD students are classified as elementary education students and are placed into either first or second grade. Our lower level ELD students are categorized as first graders while our higher level ELD students are considered second graders. All of our high school and CTE students are enrolled into grade 12.

Interests
Our students come to HCCS because they want a better life; they want to learn or improve their English; they want to continue their education; or they want a job. At HCCS our students have varied interests and goals. Some of them want to complete our English Language Development ~~program to participate in our community and help their children with homework, while some of our ELD students want to improve their English enough to complete our program and then go to high school and on to college. For our high school students, their interests vary as well. Some of them want to graduate high school and a CTE program. For others, they want to finish high school and then move on to college or a career path. No matter their ultimate goals, all of our students come to HCCS because they want a better life for themselves and their families, and it is our pleasure to support them.~~

~~Backgrounds~~
~~At HCCS our student population is diverse and so are our students' backgrounds and stories. However, there are some similarities that our students share. Over 90% of our students qualify as socioeconomically disadvantaged.~~

~~Our refugee students are primarily from Afghanistan, Syria, and Iraq. Men from Afghanistan tend to have a stronger educational and employment background than women and have higher literacy rates. Men also tend to score higher on our initial assessments in reading, writing, speaking, and listening. Many of the men from Afghanistan were engineers who worked with the US Army and were granted a Special Immigrant Visa because their lives were in danger after working with Americans. This also results in Afghan men having higher fluency in English than women, on average. The majority of women from Afghanistan were stay-at-home mothers, even those who graduated from a university. Most of the women from Afghanistan completed some primary education; although, many are illiterate in their first language, and some had never attended school before coming to HCCS. This is especially true for the women from the rural Southwestern regions of Afghanistan where~~

Due to~~Pashto~~ ~~is spoken.~~

~~Our high school and CTE students come primarily from two groups. Most of them are from the United States with the majority of that group being native to California. These students have a variety of backgrounds from race and ethnicity to academic and behavioral backgrounds. The other main group of high school students are students who come directly from our ELD program. Our students who have attended high schools in the United States had to leave school for many different reasons. Some had to leave to work and contribute to their families at home. Others were suspended or expelled and asked not to return. There were others that left because they found school too difficult or boring. Our ELD students who come to the high school and CTE programs often have different reasons for completing a high school or CTE program. Many of~~ them already have at least a high school diploma from their home country, but they need a United States high school diploma to develop their lives and careers or further their education. There are some ELD students who have very little education from their home countries as well. These students take ELD classes and blossom into students who believe they are capable, and they move on to high school/CTE.

Student Challenges

Our student population is unique and our students face many challenges. The majority of our students are socioeconomically disadvantaged and lack access to reliable transportation, computer technology, and childcare. Below is a graph that shows our students who are eligible for free or reduced lunch:

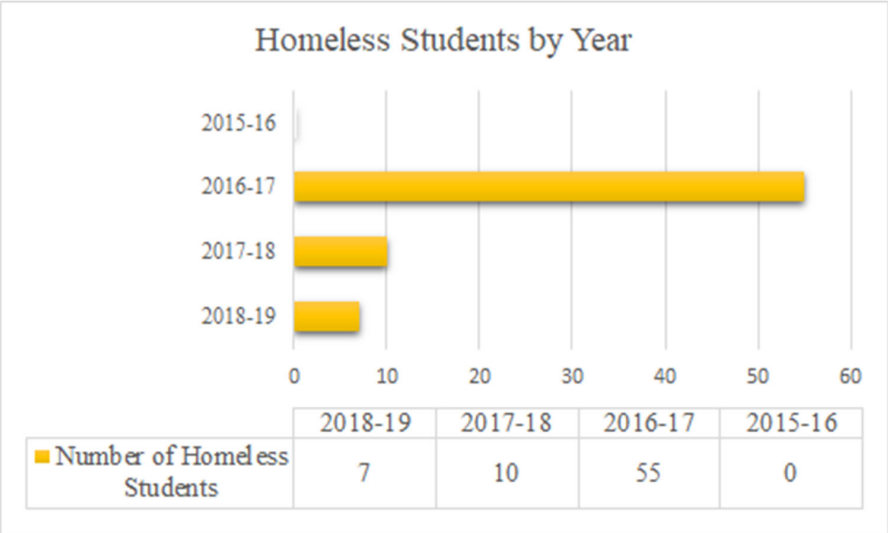
Our free and reduced lunch eligibility has been tracked in CALPADS over the last four school years and shows that since we first started tracking in the 2015-16 school year, our socioeconomically disadvantaged population has grown both numerically and by percentage of our population. In 2015-16 it is documented that we had 369 students who qualified for free and reduced lunch. Then in the 2016-17 school year, the number increased to 866. In the 2017-18 school year, that number increased by 473 to 1329. In 2015-16, 66% of our students qualified for free and reduced lunch, and we currently have 1842 of 2050 or 90% of our student population qualifying. This data indicates that each year we are serving more students who require access to services.

~~Many of our students have struggled with addiction, homelessness, and the social-emotional impacts of those and many other challenges. Some of our students are ex-offenders. Our students who have been incarcerated face a great deal of adversity re-entering school and trying to find employment and often lack the educational skills they need to succeed in an academic setting. These students are often deficient in academic skills and require remedial courses. Below is a graph that shows the number of homeless students at HCCS:~~



~~Because of~~ the social stigma associated with homelessness, ~~it is often underreported by students. There is also the critical issue of defining it. For our reporting purposes, we consider a student to be homeless if they are living on the streets, in shelters or cars, or in a temporary living situation without a fixed address. Many of our students who are~~ these numbers likely represent underreporting, as many students temporarily staying with friends or family ~~until they can "get on their feet" do~~may not ~~report that they are~~identify as homeless.

~~Many~~ Student Challenges and Needs

Varied Educational Backgrounds

The educational backgrounds of ~~our~~HCCS students ~~also~~vary dramatically. Some refugee and immigrant students arrive with advanced degrees from their countries of origin and extensive English language experience, while others may have never had formal education and lack literacy in their first language. US-born students typically have experienced interruptions in their education due to various life circumstances.

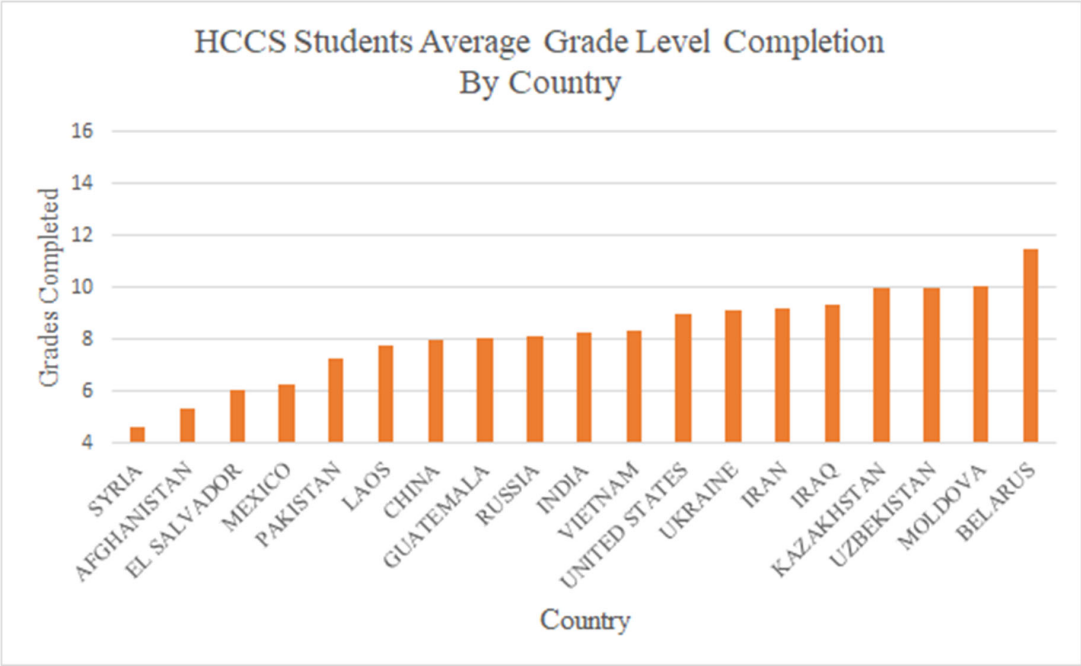
Multiple Responsibilities

Many students are adults managing multiple responsibilities, including employment, family care, and basic needs. They often lack access to reliable transportation, computer technology, and childcare. Limited free time presents ongoing challenges for academic engagement and completion.

Trauma and Life Experiences
Students frequently arrive having experienced various forms of trauma including displacement, poverty, addiction, homelessness, and incarceration. Ex-offenders face particular challenges re-entering educational settings and often require additional academic and social-emotional support.

Access to ~~many basic items such as~~Basic Needs
Many students lack access to fundamental necessities including food, appropriate clothing, ~~diapers, books, and~~ school supplies~~. Our students are also very busy and have a limited amount of free time. Our students are often adults with families, and many of them are employed while juggling several responsibilities.~~

~~Our~~, and stable housing. The refugee population ~~also~~ faces ~~many challenges. Many of these students come to the United States with very low English fluency, some of whom lack literacy in their first language. Below is a graph that shows our students' average level of education by country:~~



All of our students come to us with a different level of education, but this is the average level of education of our students by country. It includes students in both our ELD and our high school programs. Our refugee students from Syria and Afghanistan tend to have the lowest level of education on average while our students from Kazakhstan, Uzbekistan, Moldova, and Belarus have the highest average level of education. It is also important to consider that these are averages. Many of our immigrant and refugee students have no formal education, yet some are college graduates. Below is a graph that shows our students' level of education by country and gender for our refugee populations:

At HCCS the majority of our students are English learners. In fact, of the 2,052 enrolled, 1767 qualify as English Learners. Of those students, we have more students from Afghanistan than any other country, and the majority are women. As depicted in the graph, women from Afghanistan come to us with very little formal education. This change in our demographic has led us to increase the number of ELD literacy courses and beginning ELD courses to meet the needs of our students. Both men and women from Syria have very little formal education with an average grade level completed being five years. For our students from Afghanistan and Syria, it is imperative that we provide them with literacy tools because many of these students lack literacy in their native language. Our students from Uzbekistan and Iraq tend to have higher levels of education on average. In Uzbekistan women have an average of 9 years, while men have an average of 12 years. In Iraq women also have an average of 9 years and men have an average of 10.

These students not only struggle with language fluency, but alsoadditional challenges adapting to the new customs, culture, and meeting their basic needs. The majority of our refugee students depend on the technology while building English proficiency and seeking employment. Department of Human Assistance for financial support while they transition from being unemployed to being employed. Many of them also have very large families and struggle to find childcare.

In response to our students' needs and the challenges they face, we provide the following services:

Free bus passes to our students for each day of attendance

- Access to computers and computer labs
- Free play care for potty-trained, non-school-aged children at Grand Avenue, Maple/St. Rose, Holy Cross and coming soon to Capitol Christian (children must be potty-trained and be up-to-date on immunizations)
- A clothing closet at Grand Avenue and a mobile clothing closet that provides free, gently used clothing to our students
- A small food pantry where students can get free shelf-stable food
- A Homeless Services Program who connecting students to community resources

A library at Grand Avenue where students can get books

- Counselors who assist students with both academic and personal advising
- Free basic school supplies for all of our students
- A Career Success Center where students can get help with resumes and applications
- Literacy support and remedial reading classes
- ELD Navigators who help our ELD students transition into high school and CTE
- Citizenship classes
- Supplemental services to our students through our community partnerships and external CTE programs such as Asher College and Cosmos Beauty Academy
- Student support groups

Exclusive Partnerships

One way that we meet the needs of our students is through community partnerships. We have exclusive partnerships with Greater Sacramento Urban League (GSUL), Opening Doors, Asian Resources, Inc. (ARI), and Bach Viet. Our partners work to improve educational and employment opportunities in underserved urban communities to enhance the workforce and the local economy. At HCCS we provide instruction to students exclusively in partnership at no cost to our partners or our students. Our partners notify students about opportunities to participate in our program and provide students with details of the terms required for participation. Through these partnerships, we are able to reach more students and have a larger community impact.

Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act

In 2014, the US Department of Labor signed the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act (WIOA) into law, formerly known as the Workforce Investment Act (WIA). It is designed to help job seekers gain access to education, training, and employment and to ultimately help unemployed and underemployed youth, dislocated workers, and workers with disabilities to successfully find jobs. At HCCS we applied for a WIOA grant and received one for the 2017–18 school year and for the 2018–19 school year. We have used this $360,000 grant to fund positions such as the Reading Specialist and test proctors to assist our students in literacy and testing. It provides us additional funding for technology. Last year, we purchased 330 laptops, laptop carts, and computers. This year, we plan to purchase 650 computers. Through our exclusive partnerships and funding, we are able to support our students where they truly need it most: through reading support, assessment, and access to technology.

HCCS complies with Ed. Code 47605.1(g) which requires our charter school provides instruction exclusively in partnership with the federal Workforce Investment Act of 1998 (29 U.S.C. Sec. 2810 et seq.), now known as WIOA. All students may only be admitted under the terms of an exclusive partnership agreement. These partnership agreements have a requirement that students must not qualify for WIOA youth services, which inherently limits students to 22 years of age or older that we may collect apportionment funding.

Under Education Code 47605.1(g), other than being required to have sites in California, there are no other jurisdictional boundaries for campuses of Highlands Community Charter School due to our WIOA exclusive partnership requirement.

Goals and Philosophy Motivations

1.5: Alignment of Educational Program with Vision/Mission with Student Population

Motto: It's never too late!

Vision: Our vision is to eradicate educational inequality.

Mission: We are a diverse community for social justice, serving the unserved, providing access to education, technology, communication, and employment for 21st century achievers. Through community partnerships, we will build new legacies leading to self-sufficiency and generational change.

Schoolwide Learner Outcomes:

1. Students will demonstrate measurable achievements each term through assessment.
2. Students will make progress toward their career goals.
3. Students will use technology to communicate for personal and academic use.

Our motto is "It's never too late" because at HCCS it isn't too late for our students to achieve their goals. It isn't too late for them to learn English, get a high school diploma, complete one of our career technical education programs, or to start a career. Our students are adults who do not ~~have a US high school diploma and are 22 years old and older. Our students come to us from all over the world and for many of them HCCS is the first school they have ever attended. We support and encourage them that no matter what their educational background is or where they are from, it isn't too late for them to build a better life and future for themselves and their families through our English Language Development and high school/CTE programs.~~

~~At HCCS our vision is to eradicate educational inequality. We believe that education is a human right, and we recognize that there is inequality in systems of education not only in our community but also in our country and around the world. There are many factors that contribute to educational inequality. Among them are country of origin, social class, family history and values, and gender. Our students are primarily from economically disadvantaged countries, communities, and families. Our vision is to end inequality for the people who need it the most: those without access to English, good teachers, classes, programs, schools, and technology. We understand the need for equity in education, and we are passionate about our vision and creating equal access.~~

~~Our mission states that we are a diverse community for social justice, serving the unserved, providing access to education, technology, communication, and employment for 21st century achievers. Through community partnerships, we will build new legacies leading to self-sufficiency and generational change. At HCCS we are truly a diverse community of staff, teachers, and administrators who are advocates for social change. Our student population is comprised of educationally unserved adult students 22 years old and older without a US high school diploma. Our students are non-native English speakers, immigrants, refugees, the socially and economically disadvantaged, students who have been unserved by the traditional educational system, marginalized groups, ex-offenders, and community members who have been displaced by traditional schools. Although we recognize that our students have many unmet needs, we concentrate our efforts on four critical areas: education, technology, communication, and career readiness. At HCCS we have developed excellent relationships with our community members and other community organizations. Currently, we have 18 community partners who work diligently alongside us to support our students. We believe that by providing access to education and employment, our students are empowered with the resources to become self-sufficient problem-solvers who can break generational cycles of poverty.~~

~~At HCCS we have three Schoolwide Learner Outcomes. Our first is that students will demonstrate measurable achievements each term through assessment. Our second is that students will make progress toward their career goals. Our third and final outcome is that students will use technology to communicate for personal and academic use. Many of our students enroll in our programs deficient in English, academic content, verbal and written communication, and technological skills. We are driven to ensure our students make progress in their academic subject areas, employment and career goals, and in their levels of technological ability.~~
Students enroll at HCCS with diverse but interconnected goals: improving English language skills, completing their high school education, accessing better employment skills and opportunities, supporting their families, and participating more fully in their communities. For many, earning a high school diploma represents both a long-deferred dream and a critical step toward economic stability and further education. HCCS recognizes that academic achievement must be pursued alongside students' broader life goals, creating pathways that honor both educational attainment and personal aspirations.

~~We believe by offering educational programs for adults who are 22 years old and older and do not have a US high school diploma, we are working towards eliminating educational inequality. The programs and classes we offer are in response to the needs of our students and the needs of our community. We are passionate about equity in education and issues surrounding social justice, and we have an important role to play in rectifying an equitable educational community. At HCCS we believe in our students; we believe in our community; and we believe that "it's never too late."~~

~~1.6:~~ Characteristics of an Educated Person in the 21st Century

HCCS holds that an educated person in the 21st century is well-rounded, literate in both academics and the needs of their well-being, and balanced in knowledge of core subjects, communication, career and civic readiness, and the use of technology. ~~HCCS~~In the grades 9-12 high school context, this means students ~~are able to use their intellects to their fullest capacity~~engage in a coherent course of study that builds critical thinking and problem-solving, and helps them act with increasing independence and confidence in academic and professional settings. ~~1.7: How~~ Educational Philosophy and Approach

HCCS supports all adult learners to have agency and to chart the path that will help them achieve their academic vision. We have research-based beliefs about learning in general, learning for adults, and learning for English Language Learners that inform our approach to teaching and learning. Our educational philosophy is grounded in three interconnected beliefs that recognize the complexity and humanity of adult learning. These principles guide every aspect of our instructional design, student support systems, and organizational culture.

Learning ~~Best~~ Occurs in the Context of Safe and Trusting Relationships

Adult learners, particularly those who have experienced educational trauma or systemic barriers, require learning environments that prioritize psychological safety alongside academic rigor. Trust is not a luxury in adult education—it is a prerequisite for the kind of vulnerable, transformative learning that leads to lasting change.

Trauma-Informed Educational Practices
Many of our students carry the impacts of various forms of trauma, including displacement or systemic oppression. Our approach recognizes that trauma affects learning by impacting memory, concentration, and the ability to take academic risks. We create predictable, supportive environments where students can rebuild their relationship with learning in contexts that feel safe and affirming.

Relational Pedagogy
We understand that learning is fundamentally relational. Students are more likely to engage in challenging academic work when they feel seen, known, and valued by their instructors and peers. Our educators invest time in building authentic relationships with students, learning about their goals, interests, and concerns. This relational foundation allows for the kind of honest feedback and academic push that leads to growth.

Community Building and Peer Support
We intentionally cultivate learning communities where students support each other's growth and success. This includes structured opportunities for peer collaboration, study groups, and mentoring relationships.

Mental Health and Wraparound Services
We recognize that academic success is interconnected with students' overall well-being. Our support systems include connections to mental health resources, basic needs support, and advocacy services that address the systemic barriers our students face. We work in partnership with community organizations to provide comprehensive support that allows students to focus on their learning.

Addressing the Social-Emotional Impacts of Educational Interruption
Students with interrupted formal education often experience complex emotions related to their academic journey, including shame about gaps in their knowledge, anxiety about academic performance, or frustration with the pace of progress. We create learning environments that normalize diverse educational pathways and celebrate the varied forms of knowledge students bring.

Instruction Must Meet Students Where They Are
Meeting students where they are is more than an instructional strategy—it is a fundamental stance that honors the diverse pathways that bring adult learners to our doors. Our students arrive with varying levels of formal education, different cultural approaches to learning, and unique combinations of strengths and areas for growth. This reality requires us to move beyond one-size-fits-all approaches toward responsive teaching that builds on what students already know and can do.

Supporting Students with Interrupted or Inconsistent Formal Education (SIFE)
A significant portion of our student population has experienced interruptions in their formal schooling due to migration, economic necessity, political instability, or family circumstances. These students bring rich life experiences and often sophisticated problem-solving skills, yet they may have gaps in traditional academic content or unfamiliarity with formal educational expectations. We reject deficit-based approaches that focus on what these students lack, instead building comprehensive support systems that honor their strengths while addressing their specific learning needs.

Our approach to supporting SIFE students includes intensive foundational skill development alongside grade-level content engagement, recognizing that these students need both remediation and acceleration. We provide explicit instruction in academic literacy skills—including how to navigate textbooks, online curricula resources, take notes, and engage in classroom discussions—while maintaining high expectations for critical thinking and complex problem-solving.

Asset-Based Assessment and Instructional Design
We begin by understanding each student's full educational profile, including formal schooling, work experience, community involvement, and self-directed learning. This comprehensive view allows us to design learning experiences that connect new knowledge to existing understanding while addressing genuine learning needs. Rather than focusing on deficits, we identify the multiple entry points through which students can engage with rigorous academic content.

Flexible Pathways and Differentiated Support
Meeting students where they are means creating multiple pathways through our curriculum that allow for different paces, learning styles, and life circumstances. Our new curriculum, which covers all disciplines, allows teachers to alter the reading level of the text to meet the student at their level and provide translated background text and videos that build background knowledge to enhance ELLs access to the core grade-level curriculum and the grade 9-12 California State Standards. This includes offering content in various modalities, providing choice in how students demonstrate their learning, and designing support systems that accommodate working adults with family responsibilities and other commitments.

Diagnostic and Responsive Teaching
Our teachers continuously gather information about student understanding and adjust instruction accordingly. This goes beyond initial placement to include ongoing formative assessment that reveals how students are making sense of new concepts and where additional support or challenge is needed. We create learning environments where struggle is normalized as part of the learning process, and where students receive the specific feedback they need to move forward. See more about this in the professional development section.

Cultural and Linguistic Responsiveness
Meeting students where they are requires a deep understanding of the cultural frameworks and prior educational experiences that shape how students approach learning. We work to understand not just what students know, but how they know it—the cultural tools and ways of thinking they bring that can be leveraged for new learning.

Effective Adult Learning Requires Agency and Relevance
Adult learners bring intrinsic motivation and clear goals that can be powerful drivers of academic success when properly leveraged. Our role is to create learning experiences that honor students' autonomy while providing the structure and support they need to achieve their educational objectives.

Self-Directed Learning and Goal Setting
We work with students to identify their short-term and long-term goals and help them understand how their coursework connects to these aspirations. This begins in orientation, where they learn the pathways and requirements so that students can make informed decisions about their academic path. Students participate in setting their own learning objectives within the framework of academic standards, and they regularly reflect on their progress toward these goals. This self-direction increases engagement and helps students develop the metacognitive skills essential for lifelong learning.

Choice and Flexibility in Learning
Adult learners thrive when they have options in how they engage with content and demonstrate their learning. We provide multiple ways for students to explore topics of interest, pursue individual research projects, and showcase their growing knowledge and skills.

Real-World Connections and Application
Learning feels most relevant when students can see immediate applications to their lives and goals. The curriculum we use has many opportunities to connect academic content to contemporary issues, workplace skills, and community engagement opportunities. Students might analyze historical patterns to understand current social issues or conduct scientific investigations related to health or environmental concerns in their communities.

Career and College Integration
We explicitly connect academic learning to students' career and college goals, helping them understand how the skills they're developing will serve them in future educational and professional contexts. This includes developing academic habits of mind, communication skills, and critical thinking abilities that transfer across contexts.

Student Voice and Feedback
Students have regular opportunities to provide feedback about their learning experiences and suggest improvements to courses and programs. Please see the student survey section below for more detailed information. We view students as partners in the educational process, recognizing that their insights about what supports their learning are essential for continuous improvement. This feedback loop helps students develop advocacy skills while ensuring our programs remain responsive to their needs.

Ownership of Learning Outcomes
We support students in developing the ability to assess their own learning and set goals for improvement. This includes teaching students to use rubrics, reflect on their growth over time, and identify specific strategies that support their success.

These three foundational beliefs work together to create learning environments where adult students can achieve their educational goals while developing the skills, knowledge, and confidence they need for continued success in their academic, professional, and civic lives.

Foundational Research and Theories Supporting Our Approach

Adult Education Learning Theories

~~Student learning best occurs at HCCS when our students are successfully connected to the materials and curriculum. Through repetition and exploration, our students explore various concepts and ideas through materials that are designed to promote self-confidence and independence. Students are encouraged to manage and track their own progress by self-checking their work. Tapping into prior knowledge, our students' learning is enriched by the repeated use of materials and reinforcement of familiar content. Teachers blend learning modalities as students learn about Math and Consumer Economics, Life Science, Civics and Consumer Resources, Health and Independent Living, Technology and Computer Literacy, etc. Learning best occurs when our students engage in research and high-level thinking activities. Further, learning is made available as ideas are presented, shared, discussed, and evaluated. Appealing to the whole individual, we place a strong emphasis on creating aesthetically-pleasing classroom environments where students feel safe and secure. Building trust and confidence is another piece that helps connect our students to the materials and curriculum. When our students are offered a safe environment where they can be challenged and successful, they are able to reach their full potentials.~~

HCCS ~~believes that learning best occurs when:~~

- ~~students are actively engaged in meaningful tasks,~~
- ~~a connection is made between what students learn and the real world in which they live,~~
- ~~individual plans and support is an intrinsic part of the educational program,~~
- ~~students have some choice in the structure of their own projects and plans,~~
- ~~work is accomplished individually and as members of a group,~~
- ~~activities are integrated and meaningful,~~
- ~~work is developmentally appropriate, leads to success, and is progressively complex,~~
- ~~meaning is constructed from experiences,~~
- ~~students are encouraged and expected to learn,~~
- ~~coaches, mentors, family members, and advocates support the learners,~~
- ~~students are encouraged to help others learn and to learn from others, and~~
- ~~students are educated year round.~~

-applies research-based adult

~~HCCS is committed to the goal of developing self-motivated, competent, life-long learners. Our curriculum is designed to promote individual initiative, critical thinking, self-reliance, intra- and interpersonal awareness and community involvement.~~

~~We incorporate several instructional strategies and~~ learning theories ~~into our teaching practices that are best suited for adults. We recognize that adults have unique learning needs and abilities and we work to engage and challenge our students at every level. Differentiated instruction,~~

~~content-based instruction, and theme-based instruction ensure that our adult students at different ability levels are engaged. This is important at HCCS because our classes are multi-level. We also use student-centered instructional techniques to ensure that learning objectives are aligned not only to curriculum objectives but also to our students' needs. One key component in student-centered instruction is building on prior knowledge and understanding our students' backgrounds, strengths, and weaknesses. At HCCS our students have very different backgrounds with a variety of skills. It is important that we understand our students' backgrounds, skills, and abilities to help them achieve their goals. We also use project-based learning, a dynamic student-centered approach that engages students to explore real world problems through active learning in long-term, theme-based projects. We engage our students with real and complex problems because our students have real and complex problems. It is imperative that we develop problem-solving and critical thinking skills in our students to ensure that their best learning occurs.~~

1.9: How the Goals of the Program Enable Students to Become Self-Motivated, Competent and Lifelong Learners

At HCCS our goals are to enable students to become self-motivated, competent, and lifelong learners. By removing barriers to education, assisting our students in achieving their goals, and in helping our students to obtain livable-wage jobs, we inspire our students and provide the tools for them to be self-motivated. In order for our students to be competent, we support them with materials, resources, and quality instruction. We also support our students to be competent in technology by providing them with access to laptops, computers, and the basic computer skills necessary for the 21st century. For our students who are also parents, we provide free play care for their potty-trained, non-school-aged children. We want our students to be lifelong learners who are great parents, critical thinkers, and problem solvers who are productive and active members of society. To encourage our students in their lifelong learning, we integrate our immigrant population to be part of the United States and part of our community, to learn English, and to become civic-minded people engaged in local events. Additionally, we have provided valuable training such as CPR to ensure lifelong safety. Our goals ensure that we are supporting our students in areas where they need it most by providing access to the tools and resources they need in order to reach their goals.

Instructional Design

1.10: Overall Curricular and Instructional Design Informed by Key Educational Theories and Research

HCCS Curriculum Standards

We are a very unique school in that while we serve adults, we are teaching content at many levels. Within our ELD and high school programs, we teach: reading, writing, speaking, listening, math, science, technology, health, civics, and social science, often integrating several subjects into a single lesson. In order to meet the California Common Core State Standards, ELD standards, and all of the adult education standards, our curriculum was developed and adapted in alignment with seven sets of standards:

- California Common Core State Standards (CCSS)
- California English Language Development Standards (CA ELD)

- ~~California English as a Second Language Model Standards for Adult Education (CA ESL MSAD)~~
- ~~Comprehensive Adult Student Assessment Systems (CASAS) content standards and competencies~~
- ~~Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act (WIOA)~~
- ~~Western Association of Schools and Colleges~~
- ~~National Reporting Systems (NRS) standards for English as a Second Language (ESL) Educational Functioning Level Descriptors~~

~~Our content and themes are based primarily on the California Common Core State Standards and the Comprehensive Adult Student Assessment System content standards and competencies. The remaining standards were integrated into the leveled objectives by program and subject. Our curriculum objectives are the foundation of our instruction. Our monthly themes are aligned with CASAS competencies and WIOA's English Language Civics themes and provide additional teaching and learning opportunities in high interest topics related to essential daily tasks and community engagement.~~

~~Curriculum Goals and Principles~~

~~At Highlands Community Charter School, we understand the importance of providing a curriculum of depth, breadth, and rigor, which is why we develop and adapt curriculum in alignment with the above standards.~~

~~We believe that our students are worthy of academic excellence, and we strive to ensure that they believe it as well. More than this, we know that in order to fully live our vision, mission, and motto, the curriculum we deliver to our diverse student population must additionally meet our own internal curricular goals and core curricular principles.~~

~~Our HCCS Curricula Goal~~

~~At HCCS it is our goal to develop and deliver a curriculum that is:~~

- ~~★ Concise, Balanced, and Accessible without Compromising the Integrity of the Curriculum.~~

~~Our Core Curricular Principles~~

1. ~~Industry Standards: Generally accepted, respected, and practiced teaching conventions~~
2. ~~Sound Learning Theory: Current, relevant, well-researched theories about the processes by which people learn~~
3. ~~Supported Sound Instructional Practices: Teaching approaches, methods and strategies identified as effective in moving students forward in their learning~~
4. ~~Supportive Materials and Resources: Tangible items used to support instruction and achieve expected outcomes~~
5. ~~Valid and Reliable Assessment Strategies: Ongoing tools that accurately measure student learning and produce consistent results~~

~~Adult Education Learning Theories~~

~~At HCCS we rely on research and educational learning theories in designing our~~to design educational programs ~~because we know~~ that ~~our~~recognize adult students have different needs than ~~students in~~ traditional K-12 ~~schools. In order to meet the diverse needs of our~~ students~~, we consider~~. ~~According~~approaches to meet diverse learner needs. Malcolm ~~Knowles (1980), there are several key factors that separate children from adults in terms of motivation, experience, readiness, and problem-solving abilities. According to Ryan Tracey in his 2009 article Adult Learning Principles? Sminciples!, Malcolm Knowles' theories on adult learners state that, "Adult learners are self-directed, bring experience with them to the learning environment, are ready to learn,~~ Knowles' foundational research (1980) identifies key differences between adult and child learners: adults are self-directed, bring rich life experiences, are problem-oriented, and are motivated ~~to learn~~ by internal factors~~."~~. Patricia Cross (1981) ~~characterizes adult learners by~~emphasizes that adult learners are typically voluntary participants who may feel insecure about learning but are motivated to solve real-world problems. Cross identifies multiple motivation~~,~~ sources, including personal ~~characteristics, life circumstances, and focuses on personality differences between adults and children. According to Cross, individual elements that impact adult learners include physiological, sociocultural, and psychological factors. Along with~~ ~~personal elements, Cross emphasizes the impact of full-time versus part-time instruction and whether it's mandatory or voluntary. While Knowles asserts that adult learners are motivated by internal factors, Cross offers several sources of motivation for adult learners including social, external, social welfare, personal achievement, escape, and personal fulfillment. Cross also emphasizes that adults are usually voluntary learners. They are more likely than children to be insecure about their learning, and they usually want to solve their problems.~~ achievement, social factors, and career advancement.

~~At HCCS we respect and appreciate that our students are adults and come to us with life experiences, employment, and educational histories. Every single student has unique skills and abilities. Our teachers and counselors get to know students and their backgrounds in order to understand not only their educational areas for growth but also their goals, motives, and their problems. We know that each student is overcoming a unique set of obstacles. By understanding our students as people, we can work with them to accommodate their learning styles and ultimately assist them in achieving their goals. While some of our students come to us with a great deal of confidence, others need a great deal of encouragement and support in their personal, academic, and career aspirations.~~

Sociocultural Theories

According to Sociocultural Theory (SCT), social interaction is the foundation of all learning (Walqui, 2008). Sociocultural perspectives in language acquisition emphasize real-~~word~~world participation with authentic language and activities that occur in everyday life (Zuengler & Miller, 2006). Some of the primary assumptions of Sociocultural Theories are that learning occurs before development, that language is the primary tool for thought (Mitchell, Myles, & Marsden, 2013), that writing and speaking are connected (Lightbrown & Spada, 2012), that mediation is essential to learning (Walqui, 2008), and that concept-based instruction aids learning (Mitchell, Myles, & Marsden, 2013).

The Zone of Proximal Development (ZPD) and Scaffolding are two very important concepts in Sociocultural Theory. The ZPD is the stage in which the learner can advance as a result of support (scaffolding) that's provided to them by an interlocutor (Lightbrown & Spada, 2012). Scaffolding is defined as, "a process of setting up" the situation to make the student's entry easy and successful and then gradually pulling back and handing the role to the student so that the student becomes independent enough to handle it (Walqui, 2008). For example, in traditional Sociocultural Theory meaningful interactions take place between an expert (teacher) and a novice (student), where the expert provides the learner with scaffolding during the learner's ZPD.

~~At HCCS we value meaningful, real world communication, interaction, participation, and authentic language, and we utilize it in our educational programs. We do this in our classrooms and in our community field trips. In our English Language Development program, we emphasize English conversation practice that takes place in real-life scenarios and situations such as at doctor's appointments and hospitals, grocery stores, schools and colleges, libraries, job interviews, the DMV, post office, etc. In our high school English program, our teachers use weekly themes to address real world issues. The problem based lessons are based on our students' needs and current events. These lessons are introduced and students' use role playing,~~

~~presentations, internet research, and paragraph writing to demonstrate understanding. Our CTE programs strongly emphasize practical hands-on experiences and real-world learning. Truck driving, early childhood education, cosmetology, manicuring, and our computer technology programs all rely on real world practice and problem solving to engage our students.~~

~~Our teachers, students, and staff value field trips, and it is reflected in our LCAP data and budget. Many English Language Development, high school, CTE, and Citizenship teachers take our students on engaging and educational trips outside of their traditional learning environments. Past field trips include Sacramento's State Capitol, several Sacramento Public Libraries, Raley Field and a Sacramento River Cats baseball game, Sacramento City College Information sessions, resume workshops, a 4th of July fireworks display in Old Town Sacramento, Crocker Art Museum, Sutter's Fort and Indian Museum, The Sacramento History Museum, Lighthouse Charter School, Mission North Park, a parenting class hosted by UC Davis' MIND Institute, multiple career fairs, and many others. Hundreds of our students have benefited from these field trips, and they have greatly contributed to our students' learning, cultural awareness, community involvement and participation. These field trips and experiences give our students opportunities to interact within our community and learn through meaningful real life experiences.~~

Differentiated Instruction

Each student arrives at a different level, with unique learning styles, interests, and abilities. Recognizing this diversity, differentiated instruction is utilized to ensure the needs of all students are met. Differentiated instruction (also known as differentiated learning) is a teaching framework in which the teacher works to simultaneously address the diverse learning needs of all students in one class (Maloy, Verock-O'Loughlin, Edwards, & Woolf, 2013). It is commonly used in multi-level classrooms to meet the needs of students with special educational needs, English language learners, and with students who are advanced or in talented and gifted programs. It allows students the opportunity to learn through various avenues, and each student has different expectations based on learning styles and abilities.

According to the U.S. Department of Education's Literacy Information and Communication System (2012), ~~the design is intended to engage~~differentiated instruction engages students at a range of different levels with various learning styles and ~~to make~~makes learning meaningful for students at every level. According to Carol Ann Tomlinson (2003), differences in student learning ~~exists~~exist in four categories: readiness (prior knowledge), interest (curiosity), learning profile (formal or informal), and affect (self-regard). Before teachers can differentiate their lessons, ~~it is imperative that~~ teachers must understand their students' levels, abilities, learning styles, interests, strengths, and challenges (Corley, 2005). ~~Once they do, teachers can take a single concept or theme and facilitate learning at a variety of levels. Students can then demonstrate subject mastery in a variety of ways. Differentiated instruction takes many forms, and it requires the strategic use of groups and flexibility. Most of the teacher's work in differentiated instruction occurs before, not during class. The teacher selects a theme and then chooses learner outcomes. In differentiated instruction a teacher might allow students to select their method of assessment and delivery such as writing a paper, giving an oral presentation, making a website, writing a poem, making a storyboard, creating a PowerPoint Presentation or a Prezi, or making a short documentary.~~

~~At HCCS we have multi-level adult classes with students of varying abilities in our ELD, high school, CTE, and citizenship programs. Our students speak different languages and come from different countries. Some of our students come to us with advanced degrees from other countries where they were doctors and engineers, and others have had no prior education. In our high school program, some of our students come to us with almost enough credits to graduate, and other students come to our program without any. Every student comes to HCCS at a different level. Each student has their own learning style, interests, and abilities. We recognize the differences in our diverse student population and utilize differentiated instruction to ensure we meet the needs of all our students.~~

Content-Based Instruction (CBI)

CBI is particularly critical for high school English Language Learners because it addresses the dual challenge of mastering academic content while developing the academic language skills essential for school success. By embedding language development within meaningful content learning, CBI creates authentic contexts for language use, builds subject-specific vocabulary, and prepares students for college-level coursework. Research shows this empowering approach encourages learners to become independent, continuing their language development beyond the classroom while simultaneously meeting rigorous academic standards required for high school graduation and post-secondary success.

For students developing foundational language skills such as reading and writing, context plays a critical role in supporting both language and literacy development. Content-Based Instruction (CBI) provides context-rich materials through the curriculum, offering meaningful opportunities for students to build language skills while engaging with relevant academic topics. One of the most critical challenges we face is the persistent and widening vocabulary gap, which can significantly impact the academic progress of learners across all age groups. CBI addresses this challenge.

Supporting our English Learner Population

As a charter school exclusively serving students over the age of 21, the English assessment requirements of federal and state law applicable to students aged 3 through 21, as defined by Education Code section 306, do not apply to HCCS.[1] Almost all of the students at HCCS are classified in CALPADS as adult English Language Learners or ADELs. Therefore, HCCS students do not take the English Language Proficiency Assessments for California (ELPAC) or appear in the California Dashboard for purposes of the English Language Proficiency Indicator (ELPI). HCCS goes to great lengths to serve the needs of our English Language Learners.

Language learning for adults can differ from traditional models of education. It is deeply personal work that builds on the rich linguistic and cultural assets that students bring with them. Because compulsory education requirements do not apply to adult students, myriad factors constantly pull them away from their educational goals. Our approach to supporting English

[1] Education Code section 306, section (a), defines "English learner" for ELPAC and ELPI requirements by incorporating the definition of 20 U.S.C. 7801 (20)(A), i.e. "the term 'English learner', when used with respect to an individual, means an individual who is aged 3 through 21."

Language Learners recognizes that language acquisition happens most effectively when it is meaningful, relevant, and connected to students' lived experiences and goals.

At HCCS, we understand that our students are not empty vessels waiting to be filled with English. They are accomplished individuals who have navigated complex systems, often in multiple languages, and bring sophisticated problem-solving skills and cultural knowledge that enrich our entire learning community. Our role is to create learning environments where students can leverage these strengths while building academic and professional English proficiency.

Our approach to English language learning is grounded in several research-informed principles that guide our instructional design and student support:

Language and Content Learning Are Interconnected.
Research consistently shows that students learn language most effectively when it is embedded in meaningful, content-rich contexts (see CBI explanation above). Our integrated approach ensures that students are simultaneously building language skills and engaging with rigorous, standards-aligned academic material relevant to their goals.

Students' Home Languages Are Resources, Not Barriers.
Multilingualism is an asset that enhances cognitive flexibility and cross-cultural communication skills. We create space for students to use their full linguistic repertoire as they build English proficiency, recognizing that translanguaging—the fluid use of multiple languages—is a natural and effective learning strategy. We also believe that our students bring life experience, motivation, and clear goals that can accelerate their learning when properly supported.

Authentic Assessment Drives Responsive Instruction.
We move beyond standardized measures to develop assessment practices that capture the full range of our students' growing capabilities. This includes portfolio-based assessments, project-based demonstrations of learning, and self-assessment tools that help students track their own progress toward their goals.

Language Assessment Upon Enrollment

As a WIOA partner, HCCS assesses all students during the admissions process and monitors their progress through CASAS testing. The first assessment, administered during registration, is the placement exam, which evaluates students' reading, writing, listening, speaking, and grammar skills. This exam is scored with an internally developed rubric.

During orientation, students also complete CASAS reading and listening assessments. CASAS provides standardized progress testing designed to measure learning along a continuum, from beginning literacy and English language acquisition through the completion of secondary-level skills. Several test series monitor student progress, with difficulty levels ranging from below Level A through Level E. Administering CASAS at enrollment establishes a baseline, followed by post-testing after 70–100 hours of instruction to track student progress over time.

If a teacher determines that a placement is inaccurate, a reassessment may be requested. If the reassessment results in a different level placement, the placement team updates the student's record in PowerSchool and informs the teacher of the revised placement.

The placement rubric is updated annually based on teacher and student feedback. Updates are shared with the curriculum team to confirm alignment with HCCS level objectives. Any additional feedback is integrated before the rubric is finalized for use in the upcoming school year.

Reclassification

As an exclusively adult-serving charter school, HCCS serves English Language learners who must be designated in CALPADS as Adult English Language Learners (ADEL). ADEL students do not participate in ELPAC testing and do not appear as English Language learners on the California Dashboard for purposes of the English Language Proficiency Indicator (ELPI). We track and report ESL advancement as determined by CASAS testing.

Enrollment and Class Size to Support Learning Goals

Enrollment at Highlands Community Charter School has increased each year since its opening. In the 2021–2022 school year, enrollment was 3,751; in 2022–2023, enrollment rose to 6,749; and in 2023–2024, enrollment grew again to 9,069 students, according to the DataQuest census day snapshot. By the end of the 2023–2024 school year, HCCS experienced a significant increase in enrollment and heavily impacted classes. Teachers reported that students were often unprepared with essential skills, and frequent roster changes disrupted instruction. In response, the enrollment process was revised for the 2024–2025 school year to better prepare students and support more strategic class planning. In the 2024-2025 school year new students were enrolled on a biweekly basis rather than continuously throughout the term. Orientation was also updated to include study skills, academic planning, and CASAS assessments.

Five-Year Enrollment Rollout Plan

HCCS has dramatically reduced its enrollment due to updated credential requirements for teachers. As a result, HCCS has recently laid off 631 employees (teachers who only possess an adult education credential as well as staff that would support these teachers and the students that they serve).

Although we currently have over 2,700 students on a waitlist waiting to enroll, the school needs to rebuild its capacity to serve them. For the 2025-2026 school year, HCCS currently has approximately 1,000 students enrolled and plans to increase growth at a reasonable pace over the following four fiscal years as it hires and/or trains additional K-12 credentialed teachers. The five-year enrollment rollout plan is as follows:

Year	Number of Students
2025-2026	1,000
2026-2027	1,100

2027-2028	1,210
2028-2029	1,331
2029-2030	1,464

In the 2024-2025 school year, HCCTS adopted a Class Sizes and Enrollment Board Policy (6151BP) which stated that, "While California does not mandate class size limits for grades 9-12, HCCTS recognizes the importance of maintaining class sizes that promote a productive learning environment, reduce teacher workload, and enhance student engagement. Optimal class sizes are essential to support personalized instruction, improve student outcomes, and foster academic success. The Board of Directors, in consultation with the Executive Director, will establish appropriate class size limits that align with HCCTS' instructional goals and student needs." For the school year 2025-2026, class sizes are set at 30-1.

Class Size Guidelines

- Student-to-Teacher Ratios: Class sizes will be managed to ensure student-to-teacher ratios that support personalized instruction and academic success.

- Program-Specific Adjustments: Class sizes may vary depending on the nature of the program (e.g., independent study, bridge programs, or high school completion).

Enrollment Management

- Enrollment Caps: Each classroom will have an enrollment cap aligned with physical capacity and instructional goals.
- Monitoring and Rebalancing: HCCS Principals will regularly monitor enrollment and class sizes, making adjustments as needed to maintain educational quality and compliance with capacity guidelines.

- Cross-Reference with Physical Capacity: Class sizes and enrollment numbers will be managed in coordination with physical capacity limits as outlined in BP 7110 Physical Classroom Capacity to ensure compliance with Fire Marshal regulations and building codes.

Impact on Instruction and Student Outcomes

- Teacher Workload: Class size limits will be established to reduce teacher workload and promote effective instruction.

- Student Engagement: Class sizes will be prioritized in courses requiring intensive instruction or student participation.

Admission Process

HCCS has introduced a comprehensive admission process to better prepare and place incoming students. This process includes registration, grade level placement, an overview of student expectations and services, and covers any technology-related needs. This enhanced enrollment process ensures students are fully supported from registration to their first day, setting them up for success at HCCS.

Goals of HCCS Program and Student Learning Outcomes

HCCS has three Schoolwide Learner Outcomes (SLO):

- Academic Growth: Students demonstrate measurable achievement each term through standards-aligned assessments and performance tasks.
- Career Progress: Students make documented progress toward individualized education, workforce skill development, and career goals.
- Digital Communication: Students use technology effectively and responsibly for personal, academic, and workplace communication.

Many of our learners enter HCCS with significant gaps in English language proficiency, academic skills, communication, and technology use. These SLOs are designed to close those gaps and set students on a path to long-term college, career, and community success. To make this real in classrooms, and to build a bridge to content standards, we embed Integrated English Language Development supports within the facilitation of learning across all content areas. We monitor progress through course and credit completion, common formative assessments, and CASAS progress monitoring data.

By offering adult education to learners 22+ who have not yet earned a U.S. high school diploma, we work to reduce educational inequity. Our programs are centered around K-12 state standards shaped by the needs of our students and community, and grounded in a commitment to equity and social justice. We emphasize technology fluency, workforce readiness, and supportive services that remove barriers to learning so students can persist and complete. At HCCS, we believe in our students, we believe in our community partners, and we believe that it's never too late.

The Instructional Leadership Team: Stewards of HCCS's Academic Goals

The goals of the HCCS program are created and supported by the Instructional Leadership Team (ILT), a cross-functional leadership team. The ILT is comprised of the CAO, the principals, teacher leaders, Director of Professional Learning, Director of CASAS testing, and Director of Curriculum. The ILT meets every other week to ensure that HCCS is meeting its academic goals by analyzing student learning data and designing professional learning support that responds to these data as well as to teacher-reported needs. The ILT works to create coherence across our goals and accountability requirements to support teachers in understanding how these efforts overlap and form our core goals.

Common Core Standards

HCCS is committed to providing a rigorous, standards-based education that meets the unique needs of adult English language learners while ensuring students progress toward California State Standards across all subject areas. Our curriculum design and instructional practices are systematically aligned with the California Common Core State Standards for English Language Arts and Mathematics, the Next Generation Science Standards, and the California History-Social Science Standards. We integrate English Language Development (ELD) standards with content area instruction, utilizing sheltered instruction strategies and culturally responsive teaching practices that honor students' diverse linguistic and cultural backgrounds. Teachers employ scaffolded approaches to make grade-level content accessible, incorporating visual supports, collaborative learning structures, and native language resources when appropriate to support comprehension and academic language development. Through regular assessment of both English proficiency growth and content mastery, we continuously monitor student progress, adjusting instruction to meet learners where they are while maintaining high expectations for academic achievement.

Core Subjects

HCCS offers students access to an A-G curriculum in English Language Arts, Mathematics, Science, History/Social Studies and electives.

English Language Arts

The English Language Arts courses guide students through a progressive sequence from foundational grammar and language skills to advanced writing, research, and literary analysis. Rooted in Common Core standards, the curriculum emphasizes critical thinking, effective communication, and collaboration. Students engage with diverse fiction and nonfiction texts from various cultures centered on Social-Emotional Learning themes, developing skills in reading comprehension, argumentation, and narrative writing. The program culminates in advanced coursework focused on research proficiency, source evaluation, and multimedia presentations, preparing learners for academic success and professional communication.

Mathematics

The Mathematics courses build foundational skills through a sequence aligned with California Common Core standards, beginning with Pre-Algebra and progressing to Algebra 1 and Geometry. Students develop proficiency with key concepts such as fractions, decimals, ratios, proportions, equations, and basic geometry. Emphasis is placed on applying mathematical reasoning to real-life contexts like financial calculations and problem-solving. The curriculum fosters critical thinking and the ability to represent mathematical situations numerically, graphically, verbally, and symbolically, preparing students for success in advanced math courses and everyday life.

History-Social Science

The History-Social Science courses provide students with a comprehensive understanding of civics, U.S. history, world history, government, economics, and ethnic studies. Instruction integrates literacy and critical thinking, connecting academic content with learners' personal and community experiences. Students explore foundational principles of democracy, historical events, cultural diversity, and economic systems, emphasizing analytical skills through document analysis and inquiry-based learning. The curriculum prepares students to engage as informed citizens, fostering cultural awareness, social justice, and active participation in society.

Science

The Science courses offer foundational courses in Earth Science and Life Science, fulfilling graduation requirements while building scientific literacy and critical thinking. Earth Science introduces students to the dynamics of Earth and space systems, climate, natural phenomena, and human environmental impact. Life Science covers biological concepts such as chemistry, biodiversity, population dynamics, genetics, and environmental interactions. The curriculum emphasizes conceptual understanding and real-world application of scientific principles.

Visual and Performing Arts

The Visual and Performing Arts courses introduce students to fundamental concepts in stage performance, music theory, and vocal technique. Courses cover stage presence, character development, and the structure of the music industry, alongside foundational music theory, history, and vocal training. Students develop confidence and skills for performance and gain an understanding of music's cultural significance, preparing those interested in careers in music, theater, or entertainment.

Electives

The Electives program offers diverse opportunities for students to develop critical reading, communication, and public speaking skills. Courses like Reading for Pleasure foster a love of reading through engagement with socially relevant themes, enhancing comprehension and analytical abilities. Public Speaking electives build students' rhetorical knowledge, speech planning, and presentation skills while promoting ethical communication and confidence. These courses enrich students' academic experience and prepare them for effective expression in various personal and professional contexts.

English for Work and Life Series

The English for Work and Life Series of courses supports students at all stages of English acquisition, from emerging literacy to intermediate fluency. Courses focus on building foundational language skills through systematic instruction in phonics, vocabulary, grammar, and real-world communication. Students progress from recognizing letters and sounds to composing organized paragraphs and participating in workplace and academic conversations. Through engaging, high-interest content and digital literacy tasks, learners gain the language and confidence needed to succeed in academic, personal, and professional settings.

Curriculum

HCCTS recently engaged in a curriculum adoption process to procure Savvas, a standards-aligned curriculum for HCCS courses. We followed an articulated adoption process and received guidance from our UMass Global credentialing partner who had extensive experience with curricular materials that best serve ELLs. Our process involved reviewing materials utilized by other surrounding school districts as well as following recommendations by EdReports in order to understand the best options for our context. We engaged in vendor demos, received teacher feedback around our top choices, and delivered our final proposal to the board of directors for approval.

The HCCTS board approved the adoption of the Savvas curriculum in August 2025. There were many elements that led to this choice including a single user-friendly platform for both teachers and students, and a high rating on EdReports. The curriculum is also used by Twin Rivers

Unified School District, Elk Grove Unified School District, and Los Angeles Unified School District. In order to support teachers to gain familiarity and comfort with the new curriculum, the start of classes was extended until August 14th and teachers met in professional learning communities (PLCs) to build their knowledge of the standards-aligned curriculum. Our contract with Savvas includes access to both an online digital curriculum and to teacher edition textbooks and student workbooks.

Understanding Learning: Using Student Assessments to Support HCCS Goals

We employ multiple forms of assessment to monitor student progress and inform instruction:

- Formative Assessments: These include ongoing evaluation through teacher observation, projects, presentations, and performance tasks.
- Summative Assessments: End-of-unit and semester evaluations measuring mastery of learning objectives. These assessments are part of the core curriculum.
- Portfolio Assessments: Student-led self-assessment using assignments of choice to demonstrate learning in students' focal areas. The ILT is currently mapping the implementation of the portfolio project.
- Student Surveys: Self-perception data helps us to understand the student experience.
- CASAS testing: Comprehensive Adult Student Assessment System, a competency based adult assessment program validated by the U.S. Department of Education for use in adult education conducted after 70-100 hours of instruction time. The assessment is administered every 6-8 weeks.
- CAST: California Science Test, a state assessment mandated for those in high school.
- CAASPP: California Assessment of Student Performance and Progress, a state assessment mandated for those in high school grade 11.
- EL Civics Assessments

Administered 3 times per program year

- ELD Level Placement Test

- ELD Level Exit Test
  Administered to determine readiness to advance to the next ELD level

Professional Development Supporting HCCS Goals

High-quality professional learning is about creating a learning system. It is more than training staff in best practices; it is about creating a culture of curiosity that acknowledges the uncertainty inherent in teaching and learning. Central to our revised professional learning program is creating a practice of inquiry at the leadership level that focuses its interest on the practitioners working most closely with the students. What are teachers learning about their students' learning? Where are teachers' gaps in knowledge and capacity? These are the questions that inform the design and goals of the professional learning offerings.

HCCS leadership works in partnership with HCCS principals and teacher leaders through the ILT to take a partnership approach to designing professional learning. There are several core beliefs about practitioner-based learning that informs the HCCS approach to professional learning:

- Teaching is complex and uncertain work that requires an inquiry stance to ensure that students' needs are being met.
- Agency and relevancy are guiding drivers for adult learners; being able to articulate their own goals and see where they are on the path to achieving those goals is essential for adult learners.
- For instruction to be changed and improved, the learning experience of students must be public (not hidden away).
- Educators (teachers and leaders) are professionals engaged in important work, and they deserve a level of professional support and care that takes their work seriously.
- Pursuing collective goals is essential to supporting systems transformation

Professional Development~~In order to meet the depth, breadth, and rigor set forth in our ambitious schoolwide curriculum objectives that are written in alignment to the multiple sets of standards listed above, we implement content-based instruction practices in our classrooms. At HCCS we make every effort to ensure that students are given ample and meaningful access to content competencies as well as practice with the necessary skills to critically analyze content in which they are exposed. Employing content-based instruction strategies in our classroom is one way our teachers meet the rigorous requirements of our curriculum.~~

~~For our ELD learners who are developing foundational, language-domain skills like reading and writing, the role of context is fundamental to supporting their language and literacy development. Content-Based Instruction provides the context-rich materials of our content curriculum for their skills development.~~

~~Perhaps the most important thing to note is the ever-widening gap in vocabulary that will forever~~

~~impede the academic progress of ELD learners of all ages. Content-based instruction is one tool we use at Highlands Community Charter School to help bridge the vocabulary gap of our non-native speakers and native non-literate readers alike.~~

~~Content-based instruction is founded on important principles, but its success depends on the details of its implementation.~~

~~Sound teaching practices that our teachers integrate into content-based instruction classrooms~~

1. ~~Extended input, meaningful output, and feedback on language and grasp of content~~
2. ~~Information gathering, processing, and reporting~~
3. ~~Integrated skills~~
4. ~~Task-based activities and project work, enhanced by cooperative learning principles~~
5. ~~Strategy training~~
6. ~~Visual support~~
7. ~~Contextualized grammar instruction~~
8. ~~Culminating synthesis activities~~

~~Methods we use to promote the acquisition of content (and language)~~

- ~~We make sure that our learners consider input from a variety of sources representing diverse perspectives on related subject matter.~~
- ~~We guide our students in revisiting input for different purposes.~~
- ~~We ensure that our students have many opportunities to synthesize knowledge that originates from multiple sources.~~

~~Approaches we use for building curricular coherence~~

- ~~We scrutinize the ways we define instructional units—themes are central ideas and topics are subunits of the theme.~~
- ~~We use planned transitions across topics and across tasks within topics.~~
- ~~We consider threads—links across themes in curriculum development.~~

~~Theme-based Instruction~~

~~At HCCS we select monthly, schoolwide themes for our ELD program. Our aim is to engage students at every level using that theme while teachers focus on level-appropriate content.~~

~~Themes for the 2018–19 school year:~~

~~July~~ Focusing on Language Acquisition

Central to HCCS professional development is continuously developing strong instructional strategies to meet the needs of our ELLs. Supporting English Language Learners effectively requires ongoing professional learning and reflection. All HCCS educators engage in continuous inquiry about how to better serve our multilingual learners.

Language-Responsive Teaching Practices

Our professional learning focuses on developing instructional strategies that make content accessible while maintaining high expectations. This includes training in visual supports, collaborative learning structures, and formative assessment techniques that help teachers understand what students know and can do.

Cultural Responsiveness and Asset-Based Thinking
We work to examine our own assumptions about language learning and ensure that our instructional practices build on students' cultural and linguistic strengths. This includes learning about our students' educational backgrounds and understanding how different cultural approaches to learning can inform our teaching.

Data-Informed Decision Making
As part of our inquiry-based PLCs, we develop systems for collecting and analyzing data about student language development that go beyond test scores. This includes documentation of student growth in academic discussions, writing development over time, and students' own reflections on their learning progress through portfolios.

Our commitment to English Language Learners extends beyond language acquisition to encompass the full development of students as confident, capable learners who can succeed in their chosen academic and professional pathways. Ultimately, we measure our success not just by English proficiency gains, but by our students' ability to use their multilingual skills to contribute meaningfully to their communities and achieve their educational goals.

HCCS Professional Learning Structures
There are multiple existing structures that support professional development at HCC for teachers and leaders.

Friday Professional Development Sessions
Our bi-weekly Friday afternoon professional learning sessions are designed as both collaborative inquiry spaces where educators engage in job-embedded learning directly connected to their daily practice, and also an opportunity to receive specialized instructional support that they or the Instructional Leadership Team has requested. These sessions follow a flexible structure that can shift between collective inquiry—examining student work and learning data to collaboratively problem-solve around specific instructional challenges—and targeted professional development that addresses identified needs such as trauma-informed pedagogy, advanced strategies for supporting students with interrupted formal education, or innovative approaches to integrated content-language instruction.

Teachers work in cross-disciplinary teams when engaging in inquiry cycles, analyzing how their students are navigating rigorous academic content and sharing effective practices for maintaining high expectations while providing comprehensive support. When focused on specialized instruction, sessions might feature expert facilitators, peer observations with feedback, or deep dives into research-based strategies that teachers have specifically requested to strengthen their practice. This dual approach ensures that professional learning is both responsive to emerging classroom needs and proactive in building the specialized expertise our diverse adult learner population requires, while maintaining our commitment to practitioner-centered learning that directly impacts student success.

Bi-Monthly Principal PLC
Leading is complex and uncertain work, and HCCS supports its two principals in PLC sessions led by the Chief Academic Officer. This principal learning community operates as a space for collaborative problem-solving where school leaders can examine challenges, share effective practices, and develop coordinated approaches to supporting their unique adult learner populations. Sessions focus on analyzing school-level data to understand how students are progressing toward their educational goals, discussing instructional leadership strategies that support teachers in serving English Language Learners and students with interrupted formal education, and developing systems-level responses to emerging needs within their school communities. The Chief Academic Officer facilitates these meetings using the same inquiry-based approach that guides teacher professional learning, encouraging principals to bring real dilemmas from their practice, examine multiple perspectives, and test solutions collaboratively. This structure ensures that leadership decisions are grounded in evidence and aligned across both school sites, while providing principals with the professional support and intellectual partnership they need to lead effectively in the complex landscape of adult education. The PLC also serves as a space for principals to reflect on their own growth as instructional leaders and to coordinate their efforts in supporting teacher development and student success.

Twice Per Week Teacher PLCs
Teachers engage in professional learning community work twice weekly, with sessions strategically designed to strengthen both instructional planning and data-informed decision making. One session each week is dedicated to collaborative planning time where teachers work in grade-level or content-area teams to design learning experiences that integrate rigorous academic content with the specific supports their English Language Learners and students with interrupted formal education need to succeed. These co-planning sessions allow educators to share strategies, align expectations across courses, and ensure that assessment practices accurately capture student growth while maintaining high standards. The second weekly session follows protocols and practices that focus on collaborative examination of student work and performance data to understand learning patterns, identify instructional adjustments, and develop targeted interventions. During these data inquiry sessions, teachers bring actual student artifacts—writing samples, project work, assessment results—and engage in structured conversations that move beyond simply identifying which students are struggling to understand why certain approaches are or aren't working and what specific instructional moves might better support student learning. This dual structure ensures that teachers have dedicated time for both proactive planning and reflective analysis, creating a continuous cycle of improvement that keeps student learning at the center of all professional practice.

Teacher Coaching
Teaching standards-aligned high school curriculum to newcomer adults with varying degrees of education in their home language and a wide range of English skills is challenging teaching. To support excellent instruction, HCCS is in the process of investing in on the ground coaching for our teachers. This will include the opportunity to observe instructional models, to co-plan with professionals with expertise in supporting students with interrupted formal education, and to engage in guided reflection on the impact of instruction. At the time of the writing of the material revision, we plan to begin Phase 1 of the teacher coaching program by October 15th. Principals, the Director of Professional Learning, the Curriculum Coordinator, and teacher leaders will participate in a rigorous train-the-trainer model to enable sustained on the ground support of teachers ongoing development.

The Role of Data and Assessments in Informing Instructional and Systems Improvement

Assessment is a core to instructional improvement at HCCS. Not only does assessment tell us where our students are in their learning, but patterns in the data reveal where we need to focus our professional learning efforts. HCCS is committed to creating a system that is responsive to what we are learning about our students and their needs. Leadership is curious about what is happening between the teacher and the student and rests its instructional improvement design on the data that comes from the classroom.

Formal Assessment and Improvement
The instructional leadership team (ILT) will review CASAS data to understand students' academic progress and to track areas where we need to improve our instructional approach. In addition, the ILT will use CAASPP and CAST data to understand the general themes in improvement and then support teachers to use more granular classroom data to understand barriers to student progress.

Informal Assessments and Improvement
Working in their PLCs, teachers will use classroom-based data– both qualitative and quantitative to determine the areas of their practice where they would like more support. This is one source of the design for the content input on PL Fridays. The ILT uses classroom observation data to help determine the focus of improvement efforts.

Student Climate Surveys and Systems Improvement
Centering the students' experience as core to our approach to improving the learning experience
The HCCS instructional improvement process involves looking at both student mastery data and student perception data. One important source of student perception data is the student climate surveys. While we do not rely on this self-report data to give us the whole picture of the student learning experience, we do value this source of data to understand HCCS's social and emotional conditions for learning.

Every year, HCCS conducts anonymous student climate surveys. These surveys are sent out to students in the following languages:

- English
- Arabic
- Spanish
- Persian
- Armenian
- Pashto
- Russian
- Turkish
- Ukrainian
- Vietnamese

- Chinese

Students have access to completing these surveys via QR codes, push notifications sent to their cell phones, with the support of their teachers in their classrooms, and via the Brain app.

Teachers encourage and support student participation by engaging students in lessons that have practice surveys. Paraeducators are also utilized to provide language support during this process. The purpose of these surveys is to understand the following:

- Relationships
- Classroom Climate
- Classroom Support and Access to Resources
- Goal Setting & Student Progress
- Safety, Maintenance, and Facilities
- Workforce and CTE Programs
- Lessons, Instruction, and Curriculum

HCCS students are asked to read each statement and indicate their level of agreement with the statement from the following options:

- Strongly agree
- Agree
- Neutral
- Disagree
- Strongly Disagree

The table below shows the percentage of HCCS students who agree or strongly agree with each statement for the year indicated for the last three years.

Student Academic Supports

Because many of our students have little prior education in their native language and, for many of them, they come in with low levels of English, HCCS provides extra support to ensure students' academic success. Classroom teachers are available to meet with students before and after school during their office hours to support students who are struggling academically.

Paraeducators

English proficiency and learning needs vary widely for our incoming students. HCCS paraeducators provide crucial language scaffolding by providing individualized instructional support in students' native languages and creating more opportunities for meaningful English language practice, ensuring that our Level 0 students can fully benefit from our educational programs.

Additionally, paraeducators who share students' cultural backgrounds can create a more comfortable environment that reduces the anxiety often experienced by new students and immigrant populations. While teachers focus primarily on academic instruction, paraeducators provide crucial social-emotional support to help students navigate their educational environment successfully. Paraeducators also help students build digital literacy, fluency with the HCCS systems, and provide academic support.

HCCS hired 32 new paraeducators in 2024–2025 to expand instructional support across its sites. All but two of those paraeducators were released in June 2025 as part of the school's restructuring process, which prioritized staffing of credentialed instructors. HCCS plans to rehire three additional paraeducators this school year as it builds its program capacity and will further increase paraeducator staffing as part of its sustainable five-year growth plan.

Literacy Support
During the 2025-2026 school year, HCCS will hire staff to provide literacy support for English language learners. This will focus on building literacy through phonemic awareness, phonics, vocabulary building, pronunciation, and writing skills.

Tutoring Program
HCCS will implement an in-person tutoring program to replace previous online tutoring opportunities. Based on feedback from students and staff, online tutoring no longer effectively serves the needs of our student population. Key challenges, detailed below, include a lack of digital literacy skills, low student engagement, and limited availability of support. The design of our in-person tutoring program will focus on effectively addressing these findings.

Challenges for Students Accessing Online Tutoring

- Cultural barriers – example: Afghan women
    - Our student population with the highest level of need for one-on-one tutoring
    - Working one-on-one with male tutors would violate cultural and religious norms
    - Afghan women typically have limited experience or skill with technology
    - Afghan women may have limited literacy skills and English language skills
    - Require in-person, one-on-one support by Dari or Pashto-speaking women tutors
- Technology barriers

~~Student-Centered Instruction~~
~~Student-centered instruction is teaching and lesson planning that focuses on students. As teachers, we must get to know our students, their backgrounds, what they know, how they learn, and their goals. Teachers can then design lessons to build on student knowledge and focus on teaching topics that are relevant and meaningful to students. This is especially important in adult~~ education where students are electing to continue their education. We demonstrate student-centered instruction by working with our students to choose topics and themes for each month.

Based on the five assumptions, Knowles also presents the four principles of Andragogy which HCCS also considers when designing curriculum and instruction for our students:

- Adults need to be involved in the planning and evaluation of their instruction
- Experience (including mistakes) proved the basis for learning activities
- Adults are most interested in learning subjects that have immediate relevance and impact to their jobs or personal lives
- Adult learning is problem-centered rather than content-oriented

Although adult learners are responsible for their own decisions, we believe that it is our responsibility to encourage and guide students to make the decisions that are best suited for them. We are confident that all students can learn and grow from our staff who are dedicated to student achievement and building relationships that will last a lifetime. Our ELD and high school programs are essential to the success of our adult learners. Our students have come back to school to change their lives, and we believe that it is our duty to ensure it happens.

1.11: HCCS Curriculum and Instruction

Innovative Curricular Components

Adult Literacy

At HCCS we believe it is imperative for our students to be able to read and write. Without reading and writing skills, they will not be able to achieve their academic or career goals. Many of our students enroll with us at a low reading and writing level. In response to this, we created programs for both our ELD and high school students. We hired a Lead Literacy Teacher and a Reading Specialist, and we created a Remedial Literacy course for our ELD students. This course is intended for students who are progressing in all of their subjects but need support with reading. For our high school students, we created two remedial reading classes. These classes focus on phonemic awareness, sounds, and pronunciation. When classroom teachers notice that a student is falling behind, they are referred to either a specialist or a remedial class. By providing additional literacy support for our students, we ensure that they are able to read and write.

Outcomes-Based Learning

At HCCS we have created extensive curriculum objectives aligned to California Common Core Standards, and we have implemented monthly themes that relate to CASAS competencies and English Language Civics Objectives supported by WIOA. These serve as the foundations of our curriculum. Within our themes, classes, levels, and objectives, we utilize outcomes-based learning. We begin our lessons with a desired outcome and then work with our students to develop the skills they need in order to meet the outcome. This is relevant at every level of instruction in both of our programs. In the ELD program, we focus on tasks such as reading a short book, writing a paragraph, having a short conversation, giving an informal presentation, or completing a job application. In our high school program, we focus on tasks such as reading a ~~novel, writing an essay, having a debate, giving a formal presentation, and completing a college application. In CTE, students demonstrate their understanding based on their respective program. In Truck Driving, students practice safe truck-driving techniques they have learned. At Cosmo Beauty Academy, students demonstrate their learning through the applied practice of the cosmetic and manicuring techniques they have learned. We believe that by ensuring our curriculum objectives are aligned to standards and by using outcomes based learning, all of our students are focused on the immediate learning goals. Our standards are high; the expectations are clear; and we support our students in reaching program and course objectives.~~

~~Proficiency Requirements~~

~~We believe that we get the best work out of our students when expectations are high. This is why, at HCCS, we ensure that our students are meeting our rigorous standards before they are promoted to the next level or before they pass a class. Although proficiency requirements are different for our ELD and high school programs, both require students to perform at a high level of mastery. In order for one of our ELD students to complete a level and move up to the next class, they must receive the highest grade available in the course. In our ELD courses, students are eligible to receive one of four grades for each subject: M, A, D, or E. The grade of M indicates that the student is meeting or exceeding the standards and objectives of the class for their level. Until our students have earned this grade, they remain in their class. In our high school program, students are graded on a traditional grading scale of A–F. In order for a student in high school to pass a class, they must earn a C or better. If they do not earn a C or better, the student must complete supplemental assignments to pass the course and earn credits toward graduation.~~

~~The grading criteria for our high school students includes successful completion of all coursework, papers, projects, presentations, and end-of-unit tests required in any given course. The grading criteria for ELD students includes CASAS reading and listening assessments as well as the successful completion of all coursework, papers, projects, presentations, tests and end-of-term exams which cover all skills taught. High school and ELD instructors will use rubrics aligned to standards found on the HCCS alignment matrices to guide their grading process of all coursework, papers, projects, presentations, end-of-unit/term exams and final course/level grades.~~

~~Student Success~~

~~Our students' success is very important to us, and one way we ensure their success is through our student support services. Through our student support services, we offer assistance with classwork, homework, resume writing, job search, job fairs, mock interviews, career advising, FAFSA support, college applications, college advising, housing services, homeless services, and expungements. Over the last year, we have grown and now offer field trips, student support groups, one-on-one college and career advising, and workshops geared toward college and career readiness. Our student success team contacts our high school and CTE graduates to find out whether they are employed or attending college, whether part-time or full-time, and their hourly wage. At HCCS we want all our students and our alumni to be successful.~~

~~Intervention~~ ~~and Enrichment~~

Attendance Policy

At HCCS we say that progress requires commitment and commitment requires attendance. We believe that attendance is crucial for our students' success. When our students are not present in class, we contact them either by email, text, or a phone call. We believe in holding our students accountable and supporting them when they need it. Our paraeducators, teachers, and counselors maintain communication with our students when students are absent. We want to ensure that if our students are having personal hardships, we are supporting them and providing them with every service we have available either at HCCS, at one of our partner organizations, or at an external location.

Homework Policy

At HCCS we believe that level and content appropriate homework improves students' understanding of classwork and improves academic performance. While homework is not required for most of our classes, we do assign up to two hours of optional daily homework for students who want or need supplemental practice. According to our policy, homework is due the class after it was assigned. For example, homework given on Monday is due on Tuesday, and homework given on Friday is due on Monday. Homework is not given to students who are absent for that day. For example, a student who is absent on Tuesday will not be given homework for Tuesday. Students will not be able to get homework from their friend or teacher once the class is over. All homework should be completed by the student. Students can get help with their homework, but family and friends should not write or complete homework for them. All homework should be in the students' handwriting. Also, students can work together after class, but students should not copy each other. Each student should have their own answers. Cheating will result in no credit for homework for that day.

Independent Study

We believe it is important for our students to have the flexibility, study skills, motivation, and discipline to work and study independently. At HCCS we have two options for students interested in independent study: service learning and field study.

Service Learning

Service learning is a one-day, independent study option where students volunteer in the community. Examples of appropriate service-learning opportunities include:

- Cleaning up a park or public place
- Working at a local school
- Volunteering at a local hospital
- Working at a local library
- Feeding the homeless
- Reading to children at after school program
- Helping at a cultural event in the community

Service learning is usually offered by teachers at HCCS when there is professional development or teacher training for all teachers. It is an opportunity for students to engage in the community. Students complete a form that includes their personal information and asks for a description of what they did for their service learning. They are also required to have someone verify the number of hours of participation.

Field Study

Field study is an independent study option where students can study for up to seven consecutive days at home and receive classroom credit. In field study, a teacher creates daily work assignments. These work assignments are similar in level and content to traditional coursework and should take approximately the same amount of time to complete as the daily class. If the normal class is one hour, then the teacher provides one hour of work. If the course is four hours, the teacher provides approximately four hours of work for the students to complete at home.

Field study is typically offered to students during times when they are unable to attend class. Common reasons for students to enroll in a field study include but are not limited to the following:

- They are observing an important cultural holiday or celebration.
- They are traveling.
- They have a family emergency.
- They have a medical condition.
- Their children are home from school and they don't have childcare.
- They do not have transportation for a set period of time.
- They have family visiting from overseas

In order for students to participate in field study, they must complete a master agreement and agree to complete the work in a set amount of time. After the field study period is complete, students must turn in the completed work to their teacher. At that time, the teacher checks for completion before giving credit.

Here at HCCS we have a diverse student population that comes to us from all over the world. They have religious holidays that are not recognized by the federal government. We recognize the value of their beliefs and traditions, and we support them by providing the opportunity for them to celebrate their culture with their families while still continuing their coursework. We also understand that our students have children, families, emergencies, and sometimes situations that do not make it possible them to attend class. While we firmly believe that attendance is crucial for their success, we believe that by providing our students with supplemental materials and work, they do not have to choose between learning and religion or learning and family.

Counseling Services

We are proud to have highly trained, compassionate counselors who support each and every student. Our counselors are able to provide assistance and information on many issues including:

- Family issues
- Personal issues
- Conflict management
- Career counseling
- Substance abuse and recovery

- Student support groups
- Homeless services
- Accessing government programs
- FAFSA
- Parenting and family resources

Our students face many challenges and have many barriers to completing their education and accomplishing their goals. At HCCS our counselors understand our students' needs and assist them by addressing barriers because we want our students to complete their classes and graduate. We believe that by meeting our students where they are, they are more likely to continue and complete their programs to graduate.

The course will show a connection between computational and applied math while making meaningful connections to students' life experiences: calculating discounts, markups, commissions, and profit. Students will evaluate simple and multi-step equations and inequalities while using the correct order of operations when solving numerical and algebraic expressions. Lastly, students will be analyzing situations numerically, graphically, verbally, and symbolically throughout the course.

Algebra 1 is designed to help provide students with the foundation for all future mathematics courses. Students will explore operations, terms and expressions, equations, polynomials, rational numbers, multiplying and dividing rational expressions, adding and subtracting rational expressions, graphs, systems of equations, and square roots and quadratic equations. Common Core standards are taught and reinforced as the students learn how to apply the concepts in real life situations. Algebraic skills and concepts are developed and used in a variety of problem solving contexts. The course is self-paced with credits dependent on work completed and concepts mastered.

Students will use variables and appropriate operations to write an expression, an equation, an inequality, or a system of equations or inequalities that represent a verbal description. The course will further explore graphing linear functions while noting the vertical change per unit of horizontal change is always the same and know that the ratio (rise over run) is called the slope of the graph. Students will be able to identify a point lies on a line, given an equation of the line, and derive linear equations by using the point-slope formula. Students will be expected to demonstrate skills that will be valuable not only in this course but also in future educational and vocational settings including oral presentations and technology. A primary goal of this course is for students to actively engage in a positive learning experience in which there is increased appreciation and understanding of mathematics.

Course content ranges from high school and career preparation to computer literacy skills. The area of technology is designed to be interwoven throughout course instruction. Mastery of the content standards provides a strong foundation of student acquisition~~ of the skills, attitudes, and knowledge that enables them to achieve success in school, at work, and across the life span. As part of preparing students to be college and career ready, this course also equips them with the skills needed for the workplace, continuing education, and lifelong learning.

The purpose of this course is for students to be able to demonstrate basic computer skills including typing, email, Google Drive, and internet searching; identify the effects of workplace behaviors; analyze personal skills, interests, and abilities and relate them to current career opportunities; and examine the employment process, including searching for a job, filling out a job application, writing a resume, developing and practicing interview skills, and completing required employment forms.

- Personal Finance

This course challenges students to alter their thinking and behavior regarding their personal finances while teaching skills in money management, financial planning, spreadsheets, word processor and presentation software applications. This instructional course provides individuals with exploratory experiences related to personal finance which are designed to change behavior. These experiences explore various financial influences including spending, saving, debt, credit and credit history, investing, mortgages, retirement planning, etc. Students develop spending behaviors and habits that will lead to wealth accumulation. The course also provides exploration in the following areas: mathematical calculations applied to analytical information (spreadsheets), consumer marketing concepts (financial traps), computer literacy, economic concepts, and financial and technological developments.

Literacy Support

Reading Skills I

This is an elective course for the development of reading skills for students whose reading skills are far below high school level (e.g., most students taking this course will be reading at below 6th grade). Emphasis is placed on accelerating student learning so that students will achieve the ability to read at the high school level or make significant strides towards that objective. Skills learned in this class include syllabication, vocabulary acquisition, fluency, speed, and reading comprehension.

Reading for Pleasure

This elective course will help students improve their reading skills as they expand and explore their reading preferences by choosing to read three novels and completing activities based upon their novels. To earn the five credits for this course, the student must read and keep a reading log of three novels that the teacher has approved for the student to read. In addition to the detailed reading log, the student must also complete one project for each novel. This course focuses on Common Core reading standards for grade 9-10.

English Novel Elective

This elective course helps students with critical thinking, literary analysis, and the development of creativity within academic writing. In this course, students pick one of a list of teacher approved novels. They will then use that book to complete the majority of their assignments in the class. The assignments vary from essays to creating projects that use creativity, imagination, and textual examples. Students are also required to keep a reading log journal and complete formal assessments on the reading. They will also do assignments that relate to English but that may not be related to the actual novel that they are reading. The course objectives are based on ELA Common Core Standards for grade 9-10.

Entrepreneurship

- Online login processes may limit access for students with low technical proficiency
- Our student population may not have access to high-speed internet at home

Our

Leadership (Beginning)

Understanding and executing principles of leadership is critical for students to improve their opportunities at school, work, and at home. This class explores how focusing on the causes or laws of leadership will improve the outcomes or effects of our leadership efforts. This class is a laboratory where students are taught principles and then given opportunities to discuss, explore, and implement these principles.

In the leadership setting, students are challenged to develop their literacy and vocabulary as they read and discuss various books, articles and videos; enhance their understanding of computer applications (including word processing and presentation applications); elevate their reading, analytical, and writing skills as they read and compose a book report on a selected leadership book; and expand their presenting skills as they create and present their findings developed through the book report process. Students will also be expected to improve their teamwork, collaboration, and leadership skills and abilities as they work in small groups to teach leadership concepts to their classmates.

Entrepreneurial Mindset (Intermediate)

The mindset of an entrepreneur is critical to the development of the business concept and the overall success of any business. This class builds on the leadership principles taught in Leadership class and explores the mindsets taught through relevant books, material, and other resources. As students study these texts, their own mindsets and behaviors are challenged and changed. Students realize that their thoughts or mindsets affect their behaviors and ultimately the success of their business concept.

Students will build and develop effective mindsets while they explore their personal business concepts and prepare for developing their business plans in the capstone class (Business Planning). Students will expand and refine the skills they developed in the leadership class as they continue to read, analyze, write, and present materials studies in this course.

Business Planning (Advanced)

Business Planning is the capstone class and applies all of the learning and knowledge learned and developed in the previous classes in the entrepreneurship pathway (i.e. Leadership and Entrepreneurial Mindset). Students in this class will develop and write their own business plans

~~(or an assigned project-based business plan), and as they execute this assignment they will research their business concept, location, product, etc. to determine market demand; brainstorm business names and search the United States Patent and Trade Office (USPTO) and Secretary of State (SOS) of all states to determine uniqueness. They will also research local business requirements, apply for appropriate licenses, explore business entity structures, and determine the most effective entity for business concepts; and file articles of incorporation with the Secretary of State's office. Students will register trademarks and patents with the USPTO. Students will analyze, define, and present startup costs, and research funding requirements and potential funding sources.~~

~~Where applicable, potential internships with be developed. Students will utilize a suite of business-essential apps including spreadsheets, word-processing, and presentation programs. Students refine their leadership skills as they present their business plans to classmates and potential investors/partners. These skills, knowledge, and tools will be valuable assets as students launch and lead their business plans to implementation.~~

~~Early Childhood Education~~

~~Child Psychology (Beginning)~~
~~In Child Psychology, students learn theories of historically significant psychologists who laid the foundation for scientific research and a clearer understanding of children and the human mind. This course explores how psychological perspectives influence personality and play a role in human development across the lifespan. Students explore and learn how each stage in human development can and does require specific things for human children to grow up strong and healthy. Students examine how children's behaviors are developed, memories are stored, and language is acquired, and the critical period these things must happen. Students also learn about the symptoms and classifications of psychological disorders, along with the various forms of treatments available. After completing this course, students will be equipped with problem solving strategies and even learn strategies to cope with stress. Practical, everyday application of the content is a focus of this course along with background knowledge in child development and the mind.~~

~~Through the use of online software, teacher lectures, and projects this course is designed to promote critical thinking through inquiry, problem solving, and reflection. The course guides students to connect prior knowledge, backgrounds, life experiences, and interests to learning the materials. The students will connect classroom learning to their life experiences and cultural backgrounds. The course supports all students to use first and second language skills to achieve the learning goals. The course uses assessment date to establish learning goals and to plan, differentiate, and modify instruction. Students learn new vocabulary and critical issues of child development through extended video's, open lectures that address emergent literacy, critical period to acquire language, the developmental stages of children, and cutting edge exploration of trauma development in childhood and its effect on children. Students will be gaining emerging knowledge, exploring for increased understanding, applying that knowledge to themselves, integrating their new knowledge with old knowledge, and innovating or becoming creative in their teaching methods with children.~~

Early Childhood Education (Intermediate)

In Early Childhood Education, students learn more about understanding the childhood experience. Students will create interesting lessons and stimulating learning environments that provide a safe and encouraging experience for children. They will discover how to get children excited about learning, and just as importantly, to feel confident about their abilities; identify good nutrition for children's physical development; analyze and apply how to keep a safe, healthy, and clean childcare environment or preschool classroom; identify the rules and regulations of childcare facilities; develop and implement creative lessons and teach children through play. Students will also learn how to record, observe, and communicate with children; and create a plan for personal and professional growth to set child development goals.

Early Childhood Education (Advanced)

This capstone course prepares students for employment in the care and guidance of young children under the supervision of professional personnel. Instruction includes child growth and development, nutrition, program planning and management, health and safety, guidance, recreational and play activities, child abuse and neglect, developmentally appropriate practices, interpersonal relationships and regulations, operational procedures, emergency and disaster procedures, policies, standards, and licensing, supervision and maintenance of children's environment, professionalism, and classroom management.

Truck Driving

This basic unit will consist of classroom learning leading to a DMV CDL Class A Permit. Students will take and pass the DMV Class A CDL permit written examination. This course will cover the general knowledge, air brake procedure, and combination. Students will also have the option to become endorsed in doubles and triples, tankers, and hazmat through this course.

Pre-Trip and Inspection (Beginning)

In this beginning course, students will memorize parts of the vehicle by name, learn all internal and external inspections of the vehicle and trailer, and be able to perform/apply leakage tests to the vehicle.

General Skills (Intermediate)

In this intermediate course, students will begin to operate the vehicle under guided supervision. Students will practice straight line backing, offset backing to the right and left, parallel parking on the driver's side and conventional side, and alley docking.

At HCCS we are currently updating and improving our curriculum and course descriptions as part of our Schoolwide Learner Outcomes for our Western Association of Schools and Colleges (WASC) self-study. As an adult serving charter, we do not presently offer any college preparatory A-G courses.

1.13: Instructional Methods and Strategies Used to Deliver the Curriculum

In our mission statement, we assert that we are a diverse community for social justice, serving the unserved, providing access to education, technology, communication, and employment for 21st century achievers. Through community partnerships, we will build new legacies leading to self-sufficiency and generational change. Through our instructional methods, we want to ensure that we are working consistently with our mission and our schoolwide learner outcomes. At HCCS we have three Schoolwide Learner Outcomes. Our first is that students will demonstrate measurable achievements each term through assessment. Our second is that students will make progress toward their career goals. Third, students will use technology to communicate for personal and academic use.

At HCCS we utilize the following instructional methods to ensure exceptional academic performance:

- Standards-based Instruction
- Systematic Instructional Delivery
- Student Engagement

- The systematic use of assessments
- Data-driven Instruction

Standards-based Instruction

At HCCS our curriculum is based on seven sets of standards, with Common Core Standards and CASAS at the foundation. Our teachers use our curriculum objectives within each subject and level to ensure that our standards are met. Lessons are taught based on objectives and monthly themes that integrate high interest topics and content. Formative and summative assessment data is used to measure students' prior knowledge and to ensure that our students are meeting our standards.

Systematic Instructional Design

Clear expectations, consistent policies, and strategic instructional planning and assessment are at the foundation of our educational programs.

Clear Expectations

Clear expectations are imperative for our students to be successful. We believe that by creating clear expectations for behavior, attendance, classroom etiquette, homework, content standards, and assessments, our students become accountable for their own progress and success. Our students are at HCCS because they do not have a US issued high school diploma, and they are 22 years old and older. We know that many of our students were not able to graduate during their first attempt at high school and that the traditional education system did not meet their needs. We also recognize that for some of our ELD students, HCCS is the first school they have ever attended. At HCCS we hold all of our students to high academic performance standards. Through this process, students benefit in the following ways:

- Students are held to high standards.
- Students are expected to meet the curriculum objectives for their level.
- Objectives and outcomes are clear.
- Student feedback is related to specific outcomes.
- Students know what they are expected to learn.
- Students have equal access to learning and learning materials.
- Students learn personal responsibility.

Consistent Policies

Consistent policies are also part of our educational program and are closely tied to clear expectations. At HCCS we have consistent policies for the following processes and programs:

- Enrollment in CalJOBS
- HCCS student registration process
- ELD placement tests
- CASAS assessment
- Attendance policy
- Homework policy
- ELD grading system (MADE)
- High school grading system (A-F)

- ~~ELD level completion~~
- ~~High school course completion~~
- ~~Transfer credit evaluation~~
- ~~ELD to high school re-designation process~~
- ~~ELL Reclassification process~~
- ~~Graduation requirements~~

~~Because of our~~ student population~~, we must provide clear expectations and consistent policies to ensure that all of our students clearly understand what they need to do to succeed at HCCS and achieve their goals.~~

~~Strategic Instructional Planning and Assessment~~
~~Strategic instructional planning and assessment are essential to our instructional success.~~

~~Student Engagement~~
~~Students learn best when they are present and actively engaged in their learning. We want our students to be passionate, motivated learners who are fully engaged in their educational experience. At HCCS our teachers engage our students intellectually, emotionally, physically, and culturally. Intellectual engagement refers to the academic component of teaching. Emotional engagement refers to the relationship between teachers and students and involves monitoring students' moods and emotions. Physical engagement refers to kinesthetic learning where students engage in physical movements or activities. Cultural engagement refers to incorporating student culture into the classroom in a way that students feel culturally accepted while also learning about the cultures of other students. This is critical for new immigrants and refugees to acclimate into their classroom, school, and community.~~

~~Intellectual Engagement~~
- ~~Academic topics are high interest to the students.~~

~~Learning is relevant to students' daily lives.~~
- ~~Teachers allow students to make choices about projects.~~
- ~~Instruction is differentiated for students at different levels.~~
- ~~Learning is authentic and related to the real world.~~

~~Emotional Engagement~~
- ~~Teachers foster classrooms with positive emotions and unconditional, positive regard.~~
- ~~Students' moods and emotions are monitored by teachers and counselors.~~
- ~~Teachers support students with peer groups and counselors.~~
- ~~Teachers and staff build positive and supportive relationships with students.~~
- ~~Teachers support students and their goals.~~

~~Physical Engagement~~
- ~~Students are engaged in kinesthetic learning through creating and doing.~~
- ~~Students move around in class, like walking around to complete an activity.~~

~~Teachers reinforce lessons with body movements, using physical activity.~~

~~Cultural~~ ~~Engagement~~

- Students from different cultures are made to feel welcome and safe.
- Students are taught about cultural norms and laws in the United States.
- Culturally diverse speakers are welcome to share in our classrooms.
- Important documents are translated into students' first language.
- Lessons are created to include a multicultural perspective.

Assessments

At HCCS we use a variety of formal and informal testing measures and assessments to evaluate our students. We begin our assessments during enrollment when students are given a diagnostic test and a CASAS test. During daily classes, our teachers assess students through a variety of ways. At the end of every academic unit, teachers use formal assessments and enter grades. CASAS assessments are also used as a measurement of progress and are administered every six to eight weeks.

The evaluation of student learning has four goals in the following priority:

1. To assist student learning as a diagnostic tool by determining which specific content areas a student has not mastered so they can improve their learning in that specific area.
2. To use aggregated measurements of student learning as part of the measurement of how the school as a whole is performing.
3. To determine if a student has met or exceeded the necessary level of competency to gain formal recognition, such as to complete a level or receive a diploma, licensure, or certification.
4. To determine if the student is underperforming in relation to their peer group and evaluate if intervention supports are required.

When we assess our students it is to better understand what they know. When we have students who cannot pass a class, we find alternative solutions for them. We understand that some students need remedial support and others may need more challenges and opportunities for growth. When our students have not mastered level appropriate standards or objectives, we find alternative teaching methods to deliver the same content. Our teachers understand the importance of both formative and summative assessment in gauging student comprehension.

Data-driven Instruction

In order to improve student learning, we work to understand our students and adapt to the needs of our students. At HCCS we make data-driven decisions and create data-driven instruction. As part of this cyclical process, we collect many forms of raw data. We then analyze it, make instructional decisions, plan, and reflect. Raw data that we consider in our instruction relies heavily on assessment but also includes:

- Program enrollment data
- Enrollment assessment data
- Demographic data
- Student satisfaction surveys
- Student safety data
- Expulsions data

- ~~Homework grades and completion~~
- ~~CASAS gains reports~~
- ~~Literacy and reading gains~~
- ~~Unit assessments and grades~~
- ~~Level completion data~~
- ~~High school graduation and retention rates~~
- ~~CTE graduation and completion rates~~
- ~~Course GPA~~
- ~~Attendance data~~
- ~~Employment and wage gain data~~
- ~~College entrance information~~

~~By analyzing assessments and data, we better understand where our students are from, what experiences they bring with them, what they are able to do, and the gaps in their understanding. At HCCS our teachers and staff understand how assessment and data inform us about our students and areas for us to improve in educating and meeting the needs of our students.~~

~~1.14: How the Curriculum Addresses California Content and Performance Standards~~

~~At HCCS all of our curricular standards are directly aligned to the California Common Core Standards, California ELD standards, California English as a Second Language Model Standards for Adults, CASAS competencies, Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act standards, Western Association of Schools and Colleges, and the National Reporting Systems (NRS) standards for English as a Second Language.~~

~~To ensure that all of our students are meeting program, subject, course, and level objectives, each lesson plan is designed with a specific lesson objective. Each daily lesson is part of a weekly lesson plan, which is part of our larger monthly themes. Our monthly themes are essential elements of our annual academic plan. Through the creation and implementation of monthly unit plans, we ensure that all of our students are taught specific content, even if they complete a level or class.~~

~~Monthly Unit Plans~~

~~In our ELD program, we have theme-based monthly plans that are part of our standards. Each theme has an extensive list of corresponding lesson objectives within the unit. Based on the needs of the students and the level of the class, teachers select the content objectives appropriate for their class based on their curriculum objectives. Teachers also use the themed unit plans as part of their content for teaching other subjects including reading, writing, speaking, listening, math, and technology.~~

English Language (EL) Civics Lesson Plans and Assessments

In partnership with the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act (WIOA), we teach English Language (EL) Civics lessons which are designed to engage ELD students in civic responsibility through community involvement. These monthly lessons correspond to our monthly unit plans and are tied to leveled assessments. These lessons incorporate high interest content with reading, writing, speaking, and listening tasks as well as role playing activities and games. The EL Civics assessments focus on level appropriate objectives and are differentiated to ensure that students at every level are able to participate.

~~Professional Development~~ ~~and Lesson Plans~~

~~On the second Thursday of every month, our teachers and staff participate in professional development. During this time, teachers gather by program and level. Curriculum planning, lesson planning, materials gathering and sharing, and assessment planning are essential to the successful implementation of our curriculum objectives. During this time, teachers work together to create, gather, and share materials that are aligned to the courses and levels based on the theme or subject. This collaboration of lessons, materials, and assessments are then shared on our Drive to ensure that teachers continue to have access to the shared documents.~~

~~1.15: How the Instructional Program Supports the Development of Technology-Related Skills and Technology Use~~

- ~~At HCCS we value and support technology because we understand that it is directly connected to our students' success. Experience, exposure, and proficiency in technology are critically important for our students and for all 21st century learners. Since the beginning of our school, our administration has made technology a priority. In the beginning, we were unable to acquire the newest technology available, and as result, digital literacy was not provided to the extent we would have hoped. We previously accepted refurbished technology in partnership with certain organizations. In a lot of ways, this helped us to ensure that students had access to technology in the early years of the school's development. Since then, technology has been implemented more and more, not only in a wider scope but in a more in-depth way. Our goal is for students to be able to utilize computers in a way that reflects the world in which they live. Since HCCS opened its doors to students in the 2014-15 school year, our technology department has expanded significantly. In the beginning, our Information Technology (IT) department was a one-person department. One person was enough to cover distribution of technology materials, maintenance, and~~ internet ~~connectivity. We now have a three-person IT team which consists of one IT Manager and two IT Technicians. At HCCS we are proud to say that our computer-to-student ratio is 2:1, and we work each year to upgrade classroom technology. At HCCS we will continue to increase access, improve our technology, and then utilize it in our classrooms.~~ access for use at home and use the internet consistently. We remedied this by completely changing the topology of the network. We completely upgraded our hardware and internet services. We were previously plagued with viruses and malware. This was solved with the introduction of Sophos Central. Lastly, most of our computers used by both staff and students were outdated. As was mentioned before, this has become a central focus to replace all student computers with updated laptops and provide all staff with more modern laptops, computers, online programs, and software.

~~Technology at Highlands Community Charter School is always evolving to meet both staff and student needs. A little over a year ago, HCCS was inundated with an unreliable network infrastructure. This meant that many employees and students were unable to print, check emails,~~

One of our goals is to truly integrate technology into students' lives via classroom lessons, relevant examples, classwork, projects, and helping students to communicate in our modern world. Technology standards and objectives are integrated into our curriculum and are clearly defined for our teachers. Across varying sites, our teachers incorporate technology into their lessons. Our teachers use educational learning videos, tutorials, web-based reading programs, Microsoft Office, and Google Classroom. Teachers model the use of technology in their classrooms and show students how to access and utilize Google docs, emails, etc. Our goal is to have all teachers using and adapting technology to accommodate our students' levels and needs. A new Digital Literacy curriculum is currently being piloted using Northstar Digital Literacy tasks and assessments, and soon it will be incorporated into our ELD and high school programs.

At HCCS we face a complex challenge with technology. Not all of our students, teachers, and sites have the same level of access to technology nor is the same level of technological access possible at all sites. Technology is not limited to computer access, but some sites have more specialized tools than others (e.g., smartboards, document cameras, printers, computer labs, etc.). To combat this issue, teachers encourage students to use their phones to access the internet and to use applications to access email, language applications, such as Duolingo and Pronunciator, and access classroom materials using Google Classroom. We are currently increasing access to technology at our off-site locations and working to ensure that access is equitable. This means purchasing more updated computers, installing projectors, and training teachers to implement digital literacy.

Our students have varying levels of knowledge and experience with technology. Some of our students are very familiar and comfortable using computers and computer programs. Some of our students have excellent typing skills, experience composing documents, sending emails, surfing the web, etc. while others struggle to turn on a computer. Our plan is to implement digital literacy diagnostic assessments to ensure that all of our students are able to use technology at a basic level for each student's class, and we are working with nationally recognized assessments like the Northstar Digital Literacy Assessment. Technology, academic success, career goals, and social engagement are all important for our students, and we believe that in order for students to be fully successful in the 21st century, they must become digitally literate.

CASAS Computer-based Assessments

At HCCS we use CASAS computer-based assessments for all of our students in reading, listening, and mathematics. CASAS assessments are standardized tests that are reliable and valid assessments for native and non-native English speakers. The purpose of the assessments is to track student progress over time. Although the assessment is available as a paper-based assessment, a computer-based assessment, and on the internet, at HCCS we use the computer-based format. We believe that teaching our students to use computers for their standardized tests

~~is a valuable and transferable skill. During CASAS, students practice turning on a computer, opening a program, typing personal information, using a mouse to navigate between screens, opening and closing windows, plugging headphones into a computer, adjusting the volume on their computers, selecting answers, and closing a program. We know how important these skills are for our students, and we support our students while they learn how to complete these basic computer tasks.~~

~~1.16: Graduation Requirements~~

~~At HCCS we have two primary programs with subgroupings in each. We offer a High School Completion program and an English Language Development (ELD) program. Under the high school program, we have Career Technical Education (CTE) pathways, and we offer a citizenship course under the ELD program. These elements, along with interventions and supplemental offerings, comprise our school's educational program. The high school curriculum at HCCS is based on the California Department of Education graduation requirements. The following chart shows what is required of high school students At HCCS with 200 credits minimum required to graduate.~~

~~HCCS' high school students are eligible to graduate when they have been awarded 200 high school credits: 100 Academic, 90 Elective, and 10 Career Technical (CTE) credits. As part of the 200 credits, transfer credits and employment credits count toward this total. High school credits are awarded by 5 credits (in 9 weeks) and 10 credits (in 18 weeks). Currently, high school credits are awarded every nine weeks when students receive grades. During the 2014–15 and 2015–16 school years, high school students received grades every six weeks. During the 2017–18 school year, we transitioned from a six-week grading period to an eight-week grading period. As soon as the high school students complete 200 credits and those credits are verified, students are eligible to apply for their diploma. After students receive their diploma, they are asked to participate in a graduation ceremony.~~

~~Counselors and the registrar work together to compose an educational plan for each student. The registrar and counselors also collaborate to ensure transfer students have received all their previously earned credits. Thus, credits are verified once the registrar receives and processes the students' official transcripts from their previous school(s). Once the counselor is aware of the students' graduation status, counselors schedule students into their respective classes. It should be noted that each student is required to take either Career Success or Leadership in order to ensure their CTE requirements are fulfilled.~~

~~Counselors help ensure students will meet graduation requirements by conducting routine check-ins. Over the duration of each check-in, counselors update students on their academic progress; this includes discussing credits earned over the course of the each term. Moreover, each student~~

~~is provided with an academic progress report. In addition, counselors and students discuss the next class/classes students will enroll into and why. As an adult serving charter, we do not presently offer any college preparatory A-G courses.~~

~~Credits Awarded for GED and HiSET~~

~~At HCCS most of our students earn credits in two ways: by transferring them from a previous school or by earning them at HCCS through completing courses. However, we sometimes award class credit for students who have passed the GED or HiSET. For the GED, we award credits when students have completed certain sections of the GED where it is appropriate and when it is not prohibited by law. Students are also awarded credits for the HiSET. Students are awarded credits after passing either the English or Spanish version of the test, with the exception of English Language Arts, if the test is taken in Spanish. While students can earn credits, all HiSET students are enrolled in high school, and transcripts are evaluated by HCCS counselors and registrar. Credits are awarded from the HiSET on a case by case basis and are categorized as academic or elective as needed.~~

~~1.17: Plan and Timeline for Maintaining Western Association of Schools and Colleges (WASC) Accreditation~~

~~Highlands Community Charter School received a 3-year preliminary Western Association of Schools & Colleges (WASC) accreditation in the 2015-16 school year and is currently WASC Accredited through June 30, 2019. HCCS is currently undergoing the Self-Study process to renew the accreditation prior to expiration and has scheduled a seven person team of WASC representatives to visit HCCS's many locations during February of 2019. HCCS has grown exponentially as have our programs, locations, enrollment, and partnerships. Each instance of growth or change was centered on the benefits they would bring to our students. HCCS submitted substantive change reports to WASC in October of 2018, which were accepted.~~

~~HCCS school leadership has used the WASC Action Plan and Local Control Accountability Plan (LCAP) to align all student schoolwide goals. Through the implementation of the WASC plan and LCAP, HCCS engages in authentic stakeholder reviews and input on everything from budget and governance to facilities and curriculum. HCCS utilizes its diverse Leadership Cabinets as a critical review group that reviews, informs, and recommends programmatic development and improvement. The mid-year LCAP review, curriculum review, and WASC review act as internally-driven programmatic audits assessing progress against designated goals.~~

~~1.18: Informing Students about the Transferability of Courses~~

~~Students meet with their assigned counselors in one-on-one appointments that are set to make individual course maps and goals. During these individual meetings, the counselor discusses with the student his/her scope and sequence of all requirements and grade equivalents needed to ensure graduation and college acceptance. If a student is not on-target with his/her graduation road map, the counselor also helps amend his/her scope and sequence to earn necessary credit redemptions and all other prerequisites. Our ELD Navigators are bilingual or multilingual and~~

~~can provide necessary presentations and documents in the appropriate languages. ELD Navigators work with the students individually to educate them according to their individual goals.~~

~~Within the context of these relationships and various presentations, students will be informed about the transferability of courses to other high schools and college, including WASC accreditation. As HCCS is not a college preparatory charter school, it will not generally include A-G classes, but students will be informed that, as graduate, they may enroll in a community college or another college that does not require A-G college preparatory courses.~~

~~1.19: Transitional Kindergarten~~

~~Serving adults ages 22 years and older, Highlands Community Charter School does not provide a Transitional Kindergarten program. However, we do provide Early Childcare Education (ECE) courses as part of our Career Technical Education ECE program. Through this program, our adult students who are interested in Early Childcare Education provide care to non-school-age children of HCCS students in play care at various sites while working toward a Child Development Associate Teaching Credential and/or a State of California in-home Child Care License.~~

1.23: Early College and Middle College

HCCS is not an Early College or Middle College High School. As such, requirements for these programs are not applicable to the educational programs at HCCS.

Professional Development

1.24: Recruiting Qualified Teachers

Highlands Community Charter School recruits highly qualified educators to our community by posting vacant teaching positions on the recruitment website www.edjoin.org, a third party employment entity used throughout California and the greater United States as a central advertising location for many different educational organizations. Additionally, we attend the annual Teacher Recruitment Fair held each spring at Sacramento State University in order to meet with new teachers beginning their careers in Adult Education. This gives us the opportunity to market our charter school as a competitive organization in which to work. We also send out recruitment flyers to additional institutes of higher education in the surrounding area, per the school's staffing needs.

1.25: Ongoing Professional Development

Recognizing the importance of staff development and teacher training, Highlands Community Charter School honors its staff by providing numerous professional growth/orientation opportunities throughout the year. We give our teachers weekly opportunities to use additional out-of-class time for lesson planning, grading, and preparation. Additionally, we offer monthly workshops, trainings, and collaborative opportunities for each of our employees schoolwide within their departments. Some of these include the following:

- During more than half a dozen Teacher Work Days/Non Student Days, HCCS provides a full day of schoolwide staff professional development, offering sessions addressing such topics as employee benefits, community partnerships, CPR training, sexual harassment training, Safeschools Trainings, Catapult Emergency System training, etc.
- HCCS offers monthly instructional professional development days that feature break-out sessions and workshops led by our Professional Learning Coordinator and Lead Teachers addressing such topics as standards alignment and curriculum, use of instructional approaches, materials and assessments, application of technology in the classroom, cultural awareness, leadership, literacy/pre-literacy, etc.
- In addition, HCCS is committed to providing full-time certificated teachers with funding designated to support his/her participation in the pursuit of additional training, advanced degrees or designations, continuing coursework at the college or university level, or attendance at educational workshops and/or conferences, contingent upon annual budget allocations. Our teachers have attended EdTech, California Association for Bilingual Education (CABE), Positive Behavioral Intervention Systems (PBIS), Systematic Instruction and Phoneme Awareness, Phonics, and Sight Words (SIPPS), California Teachers of English to Speakers of Other Languages (CATESOL), CASAS Institute, and Workforce Investment Opportunity Act conferences.

Professional development and collaboration will continue to be scheduled on a regular and ongoing basis to support teachers and staff throughout their careers at HCCS. In establishing a professional teaching environment, HCCS will continue to ensure collaborative, schoolwide planning time for teachers to design student-focused curriculum, pedagogy, and assessment through which students can make connections and deepen their understanding of concepts and achieve higher levels of academic success.

Moving forward, HCCS will continue to strengthen internal professional development, which will focus on curriculum alignment and teaching strategies/delivery. We plan to begin a structured and supported system for teachers to observe their peers and learn from one another first hand. Additionally, we are in the process of creating a systematic approach to external professional development, which will ensure that each teacher is allotted the same number of conference opportunities throughout the year. HCCS will continue to survey teachers and students' needs, allowing for those results to drive the professional development calendar.

In order to ensure that HCCS teachers are prepared to successfully deliver a rigorous curriculum, we hope to improve upon initial induction as well as ongoing professional development for all teachers in all disciplines. After much internal dialogue and cross-departmental discussion, HCCS created a professional development plan for the 2019-20 school year which will include common themes of curriculum implementation, teaching strategies, and improved communication.

At Highlands Community Charter School, we recognize the important role new teacher support plays in preparing great teachers for the rest of their careers as educators. It is the mission of the induction team at HCCS to not only provide regular support through mentorship and professional development but also provide new teachers with leadership skills and the opportunity to demonstrate their abilities through systems of professional growth. Partnering with both Sacramento County Office of Education's Induction program for Single and Multi Subject Credentials and the San Diego County Office of Educations' Designated Subjects Credentialing Consortium for CTE and Adult Education Credentials, HCCS facilitates and provides sponsorship through two years of growth and professional learning, covering the cost of tuition, training, and mentor partnerships. Highlands Community Charter School prides itself on helping ~~teachers build lifelong skills both in the classroom and in their long-term professional goals as academic leaders dedicated to the success of students.~~

~~Meeting the Needs of All Students~~

~~1.26: English Learners~~

~~Highlands Community Charter School is committed to all students, including English Language Learners ("ELLs"). HCCS meets all applicable legal requirements for ELLs as it pertains to annual notifications, student identification, placement, program options, ELL and content instruction, teacher qualifications and training, Reclassification to Fluent English Proficient status (RFEP), monitoring and evaluating program effectiveness, and standardized testing requirement. HCCS implements policies to assure proper placement, evaluation, and communication regarding ELLs and their rights.~~

~~Identifying English Language Learners~~
~~HCCS administers the Home Language Survey ("HLS") upon initial enrollment though our registration forms where students answer the following Home Language Survey questions:~~

1. ~~Do you speak English fluently?~~
2. ~~What language did you first learn to speak?~~
3. ~~What language do you most frequently read/speak at home?~~

~~These questions are used to determine a student's home language status as follows:~~

- ~~English Only (EO)~~
  ~~If the answers to the three questions are "English", the child is classified as English Only.~~

- ~~Possible English Language Learner~~
  ~~If the answers to any of the three questions on the Home Language Survey indicate a language other than English, or a combination of English and another language, and there is evidence of significant non-English exposure, then the student is assessed using CASAS to measure his or her level of English proficiency. The student is then consulted by a staff member regarding the need to administer the assessment, the results, and the subsequent program placement of the student.~~

- ~~Self-Identified English Language Learner~~
  ~~If a student initially self-identifies as an ELL, s/he is immediately assessed for English language proficiency for appropriate placement and is automatically placed in an ELD classroom appropriate to his/her level.~~

    - ~~Educational~~Online tutoring by English-speaking tutors cannot support students with limited English proficiency

In-Person Tutoring Program ~~for English Language Acquisition~~Design
HCCS is in the process of contracting with a tutoring business to offer students in-person tutoring that will:

- Account for cultural and technological barriers when assessing student needs
- Staff tutors who can serve specific cultural and linguistic populations of greatest need
- Implement and refine best practices for providing one-on-one academic support
- Develop robust translated learning materials for students in multiple formats

Student Success Team (SST)~~As HCCS is required to timely identify potential ELLs and provide them with an effective English language acquisition program that affords meaningful access to the school's academic core curriculum, instructional plans for ELLs are (1) based on sound educational theory; (2) adequately supported with trained teachers and appropriate materials and resources; and (3) periodically evaluated to make sure the program is successful and modified when the program is not successful.~~

~~HCCS implements our own English Learner Instructional/Master Plan. The instructional plan encompasses the following, including but not limited to:~~

- ~~How ELLs' needs will be identified;~~
- ~~What services will be offered;~~
- ~~How, where, and by whom the services will be provided;~~
- ~~How the program for ELLs is evaluated each year and how the results of this assessment will be used to improve those services (annual report of the assessments)~~

~~Using Standardized Assessment to Support Student Progress~~
~~In accordance with state and federal regulations, students whose HLS indicate that a language other than English is used at home are assessed for their English language proficiency level within 30 calendar days of enrollment. In addition, students are notified of the assessment results and program placement within 30 calendar days of initial enrollment.~~

~~Based on a student's overall performance on the CASAS, s/he may be classified as an English Language Learner or an Initially Fluent English Proficient (IFEP) student. Once a student is identified as an ELL, s/he is placed in an ELD class that supports her/his identified level. State and federal guidelines require each EL to be assessed annually to determine their progress in acquiring English language proficiency; however, at HCCS each student is assessed every six to eight weeks with the CASAS and additional end-of term assessments to capture progression and to advance through program levels efficiently until she/he meets the eligibility criteria and is Reclassified Fluent English Proficient (RFEP).~~

~~Strategies for ELL Instruction and Intervention~~
~~The instructional design model used at HCCS places heavy emphasis on differentiated instruction to meet the needs of the ELL population based on academic and language readiness. Through the well-defined professional development plan that accompanies this instructional design model, teachers are trained on a variety of instructional strategies to be used specifically with EL students. These strategies include support materials from state adopted materials,~~

~~academic language scaffolding, and full-time instructional support with our English language learner expert instructional staff. Our Professional Learning Coordinator conducts regular staff development sessions to review current practices and develop strategies for students.~~

~~In order for the ELL students to remain current with their peers, HCCS emphasizes alignment to state adopted standards and materials to ensure ELLs have the same core base of knowledge. Additionally, ELLs are provided with supplementary materials to create extensions and scaffolding to the curriculum for better understanding of the materials.~~

~~The use of academic language scaffolding demonstrates to ELLs the step-by-step processes to complete tasks on their own. Scaffolding includes several linked strategies including modeling academic language, contextualizing academic language using visuals, gestures, and demonstrations, and using hands-on learning activities that involve academic language.~~

~~Process for EL Reclassification~~

~~We have developed a process and an accompanying form outlining the criteria for EL reclassification. Specifically, we assess the four components laid out in CDE's guidance:~~

1. ~~We will continue to assess English language proficiency (ELP), using CASAS (Comprehensive Adult Student Assessment Systems) results, which we obtain every 6-8 weeks from our students. We pair that with internal measures of English language proficiency which are designed around our curriculum and are in turn aligned with state and federal standards.~~
2. ~~Our ELD teachers use both periodic and end-of-term assessments to review students' mastery of curriculum. Our high school teachers use formal assessments at the end of chapter, unit, and term to assess students' mastery of curriculum.~~
3. ~~As adults, our students are invited to participate with opinions and consultation regarding their readiness for reclassification. They are advised at the beginning of the year (or upon entry into our ELD program) and then annually of their rights and the process of reclassification.~~
4. ~~We use PowerSchool and other tracking methods to establish the range of performance by English proficient students, and then use those results to compare with ELs' performance.~~

~~Process for Monitoring Progress of ELs and Reclassified (RFEP) Students~~

~~We are making substantial improvements to our schoolwide curriculum for ELD classes, our internal assessments and instructors' ability to use them, and our entry and tracking processes for ELs' progress. With these fully in place, we will be better able to track students and obtain more useful data on ELs' progress. The same will be true of reclassified students as they proceed in our programs. Enhanced assessments and tracking, along with our Reclassification Specialist in charge of the reclassification and monitoring processes, will allow us to do more tracking during progress.~~

~~Process for Monitoring Progress and Effectiveness of Supports for Long Term English Learners (LTELs) and for Students At-Risk of Becoming LTELs~~

~~Given that our program is much shorter than six years, we have not implemented a process for identifying or monitoring the progress of LTELs. Nevertheless, we are improving our methods~~ for identifying and intervening with at-promise students. In our high school program, teachers and counselors have implemented a program to identify students at risk of not making academic progress. This process will help identify students at risk of becoming LTELs. The Reclassification Specialist, working with our data team, will also work within our ELD program to identify students whose progress is slower than expected.

1.27: Students Achieving Above Grade Level

While Highlands Community Charter School does not subscribe to a Gifted and Talented Education (GATE) specific program as we are primarily serving adults who have previously faced many obstacles to achieving academic success, our methodology meets the advanced educational needs of our high achieving students within the regular classroom by tailoring individualized learning plans for each of our students and providing level appropriate content and support. However, we recognize that many of these obstacles are not necessarily intellectual, and as such, we strive to identify and support our high achievers.

With our highly individualized learning plans and differentiated classrooms, identifying high achievers comes naturally as students are able to demonstrate proficiency and progress on a daily basis through one-on-one formative assessments, bi-monthly CASAS assessments, and course completion rates. In HCCS high school classrooms, students are able to progress through course content as quickly as they feel comfortable and are awarded grades and credits upon course completion even though course content is designed to take either nine (9) weeks or eighteen (18) weeks depending on the course. Additionally, all High School students at HCCS are assessed in reading and math every six (6) to eight (8) weeks. In the ELD classroom, students work in multi-level classrooms where their instructors formatively assess them on a daily basis and can freely adjust and deliver content complexity as necessary as multiple levels and content areas are being addressed daily. HCCS ELD students are assessed in reading, listening, and math by CASAS proctors every six (6) to eight (8) weeks. ELD Teachers administer summative assessments at appropriate times during the term, including at the term's end and award progress marks to determine whether individual students are ready to advance to the next level.

Based on these assessments, individualized and small group lesson plans are prepared for each student. Students working above content level are placed in the curriculum at the appropriate level, which allows them to work in a content-accessible environment. For example, a Low Beginning ELD student may be working in the Low Beginning curriculum in Writing but at a High Beginning curriculum level in Reading. This student might change group settings throughout the day to allow for higher stimulation of content through new group settings. This allows for individualized instruction in the coursework area that is appropriate for the student and allows them to work at a pace and in an environment that is most appropriate to their abilities. Students who are advanced in all content areas can work ahead in all coursework, and students who have a specific aptitude in one or two subjects can work ahead in those specific subjects but still receive the time and attention they need for content areas in need of deeper focus. This classroom-based, individualized learning environment allows academically high achieving students to accelerate their learning, propelling them more quickly toward high school completion and diploma obtainment.

Additionally, we currently implement or are working toward the implementation of the following enrichment programs for students who show great aptitude in other areas of the curriculum:

- Our Early Childhood Education (ECE) program students currently use Edynamic to access advanced classes and electives. We plan to train teachers on the use and implementation of this resource as an additional tool to support our high achieving students in their academic goals and keep them engaged in their learning throughout their academic careers here at HCCS.
- High achievers may currently choose to become teaching assistants in various elective classes, where they can hone their own academic skills through the guidance they provide other students with the direct support and oversight of the instructor.

By providing individualized programs for high achieving students, Highlands Community Charter School is able to meet the needs of those students who have a greater aptitude in one specific subject matter area, as well as those students who are high achievers in multiple areas. In this way, all students' needs are being addressed.

1.28: Students Achieving Below Grade Level

Students Achieving Below Grade Level

We choose to serve the unserved and recognize that this means many of our students have struggled with academic achievement in the past. We believe that all of our students are capable of greatness and go through great strides to remove obstacles to their achievement today. Our classrooms, by design, effectively serve students who, historically, are academically low-achieving, as well as those who are academically high-achieving.

Given the vast differences in educational, cultural, socio-economic, geographical, and emotional backgrounds of our students, we know that they will all learn at different paces. In the same way we identify and support our high achieving students, we use highly individualized and differentiated classroom setting and multiple assessment strategies to determine which of our students are in need of additional supports in order for them to successfully achieve their academic goals. Our individualized and differentiated classrooms support students in completing their required coursework and curricular content in a self-paced fashion, allowing them additional class time and instructional support to master curricular content before advancing.

By having a year-round learning program, our students are able to maintain their focus, motivation, and educational momentum with less interference of external distractions that might deter them from returning at summer's end. This promotes in our students a sense of commitment, and we regularly tell them, "Progress requires commitment, and commitment requires attendance." When our students feel committed to their own achievements, this leads to happiness which contributes to great learning environments for all and radiates to the surrounding community.

~~All of our students have decided to further their education because they desire to learn and produce purposeful, meaningful work in order to better navigate the world around them and participate in the community in contributory ways. When they are able to learn at their own pace, and the teacher, through his/her observations of each student, is able to prepare individualized lessons to meet the needs of the students in his/her classroom, this system has a foundation built on trust and respect of the individual, resulting in community members who make marked impressions on all those who witness success beyond expectations.~~

~~Our plan for low academic achievers includes three remediation areas. These include: Student Success Team (SST) plans, access to academic support programs, and the availability of supplemental materials to teachers.~~

~~Student Success Team (SST) members identify specific academic areas of need for low achievers and plan interventions that are monitored and reviewed at subsequent meetings. Plans include specific modifications within the classroom, resource materials and referral to supplementary assistance, and programs that target specific academic skills.~~

~~Programs, assistance, and services that target the needs of academically low achievers include:~~

- ~~Reading Specialist~~
- ~~High School Reading Skills classes~~
- ~~Multilingual Paraeducators~~

~~Math Paraeducators~~

At HCCS, the Student Success Team (SST) process is a collaborative, data-driven approach to identify and implement support strategies for students experiencing academic, behavioral, or attendance-related challenges. The goal is to equip educators with additional tools and resources to meet students' needs in the general education setting and, when necessary, connect students with services such as tutoring, counseling, or basic needs assistance. While SST may result in a referral to a 504 committee, its primary function is not to initiate such referrals.

SST Membership and Roles

SSTs are convened by the Director of Student Services or designee and include the student's counselor (as the facilitator), current teacher(s), the student, and guardians when applicable. Additional specialists such as social workers, speech therapists, healthcare providers, paraeducators, and language navigators may be invited based on student needs.

Referral Process

Students may be referred to the SST for persistent academic or behavioral concerns. Before referral, teachers must document the use of differentiated instructional strategies and collaboration with other staff. Referrals are submitted using a standardized form and must include relevant data such as attendance records, academic assessments, behavior logs, and prior interventions.

SST Meeting Process
Scheduling: SST meetings are scheduled promptly based on the urgency of the concern and include all relevant team members.

Data Collection
The team reviews comprehensive student data to inform the discussion.

- Intervention ~~Literacy Classes - our ELD non-literate students, who have had very little, if any, access to written texts in their native languages are provided specialized instruction by Second Language Learner (SLL) literacy specialists.~~
- ~~SIPPS Reading~~
- ~~Student Engagement Liaisons~~

~~HCCS's curriculum has the flexibility to provide concrete materials for those students who are not ready for more abstract learning. The flexibility of the curriculum also allows for students within a classroom to work at multiple skill levels. Students' individualized work plans are modified to target skill remediation as needed or to provide additional challenges for skills already achieved. In addition to the availability of a wide variety of materials, teachers have access to supplementary materials and support from the Resource Program. Teachers check out materials to target skill areas as needed. They also have access to the Pre-referral Intervention Manual (PRIM), which provides multiple classroom interventions for specific academic areas.~~

~~Response to Intervention (RTI)/Student Success Team (SST)~~
~~Highlands Community Charter School teachers and staff utilize the Response to Intervention Model (RTI) to address the educational needs of our low achieving students to ensure learning is occurring. Struggling students are identified by procedures established by each school site, including CASAS results, student performance below 70% in a core subject area and/or failing to make adequate progress to next level courses. These students are provided with interventions such as highly qualified, research-based classroom instruction, ongoing student assessment, multilevel and differentiated instruction, and strong student involvement. These services are provided by a variety of personnel, including paraeducators (i.e. teacher assistants) and teachers during a scheduled RTI period. After appropriately utilizing the RTI process, students requiring further modifications other than additional instruction and re-teaching will trigger the Student Study Team (SST).~~

~~The SST focuses in-depth on one student at a time and encourages the adult student to participate in finding solutions. The SST uses a systematic problem solving and coordinating approach to assist students, teachers, and staff in seeking positive solutions to concerns that are interfering with success and to maximize student potential. The SST clarifies problems and concerns, develops strategies and organizes resources, provides a system for school accountability, and serves to assist and counsel the parent, teacher, and student. This process informs individual and class wide actions to address issues such as use of classroom resources, behavioral management, and classroom modifications. Many students can benefit from an SST, including those students achieving below or above grade level and students who have experienced emotional trauma, behavioral issues, or language issues.~~

~~Anyone who has a concern for a student can refer that student to an SST based on the RTI model for consideration. Our adult students may also self-identify and seek services for themselves. The referring party completes an HCCS SST Referral Form and submits it to the Director of Curriculum and Instruction and the student's counselor, who establishes an SST meeting. Anyone who is connected with that student can be included in the SST to provide information to share about the student's strengths, concerns, and strategies that have been used in the past. These people may include, but are not limited to, teachers, parents, counselors, doctors, administration, social workers, advocates, and law enforcement. Progress on action items is monitored by setting a follow-up SST meeting date within 4-6 weeks of the initial meeting. At the follow-up SST meeting, action items are reviewed, and student progress is discussed. The follow-up SST meeting is documented on the Student Success Plan Follow Up, at which time the action plan may need to be modified and additional interventions may be added depending on student progress.~~

~~A key goal to the HCCS RTI model is to improve the outcomes for all students. After implementation of an SST plan and follow-up, if the problem continues, revisions to the plan may be discussed, or if necessary, a referral for special education or Section 504 assessment might be deemed necessary by the SST.~~

~~1.29a:~~ Planning
A tailored plan is developed with specific goals, strategies, responsible staff, and a timeline for implementation.

Follow-Up
A follow-up meeting is held six weeks after the initial meeting to assess student progress and adjust the intervention plan as needed.

Documentation
All decisions, meeting minutes, and progress reports are documented and stored in the student's confidential file in accordance with FERPA and HCCTS policy.

SST Outcomes
The SST may recommend continued interventions within the general education setting, changes in instructional methods or placement, referrals to support services or external agencies, or, if appropriate, a referral to the 504 Committee. All recommendations are monitored and evaluated for effectiveness.

Confidentiality and Compliance
SST processes comply with all applicable privacy laws, including FERPA. All records and discussions remain confidential and are shared only with authorized personnel.

Socioeconomically Disadvantaged~~/Low Income~~ Students

At Highlands Community Charter School, students from low socioeconomic backgrounds thrive and learn in a nurturing, caring, and collaborative environment. HCCS identifies socioeconomically disadvantaged~~/~~ and low~~-~~-income students consistent with state and federal definitions upon registration through our Household Income Data Collection form~~, and the information collected is recorded in our~~ and PowerSchool SIS system~~, allowing HCCS staff to monitor and track students in this~~. This subgroup~~.~~ makes up a large majority of our student population.

~~As a large majority of~~To best serve our ~~student population are identified as~~ socioeconomically disadvantaged~~/~~ and low~~-~~-income students, HCCS provides professional development that is focused on intentional instruction, reflecting a diagnostic approach that is driven by identified instructional needs. HCCS teachers understand the importance of positive teacher-student relationships and how to incorporate continual monitoring and assessment to guide instruction. Students participate in ~~fun~~ academic enrichment activities that ~~are aligned to~~align with their level-pacing academic plans and ~~are taught~~learn cognitive strategies such as the structure of language, how to establish goal-setting and procedural self-talk, how to sort relevant from irrelevant cues, and how to use mental models. Additionally, ~~in order~~ to meet the economic needs of ~~this subgroup of~~these students, HCCS holds workshops with partners on issues related to economic need~~.~~ and building financial independence.

Instructional Days and Minutes Calculations

HCCS maintains multiple bell schedules that consistently exceed the minimum instructional time required under Education Code Section 47612.5(a), which mandates 64,800 minutes annually. Both AM and PM bell schedules detail 5 consist of 5 instructional days, Monday through Friday with 5 periods each except on 17 modified Friday schedules designed to incorporate time for teacher professional development. The Academic Calendar(found on page 25) includes 197 instructional days, 180 regular and 17 modified Fridays, totaling 65,087 minutes for both AM and PM schedules.

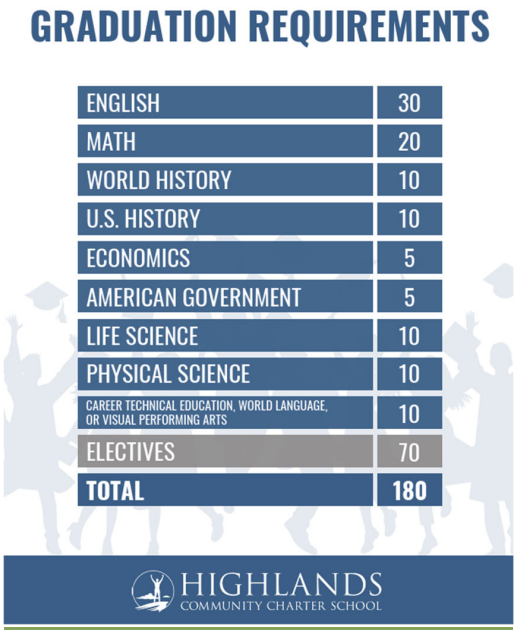
Graduation Requirements

HCCS' high school students are eligible to graduate when they have been awarded 180 high school credits: 110 Academic including a mandatory 10 credits academic credits from Workforce Readiness courses, and 70 in elective or Career Technical Education (CTE) credits. As part of the 180 credits, transfer credits and employment credits count toward this total. As soon as the high school students complete 180 credits and those credits are verified, students are eligible to apply for their diplomas. After students receive their diplomas, they are asked to participate in a graduation ceremony.

Counselors help ensure students meet graduation requirements by developing graduation plans and conducting regular check-ins. During check-ins, counselors update students on their academic progress, including credit attainment and requirements left to graduate. Each student is provided with an academic progress report. In the 2024–2025 school year, we have adopted A–G approved courses to expand college readiness opportunities for our students. As part of this effort, counselors engage students in conversations about their aspirations for higher education as they approach the high school program.

Subject to appropriations by the State, the Charter School will comply with requirements under AB 101 to offer a one-semester course in ethnic studies and will mandate that students complete this course as a graduation requirement commencing with students graduating in the 2029-30 school year.

The Charter School will comply with requirements under AB 2927 to offer a one-semester course in personal finance by the 2027-28 school year and will mandate that students complete this course as a graduation requirement commencing with students graduating in the 2030-31 school year.



Attendance Policy

HCCS recognizes that attendance is a critical indicator of student progress and overall academic success. Despite the inherent challenges in ensuring consistent engagement among adult learners across all instructional periods, the school remains committed to full-day attendance expectations for all students.

In the 2024–2025 school year, HCCS has implemented a series of initiatives aimed at improving student attendance, enhancing the accuracy of attendance reporting, and strengthening accountability measures for both educators and administrators. These efforts include the adoption of a revised Attendance Enforcement Policy (BP 5113.1) by the HCCS Board of Directors on March 20, 2025. Key changes in the updated policy include:

- 80% Daily Attendance Rule: Students must be present for at least 80% of scheduled instructional hours weekly.
- 15-Minute Rule: Students who check in but leave within the first 15 minutes of class without prior approval will be marked absent. Repeated violations may result in intervention and disenrollment.
- Meaningful Engagement: Attendance is verified by meaningful engagement. Students who check in but fail to participate meaningfully will be marked absent.
- Forgery of Attendance Records: Any student found falsifying attendance records, including signing in for another student, will face disciplinary action, including possible suspension, expulsion, or disenrollment.

HCCTS employs tiered intervention strategies to support students struggling with attendance before taking disciplinary action:

- Notifications: Calls, text messages, and emails will provide immediate alerts to students who have not met attendance requirements.
- Outreach & Support: Students flagged for low attendance will be contacted by school staff to assess barriers and develop a support plan.
- Attendance Contracts: Students with ongoing attendance issues may be placed on a probationary attendance contract outlining expectations and consequences.
- Disenrollment Procedures: Students failing to meet attendance requirements after documented interventions may be disenrolled following due process, as outlined in BP 5111.5 (Disenrollment).

Additionally, HCCS has drafted and adopted the following policies to help enforce attendance.

- 5111.5 Disenrollment and Involuntary Removal (Revised and Approved 03/20/2025) - Outlines the involuntary disenrollment for students who accumulate ten consecutive unexcused absences despite HCCS staff's efforts to re-engage them.
- 5120 BP Satisfactory Academic Progress (Approved 03/20/25) - Outlines students must maintain active attendance
- 5131 BP Student Conduct (Revised and Approved 03/20/2025) - Outlines the ramifications of students who forge attendance records
- 6164.5 BP Student Success Teams (Revised and Approved 04/25/2025) - Outlines interventions to support students reportedly struggling with attendance

In addition to the board policies, HCCS has updated the bell schedule for the 2025-2026 school year, which now contains 5 periods rather than 3 periods for the AM schedule. It meets the minimum number of instructional minutes, and it has only one PM schedule for all sites, rather than three (as in the 2024-2025 school year).

Record Retention & Compliance

- BP 5120 (Satisfactory Academic Progress) now mandates that manual attendance records, including sign-in sheets, be retained for three years in both physical and digital formats to ensure compliance with California Code of Regulations, Title 5 and facilitate accurate auditing.
- The Director of Attendance is responsible for overseeing record retention and compliance audits to maintain regulatory standards.
- Random attendance audits will be conducted regularly to identify and prevent discrepancies.

We believe in holding our students accountable and supporting them when they need it. Our paraeducators, teachers, and counselors maintain communication with our students when students are absent. We want to ensure that if our students are having personal hardships, we are supporting them and providing them with every service we have available, either at HCCS, at one of our partner organizations, or at an external location.

Attendance Calendars

In the 2024-2025 school year HCCTS contracted with Charter Impact to assist with setting up 20-day Attendance Calendars in PowerSchool to ensure correct divisors in calculating ADA for P-2.

Effective October 2024 HCCTS began using a 20-day calendar as required by Ed Code. This has been corrected for the 24-25 school year and will be accurate for all school years moving forward.

An example of the 20 day calendar can be seen below for the 2025-2026 school year:

Academic Progress

HCCS has established a Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) policy (BP 5120) to ensure that students are consistently advancing toward their academic and career goals. This policy applies to all students enrolled in high school education. To remain enrolled, students must meet SAP standards, which include maintaining a minimum GPA, earning required credits, making measurable progress in English language acquisition (for ELD students), and fulfilling the specific SAP criteria of their CTE programs. SAP is evaluated every six weeks, and students who do not meet the requirements may be placed on Academic Notice. Continued noncompliance will result in disenrollment.

Attendance and engagement are also key components of SAP evaluation, with manual attendance records retained for at least three years in accordance with California regulations. Students who do not meet SAP in their CTE program may appeal by submitting a written reflection and evidence of corrective actions. Approved appeals result in a probationary period during which students must meet SAP standards to maintain enrollment. The policy aligns with state and federal regulations and is reviewed regularly to ensure legal compliance and support for student success.

Career Technical Education (CTE)

CTE programs provide students with hands-on job training while earning course credits and industry recognized certifications. Courses help students build skills for careers, develop student agency and confidence, and build social capital, all while pursuing career pathways that allow students to earn a liveable wage HCCS recognizes the importance of robust Career Technical Education programs, especially for traditionally underserved students. Programs in the past were developed with student interests in mind and course expansion was historically based on student interests. Moving forward, HCCS will align workforce needs with student interests to identify the most viable CTE classes and pathways.

Currently, HCCTS offers one Personal Finance course as part of our CTE program. We are looking to add a licensed real estate class, relaunch the culinary, welding, health services, early childhood education, and digital literacy classes in the new calendar year. Further efforts to expand CTE offerings revolve around business, community organization and school partnership. The redesign effort is just beginning, and involves identifying the leading businesses and industries in the Greater Sacramento Metropolitan that have job opportunities at liveable wages and can support workforce development pathway programs for students with industry aligned certificates. Community-based organizations are serving as intermediaries to facilitate employer and school-based connections, and later to provide adult mentors and internship opportunities for students. The redesign emphasizes clear pathways, flexible schedules, strong language supports, and meaningful work based learning. New courses will be carefully vetted and released in phases.

Highlands Community Charter School currently offers one Personal Finance through the CTE program in 2025-26. To grow capacity and pathway offerings, our CTE program is entering a redesign led by a cross functional team. We are centering student voices and using labor market data and teacher input to shape offerings that put learners first. The plan emphasizes clear pathways based on local and regional employer needs, flexible schedules, strong language supports, and meaningful work based learning. Courses will be carefully vetted and released in phases based on sustainable capacity and resources.

HCCS will have seven CTE programs in the 2025-2026 school year:

Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act

In 2014, the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act (WIOA) became law, formerly known as the Workforce Investment Act (WIA). It is designed to help job seekers gain access to education, training, and employment and to ultimately help unemployed and underemployed youth, dislocated workers, and workers with disabilities to successfully find jobs.
~~Overview~~

Under Ed. Code 47605.1(f)(1) HCCS provides instruction exclusively in partnership with the federal Workforce Investment Act of 1998 (29 U.S.C. Sec. 3101 et seq.), now known as WIOA. HCCS partners with The Sacramento Education and Training Agency, the local workforce development board for Sacramento County. All students may only be admitted under the terms of an exclusive partnership agreement, which limits students to those 22 years of age or older.

Under Education Code 47605.1(f), other than being required to have sites in California, there are no other jurisdictional boundaries for campuses of Highlands Community Charter School due to our WIOA exclusive partnership requirement.

Technology

HCCS students have varying levels of knowledge and experience with technology. Some students are very familiar and comfortable using computers and computer programs. Some students have excellent typing, composition, and internet skills, while others struggle to turn on a computer.

HCCS prioritizes and supports the use of technology in our learning environments because increasing experience and proficiency with technology contributes to successful educational outcomes and better career opportunities for 21st-century learners. Because digital resources can provide valuable benefits to our students, we design our learning programs to help them build digital literacy for the modern age.

One goal at HCCS is to help students integrate technology into their lives via classroom lessons, relevant examples, classwork, projects, and opportunities to improve communication skills. Technology standards and objectives are integrated into the curriculum and clearly defined for the teachers. Across varying sites, the teachers incorporate technology into their lessons. Teachers use educational learning videos, tutorials, web-based reading programs, Microsoft Office, and Google Classroom. Teachers model the use of technology in their classrooms and show students how to access and utilize key tools such as email and document sharing. HCCS expects teachers to use and adapt technology as appropriate to accommodate students' varying skill levels and educational needs. In addition, the IT Department and Digital Navigators work diligently to support teachers and students who need assistance expanding their digital skills.

In recent years, HCCS has overcome complex challenges to ensure that its students, teachers, and school sites have equitable access to technology. With support from our IT Department, all HCCS classrooms now have access to the items listed below.

Student Services
Highlands Community Charter School has a unique opportunity to work with adult learners who have faced many life challenges. As a result, our students require a wide range of academic, career, and personal support to achieve their goals. In the 2025-26 school year, we have the opportunity to sustainably grow our student services staff, which faced staffing cuts during restructuring in the first part of the year. At the time of this material revision, we plan to develop an Intervention Coordinator role to support partnerships with community agencies. These agencies provide essential support well beyond what HCCS can offer, such as dental and medical services, nutrition, child care, housing support, and other necessities that will support their academic success.

Orientation/Student Onboarding
HCCS holds an orientation at the beginning of each year to help students become familiar with the school's policies, procedures, and programs, supporting student agency in making informed decisions about their academic plan. In August 2025, the orientation was expanded to provide additional clarity regarding updated academic policies, attendance requirements, the new five-period bell schedule, and our new curriculum, Savvas.

Navigators
To ensure equitable access to our programs, HCCS has employed dedicated staff members to ensure every student understands all the services available to them. With students who speak over 39 languages, often with limited English proficiency, Navigators provide multilingual communication, academic and career support, and access to community resources. HCCS Navigators speak English, Farsi/Dari, Spanish, Russian, Armenian, and Pashto, and travel to all campuses to present on services and programs. In June 2025, as part of organization restructuring, the Navigators were released from their positions. HCCTS plans to redesign and reinstate the Navigator program, with staffing and implementation to begin by January 2026.

English Learner (EL) Services and New Student Supports
HCCS provides comprehensive support for new students and English learners. HCCS student services staff provide comprehensive orientation services that help students navigate the HCCS system. The academic supports are listed in the educational philosophy section. HCCS also provides native language support and cultural transition assistance. Specialized programming for recently arrived immigrant students, including orientation to U.S. school systems, technology set up support, accelerated English language acquisition, academic skill building, and social-emotional support to ease cultural transitions. We provide translation services and family engagement programs to support the entire family's integration into our school community.

Student Advisory Council
In the 2025-2026 school year, HCCS will establish two Executive Student Advisory Councils – one for the AM student cohort and one for the PM student cohort. In Fall 2025, the Chief Academic Officer (CAO) will meet with students nominated for the Advisory Councils. The first student advisory council meeting is set for mid-November. The Councils will meet quarterly with the Executive Director to contribute student perspectives on HCCS initiatives, increasing student agency, belonging, and leadership. The quarterly meetings provide consistent opportunities for students to share their experiences, identify challenges, and contribute to solutions that enhance the educational environment for all newcomers, ultimately supporting their academic success and social-emotional well-being.

Community Partnerships

Highlands Community Charter School serves a very high-needs student population and has developed multiple partnerships with external organizations to address those needs. These partnerships expand the school's reach within the community and increase student access to the tools necessary to achieve their goals. Partnership refers to a collaborative relationship between Highlands Community Charter and Technical Schools (HCCTS) and an external agency that supports students by facilitating access to essential services. In some cases, partnerships include agreements related to shared locations, supporting educational efforts by expanding access to instruction and services in settings where students already utilize essential resources.

These partnerships include the following organizations:

- SALAM Islamic Center
- SHRA
- La Familia Counseling Center
- CalAsian Chamber of Commerce
- Lao Family Community Development
- Department of Human Assistance
- Sacramento Employment and Training Agency (SETA)
- Mack Road Partnership

Many of these community partners provide support that is beyond the scope of HCCS services. This includes connecting students to dental services, food banks, clothing, etc.

Student Support and Counseling

We are proud to have highly trained, compassionate counselors who support every student. Our counselors can provide assistance and information on many issues, including:

- Family issues
- Personal issues
- Conflict management
- Substance abuse and recovery
- Student support groups
- Homeless services
- Accessing government programs
- FAFSA
- Parenting and family resources

Our students face many challenges and have many barriers to completing their education and accomplishing their goals. At HCCS, our counselors understand our students' needs and assist them by addressing barriers because we want our students to complete their classes and graduate. We believe that by meeting our students where they are, they are more likely to continue and complete their programs to graduate.

Services for Students with Disabilities

Overview

Highlands Community Charter School is categorized as an independent LEA, serving adults 22 years of age and older. Therefore, it is not required to join a SELPA pursuant to Education Code 47641(a), either on its own or with a grouping of charter school LEAs as a consortium. As such, HCCS does not receive state and federal revenues in accordance with SELPA's allocation plan.

HCCS will continue to make all necessary arrangements to serve students with disabilities and comply with all applicable federal, state, and school district mandates ~~serving~~governing service to students with disabilities, including but not limited to Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act ("Section 504"), the Americans with Disabilities Act ("ADA") and the Individuals with Disabilities Education Improvement Act of 2004 ("IDEIA"). Students will receive information about Section 504 protections when enrolled in the program.

IDEIA applies to children with disabilities and does not apply to adult students over the age of 21.[2] California likewise requires special education services only through age 22, but HCCS integrates IDEIA principles as part of its mission to provide K-12 educational opportunities to adult students in compliance with all applicable laws. For students who provide the school with a copy of a previously approved IEP, the Student Success Team ("SST") will review the IEP and work with the student to identify reasonable accommodations that provide equal access to the student's educational program, including a 504 plan if appropriate. HCCS will incorporate the student's reasonable accommodation needs into the student's educational plan as part of their individual learning strategy based on identified needs in the previous IEP.

Disabled students without a previous IEP may request reasonable accommodation by contacting school staff. Accommodation requests will be referred to the SST, who will evaluate the request, review the student's documented needs, and work with students in an interactive process to determine what accommodation is necessary to support their academic success.

504 services can also begin with a Response to Intervention based on academic challenges identified by Student Success Team members. The team will work with the student to identify individual barriers to academic success and create an academic support plan. If the student does not make satisfactory progress and consents to evaluation, they may be referred for evaluation under Section 504 of the IDEA. Any decision to deny or grant a reasonable accommodation by the SST shall be made in accordance with applicable federal and state law, including IDEA, ADA, and the California Education Code.

HCCS does not require students to provide detailed medical records to document a disability. A doctor's note or other documentation of impairment, including records of academic impairment, may support an accommodation need. Students also have the right to refuse accommodation solutions offered by the school or propose a different alternative as part of the interactive process.

Reasonable accommodation can include, but are not limited to, modifications to school policies, practices, or procedures; auxiliary aids for classroom learning such as transcripts, readers, or modified equipment; altered testing conditions; presence of a student's trained service animal; or other measures necessary to ensure equal access to HCCS's educational programs, as required by 304 C.F.R. 104.44. HCCS may deny accommodation requests by a person with a qualifying disability and documented need if the requested accommodation imposes an undue financial, operational, or administrative burden, or fundamentally alters its educational program, provided no reasonable alternative can be found to meet the student's needs.

Plan and Timeline for Maintaining Western Association of Schools and Colleges (WASC) Accreditation

In the 2024–2025 school year, HCCS completed a comprehensive WASC Self-Study that involved 12 internal focus groups and resulted in the development of a six-year WASC Action Plan aligned with LCAP goals. Over 200 staff members and nearly 100 students participated in the self-study process through these focus groups. In October 2024, a six-person WASC Visiting Committee conducted a three-day site visit, holding eight additional focus groups with staff and students. The committee visited 14 sites in person and reviewed 18 more virtually through pre-recorded tours. Following this extensive review, the Visiting Committee evaluated HCCS across 14 accreditation status factors, rating 11 as Highly Effective or Effective, 3 as Somewhat Effective, and none as Ineffective.

In March ~~Highlands Community Charter School is categorized as an independent LEA, serving adults 22 years of age and older and is not required to join a SELPA pursuant to Education Code 47641(a) either on its own or with a grouping of charter school LEA's as a consortium. As such, HCCS does not receive state and federal revenues in accordance with the SELPA's allocation plan. However, if a student, who previously had an IEP, enrolls at HCCS, a copy of the previous IEP is reviewed to identify specific learning disabilities from the SST to determine if the student is then 504 referable. If HCCS can meet the accommodation requirements from the previous IEP, then these accommodations will be incorporated into an SST as strategies. Any decision to deny or grant an accommodation by the SST shall be made in accordance with the law. Implementation of Special Education service begins with a Response to Intervention and pre-referral remediation and monitoring of low achievers by Student Success Team members. The team identifies problem areas for low achievers and plans interventions that are monitored and reviewed at subsequent meetings. When students do not make satisfactory progress after implementation of remedial programs and strategies, they may be referred for evaluation under Section 504 of the IDEIA.~~

~~Students in this subgroup are monitored in the same way as their general education peers except with some accommodations and modifications according to each student's SST or 504. Special education teachers are expected and required to provide progress reports on SST/504 goals at the same frequency in which general education teachers provide report cards and progress reports.~~

1.30: Students in Other Subgroups

Former Foster Youth

HCCS students are identified as former Foster Youth through enrollment applications. HCCS tracks students formerly in foster care through CALPADS. Students' assigned school counselors at HCCS meet the needs of each student individually by providing access to resources (e.g., clothing closet, food pantry) or to partners and mental health providers who are readily available to assist with the mental health needs frequently associated with students formerly from the foster care system. Interventions for students formerly in foster care are provided as needed through an SST (Student Success Team) process, which is provided depending on need based in academic and behavior performance. Additional support is provided to HCCS former Foster Youth through our student meetings and teacher and administrator open door availability. Teachers track how former Foster Youth are performing academically in their SST Action Plans after each benchmark to ensure they are maintaining growth.

Standard English Learners

Standard English Learner (SEL) students who speak African American Vernacular English (AAVE) and Latino American Language have mastered a language variety that is of a non-mainstream form. Each of these varieties is based largely in English vocabulary and grammar but employs its own phonological, lexical, syntactic, discourse, pragmatic, and usage features. These non-mainstream varieties are systematic and highly structured, with explicit rules for forming sounds, words, and sentences and are highly effective and useful as language systems in their communities of practice. The retention and application of the complex linguistic rules of these English varieties generate differences between the students' home speech and the language of the school. SELs are identified through examination of writing samples since SELs tend to write in an oral style that reflects the dialectical variance. Teachers and Specialists meet the needs of this subgroup through daily classroom instruction and support. HCCS provides focused professional development for its instructional team and monitors the progress of students in this subgroup through assessments and tasks that identify features of AAVE and Mexican American English such as students' ability to use context clues, word parts, multiple choice, examining writing samples, and monitoring fluency.

"A Typical Day"

1.31: A Day in the Life of HCCS

Many of our students start their day with their children, getting them ready for school, walking them to school, to the bus stop, or dropping them off in their car. Some of our students bring their small children to school at HCCS with them for play care. For our night classes, our students often arrive at school right after work.

Once our students arrive at school, they go to class, greet their teachers and classmates, enjoy tea or coffee, and settle into class. Days typically start with a warm-up, reading, or discussion to get students' brains warmed up and excited for the day ahead. Our teachers utilize thought provoking subjects to spark our students' intellect.

All of our classrooms utilize technology – many of them in very innovative ways. You may find a teacher utilizing Google Classroom and assigning projects to students which they receive on their personal cell phones. Other classrooms may utilize personal laptops where students can independently research topics, use web-based tools in study groups, or work on their resumes. Each teacher is able to tailor the classroom technology to his/her student population. For our multilevel high school classes, students are grouped at tables by the subject they are currently studying and work as a team towards their projects or work.

One of the most cherished experiences of our students at HCCS is the diversity of our "HCCS family". We have students from over 60 countries who speak 30 different languages. Our students become friends, support systems, mentors, and sometimes family during their time at HCCS. While walking our campus at lunch or break time, you will find diverse groups of students socializing together, laughing, or sharing food. Food is a huge part of the HCCS culture. It brings people together, allows our students to share their culture, and strengthens the relationships of our students.

Our high school students rotate classes based on their credit deficiency and level. A high school student's typical day could start in our English classroom, where they are reading a novel, then go to their pre-algebra or algebra course, where every student who walks through our doors with math anxiety leaves with confidence and appreciation for math, and their day may end in a career success class where they are learning about soft skills, interviewing techniques, and proper career attire.

During their time at HCCS, our students will come into contact with a number of different support personnel from paraeducators in their classrooms who can provide one-on-one assistance to career counselors in the student success center who can assist with record expungement, license reinstatement, and refer students to part-time employment to survive while attending school. Their counselor checks in with them on a regular basis, and our clear connection group provides a weekly support group for students who are dealing with a variety of addictions.

Student Biographies

Lupe Aguilera spent most of her life making noise so that someone would notice her. As a child, who grew up in a family of 14 siblings, Lupe was never given the recognition or support she needed to believe in herself. What's worse is that no one believed her when she told them she was being abused in her own household. "It got to the point where I wanted to just shut myself out. So I got myself into trouble all the time because I felt like my mom wasn't paying attention to me," Lupe said. "I thought if I got into trouble, maybe she would start paying attention to me." When she realized no one was listening, Lupe said she started to act like the housemaid in order to get herself away from her abuser. She would clean up the five-bedroom, three-bathroom home once a week so that she could get permission to leave for as long as she liked.

Lupe went from couch to couch, family to family, group home to shelter, trying to find someone, anyone who would care. Finally, she found that one person who turned it all around for her, but it wasn't until much later in her life—after she had already had two children of her own. "I was in the shelter with my kids, and I was still messing up—still coming home late and drunk. I couldn't get it right. After a while, the workers at the shelter called me in. They were just tired of me because I couldn't get my shit together," Lupe remembers. They all sat Lupe down at a table and told her that everyone had voted her out, that no one wanted her there anymore, and that they didn't see anything in her. They told Lupe what she had been convincing them of all along—a truth she had believed herself.

"But there was this one guy there. His name was Jeff, and I'm never going to forget hi. He told me, 'I do see something in you, and I think you should stay. I think you should work this program like I know you can.' And ever since he told me that and believed in me, I got my shit together. I think I was just always looking for someone to do that, but I didn't know that it was that I needed," she said. Finding her place in this shelter helped Lupe to understand that when you fall down, it's okay to ask for help getting back up. "When I initially left to join the shelter, I told my parents, who I was living with at the time, that I was going to a hotel because I knew they would disown me if I told them. They had too much pride and thought they could help me themselves. Plus, me living with them was providing them with more disposable income," she said.

But once Lupe broke down and told her parents, the opportunities started opening up. "They were so mad at me," Lupe said as she started to cry. "I just told them that it's good for me and good for my kids and that I'm trying to be something better that I know I can be." Shortly after, Lupe earned a spot in transitional housing and started making strides for herself and her family. She started working full time and attending AA and NA meetings. "I couldn't believe I was making moves without having a partner by my side," Lupe said, "because Mexican women think that we need a partner to be with us because they are going to be our suppliers for everything and that we gotta depend on them, but it's not true. We need to know that we can depend on ourselves."

The outreach that she received through her shelter and those giving back in the community shook Lupe to her core. "It was so crazy—I never knew there were people out there like that. It made me change my ways," she said. Lupe said when she looks back on the years of her life that were spent high, she remembers how desperate she felt and doesn't want to ever return there. "I was going crazy. Like I would see or hear things that weren't even there. I would take so many pills, and I would faint," she said. "I just want to be better. My mom has always been that person who takes advantage of everybody. So I didn't want to be like my mom, and I still don't want to be like my mom. I think that's why I try to do everything I can for my kids now."

Lupe's relationship with her children has evolved greatly over the years, and she has finally won custody of her boys from a relationship which caused her much turmoil in her past. "Going through the custody battle with my kids was so hard because I couldn't read or write. I was constantly using my phone and talking to it to see how things were spelled to write it down on all that formal paperwork. It was hard," Lupe said. "I've come so far, and I won't stand for things anymore. I'm not going to be cleaning up after anyone else for the rest of my life." Now is the time in Lupe's life where she is focused on herself and her family. The first step in that journey was her graduation from Highlands Community Charter School on January 25, 2018. She is also an employee, working in the Clothing Closet and providing resources to those of our students in need. It was Lupe's vision to develop a mobile clothing closet for our school, which has made resources more readily available to those who are not on our main campus.

Brian is a 32 year old who attended 8 different schools from elementary to high school due to behavioral issues. He was given an IEP for his ADHD and never had expectations of success for himself. He dropped out of school in 10th grade, joined a gang, and started selling drugs to buy what his single mother couldn't afford. His choices led him to multiple incarcerations, never working an honest job, and a severe lack of self-confidence. While Brian was on probation, he was referred to a community partner for permanent housing where HCCS provided on-site education. Brian enrolled in our High School Completion program and our Truck Driving program to earn his diploma and Class A License. Brian faced significant challenges with Math and required one-on-one support and instruction. In the past, Brian had significant anxiety and struggles with math. HCCS was able to provide assistance to Brian, and he was able to pass his Algebra class and build his self-confidence and ability to succeed in school. While studying for his high school diploma, he also took our Truck Driving Pathway and earned his Class A License. Passing his Class A Permit test was a huge confidence builder and one of the first successes he's had in his life. This gave him the confidence to learn the skills necessary to pass his behind-the-wheel test and earn his Class A License. With a high school diploma and Class A License under his belt, Brian was able to go out and start his first job. This is a huge accomplishment for Brian! Now, two years later, Brian is still working as a Truck Driver for a local distribution company, earning a livable wage, supporting his family, and giving back to the community.

Shatoya is a 26-year-old high school dropout. She dropped out of school after her mother passed away when Shatoya was in the 11th grade and was placed in foster care. In and out of different homes and dealing with the death of her mother, Shatoya was not able to recover and stay in school. Shatoya lives in the Del Paso Heights neighborhood and was riding the bus one day when she saw a sign for Highlands Community Charter School and decided to stop and see what we had to offer. Shatoya always promised herself that she would earn her diploma for her mom and for herself. She enrolled in school and started the next day. At HCCS Shatoya became very active in student government, tutored her peers, and volunteered with the food distribution program. She earned a 4.0 and had perfect attendance during her time here. The teachers and staff recognized the bright young woman's potential and encouraged her to go to college and continue her education after graduation. Upon graduation, Shatoya enrolled at American River College to become a social worker to help young girls like she once was and change lives. While at American River College, she used her skills and passion from Highlands Community Charter School and assisted in the development of a student food pantry for students. Shatoya earned her associate degree and is currently working for the County of Sacramento while continuing to pursue her education and a bachelor's degree.

Blanca is a mother of 4 and an immigrant from Mexico. She worked at Jack-in-the-Box for 12 years as a manager to support her family. Blanca enrolled in our ELD program to improve her English and get a better job. She entered our program with good speaking and listening skills but needed to improve her reading and writing skills in English. Blanca spent 18 months in our ELD program, moving from Level 3 to Level 7. After completing Level 7, Blanca took our Bridge to high school class and re-designated to our high school program. While attending our High School Completion program, she was able to finally pursue her dream of getting a better job by taking our Early Childhood Education pathway and earning her Child Development Associate Credential. Blanca is currently taking Algebra, Economics, and interning with our Play care program. When Blanca walks the stage to receive her high school diploma with her children and husband in the audience, she will be living out her dream of a better job, showing her kids you can accomplish anything you put your mind to, and creating generational change.

Katya is a 30 year old immigrant from Ukraine where she was a bank manager. Katya came to the United States as an adult with her husband who was a successful lawyer in Ukraine. Katya had a basic understanding of English from her education in Ukraine, but wasn't confident in her speaking skills because of her accent. When Katya and her husband came to the United States, they had $120 and an empty apartment. Katya's husband worked as a pizza delivery man at night to support their dream of becoming successful in the United States. Katya was able to connect with our student services staff who coordinated a donation of furniture, clothing, kitchen items, and toiletries for their home. Katya enrolled in our High Beginning ELD class and took her studies very seriously. She made a lot of friends from different countries, and they met outside of class for coffee to practice English and explore Sacramento together. Katya moved quickly through the levels and progressed to our ELD Bridge class in one year while also volunteering in a lower level class in the afternoons. Katya's teacher saw her potential, work ethic, and positive attitude and recommended her for a paraeducator position at HCCS for a literacy level course. Katya is now an employee of Highlands Community Charter School and loves giving back, changing lives, and encouraging students on their journey.

~~Elements 2 & 3: Measurable Pupil Outcomes and Method by which Pupil Progress Toward Outcomes will be Measured~~ of 2025 WASC informed HCCS it was postponing its accreditation decision pending the result of the California State Audit. HCCS remains in probationary status as of September 2025. To ensure compliance with all program requirements, HCCS has developed a three-year plan to maintain its WASC accreditation, including measures to reduce student-teacher ratios, improve professional development, enhance data tracking, and increase EL support.

Recruiting Qualified Teachers

Highlands Community Charter School recruits well-qualified educators to our community by posting vacant teaching positions on the recruitment website www.edjoin.org, a third-party employment entity used throughout California and the greater United States as a central advertising location for many different educational organizations. Additionally, we attend the annual Teacher Recruitment Fair held each spring at Sacramento State University in order to meet with new teachers beginning their careers. We also send out recruitment flyers to additional institutes of higher education in the surrounding area, per the school's staffing needs. More efforts will be made going forward to aggressively recruit and retain exceptional educators with both adult and k-12 credentials, given the unique population of students we serve.

UMass Global

Highlands Community Charter and Technical Schools is partnering with UMass Global to help our intern teachers earn a California Preliminary Teaching Credential. UMass Global provides advising, admissions support, and the required coursework, while Highlands provides a paid classroom placement, a site mentor, and job-embedded coaching. We also recruit and train Mentor Teachers—experienced educators who meet weekly with interns to co-plan, observe, and give feedback. University supervisors and site mentors conduct joint observations, so candidates get clear, consistent guidance as they complete clinical hours and state assessments. Our shared professional learning centers on HCCS priorities like integrated ELD, literacy across the curriculum, and effective use of adopted materials. The partnership is formalized in an MOU and builds a steady, well-supported pipeline of prepared teachers for our classrooms.

Transferability of Courses

Governing Law: If the proposed charter school will serve high school pupils, the manner in which the charter school will inform parents about the transferability of courses to other public high schools and the eligibility of courses to meet college entrance requirements. Courses offered by the charter school that are accredited by the Western Association of Schools and Colleges may be considered transferable and courses approved by the University of California or the California State University as creditable under the “A to G” admissions criteria may be considered to meet college entrance requirements.-- California Education Code § 47605 (c) (5) (A) (iii)

Information about WASC accreditation can be found at HCCS' website. HCCS is currently WASC-accredited on a probationary basis. Further determination will be made by the WASC commission in 2026.

Element B Measurable Student Outcomes and Element C Student Progress Measurements

"The measurable pupil outcomes identified for use by the charter school. "Pupil outcomes," for purposes of this part, means the extent to which all pupils of the charter school demonstrate that they have attained the skills, knowledge, and attitudes specified as goals in the charter school's educational program. Pupil outcomes shall include outcomes that address increases in pupil academic achievement both schoolwide and for all ~~groups of pupils~~pupil subgroups served by the charter school, as that term is defined in subparagraph (~~B) of paragraph (3) of subdivision (~~a) of Section ~~47607~~52052. HCCS was founded to serve historically disadvantaged populations. It has always served a larger than 90% socially and economically disadvantaged student population. The founding philosophy of HCCS demands that it offers extensive support beyond that which would normally be available to students in a traditional high school setting and far beyond that available in CAEP settings. To that end, all support services are available to all students. This, along with the radically different makeup of the HCCS student population compared to most schools, has led HCCS to set its performance targets for all students rather than for traditionally designated subgroups.

Alignment With State Priorities

In compliance with Ed. Code HCCS will offer the California Assessment of Student Performance ~~Targets~~and Progress (CAASPP) and the Smarter Balanced Assessments Consortium (SBAC) to all students in 11th grade. HCCS also offers California Science Tests (CAST) to all 12th-grade students who have not previously taken the science test in high school. Testing will be coordinated by the Assessment Coordinator with academic staff and test proctors. Because CAASPP testing is new to HCCS, the determination of the details of testing windows and procedures will be an ongoing process by academic and assessment staff.

~~Measuring Student Progress~~
HCCS uses the Comprehensive Adult Student Assessment System (CASAS), a competency based adult assessment program validated by the U.S. Department of Education for use in adult education. While HCCTS is a K-12 institution there are few assessment programs designed to evaluate the growth of adult students. Consequently, CASAS is an essential tool for the evaluation of student progress at Highlands. The test series used by HCCS are listed below.

Test Series
CASAS Reading STEPS
CASAS Listening STEPS
CASAS Reading GOALS 2
CASAS Math GOALS 2

Students receive CASAS testing every 6-8 weeks. Testing is conducted via an application installed on HCCS Chromebooks. Testing can only occur in a proctored environment and is conducted by test proctors or teachers.

All students receive CASAS reading tests. CASAS Math assessments are administered to all students enrolled in math courses to evaluate the effectiveness of the instruction they receive.

Schoolwide CASAS outcomes include average point gain, measurable skills gains, and pre- and post-testing rates. Below are the average point gains for the previous three program years.

Average Point Gain per Program Year
	2022-2023	2023-2024	2024-2025
ESL Students
CASAS Reading STEPS	5.1 points	6.3 points	5.2 points
CASAS Listening STEPS	4.0 points	4.1 points	5.8 points
Adult Basic Education Students
CASAS Reading GOALS 2	5.4 points	6.4 points	4.9 points

CASAS Math GOALS 2	3.4 points	2.8 points	6.0 points

The data reveals several encouraging trends across both programs. For English Language Learners, CASAS Listening scores have shown steady year-over-year improvement, culminating in a significant gain of 5.8 points in 2024–2025—the highest in three years—indicating that recent adjustments to listening instruction are proving effective. Although reading gains dipped slightly this year, they remain above the 2022–2023 baseline, suggesting partial retention of prior improvements.

At ~~HCCS our assessment procedures are essential~~ the high school level, CASAS Math scores rose dramatically in 2024–2025, jumping from 2.8 to 6.0 points, signaling substantial progress in math instruction. ABE students also demonstrated consistently strong gains in reading from 2022–2024, reflecting effective literacy practices despite a slight decrease in the most recent year.

Measurable skills gains represent the number of students progressing in an Educational Functioning Level as defined by the National Reporting System (NRS), the federal accountability ~~tools~~system. Measurable skills gains are an important indicator of both English language and ~~help us to improve instruction and ensure student success. Our assessments and assessment results allow us to measure~~ academic progress.

56.61%	64.68%	75%

The data above reflects a clear upward trend in the percentage of students who received both a pre- and post-test over the past three years. In 2022–2023, 56.61% of students received both tests. This increased to 64.68% in 2023–2024 and rose again to 75% in 2024–2025. This steady improvement demonstrates HCCS's growing commitment to data-driven instruction and collective efforts to ensure more students are assessed consistently, allowing HCCS to better capture and respond to their academic development.

Teachers, counselors, and proctors at HCCS work diligently to ensure that all students complete both the CASAS pre- and post-tests; however, reaching 100% participation remains a challenge. To address this, HCCS is implementing several strategic measures, including hiring additional proctors, expanding staff training, purchasing more laptops to support testing, and developing a more structured and comprehensive testing schedule. Additionally, the recent hiring (August 2024) of a dedicated CASAS Coordinator has provided focused leadership to further strengthen the assessment processes. Through these efforts, HCCS is committed to increasing the percentage of students completing both assessments ~~are aligned to the Common Core State Standards. EL Civics Civic Objective and Additional Assessment Plan Data (COAAP)

Integrated English Language and Civics (ELCivics) programs are designed to offer English language learners access to English language literacy instruction while learning crucial concepts for participation in the workforce and civic life in the United States. EL Civics assessments are developed according to assessment plans (COAAPs) supplied by CASAS and reported to the state via TOPSPro Enterprise, a state developed software tool.

For the past five years EL Civics assessments have been conducted through Google Forms. EL Civics data was collated and reported through automated Google API scripts. While initially cost effective the maintenance of an increasingly large dataset became impractical. In 2025 EL Civics implemented a pilot with Edcite to streamline the reporting process, improve the quality of the assessment, and to offer more accurate and detailed data tracking.

High School Graduation

Graduation is the best way to identify course completion for high school students. At HCCS, graduation day is like a holiday worthy of celebration. It is the culmination of years of hard work, determination, perseverance, and overcoming sometimes very serious hardships. HCCS loves to celebrate student success and provide an opportunity for students' families to celebrate this success as well. When students earn their credits, they may petition for their diploma and exit as a graduate. Since this happens on a very regular basis, HCCS provides more than one opportunity a year for students to celebrate and "walk the stage." HCCS holds graduation ceremonies every summer and winter. Each year, the venue has changed in response to graduation growth.

HCCS Graduation Rate

Historically, HCCS has used two graduation rates to track graduation: a one-year graduation rate utilized by DASS schools and the traditional 4-to-5-year cohort rate. The default method of measurement for graduation rate is the 4-to-5-year cohort rate. This measures the percentage of students who graduate in exactly 4 or 5 years after first entering the 9th grade.

HCCS faces a unique situation regarding its 4- and 5-year cohort graduation rate. Before 2021, English language learner students were designated primary students and enrolled in grades 1 and 2. In 2020-2021, all HCCS students were redesignated as high school students to better recognize their adult status. This resulted in a massive increase in 4-year cohort size. However, over 80% of these students still lacked basic secondary education skills, leading a very large number of students to spend extra time in the 9th grade as they develop their English language and academic skills.

Other students have entered HCCS with better English proficiency and more academic achievement in their countries of origin, leading them to graduate much faster. Students in the 2025 Winter graduation were enrolled for 2.5 years on average.

Students who graduate in 1-3 years are not reported as graduates for the graduation rate as presented on the California Dashboard until 4 years after their first entry in a high school. For example, if a student enrolls in the 2022-2023 school year and graduates in the 2024-2025 school year, they will not be counted in the published 4-to-5-year graduation rate until 2026-2027. Students who graduate in more than 5 years will never appear in the published 4-to-5-year graduation rate. So, an adult student who may have dropped out at 18 and finished their diploma at the age of 23 will not be represented in this graduation rate even if it only took them an additional year of school to complete their education.

For a school explicitly intended to ~~assist us in the following areas:~~serve alternative students who enter with an extremely wide range of educational backgrounds and levels of credit attainment, the cohort graduation rate is at very best a lagging indicator. In practice, it obscures rather than reveals the achievements made by students and the outcomes of the program. Furthermore, the proposed reduction in enrollment over the next five years will ensure that the cohort graduation rate will be at best highly unpredictable.

The chart below demonstrates the scale of the issue. While HCCS will continue to track and report the 4-year cohort rate, it will also track and report the 1-year DASS graduation rate to provide a more comprehensive picture of the outcomes of its academic programs.

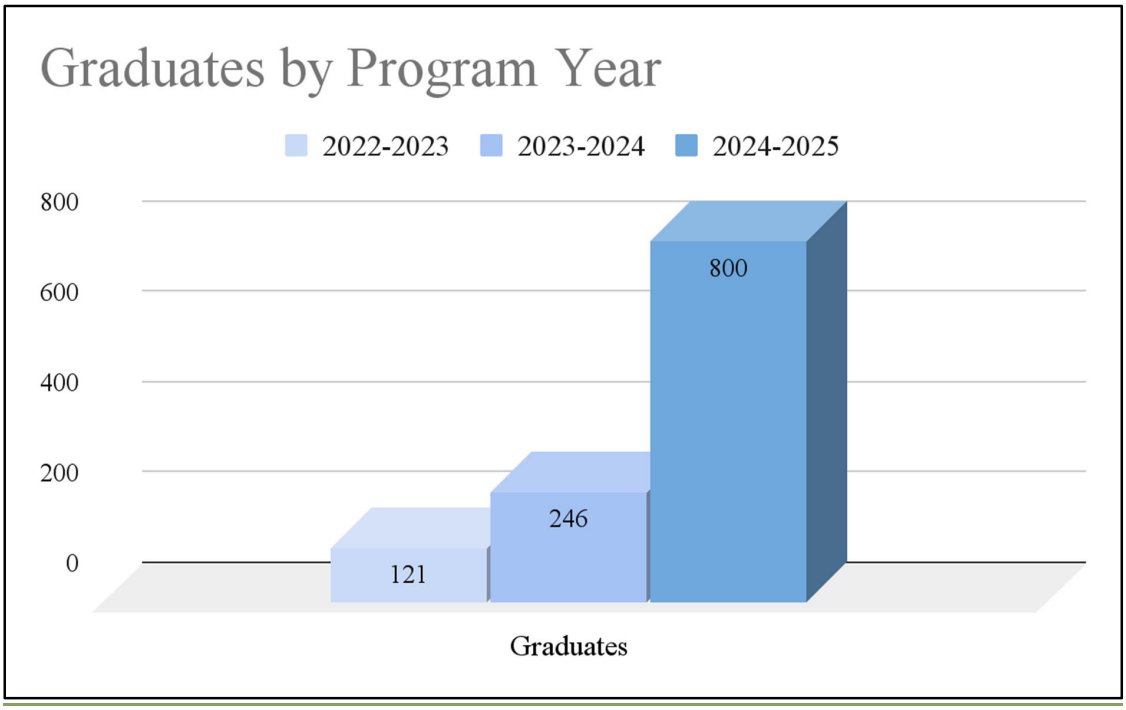
While the raw number of HCCS graduates has grown dramatically, only 176 of HCCS' over 800 graduates reported in CALPADS for the 2024-2025 school year will be accounted for in the published 4-year cohort rate.



HCCS 1-Year Graduation Rate

HCCS students must work to overcome a wide variety of barriers to participate in education and achieve academic success. An adult learner is engaged with responsibilities and demands that pay no respect to their academic journey, making them inherently at very high risk of not completing their education. In every sense, these are alternative students. In recognition of this status, HCCS continues to track and report the 1-year graduation rate. The 1-year graduation rate is calculated as follows

$$\frac{\text{\# graduates as reported in CALPADS - (all students without 90 days cumulative enrollment)}}{\text{All students enrolled in 12th grade for the program year (all students without 90 days cumulative enrollment)}}$$

22.8%	32.1%	55.5%

ESL Level Progress

English Language learners progress through courses designed to advance their English Language skills while giving them the opportunity to engage with increasingly in-depth standards aligned content. Level 3 (Intermediate) is a particularly significant milestone. Completion of this level indicates that the student is able to participate in High School with significantly reduced designated support.

Alternative School Status

- HCCS is accountable to the California Department of Education to ensure that HCCS students meet the state's standards. In 2013, the Local Control Funding Formula (LCFF) was adopted by California to ensure accountability using the California School Dashboard. ~~To inform our teachers of their students' levels and needs~~
- ~~To ensure teachers recognize both areas of strength and growth and can supplement instruction where it is needed~~
- ~~To provide our students with meaningful feedback about progress toward goals~~
- ~~To ensure our school is making progress toward our vision, mission, and schoolwide learner outcomes~~
- ~~To compare our school's academic performance data with other similar schools~~

~~As part of our instructional program, we assess students using a variety of assessment tools, including formal and informal assessments. We believe that all students excel academically when they are held to high standards and that all of our students meet our curriculum standards which we utilize to continuously assess our students' progress.~~

~~HCCS Assessments and Frequency~~

~~Enrollment Assessment~~
~~At HCCS we assess all of our ELD and high school students as part of the enrollment process. The assessment process varies between programs, but both programs assess all incoming students during registration.~~

~~ELD Placement Test~~
~~For our ELD students, we use two types of assessments. For reading, listening, and math we use CASAS and for writing and speaking we use in-house benchmark assessments designed by our Lead ELD Teachers and approved by our Director of Curriculum and Instruction. Our CASAS assessments are paper-based for our Literacy students and are computer-based for our Beginning Low to Advanced students. For our speaking test, the teacher begins by introducing themselves and asking the student basic conversation questions, such as their name and how to spell it. Then the teacher presents images to the new student and asks leveled questions about the pictures. The purpose of the speaking test is to illicit as much English as possible within the context of the images. If students can appropriately respond to questions, the teacher continues showing images and asking increasingly difficult questions. Students are then given a speaking level based on the test. After the speaking assessment, students are asked to respond to a leveled writing prompt that correlates to the level they received on the speaking test. If the writing prompt is too difficult, the teacher can give them the prompt that is a level below. The purpose of the writing prompt is to get a sample of the writing that represents the students' ability. The writing assessment is then graded, and the student is placed in the appropriate class.~~

~~High School Placement Test~~

~~For our high school students, we only utilize CASAS assessments as part of our new student enrollment. High school students are assessed in reading and math and placed in classes based on their enrollment assessments as well as their transcripts. For our ELD students who are moving into our high school program, we assess them in reading, listening, and math to ensure that they are ready to enter high school.~~

~~CASAS Assessments~~
~~The one assessment tool that is utilized as a universal screener across all programs is the Comprehensive Adult Student Assessment Systems (CASAS). This nationally recognized assessment system integrates Common Core Standards which align to our curriculum in both ELD and high school programs. All students are provided these universal screeners to initially assess placement level and later on to assess learning gains throughout their time at HCCS. Additionally, we use CASAS to track our students' levels and progress through our ELD and High School Completion programs. After the enrollment process, students are CASAS tested on average every 6 to 8 weeks. Our goal is for students to improve by one level per every term, where one level is equal to a minimum of one point and a maximum of ten points.~~

The traditional standards were intended for traditional schools and, in many ways, fail to understand the needs of alternative students. As a result, the California Department of Education recognized alternative accountability measures for alternative schools.

In March 2015, HCCS adopted the Alternative Schools Accountability Model (ASAM), and we complied with their requirements. Then the Dashboard Alternative School Status (DASS) replaced the previous ASAM model, and since the beginning of the 2017–18 school year, HCCS has been accountable to the California Department of Education and adhered to the indicators set forth by DASS. In November 2024, HCCS agreed on a formal set of DASS metrics with Twin Rivers. In December 2024, however, HCCS was informed by the CDE that it would lose its DASS status. Despite this, HCCS will continue to track the agreed-upon metrics as Academic Achievement Metrics.

Grading and Progress Reporting Systems

HCCS uses the traditional grading system A, B, C, D, and F. For GPA points, an A has a value of four points, a B has a value of three, a C has two, a D has one, and an F has zero. Although teachers may add a plus or minus to a grade, they do not affect the students' GPA. Students must receive a letter grade of B or better to pass a class or earn credits. If a student receives a grade lower than a B, they must engage in additional work until they demonstrate sufficient effort and mastery to receive a B. Students receive grades after they finish a course, partial course completion, or at the end of a term, whichever comes first.

Evaluation Methods

At HCCS evaluation is based upon a variety of evaluation methods to measure whether students meet requirements; these include teacher evaluation, self-assessment, publisher tests, and samples of work such as homework or portfolios. ~~While course completion does not include an end-of-course evaluation such as a standardized test, many assessment types are implemented. Formative assessments that have been aligned to the state standards for the various units of study for the academic courses are used. For example, our U.S. History course has several standards-aligned units of study, each of which has a schoolwide, formative assessment tool that is used as part of the completion process. At HCCS our students are a very diverse group at varying levels. Through the guidance of our Director of Curriculum and Instruction, we elected to use formative assessment as part of the assessment process and throughout smaller units as a basis for some of the skills assessment. In this manner, we have one form of assessment that we can use to indicate proficiency for smaller units in a course. These formative assessments are only one measure of assessment. Evaluation measures are varied and include projects, teacher evaluations, work samples, etc. At HCCS we evaluate a number of common core standards such as presentation skills in the listening and speaking standards, integration of technology, or demonstration of research skills. One of the primary roles of providing instruction is to evaluate the student's proficiency and skills acquisition, and we use multiple measures of assessment in our courses as part of our course evaluations.~~

~~Multiple Assessments~~

~~At HCCS we use CASAS scores as one measurement of a student's proficiency and skills attainment; however, they are not the only measure. CASAS scores help us to identify strengths, challenges, and areas of need. As an accountability measure, they are also in alignment with how CASAS scores are used along with the State's accountability indicators.~~

~~HCCS utilizes various methodologies to determine students' levels of academic success and, ultimately, their ability to graduate. These evaluations are based upon a variety of evaluation methods to measure whether students meet requirements; these include teacher evaluation, self-assessment, publisher tests, and samples of work such as homework and formative and summative tests and criteria.~~

~~The practice of using multiple assessment measures in a classroom is a generally accepted teaching practice. In fact, a teacher who relies solely upon a standardized test does not provide a platform for evaluating a number of Common Core standards such as presentation skills in the listening and speaking standards, integration of technology, or demonstration of research skills. An evaluation of such skills has long been the professional purview of a course's teacher. One of the primary roles of the teacher besides providing instruction is to evaluate the student's proficiency and skills acquisition. Further, the completion of a course by a standardized test is not a requirement for any school for the issuance of the course's credits.~~

~~Data Analysis and Reporting~~

~~3.2:~~ High school course completion is tied to end of unit and end of course assessments. Students must receive a minimum of 80% on all assessments to receive credit.

Plan to Collect, Analyze, Use, and Report Academic Performance and Other Data

~~At~~ HCCS ~~we use~~uses assessment data in four primary ways. First, ~~we want to assist student learning as a diagnostics~~assessment serves as a diagnostic tool ~~by determining which specific~~ to identify content areas a student has not yet mastered ~~so they can improve their learning in that specific area. For teachers, this means truly~~. This allows instructional staff to gain a clear understanding ~~our students' strengths and weaknesses. We want to ensure that if a student is falling behind in an area, we can provide them with the tools they need. We have paraeducators in English and math and Reading and Literacy Specialists. If we understand where our students need to improve, we can assist them~~of each student's strengths and areas for growth, enabling timely and targeted academic support when needed.

Second, ~~we use~~ aggregated ~~measurements of~~ student learning ~~as part of the measurement of how the~~data are used to evaluate overall school ~~as a whole is performing. This is a critical component for our stakeholders. At HCCS we have a~~performance. A dedicated team of professionals ~~who analyze~~ at HCCS analyzes a broad range of academic ~~performance data. We look at everything from~~ indicators, including enrollment ~~and enrollment~~trends, placement assessments ~~to~~, demographic data, CASAS assessments and gains, course grades, graduation rates, and student retention ~~data~~. By ~~analyzing student learning by year, we see how we are doing~~examining student outcomes over time, the school is able to assess performance by teacher, course, program, and ~~school compared to~~ schoolwide, and compare results to those of similar ~~schools.~~ institutions.

Third, ~~we use~~ assessment data ~~to determine if a~~inform decisions regarding student ~~has met or exceeded the necessary level of competency to gain~~ progression and formal recognition, such as ~~to complete a~~ level ~~or receive a diploma~~completion, graduation, licensure, or certification~~. In our ELD program, when a student meets all of the content and level objectives with an M, the student completes the level and moves to the next course. CASAS scores and teacher~~

Finally, assessments are ~~also considered part of the level completion process. For high school~~used to identify students~~, they complete courses when they earn a C or higher and have earned the required credits.~~

~~Lastly, we use assessments to determine if a student is~~ who may be underperforming ~~in relation~~relative to their peer group, ~~and we then evaluate if~~prompting review of placement and potential intervention ~~supports are required or if the student is in the appropriate course. There are times when students are enrolled in courses that they are not able to complete. At HCCS one use of assessment is to ensure that students are appropriately placed. In some instances, it is imperative that a student enrolls in~~ support. In cases where a student is not adequately progressing in a course, reassignment to a remedial course ~~to get the academic support they need, while other times the student can get support from their teacher, a paraeducator, or a specialist who will work with the student until they are~~ or additional instructional support from teachers, paraeducators, or specialists may be required to ensure the student is able to complete course materials and ~~assessments~~meet academic expectations.

~~Grading, Progress Reporting, and Promotion~~/Retention

~~3.3: Grading and Progress Reporting Systems~~

~~English Language Development Grades~~

~~At HCCS we have two grading systems: one for ELD and one for high school. Our ELD grading system is M, A, D, and E.~~

~~M is for a student who is meeting or exceeding standards. This student regularly turns in assignments on time that are of A or B quality. This student would also be eligible to advance to the next level within ELD.~~

~~A is for a student who is approaching standards. This student is submitting assignments of average quality much like you would see with a C student. This student is trying but may be struggling with content and needs more time in this level. This student is not eligible for level advancement.~~

~~D is for a student who is still developing an understanding of the standards at the time grades are assigned. This student might submit assignments of below average or D quality or might be unable to complete assignments on time because they are new or because the content is too difficult. This student is not eligible for level advancement but may need to be dropped one level for comprehensible input.~~

~~E is for a student with emerging understanding of standards. At HCCS this grade is reserved for a student with poor effort to complete assignments. The assignments submitted by this student would be of very poor quality or similar to an F student.~~

~~At HCCS we first started the ELD grading system, MADE, at the end of the 2016–17 school year. Prior to the 2016–17 school year, we did not have an ELD grading system in place. It was created to ensure that the ELD students were proficient and meeting each level objective stated within HCCS's ELD curriculum before moving to the next level. It was also created to show ELD level completion, as M indicates that an ELD student is ready to move the next level. ELD students receive grade reports at the end of each term.~~

~~High School Grades~~

~~For our high school students, we use the traditional grading system A, B, C, D, and F. For GPA points, an A has a value of four points, B has a value of three, C has two, D has one, and F has zero. Although teachers may add a plus or minus to a grade, they do not impact the students' GPA. In high school, students must receive the letter grade of C or better to pass a class or earn credits. If a student receives a grade lower than a C, they must complete alternative assignments until they can get a C or better in the class. During the 2014–15, 2015–16 school years, high~~ ~~School students received grades every six weeks. During the 2017–18 school year, we transitioned from a six week grading period to an eight week grading period. In the 2018–19 school year, we transitioned to a nine week grading period.~~

~~Promotions~~

~~At HCCS there are two systems to address level promotion and graduation: one for ELD and one for high school. At HCCS our ELD students are promoted to the next level when they have met all of the curriculum objectives for that level and have received the grade of M. For the 2016–17 and the 2017–18 school years, ELD students received grades every 12 weeks and were eligible for level promotion at that time. The grading schedule changed for the 2018–19 school year to every nine weeks. Although ELD students do not earn credits for their classes, our high school students do.~~

~~At HCCS all of our high school students are enrolled in our high school program into twelfth grade and remain in the twelfth grade until they are eligible to graduate. While our high school students are not eligible for grade promotion, they are eligible to graduate when they have earned enough credits. Board Member Selection Process

The Board of Directors shall consist of a minimum of three and a maximum of eight members; however, following the resignation of any director serving as of September 20, 2024, the maximum number of members shall be reduced to seven. To mitigate the occurrence of tie votes, the Board endeavors to maintain an odd number of members. Furthermore, school districts or county offices authorized to oversee HCCTS schools are entitled to appoint one voting representative to the Board.

Candidates for Board membership are sought from diverse professional backgrounds, including education, finance, law, public policy, human resources, and community leadership. Ideal candidates demonstrate alignment with HCCS's mission, a commitment to its success, and the ability to provide expertise or resources in support of the school.

People who work for the school (or have close family ties to someone who does) cannot serve on the Board. Each director serves a 3-year term and stays in the role until a new director is chosen. If a director leaves—due to resignation, death, legal issues, or missing three meetings—the Board can fill that spot by majority vote. Chartering authorities can fill or remove their own representatives.

In accordance with Education Code Section 47604.2(b)(2), the Board may, upon receipt of a qualifying petition, choose to include at least one student member. If appointed, the student member may be granted preferential voting rights as provided by law.

Board members may resign at any time by submitting written notice. However, no resignation shall be effective if it would reduce the Board below the minimum required membership, unless the Attorney General is notified. Should a vacancy arise due to resignation, death, legal disqualification, or failure to attend three consecutive meetings, the Board may fill the position by majority vote. Chartering authorities retain the right to appoint or remove their own representatives. Reductions in the Board's authorized size will not prematurely terminate current directors' terms.

HCCS will not make contracts or approve actions where a director or key employee have a potential financial interest in the contract or action that precludes HCCS from approving the same pursuant to Section 1090, the PRA, or other statutory, regulatory, or common law preclusions of conflicts of interest. It also will not loan money or property to any director or officer, except that it can advance money for work-related expenses that will be reimbursed. Lastly, HCCS promises to protect and cover legal costs or damages for its directors, officers, employees, and certain others if they face lawsuits or legal actions related to their role, as allowed by law. If someone asks for this protection, the Board will quickly decide if they qualify and approve it if they do.

Officers of the Corporation: Roles, Responsibilities, and Appointments

The Corporation is required to have a Chair of the Board, President, Secretary, and Treasurer, with the option to appoint additional officers as needed. Officers are appointed by the Board, report to the Board, and may have duties outlined in employment contracts. One person can hold multiple officer roles, except the same person cannot be both Chair/President and Secretary/Treasurer. Officers may be removed by the Board or resign with written notice. Vacancies are filled following the same process as original appointments. The Chair leads Board meetings, and the Vice-Chair fills in when the Chair is absent. The President (also called Executive Director) manages the Corporation's daily operations. The Secretary keeps records of Board meetings and official documents, while the Treasurer manages the Corporation's finances, provides reports, and may be required to give a bond to ensure proper handling of funds.

Board Members shall complete annual Brown Act, conflict of interest, sexual harassment, mandated reporter training, and other mandatory training requirements.

Roles of the Board

The Board of Directors is responsible for managing the Corporation's activities and has the authority to make key decisions. This includes hiring and removing staff, setting their duties and pay, relocating offices, operating in or outside California, borrowing money, using a corporate seal, and seeking outside funding to support and expand the organization's services. All actions must follow applicable laws and the Corporation's governing documents. For more information, see the bylaws in the appendix.

The Board may initiate and carry out any program or activity that is not in conflict with or inconsistent with any law and which is not in conflict with the purposes for which charter schools are established, and consistent with the Articles of Incorporation. The Board may execute any powers delegated to it by law, and shall discharge any duty imposed by law upon it and may delegate to an employee of the Charter School any of those duties with the exception of budget approval or revision, approval of the fiscal audit and performance report, and the adoption of Board policies. The Board, however, retains ultimate responsibility over the performance of those powers or duties so delegated. ~~4.2: Board Composition~~

~~HCCS is governed by a corporate Board of Directors in accordance with its adopted corporate bylaws, which are consistent with the terms of this charter. The Board of Directors has nine (9) voting members, including a TRUSD appointed representative. Each director brings significant experience and strong commitment to the organization. The current HCCS Board of Directors includes:~~

- ~~Ernie Daniels, Corporate President~~
- ~~Doyle Radford, Vice President~~

~~Matt Powers, Corporate Secretary~~

~~In order to be more inclusive of representation programmatically of our students and community, the board voted and appointed new members Ernie Daniels and Kevin Ferreira in August of 2017, and Mellonie Yang in February of 2019. Mr. Daniels is a longtime community member who has strong ties to the community. He has a very keen sense of awareness of the local populace and serves on a variety of local community organizations. Mr. Ferreira is the President of the Craft Trades of Northern California which include: local iron workers, carpenters, and electricians. In her many years of service, she has advocated for public safety and on behalf of victims including elders and children.~~

~~As of July of 2017, Ms. Sondra Betancourt joined our Board of Directors by appointment from our authorizer, the TRUSD. Her appointment appropriately addressed the need to ensure that a community member was appointed by the authorizer as the former member that was appointed had previously served as a Board member on the Twin River Unified School District.~~

The changes in our governance structure have provided a broader scope, depth and level of inclusiveness to how we operate our school as a whole. We represent our community and students with better comprehension. Particularly, with the addition of the appointed representative from our authorizing district, the level of mutual understanding and transparency for both Local Educational Agencies (LEA)s has increased significantly.

4.3 Member Selection

HCCS is governed by the Board of Directors pursuant to the adopted Bylaws, as may be subsequently amended from time to time, which shall be consistent with this charter. The process of selecting members of the Highlands Community Charter School Board of Directors is described in detail in the Bylaws of the organization. The HCCS Governing Board of Directors will consist of at least three (3) members or up to as many as eleven (11) members. TRUSD may appoint a representative to sit on the Board of Directors. Should the District exercise this right, causing an even number of members, an additional Board member would be designated by the Board. These additional appointed and designated Board members may expand the board past the general limit of 11 members.

Board member candidates may have experience in the following areas:

- K-12 Education
- Finance
- Information Technology
- Law

- Public Policy
    - Facilities / Real Estate

With retention of General Counsel to advise on conflict matters, along with training available to Board members, HCCS has, and will continue to be proactive to prevent any actual or potential conflicts of interest. HCCS will not enter into any consulting contracts or agreements that are deemed to be a real or potential violation of conflict of interest laws, and our General Counsel will ensure that all Board activities are conducted to prevent such conflicts of interest from arising.

HCCS retains General Counsel to ensure Brown Act compliance for all HCCS board activities, including decision~~-~~-making procedures. Board members have also been provided with Brown Act reference materials and may participate in yearly meetings held by California Charter Schools Association ("CCSA") and/or Charter Schools Development Center ("CSDC~~")~~"), which feature ethics presentations, including Brown Act and conflict of interest reviews. All Board members are encouraged to participate in such presentations.

A majority of all voting Board members constitutes a quorum for all business transactions except adjournment. ~~Stakeholder~~Educational Partner Involvement

~~4.6: Stakeholder~~Educational Partner Involvement Plan and Process

It is critical that all students are invested in the success of the Charter School and have a voice in matters critical to the Charter School's success. HCCS believes that student investment is integral to a successful student education, and it is commonly accepted that student involvement can have positive and long-lasting educational results. Therefore, ~~we make~~HCCS makes every effort to ensure that student input is considered in the Board's decision-making process. To assure the greatest involvement, HCCS provides multiple opportunities for student feedback. ~~We encourage students and staff to attend, speak, and present at Board meetings; we request that students and staff complete various surveys (e.g., English Learner Advisory Committee ("ELAC") surveys, student satisfaction surveys, exit surveys); we proactively reach out to students regularly to encourage them to meet with our counselors to continue discussing their goals and needs; and we are proudly responsive to the feedback we receive.~~

~~We encourage and teach our~~As part of its continuous improvement efforts, Highlands Community Charter School (HCCS) conducts Educational Partner (EdPartner) events throughout the year, beginning each fall with the distribution of staff and student climate surveys. Starting in the 2024–2025 school year, both surveys are administered via SurveyMonkey to enhance anonymity and encourage honest, constructive feedback.

The staff survey is distributed first and has seen steadily increasing participation, with 346 Highlands staff and 13 Equity Initiatives staff responding in 2024–2025—up from 223 respondents the previous year—resulting in a participation rate of 92.76%. The survey includes questions across several key areas: mission, vision, and schoolwide goals; communication and leadership; workplace culture and environment; onboarding and support; compensation and benefits; digital tools and technology; professional development and growth; and curriculum and instruction. These categories are designed to assess organizational strengths and identify areas for growth. Survey results are presented to the HCCTS Board of Directors and shared with all staff through infographic posters displayed at every school site to promote transparency and engagement.

The student climate surveys are sent out to all students in eleven different language options. In the 2024-2025 school year, the survey was hosted on Survey Monkey, which allowed for ease of use for students as well. Teachers are encouraged to have their students take the survey during class to increase participation.

Highlands' student survey was available to students in 12 languages, including English, Spanish, Russian, Ukrainian, Dari, Pashto, Arabic, Chinese, Vietnamese, Armenian, Turkish, and Hmong, and resulted in 3,610 student responses, compared to 2,169 last year.

In February 2024, HCCS held the Reading with Relevance event to gather information on the curriculum and its impact. Highlands engaged 36 educational partners during this event and had them participate in the Reading with Relevance Book Fair Impact Survey afterward.

During the Black History event in February 2024, Highlands focused on engaging educational partners and collecting feedback. The Black History Month Assembly Feedback Form from February 2024 garnered 27 responses from educational partners.

During the Building a Community School Lunch and Dinner sessions, Highlands concentrated on gathering suggestions for improvements in the domains of wellness, health, social-emotional support, additional academic opportunities, CTE, and community enhancements. HCCS held discussions with educational partners, which resulted in 22 summarized responses on the Building a Community School survey.

In March 2024, Highlands hosted a meeting with principals to gather their insights on the key challenges and opportunities for growth. Following the discussions, participants were requested to complete the Principal Feedback Survey, which provided subsequent data from 6 principals.

In April 2024, HCCS sent out the Leadership Survey to collect the directors' feedback on the following categories: communication, job and role clarity, work environment, recognition, relationships, curriculum, and professional development. HCCS has gathered responses that highlight the enhancements across the categories, alongside some challenges. Seven of the directors participated in the Survey.

In April 2024, Highlands facilitated a Your Voice Matters event for CTE programs at the Grand Avenue campus. HCCS engaged 42 educational partners and gathered feedback on strengths, improvement areas, and solutions.

In the 2023-2024 school year, Highlands hosted educational partner events titled Your Voice Matters at 11 locations, compared to one location in the previous year. The purpose of visiting more sites was to get more feedback from students with different needs at various school locations. For the 2023-2024 school year, HCCS gathered educational partner feedback from a total of 830, including 26 responses from students who enrolled in the Equity Initiatives program at the “Your Voice Matters” events, compared to 270 in the 2022-2023 school year. Combined with the all-staff climate surveys and student surveys, the principal meeting, leadership feedback survey, and other educational partner events, HCCS engaged 4,926 while gathering educational partner feedback.

Each educational partner event had a facilitator and notetaker who led the discussion in three areas: school strengths, growth opportunities, and possible solutions. The responses were recorded in Google Forms. HCCS analyzed the data to identify growth areas and build the LCAP goals and actions. HCCS found a high level of consistency in climate surveys and educational partner responses. After careful review, HCCS used this feedback to determine where to increase and decrease spending.

HCCS encourages students and staff to attend, speak, and present at Board meetings; HCCS requests that students and staff complete various surveys. HCCS proactively reaches out to students regularly to encourage them to meet with the counselors to continue discussing their goals and needs, and HCCS is proudly responsive to the feedback it receives.

HCCS encourages and teaches the students how to maintain direct influence over the direction of their educational process. Students have equal say, and sometimes, greater say, in their learning according to their academic needs. ~~Our teachers~~Teachers collaborate with students, other teachers, staff, administration, and community partners to determine what new programs and resources would be most beneficial to student achievement and well-being. ~~The birth of our mobile clothing closet, housing resource connections, and ELD Navigators program are all examples of student influence on governance and fiduciary direction of the school.~~

In planning to draft the LCAP, leadership consults with teachers, administrators, other school personnel, partners, and students in developing the annual update. ~~This feedback is provided during a variety of meetings and discussions schoolwide. Following these meetings, the Executive Director meets with the school leadership team to discuss the changes in the funding formula and how those funds could be used to best meet student needs, after which the Director of Curriculum and Instruction collaborates with the designated coordinator to draft a plan in accordance with State Priorities and local goals. Once decided, the Executive Director and the Director of Curriculum and Instruction meet with school faculty and present State Priorities and the school goals.~~This feedback is provided during EdPartner events. Following these events, the data is reviewed, proposals for a new funding formula are created and presented to the board of directors as well as the executive cabinet. Goals are then amended based on recommendations provided from the school community. Amended plans are then presented for feedback to staff, students, and all other interested parties at regularly scheduled meetings. All stakeholders are invited to submit public ~~comment~~comments and final plans are approved at a public board meeting. HCCS will consider TRUSD recommendations and comments when drafting its LCAP ~~for the 2019-2020 school year~~. The Charter School shall present a report on the annual update to the LCAP and the local control funding formula budget each year as part of a nonconsent item at a regularly scheduled Board meeting.

~~Student consultations occur with regular frequency in order to promote student input. We consult students by way of student/teacher collaborations, student/counselor collaborations, email, conventional postal delivery services, phone communication, student surveys, and student participation in school activities. Teachers are consulted regularly through monthly professional development opportunities, instructional collaboration, mentor teaching, email, and staff surveys.~~

~~Responses gleaned from the student and staff surveys help the Charter School make program modifications to better serve the students.~~

~~Other student engagement strategies that we employ include:~~

- ~~Student education initiative featuring a variety of sessions on topics such as college admissions, financial aid, financial literacy, student rights, etc.~~
- ~~Posting of Board meeting announcements in the Charter School's main office.~~
- ~~Translation of student communication materials into Spanish, Russian, Farsi, and Arabic.~~
- ~~Frequent opportunities for student involvement in Charter School activities.~~
- ~~Volunteer opportunities on campus.~~

Additionally, ~~we use our~~ HCCS uses the school website to keep ~~our~~the students informed of all upcoming activities, important calendar items, and Board meeting minutes. ~~We promote~~HCCS promotes student involvement by encouraging students to contribute to and drive website content through the sharing of their personal stories which are connected to ~~our~~the website via ~~our~~an Instafeed of social media content.

As of June 2025, 14 employees at HCCTS have participated in a preliminary and or clear administrative services credential program or have been accepted and will begin in the next cohort.

Evaluations

In the 2024-2025 school year, the Board Policy: 4115 Personnel Evaluation and Supervision outlined the maintenance of a comprehensive personnel evaluation policy to support continuous improvement, accountability, and alignment with the school's mission. This policy applies to all certificated and classified staff and outlines clear expectations for professional conduct, job performance, stakeholder engagement, and compliance. Evaluations are conducted annually and may include observations, self-assessments, performance appraisals, and goal-setting reviews, depending on the employee's role. Supervisors are responsible for providing timely feedback, maintaining documentation, and supporting employee growth. All evaluation records are kept confidential and stored in personnel files in accordance with privacy laws. For more information regarding Board Policy: 4115 Personnel Evaluation and Supervision, see the appendix.

Frontline is an integrated system used for payroll, employee evaluation, and professional learning management. As part of its evaluation functionality, the platform securely stores all employee evaluations and monitors performance trends over time. It facilitates a standardized evaluation process across the organization and provides automated reminders to supervisors regarding upcoming deadlines. All employees are required to review and electronically acknowledge their evaluations within the system.

Teacher Credentialing

HCCTS agrees that all teachers should hold a valid teaching credential for their certificated assignment in conformance with Education Code Section 47605(l)(1) and that classroom paraeducators should not be permitted to teach as the teacher of record or without the immediate supervision of an appropriately credentialed teacher without valid teaching credentials for their assignment. In prior years, teachers at HCCS held adult education credentials as recommended by the CTC and the San Diego County Office of Education. In February 2025, the CTC decided to enforce K-12 teaching credentials.

HCCS has already implemented the following to improve compliance and accountability. In the 2024–2025 school year, HCCTS significantly changed its credentialing and staffing procedures. The school established a credentialing support team of internal staff and credentialing consultants and reviewed more than 300 staff profiles. Individual credential pathway plans were developed, and 269 one-on-one consultations were held with teachers. HCCTS launched a partnership to create an intern credential pathway with tuition coverage for staff and offered reimbursement for credential exam fees and coursework through Board Policy 4112.3: Teacher Credentialing Reimbursements. All staff with noncompliant assignments were notified, and instruction in July 2025 was suspended to allow credential corrections before the next school year.

Board Policy 4112.2 now requires all certificated staff to hold valid and appropriate credentials at the time of hire and to submit timely proof of renewal. In alignment with updated guidance from the CTC and CDE—and following the loss of DASS status—HCCTS has transitioned away from Adult Education credentials. All teachers are now required to hold single-subject or multiple-subject credentials.

To support compliance, HCCTS created a centralized credentialing dashboard and updated its use of Frontline to track credential status, staff evaluations, and assignment alignment.
Per Board Policy 4112.2, certificated employees must:

- Hold the appropriate credential for their assignment upon hire;
- Maintain active credentials and complete renewals as required;
- Adhere to applicable ~~to charter schools.~~ state and federal regulations;
- Submit proof of credential validity and renewal to Human Resources within required timelines.

For more information from the Board Policy 4112.2: Credentialing Requirements Communications, see the appendix.

Instructional Paraeducators

Instructional paraeducators at Highlands Community Charter School (HCCS) play a vital role in supporting certificated teachers by providing instructional assistance and academic support in students' primary languages. To ensure all paraeducators meet minimum qualifications, HCCS requires a high school diploma or equivalent, successful completion of an English proficiency exam with a score of 70% or higher, and the ability to communicate effectively with diverse student populations. In alignment with state and federal requirements, HCCS verifies educational qualifications and exam results during the hiring process and maintains documentation to ensure compliance.

Applicant Screening

All job applicants at HCCS go through a rigorous pre-employment screening process to ensure they meet all requirements and qualifications for the role they are applying for. HCCS uses the website Edjoin to post job openings. This is also where new applicants apply for positions. Within Edjoin, HR is able to filter applications based on minimum qualifications. Only employees who meet these requirements are eligible for interviews. HCCS BP 4111 outlines the hiring process for external candidates. As part of the pre-employment job application, candidates are asked about their relationships to other employees in order to ensure that no relatives are involved in the hiring decisions and that family members do not report to each other.

HCCTS Hiring and Anti-Nepotism Policy

HCCTS has adopted Board Policy 4212.8, prohibiting relatives from participating in hiring or evaluation processes involving family members to address concerns about nepotism and favoritism. Interviewers must complete disclosure forms, and job postings, evaluations, and offers are now tracked and reviewed centrally by the HR department to ensure consistency and equity.

Organizational Chart & Job Descriptions

HCCTS regularly updates the organizational chart for accuracy based on the roles and structures needed within the organization. During the 2024-2025 school year, HCCTS drafted and revised a total of 25 job descriptions. The purpose is to ensure role clarity for all employees and ensure there is consistency between the work performed, role requirements, and appropriate pay.

Hiring Process

The hiring process at Highlands Community Charter School (HCCS) is designed to ensure consistency, transparency, and alignment with organizational needs and compliance standards. It begins with the submission of a Position Control Form (PCF) whenever a position needs to be backfilled or newly created. The PCF includes essential details such as the job description and a designated leadership contact, and is reviewed weekly by the Executive Cabinet. Upon approval and required signatures, the Human Resources team posts the position on EdJoin.org and communicates the posting status to the hiring manager. This step ensures that each job opening is intentional, well-defined, and appropriately authorized.

Once posted, hiring managers review applicants within EdJoin by evaluating qualifications in relation to the job description. Candidates are categorized as prescreened, interviewed, or removed, providing a clear record of each applicant's status. Notes from prior interviews are required for third interview requests and must be documented either via email or directly in the EdJoin system. For current staff changes, such as promotions or changes in FTE, an EE Update—rather than a PCF—is submitted to accurately reflect the employee's new assignment. Altogether, this structured process supports effective hiring decisions while maintaining clarity, documentation, and compliance across the organization.

Upon employment, all HCCS certificated staff are offered ELD training and ongoing professional development throughout the year by working with ELD academic leaders and mentors to improve test scores, develop teaching instruction, and identify areas of strengths and weaknesses in student learning. HCCS encourages all certificated staff to complete, update and maintain their ELL authorizations through ongoing education and training, both at the university level and through HCCS professional development.

HCCS key administrative staff will have training to assure understanding in determining the fulfillment of ESEA/ESSA's highly qualified requirements. HCCS teacher credentials are reviewed by the Director of Curriculum and Instruction, the Credentialing Specialist and the Human Resources Generalist annually and on an ongoing basis as needed. These documents shall be maintained on file at HCCS headquarters and shall be subject to periodic inspection by TRUSD.

TRUSD reserves the right to review HCCS hiring decisions to ensure compliance with applicable federal and State mandates regarding highly qualified teachers and to determine whether a teacher is deemed to be appropriately credentialed and "highly qualified." No later than September 1 of each year, HCCS will provide TRUSD proof of employment of appropriately credentialed, "highly qualified" full-time equivalent teachers at HCCS for that school year consistent with the qualification requirements. A variety of techniques are utilized including posters, flyers, local school visits, community-based organization visits, presentations at various multicultural events, public business tabling (sitting outside markets and other businesses that allow us to pass out flyers to the public) and various advertising, including in local English, Spanish, Farsi, and Russian publications and radio stations. All promotional materials are in various languages, including Spanish, Farsi, Russian, and Arabic, to inform non-English speaking populations about our school.~~

~~In order to ensure we attract low-achieving, economically disadvantaged, and special education students, we conduct our outreach in the surrounding communities with similar demographics. Our marketing and recruiting materials highlight that our program is available to all students with a variety of needs and backgrounds. Our recruiting teams are trained to ensure all families are notified that our program currently serves a large population of economically disadvantaged students and that we accept students regardless of past academic performance.~~

~~Lottery Preferences and Procedures~~

~~8.3: Identification and Rationale of Admission Preferences~~

HCCS Proposed Lottery Process

If HCCS receives ~~a number~~registrations in excess of ~~applications that exceeds~~its enrollment capacity, the ~~number of available spaces, a single public random drawing/~~lottery process will be used to select admitted students~~, with the exception of existing students, who are guaranteed admission in the following school year. The following enrollment preferences and affirmative action preferences in the case of a public random drawing shall be as follows:~~

1. ~~All students currently enrolled in~~. HCCS
2. ~~Non-youth residents of the District; as defined by WIOA as those 22 years of age and older~~
3. ~~All other applicants~~

~~At the conclusion of the public random drawing, all students who were not granted admission due to capacity shall be given the option to put their name on a waitlist according to their draw in the lottery. This waitlist~~ will ~~allow students the option of enrollment if an opening occurs during the current school year at their grade level. In no circumstance will the waitlist carry over to the following school year.~~

~~HCCS and the District agree to adhere to the requirements related to admission preferences as set forth in Education Code Section 47605(d)(2)(B)(i)-(iv).~~

8.4: Implementation of a Public Random Drawing

Openconduct a public random drawing facilitated by PowerSchool Enrollment Period and Enrollment Procedures

Initial applications are accepted at any time during the school year. The HCCS admission process consists of the completion of both a paper-based and online student registration form and optional attendance at one of our weekly orientations.

Enrollment packets for students who are admitted also gather the following:

- Proof of Immunization
- Proof of Withdrawal from Previous School (such as transcripts)
- Proof of Not HavingChoice, a U.S. high school diploma
- Home Language Survey
- Completion of Emergency Medical Information Form
- Proof of minimum age requirements, e.g. birth certificate or driver's license
- Release of records
- Any forms required by the Greater Sacramento Urban League or other WIOA partner

Following the open enrollment period each year, applications are counted to determine whether the number of students who wish to attend HCCS have exceeded HCCS's capacity. In the event that this happens, HCCS will hold a public randomthird-party platform. The drawing to determine enrollment with the exception of existing students who are guaranteed enrollment in the following school year. This public random drawing is conductedwill take place in a public setting, at a time and place (e.g., the main school site) to be made known in advance to the community.our Hillsdale Campus, located at 5655 Hillsdale Blvd, Sacramento, CA 95842. The public random drawing processlottery will be usedheld up to determine who will be offered enrollment andtwo weeks before the orderstart of the waitlist.

The public shall be notifiedschool year. Notice of the random drawing will be provided through written notices postedpostings at the school campussite and on ourthe school's website. Applicants who have completed registration are notified of the

The lottery via automated and/or personal telephone calls, email notifications, and letters sent to home addresses. If there are more available seats in a grade level than there are applicants, all students who have completed registration will be offered a seat.

At the conclusion of the public random drawing, all students who were not granted admission due to capacity will be given the option to put their name on a waiting list according to their draw in the lottery. This waiting list will allow students the option of enrollment if an opening occurs during the current school year at their grade level. New students will be added to the waiting list on a first come, first served basis. If the waiting list is exhausted, then the school may hold additional random drawings.

Communicating to All Interested Parties

~~Lottery Time and Location~~
~~The random public drawing (lottery) will be held in a public space in the community that is large enough to accommodate all interested students. The lottery process is open to the public. The public is notified of the random drawing through written notices posted at the school campus and on our website. The random public drawing (lottery) will be scheduled in the event that applications for enrollment exceed school capacity. The lottery will be held at a time that is determined to be convenient for the students in our school community to attend.~~

Waiting List Priorities

Any families~~contacted by the Registration department to confirm their seat. Any admitted students who decline an offered seat or who fail to confirm by the deadline will lose their position to the next applicant on the waiting list. Education Code Section 47605(c)(5)(J).

School Climate and Student Discipline System

~~10.1: HCCS Discipline Philosophy~~

Highlands Community Charter and Technical Schools (HCCTS) has adopted 5144.1 Suspension and Expulsion Board Policy to promote student learning and ensure campus safety. The policy is closely aligned with California Education Code Section 48900 et seq. and is reviewed annually for updates. Disciplinary actions, including suspension, expulsion, or involuntary removal, are applied fairly and consistently and are clearly outlined in the Student Handbook. Students and families receive written notice of these policies upon enrollment. The policy prohibits corporal punishment and outlines due process protections for all students, including those with disabilities or Section 504 plans. Involuntary removal requires written notice in the student's native language and an opportunity for a hearing. Students remain enrolled during the hearing process unless suspended or expelled for misconduct. For more information about Board Policy 5144.1, see the appendix.

HCCS Discipline Philosophy

Highlands Community Charter School prides itself on ~~the~~ meeting ~~of~~ student needs and developing ~~an~~ action ~~plan~~plans to address extenuating circumstances as they arise, recognizing that many ~~of our~~ students come to ~~our~~the organization due to ~~hardship~~hardships that ~~has~~have prevented the fulfillment of their educational goals ~~from reaching fulfillment.~~. By addressing the needs of each student ~~head on, we remove the~~ directly, barriers ~~that prevent~~to student success~~.~~ ~~HCCS implements a philosophy that all students deserve a second chance by providing services that include individual one-on-one student counseling, a drug and alcohol rehabilitation and prevention support group called Clear Connections that meets twice a week, and a Positive Direction support group that meets once a week which focuses on a different student success theme per month. We also provide services that address criminal history and homelessness if these occurrences impede student attendance. Additional addressing of student needs include a transportation plan for adults who do not have vehicle access to and from school, a clothing and food closet for those students who are lacking basic necessities, and free child care for those students who are not able to attend class due to young children between the ages of 2 and 5 who~~ are ~~not school age eligible.~~ removed.

~~HCCS encourages the utilization of these services as prevention from student disenrollment, suspension, or expulsion when applicable.~~ Should a disciplinary action be required, Student Success Team meetings (SSTs) and 504 plan meetings (when applicable) are organized to review ~~the student's~~ individual extenuating ~~circumstance which prevents attendance.~~circumstances.

Counselors, teachers, directors, and other assigned personnel assist with ~~the~~ addressing ~~of these~~ student needs by creating an action plan for both the staff and the student.

School-Wide Positive Behavior Intervention and Support
The Student Success Team (SST) is a problem solving and coordinating structure that assists students, teachers, staff, and community partners to develop positive solutions for maximizing student potential. It provides an opportunity for school staff, the adult student, community agencies, and other important people to present their concerns about an individual student. The SST focuses in-depth on one student at a time, and invites the adult student to participate in finding solutions. Through discussion and study, they plan a positive course of action and assign responsibilities, as well as monitor the results of a student. This process informs individual actions for students, including referral to the formal SST process and class-wide actions to address issues such as use of class resources, behavior management, and classroom modifications.

The following is implemented during the time of behavioral intervention:

- Asset Based Delivery: The SST always starts with a discussion of a student's strengths/assets and develops solutions that build on these strengths
- Problem Solving: The SST gathers background information regarding the student in the areas of school, home, family, health, and collaboratively brainstorms solutions to address areas of concern.
- Service Coordination: An action plan is developed for interventions and supports are implemented designed to address the students' needs; team members are assigned responsibilities for action items.
- Monitor Results: Actions items are monitored and a follow up SST meeting is scheduled to review the results/outcomes of interventions, make adjustments and continue to strategize positive solutions to ensure student success.

The coordination of school, home and community interventions improve student learning, and provide focused, positive support to teachers, students and staff. An SST can help students who are facing significant concerns relating to:

- Academics
- Attendance problems
- Behavioral/emotional issues
- Consideration for 504 services
- Retention
- Health issues (including substance abuse)
- Social adjustment

Tiered Behavior Intervention
Members of a Student Support Team:

- The Adult Student is always invited to participate in the decisions of their own education and goal setting.
- Designated administrator
- Classroom teacher(s)

- Resource personnel or specialists, such as community outreach consults, social workers, probation officers, community resources representatives, or mental health consultant
- Others invited as appropriate

All SST team members are active contributors, and the process defines special roles that some members of the team must fill to achieve the greatest positive outcome. Team members may change roles from one SST meeting to the next. However, during any meeting each team member's role is clearly defined before the meeting begins and then maintained throughout that meeting.

Facilitator

This person facilitates the working of the team and is the SST coordinator/leader. The success of the team depends largely on this person, who guides the flow of the meeting, and coordinates logistics before and after the meeting.
The facilitator directs but does not dominate the SST meetings, eliciting the most helpful contributions of the group and, most important, keeping a positive tone at the meeting. The facilitator directs the process with respect for all members and accommodates the needs of the group. The facilitator reassures and supports the efforts of colleagues and students.

Recorder

The recorder is responsible for documenting the SST meeting discussion, including students' strengths, concerns, interventions, action items and results. The recorder does this by using the Student Success Plan form or the Student Success Plan Follow-up Form.

Team Member

An effective team member is a positive contributor to the work of the team. The team members participate but do not control the flow of the meeting. Members come prepared with information about the student. Contributions that address difficult problem areas are positive, looking at constructive solutions, rather than characterizing, blaming, or stereotyping. Interventions are linked to the student's strengths.

The Adult Student as a Team Member

The Adult student is a full-fledged member of the SST, and they are always included. At the SST the student can share his/her perspective and concerns, contribute critical problem-related information from home, and share effective and ineffective home interventions. Many times, the adult student can clarify questions for the team and participate in the implementation of strategies developed by the whole team.

Outreach to Students

When connecting with students, care must be taken to ensure the most positive experience possible. Reaching out to and engaging the student is a key element in making the SST process successful. This effort involves much more than sending a written notice of a meeting or making a simple phone call. It involves extending oneself as a representative of the school and serving as a bridge for the student to the classroom and the larger school environment.

Adult students often resist this engagement. The barriers they present to any involvement may mask deeper fears or concerns. Being a student with school or social concerns can cause the student to have feelings of defensiveness or guilt. Many students may feel they will be unfairly attacked or made to feel worse than they already do in an SST meeting. They may have had former experiences with school meetings that were not successful, or they were not kept well informed, and they may be reluctant to trust another meeting at school.

Adult students may also have time, work, child care, or transportation issues barring their way to participating in the meeting. The SST process must include support to students to accommodate these very real issues. Any support provided has both symbolic and concrete meaning to students and contributes to the success of the meeting for both students and team members.

The person performing the outreach/engagement role must be sensitive to these issues. Information about the purpose of the meeting must be presented with an emphasis on the shared concerns and responsibilities. An explanation of the SST process must be provided, emphasizing that the process is a collaborative strategy that builds upon the student's strengths to attain the highest degree of success for the student. The student must also be given an opportunity to ask any questions or share any concerns s/he may have with the upcoming meeting.

Adult students may also have time, work, child care, or transportation issues barring their way to participating in the meeting. The SST process must include support to students to accommodate these very real issues. Any support provided has both symbolic and concrete meaning to students and contributes to the success of the meeting for both students and team members.

Restorative Justice Practices

Student Success Team Follow-up Practices: The action plan created at the SST meeting is only as good as the follow-up practices that ensure its implementation.

Steps for Implementation:

Case Management

It is very important to clearly define on the Student Success Plan who is responsible for each "action item" and to designate the administrator in charge of monitoring the implementation of the plan. This creates an accountability system that is monitored and reviewed when the team comes together again for the Follow-up SST meeting(s).

Case manager tasks may include:

- meeting with the student and with the teacher regarding the action plan,
- making phone calls and/or sending reminder notes to team members regarding action items, and/or
- helping students and their families follow through with referrals to on-site and community-based services.

Feedback to the Referral Source

The administrator, or a designated member, provides the referral source with feedback in a timely manner after the initial SST meeting. Even when the referral source is unable to attend the SST meeting, it is beneficial to involve them in some ownership of the plan, particularly classroom strategies, modifications and adaptations.

Student/Family Support

Working with students to be a part of the plan and to undertake actions on their own behalf is an important part of the follow-up. The student has to feel that s/he has some control over their own goals and plans, and that school staff are their allies, rather than the ones who have all the control. During the SST meeting the student is an equal partner in developing the action plan. The assigned administrator or another staff member who has a relationship with the student may want to check in with the student periodically to offer support toward implementing action items.

Follow-Up SST Meetings / Ongoing monitoring of student progress

At the end of every initial SST, a follow-up SST meeting date is set, preferably within 4-6 weeks. At the follow-up SST meeting action items are reviewed and student progress is discussed. The follow-up SST meeting is documented on the Student Success Plan Follow-up Form. The action plan may need to be modified and additional interventions added depending on student progress.

Communicating, Teaching, and Modeling: Suspension Alternatives through Professional Development

Staff shall enforce disciplinary rules and procedures fairly and consistently among all students. HCCS staff are trained and annually review ~~in~~ de-escalation strategies for students in crises. These strategies focus on developing relationships with students, identifying and avoiding, when possible, triggers for undesirable behavior, and stabilize students who have been triggered safely through the use of de-escalation techniques.

Discipline includes but is not limited to advising and counseling students, conferring with parents/guardians[3], detention during and after school hours, community service, use of alternative educational environments, suspension ~~and~~, expulsion, and involuntary removal.

[3] The Charter School shall ensure that a homeless child or youth's educational rights holder; a foster child or youth's educational rights holder, attorney, and county social worker; and an Indian child's tribal social worker and, if applicable, county social worker have the same rights as a parent or guardian to receive a suspension notice, expulsion notice, manifestation determination notice, involuntary transfer notice, involuntary removal notice, and Corporal punishment shall not be used as a disciplinary measure against any student. Corporal punishment includes the willful infliction of or willfully causing the infliction of physical pain on a student. For purposes of this Pupil Suspension and Expulsion Policy, corporal punishment does not include an employee's use of force that is reasonable and necessary to protect the employee, students, staff or other persons or to prevent damage to school property.

Suspended or expelled students shall be excluded from all school and school-related activities unless otherwise agreed during the period of suspension or expulsion.

A student identified as an individual with disabilities or for whom HCCS has a basis of knowledge of a suspected disability pursuant to the IDEIA or who is qualified for services under Section 504 is subject to the same grounds for suspension and expulsion and is accorded the same due process procedures applicable to regular education students except when federal and state law mandates additional or different procedures. HCCS will follow all applicable federal and state laws when imposing any form of discipline on a student identified as an individual with disabilities or for whom HCCS has a basis of knowledge of a suspected disability or who is otherwise qualified for such services or protections in according due process to such students and shall notify the District of the same.

No student shall be involuntarily removed by the Charter School for any reason unless the student has been provided written notice of intent to remove the student no less than five schooldays before the effective date of the action. The written notice shall be in the native language of the student, and shall inform him or her of the right to initiate the procedures specified below for suspensions, before the effective date of the action. If the student initiates the procedures specified below for suspensions, the student shall remain enrolled and shall not be removed until the Charter School issues a final decision.

As used herein, "involuntarily removed" includes disenrolled, dismissed, transferred, or terminated, but does not include suspensions or expulsions pursuant to the suspension and expulsion procedures described below.

In-School Suspension

~~10.2:~~ Authorization and Implementation of In-School Suspensions

HCCS offers in-school suspension as a means of reducing time missed from learning for behavioral issues. Should the need for in-school suspension arise due to a violation of student conduct violations, as defined by the Highlands Community Charter School Student Handbook, in-school suspension will be served through the enrollment of and attendance in the Highlands Community Charter School Alternative Education/Independent Study Program. An assigned advisor will work with the student to arrange a schedule for the student to engage in credit other documents and related information. For purposes of this Policy and its Procedures, the term "parent/guardian" shall include these parties.

recovery and after-school tutoring as needed to ensure she is able to keep up with his/her school work while on suspension. Grounds for in-school suspension shall not exceed grounds for expulsion as defined by the Student Expulsion policy. Notification procedures and the maximum number of days for in-school suspension per incident as well as academic year are the same as out-of-school suspensions.

To ensure that HCCS adequately provide safety for students, staff, and visitors to the school and serve the best interests of students, in-school suspension will not be offered to any student who:

- ~~caused~~Caused, attempted to cause, threatened to cause, or participated in an act of hate violence,
- ~~engaged~~Engaged in harassment, threats, or intimidation against a pupil or group of pupils or school district personnel, or
- ~~made~~Made terrorist threats against school officials or school property, or both.

Out-~~of~~Of-School Suspension Procedures

~~10.6: Rules and Procedures for Out-of-School Student Suspension~~

Suspension Authority
HCCS will ensure that the process for investigating incidents and collecting evidence will be fair and thorough before a student is suspended. A student may only be suspended by the Executive ~~Director's and/or~~ Director ~~of Curriculum and Instruction~~and/or Chief Academic Officer, or in the case of the Executive ~~Director's and~~ Director ~~of Curriculum~~ and ~~Instruction's~~Chief Academic Officer's absence or inability to carry out proper suspension procedures, an assigned designee.

Conference

Suspension will be preceded, if possible, by a conference conducted by the Executive ~~Director's and/or~~ Director ~~of Curriculum and Instruction~~and/or Chief Academic Officer or an assigned designee with the student and, whenever practical, the teacher, supervisor, or Charter School employee who referred the student to the Executive ~~Director's and/or~~ Director ~~of Curriculum~~and/or Chief Academic Officer and Instruction or assigned designee.

The conference may be omitted if the Executive ~~Director's~~Director and/or Director of Curriculum and Instruction or an assigned designee determines that an emergency situation exists. An "emergency situation" involves a clear and present danger to the lives, safety, or health of students or charter school personnel. If a student is suspended without this conference, the student will be notified of the student's right to return to school for the purpose of a conference.

At the conference, the student will be informed of the reason for the disciplinary action, including the other means of correction that were attempted before the suspension, and the evidence against him or her, and will be given a meaningful opportunity to present his or her version and evidence in his or her defense. This conference will be held within two school days, unless the student waives this right or is physically unable to attend for any reason, including, but not limited to, incarceration or hospitalization. No penalties may be imposed on a student for failure to attend a conference with Charter School officials. Reinstatement of the suspended student shall not be contingent upon attendance by the student at the conference.

Student Notification

Students will have due process rights with ~~regards~~regard to suspensions and expulsions. At the time of the suspension, an administrator or designee will make a reasonable effort to contact the student by telephone or in person. Initial contact will be followed by a written notice. This notice will state the specific offense(s) committed by the student. In addition, the notice will also state the date and time the student may return to school.

~~10.7:~~ Maximum Suspension

The length of the suspension will be determined by the Executive Director and/or the ~~Director of Curriculum and Instruction~~Chief Academic Officer or an assigned designee based on the severity of the offense(s), as evidenced by witness statements, physical evidence, and other relevant factors. For students with IEPs, the students SST team will consult with the Executive Director and/or the ~~Director of Curriculum and Instruction~~Chief Academic Officer or an assigned designee on additional factors that are relevant to the decision. The length of suspension for students may not exceed a period of 5 consecutive days per suspension. The total number of days for which a student may be suspended from school shall not exceed 20 school days in any school year.

~~10.8:~~ Meaningful Education for Suspended Students

A student on suspension will be provided meaningful access to education during the term of the suspension. An advisor of the suspended student will collect and provide the student with classroom material and current assignments to be completed at home during the length of the suspension. Missed tests will also be coordinated to be completed either at home or upon return. Written notification listing all required assignments will be given to the student, and all needed materials will be left in the front office.

~~10.9:~~ In accordance with Education Code Section 47606.2(a), upon the request of a parent, a legal guardian or other person holding the right to make education decisions for the student, or the affected student, a teacher shall provide to a student in any of grades 1 to 12, inclusive, who has been suspended from school for two (2) or more school days, the homework that the student would otherwise have been assigned.

In accordance with Education Code Section 47606.2(b), if a homework assignment that is requested pursuant to Section 47606.2(a) and turned into the teacher by the student either upon the student's return to school from suspension or within the timeframe originally prescribed by the teacher, whichever is later, is not graded before the end of the academic term, that assignment shall not be included in the calculation of the student's overall grade in the class.

Suspension Pending the Outcome of an Expulsion Process

Upon a recommendation of ~~Expulsion~~expulsion by the Executive Director and/or the ~~Director of Curriculum and Instruction or~~Chief Academic Officer or the Administrative Panel, the student or representative will be invited to a conference to determine if the suspension for the student should be extended pending an expulsion hearing. This determination will be made by the Executive Director and/or the ~~Director of Curriculum and Instruction~~Chief Academic Officer or the Administrative Panel upon either of the following: 1) the student's presence will be disruptive to the education process; or 2) the student poses a threat or danger to others or property. Upon either determination, the student's suspension will be extended pending the results of an expulsion hearing. The maximum number of days a student may be suspended is thirty days (30) unless the expulsion hearing is postponed for good cause, in which case the suspension could be extended further. Procedures for providing a student on suspension with meaningful access to education during the term of the suspension pending the outcome of an expulsion process is outlined above in the section ~~10.8.~~titled, "In School Suspension."

Expulsion Procedures

~~10.10:~~ Rules and Procedures for Student Expulsion

Prior to making an expulsion recommendation, students will be provided adequate notice of the reason for disciplinary actions and a meaningful opportunity to be heard by invitation to a conference to determine if the student should be placed on suspension or if an existing suspension for the student should be extended pending an expulsion hearing. This determination will be made by the Executive Director and/or Director of Curriculum and Instruction (or assigned designee) upon either of the following findings:

- The student's presence will likely be disruptive to the educational process
- The student poses a threat or danger to others or property.

Upon this determination, the student placed on suspension or will have his/her suspension extended pending the results of an expulsion hearing.

Students will be recommended for expulsion if at least one of the following findings may be substantiated:

- Other means of correction are not feasible or have repeatedly failed to bring about proper conduct.
- Due to the nature of the violation, the presence of the student causes a continuing danger to the physical safety of the student or others.

Authority to Expel

As required by Education Code Section 47605(c)(5)(J)(ii), students recommended for expulsion are entitled to a hearing adjudicated by a neutral officer to determine whether the student should be expelled. The procedures herein provide for such a hearing and the notice of said hearing, as required by law. A student may be expelled either by the HCCS Board following a hearing before it or by the HCCS Board upon the recommendation of the Executive Director and/or the Director of Curriculum and Instruction, or ~~an~~a neutral and impartial Administrative Panel may be assigned by the Board as needed. The Administrative Panel should consist of at least three members who are certificated and neither a teacher of the student nor a Board member of the Charter School's governing board. The Executive Director and/or the Director of Curriculum and Instruction or the Administrative Panel may recommend expulsion of any student found to have committed an expellable offense, and the HCCS Board of Directors shall make the final determination.

Expulsion Procedures

Students recommended for expulsion are entitled to a hearing to determine whether the student should be expelled. Unless postponed for good cause, the hearing will be held within thirty (30) school days after the Executive Director and/or the Director of Curriculum and Instruction or an Administrative Panel or designee determines that the student has committed an expellable offense.

In the event an Administrative Panel hears the case, it will make a recommendation to the Board for a final decision on whether to expel. The hearing shall be held in closed session (complying with all student confidentiality rules under FERPA) unless the student makes a written request for a public hearing three (3) days prior to the hearing.

Written notice of the hearing shall be forwarded to the student at least ten (10) calendar days before the date of the hearing. Upon mailing the notice, it shall be deemed served upon the student. The notice shall include:

1. The date and place of the expulsion hearing,
2. A statement of the specific facts, charges and offenses upon which the proposed expulsion is based,
3. A copy of HCCS disciplinary rules which relate to the alleged violation,
4. Notification of the student's obligation to provide information about the student's status at HCCS to any other school district or school to which the student seeks enrollment,
5. The opportunity for the student to appear in person or to employ and be represented by counsel or a non-attorney advisor,
6. The right to inspect and obtain copies of all documents to be used at the hearing,
7. The opportunity to confront and question all witnesses who testify at the hearing, and
8. The opportunity to question all evidence presented and to present oral and documentary evidence on the student's behalf including witnesses.

Reasonable accommodations, including language support for a student whose ~~has a~~ primary language is other than English will be made available at the hearing, upon request.

Special Procedures for Expulsion Hearings Involving Sexual Assault or Battery Offenses

HCCS may, upon ~~a~~ finding ~~of~~ good cause, determine that the disclosure of either the identity of the witness or the testimony of that witness at the hearing, or both, ~~would~~ subject the witness to an unreasonable risk of psychological or physical harm. Upon this determination, the testimony of the witness may be presented at the hearing in the form of sworn declarations that shall be examined only by the HCCS Board or the hearing officer. Copies of these sworn declarations, edited to delete the name and identity of the witness, shall be made available to the student.

1. The complaining witness in any sexual assault or battery case must be provided with a copy of the applicable disciplinary rules and advised of his/her right to (a) receive five days' notice of his/her scheduled testimony, (b) have up to two (2) adult support persons of his/her choosing present in the hearing at the time s/he testifies, which may include a parent, guardian, or legal counsel, and (c) elect to have the hearing closed while testifying.
2. HCCS must also provide the victim with a room separate from the hearing room for the complaining ~~witness'~~ witness's use prior to and during breaks in testimony.
3. At the discretion of the person or panel conducting the expulsion hearing, the complaining witness shall be allowed periods of relief from examination and cross-examination during which s/he may leave the hearing room.

~~1.~~ The person or panel conducting the expulsion hearing may also arrange the seating within the hearing room to facilitate a less intimidating environment for the complaining witness.

4. The person or panel conducting the expulsion hearing may also limit time for taking the testimony of the complaining witness to the hours s/he is normally in school, if there is no good cause to take the testimony during other hours.

5. Prior to a complaining witness testifying, the support persons must be admonished that the hearing is confidential. Nothing in the law precludes the person presiding over the hearing from removing a support person whom the presiding person finds is disrupting the hearing. The person or panel conducting the hearing may permit any one of the support persons for the complaining witness to accompany him or her to the witness stand.
6. If one or both ~~of the~~ support persons ~~is~~are also a witness, HCCS must present evidence that the ~~witness'~~witness's presence is both desired by the witness and will be helpful to HCCS. The person presiding over the hearing shall permit the witness to stay unless it is established that there is a substantial risk that the testimony of the complaining witness would be influenced by the support person, in which case the presiding official shall admonish the support person or persons not to prompt, sway, or influence the witness in any way. Nothing shall preclude the presiding officer from exercising his or her discretion to remove a person from the hearing whom s/he believes is prompting, swaying, or influencing the witness.
7. The testimony of the support person shall be presented before the testimony of the complaining witness, and the complaining witness shall be excluded from the courtroom during that testimony.
8. Especially for charges involving sexual assault or battery, if the hearing is to be conducted in public at the request of the student being expelled, the complaining witness shall have the right to have his/her testimony heard in a closed session when testifying at a public meeting would threaten serious psychological harm to the complaining witness and there are no alternative procedures to avoid the threatened harm. The alternative procedures may include videotaped depositions or contemporaneous examination in another place communicated to the hearing room by means of closed-circuit television.
9. Evidence of specific instances of a complaining witness' prior sexual conduct is presumed inadmissible and shall not be heard absent a determination by the person conducting the hearing that extraordinary circumstances exist requiring the evidence to be heard. Before such a determination regarding an extraordinary circumstance can be made, the witness shall be provided notice and an opportunity to present opposition to the introduction of the evidence. In the hearing on the admissibility of the evidence, the complaining witness shall be entitled to be represented by a parent, legal counsel, or other support person. Reputation or opinion evidence regarding the sexual behavior of the complaining witness is not admissible for any purpose.

Record of Hearing
A record of the hearing shall be made and may be maintained by any means, including electronic recording, as long as a reasonably accurate and complete written transcription of the proceedings can be made.

Presentation of Evidence
While technical rules of evidence do not apply to expulsion hearings, evidence may be admitted and used as proof only if it is the kind of evidence on which reasonable persons can rely in the conduct of serious affairs. A recommendation by the Administrative Panel to expel must be supported by substantial evidence that the student committed an expellable offense. Findings of fact shall be based solely on the evidence at the hearing. While hearsay evidence is admissible, no decision to expel shall be based solely on hearsay. Sworn declarations may be admitted as testimony from witnesses of whom the Board, Panel, or designee determines that disclosure of their identity or testimony at the hearing may subject them to an unreasonable risk of physical or psychological harm.

If, due to a written request by the expelled student, the hearing is held at a public meeting, and the charge is committing or attempting to commit a sexual assault or committing a sexual battery as defined in Education Code Section 48900, a complaining witness shall have the right to have his or her testimony heard in a session closed to the public.

The decision of the Administrative Panel shall be in the form of written findings of fact and a written recommendation to the Board who will make a final determination regarding the expulsion. The final decision by the Board shall be made within ten (10) school days following the conclusion of the hearing. The Decision of the Board is final.

If the Administrative Panel decides not to recommend expulsion, the student shall immediately be returned to his/her educational program.

Written Notice to Expel
The Executive Director and/or the Director of Curriculum and Instruction or an Administrative Panel, following a decision of the Board to expel, shall send written notice of the decision to expel, including the Board's adopted findings of fact, to the student. This notice shall also include the following: (a) Notice of the specific offense committed by the student; and (b) Notice of the student's obligation to inform any new district in which the student seeks to enroll of the student's status with HCCS.

The Executive Director and/or the Director of Curriculum and Instruction or an Administrative Panel, shall send a copy of the written notice of the decision to expel to the authorizer. This notice shall include the following: (a) The student's name; and (b) The specific expellable offense committed by the student.

Disciplinary Records
HCCS shall maintain records of all student suspensions and expulsions at HCCS. Such records shall be made available to the authorizer upon request.

No Right to Appeal
The student shall have no right of appeal from expulsion from HCCS, as the HCCS Board's decision to expel shall be final.

Expelled ~~students~~Students/Alternative Education
HCCS shall ensure that students suspended from HCCS are provided with an appropriate alternative educational program (class work and homework assignments, etc.) during the period of the student's suspension from school. Whenever a student is expelled from HCCS, HCCS shall notify the student and the student in writing of the student's duty to attend the public school district in which the residency of either the parent or legal guardian is located. HCCS shall also notify the public school district in which the residency of either the parent or legal guardian is located whenever a student is expelled from HCCS.

~~10.11:~~ Rehabilitation Plans

Rehabilitation Plans, Criteria, and Expulsion
Students who are expelled from HCCS shall be given a rehabilitation plan upon expulsion as developed by the Board at the time of the expulsion order, which may include, but is not limited to, periodic review as well as assessment at the time of review for readmission. The rehabilitation plan should include a date not later than one year from the date of expulsion when the student may reapply to HCCS for readmission.

Readmission
The decision to readmit a student or to admit a previously expelled student from another school district or charter school shall be in the sole discretion of the Board following a meeting with the Executive Director or designee and the student and guardian or representative to determine whether the student has ~~successfully~~ completed the rehabilitation plan and to determine whether the student poses a threat to others or will be disruptive to the school environment. The Executive Director or designee shall make a recommendation to the Board following the meeting regarding his or her determination. The student's readmission is also contingent upon HCCS capacity at the time the student seeks readmission.

~~Special Procedures for the Consideration of Suspension and Expulsion of Students with Disabilities~~

~~1. Notification of SELPA~~

~~HCCS shall immediately notify the SELPA and coordinate the procedures in this policy with the SELPA of the discipline of any student with a disability or student who HCCS or SELPA would be deemed to have knowledge that the student had a disability.~~

~~2. Services During Suspension~~

~~Students suspended for more than ten (10) school days in a school year shall continue to receive services so as to enable the student to continue to participate in the general education curriculum, although in another setting (which could constitute a change of placement and the student's 504 Plan would reflect this change), and to progress toward meeting the goals set out in the student's IEP/504 Plan; and receive, as appropriate, a functional behavioral assessment or functional analysis, and behavioral intervention services and modifications, that are designed to address the behavior violation so that it does not recur. These services may be provided in an interim alternative educational setting.~~

~~3. Procedural Safeguards/Manifestation Determination~~

~~Within ten (10) school days of a recommendation for expulsion or any decision to change the placement of a student with a disability because of a violation of a code of student conduct, HCCS, the parent/guardian (in the case of a minor), and relevant members of the IEP/504 Team shall review all relevant information in the student's file, including the student's IEP/504 Plan, any teacher observations, and any relevant information provided by the students to determine:~~

~~a. If the conduct in question was caused by, or had a direct and substantial relationship to, the student's disability; or~~
~~b. If the conduct in question was the direct result of the local educational agency's failure to implement the IEP/504 Plan.~~

~~If HCCS, the parent (in the case of a minor), and relevant members of the IEP/504 Team determine that either of the above is applicable for the student, the conduct shall be determined to be a manifestation of the student's disability.~~

~~If HCCS, the parent (in the case of a minor), and relevant members of the IEP/504 Team make the determination that the conduct was a manifestation of the student's disability, the IEP/504 Team shall:~~

~~c. Conduct a functional behavioral assessment or a functional analysis assessment, and implement a behavioral intervention plan for such student, provided that HCCS had not conducted such assessment prior to such determination before the behavior that resulted in a change in placement;~~
~~d. If a behavioral intervention plan has been developed, review the behavioral intervention plan if the student already has such a behavioral intervention plan, and modify it, as necessary, to address the behavior; and~~
~~e. Return the student to the placement from which the student was removed, unless the parent (in the case of a minor) and HCCS agree to a change of placement as part of the modification of the behavioral intervention plan.~~

~~If HCCS, the parent (in the case of a minor), and relevant members of the IEP/504 Team determine that the behavior was not a manifestation of the student's disability and that the conduct in question was not a result of the failure to implement the IEP/504 Plan, then HCCS may apply the relevant disciplinary procedures to students with disabilities in the same manner and for the same duration as the procedures would be applied to students without disabilities.~~

~~4. Due Process Appeals~~

~~The parent of a student with a disability who disagrees with any decision regarding placement, or the manifestation determination, or HCCS believes that maintaining the current placement of the student is substantially likely to result in injury to the student or to others, may request an expedited administrative hearing through the Special Education Unit of the Office of Administrative Hearings or by utilizing the dispute provisions of the 504 Policy and Procedures.~~

When an appeal relating to the placement of the student or the manifestation determination has been requested by either the parent or HCCS, the student shall remain in the interim alternative educational setting pending the decision of the hearing officer or until the expiration of the forty-five (45) day time period provided for in an interim alternative educational setting, whichever occurs first, unless the parent and HCCS agree otherwise.

In accordance with 20 U.S.C. Section 1415(k)(3), if a parent/guardian disagrees with any decision regarding placement, or the manifestation determination, or if the Charter School believes that maintaining the current placement of the student is substantially likely to result in injury to the student or to others, the parent/guardian or Charter School may request a hearing.

In such an appeal, a hearing officer may: (1) return a student with a disability to the placement from which the student was removed; or (2) order a change in placement of a student with a disability to an appropriate interim alternative educational setting for not more than 45 school days if the hearing officer determines that maintaining the current placement of such student is substantially likely to result in injury to the student or to others.

5. Special Circumstances

HCCS personnel may consider any unique circumstances on a case-by-case basis when determining whether to order a change in placement for a student with a disability who violates a code of student conduct.

The Executive Director and/or the Director of Curriculum and Instruction or an Administrative Panel, may remove a student to an interim alternative educational setting for not more than forty-five (45) days without regard to whether the behavior is determined to be a manifestation of the student's disability in cases where a student:

a. Carries or possesses a weapon, as defined in 18 U.S.C. Section 930, to or at school, on school premises, or to or at a school function;
b. Knowingly possesses or uses illegal drugs, or sells or solicits the sale of a controlled substance, while at school, on school premises, or at a school function; or
c. Has inflicted serious bodily injury, as defined by 20 U.S.C. Section 1415(k)(7)(D), upon a person while at school, on school premises, or at a school function.

6. Interim Alternative Educational Setting

The student's interim alternative educational setting shall be determined by the student's IEP/504 Team.

7. Procedures for Students Not Yet Eligible for Special Education Services

~~A student who has not been identified as an individual with disabilities pursuant to IDEIA and who has violated HCCS disciplinary procedures may assert the procedural safeguards granted under this administrative regulation only if HCCS had knowledge that the student was disabled before the behavior occurred.~~

~~HCCS shall be deemed to have knowledge that the student had a disability if one of the following conditions exists:~~

~~a. The parent/guardian has expressed concern in writing, or orally if the parent/guardian does not know how to write or has a disability that prevents a written statement, to HCCS supervisory or administrative personnel, or to one of the student's teachers, that the student is in need of special education or related services.~~
~~b. A parent has requested an evaluation of the student.~~
~~c. The student's teacher, or other HCCS personnel, has expressed specific concerns about a pattern of behavior demonstrated by the student, directly to the director of special education or to other HCCS supervisory personnel.~~

~~If HCCS knew or should have known the student had a disability under any of the three (3) circumstances described above, the student may assert any of the protections available to IDEIA-eligible students with disabilities, including the right to stay put.~~

~~If HCCS had no basis for knowledge of the student's disability, it shall proceed with the proposed discipline. HCCS shall conduct an expedited evaluation if requested by the student; however the student shall remain in the education placement determined by HCCS pending the results of the evaluation.~~

~~HCCS shall not be deemed to have knowledge of that the student had a disability if the parent has not allowed an evaluation, refused services, or if the student has been evaluated and determined to not be eligible.~~

Disputes Arising from within HCCS
It is the intent of Twin Rivers Unified School District (TRUSD) and HCCS that complaints and disputes be resolved quickly and informally in an atmosphere of cooperation whenever possible. If employees are represented by a union, they must first exhaust their internal remedies before filing a grievance.

HCCS procedures will include reasonably expeditious ~~time lines~~timelines and a full opportunity for students who are minors directly affected to express their concerns. Disputes between HCCS and TRUSD HCCS and TRUSD will always attempt to resolve any disputes amicably and reasonably without resorting to formal procedures.

In the event of any dispute between HCCS and TRUSD, excluding revocation of the Charter but including audit exceptions and deficiencies, the complaining party will prepare a written dispute statement, which will be simultaneously submitted to the TRUSD Superintendent or designee and the HCCS Executive Director. The Executive Director and the Superintendent or designee will meet and confer within five (5) business days from the date of receipt of the written dispute statement and attempt to resolve the dispute. In the event that this conference fails to resolve the dispute, each party will identify two members of their respective governing boards who shall meet with the Superintendent or designee and the Executive Director within ten (10) business days and attempt to resolve the dispute. If this joint meeting fails to resolve the dispute, either party will, within five (5) business days following the meeting, submit the matter to the Sacramento County Superintendent of Schools. The parties agree to be bound by the County Superintendent's decision and will indicate as such when submitting the matter to the County Superintendent. If the County Superintendent declines to hear the matter, the parties may agree to submit their dispute to a mutually agreeable, neutral third-party mediator for resolution in accordance with any procedure determined and prescribed by the mediator and agreed to by the parties. Review by the County Superintendent or mediator will be held within forty-five (45) business days of receipt of the initial dispute statement. The cost of the mediator will be equally shared between TRUSD and HCCS. The following procedures shall apply in the event HCCS closes. The following procedures apply regardless of the reason for closure.

Closure of HCCS will be documented by official action of the Board of Directors of HCCS. The action will identify the reason for closure. The official action will also identify an entity and person(s) responsible for closure-related activities. The HCCS Board shall promptly notify (TRUSD), within 10 business days, of the closure and the effective date of the closure. The entity responsible for implementing the closure procedures will be experienced in dissolution and closure of public educational programs and will comply with all legal requirements regarding the confidentiality of student records. The Chair of the Board of Directors will serve as the official contact for purposes of implementing the closure protocol set forth in the Charter and its plan for maintaining and transferring student records, and payment of debts and liabilities, and distribution of remaining assets. Closure initiated by the HCCS Board will not take effect before the end of the normal school year in June unless agreed to in writing by TRUSD.

The HCCS Board of Directors will promptly notify students of HCCS, TRUSD, the Sacramento County Office of Education, the Charter School's SELPA, the retirement systems in which HCCS's employees participate (e.g., Public Employees' Retirement System, State Teachers' Retirement System, and federal social security), and the California Department of Education of the closure as well as the effective date of the closure. This notice will also include the name(s) of and contact information for the person(s) to whom reasonable inquiries may be made regarding the closure; the students' school districts of residence; and the manner in which students may obtain copies of their records, including specific information on completed courses and credits that meet graduation requirements.

The HCCS Board of Directors will ensure timely notification to the students of HCCS of the closure and will provide information to assist students in locating suitable alternative programs. This notice will be provided promptly, within ten (10) business days, following the HCCS Board's decision to close HCCS. HCCS will provide TRUSD with all student contact information promptly following such a decision.

The HCCS Board of Directors will also develop a list of students in each grade level and the classes they have completed, together with information on each student's districts of residence, which the Board will provide to the entity responsible for closure-related activities.

As applicable, HCCS will provide students and TRUSD with copies of all appropriate student records and will otherwise assist students in transferring to their next school. All transfers of student records will be made in compliance with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act ("FERPA") 20 U.S.C. § 1232g. HCCS will store original records of HCCS students in HCCS administrative office until the closure of HCCS. No later than the date of closure, all records will be transferred to TRUSD. If the District will not or cannot store the records, the HCCS will work with the County Office of Education to determine a suitable alternative location for storage.

All state assessment results, special education records, and personnel records will be transferred to and maintained by the entity responsible for closure-related activities in accordance with applicable law.

As soon as it is reasonably practical, HCCS will prepare final financial records. Within six (6) months, following the date of closure, final financial records shall be prepared and an independent audit completed. HCCS will pay for the final audit (Reserve Fund). The audit will be prepared according to standards for public school audits by a qualified Certified Public Accountant experienced in public school audits selected by HCCS and will be provided to TRUSD promptly upon its completion. The final audit will include an accounting of all financial assets, including cash and accounts receivable and an inventory of property, equipment, and other items of material value, an accounting of the liabilities, including accounts payable and any reduction in apportionments as a result of audit findings or other investigations, loans, and unpaid staff compensation, and an assessment of the disposition of any restricted funds received by or due to HCCS.

HCCS will complete and file any annual reports required pursuant to Education Code section 47604.33.

On closure of HCCS, all assets of HCCS, including but not limited to all leaseholds, personal property, intellectual property and all ADA apportionments and other revenues generated by students attending HCCS, remain the sole property of the HCCS and shall be distributed in accordance with the Articles of Incorporation upon the dissolution of the non-profit public benefit corporation to another California public educational entity. Any assets acquired from the TRUSD or TRUSD property will be promptly returned upon HCCS closure to the TRUSD. The distribution shall include return of any grant funds and restricted categorical funds to their source in accordance with the terms of the grant or state and federal law, as appropriate, which may include submission of final expenditure reports for entitlement grants and the filing of any required Final Expenditure Reports and Final Performance Reports, as well as the return of any donated materials and property in accordance with any conditions established when the donation of such materials or property was accepted.

On closure, HCCS shall remain solely responsible for all liabilities arising from the operation of HCCS.

Should Highlands Community Charter Schools dissolve as a nonprofit public benefit corporation, the HCCS Board will follow the procedures set forth in the California Corporations Code for the dissolution of a nonprofit public benefit corporation and file all necessary filings with the appropriate state and federal agencies.

HCCS will utilize the reserve fund to undertake any expenses associated with the closure procedures identified above.

In consideration for the actual costs of supervisorial oversight by the District, the Charter School shall pay an amount not to exceed one percent (1%) of the revenue of the Charter School (hereinafter, the "Oversight Fee") pursuant to Education Code section 47613. "Supervisorial oversight" for purposes of this section shall be limited to those duties listed in Education Code section 47604.32(a)(1) through (5), only. The District may elect to offset and deduct any such fees from the ~~District~~District's in-lieu property tax revenues next payable to the Charter School, in which case the District shall provide the Charter School with a detailed statement showing the amount of any such offset.

HCCS NOV Intent to Revoke 12.02.2025

BUILD HIGHLANDS BACK BETTER

- We appreciate the District staff's willingness to work on a calendar for the material revisions and hearings on the notices of violation for both schools so that you can consider our proposed cures.
- Staff provided helpful feedback on our material revisions, and we worked hard through the Thanksgiving holiday to meet TRUSD expectations.
- Tonight we will be sharing with you how we have cured all violations in the Notice of Intent to Revoke the charter school, and we welcome any questions that you may have.
- This reform effort began with questions raised by the media and subsequently the state auditor and TRUSD.

- We have already:
  - Changed our Board
  - Changed our administrative team
  - Changed more than 100 school policies and procedures
  - Changed our auditor
  - Changed our principal legal counsel
  - Brought in a reputable charter school business/back office firm to validate internal work
  - Laid off teachers with adult education credentials and replaced them
  - Consolidated operations in Sacramento County in fewer locations to allow better oversight by both our team and TRUSD.

BUILD HIGHLANDS BACK BETTER

- Tonight you are going to hear about our ongoing reform efforts.
- All of these efforts are designed not just to save the schools, but also to ensure that academic programs will be better for the students we serve.

Notice of Violation: 23-24 Independent Audit Report

- On May 12, 2025 HCCS provided TRUSD with a first draft of the Eide Bailly audit.
- On October 10, 2025 HCCS provided TRUSD with an updated draft audit.
- On October 26 and October 31, HCCS provided the District the full correspondence record covering the prior two years.
- Two options going forward to fully cure this:
    - Highlands is attempting to reach a settlement with the State relating to the state audit report that would provide Eide Bailly with certainty about the finances of the school by resolving concerns raised in the state audit. If there is a settlement, we hope that the audit report can be further revised to reflect the certainty provided by the settlement.
    - If a settlement cannot be reached by the end of the revocation process, Highlands can submit the draft audit it has received and this would satisfy the requirement to provide an audit. It would then proceed to continue to address concerns raised in the draft audit.

Notice of Violation: Failure to Track and Meet Instructional Minutes

Effective August 14, 2025, HCCS has taken the following actions:

- Implemented a five-period bell schedule, providing 336 minutes per day for regular instruction and 271 minutes on teacher professional development days.
  HCCS offers 184 regular instructional days and 15 teacher PD days
- Moved to a single track for attendance for both AM and PM classes
- Approved the HCCTS Academic Calendar for 25-26 school year which includes 65,889 instructional minutes for both AM and PM bell schedules, exceeding the 64,800 minimum requirement by 1,089
- Reduced class sizes by creating an enrollment cap of 30 students for each class

Notice of Violation: Credential Misassignment

Credential assignments have been corrected, and we will continue verifying placements and adjusting staff as needed to ensure students are taught by properly assigned teachers.

HCCS has partnered with the University of Massachusetts to ensure all teachers obtain the right credentials. Previously the school used adult education credentials to teach the all-adult student body.

- On November 30, 2024, HCCTS terminated the lease with the City of Marysville.
- On January 14, 2025, HCCTS sent TRUSD a letter that outlined the lease termination with Marysville 2 and included the final buyout amount of that lease. In that letter, HCCTS provided evidence that no additional money would be paid to the City of Marysville and that operations had been finalized.
- On January 21, 2025, HCCTS completed a buyout of the lease for $31,579.80.
- On May 9, 2025, HCCTS paid the final utility bill of $1,782.01.

- On November 4, 2025 HCCTS sent TRUSD the Lease Termination Agreement, the final payment to the city of Marysville, and the final utility bill.

Notice of Violation: Fiscal Mismanagement - San Diego

- On November 11, 2024 HCCTS asked a remote worker living in San Diego to vacate the office space where he had been working and he vacated on November 29, 2024.
- On March 27, 2025, HCCTS contracted with Newmark to sublet the space in San Diego.
- On June 3, 2025, HCCTS disconnected the internet and all utilities.
- On October 26, 2025 HCCTS informed TRUSD that the San Diego site was vacated and provided the Newmark sublease contract as evidence of actions taken.
- On November 4, 2025, having no interested parties to sublet, HCCTS requested to terminate the lease agreement for the San Diego location.
- On November 13, 2025, HCCTS signed the lease termination and submitted the final invoice for the San Diego location on November 15, 2025.

2. RECOGNITION Elementary and K-8 Spring Expanded Learning Athletics Program

The Board proudly recognized the accomplishments of the Expanded Learning Spring Athletics Program, as presented by Travis Burke. The season featured flag football, track and cross country, and competitive cheer, with strong participation and continued program growth. Champions were celebrated from Madison, FC Joyce, Northlake, and WPCS Regency, and a highlight video showcased the achievements across all events.

3. RECOGNITION Secondary Spring Sports

The Board recognized the accomplishments of Twin Rivers Unified School District's Secondary Athletics Programs. Micah Simmons presented the spring sports champions and shared a video highlighting secondary athletics. Three middle school teams earned championships in boy's basketball, boy's volleyball, and girl's soccer. At the high school level, twelve teams advanced to postseason play in sports, including boys' volleyball, girls' soccer, softball, swim, track and field, golf, and co-ed tennis. Notable achievements included a co-ed tennis team qualifying for CIF playoffs for the first time, finishing as league champions and placing among the top doubles teams in the section.

Trustee Reichelt inquired whether cheerleading is part of the winter sports season or the spring sports season?

Micah Simmons clarified that, although cheerleading is a sport that lasts all year with most activities during fall and winter, the championship events usually happen in spring, particularly in March.

Trustee Jefferson congratulated all student athletes, sharing pride in their accomplishments and appreciation for the opportunity to offer sports programs. She emphasized that athletics provide a valuable and positive outlet for students.

4. RECOGNITION - Dual Enrollment Graduates

Board Recognition – Dual Enrollment Graduates
The Board proudly recognized the accomplishments of the District's dual enrollment graduates, with a presentation led by Megan Simmons. The Class of 2024 was also represented, including graduates from Highlands, Grant Union, and Rio Linda High Schools. Several students earned both Associate of Arts and Associate of Science degrees, marking a significant academic milestone. The presentation concluded with words of encouragement and appreciation, emphasizing the lasting impact of these students' achievements on the District and its future dual enrollment efforts.

Dr. Martinez unveiled a special tribute honoring the District's dual enrollment graduates, marking the occasion as a moment of inspiration and pride. He emphasized the significance of the students' achievements and expressed a desire to ensure their efforts are remembered and celebrated within Twin Rivers Unified School District. The unveiling featured a permanent display titled Twin Rivers College Scholars, showcasing the names of graduates along with the year they earned both their associate degree and high school diploma. Dr. Martinez shared that this recognition would remain on display as a lasting testament to their dedication and success.

Clark Knudtson, SLP, commented on his concerns about an SLP staffing report, urging the Board to review the information provided regarding staffing challenges.

L. HEARING OF PUBLIC (If Needed)

1. PUBLIC HEARING AND REVIEW - Local Control and Accountability Plan

Before the presentation, Board President Elkarra read a statement noting that, following a review with the Sacramento County Office of Education (SCOE) on June 16, 2025, the LCAP draft was amended to include additional required descriptive elements. He clarified that these revisions did not affect the goals, actions, or planned expenditures outlined in the Local Control and Accountability Plan.

Travis Burke presented an update on the 2024–2027 Local Control and Accountability Plan (LCAP), noting recent amendments made following a review with SCOE to align with updated Education Codes related to the Learning Recovery Emergency Block Grant and Equity Multiplier Fund. These changes involved adding required descriptive elements without altering goals, actions, or funding. He highlighted continued progress across academic achievement, college and career readiness, and school culture, with improvements in student performance metrics and engagement. The District also refined its stakeholder input process, focusing on deeper student feedback and plans to increase parent and staff participation next year.

Trustee Jefferson requested clarification into Mr. Wesley's role.

Marci Bernard clarified that the new Director of School Advancement will initially focus on the MLK pathway but will also support broader efforts to strengthen and expand successful practices across all District pathways. The position is designed to lead Districtwide initiatives aimed at advancing school improvement and student success.

Travis Burke reported increased parent engagement through higher event and training attendance, particularly among underserved and diverse groups, despite a decline in survey participation.

Trustee Jefferson inquired about the types of support offered to parents beyond events, specifically requesting examples of the trainings provided to families within the District.

Travis Burke clarified that the Family and Community Engagement Team offers a variety of parent-focused training programs designed to strengthen school partnerships and student support. One key initiative is a parent cohort series that provides guidance on parenting strategies, school engagement, and college readiness. The District also collaborates with the Roberts Family Development Center to support parents of African American students, focusing on culturally relevant engagement and leadership in school governance. Participants in this group have attended events at Sacramento State and contributed valuable input to the LCAP process. Additional efforts have expanded to include support for newcomer and refugee families, as well as emerging partnerships with the Special Education Department to develop programming for parents of neurodiverse students.

Trustee Vogt commended the increase in parent engagement but expressed concern about the decline in LCAP input. She encouraged leveraging existing events and cohorts to boost participation in the LCAP process and emphasized the importance of aligning engagement efforts with meaningful feedback.

Travis Burke responded in agreement, noting it was a valuable suggestion and acknowledged the potential to engage thousands of families through existing events to strengthen LCAP input.

Travis Burke provided updates on LCAP Goals 4 through 7, highlighting expanded parent engagement efforts, including growth in the Native Education Program and Parent University. He reported continued progress in maintaining safe, clean facilities, with improved safety and connectedness metrics supported by targeted staffing and resources. Academic gains were noted for students with disabilities, supported through professional development, materials, and specialized staff. Under the Equity Multiplier initiative, new sites were added to receive focused support for English learners, with local data showing promising progress in English language arts outcomes.

Trustee Sandoval praised the District for offering English classes to parents, noting their positive impact on student success and expressing appreciation for the visibility and accessibility of the program across schools.

Trustee Jefferson inquired about the two schools that did not qualify for Equity Multiplier funding this year and what factors contributed to the change in their eligibility status.

Travis Burke clarified that these schools did not meet the eligibility threshold for Equity Multiplier funding this year but will continue to receive support under a three-year plan. Future eligibility will be reassessed with updated data in January.

Travis provided updates on LCAP Goals 8 through 10, which focus on expanding English language arts support, improving college and career readiness at alternative sites, and reducing suspension rates. He highlighted continued staffing and intervention efforts at key schools and noted next steps, including final adoption on June 24 and follow-up with SCOE for potential non-material state-level adjustments.

5. PUBLIC HEARING AND REVIEW Special Education Local Plan Area

Before the presentation, Board President Elkarra read a statement noting a revision to the local plan. Specifically, in Section E, on page E-4 of 14, the question regarding whether SELPA's average SLP caseload is 55 was addressed. The correct answer was clarified as “No.”

Marci Bernard provided an overview of the proposed 2025–2026 Special Education Budget and SELPA plans, outlining key sections, required services, and the need for a public hearing. She also noted the inclusion of annual assurances and policy updates as part of the SELPA submission process.

Kate Ingersoll presented the 2025–2026 Special Education budget, highlighting a projected increase in state funding and a total expenditure of $101.5 million. She noted that a significant portion will remain unfunded and covered by the District. The Board will hold a public hearing on the budget and service plans, with final approval scheduled for June 24 and submission to the state by June 30.

President Elkarra called the Public Hearing at 8:42 p.m. for comments regarding the Special Education Local Plan Area.

Clark Knudtson commented on his concerns about items reported in SELPA's SLP caseload figures. He also questioned how part-time staff and preschool assessment-only roles are accounted for in the calculation of average caseloads.

President Elkarra closed the Public Hearing at 8:42 p.m.

6. PUBLIC HEARING and REVIEW 2025-2026 Proposed Adopted Budget

Ryan DiGiulio and Kate Ingersoll presented the 2025–2026 Proposed Budget. Ryan highlighted state economic uncertainties, declining enrollment trends, and the protection of education funding under Proposition 98. He noted a modest increase in special education funding and reductions in discretionary grants, while emphasizing the need for early planning around the 2030 expiration of Proposition 30. Despite statewide challenges, Twin Rivers remains in a growth region, with stable reserves and continued investment in student services. The budget will return to the Board for approval the following week. Kate Ingersoll reported a positive budget outlook for 2025–2026, supported by increased LCFF revenue and ADA growth, including the expansion of Transitional Kindergarten (TK). One-time funds are being used for facilities and staffing, with reserves meeting Board targets. While revenue is projected to increase, some reductions are planned as temporary grants expire. Multi-year projections remain stable, and the District is preparing to sustain key services, including those tied to TK, as one-time funding phases out.

Ryan concluded the budget presentation by emphasizing that despite state and federal economic uncertainties, Twin Rivers is presenting a balanced budget for 2025–2026 and the following two years. He credited sound fiscal stewardship and Board support for enabling the District to maintain stability without issuing layoff notices, unlike many other districts. While caution is warranted due to the use of one-time funds at the state level to cover deficits, the District remains well-positioned and committed to monitoring and adjusting as needed. Ryan noted that final budget adoption is scheduled for next week, with any necessary revisions to follow in August and finalized actuals reported in September. He expressed pride in the District's ability to maintain a wide range of student services under a strong financial plan.

President Elkarra expressed concern about potential federal funding cuts, particularly related to political efforts targeting DEI programs, and asked about the possible impact on the District’s budget.

Ryan stated that the District is monitoring two areas of concern regarding potential federal funding cuts. The first involves restricted programs, such as Title III, which would not affect the unrestricted general fund but could limit specific services tied to those funds. The second concern is the broader impact on state-funded programs like nutrition and Medi-Cal, which could strain the state budget and potentially affect Proposition 98 funding for education. He emphasized the uncertainty at this time and assured the Board that updates will be provided as more information becomes available.

Trustee Vogt inquired about the status of the District's facility plan in light of recent volatility related to the bond. She asked whether contingency measures are in place to address potential challenges and ensure continued progress on planned projects.

Ryan DiGiulio reported that the District is actively using Measure J and K Series A funds, with project updates available in the upcoming Board communication and on the CBOC webpage. He confirmed that contingency planning is in place, with bond sales for Series B expected this summer, pending market conditions, and noted a small remaining portion of Measure G funds.

Trustee Reichelt asked for clarification on the meaning of "interfund transfers out" within the budget.

Ryan Digiulio explained that "interfund transfers out" refers to moving money from the general fund to other restricted-purpose funds outside of it, such as those highlighted earlier in the presentation.

Dr. Martinez thanked Ryan, Kate, and their teams for a comprehensive budget presentation and acknowledged their efforts in navigating complex financial conditions. He noted that while the budget is stable, several external factors, such as the lingering effects of wildfires, tariff impacts, and fluctuating consumer activity, create economic uncertainty at the state and national levels. Dr. Martinez emphasized the importance of continued monitoring and expressed confidence that the District will be able to make necessary adjustments as economic trends become clearer in the coming months.

President Elkarra called the Public Hearing at 9:13 p.m. for the 2025-2026 Proposed Adopted Budget.

There were no public comments.

Ryan DiGiulio and legal counsel Bill Schuetz presented the findings leading to the issuance of a Notice of Violation for the California Innovative Career Academy (CICA), clarifying that this action represents the first step in the charter revocation process and does not constitute immediate revocation. The notice outlines multiple violations, including material changes to grade levels and school sites without prior approval, outstanding audit documentation, credential misassignments, failure to provide instructional minutes and days for the 2024–2025 school year, and breach of an exclusive partnership agreement by allowing non-students into a CTE program. Additionally, fiscal mismanagement concerns were raised regarding high-value administrative expenditures. The charter has until September 26 to respond and remedy these violations. The Board was advised that, while CICA has previously responded to District communications, the severity and persistence of these issues warrant formal action at this stage. Approval of the Notice of Violation was recommended.

Trustee Sandoval requested clarification on whether issuing the Notice of Violation is the initial step in the charter revocation process.

Bill Schuetz clarified that issuing a Notice of Violation is the first formal step in the revocation process, triggered by unresolved issues. He emphasized that it does not revoke the charter and that the school will have time to remedy the violations before further Board action is considered.

Trustee Jefferson asked whether the District was responsible for overseeing the areas cited in the charter school's violations.

Ryan DiGiulio explained that the charter school is responsible for meeting legal and charter requirements, while the District provides oversight and issues a Notice of Violation if those responsibilities are not met.

Trustee Vogt asked legal counsel whether, if new violations arise after the Notice of Violation is issued, the District must wait for the current remedy period to expire before issuing a new notice or taking further action in the revocation process.

Bill Schuetz confirmed that additional Notices of Violation can be issued if new issues arise, and they may proceed concurrently without waiting for the current remedy period to end.

Bill McGuire, Executive Director of Highlands Community Charter and Technical Schools, commented and thanked the Board for the opportunity to speak and acknowledged the challenges of the state audit process, which both Twin Rivers and Highlands have undergone. He expressed appreciation for the District's oversight team and affirmed Highlands' commitment to correcting identified issues. Mr. McGuire emphasized the school's ongoing partnership with Twin Rivers, highlighted the large population of immigrant adults they serve, many of whom are parents of TRUSD students, and shared that leadership will soon transition to Jonathan Raymond. He concluded by reaffirming their dedication to transparency, improvement, and maintaining a strong relationship with the district.

3. PRESENT and APPROVE the Issuance of Notice of Violation to Highlands Community Charter School

Ryan DiGiulio and Bill Schuetz presented a new Notice of Violation for Highlands Community Charter School (HCCS), citing multiple compliance issues similar to those identified with CICA, including unapproved grade level and site changes, missing audit reports, credential misassignments, lack of instructional minutes, and a breach of partnership agreements. An additional violation unique to HCCS involved the use of a non-instructional site at a baseball field, where the school contributed $25,000 for upgrades and remains obligated under a lease through 2026. The charter has until September 26, 2025, to remedy the violations, and staff recommended approval of the notice.

Trustee Baker asked whether a job posting had been issued.

Dr. Martinez explained that Ms. Bernard has been serving in the role for over 14 months, and this action reflects her official appointment. He stated that, as Superintendent, he has the authority to appoint individuals to a position without the need for a job posting.

Trustee Baker commended Ms. Bernard's performance but opposed the appointment, stating the position should have been open for internal candidates to apply.

Trustee Vogt supported the appointment, emphasizing respect for Ms. Bernard's ongoing work and stating that any interest in opening the position should have been raised earlier.

Trustee Bastian expressed appreciation for Ms. Bernard's dedication and hard work, congratulating her on the appointment and sharing enthusiasm for her continued leadership.

5. PRESENT AND APPROVE 2025-2026 Twin Rivers Unified School District Board Meeting Schedule

President Elkarra reported that the Board Calendar Committee, consisting of himself, Trustee Bastian, and Trustee Reichelt, met to review scheduling options for the upcoming year. After discussing three initial proposals and evaluating the timing and volume of agenda items throughout the year, the committee unanimously recommended two calendar options. Option 1 includes one meeting per month, with two meetings in June; Option 2 includes two meetings in both January and June, with a minor date adjustment in February to better space meetings. The committee also reviewed key action items aligned with each meeting and requested additional information from Dr. Martinez regarding public comment procedures and other considerations.

Dr. Martinez provided follow-up information requested by the Board Calendar Committee regarding public participation and access. He shared that the District averages about four public comment cards per meeting, with occasional spikes depending on agenda topics, such as the January 14, 2025, meeting, which saw 14 comments related to charter renewal and negotiations. Additionally, there were five Special Board meetings held during the year, each convened for specific purposes, including Board appointments, governance training, personnel contracts, and facilities projects. Dr. Martinez also addressed community access points beyond Board meetings, noting that families and stakeholders regularly engage through school sites, District departments, direct outreach to the Superintendent and Board members, and weekly communications via email, Parent Connect, and social media. These channels help resolve many concerns before they reach the Board level and support transparency and accessibility throughout the District.

President Elkarra noted that one of the concerns discussed during the Committee meeting was the limited time allocated for District employee organizations to speak during Board meetings, particularly when meetings occur only once a month. He shared that a revised policy is being developed to address this issue, and a proposal to increase the allotted time for employee organization comments at regular meetings will be brought to the Board for a vote.

Dr. Martinez confirmed that the current policy allows two minutes per public comment and explained that the proposed revision would formally allocate four minutes specifically for employee associations during regular Board meetings.

Trustee Reichelt noted a discrepancy between draft versions of the proposed Board meeting calendar, pointing out that Draft 2 listed February 17th, while the current version still reflects February 24th.

Dr. Martinez confirmed that February 17th would work for the District and thanked Trustee Reichelt for identifying the discrepancy. He requested that the meeting date be updated in the minutes for both Option 1 and Option 2 of the proposed calendar.

Trustee Vogt raised concerns about the decision-making process used by the Board Calendar Committee, questioning the elimination of a third meeting schedule option without broader input from other Board members or stakeholders. She emphasized that while committees are representative, they should not make final decisions independently. Trustee Vogt also referenced prior discussions regarding the costs associated with holding additional Board meetings, such as staff time, utilities, and other resources, and requested a clear breakdown of those expenses, along with information on how any related savings have been utilized.

Dr. Martinez clarified that if the District were to increase the number of Board meetings to two per month on a regular basis, it would likely require hiring additional personnel within the Superintendent's Office to manage the increased workload.

Trustee Bastian summarized the Board Calendar Committee's collaborative process, highlighting community feedback favoring informal engagement over formal meetings, discussion of staffing needs if meeting frequency increases, the potential policy revision to allow more time for labor partners, and a review of public and virtual comment data. The committee also considered workload patterns using the Governance Calendar and proposed using placeholder dates for potential second meetings when needed.

Trustee Vogt raised concerns about the lack of broader stakeholder input and emphasized the need for increased transparency and oversight. She questioned the omission of a compromise meeting option and the absence of a clearly defined placeholder ("ghost") meeting in the proposed calendar.

Superintendent Martinez clarified that the intent of the placeholder or "ghost" meeting discussed in the committee meeting was not to bring it forward as an official meeting for Board approval. Instead, it was intended as a flexible, informal planning tool rather than a formally scheduled meeting, as official approval would require the meeting to take place.

Trustee Baker expressed concern about the composition of the Board Calendar Committee, noting that while community input was gathered, Trustees Sandoval, Jefferson, and Vogt were not included. He felt this resulted in a lack of representation from a portion of the District in the committee's discussions and recommendations.

Trustee Reichelt affirmed her support for the two proposed calendar options, explaining that the committee had meaningful discussion on meeting efficiency, public comment data, and scheduling needs. She noted the committee was not presented with the third option mentioned by others and clarified that placeholder meeting dates were discussed as internal planning tools, not formal approvals.

Trustee Vogt reiterated concerns about the lack of broad stakeholder input in the calendar committee process, questioning whether labor partners or Trustees representing other areas, such as Trustees Sandoval, Jefferson, or Baker, were consulted. She emphasized that limited meeting frequency can delay important decisions and expressed that stakeholder expectations for increased transparency and responsiveness may not have been fully considered in the committee's recommendations.

Trustee Reichelt explained that her understanding of stakeholder input was based on reviewing past attendance data at Board meetings, particularly during a typical, non-negotiation year. She noted that most meetings averaged between five and eight public comment cards, which she felt provided sufficient opportunity for community input. However, she acknowledged Trustee Vogt's point, agreeing that holding more frequent meetings might encourage greater public participation.

Trustee Vogt emphasized that having more meetings increases accessibility, allowing stakeholders more opportunities to participate if they cannot attend a single scheduled meeting.

Trustee Reichelt noted that many concerns are addressed through direct communication with Trustees, which was considered when evaluating the need for additional meetings.

Trustee Jefferson voiced opposition to the proposed calendar options, stating she felt excluded from the process and that her request for two monthly meetings was not considered. She emphasized the importance of stakeholder access and expressed concern that the current schedule limits public participation.

Trustee Bastian emphasized that the Committee thoroughly reviewed data and community input, supporting the recommended calendar options as a balanced and collaborative outcome.

Trustee Vogt highlighted that a single monthly meeting may limit community participation due to scheduling conflicts and emphasized the need for more opportunities for stakeholder input.

Trustee Bastian encouraged stakeholders to contact Trustees directly, noting she is readily available and responsive outside of Board meetings.

President Elkarra noted that Board members forward community concerns to the Superintendent promptly, ensuring timely resolution through established communication protocols.

Trustee Vogt clarified that Board business is not conducted through text messages.

President Elkarra noted that concerns are sent to the Superintendent and are typically resolved before reaching Board meetings, supporting the committee's data-informed approach.

Trustee Baker asked if the District tracks how many people watch Board meetings on YouTube.

Trustee Vogt stated that limited access to participation is an equity concern for her.

Trustee Baker suggested reconvening the Committee with expanded representation to gather additional stakeholder input, particularly from underrepresented areas of the district.

President Elkarra announced that the Calendar Committee will be reconvened with updated membership to ensure broader representation. The revised Committee will include President Elkarra, Trustee Bastian, and Trustee Vogt.

President Elkarra encouraged trustees to gather input from their communities before the upcoming vote on the meeting calendar.

Superintendent Martinez acknowledged the Board's feedback and stated he will bring back a revised calendar with two Board meetings per month, along with a more comprehensive hybrid option for consideration.

Trustee Bastian noted that if the District moves to two meetings per month, it will be important to assess the cost implications, including the potential need for additional staff support.

Trustee Vogt supported reviewing staffing needs to accommodate two monthly meetings, recognizing the increased workload.

Superintendent Martinez invited Board members to submit any additional data requests as soon as possible, noting the short turnaround due to the upcoming Juneteenth holiday.

Board members requested information on meeting lengths during months with one versus two meetings, as well as previously provided data from periods when two monthly meetings were regularly held.

6. SCHEDULE Annual Organizational Meeting of the Twin Rivers Board of Trustees

This item was moved to the June 24, 2025, Board meeting pending approval of the Twin Rivers Unified School District Board Meeting Schedule.

Trustee Sandoval requested that a professional Parliamentarian preside over the upcoming organizational meeting. She formally motioned for this arrangement to be implemented.

Dr. Martinez explained that a Board roll call vote is not required for the motion and that a simple majority of four votes is sufficient for approval. He confirmed that the threshold was met and stated he would look into the request.

7. FIRST READING - Revised Board Policies

Board polices were presented for first reading and will be brought back for approval at the next meeting.

N. BOARD/SUPERINTENDENT COMMUNICATION

Trustee Sandoval requested that an item be agendized for the next Board meeting to consider the removal of Trustee Baker as the Board's representative to the California School Boards Association (CSBA). She clarified that the item is intended for a vote, not discussion.

Trustee Baker clarified that he holds an elected CSBA regional position, not one appointed by the Board, and noted the District no longer qualifies for an automatic seat.

O. BOARD COMMENTS

Trustee Sandoval shared highlights from recent school events, including promotions at Smythe Middle School, Morey Avenue, Smythe Elementary, and Fairbanks. She praised strong parent participation and noted a group of Smythe students traveling to a robotics convention, where they are also learning life skills like travel preparation and safety. She commended the District's new initiative to provide potty training for transitional kindergarten (TK) students, calling it forward-thinking. She also celebrated three former Smythe Elementary students receiving $1,000 scholarships and shared an inspiring encounter with a Fairbanks 6th grader aspiring to become an attorney, who was already aware of Twin Rivers' dual enrollment opportunities. Trustee Sandoval expressed pride in the District's students and the quality of this year's promotion events.

Trustee Bastian reflected on a busy and meaningful end-of-year season, attending multiple kindergarten promotions, middle school ceremonies, and high school graduations. She expressed gratitude for being part of students' journeys and praised the District for its impact on the community. She shared a personal moment overhearing a parent praise Twin Rivers while at the dentist's office, highlighting the District's positive influence. Trustee Bastian thanked staff for making graduation events special and expressed appreciation for the birthday wishes she received, noting her pride in spending her birthday with the Twin Rivers community.

Trustee Reichelt shared highlights from a busy few weeks attending open houses and promotions at various schools, including Hillsdale, Ridgepoint, Frontier, Foothill Oaks, Miles P. Richmond, and Allison. She expressed joy in seeing students' hard work and the pride of families during these events. She also attended high school graduations at CCAA, Highlands, and Foothill, as well as the adult education graduation at Miles P. Richmond, and several 8th grade promotions. Trustee Reichelt recounted a special moment where a local community member provided a $20,000 scholarship to a Highlands High student of color. Additionally, she attended the Madison Dual Language end-of-year presentation, where students delivered speeches in their second language about impactful global figures. She expressed pride in the students and appreciation for the District's efforts.

Trustee Vogt congratulated all graduates and shared her appreciation for attending various promotion and graduation ceremonies across grade levels. She acknowledged the excitement and support shown by students, families, and staff. Trustee Vogt also took a moment to recognize retiree Lisa Liss for her significant contributions to the District, including founding Project Dream, which positively impacted thousands of students through initiatives such as the shoe giveaway, the Band-Aid Project, and student trips. She praised Ms. Liss's lasting influence and dedication. Additionally, Trustee Vogt expressed gratitude to staff currently supporting summer programs and site operations, acknowledging their continued efforts to meet student needs.

Trustee Baker shared that he attended several graduation ceremonies, including those at Foothill, Highlands, Rio Linda, CCAA, and Pacific, and thanked District staff for their support in making the events successful. He and Trustee Vogt also attended the Madison Dual Language presentations and praised the student work. Trustee Baker reported on his attendance with Trustee Jefferson at the California School Boards Association (CSBA) Delegate Assembly in Sacramento. He thanked Trustee Vogt on behalf of the assembly for participating in recent advocacy efforts in Washington, D.C. He noted CSBA's support for several legislative items, including AB 1381 (educational workforce housing loans), AB 1021 (streamlining workforce housing), and AB 1224 (extending long-term substitute authorization). He also reminded Trustees about opportunities for student performers at the upcoming CSBA conference in Sacramento.

Trustee Jefferson shared highlights from several graduations, with a special focus on Grant High School's ceremony, which featured a new seating configuration and concluded with a drone show. She praised the layout of the students in the bleachers and parents on the field, and expressed appreciation for the display of elementary school flags representing Grant's feeder schools. She also attended the FC Joyce promotion, where staff honored their late principal with a butterfly release, commemorative student cords, and plans to plant memorial trees. Trustee Jefferson thanked all staff involved in organizing the graduation events.

Trustee Reichelt added that she and Trustee Baker attended the Foothill pool opening, which had previously been a topic of controversy. She noted that the event was successful, with students enjoying themselves and the pool operating well.

President Elkarra shared that he would save his full remarks for the next meeting but expressed appreciation for attending several graduations alongside fellow Board members, highlighting Northlake's first 8th grade graduation as a small yet meaningful and historic event. He thanked everyone involved.

Superintendent Martinez expressed his appreciation to staff for staying late and supporting the meeting, especially with over 75 facilities projects currently in progress across school sites. He acknowledged that the evening included some passionate conversations and differing opinions, which are a natural part of working together as a governing team. He encouraged the Board to embrace respectful dialogue, reminding everyone that it's okay to disagree and that they'll move forward together with continued collaboration and shared purpose.

Board President Jefferson emphasized the importance of acting based on duty and compliance rather than emotion when trust or governance is in question. She acknowledged the efforts of Highlands and Twin Rivers staff to address issues and commended their ongoing work. She reaffirmed that the Board's responsibility is to ensure all schools under the Twin Rivers umbrella, whether district or charter, operate as responsible stewards of public resources and remain committed to equitable, lawful, and high-quality education. However, she noted that violations still exist.

Trustee Baker commented that Highlands Community Charter had been issued several violations and remains out of compliance. The school will be given additional time to correct these violations or provide demonstrative evidence of progress toward compliance. He noted that the process allows multiple opportunities for Highlands to address the issues through detailed plans and documented steps toward resolution.

Trustee Vogt sought clarification on Highlands Community Charter operations at sites and the use of WIOA funds. She emphasized the importance of maintaining a structured oversight process for Highlands, and stated her priorities are clear, to make sure every school is in compliance with the law, and using public dollars responsibly.

Jonathan Raymond, Executive Director of Highlands Community Charters and Technical Schools, acknowledged past leadership mistakes but emphasized ongoing improvements at Highlands. He urged the Board to consider what is in the best interest of students.

Kim Gibson, Highlands alumnus, shared her personal story of how she earned her diploma at Highlands. She urged the Board to allow Highlands to continue operating, and emphasized the importance of adult learners seeking a second chance.

Jazmine Aduawa, representing the Sacramento Asian Pacific Chamber of Commerce, urged the District to allow Highlands to continue operating with clear milestones and regular progress overviews, so their transformation can be fully realized.

Metwali Amir, Professor Emeritus at California State University, Sacramento, asked the Board to give Highlands a chance to continue its progress.

Valerii Romanenko, a Seta student, shared his experience after immigrating to the U.S. one year ago. He stated the school offers adult learners opportunities to earn diplomas, pursue college, and support their families. He urged support for the school as it transforms lives and strengthens the community.

Sky Fuller, teacher, described how engaged parents help improve student achievement and community connection. She urged the Board to continue supporting these educational partnerships that foster lifelong learning and success.

Ahmad Sharifi, a student, urged continued support for Highlands and its positive impact on students and the community.

Jonathan Leggett, teacher, asked the District to support Highlands and keep the promise of self-improvement, the promise of opportunity, and the promise of a second chance alive in the community.

Dr. Teresa Cummings, Chief Operating Officer for Highlands, expressed concerns with the current timeline and requested that the Board either delay the vote or move up consideration of the material revisions to allow Highlands to demonstrate compliance and continue serving students and families.

Dean Bodholdt, teacher, highlighted that Highlands is more than a school. It is a community where adult learners rebuild their futures through equity, care, and opportunity.

Patrick Kennedy, Sacramento County Supervisor in District 2, emphasized Highlands Charter School's vital role in serving refugees, English learners, and jobseekers through community partnerships and workforce programs. He acknowledged past issues but urged the Board to consider recent improvements and give the school more time to continue supporting vulnerable students and families.

M. BOARD/SUPERINTENDENT COMMUNICATION

N. BOARD COMMENTS

Trustee Baker shared that it's been a difficult week for the Twin Rivers community following the loss of three respected individuals. Grounds Supervisor Paul Torgerson, passed away earlier in the week, followed by the passing of dedicated District parent and community advocate Robin Broussard, who was actively involved in efforts to keep Sierra View open. Most recently, the District learned of the passing of Amy Findlay, Vice President of the Foothill Farms Neighborhood Association, paraeducator at Foothill Oaks Elementary, and long-time community member and leader. He requested that the meeting close in memory of Paul Torgerson, Robin Broussard, and Amy Findlay.

Trustee Reichelt reported she attended several school and district events, including an after-school talent show at Foothill Oaks where students enthusiastically showcased their talents, primarily through dance, for their peers and families. She also attended the Harvest Festival at Woodridge, which saw strong family participation and community engagement. Additionally, she visited the Career Technical Education Fair, noting the enthusiasm of high school students presenting programs to future freshmen and the excitement of eighth graders exploring opportunities available in high school.

Trustee Bastian expressed heartfelt condolences to the families of Amy Findlay, Robin Broussard, and Paul Torgerson, recognizing their dedication and lasting impact on the Twin Rivers community. She also shared personal gratitude to colleagues, staff, and community members for their support following an accident involving her son, thanking everyone for their prayers, visits, and compassion during this difficult time. She shared that she attended several District trunk-or-treat and harvest festival events, commending staff and administrators for creating joyful experiences for students. Additionally, she expressed community concerns about hexavalent chromium in the water within the Walerga–Elverta area and thanked District staff for collaborating with the local water district to find solutions. She concluded with a message of gratitude and a reminder to appreciate one another and every moment shared.

Trustee Vogt expressed condolences for the recent losses within the District and thanked staff for supporting colleagues and families during this difficult time. Appreciation was given to employees who work behind the scenes to keep school operations running smoothly and to those who provide ongoing care and resources to families in need. She commended Nutrition Services and leadership for ensuring families continue to receive support during school breaks.

Trustee Sandoval acknowledged the District's response to the recent SNAP benefits cut by providing food support to affected families, noting community appreciation for these efforts. She also emphasized the ongoing collaboration to address District issues and highlighted a recent partnership with the Aztec dance community to support Dia de los Muertos ceremonies at Rio Linda High School. These efforts not only involve students in creating floral arrangements but also teach respect and cultural traditions, ensuring the continuation of important community practices.

President Christine Jefferson reflected on a busy October, attending numerous Trunk or Treat events and harvest festivals across the District, including Kohler, Babcock, Castori, and Village, where large numbers of families, including those from low-income backgrounds, participated. She shared that the "Mystery Machine," affectionately called the Happiness Van, brought joy to attendees and documented some moments on her social media. She confirmed that the Board meeting closed in memory of Robin Broussard, Amy Findlay, and Paul Torgerson.

G. HEARING OF PUBLIC (If Needed)

1. PUBLIC HEARING for the Material Revision of the Highlands Community Charter School's Charter of Highlands Community Charter and Technical Schools

Ryan DiGiulio explained the process for the material revision requests and noted that the Board would not take action at this meeting. He reported that Highlands submitted a material revision request on October 10th to address charter violations for serving unauthorized grade levels and operating at unauthorized locations. HCCS proposed to serve grades 9 through 12 and reduce operations to 14 sites. Representatives from HCCS presented on the proposed changes. Board action is anticipated for the January 13, 2026 regular board meeting.

President Jefferson called the Public Hearing at 6:00 p.m.

Jonathan Raymond, Executive Director, presented a material revision request for Highlands Community Charter Schools (HCCS), seeking approval to operate at 17 locations throughout Sacramento County, consisting of 14 student-serving sites and 3 administrative support locations. He requested approval to remove grades 1 and 2 and add grades 9, 10, and 11 to better meet student needs as requested by TRUSD, restructuring the current credit-based system (grades 9, 10, and 12) into four distinct grade levels with grade 11 serving students with 101-149 credits. Mr. Jonathan explained that implementation would include creating grade 11 in PowerSchool, modifying the master schedule, contracting with Charter Impact for transition support, and implementing CAASPP testing for grade 11 students, while if the revision is not approved, HCCS would implement alternative actions by Spring 2026 including moving current grades 9 and 10 students to grade 12 and creating grades 1 and 2. He highlighted new program offerings including Digital Literacy, Personal Finance, Real Estate, Microsoft Certifications, Culinary, Medical Services, and Early Childhood Education, and reported that HCCS has updated credential qualifications to implement single-subject credentials rather than adult credentials and has implemented curriculum and assessment improvements as recommended by TRUSD, including CAST and CAASPP testing, SAVVAS curriculum aligned to Common Core State Standards, Professional Learning Communities, and 15 days of professional development for academic staff throughout the school year.

Trustee Vogt announced that one public comment.

Laura Kerr, representing the Charter School Development Center, spoke in support of Highlands Community Charter Schools, providing support of Executive Director Jonathan Raymond and his team based on her previous collaborative work with them at Sacramento City Unified. Ms. Kerr urged the Board to approve the material revision and deny the revocation.

President Jefferson closed the Public Hearing at 7:27 p.m.

2. PUBLIC HEARING for the Material Revision of the California Innovative Career Academy's Charter of Highlands Community Charter and Technical Schools

President Jefferson called the Public Hearing at 7:29 p.m.

Melissa Robertson, Director of Accountability and Assessment presented a material revision request for California Innovative Career Academy (CICA), seeking approval to operate at 17 locations throughout Sacramento County consisting of 14 student-serving sites and 3 administrative support locations. Ms. Robertson requested approval to add grade 11 to the current structure of grades 9, 10, and 12, creating four distinct grade levels based on credit accumulation (grade 9: 0-50 credits, grade 10: 51-100 credits, grade 11: 101-149 credits, grade 12: 150-180 credits), with implementation including creating grade 11 in PowerSchool, modifying the master schedule, contracting with Charter Impact for transition support, and implementing CAASPP testing for grade 11 students. She stated that if the material revision is not approved, CICA will conform to the existing charter and MOU sites by Spring 2026 and continue offering grades 9, 10, and 12. Ms. Robertson highlighted new program offerings including Digital Literacy and Multimedia, Medical Services, Microsoft Office Specialist Certification, Personal Finance, Real Estate, Culinary Arts, and Early Childhood Education, and reported that CICA has updated credential qualifications to utilize K-12 credentials rather than adult credentials and has implemented CAST and CAASPP testing, SAVA's curriculum aligned to Common Core State Standards, Professional Learning Communities, and 15 days of professional development for academic staff.

There were no public comments.

President Jefferson closed the Public Hearing at 7:39 p.m.

Ms. Robertson addressed each violation, reporting that HCCTS Board approved a material revision on September 18, 2025, to modify grade levels and consolidate sites (submitted to TRUSD September 26, 2025), with lease agreements provided November 20, 2025; submitted drafts of the 2023-24 Eide Bailly audit on May 12 and October 10, 2025, with full correspondence provided October 26 and 31, 2025, and outlined settlement options to resolve state audit concerns; implemented a five-period bell schedule effective August 14, 2025, providing 65,889 instructional minutes exceeding the 64,800 minimum requirement by 1,089 minutes, with reduced class sizes capped at 30 students; corrected credential assignments and partnered with University of Massachusetts to ensure proper teacher credentials; discontinued truck driving program partnerships on January 14, 2025, with all related employees laid off June 30, 2025, and program not reopened for 2025-26 school year; terminated the Marysville lease on November 30, 2024, with final buyout of $31,579.80 completed January 21, 2025, resulting in $88,316 savings; and terminated the San Diego lease with final documentation provided to TRUSD November 18, 2025.

Ms. Cummins reported that CICA is currently serving students in grades 9, 10, and 12, and is proposing to add grade 11 as reflected in the material revision submitted to TRUSD on September 26, 2025, which would restructure the credit-based system into four distinct grade levels, and if not approved, CICA will continue offering grades 9, 10, and 12. She stated that CICA prepared a material revision on September 18, 2025, listing all student sites reflecting operations only in Sacramento County at fewer sites due to declining enrollment, submitted to TRUSD September 26, 2025, and if not approved, CICA will operate at locations outlined in MOU Amendment No. 3 executed January 23, 2024. Ms. Cummins reported that CICA provided drafts of the 2023-24 audit on May 12 and October 10, 2025, with full correspondence provided October 31, 2025; created an assigned work record form and process for independent study where credentialed teachers verify student work and assign time values, with evidence including SAVVAS pacing guides, training materials, and Master Agreement trainings in multiple languages submitted September 26, 2025; resolved credential assignments with verification built into staffing work; discontinued truck driving program partnerships on January 14, 2025, with all related employees laid off June 30, 2025, and program not reopened for 2025-26 school year; and terminated the San Diego lease with final documentation provided to TRUSD November 18, 2025.

Ryan DiGiulio and William Schuetz, presented staff findings and recommendations regarding the revocation of the charter of California Innovative Career Academy (CICA), outlining the revocation process, which included the previous staff findings which determined CICA remedied one violation, but failed to refute or remedy to the District's satisfaction all of the violations identified in the Notice of Violation. The District's charter oversight responsibilities were reviewed and included a requirement to visit each site annually, monitoring compliance with required reports, monitoring the fiscal condition, and determining if any conditions for revocation exist. The grounds for revocation state that the District must find, through a showing of substantial evidence, that the charter school committed a violation of the charter or of law, failed to meet or pursue pupil outcomes, or failed to meet generally accepted accounting principles or engage in fiscal mismanagement. While staff findings presented to the Board during the November meeting determined that CICA failed to remedy or refute all violations to the District's satisfaction, this presentation provided an update based on a review of additional information submitted by the charter after the conclusion of the remedy period, between October 1, 2025 and January 9, 2026. This review found that CICA has successfully refuted or remedied all violations; providing evidence that grade levels were approved in the original petition, submitting plans to return to authorized locations, submitting the overdue audit report with plans to change audit firms, improving credentialing practices, the implementation of attendance compliance monitoring systems, terminating external partnerships and the CTE Truck Driving program, and adopting or revising board policies to address fiscal mismanagement. District staff recommended that the Board decline to revoke the charter.

Trustee Elkarra inquired about the renewal for CICA and Highlands Community Charter school.

Ryan clarified that, their period ends at the end of June 2027, so the process will begin months before then, typically starting in the fall.

Trustee Elkarra inquired whether negotiations regarding the Settlement had already begun.

Ryan clarified that, they have had ongoing conversations with EAP, and they are awaiting the final process.

Trustee Elkarra, further inquired on the potential exposure liability to the District.

Ryan clarified that, based on the legal oversight provided, the District should not have exposure, though there could be potential liability if certain findings are made and the issue is not remedied.

Trustee Vogt inquired whether the material revisions presented on January 13th were the full extent of the information provided to the Board.

Ryan clarified that the material revisions addressed only the first two notices of violation and were proposed as a remedy, but since the Board did not approve them, they reverted to the prior charter to achieve compliance.

Trustee Vogt clarified that they were given a presentation on attendance minutes and policies to address the attendance issues identified by staff. She also inquired whether anything additional has been presented since then.

Ryan clarified that it's an ongoing obligation and that their plan has not been amended.

Sharilyn Warta, further clarified that for CICA, additional documentation and site visits demonstrated that attendance improvement plans were in place and being implemented, and based on this evidence, staff concluded that the issues had been remedied.

Jonathan Raymond, Executive Director for Highlands Charter Community and Technical Schools, acknowledged the challenges of the past two years. He expressed appreciation for the Board of Trustees, Superintendent Martinez, and staff, highlighting the positive outcome of building an open, collaborative partnership with the District. He emphasized his commitment to running the organization with the highest standards of integrity while serving the community.

Teresa Cummings Chief Operating Officer thanked the Board, Superintendent Martinez, and Twin Rivers staff for their collaboration, professionalism, and thorough review of CICA's operations. She updated that CICA is now operating in the facilities outlined in MOU Amendment Number 3, and provided all required documentation for instructional minutes and independent study programs. She respectfully requested the Board to approve a final decision declining to revoke CICA's charter, emphasizing that past issues have been addressed sustainably. She highlighted their commitment to providing high-quality, integrity-driven education and second-chance opportunities for students.

Trustee Vogt inquired whether there is a standard for the program regarding online assignments and instructional minutes.

Eric Chapman, Chief Academic Officer, clarified that, instructional minutes are now standards-aligned, carefully vetted to meet six hours daily, and supported by teacher planning, PLCs, and professional development, ensuring program-wide consistency across all instructors.

Trustee Vogt inquired if there is a standard that assign a value consistently and what is that standard.

Eric Chapman clarified that yes, there is a standard: instructional time is aligned with curriculum and standards.

Trustee Elkarra inquired if the negotiations regarding the settlement has begun.

Eric Chapman, clarified that they did submit an offer to the Controller's Office and the Department of Finance, who have responded and requested further evidence.

Rebecca Wu shared an online comment expressing support for keeping Highlands Community Charter and Technical Schools open but that the school must demonstrate transparency and accountability before it can continue operating.

Teresa Hernandez, student from Highlands Community Charter and Technical Schools, expresses her concerns over the potential closure of the school. She emphasizes the school's positive impact on her life.

Dolly Hunt, a former student of Highlands Community Charter and Technical Schools, describes how the school transformed her life.

Arthur Sargsyan an alumnus, and former employee of Highlands Community Charter and Technical Schools, emphasizes the transformative impact the school had on his life and family, providing him with education, support, and a sense of community.

Kathy Chao Rothberg, representing Lao Family Community Development Corporation highlights Highlands Community Charter and Technical Schools as a unique and valuable school, praising its long-term support for immigrant and refugee families in the region.

Svitlana Tafko, a community representative, praises Highlands for supporting her and her family by recognizing foreign diplomas and providing essential classes, enabling her to graduate and secure employment.

Sam Chaisiri, a four-year teacher at Highlands Community Charter and Technical Schools, encourage the Board to reconsider revoking the school's charter, emphasizing the profound impact Highlands has on students' lives.

Dr. Martinez, Superintendent clarified that a "yes" vote means the revocation would stop and Highlands would continue operating, while a "no" vote would approve revocation and end the school's charter.

Trustee Elkarra inquired on how the revocation would affect the ongoing settlement negotiations, noting that responses are expected in the coming weeks.

William Shuetz clarified that the vote tonight is limited to whether the charter adequately addressed the identified violations, and does not cover other concerns outside the Board's scope. Regardless of the outcome, the District will continue its oversight to ensure the school remains accountable and compliant.

2. PRESENT AND APPROVE Issuance of a Final Decision Declining to Revoke the Charter of Highlands Community Charter School of the Highlands Community Charter and Technical Schools.

Ryan DiGiulio and William Schuetz presented an overview of District staff's final findings related to the charter revocation of Highlands Community Charter School since the initial findings in which staff had determined that HCCS failed to refute or remedy to the District's satisfaction all of the violations identified in the Notice of Violation. They included a summary of the revocation process timeline, staff's review methodology, and compliance outcomes, an overview of the school's plans to correct violations, and corrective actions taken by the school. Based on a data-driven review of the documentation and evidence submitted after the conclusion of the remedy period, District staff determined that all violations have been remedied to the district's satisfaction and recommended that the Board decline to revoke the charter.

Trustee Vogt inquired whether Highlands Community Charter School had submitted any new information since the January 13th meeting regarding attendance tracking. She also requested clarification on the standard used to evaluate instructional minutes.

Sharilyn Warta clarified that between October and January Highlands Community Charter Schools has submitted substantial additional evidence, including updated schedules and reports, showing instructional minutes exceeding minimum requirements, with ongoing updates and compliance team monitoring of attendance and instructional minutes.

Trustee Baker inquired about the required instructional minutes for Highlands Community Charter School.

Sharilyn clarified that the minimum annual instructional minutes for Highlands Community Charter School is the same standard required of Twin Rivers Unified School District, .

Teresa Cummings, Deputy Director and Chief Operating Officer, addressed the Board and thanked the Board of Trustees, Superintendent Martinez, and District staff for the opportunity to present. She acknowledged staff's work in addressing and curing the identified violations, expressed appreciation for the District's accountability standards, and affirmed the school's commitment to maintaining a high bar for student outcomes. She concluded by respectfully requesting that the Board approve issuance of a final decision declining to revoke the charter.

Tu Tao, CTE Workforce Coordinator at Highlands Community Charter and Technical School, addressed the Board to emphasize the school's role in providing no-cost educational and workforce training opportunities that support students' academic advancement, economic mobility, and integration into the local workforce.

President Jefferson stated that the Board of Trustees is accountable to both the organization and their constituents and expressed that the concerns in the notice of violations have not yet been remedied to her satisfaction.

Trustee Baker stated that his vote was cast in opposition and echoed the comments of the Board President Jefferson, noting that his constituency is also not satisfied.

Trustee Vogt stated that the vote was not about whether the population served by Highlands Community Charter deserves support, but about whether sufficient evidence had been presented to demonstrate that the notices of violations had been cured.

Clerk of the Board

McClellan Park, California

RESOLUTION NO. 1613

RESOLUTION OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF THE TWIN RIVERS UNIFIED SCHOOL DISTRICT
Approving Issuance of a Final Decision to Revoke the Charter of Highlands Community Charter School

WHEREAS, the Twin Rivers Unified School District ("District") initially approved the petition for the establishment of Highlands Community Charter School ("HCCS") charter school on June 25, 2019, for a five-year term running through June 30, 2024, and per Education Code section 47607.4, HCCS's Charter was automatically extended by operation of law through June 30, 2027. HCCS is operated and governed independently by Highlands Community Charter and Technical Schools ("HCCTS") and its Board of Directors;

WHEREAS, the District and HCCS entered into a Memorandum of Understanding ("MOU") on or about February 25, 2020, to document the arrangement and agreement between the parties regarding HCCS's program, operation, structure, and obligations. Subsequent amendments to the MOU extended its term through June 30, 2027, and made clarifications regarding the process for approval of any new facility locations, facility safety expectations, and supervisorial oversight;

WHEREAS, as the charter authorizer of HCCS, the District is responsible for overseeing HCCS under Education Code 47604.32. This oversight responsibility includes monitoring whether HCCS is operating in compliance with the conditions, standards, or procedures set forth in its Charter and MOU, meeting or pursuing the pupil outcomes identified in its Charter, failing to meet generally accepted accounting principles, or engaging in fiscal mismanagement, and complying with the law (Education Code section 47607(f));

WHEREAS, as a result of HCCS's failure to remedy several areas of concern despite its receipt of multiple information requests and notices of concern from the District, and/or its failure to implement viable remedial plans to address these concerns, and since the District concluded that grounds for revocation existed, including material violations of the conditions, standards, or procedures of its Charter and MOU, failure to meet generally accepted accounting principles, or engaged in fiscal mismanagement, and violations of law, the District determined that the point has been reached where it was necessary to initiate the first step in the formal revocation process with the issuance of a Notice of Violation per Education Code section 47607 and Title 5, Cal. Code of Regulations, section 11968.5.2 ("Section 11968.5.2");

WHEREAS, on June 17, 2025, the Board unanimously approved issuance of a Notice of Violation ("NOV") to HCCS pursuant to Education Code section 47607 based on findings that HCCS materially violated the conditions, standards, and procedures of its Charter, failed to meet generally accepted accounting principles or engaged in fiscal mismanagement, and violated the law;

WHEREAS, the NOV also provided HCCS with a reasonable opportunity to respond to and/or remedy the violations by September 26, 2025, and placed HCCS on notice that if the violations were not addressed, the District may pursue further steps towards revocation of the Charter;

WHEREAS, at the conclusion of the remedy period, on September 26, 2025, HCCS provided its response to the NOV, however, the supporting evidence was not provided to the District until September 29, 2025;

WHEREAS, District staff evaluated the response from HCCS and all documentation produced with the response, and after conducting a thorough, objective, and data-driven review, District Staff determined that HCCS A failed to refute to the District's satisfaction, or remedy all of the violations identified in the NOV, and that significant violations continue to exist, including material violations of the conditions, standards, or procedures of its charter, fiscal mismanagement, and violations of law;

WHEREAS, based upon the substantial evidence demonstrating HCCS's failure to refute and/or remedy multiple violations identified in the NOV, District staff recommended that the Board approve issuance of the a Notice of Intent to Revoke and notice of facts in support of revocation ("Notice of Intent to Revoke") to HCCS pursuant to Education Code section 47607 and Section 11968.5.2, and the Board approved issuance of a Notice of Intent to Revoke at its meeting on November 4, 2025, supported by substantial evidence presented therewith, and further scheduled a public hearing on the issue of whether substantial evidence existed to revoke the Charter;

WHEREAS, on December 2, 2025, the Board of Trustees held a public hearing in compliance with Education Code section 47607, and took testimony from HCCS representatives and the public on the issue of whether substantial evidence existed to revoke HCCS's Charter based on the facts and conclusions in the Notice of Intent to Revoke;

WHEREAS, during a special Board meeting on January 27, 2026, District Staff presented their analysis of the measures taken by HCCTS to refute and/or remedy the violations identified in the Notice of Revocation. While the Board thoughtfully considered Staff's analysis and recommendation regarding revocation, it ultimately did not accept Staff's recommendation and no action was effectively taken regarding HCCS's revocation; and

WHEREAS, the Board has convened on January 30, 2026, to consider whether to approve the issuance of a Final Decision to Revoke the Charter of HCCS.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED AND ORDERED AS FOLLOWS:

1. The Board finds the above-listed recitals to be true and correct and incorporates them herein by this reference.

2. In support of its Final Decision to Revoke HCCS's Charter, the Board adopts the facts and findings contained in the Notice of Intent to Revoke and its exhibits, as initially set forth in the NOV, and as stated herein, as its written factual findings, supported by substantial evidence specific to HCCS, and incorporates such findings into this Resolution as though set forth fully herein; and in support of its decision to issue a Final Decision to Revoke HCCS's Charter, the Board further finds that:

(A) Substantial evidence demonstrates that the violations initially identified in the NOV, and demonstrated in the Notice of Intent to Revoke and exhibits thereto, and as further stated herein, have in fact occurred;

(B) HCCS failed to refute, remedy, or propose remedial action sufficient to remedy all of the violations identified in the NOV;

(C) The violations set forth in the NOV and Notice of Intent to Revoke, have not been sufficiently remedied by HCCS, and attempts at further corrective actions taken by HCCS, although considered by the Board, failed to sufficiently remedy the violations identified in the NOV and substantiated in the Notice of Intent to Revoke, and/or promised unsubstantiated and unreliable future performance and resulting uncertainty regarding future compliance.

3. The Board hereby approves issuance of a Final Decision to Revoke the Charter of Highlands Community Charter School revoking HCCS's Charter effectively immediately. The Superintendent or designee is hereby authorized and directed to notify the Sacramento County Board of Education and California Department of Education regarding the revocation approval and to take any such other actions needed to effectuate the purpose of this Resolution.

Re: Notice of Appeal of Revocation of Highlands Community Charter School to Sacramento County Board of Education

Dear Members of the Sacramento County Board of Education:

On January 30, 2026, the Twin Rivers Unified School District Board of Trustees ("TRUSD" or the "District" or "District Board") voted to revoke the charter for Highlands Community Charter School ("HCCS"), a charter school operated by Highlands Community Charter and Technical Schools ("HCCTS" or "Highlands"). HCCS and HCCTS timely submit this appeal of the District's revocation decision to the Sacramento County Board of Education, pursuant to California Education Code section 47607.

Background

The California Supreme Court has held that a charter school has a property interest in its charter that is protected by due process of law. (See Today's Fresh Start, Inc. v. Los Angeles County Office of Education (2013) 57 Cal.4th 197, 215.) Due process requires reasonable notice before governmental action may deprive an individual of a significant property interest. (Bergeron v. Department of Health Services, 71 Cal. App. 4th 17, 23.) Due process also requires the opportunity to be heard "at a meaningful time and in a meaningful manner." (See Armstrong v. Manzo, 380 U.S. 545, 552 (1965).) In the case of an action by an administrative agency to deprive an individual of a property interest, due process requires written findings supported by facts that support the conclusions—"the orderly functioning of the process of review requires that the grounds upon which the administrative agency acted be clearly disclosed and adequately sustained." (See Topanga Assn. for a Scenic Community v. County of Los Angeles (1974) 11 Cal.3d 506, 516.) In 2021, the California Education Code was amended to add extra layers of due process, solidifying the default assumption that a charter school will be allowed notice and a chance to cure all claimed bases for revocation.

From August 2014 to the present, HCCTS has served approximately 64,058 students across its two schools—Highlands Community Charter School (HCCS) and California Innovative Career Academy (CICA). Currently, HCCS, Highlands' in-person school, serves 613 students and has 1668 students on its wait list. HCCS' students are, by design, exclusively adults, many of whom are immigrants to the United States who are attending the school to learn English while pursuing a high school diploma and at the same time gaining valuable career skills to make themselves employable. HCCS serves a large, underserved immigrant population and is crucial to helping these vulnerable students and their families succeed in Sacramento County. It benefits not only the immigrant community, but the rest of our local community as well, to ensure that these families have a pathway to learn English, access resources, and gain the skills needed to become employable in this country. Education for this community can lift individuals and whole families out of poverty, reducing reliance on government assistance in the future.

HIGHLANDS
COMMUNITY CHARTER SCHOOL

Educating the parents also ensures that they, in turn, can actively participate in their children's education. Studies have shown that a parent's education has a positive impact on future educational and career outcomes for the child. (See Dubow EF, Boxer P, Huesmann LR. Long-term Effects of Parents' Education on Children's Educational and Occupational Success: Mediation by Family Interactions, Child Aggression, and Teenage Aspirations. Merrill Palmer Q (Wayne State Univ Press). 2009 Jul;55(3):224-249. doi: 10.1353/mpq.0.0030. HCCS has numerous community partnerships benefitting a variety of demographic groups in the local area. For example, HCCS partners with the Sacramento Employment and Training Agency (SETA) which serves immigrants, refugees, working parents, and participants in job centers and community service programs. SETA identifies HCCS as a key workforce development partner, serving the goal of employment for these under-resourced community members. Local organizations rely on HCCS as an educational and work readiness hub—somewhere people can go to earn a high school diploma and gain job skills regardless of difficult personal circumstances.

One of the local communities most in need of assistance from HCCS is the Afghan immigrant community. Women from Afghanistan often were denied even a basic education in their home country and require specialized support and education to learn English as a second language because they often do not know how to read or write in their native language, despite being adults. These families were relocated to the United States by our federal government due to assistance they provided to the United States Military during the War in Afghanistan. The program covered Afghans employed by or on behalf of the U.S. government/ISAF, including translators, interpreters, contractors, and engineers for a minimum of one year since October 7, 2001. These Afghans worked in collaboration with U.S. Military forces during the war in Afghanistan, which made them targets of violence by the Taliban. Applicants for this visa to come to the U.S. had to file a petition (Form I-360) and obtain Chief of Mission (COM) approval, often facing a lengthy, multi-year process. HCCS is proud to support these individuals and their families as they adjust to life in the United States.

Since its inception, HCCS has also served a significant number of local residents who needed a second chance to get a high school education. They did not complete this education for a myriad of reasons, and as a result have been denied the opportunity to obtain jobs that would pay them a living wage. These HCCS students include single parents, people who have faced homelessness, justice system-involved individuals, and people who have overcome significant adversity and still never gave up on their dream of getting an education.

The Twin Rivers Unified School District ("TRUSD") is the charter authorizer for HCCS under Education Code section 47604.32 and has been the authorizer since August of 2014. In June 2025, the California Office of the State Auditor issued an audit report accusing HCCS of various compliance violations, including issues related to alleged fiscal mismanagement by members of HCCS' prior leadership team. Notably, the State Audit report does not allege fraud—rather, it alleges unwise use of funds and various other compliance issues such as problems with attendance tracking processes and improper use of Adult Education Teaching Credentials. The State Auditor also accused TRUSD of failing in its oversight responsibilities as HCCS' authorizer, which contributed to the compliance issues that HCCS faced. The issues raised in the State Audit had not previously been raised by the professional auditing firm that HCCTS had retained to conduct its annual audit for the 2022-2023 audit year, although the State Auditor claimed the issues were present during that timeframe. As a result of the school's independent audit not raising these concerns, the Highlands Board at the time was therefore not put on notice about these concerns—it had reasonably relied on the professionals it had hired to assess for compliance.

News coverage around the State Audit and its allegations against Highlands' schools was widespread and created a political incentive for elected officials—like the members of the Twin Rivers Unified School District Board of Trustees—to distance themselves from the charter school. It became politically strategic to express disapproval of HCCS, even though the current HCCS executive team does not contain any of the same people who caused the alleged compliance problems. Even prior to the State Auditor releasing their report, HCCS changed its Executive Director to someone who is a statewide expert in business services – a former head of the California School Business Officials Organization ("CASBO"). He spent a year working with the Highlands Board to adopt over a hundred new policies to move HCCS into alignment with best practices. The current HCCS leadership team, which began working at the school in July of 2025, and the new Board of Directors members see these charter schools as valuable assets to the community and have been working tirelessly to correct any deficiencies caused by the prior executive director and team. Despite this, in the public perception, HCCTS remains associated with the mistakes of its past. It is important to note that although HCCS has moved to best practices in its operations in order to avoid any doubt about compliance on a going forward basis, some of the contentions of the State Auditor related to attendance accounting and credentialing may not be correct as a matter of law. This is the subject of two appeals filed with the Education Audit Appeals Panel by HCCS and its sister school, CICA.

The reforms put in place by the new management team have been recognized by outside agencies. The Western Association of Schools and Colleges, which previously had been considering terminating HCCS' accreditation, issued a six year accreditation on February 4, 2025 in recognition of all of the changes that the school has made. The State Auditor has also been tracking improvements at the school and HCCS believes that it will soon be in a position where the State Auditor finds the school in full compliance with its recommendations. Even the TRUSD staff ultimately concluded that HCCS had fully cured all issues raised in the Notice of Violation, as further outlined below.

Notice of Violation

On June 17, 2025, the TRUSD District Board approved issuance of a Notice of Violation ("NOV") alleging that HCCS committed material violations of the conditions, standards, and procedures of its Charter, failed to meet generally accepted accounting principles and/or engaged in fiscal mismanagement, and violated the law in the following ways:

Alleged Violations of the Charter:

- Grade Level Changes – adding grades 9 and 10 without first requesting a material revision of the charter and notifying the District, where the school's charter only included grades 1, 2, and 12.
- Location Changes – adding additional locations which were not previously approved without first providing notice and requesting a material revision, and without providing fully executed copies of lease agreements.

Alleged Violations of the Law:

- Failure to Submit Annual Audit Report – failing to complete and submit a 2023-24 annual independent audit report to the District, violating Education Code sections 47604.33 and 47605.
- Credential Misassignments – using instructors with Adult Education Credentials to teach adults in its K-12 program, which the District contends violates Education Code section 47605(l).

- Failure to Track Minimum Instructional Minutes – claim that many students received less than 80% in-person instruction due to leaving class early, and that HCCS did not maintain enough attendance records to accurately track attendance.
- Violation of WIOA Exclusive Partnership Agreement – allowing individuals who were not enrolled students to participate in the school's Career Technical Education ("CTE") Truck Driving program.

Alleged Fiscal Mismanagement:

- San Diego Administrative Location – improper expenditure of public funds on luxury office condominiums.
- Marysville 2 Location – site was a baseball field and not a proper instructional site.

All of these claims allege conduct that either predated the current HCCS executive leadership team or relate to claims of failure by the current team to resolve issues that originated with prior leadership to the District's satisfaction. It is undisputed that no one in the current HCCS executive team was involved in the alleged fiscal mismanagement related to school sites. Further, the District was aware of and complicit in the changes in grade levels and instructional sites. These issues stemmed from a mutual misunderstanding of the law because the District did not require a material revision to be submitted to implement these changes and had just acquiesced or agreed to them at the staff level. As a result, the District effectively sat on issues for years that it now deems consequential enough to justify revoking a charter.

In so doing, the District violated the law of equitable estoppel:

> The vital principle is that he who by his language or conduct leads another to do what he would not otherwise have done shall not subject such person to loss or injury by disappointing the expectations upon which he acted. Such a change of position is sternly forbidden. It involves fraud and falsehood, and the law abhors both.

(City of Long Beach v. Mansell (1970) 3 Cal.3d 462, 488.) In City of Long Beach v. Mansell, the California Supreme Court confirmed that estoppel can apply against government agencies when equity demands it. (See id.) The Court describes the elements of equitable estoppel as follows:

> (1) the party to be estopped must be apprised of the facts; (2) he must intend that his conduct shall be acted upon, or must so act that the party asserting the estoppel had a right to believe it was so intended; (3) the other party must be ignorant of the true state of facts; and (4) he must rely upon the conduct to his injury.

HIGHLANDS COMMUNITY CHARTER SCHOOL

Here, the District was aware that HCCS was operating additional sites and grade levels and acted such that HCCS had a right to believe that HCCS was permitted to utilize the additional grade levels and sites without going through the formal material revision process. HCCS was ignorant of the true state of facts—that the law required the school to request a material revision—and HCCS relied upon the District's conduct to its injury where the District later sought to revoke HCCS' charter for not having requested the material revisions sooner.

The District's delay in acting on these issues also violates the doctrine of laches. In administrative law, the proponent of a laches defense must establish (1) "unreasonable delay" and (2) "acquiescence" in the act about which the other party complains or "prejudice" resulting from the delay. (Conti v. Board of Civil Service Commrs. (1969) 1 C3d 351, 359, 82 CR 337, 342; see Gates v. Department of Motor Vehicles (1979) 94 CA3d 921, 923-926, 156 CR 791, 792-794.) Here, the District unreasonably delayed by allowing these issues to remain unchallenged for years, with tacit or even direct approval from District staff, only to then accuse HCCS of waiting too long to fix them.

The NOV provided a remedy period up to and including September 26, 2025. Cal. Code Regs., tit. 5, § 11968.5.2 states:

> (c) Upon receipt of a Notice of Violation, the charter school's governing body as described in the school's charter, if it chooses to respond, shall take the following actions:
>
> (1) Submit to the chartering authority a detailed, written response addressing each identified violation which shall include the refutation, remedial action taken, or proposed remedial action by the charter school specific to each alleged violation. The written response shall be due by the end of the remedy period identified in the Notice of Violation.
> (2) Attach to its written response supporting evidence of the refutation, remedial action, or proposed remedial action, if any, including written reports, statements, and other appropriate documentation.

HCCS timely responded on September 26, 2025 with a letter addressing each of the alleged violations and explaining how each had been refuted or remedied. HCCS also provided documentary evidence to either refute the claims or, where applicable, demonstrate that a remedy has been implemented. Contrary to later assertions by the District Board, HCCS did submit exhibits to the District on September 26, 2025. Then, after the fact, the District contacted HCCS and communicated that it was unable to access the exhibits (due to technical issues on the District's end), resulting in HCCS re-providing the exhibits a few days later in a different format.

Following the June 2025 Notices of Violation, the District's staff asked HCCS to submit a material revision request for sites and grades, which HCCS did submit on September 26, 2025. HCCS indicated that its plan to cure these issues all along was to submit a material revision to bring the charter into alignment on both site locations and grade levels, but that it would align both sites and grade levels with the existing charter language if the material revision was denied. Notwithstanding HCCS demonstrating an appropriate and lawful response, the District Board voted to issue a Notice of Intent to Revoke ("NIR") on November 4, 2025. A public hearing on the issue of revocation was held on December 2, 2025, along with public hearings on the issuance of the material revisions for both HCCS and CICA at the same meeting.

District staff had reviewed the material revisions and recommended approval, but the District Board denied them anyway on December 2, 2025. This denial was in bad faith, since the District Board had been presented the HCCS plan to cure these issues and at no time expressed a concern about approving a material revision. It was fully aware that its staff was meeting regularly with HCCS to get to mutual agreement on material revision language. District staff then asked HCCS to revise the material revision to remove grade levels and related educational program changes so that these could be studied further, which the school did and resubmitted the material revision request on January 2, 2026. To date, the District Board has still refused to approve a material revision for either of these topics.

Notwithstanding the District Board's bad faith denial of the material revisions recommended by its own staff after an extensive negotiation process, HCCS still fully cured the site issue by going to extraordinary lengths to vacate all non-approved sites prior to the revocation date in accordance with the plan previously outlined to the District Board. This was an extremely fast timeline and posed numerous operational challenges, but HCCS ensured that no non-approved sites remained prior to the revocation vote.

In terms of the issue of including additional grades without first notifying the District and requesting a material revision of the charter, the District has created roadblocks by refusing to approve any material revision on the topic. In fact, District staff specifically asked HCCS to revise the material revision to remove grade level changes and related educational program changes. Throughout this process, HCCS demonstrated good faith collaboration with District staff, and the District Board's arbitrary and capricious refusal to approve a material revision to address all of these issues was no fault of HCCS and represented bad faith on behalf of the District Board. But nonetheless, in the face of bad faith behavior by the District, HCCS did implement the backup plan it had outlined to District Trustees prior to the revocation date, and brought its grade levels into alignment with the charter by offering grades one and two and enrolling new students in these grades. Thus, this issue was also fully addressed through this different strategy outlined in HCCS' original plan submitted before the remedy period expired, eliminating the need to request a material revision entirely.

On January 27, 2026, the District Board met to consider a recommendation from District staff and District legal counsel that the charter not be revoked based on a finding by District staff and legal counsel that the school has fully cured all issues in the Notice of Violation. By a vote of 6-1, the District Board rejected the recommendation to not revoke the charter, but took no further action to revoke HCCS at that meeting.

The District Board then convened on January 30, 2026, on which date it voted to revoke the Charter of HCCS. HCCS and HCCTS now appeal the revocation to the Sacramento County Office of Education ("SCOE") because neither the law, the facts, nor substantial evidence support revocation under California law or under SCOE's relevant Board Policy.

Standard of Review

California Education Code section 47607, subdivision (i), states:

> (1) If a school district is the chartering authority and it revokes a charter pursuant to this section, the charter school may appeal the revocation to the county board of education within 30 days following the final decision of the chartering authority.
> (2) The county board of education may reverse the revocation decision if the county board of education determines that the findings made by the chartering authority under subdivision (h) are not supported by substantial evidence. The school district may appeal the reversal to the state board.

(Ed. Code, § 47607(i).)

Sacramento County Office of Education Policy: 2400 BP, Section: 2000 Administration defines "substantial evidence" for these purposes as evidence that:

a. Demonstrates that the violation was material.
b. Supports revocation when viewed as a whole, in light of all relevant information.
c. Demonstrates that the violation actually occurred.
d. Was not cured by the charter school during its reasonable opportunity to remedy the violation.

HIGHLANDS
COMMUNITY CHARTER SCHOOL

Further, Sacramento County Office of Education Policy: 2400 BP, Section: 2000 Administration states, "If revocation is recommended by the Superintendent, the recommendation shall include each reason for revocation with the substantial evidence supporting that reason enumerated."

California Code of Regulations Title 5, section 11968.5.4, subdivision (a), states:

(a) Within 30 calendar days of receipt of a Final Decision revoking the school's charter, the charter school's governing body as described in the school's charter, shall approve and deliver a written Notice of Appeal to the county board of education that:

(1) Includes a copy of the Notice of Violation, Notice of Intent to Revoke and the Final Decision issued pursuant to this article except that the charter school shall not be responsible for providing these documents if the chartering authority did not provide them to the charter school as required in section 11968.5.2;

(2) Includes evidence of the final vote of the chartering authority, if available;

(3) Includes all evidence relied upon by the chartering authority in determining whether substantial evidence existed that the charter school failed to remedy one or more violations identified in the Notice(s) of Violation;

(4) Includes all evidence and correspondence submitted by the charter school's governing body as described in the school's charter in response to the chartering authority's Notice of Violation and Notice of Intent to Revoke;

(5) Includes minutes of any public meeting at which the chartering authority considers or makes its decision to revoke the school's charter, if available;

(6) Includes a written statement explaining why the charter school does not believe the district chartering authority's factual findings are supported by substantial evidence; and

(7) Identifies any procedural omissions or errors the charter school alleges to have occurred in the revocation process.

(Cal. Code Regs., tit. 5, § 11968.5.4.)

California Code of Regulations Title 5, section 11968.5.4, subdivision (b), states:

HIGHLANDS COMMUNITY CHARTER SCHOOL

If the county board of education does not issue a written decision that explains whether, in the county board of education's judgment, the district chartering authority's factual findings are supported by substantial evidence within 90 calendar days of receiving a Notice of Appeal that includes the documents listed in subdivision (a) of this section, the district chartering authority's decision is upheld, pending any further appeal.

(1) In determining whether the district chartering authority's factual findings are supported by substantial evidence, the county board of education shall consider whether the district chartering authority provided the charter school's governing body as described in the school's charter a Notice of Violation, a reasonable opportunity to remedy the identified violation(s), a Notice of Intent to Revoke, a public hearing, and Final Decision, pursuant to Articles 2 and 2.5 and Education Code sections 47607(f) through (h), inclusive.

(2) If the charter school submits a response to the Notice of Violation pursuant to section 11968.5.2(c), the county board of education shall, in determining whether the district chartering authority's factual findings are supported by substantial evidence, consider whether the charter school complied with the procedures set forth in that section.

(3) The county board of education shall also consider whether an alleged procedural deficiency negatively impacted the charter school's ability to refute or remedy the alleged violation or the chartering authority's ability to comply with its procedural obligations or authorizing duties.

(Cal. Code Regs., tit. 5, § 11968.5.4.)

The District Chartering Authority's Findings Are Not Supported by Substantial Evidence

The District Board's findings are not supported by substantial evidence, where the evidence presented by both HCCS and the District's own staff confirmed that HCCS had, in fact, remedied all of the violations identified in the NOV, and where the District's staff recommended against revocation for this reason. Further, no other evidence of non-remedy of the alleged violations was presented on the record at the public hearing on revocation of the charter. In the agenda for the District's January 27, 2026 Board Meeting, District staff stated the following on this topic:

HIGHLANDS COMMUNITY CHARTER SCHOOL

> The Final Decision whether to revoke the Charter of HCCS is limited to a determination of whether substantial evidence supports a finding(s) that the Charter School has failed to refute or remedy the violations identified in the Notice of Violation to the District's satisfaction. Consistent with Education Code section 47607, a chartering authority shall not revoke a charter unless it makes written factual findings supported by substantial evidence, specific to the charter school, that support its findings.
> Based upon District Staff's analysis of the documented measures taken by HCCTS to refute and/or remedy the violations identified in the Notice of Revocation, District Staff have determined that all the violations identified in the Notice of Revocation have been refuted or remedied to the District's satisfaction. As a result, District Staff recommends that the Board terminate the revocation process by approving issuance of a Final Decision declining to revoke the HCCS Charter, and the District will continue to implement a heightened level of oversight over HCCS and closely monitor its progress and compliance. (Emphasis added.)

District staff's reasoning for this determination is outlined in the document "TRUSD NOV Staff Findings Presentation.HCCS," which was presented to the District Board at the January 27, 2026 Board Meeting. In this presentation, District staff set forth findings explaining why they concluded that HCCS had either refuted or remedied each of the alleged violations in the NOV.

Grade Levels Not Approved – Remedied

District staff's report presented the following findings indicating why this issue was remedied:

- HCCS has ceased the practice of enrolling students into 9th and 10th grade.
- HCCS has started enrollment into 1st and 2nd grades.
- Before adding or changing grades, HCCS will submit a material revision request.
- If not approved, HCCS will continue to serve 1st, 2nd, and 12th grades only, as approved in their petition.

Further, the June 17, 2025 Notice of Violation stated: "Education Code section 47604(a)(4) provides in part: 'After receiving approval of its petition, a charter school that proposes to expand operations to one or more additional sites or grade levels shall request a material revision to its charter and shall notify the chartering authority of those additional locations or grade levels.'." (emphasis added). Between the June 17, 2025 Notice of Violation and the December 2, 2025 District Board Meeting, HCCS requested material revisions of its charter to address the additional grade levels and locations and had extensive communication with the District on these topics. HCCS submitted a proposed material revision on September 26, 2025 that would have addressed both the grade levels issue and the sites issue from the June 17th Notice of Violation. Leading up to the December 2, 2025 District Board Meeting, HCCS discussed the material revision with District staff to ensure that it was sufficient. The requested material revisions (one for HCCS and one for CICA) then went before the District Board at its December 2, 2025 meeting, where the District Board voted to reject them.

Given this, HCCS had both notified the District of the additional grade levels and requested the material revisions during the cure period of up to and including September 26, 2025. All of the evidence before the District Board confirms that these events occurred, and the fact that the District Board refused to approve the material revision has no bearing on whether HCCS had notified the District and requested the revision. Further, the District Board cannot reasonably have found that the District was not notified about the additional grade levels, where the evidence provided by HCCS in its September 26th Response includes detailed correspondence from HCCS to the District about the grade levels from December 2024 (see Exhibit A to the Response). By notifying the District and requesting the revision by September 26, 2025, HCCS remedied the issue. This is uncontroverted on the record.

However, to ensure that the District's bad faith did not lead to revocation of HCCS, HCCS did propose as part of its original plan to remedy that if a material revision was not approved by the District Board on this issue that it would revert to the grade levels in the charter. It did so before the revocation vote. This is also uncontroverted on the record. Even the District staff recognized this in their report to the District Board recommending that the charter for HCCS not be revoked. Viewed in the light of the entire record, the District's findings are so lacking in evidentiary support as to render their decision unreasonable, and therefore, it must be set aside. (See e.g. Northern Inyo Hosp. v. Fair Emp. Practice Com. (1974) 38 Cal.App.3d 14, 23-24).

Locations Not Approved – Remedied

District staff's report presented the following findings indicating why this issue was remedied:

- HCCTS Board has been taking action to terminate or buy-out leases.
- HCCS is moving to locations that are approved by the District and will not add any new locations without prior approval by the District through the Material Revision process.
- HCCTS has adopted or revised multiple Board Policies, including BP 7150.5 "School Site Opening and Closure Policy"

HIGHLANDS COMMUNITY CHARTER SCHOOL

Further, the June 17, 2025 Notice of Violation stated: "The MOU Amendment No. 3 includes the express requirement for HCCS to submit a written request" to the District if the "Charter School seeks to establish operations at one or more additional locations(s) or move any of its existing location(s), including satellite facilities or resource centers..." and "To date, no material revision request has been submitted for these locations and HCCS continues to operate at these locations in violation of the MOU Amendment No. 3 and Education Code section 47605(a)(4)." (Emphasis added.) Education Code 47605(a)(4) states:

> After receiving approval of its petition, a charter school that proposes to expand operations to one or more additional sites or grade levels shall request a material revision to its charter and shall notify the chartering authority of those additional locations or grade levels. The chartering authority shall consider whether to approve those additional locations or grade levels at an open, public meeting. If the additional locations or grade levels are approved pursuant to the standards and criteria described in subdivision (c), they shall be a material revision to the charter school's charter. (Emphasis added.)

Just as with the grade levels issue (discussed above), HCCS had both notified the District of the additional sites and requested the material revision during the cure period of up to and including September 26, 2025. All of the evidence before the District Board confirms that these events occurred, and the fact that the District Board refused to approve the material revision has no bearing on whether HCCS had notified the District and requested the revision. By notifying the District and requesting the revision by September 26, 2025, HCCS remedied the issue. Additionally, HCCS has provided the requested copies of lease agreements, which the District claims that it had requested in an April 23, 2025 Notice of Concern/Request for information.

We do note that HCCS has not just technically fully remedied this matter, but has substantively fully remedied it by moving all operations to only site locations approved in MOU Amendment Number 3, which was approved by the District Board and incorporated into the charter. This was done prior to the revocation vote and the District Board was informed on the record at their meeting on January 27, 2026 that this had occurred.

Failure to Submit Audit Report – Remedied

District staff's report presented the following findings indicating why this issue was remedied:

- On 01/02/2026 HCCTS submitted the 2024 Annual Independent Audit report.
- HCCTS has committed to submitting future reports in a timely manner.
- HCCTS is pursuing a different audit firm to ensure this issue is not perpetuated.

HIGHLANDS COMMUNITY CHARTER SCHOOL

Further, it is important to emphasize that the audit report for the 2023-2024 audit year was delayed because the independent auditing firm that HCCTS had hired to conduct the audit refused to release its report after it learned about the State Audit in the summer of 2025. It is not the case that HCCS failed to retain an auditing firm to conduct the audit, nor is it the case that HCCS was in possession of the final audit report and simply failed to provide it to the District. HCCS was in possession of a draft audit report from the independent auditor, which it had provided to the District. The auditor substantially modified the draft report following the State Audit report and this was provided to the District as noted by District staff in their findings that this issue had been fully remedied.

Credential Misassignment – Remedied

District staff's report presented the following findings indicating why this issue was remedied:

- TRUSD has verified evidence that HCCTS has changed staffing practices.
- HCCTS staff have become more knowledgeable about credentialing compliance.
- HCCTS' subsequent actions show a credible shift towards compliance.

Further, the November 2025 Notice of Intent to Revoke, which was approved by the District Board, even confirmed that the credential misassignment issue had been remedied. Specifically, it stated, in relevant part:

> The District's review of HCCTS' response, the evidence provided, and information collected through the annual oversight activities reflect clear and convincing evidence that HCCTS has changed staffing practices and reformed to comply with the law. The District staff have seen evidence that the HCCTS staff have become more knowledgeable about credentialing options to ensure compliance. HCCTS subsequent actions show a credible shift to K-12 appropriate credentialing.

The District Board unanimously voted to adopt this November 4, 2025 Notice of Intent to Revoke, which included this statement as to the credentialing issue, and no evidence was presented in the record to dispute that the credentialing issue had in fact been remedied. Therefore, it defies reason for the District Board to conclude, also unanimously, that "The violations set forth in the NOV and Notice of Intent to Revoke, have not been sufficiently remedied by HCCS" in the District's January 30, 2026 "Final Decision to Revoke" letter. This could only be an arbitrary and capricious decision that is unsupported by substantial evidence.

Failure to Track & Meet Instructional Minutes – Remedied

District staff's report presented the following findings indicating why this issue was remedied:

- HCCS has taken corrective actions to improve attendance policies & procedures as evidenced by revised calendars, bell schedules, staff trainings, and internal audits.
- Serious efforts to improve practices related to student attendance enforcement and engagement have been made.
- Collaborating with Charter Impact to support with attendance monitoring and reporting.

There was no evidence entered into the record contravening these findings. This is particularly notable since some of the very whistleblowers who raised concerns initially were present at the District meeting and did not dispute District staff's findings that these issues that they initially raised were fully remedied.

Violation of Exclusive Partnership Agreement – Remedied

District staff's report presented the following findings indicating why this issue was remedied:

- HCCTS submitted evidence that the external partnerships have been terminated.
- Non-WIOA students were dis-enrolled.
- HCCTS has terminated the CTE Truck Driving program.
- Staff who were assigned to the Truck Driving program have been re-assigned or are no longer with the organization.

Further, it is not reasonably disputable that the Truck Driving program did not exist by September 26, 2025, therefore no non-students could have still been enrolled in it. This was proven by documentary evidence provided by HCCS in its Response to the Notice of Violation. Evidence was also presented in the record that between December 2024 and January 2025, HCCS discontinued informal partnerships with Local 185, the Sacramento Police Department, and the Sacramento County Sheriff's Office related to the Truck Driving program, including written confirmation of these facts from law enforcement officials. HCCS therefore had, beyond a reasonable doubt, cured this issue, and no reasonable fact finder could have found substantial evidence to the contrary. To revoke on this basis could only be an arbitrary and capricious decision that is unsupported by substantial evidence.

Fiscal Mismanagement – San Diego Location – Remedied

District staff's report presented the following findings indicating why this issue was remedied:

- Lease Termination/Buy-Out on 11/18/25

- Adopted or Revised Policies to Address Root Issues of Fiscal Mismanagement:
  - BP 3410 RE. Allowability of Costs
  - BP 3110 RE. Debt Management
  - BP 3310: Purchasing and Vendor Selection
  - BP 7150.5: School Site Opening and Closure Policy
- Updated the Fiscal Policies and Procedures Manual

There was no evidence entered into the record contravening these findings. Therefore, to revoke on this basis could only be an arbitrary and capricious decision that is unsupported by substantial evidence.

Fiscal Mismanagement – Marysville 2 Location – Remedied

District staff's report presented the following findings indicating why this issue was remedied:

- Lease Termination/Buy-Out showing termination as of 1/24/25
- Adopted or Revised Policies to Address Root Issues of Fiscal Mismanagement:
  - BP 3410 RE. Allowability of Costs
  - BP 3110 RE. Debt Management
  - BP 1325 Marketing: Advertising and Sponsorship
  - BP 3310: Purchasing and Vendor Selection
  - BP 7150.5: School Site Opening and Closure Policy
- Updated the Fiscal Policies and Procedures Manual

There was no evidence entered into the record contravening these findings. Therefore, to revoke on this basis could only be an arbitrary and capricious decision that is unsupported by substantial evidence.

Not Only is There No Substantial Evidence in Support of the District Board's Findings, But the Evidence on the Record Provides Clear and Convincing Evidence that All Notice of Violation Issues were Remedied

By the January 27, 2026 Board Meeting, "District Staff [had] determined that all the violations identified in the Notice of Revocation have been refuted or remedied to the District's satisfaction." (See District Staff's January 27, 2026 Presentation.)

HIGHLANDS
COMMUNITY CHARTER SCHOOL

Given this, the District Board's unsupported "findings" that the violations had not been refuted or remedied, with no explanation of which violations remained and no citations to the facts, were not supported by substantial evidence. Education Code 47607(h) provides that "The chartering authority shall not revoke a charter, unless it makes written factual findings supported by substantial evidence, specific to the charter school, that support its finding." Since the District Board has not done so, revocation of the charter violates the revocation provisions of the California Charter Schools Act and is therefore unlawful.

Additionally, the District Board's decision does not meet the standard for "substantial evidence" set forth in the Sacramento County Office of Education's Board Policy on the topic. As discussed above, Sacramento County Office of Education Policy: 2400 BP, Section: 2000 Administration defines "substantial evidence" for these purposes as evidence that:

a. Demonstrates that the violation was material.
b. Supports revocation when viewed as a whole, in light of all relevant information.
c. Demonstrates that the violation actually occurred.
d. Was not cured by the charter school during its reasonable opportunity to remedy the violation.

Here, the evidence before the District does not "[s]upport revocation when viewed as a whole, in light of all relevant information." HCCS relied on guidance from the District, its authorizer, in good faith on issues such as the District allowing HCCS to add additional grades without the District first approving a material revision through the formal process. The District was well aware of most of the issues it identified in the June 17, 2025 Notice of Violation for years before issuing the Notice. Then, when HCCS acted to demonstrate that it had cured each of the identified issues and followed the District's instructions about what was needed to address each concern, the District Board still voted against HCCS at every turn—both voting against the material revisions and, ultimately, voting to revoke the charters. For these reasons, when viewed in light of all relevant information, the evidence before the Board does not support revocation.

Additionally, the evidence before the District did not demonstrate that any of the violations "[w]as not cured by the charter school during its reasonable opportunity to remedy the violation." At the December 2, 2025 public hearing on revocation, no evidence was presented on the record to support the proposition that HCCS had not cured the violations. By that point, District staff, and HCCS staff, were in agreement that HCCS had remedied all of the issues. District staff later confirmed this in their presentation at the January 27, 2026 District Board Meeting where staff proposed that the District should discontinue revocation of both HCCS and CICA. This is yet another reason that the District Board's later decision to revoke both charters was not supported by substantial evidence.

In this case, it is also likely that a court would find the District's actions to be arbitrary and capricious due to the utter lack of foundation to support them and nothing but contrary evidence being on the record. An administrative decision is considered arbitrary and capricious if it "was not supported by a fair and substantial reason." (See Abshear v. Teachers' Retirement Board (1991) 231 Cal.App.3d 1629, 1639.) Because clear and convincing evidence was presented to confirm that all of the allegations had either been refuted or remedied, the District Board's "findings" to the contrary were arbitrary and capricious. The District cannot now, through mere assertions, contravene the record it established through the revocation process.

Procedural Errors and/or Omissions Occurred in the Revocation Process which Negatively Impacted the Chartering Authority's Ability to Comply with its Procedural Obligations and Authorizing Duties

Conclusory Findings

By issuing conclusory "findings" with no explanation of why the facts before the District Board led to the District Board's conclusion that HCCS "failed to refute, remedy, or propose remedial action sufficient to remedy all of the violations identified in the NOV," the District Board committed a procedural error and omission that negatively impacted its ability to comply with its procedural obligations and duties as an authorizer.

In American Indian Model Schools v. Oakland Unified School Dist. (2014) 227 Cal.App.4th 258, 278, the court states, in relevant part:

> Subdivisions (e) and (f)(2) of section 47607 make it clear that the decision to revoke the charter must be supported by substantial evidence. … [Code of Civil Procedure section 1094.5, the state's administrative mandamus provision, "contemplates that at minimum, the reviewing court must determine both whether substantial evidence supports the administrative agency's findings and whether the findings support the agency's decision" and implicit to this statute "is a requirement that the agency which renders the challenged decision must set forth findings to bridge the analytic gap between the raw evidence and ultimate decision or order"].)

Here, the "analytic gap" between the "raw evidence" before the District Board and the "ultimate decision or order" is not bridged in any respect by the District Board's purported "findings." The extent of the District Board's comment on the topic is as follows:

> The violations set forth in the NOV and Notice of Intent to Revoke, have not been sufficiently remedied by HCCS, and attempts at further corrective actions taken by HCCS, although considered by the Board, failed to sufficiently remedy the violations identified in the NOV and substantiated in the Notice of Intent to Revoke, and/or promised unsubstantiated and unreliable future performance and resulting uncertainty regarding future compliance.

This is akin to saying the violations have not been remedied because the violations have not been remedied, and the proposed corrective action is insufficient to ensure future compliance because it is insufficient to ensure future compliance. These "findings" provide no information about why the District Board feels that the violations have not been remedied, which is especially concerning given that the District's staff concluded that the violations had been remedied. The District Board's purported "findings" directly contradict the record of the revocation proceedings. The "findings" also provide no information about what, exactly, about the proposed corrective action was insufficient or unreliable. A reviewing entity, such as the County Office of Education, has no way to access the reasoning behind the District Board's decision to revoke the charters with such circular, conclusory "findings" that essentially just repeat a standard of review.

Failure to Identify with Specificity Which Issues Were Not Remedied or Refuted

Additionally, it is impossible to discern from the District Board's "findings" which specific alleged violations the District Board believes were not refuted or remedied, let alone which ones were not refuted or remedied by a substantial evidence standard. It defies reason that the District Board would have found that all of the alleged violations have not been refuted or remedied because there is no information in the record to support lack of remedy for any issue and even apart from that, some of them are just not reasonably disputable. It is undisputed on the record that the charter school cured all items, as this was the only information provided at the public hearing on the charter school revocation on December 2, 2025, and no contrary testimony or documents were provided at this public hearing. In fact, the charter school's presentation on January 27, 2026 had the same conclusion and only added that HCCS had moved out of all non-compliant sites prior to the public hearing. This fact demonstrated full implementation of HCCS' plan to remedy the violation on that point, which only strengthened HCCS' argument that substantial evidence existed of its full compliance rather than any lack of compliance.

Lack of Any Evidence in Support of District Board's Findings, and Presence of Clear and Convincing Evidence of Charter School's Compliance, Demonstrates Arbitrary and Capricious Decision by District Board

HIGHLANDS COMMUNITY CHARTER SCHOOL

In some cases, the District Board's decision is so lacking in logic or reason that it is clearly arbitrary and capricious. For example, it is undisputed in the record that the Truck Driving program no longer exists and thus the allegation that non-WIOA students were still enrolled in it is completely unsupported. It is also undisputed in the record, and confirmed in the District's own November 4, 2025 Notice of Intent to Revoke, that HCCS had cured the alleged credentialing issue, as the schools no longer use adult education credentials for K-12 assignments. At the very minimum, the District Board's findings needed to explain which specific violations it believed had still not been remedied and why. To date, the District Board has not explained, and HCCS is still unsure, which specific violations the District Board still believes are uncured.

Further, the District Board may not rely on the fact that it "incorporates by reference" the findings from the Notice of Violation, because those "findings," by definition, occurred before the end of the required cure period and therefore cannot have included findings about whether or not HCCS had refuted or remedied the alleged violations by the proposed cure date of September 26, 2025. Ed. Code, § 47607(h) states, in relevant part:

> Before revoking a charter for failure to remedy a violation pursuant to subdivision (f), and after expiration of the school's reasonable opportunity to remedy without successfully remedying the violation, the chartering authority shall provide a written notice of intent to revoke and notice of facts in support of revocation to the charter school …
> … The chartering authority shall not revoke a charter, unless it makes written factual findings supported by substantial evidence, specific to the charter school, that support its findings.

This process requires that there has been a reasonable opportunity for the charter school to refute or remedy the alleged violation, and a subsequent failure to refute or remedy the alleged violation, before the chartering authority may revoke the charter. It is impossible for the chartering authority to make findings on this point at the same time it issues a Notice of Violation because, by definition, this would deprive the charter school of a reasonable opportunity to refute or remedy the noticed violations. If revocation could rely on findings that existed at the time of the Notice of Violation, it would render the opportunity to cure, and the rest of the due process rights afforded to charter schools under the Ed. Code, § 47607 process, meaningless.

These errors negatively impacted the District's ability to comply with its procedural obligations as a chartering authority because the District is obligated to make findings after the cure period set forth in the NOV about whether HCCS has timely refuted or remedied the alleged violations. (See Ed. Code, § 47607(h).) The District may not avoid its obligation to make such findings—which must be supported by substantial evidence—by simply making a conclusory statement that it made the findings. The District also may not avoid its obligation to make such findings by simply referring back to the findings set forth in the NOV, which have nothing to do with whether or not the allegations in the NOV were refuted or cured during the mandatory cure period. The whole point of the multiple steps in the revocation statute is to provide the charter school with multiple opportunities to demonstrate that it has fully refuted or remedied the issues. The District Board's procedural errors therefore also infringed upon the charter school's due process rights.

The District's Failure to Act on Some Alleged Violations for Years Led the Charter School to Believe the District Accepted These Operational Decisions

The District spent years fully aware of many of these alleged violations and either gave tacit, or in some cases, direct, approval. The District evidenced its approval of grade level changes and site changes in part through its annual site visit reports and failure to object when the charter school was operating transparently on these issues. This, understandably, led HCCS to believe that the District approved of these aspects of its educational program. To revoke HCCS for these issues now, after openly allowing this same conduct, demonstrates bad faith on the part of the District. Instead of giving notice of alleged violations along with a meaningful opportunity to correct, as required by law, the District allowed these alleged violations to exist for years before notifying the charter school of them and refused to allow the school to change course. This conduct on the part of the District negatively impacted the District's ability to fulfil its duties as an authorizer. But more importantly, it does not support revocation when viewed as a whole, in light of all relevant information.

Lack of Findings of Independent Audit Firms Materially Impacted the Charter School's Ability to Both Understand and Comply with Requirements as Articulated by District

Initially, the independent auditor of the charter school, Eide Bailly, did not raise any material concerns pertaining to compliance with attendance accounting laws. Not only did they issue a clean audit report for the 2022-23 fiscal year, but they subsequently issued a clean draft audit report for the 2023-24 fiscal year. These were relied upon by the Highlands Board as evidence of HCCS' legal compliance and were provided to the District. It was only after the State Auditor made its findings that Eide Bailly raised any concerns.

HCCS raises this issue here because it is relevant to the County Board's policy defining substantial evidence, BP 2400, which requires that the District's findings:

- Supports revocation when viewed as a whole, in light of all relevant information.

- Demonstrates that the violation actually occurred.

Here, revoking a school for relying upon the professional advice and determinations of an auditor on the State Controller's approved list of K-12 auditing firms is unreasonable and undercuts the entire statutory scheme surrounding auditing. Further, what findings are in the independent audit reports do not support the contention that violations of law occurred. Finally, charter school board members have the right to reasonably rely on professional experts in the performance of their duties. California Corporations Code § 7231(b) states:

> In performing the duties of a director, a director shall be entitled to rely on information, opinions, reports or statements, including financial statements and other financial data, in each case prepared or presented by:
>
> (1) One or more officers or employees of the corporation whom the director believes to be reliable and competent in the matters presented;
>
> (2) Counsel, independent accountants or other persons as to matters which the director believes to be within such person's professional or expert competence; or
> (3) A committee upon which the director does not serve that is composed exclusively of any or any combination of directors, persons described in paragraph (1), or persons described in paragraph (2), as to matters within the committee's designated authority, which committee the director believes to merit confidence, so long as, in any case, the director acts in good faith, after reasonable inquiry when the need therefor is indicated by the circumstances and without knowledge that would cause such reliance to be unwarranted.

Nonprofit board members told by a professional auditing firm that there were no findings of legal violations relating to attendance accounting cannot reasonably be expected to correct items that they were told did not exist. Furthermore, there is no evidence that the District Board weighed this evidence that no violation relating to attendance accounting may have occurred. Eide Bailly's auditors are approved by the State Controller to conduct these audits based on their specialized expertise, and this specialized expertise should be weighed against a lack of specialized K-12 attendance accounting audit experience on the part of the State Auditor's team.

Additionally, HCCS is currently in the process of appealing the State Audit decision and has every legal right to do so. It cannot be held to account for something that has not yet been adjudicated. Furthermore, notwithstanding its objections to the findings of the State Auditor's report that are apportionment significant, HCCS has adopted new policies and procedures that align with the State Auditor's conclusions going forward. Thus, by any measure the evidence before the District Board does not support revocation when viewed as a whole, in light of all relevant information.

Procedural Errors and/or Omissions Occurred in the Revocation Process which Negatively Impacted the Charter School's Ability to Refute or Remedy the Alleged Violations

To the extent that the District Board argues that its "findings" are the findings from the June 17, 2025 Notice of Violation, which the District Board incorporated by reference, this constitutes a procedural error and omission in the revocation process which negatively impacted the charter school's ability to refute or remedy the alleged violation, because findings made on June 17, 2025 did not take into account whether or not the charter school had refuted or remedied by September 26, 2025. Relying on the pre-September 26, 2025 findings would, by definition, deprive HCCS from an opportunity to refute or remedy the alleged violations because it would mean that, regardless of subsequent actions by HCCS to refute or remedy, the District intends to revoke HCCS's charter based on the June 17, 2025 information alone. Relying on the findings in the June 17, 2025 Notice of Violation would therefore also constitute a negative impact on the charter school's ability to refute or remedy, in addition to constituting a negative impact on the District's ability to complete its procedural obligations (as discussed above).

Statements Made by Trustees Reflect an Unlawful Purpose for Revocation Vote

The revocation or non-renewal of a charter by a school district authorizer is a quasi-judicial proceeding. An administrative decision is considered quasi-judicial when the decision is "made as a result of a proceeding in which by law (1) a hearing is required, (2) evidence is required to be taken, and (3) discretion in the determination of facts is vested in the inferior board." (Eureka Teachers Assn. v. Board of Education (1988) 199 Cal.App.3d 353, 361.) Although there is no published case on point for this exact issue, the unpublished case Oxford Preparatory Academy v. Chino Valley Unified School Dist. (2019) 37 Cal.App.5th 413 addresses this topic and provides an analysis of published authority to reach the conclusion that a school district's denial of a charter school's petition to renew its charter was quasi-judicial. The Oxford Preparatory Academy court states:

> When reviewing the Academy's renewal petition, the District applied standards set by existing state law and regulations to the facts presented in the petition and gathered by the District itself. It held a public hearing to gauge community support, allowed speakers to make their case, and then made specific factual findings regarding the Academy's ability to operate the charter school successfully. The District's board then passed a 62-page resolution detailing the specific evidence supporting each of its factual findings, which in turn, supported its ultimate decision to deny the renewal petition. Although the District was required to consider its > overarching public policy goals in reaching its decision, it was not crafting a new policy to be applied in future cases.

(Id. at 425-426.) This process, described in the Oxford Preparatory Academy case, closely mirrors the process for evaluation of charter revocation, which the District Board conducted in the instant case. The District Board held a public hearing, heard evidence, and then was tasked with determination of the facts and application of existing law to those facts. (See Eureka, supra, 199 Cal.App.3d at 361.) The process for revocation of an existing charter, therefore, has all the hallmarks of a quasi-judicial proceeding.

After the revocation vote for this school took place, one or more District Board Trustees made the remark that this vote reflected the fact that their constituents were not satisfied that all of the concerns had been remedied. For example, as to HCCS, at approximately 3 hours, 20 minutes, and 38 seconds into the January 27, 2026 TRUSD Board Meeting, Trustee Jefferson stated: "As Trustees, our authorities, uh, we are accountable not only to this organization, but to our entire constituency, so at this time the concerns raised in the Notice of Violations have not been remedied to my satisfaction, not, nor to that of my constituency because I am bound to the folks that vote, voted for me, so, that was where, that was where my no vote."

This is improper in a quasi-judicial proceeding for a number of reasons. First, to the extent this comment was intended to support the resolution that was approved, it should have been made during the proceeding rather than after the fact. Second, comments from constituents that were not made as part of the proceedings, and to which the school could not therefore respond, reflect improper ex parte communications that denied the school due process. Third, these comments reflect the fact that Trustees considered political factors associated with constituent feelings, rather than the facts and evidence before them, as the only stated reason for their vote. Here, the constituents did not have an opportunity to review all of the thousands of pages of information provided to the District relating to these issues, and thus any such comments were uninformed and were improperly weighed by the District Board. Imagine if in criminal proceedings a judge, after hearing all of the evidence, decided to rule based upon feelings of county voters rather than the evidence of guilt or innocence that was on the record. This would be an improper violation of due process rights for the defendant, just as it is for the charter school here.

Additionally, Trustee Jefferson's comments reflect an improper misapplication of the law applicable to charter revocation. The relevant legal standard for the District Board is whether the charter school has failed to refute the claimed violation "to the chartering authority's satisfaction" or failed to "remedy" the claimed violation, period. (See Cal. Code Regs., tit. 5, § 11968.5.2(d)(1).) There is no obligation to "remedy" the violation "to the chartering authority's satisfaction"– the regulation does not allow for a subjective assessment by the District Board (or its constituents, for that matter) about the remedy.

Conclusion

Against the recommendation and findings of its own staff, the District Board voted to revoke the charter for HCCS, issuing "findings" that did not identify which specific violations it still considered not to have been timely remedied or refuted or why it believes this is the case. For this reason, the District Board did not make findings, based on substantial evidence, to support its decision, as required by law. Additionally, this process contained serious procedural violations that undermined the entire revocation process, both by negatively impacting the District's ability to complete its procedural obligations as an authorizer and by negatively impacting the charter school's ability to refute or remedy the alleged violations during the cure period. The weight of the evidence, and the seriousness of the procedural defects, require reversal of the District's revocation decision.

The Sacramento County Office of Education provides an important check to ensure that District Board Members' individual political considerations do not take precedence over following the law and the charter school's due process rights. Highlands' two charter schools serve as an important resource for the community, and are relied upon by numerous vulnerable students and local organizations that serve the public good. Here, there is no question that the District Board erred both in process and in substance. Here, the inconvenient truth for the District Board is that HCCS cured the issues specified in the June 17, 2025 Notice of Violation, and that the current leadership of HCCS has re-routed the school and corrected mistakes from the past. Public perception generated by media reports about HCCTS is not a lawful justification to ignore evidence on the record and take these schools away from the community that needs them.

HCCS and HCCTS therefore respectfully request that the Sacramento County Board of Education reverse the District Board's decision to revoke the HCCS charter. Attached to this Notice of Appeal are relevant documents and evidence pertaining to the revocation.

Sincerely,

Mike Reid,
Board Chair
Highlands Community Charter School

Twin Rivers Unified School District Response to Highlands Community Charter School's Charter Revocation Appeal

April 21, 2026

A. Introduction

The Notice of Appeal regarding the Revocation of Highlands Community Charter School's Charter by the Twin Rivers Unified School District ("TRUSD" or "District") Board on January 30, 2026, was submitted to the Sacramento County Board of Education c/o the Sacramento County Office of Education on February 27, 2026. By correspondence dated March 30, 2026, the Sacramento County Office of Education ("SCOE") confirmed timely submission of Highlands Community Charter School's ("HCCS" or "Charter School") charter revocation appeal documents in both paper and electronic formats.

SCOE further notified the District and HCCS that the public hearing for consideration of HCCS' appeal will be scheduled for the Sacramento County Board of Education's ("SCBOE") regular meeting on May 19, 2026, at 6:30 p.m., and following the public hearing, the SCBOE may take action on the appeal. In considering HCCS' revocation appeal, the SCBOE will determine whether substantial evidence in the record supports TRUSD's revocation findings.

In the March 30, 2026, correspondence, SCOE also indicated that by April 20, 2026, HCCS and TRUSD may submit written arguments no longer than 25 pages, with page citations to the appeal documents, as to whether the charter revocation met the substantial evidence standard required by Education Code Section 47607. By email correspondence dated April 14, 2026, SCOE extended this deadline and confirmed that HCCS and TRUSD have until the end of the day on April 21, 2026, to submit written arguments regarding the HCCS charter revocation appeal.

While the submission of "written arguments" is not a part of the county level charter revocation appeal process outlined in Title 5, Calif. Code Regs., section 11968.5.4, and it is unclear whether SCOE has the authority to impose this step and corresponding deadline as part of the revocation appeal process, the District respectfully submits its "written arguments" in response to HCCS' appeal in conformity with the parameters specified by SCOE ("TRUSD Response").

B. Procedural History

The District Board of Trustees ("Board") initially approved the petition for the establishment of HCCS in 2014 for a term running through June 30, 2019. On or about March 5, 2019, the Board conditionally approved the petition to renew HCCS' Charter for a five-year term from July 1, 2019, through June 30, 2024 ("Charter"). Pursuant to Education Code section 47607.4, HCCS' Charter was automatically extended through June 30, 2027, by operation of law.

On or about May 19, 2019, the District and HCCS entered into a Memorandum of Understanding ("MOU") to document the arrangement and agreement between the parties regarding HCCS' program, operation, structure, and obligations. Subsequent amendments to the MOU approved by the Board extended its term through June 30, 2027. On or about January 23, 2024, the District and HCCS agreed to Amendment No. 3 of the MOU ("MOU Amendment No. 3"), which among other things, confirmed the District's authorization of specified locations HCCS had established for its operations and made other clarifications regarding the process for approval of any new facility locations, facility safety expectations, and supervisorial oversight.

MOU Amendment No. 3 provides in part:

> "The terms of the MOU are intended by the District and Charter School to become part of the standards and procedures set forth in the Charter School's Charter approved by the District ("Charter"). Along with the Charter, this MOU will govern the relationship between the District and the Charter School regarding the operation of the Charter School. To the extent the terms of the MOU is/are inconsistent with any terms of the Charter, the MOU shall control. In addition, if the Charter is silent on an issue addressed by the MOU, the MOU shall control. As such, any violation of MOU by Charter School that also constitutes grounds for revocation per Education Code section 47607 will be treated and enforced by the District in the same manner, subject to Education Code Section 47607 and applicable implementing regulations, as it would any other violation constituting a ground for revocation."[1] (Emphasis added.)

HCCS is operated and governed independently by Highlands Community Charter and Technical Schools ("HCCTS"), a California nonprofit public benefit corporation, and its Board of Directors.

Following multiple and varying requests for information and notices of concern over a twelve-month period, the District determined that HCCTS either failed to remedy multiple areas of concern despite its receipt of multiple information requests and notices of concern from the District or makes promises of future improvements without offering viable plans that either have been implemented or are capable of being implemented by HCCTS. As a result, and since the District viewed HCCS' material violations of the conditions, standards, or procedures of its Charter and MOU, violations of law, engagement in fiscal mismanagement, as grounds for revocation, the District determined that the point has been reached where it was necessary to initiate the first step in the formal revocation process, with the issuance of a Notice of Violation per Education Code section 47607(g) ("Section 47607") and Title 5, Cal. Code of Regulations, section 11968.5.2 ("Section 11968.5.2").

On June 17, 2025, the District's Board of Trustees unanimously approved the issuance of a Notice of Violation to HCCS. On June 18, 2025, the District delivered the Notice of Violation to HCCTS specifying a reasonable remedy period of up to and including September 26, 2025, for HCCS to provide a written response to the Notice of Violation with supporting evidence addressing each identified violation.

At the conclusion of the remedy period, on September 26, 2025, HCCS provided a partial response to the Notice of Violation ("HCCS Response"), which excluded the exhibits and a complete Material Revision Request. The HCCS Response exhibits were provided to the District on September 29, 2025.

District Staff evaluated the HCCS Response and all documentation produced by HCCS. After conducting a thorough, objective, and data-driven review, District Staff determined that HCCS sufficiently addressed one of the violations, but failed to refute to the District's satisfaction, or remedy all of the violations identified in the Notice of Violation, and found that significant violations continue to exist.

Consequently, District Staff recommended that the Board issue a Notice of Intent to Revoke and notice of facts in support of revocation to HCCS ("Notice of Intent to Revoke") pursuant to Section 47607 and Section 11968.5.2. Based on the findings and recommendation of District Staff, on November 4, 2025, the District's Board unanimously approved the issuance of the Notice of Intent to Revoke based upon its determination that HCCS failed to refute, take remedial action, or propose remedial action specific to each of the alleged violations constituting the following grounds for revocation: (1) HCCS committed a material violation of the conditions, standards, or procedures set forth in its Charter; (2) HCCS violated any law; and (3) HCCS engaged in fiscal mismanagement.

In accordance with Section 47607(h), a Public Hearing was held on December 2, 2025, on the issue of whether substantial evidence existed to revoke HCCS' Charter. As part of the Public Hearing, HCCS was given the opportunity to present to the Board, and public comments were heard.

During a special District Board meeting on January 27, 2026, District Staff presented their analysis of the measures taken by HCCTS/ HCCS to refute and/or remedy the violations identified in the Notice of Revocation as of that date. While the Board thoughtfully considered District Staff's analysis and recommendation regarding revocation, it ultimately did not accept Staff's recommendation and no action was effectively taken regarding HCCS' revocation at that meeting.

The District Board subsequently convened on January 30, 2026, to consider whether to approve the issuance of a Final Decision to Revoke HCCS' Charter and unanimously approved issuance of a Final Decision to Revoke HCCS' Charter effectively immediately. In support of its Final Decision to Revoke HCCS' Charter, the Board adopted the findings of fact contained in the Notice of Intent to Revoke and its exhibits, as initially set forth in the Notice of Violation (NOV), and as stated in the Board adopted Resolution, as its written factual findings, supported by substantial evidence specific to HCCS, and incorporated such findings into this Resolution as though set forth fully therein. In support of its decision to issue a Final Decision to Revoke HCCS' Charter, the Board found that:

> (A) Substantial evidence demonstrates that the violations initially identified in the NOV, and demonstrated in the Notice of Intent to Revoke and exhibits thereto, and as further stated herein, have in fact occurred;
> (B) HCCS failed to refute, remedy, or propose remedial action sufficient to remedy all of the violations identified in the NOV;
> (C) The violations set forth in the NOV and Notice of Intent to Revoke, have not been sufficiently remedied by HCCS, and attempts at further corrective actions taken by HCCS, although considered by the Board, failed to sufficiently remedy the violations identified in the NOV and substantiated in the Notice of Intent to Revoke, and/or promised unsubstantiated and unreliable future performance and resulting uncertainty regarding future compliance.

The Board authorized and directed the Superintendent or designee to notify the Sacramento County Board of Education and California Department of Education regarding the revocation approval and to take any such other actions needed to effectuate the purpose of the Resolution and notice of the revocation was provided to the SCBOE via SCOE and California Department of Education with correspondence January 30, 2026.

Should the SCBOE conclude that substantial evidence in the record supports the District's findings as to all, or any one of the grounds for revocation, that determination compels the SCBOE to affirm/uphold the District's revocation decision.

C. Standard of Review on Appeal

Pursuant to Section 11968.5.4, the SCBOE shall within ninety (90) calendar days of receiving HCCS' Notice of Appeal, issue a written decision that explains whether, in the SCBOE's judgment, the District's factual findings are supported by substantial evidence and the District's decision regarding revocation is upheld, pending any further appeal.

> (1) In determining whether the district chartering authority's factual findings are supported by substantial evidence, the county board of education shall consider whether the district chartering authority provided the charter school's governing body as described in the school's charter a Notice of Violation, a reasonable opportunity to remedy the identified violation(s), a Notice of Intent to Revoke, a public hearing, and Final Decision, pursuant to Articles 2 and 2.5 and Education Code sections 47607(f) through (h), inclusive.
> (2) If the charter school submits a response to the Notice of Violation pursuant to section 11968.5.2(c), the county board of education shall, in determining whether the district chartering authority's factual findings are supported by substantial evidence, consider whether the charter school complied with the procedures set forth in that section.
> (3) The county board of education shall also consider whether an alleged procedural deficiency negatively impacted the charter school's ability to refute or remedy the alleged violation or the chartering authority's ability to comply with its procedural obligations or authorizing duties.

Therefore, the SCBOE's first charge is to determine whether substantial evidence exists in the record that HCCS violated the law, violated material terms of its Charter, and engaged in fiscal mismanagement. "Substantial evidence" has been defined by the courts as "'relevant evidence that a reasonable mind might accept as adequate to support a conclusion....'" (Hosford v. State Personnel Bd. (1977) 74 Cal.App.3d 302, 307, quoting Gubser v. Department of Employment (1969) 271 Cal.App.2d 240, 245) Under this standard, the SCBOE "must view the evidence in the light most favorable to the board's findings and indulge all reasonable inferences in support thereof." (Hosford v. State Personnel Bd., at p. 307.)

Pursuant to Section 47607, a charter may be revoked by its chartering authority if the chartering authority finds, through a showing of substantial evidence, that the charter school did any of the following:

> (1) Committed a material violation of any of the conditions, standards, or procedures set forth in the charter.
>
> (2) Failed to meet or pursue any of the pupil outcomes identified in the charter.
>
> (3) Failed to meet generally accepted accounting principles, or engaged in fiscal mismanagement.
> (4) Violated any law.

The District Board revoked HCCS' Charter on the following grounds: (1) HCCS committed a material violation of any of the conditions, standards, or procedures set forth in its Charter; (2) HCCS engaged in fiscal mismanagement; and (3) HCCS violated any law. As a result, if the SCBOE determines that there is substantial evidence in the record to support the District's findings in support of revocation for one or more of the above-listed grounds for revocation, it compels the SCBOE to affirm the TRUSD Board's final decision to revoke HCCS' Charter.

SCBOE's second charge is to determine whether substantial evidence in the record exists to demonstrate that HCCS remedied the violations at issue in the Notice of Violation by the close of the remedy period. The District issued a Notice of Violation on June 17, 2025 which afforded HCCS until September 26, 2025 (over 3 months) to remedy the violations. Following review of the evidence submitted to the District in HCCS' Response to the Notice of Violation, District Staff determined that the violations had not been remedied.[2] The District Board thereafter approved issuance of a Notice of Intent to Revoke on November 4, 2025.

In accordance with Section 11968.5.2, the Notice of Intent to Revoke was not issued until after the District determined HCCS failed to successfully remedy the violations within the reasonable time period it was allotted to do so. In other words, the District Board already concluded by approval of the issuance of the Notice of Intent to Revoke, that HCCS failed to sufficiently remedy all of the violations identified in the Notice to Violation by the expiration of the remedy period.

Although HCCS submitted additional materials between September 26, 2025 and January 9, 2026, after expiration of the remedy period, which HCCS asserts are additional remedial actions the District was obligated to consider, the relevant inquiry is whether the violations were remedied by the expiration of the established remedy period (See Section 11968.52). Even if the District were required to consider them, the submissions made by HCCTS after the September 26, 2025, remedy period deadline, largely consisted of revised plans, evolving explanations, and assurances of future compliance, but did not demonstrate that the violations were remedied.

Applicable law does not provide a standard through which the success of remedial actions should be judged nor does it require the District Board to consider remedial efforts taken after the reasonable opportunity to remedy period expired.

SCOE's own BP 2400 cited by HCCS in its Appeal concurs with this conclusion stating:

2. "Substantial evidence," within the meaning of Education Code section 47607, shall be evidence that:
   a. Demonstrates that the violation was material.
   b. Supports revocation when viewed as a whole, in light of all relevant information.
   c. Demonstrates that the violation actually occurred.
   d. Was not cured by the charter school during its reasonable opportunity to remedy the violation. (Emphasis added.)

Moreover, even if the SCBOE were to consider the full record through January 9, 2026, the evidence still reflects that HCCS failed to remedy the violations and the fiscal mismanagement grounds for revocation of its Charter.

The issue before the SCBOE is therefore narrow and well-defined. The question is not whether HCCS made efforts toward compliance, nor whether alternative conclusions could be drawn. The question is whether substantial evidence in the record supports the District's findings that HCCS failed to remedy the violations and fiscal mismanagement findings identified in the Notice of Violation.

The record demonstrates that HCCS did not.

Across multiple violations, the evidence reflects a consistent pattern: HCCS acknowledged noncompliance, proposed plans contingent on future approvals or future actions, and, in several instances, continued the very conduct that gave rise to the violations. While District Staff, in some instances, recommended that progress toward compliance could support a determination that the violation was remedied, the District Board, consistent with its statutory authority, determined that actual, demonstrable remediation had not been achieved.

Under Education Code Section 47607, that determination is the legally operative one. The District Board is not required to accept assurances of future compliance in place of evidence of actual remediation. Rather, it must determine whether the violations were, in fact, remedied. Here, the District Board reasonably concluded, based on substantial evidence, that they were not.

1. New Board Members

For all of the violations at issue, HCCTS asserts that the removal of all prior Board members constitutes a cure or remedy. It should first be noted that HCCTS failed to secure an entirely new Board of Directors. Additionally, that assertion is fundamentally flawed because changes in governance structure, standing alone, do not correct the underlying operational, fiscal, and compliance failures that gave rise to the violations. While replacing the HCCTS Board may constitute a forward-looking governance change, it does not retroactively remedy prior decision-making failures, remedy deficient internal controls, or restore missing documentation and accountability.

Indeed, replacing the HCCTS Board of Directors does not address the absence of effective oversight, the lack of transparency in prior decision-making, or the failure to ensure compliance with HCCS' Charter and applicable legal requirements. Nor does it remedy the fact that unauthorized, unsupported, or unreasonable expenditures were made.

Further, the wholesale replacement of the HCCTS Board introduces additional concerns regarding institutional capacity and continuity of oversight. Newly seated HCCTS Board members necessarily require significant time to become familiar with the organization's operations, fiscal systems, legal obligations, and compliance framework. Effective governance is developed through sustained onboarding, training, and experience, and cannot be immediately assumed upon appointment. As a result, the asserted "remedy" not only fails to correct past violations, but also creates a period of heightened risk in which the organization may lack the experienced oversight necessary to ensure compliance. At best, this approach is speculative as a corrective measure; at worst, it introduces additional instability and oversight risk at a time when heightened accountability is required.

Accordingly, HCCTS' reliance on starting over with a new Board of Directors as a purported remedy is insufficient, unsupported by the administrative record, and inconsistent with the purpose of the statutory remedy process, which requires demonstrable correction of identified violations, not merely structural change without evidence of actual remedial action.

2. New Executive Leadership

HCCTS similarly asserts that the appointment of new executive leadership effectively cures or remedies the identified violations. That assertion is equally unavailing. While changes in executive leadership may be appropriate as a prospective governance measure, they do not negate the organization's responsibility for ensuring that violations are corrected within the applicable remedy period, nor do they erase the underlying noncompliance that occurred under prior administration.

The statutory cure framework requires HCCS, not any individual administrator, to demonstrate that identified violations have been remedied with verifiable evidence of compliance. Accordingly, the replacement of executive leadership does not establish that fiscal mismanagement has been corrected, or that required internal controls have been implemented and operationalized, or that deficient oversight practices have been remedied. Furthermore, it does not provide evidence that past noncompliance has been reconciled, reviewed, or brought into conformity with HCCS' Charter and appliable legal requirements.

To the contrary, new leadership inherits both the obligations and the deficiencies of the organization at the time of transition. While new administrators may be positioned to implement corrective action moving forward, their appointment does not retroactively cure violations that occurred during prior years, nor does it substitute for documentation demonstrating that remedial actions were actually implemented and effective within the required remedy period.

Moreover, reliance on leadership turnover as a "cure" improperly shifts the focus away from the central inquiry under Education Code section 47607, whether HCCS itself remedied the violations within the prescribed remedy period. Allowing leadership changes to serve as a substitute for demonstrated compliance would undermine the purpose of the statutory accountability framework and permit ongoing noncompliance to be excused through personnel changes alone.

Accordingly, HCCTS' reliance on the appointment of new executive leadership as a purported remedy is insufficient as a matter of law and unsupported by the administrative record. The District's findings remain grounded in whether the violations were actually remedied, not whether new personnel were installed after the fact.

3. Violation of Charter – Grade Level Changes

The District was not required to consider materials submitted after the September 26, 2025, remedy period had lapsed, and Staff findings adopted by the Board in support of revocation are set forth in the Notice of Intent to Revoke. (HCCS Appeal, p. 1259.[3]) Even if considered, HCCS' additional submissions further substantiate those findings and confirm that the violation was not remedied and is continuing.

Substantial evidence in the record supports the District's finding that HCCS committed a material violation of the Charter by expanding grade levels without obtaining an approved material revision. Substantial evidence in the record also supports the fact that the violation was not remedied.

HCCTS expressly acknowledged the violation, stating it would "…take responsibility for not following the proper procedures." (HCCS Appeal, p. 6508.) This admission alone constitutes substantial evidence supporting the District's finding.

The record further reflects that HCCTS was aware of the need to address the violation as early as June 2024. (HCCS Appeal, p. 6508.) The District issued a Notice of Violation on June 17, 2025, and required submission of all materials, responses, and evidence by September 26, 2025. The Notice of Violation was issued approximately two months before HCCS's first day of school (August 14, 2025). HCCS had ample time before the start of the 2025-26 year to comply with the terms of its Charter. Instead, HCCS chose to perpetuate the violation by enrolling students into 9th and 10th grade as evidenced in multiple citations, including, but not limited to the Instructional Requirements Report that outlined instructional minutes for 9th -12th grade. (HCCS Appeal, p. 7562.) HCCS made the decision to submit a remedy plan that would require an approved material revision rather than complying with the terms of its Charter.

Between September 26, 2025 and January 2, 2026 HCCS submitted three (3) material revision requests. The first material revision request was submitted on September 29, 2025, although an incomplete submission was received on September 26, 2025. (HCCS Appeal, p. 6564); the second submitted on October 10, 2025 (HCCS Appeal, p. 7784); and the third submitted on January 2, 2026 (HCCS Appeal, p. 5302).

The material revision requests submitted on September 29 and October 10 constituted essentially entirely new petitions (HCCS Appeal, pp. 7783-8107), as it left very little of the original Charter content intact. HCCTS actually submitted two material revision requests on October 10, one for CICA and another for HCCS. The late submission of these requests after the conclusion of the remedy period had expired, did not allow sufficient time for the entire material revision process, which required the District to conduct a full petition review, provide feedback through redline versions, and conduct a second review of the updates, before a determination regarding the violation would be made in January 2026. Outlined below are the dates and activities/actions completed for the review of the material revision requests submitted on October 10.

Date	Activity/Action
October 10	HCCTS re-submitted material revision requests for both schools (CICA and HCCS)
October 10 – October 15 (3 work-days)	TRUSD legal counsel and staff reviewed petitions to ensure they were complete.
October 16 to November 19 (23 work-days)	TRUSD staff and legal counsel conducted the initial review of both material revisions and sent redline versions to HCCTS for edits (November 19).
November 20 – December 2 (12 business-days)	HCCTS edited and returned the material revision requests asserting that all required changes were included.
December 3 – December 15 (9 work-days)	TRUSD staff and legal counsel conducted a second review to ensure all required changes were included. This review found that both petitions failed to address all required changes including, but not limited to, compliance with physical fitness assessment (HCCS Appeal, p 5985). In this instance, HCCS specifically stated they would not implement the required assessment.
December 16 and 18	HCCS and TRUSD met via zoom on both days to discuss the changes that HCCTS failed to make in the petitions.
December 19	HCCTS formally withdrew both petitions and stated intent to re-submit material revision requests that only addressed the violation regarding site locations.

Valuable time was lost during this time because HCCS waited until December 19, 2025, to pivot from the material revision to identifying actual steps toward compliance. As outlined below, the record reflects that HCCTS proposed multiple grade-level transition plans between December 2, 2025 and January 2, 2026. However, these plans did not bring HCCS into compliance with its Charter. HCCS continues to serve students in 9th and 10th grade to date.

In the first transition plan, presented on December 12, 2025 (HCCS Appeal, p. 5046), HCCTS proposed mass moving all students currently enrolled in 9th and 10th grades into 12th grade. However, this plan would have constituted another material violation because it ignored the process described in the Charter for moving students into grade 12. The Charter outlines a structured, data-driven process for student progression into high school (i.e., 12th grade) and includes specific assessment criteria for the transition. (HCCS Appeal, p. 1318, under header "Re-designation".) The proposed transition plan did not reflect the described process but instead contemplated placements inconsistent with the Charter. This demonstrates that the proposed plan did not align with the Charter requirements and therefore was not remedied.

In the second transition plan submitted on January 2, 2026, HCCS proposed an alternative approach in which returning students would be enrolled into 9th and 10th grade. This proposal would have perpetuated the violation. Specifically, HCCTS' plan stated, "…students of Highlands who were previously placed in grades 9 or 10 and are now on the waitlist seeking to return would be placed in the appropriate high school grade level (e.g., in grade 9 if they started but had not yet completed 9th grade, or in 10th grade if they previously completed 9th grade or in 12th grade if they have transitioned from 9th and 10th grades)." (HCCS Appeal, p. 5289.) This proposal contemplated continuing to enroll students in grade levels not authorized under HCCS' Charter and therefore also demonstrated that the violation was not remedied.

The District received a third grade-level transition plan, submitted on January 9, 2026. (HCCS Appeal, pp. 5284–5285). In this third plan, HCCTS proposed to postpone full compliance with the Charter until "July 1, 2026." While this third plan asserted future compliance, the District had previously notified HCCTS in the Notice of Intent to Revoke (HCCS Appeal, p. 1259) that assertions without evidence did not demonstrate compliance.

HCCTS asserts that the District's revocation findings are not supported by substantial evidence because District staff indicated during the January 27, 2026, Board meeting that this violation could be considered remedied. However, the record reflects that despite Staff's recommendation related to this violation, the District Board did not accept this recommendation and ultimately determined that substantial evidence supporting the Board's conclusion that the violation was not remedied.

Taken together, HCCTS' admission, the sequence of proposals, revisions, and withdrawals; timelines reflecting delayed and incomplete action; and the transition plans that did not align with the Charter, constitute substantial evidence supporting the District Board's finding that HCCS committed a material violation and the violation was not remedied. Regardless of whether the material revision request submitted to the District related to this Charter violation was denied by the Board, the fact remains that this violation had not been remedied by the time the remedy period had lapsed and District Staff and the Board found that HCCS' proposed remedial action did not sufficiently address this violation.

As stated in the Notice of Intent to Revoke, "The HCCS Response failed to provide any evidence or information as to how the Charter School will transition to approved grades in order to ensure compliance with the current Charter or to add 11th grade (should the material revision be approved). The HCCS Response failed to provide any plans, timelines, or actions that will be taken in order to transition from the current structure to the approved grade levels." (HCCS Appeal, p. 1242.)

4. Violation of Charter – Location Changes

As stated above, the District was under no obligation to consider evidence submitted after the September 26, 2025, remedy period had lapsed, and Staff findings adopted by the Board in support of revocation are set forth in the Notice of Intent to Revoke. (HCCS Appeal, pp. 1260-1261.) Even so, a review of HCCS' additional submissions further substantiates those findings and confirms that the violation was not remedied.

Substantial evidence in the record supports the District's finding that HCCS committed a material violation of the Charter and MOU Amendment No. 3 by expanding operations to additional locations and/or relocating existing locations, including satellite facilities or resource centers, without obtaining an approved material revision. Substantial evidence also supports the District's finding that this violation was not remedied.

HCCTS expressly acknowledged the violation, stating: "Highlands acknowledges that in the past, locations were opened or relocated without first completing the formal material revision process required by the MOU. This was a failure of compliance, and we take responsibility for it." (HCCS Appeal, p. 6509.) This admission alone constitutes substantial evidence supporting the District's finding.

The record further reflects that HCCTS was aware of the need to address the violation as early as June 2024. (HCCS Appeal, p. 6508.) The District issued a Notice of Violation on June 17, 2025, and required submission of all materials, responses, and evidence by September 26, 2025. Since the NOV was issued before the first day of school for the 2025-26 year (August 14, 2025), HCCS had nearly two months to identify student-serving locations that complied with the terms of the approved petition and MOU. Instead, HCCTS chose to perpetuate the violation by utilizing locations that were not approved. HCCS made the decision to submit a remedy plan that would require an approved material revision rather than complying with the terms of the approved Charter.

During the December 2, 2025, District Board meeting, HCCTS representatives confirmed that HCCS was still operating at unapproved locations, making commitments to return to the approved sites if the proposed material revision request was denied. HCCTS representatives further indicated that future location decisions could be made from among any approved sites. HCCTS did not provide actionable plans or information as to which sites they were referencing. (HCCS Appeal, December 2, 2025, Board Meeting Video, Minute Marker 0:58:00–1:01:24.) This evidence reflects that HCCS continued operating at unapproved locations and openly refused to identify the sites they intended to return to, if the material revision were denied.

As stated above in this TRUSD Response regarding the grade-level violation, HCCTS submitted three (3) material revision requests between September 26, 2025 and January 2, 2026. The first material revision request was submitted on September 29, 2025, although an incomplete submission was received on September 26, 2025 (HCCS Appeal, p. 6564); the second on October 10, 2025 (HCCS Appeal, p. 7784); and the third submitted on January 2, 2026 (HCCS Appeal, p. 5302). These submissions show a clear pattern in which HCCS expended significant time and energy trying to get approval for violations, rather than taking action to ensure compliance.

The third, and final proposed material revision request was not submitted until January 2, 2026, and was denied on January 13, 2026. In this final request, HCCS proposed, through a material revision, to operate at 17 locations (14 student serving locations and 3 administrative locations). HCCS provided verbal commitments to return to approved locations if the revision request was denied. (HCCS Appeal, p. 5040.) The record reflects that HCCS was occupying all fourteen (14) student serving locations. Of these 14 locations, HCCS was approved to operate at thirteen (13). The only location that HCCS needed to vacate in order to be compliant with MOU Amendment No. 3 was 10013 Folsom Blvd, Sacramento, CA 95827 (see table below).

Approved locations are listed in MOU Amendment No. 3 in the HCCS Appeal, pp. 354-356.*

After the material revision request was denied on January 13 and during a presentation to the TRUSD Board on January 27, 2026, HCCTS provided two conflicting statements regarding the location violation:

- HCCTS asserted it had submitted plans that, once implemented would cure the violation. Specifically, HCCTS represented that, "HCCS has submitted formal plans to cure alternatively" as noted at the bottom of the presentation slide for grade-level and location violations (HCCS Appeal, p. 5270).

- HCCTS also represented that HCCS had "…returned to the locations approved in MOU Amendment No. 3" (HCCS Appeal, p. 5272).

However, District Staff confirmed that rather than confirming that HCCS had vacated from the 10013 Folsom Blvd. location, HCCTS assured that HCCS was in the process of "moving to locations that are approved." (HCCS Appeal, p. 2517.) The record does not include a termination agreement or even communications between HCCS and the landlord (Buzz Oates Management Services) to indicate the site has even been vacated. Evidence that HCCS had vacated from the location was absolutely necessary to ensure compliance, especially with assertions made by HCCTS on January 13, 2026, that they would move from unapproved locations.

Taken together, HCCTS' admission, its continued operation at the unapproved location, and the absence of a defined and implemented plan to return to approved sites within the time provided, constituted substantial evidence supporting the District's finding that HCCS committed a material violation of its Charter and failed to remedy that violation.

5. Violation of Law – Failure to Submit Annual Independent Audit Report

While the remedy period lapsed on September 26, 2025, and the District's operative findings regarding this violation are those contained in the Notice of Intent to Revoke (HCCS Appeal, p. 1262), the following also addresses HCCS' post-remedy period submissions. As shown below, those additional submissions do not alter, and in fact further support the conclusion that the violation was not remedied.

Substantial evidence in the record supports the District's finding that HCCS committed a violation of law for failure to submit the independent audit report. Substantial evidence also supports the District's finding that this violation was not remedied.

HCCTS expressly acknowledged the violation, stating: "Highlands acknowledges that the 2023–24 audit has not yet been submitted to TRUSD and that multiple deadlines were missed. (HCCS Appeal, p. 6511.) This admission alone constitutes substantial evidence supporting the District's finding.

The District's decision to proceed with revocation of HCCS' Charter is supported by substantial evidence demonstrating that HCCS failed to remedy the violation of law - the requirement to submit a valid independent financial audit. Although the Charter School ultimately submitted a 2023–24 report on January 2, 2026, the report did not result in an unqualified or even qualified opinion. Instead, the auditor (Eide Baily) issued a disclaimer of opinion, indicating an inability to obtain sufficient appropriate evidence to form any conclusion regarding the reliability of the financial statements.

Eide Bailly provided a letter dated December 31, 2025 (HCCS Appeal, pp. 5664-5665) in which the auditor clearly indicated that the 2023-24 report does not constitute a compliant audit and confirms the absence of any reliable financial review. In the auditor's letter to the HCCTS Board of Directors, Eide Bailly stated:

> "Our responsibility is to conduct an audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America and to issue an auditor's report. However, because of the matter described in the Basis for Disclaimer of Opinion section of our report, we were not able to obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence to provide a basis for an audit opinion on these financial statements." (HCCS Appeal, p 5665.)

An audit, by definition, culminates in an opinion supported by sufficient and appropriate evidence. Here, the auditor explicitly disclaimed that HCCS did not provide such evidence and, therefore, no opinion could be rendered. As a result, the report provides no assurance as to the accuracy, completeness, or reliability of the HCCS's financial statements.

In effect, the report submitted is equivalent to not completing an audit at all. The auditor did not validate the financial records, did not reach any conclusions regarding their fairness, and did not provide the fundamental assurance required under law. Instead, the report affirmatively establishes that the auditor could not perform the core function of an audit. Under these circumstances, the District reasonably concluded that HCCS failed to meet its statutory obligation to submit the 2023-24 independent audit conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards.

Compounding these concerns, the audit expressly conveyed the auditor's "substantial doubt" about the organization's "ability to continue as a going concern." (HCCS Appeal, p. 5664.) These findings reflect a fundamental breakdown in fiscal management and internal controls, leaving the District without any reliable basis to assess the Charter School's financial condition. Education Code section 47607 requires that revocation decisions be supported by substantial evidence, defined as evidence that is reasonable, credible, and of solid value. Here, the record contains substantial evidence that HCCS did not satisfy its legal obligation.

While HCCTS' remedy plan included a commitment for timely submission of the audit report in the future, HCCS has failed to follow-through with this commitment. As of the date of this TRUSD Response, HCCTS has not submitted their 2024-25 audit, which was due December 15, 2025. While the District understands that the March 30, 2026, correspondence from SCOE indicated that our arguments in response to the appeal are to be confined to the appeal record, and no new evidence will be considered, this fact clearly illustrates that the TRUSD Board appropriately found that HCCS failed to sufficiently remedy this violation of law. As identified by District Board President Jefferson during the November 4, 2025, Board meeting, "There has to be a process where we can get Highlands Charter into compliance because this has been ongoing for more than a year." (HCCS Appeal, November 4, 2025, Board Meeting Video, Minute Marker 2:13:01.)

Accordingly, the District has determined that HCCS failed to refute this violation to the satisfaction of the District or remedy this violation. Moreover, the District acted within its oversight authority and duty to protect public funds and ensure compliance with applicable law. Accepting a no-opinion audit as sufficient would be inconsistent with legal requirements and impair our ability as authorizer to conduct meaningful fiscal oversight.

6. Violation of Law – Failure to Track Minimum Instructional Minutes

In making its decision to revoke HCCS' Chater based upon this violation of law, the Board incorporated the findings set forth in the Notice of Intent to Revoke, which reflect the District's final determination at the close of the remedy period. Those findings are supported by substantial evidence in the record and are reproduced below for SCBOE's reference and consideration:

> While the HCCS Response references a pending decision from the Education Audit Appeal Panel regarding the State Auditor's Report, the District notes that the NOV neither cited nor relied upon any findings from the Auditor's Report. As outlined in the NOV, the District's conclusions were based on direct observations made during site visits and corroborating evidence identified in the District commissioned Attendance Audit finalized in January 2025.
>
> In Exhibit AI of the HCCS Response, HCCS included a student calendar for the 2025-26 school year. Many of the teacher work days and student minimum days were missing from the calendar. On October 8, 2025 the District sought clarification regarding the discrepancies. HCCTS apologized for the confusion and provided a second calendar, stating that the updated version was correct. A subsequent communication from HCCTS on October 13, 2025 provided a third calendar. HCCTS indicated that they had made another error and they were intending to bring the most recent (October 13) calendar to the HCCTS Board the following week. To-date, HCCTS has not provided the District with the final, HCCTS Board approved student calendar.
>
> The HCCS Response indicates that the Charter School is partially relying on the decision made by the Education Audit Appeal Panel to fully cure and/or remedy this violation. Therefore, the District cannot make the determination that this violation has been remedied or cured without the final determination regarding the EAAP appeal.
> Although the District acknowledges the level of detail in the HCCS Response and the reported efforts to increase student engagement, the core issue remains unresolved: students cannot be required to attend at least 80% of the time when classroom capacity does not accommodate all students listed on a teacher's roster. The HCCS Response failed to include documentation verifying classroom capacity, student-to teacher ratios, or teacher rosters/records necessary to confirm that enrollment does not exceed facility limitations.

The NOV further cited observations of students being sent home with packets and others arriving and leaving intermittently without remaining for instruction. HCCS provided no evidence that these practices have been corrected, communicated to staff, or are being actively monitored for compliance. The District finds that the submission of revised Board Policies, absent corresponding evidence of implementation or oversight, is insufficient to demonstrate that corrective actions have occurred.

Accordingly, HCCS's assertions remain unsupported by verifiable evidence. Therefore, the District has determined that HCCS failed to refute or remedy this violation to the satisfaction of the District.

(HCCS Appeal, pp. 1263-1264.)

7. Violation of Law – Violation of WIOA Exclusive Partnership Agreement

The District Board's final decision to revoke for violation of the WIOA exclusive partnership agreement is grounded in Staff's findings contained in the Notice of Intent to Revoke, which documents the District's findings as of the close of the remedy period and were incorporated by the Board in support of its decision. These findings constitute the evidentiary basis for the District's action. The pertinent Notice of Intent to Revoke language may be reviewed on pages 1266-1267 of the HCCS Appeal and is provided below for the SCBOE's reference and consideration.

The HCCS Response acknowledges that prior practices violated the requirements of WIOA, which mandates that instruction be provided exclusively in partnership with WIOA programs. In the HCCS Response, HCCTS restated actions taken prior to the issuance of the NOV and asserted a commitment to correcting past errors and ensuring future compliance. However, the three (3) exhibits submitted were identical to those previously provided to the District and did not offer any new or substantive evidence to refute or remedy the violation.

Due to the absence of additional supporting documentation, the District finds that this violation remains unremedied. Furthermore, the District notes material inconsistencies between statements provided by the CTE Instructor and representations made in the HCCS Response. Accordingly, the District has determined that HCCS failed to refute or remedy this violation to the satisfaction of the District.

8. Engaged in Fiscal Mismanagement – San Diego Administrative Location

While the remedy period lapsed on September 26, 2025, and the District's operative findings regarding this violation are those contained in the Notice of Intent to Revoke (HCCS Appeal, p. 1268), HCCS' post-remedy period submissions further demonstration that the violation was not remedied.

Substantial evidence in the record supports the District's finding that HCCS engaged in fiscal mismanagement by securing a site at 406 9th Avenue, Suite 310, San Diego, CA 92101 ("San Diego site"), which constituted a significant and inappropriate expenditure of public funds. The location is advertised as a 1,068 square foot condominium that "Includes a dedicated balcony with unparalleled views of Petco Park", a Major League Baseball stadium. This facility was located nowhere near HCCS students. (HCCS Appeal, pp. 4670-4672.)

HCCTS expressly acknowledged the violation by stating that the decision "was a misstep that does not align with our mission or our responsibility to ensure all expenditures directly benefit students." (HCCS Appeal, p. 4890.) This admission alone constitutes substantial evidence supporting the District's finding.

The record further reflects that the District Board articulated concerns regarding both the nature of the expenditure and the lack of a plan to address this misuse of public funds. During the December 2, 2025, Board meeting, Trustee Elkarra stated: "I understand it was to expand into the San Diego region, but my understanding is that this was, like, a penthouse, like, overseeing the baseball stadium. It was a very expensive suite, you know, why not just rent an office space somewhere in San Diego? Why, you know, spend so much money…" (HCCS Appeal, December 2, 2025, Board Meeting Video, Minute Marker 2:43:29.)

Separately, Trustee Baker directly raised the issue of financial remediation, asking "How the tax payers are going to get that money back…", and further stating that this was an essential question he was "...going to need to be addressed." (HCCS Appeal, December 2, 2025, Board Meeting Video, Minute Marker 1:31:42.) In response to Trustee Baker's question regarding recovery of funds, HCCTS legal counsel stated: "They're not. They're not gonna get it back." (HCCS Appeal, December 2, 2025, Board Meeting Video, Minute Marker 1:32:07.) This response demonstrates that HCCTS declined to pursue or even consider a path to possibly recoup the improperly expended public funds. As a result, HCCTS failed to identify a remedy reasonably calculated to address the fiscal violation.

Although HCCTS leadership asserted that they could not "go back in time" to address past expenditures, the record shows they understood that corrective action may include efforts to recover previously expended funds. HCCTS acknowledged taking such steps in other contexts, stating:

> "I can tell you, though, that with regard to some expenses, the school has sent letters. Asking for money to be returned to the school. And specifically, that relates to the trip to Hawaii and the trip to Paris that occurred. Jonathan personally sent the letters to the individuals who went on those trips, demanding they return that money." (HCCS Appeal, December 2, 2025, Board Meeting Video, Minute Marker 1:34:04.)

These actions demonstrate HCCTS recognized that seeking repayment is a viable means of addressing improper expenditures. However, HCCTS leadership did not propose or pursue a comparable remedy to address the funds expended on the San Diego site.

The District informed HCCS of its failure to remedy the violation as described in the November 4, 2025 Notice of Intent to Revoke: "The District notes that considerable public funds were expended on a facility that has not been used to serve HCCTS students, and no evidence has been provided to demonstrate that these expenditures have been appropriately addressed, mitigated, or remedied. Although the District recognizes the actions taken to reduce ongoing costs, this violation remains unresolved." (HCCS Appeal, p. 1268.)

On January 2, 2026, HCCS provided a remedy plan with an explanation of the evidence they had submitted to address the violation. (HCCS Appeal, pp. 5910-5912.) The remedy plan focused exclusively on the San Diego lease agreement and promises of future compliance through updates to HCCTS board policies. HCCS did not present corrective actions directed at restoring misused public funds or otherwise mitigating the fiscal impact.

During the January 27, 2026, District Board meeting, District Staff presented its findings and recommendation regarding this fiscal mismanagement basis to revoke. (HCCS Appeal, p. 2518.) The presentation on page 2518 shows that staff found that HCCS had terminated or bought out the lease (addressing the cessation of future expenses), adopted or revised board policies (which included requirements already outlined in law), and updated the fiscal policies and procedures manual (promises of future compliance). District Staff represented that they believed the violation could be considered remedied because HCCTS addressed the issue of ongoing expenditures and promised to comply with law moving forward. However, Staff did not find that HCCS had addressed the misspent funds. The District Board ultimately disagreed with Staff's recommendation related to this fiscal mismanagement ground to revoke, concluding that the fiscal harm had not been addressed, and that HCCS failed to remedy the violation as no attempt was made to return the misused public funds.

HCCTS's chosen course of action was limited to a two-month early lease termination which failed to address the core issue identified by the District - the improper expenditure of public funds and the absence of accountability for those funds. HCCTS' failure to explore any potential avenue for restitution or mitigation substantially supports the Board's determination that the violation remained not sufficiently remedied. Accordingly, the District Board's determination to revoke HCCS' Charter is supported by substantial evidence and reflects a rational and appropriate exercise of its oversight responsibility to ensure fiscal accountability and protect against the inappropriate use of public funds.

9. Engaged in Fiscal Mismanagement – Marysville 2 Baseball Field

As stated above, the District was under no obligation to consider evidence submitted after the September 26, 2025, remedy period had lapsed, and Staff findings adopted by the Board in support of revocation are set forth in the Notice of Intent to Revoke. (HCCS Appeal, p. 1269.) Even so, a review of HCCS' additional submissions after the remedy period had lapsed, further substantiates those findings and confirms that the violation was not remedied.

Substantial evidence in the record supports the District's finding that HCCS engaged in fiscal mismanagement and misuse of public funds related to the Marysville baseball field location. Substantial evidence also supports the District's finding that the violation was not remedied.

HCCTS expressly acknowledged the violation, stating that the decision was "unsound and did not reflect appropriate planning or stewardship of public resources." HCCTS further admitted that "Entering into the lease and purchasing equipment were poor decisions that created the appearance - and in practice, the reality - of fiscal mismanagement." (HCCS Appeal, p. 4891.) This admission alone constitutes substantial evidence supporting the District's finding.

The record reflects that HCCS and the City of Marysville entered into a questionable agreement. (HCCS Appeal, pp. 7696-7697.) This agreement obligated HCCS to make monthly rent payments starting at $2,000 per month but did not provide HCCS with access to the baseball field. Instead, it obligated HCCTS to assume extensive financial and operational responsibilities. The only access to the facility as described in the agreement was limited to "Other Reserved Events." There is no other provision that described any other access to the facility for HCCS students and/or staff.

Specifically, the agreement states "Lessee shall have the right to book, promote, sponsor and/or stage Other Reserved Events on condition that Lessee provide City a minimum of 60 days advance notice of Lessee's proposed Other Reserved Event and obtains the City's consent to same, which consent will not be unreasonably withheld." (HCCS Appeal, p. 7695.)

While the language restricted access to the facility, it also imposed broad financial obligations on HCCS, including responsibility for capital repairs and major systems: "Lessee is Responsible for all Aspects of Maintenance and Repair…These maintenance obligations are ongoing. Lessee shall be responsible for all aspects of maintenance and repairs to include without limitation any capital repairs and major maintenance of the Property and all City owned capital facilities therein." (HCCS Appeal, pp. 7696-7697.) These obligations included, but were not limited to:

- Regular Maintenance - "…be responsible for regular maintenance… seats, public lavatories and restroom facilities, regular and routine maintenance of the HVAC, plumbing, electrical, water, sewage and onsite drainage systems." (HCCS Appeal, pp. 7696-7697.)
- No "Wear and Tear" Considerations - The facilities must be "…in at least as good or better condition at the end of this Agreement…Lessee's obligations of maintenance, replacement and repair shall not take into consideration 'reasonable wear and tear'. To the contrary, Lessee's obligations require Lessee to maintain and repair the Property and all City-owned capital facilities at all times so as to negate the effects of 'ordinary wear and tear'." (HCCS Appeal, p. 7697.)
- Structural Repairs, Plumbing, and Electrical - "Lessee is responsible for capital replacement and repairs of the structure, structural members, foundations, footings, roof, balconies, floors, columns, steps, ramps, doors, windows, walls, fixed stadium seats and seating areas, fixed concession areas, water and plumbing systems, electrical systems and electrical lights (including light standards and field lighting/ballasts), pipes and mains, sidewalks, fencing, parking surfaces, the scoreboard and all integral components of the foregoing and all fences and fencing. Such major maintenance and repair responsibilities Lessee apply whether the major maintenance or repair is ordinary or extraordinary, foreseen or unforeseen, necessitated by wear and tear, obsolescence, or any other cause." (HCCS Appeal, p. 7697.)
- Taxes/Levies - "Lessee shall pay any possessory interest tax levied against the Property by the Assessor of Yuba County. Any taxes owing as a result of the private or commercial use of the Property are the sole expense of Lessee, including any subsequent taxes, levies or increases to existing taxes to which Lessee or its affiliates would be subject." (HCCS Appeal, p. 7703.)

The record reflects (HCCS Appeal, pp. 4726-4731) that between May 2023 and January 2025, HCCS expended approximately $228,305 in public funds related to the baseball field.

- 99,276.95 in maintenance and repairs
- $21,050.00 in OSHA-related corrections
- $23,206.25 in utilities
- $30,477.66 in field use fees (this in addition to monthly rent)
- $44,087.81 in rent.

The record further reflects inappropriate transactions associated with the facility, including a $25,000 donation characterized as a "sponsorship" (HCCS Appeal, p. 1063); a termination agreement requiring payments exceeding $33,000 through April 30, 2026; and the transfer of publicly funded equipment valued at more than $52,000 to the City of Marysville for $1 (HCCS Appeal, pp. 4640-4642). This evidence further supports the District's finding that public resources were used in a manner inconsistent with prudent fiscal management and that considerations for a method to make the taxpayers whole was never a consideration for HCCTS.

With respect to its asserted remedy to address this ground to revoke, HCCS points to the termination agreement that required lease through April 30, 2026, the adoption of new HCCTS board policies, and implementing leadership changes.

The termination agreement HCCTS entered into with the City stated, "City shall continue to receive payment equal lease payments from Lessee from December 1, 2024, through April 30, 2026, in the amount of $33,639.80. (HCCS Appeal, p. 4640.) By signing this agreement, HCCS committed itself to continued financial obligations through the end of April 2026.

While HCCTS has adopted policies related to this violation, the addition of HCCTS authored policies does not provide evidence of achieved compliance and does not address recovery of expended funds or demonstrate implementation of enhanced fiscal controls sufficient to prevent similar expenditures in the future.

The record reflects that HCCS did not take action or make any attempt to recover or reimburse the public funds expended under the agreement. As referenced above, the TRUSD Board expressed significant concern with the misuse of public funds and inquired about how HCCTS would address these expenditures (HCCS Appeal, December 2, 2025, Board Meeting Video, Minute marker 1:31:42.) By declaring that the taxpayers are "not going to get it back" (HCCS Appeal, December 2, 2025, Board Meeting Video, Minute Marker 1:32:07), HCCTS discarded the concerns expressed by the District Board, opting for a remedy plan that essentially consisted of promises of future compliance.

Taken together, HCCS's admission, the terms of the facility agreement imposing substantial financial obligations with limited educational access or benefit, the waste of significant public funds, the transfer of publicly funded assets for nominal value, and the failure to make any attempts at making taxpayers whole, constitutes substantial evidence supporting the District's determination that HCCS failed to remedy this failure to remedy this engagement in fiscal mismanagement ground to revoke.

D. Conclusion

The record before the SCBOE contains substantial evidence supporting the District's findings in support of revocation.

For each violation, there is substantial evidence on the record that HCCS violated the law, its Charter/MOU, and engaged in fiscal mismanagement, and failed to remedy those violations within the required remedy period (June 17, 2025 – September 26, 2025). In multiple instances, HCCS continued to operate out of compliance, failed to provide required documentation, and relied on assurances of future compliance rather than demonstrating that compliance had been achieved and violations remedied.

HCCS' assertions that progress, intent, or future plans should be deemed sufficient to find that its violations have been remedied is inconsistent with the statutory framework. Education Code section 47607 requires that violations be remedied, not merely addressed through proposed actions or deferred commitments. The District Board properly applied this standard and concluded that based upon substantial evidence HCCS violated the law, its Charter, and engaged in fiscal mismanagement, and that HCCS failed to sufficiently remedy these violations.

While District Staff identified areas of improvement and, with some of the violations recommended that progress made by HCCS could support a finding that the violation had been remedied, the District Board did not accept Staff's recommendation and ultimately determined that the violations were not remedied. That determination and final decision to revoke was within the District Board's lawful authority and discretion and is supported by substantial evidence in the record.

Even when viewed individually, the violations provide substantial evidence supporting revocation. Taken together, the violations demonstrate a broader pattern of noncompliance, including:

- Expanding grade levels without an approved material revision
- Continued operation at unapproved locations;
- Failure to produce a valid independent audit;
- Misuse of public funds without meaningful corrective action; and
- Failure to establish or document compliance with instructional minute requirements.

These are not technical or minor deficiencies, but fundamental failures affecting fiscal integrity, legal compliance, and the District's ability to provide effective oversight.

HCCS was afforded both notice and ample opportunity to remedy these violations. Rather than demonstrating compliance within the remedy period, HCCS elected to pursue alternative strategies, seeking approval after the fact, revising plans, and offering assurances of future compliance. In doing so, HCCS assumed the risk that such efforts would not be sufficient for the District Board to decline to revoke HCCS' Charter, which the District Board ultimately concluded that it did not based on substantial evidence.

Should the SCBOE conclude that substantial evidence in the record supports the District's findings as to all, or any one of the grounds for revocation, that determination compels the SCBOE to affirm/uphold the District's revocation decision. Therefore, the District respectfully urges the SCBOE to affirm/uphold the District Board's decision to revoke HCCS' Charter.

SACRAMENTO COUNTY OFFICE OF EDUCATION
ANALYSIS OF HIGHLANDS COMMUNITY CHARTER SCHOOL AND CALIFORNIA INNOVATIVE CAREER ACADEMY CHARTER REVOCATION APPEALS

I. INTRODUCTION

On January 30, 2026, the Twin Rivers Unified School District ("District") Board of Trustees ("Board") revoked the charters of the Highlands Community Charter School ("HCCS") and California Innovative Career Academy ("CICA") (collectively "Charter Schools"). Both HCCS and CICA are operated by Highlands Community Charter and Technical Schools ("HCCTS"), a nonprofit public benefit corporation. On February 27, 2026, the Charter Schools timely filed appeals from the revocations to the Sacramento County Board of Education (County Board), under Education Code section 47607, subdivision (i).

On appeal, the County Board's scope of review is limited to determining whether the revocation findings made by the District Board are supported by substantial evidence. (Ed. Code, § 47607, subd. (i).)

The Education Code identifies three potential outcomes for charter revocation appeals:

- The County Board "may reverse the revocation decision if the county board of education determines that the findings made by the chartering authority under subdivision (h) are not supported by substantial evidence." (Ed. Code, § 47607, subd. (i)(2).)

- The County Board may affirm the revocation if it finds that the findings of the District Board are supported by substantial evidence. (Ed. Code, § 47607, subd. (i)(2).)

- If the County Board does not issue a decision on the appeal within 90 days of receipt, the Charter School may appeal the revocation to the State Board of Education (SBE). (Ed. Code, § 47607, subd. (i)(3)) If the County Board does not issue a decision within 90 days, the District's decision is upheld, pending any further appeal. (Cal. Code Regs., tit. 5, § 11968.5.4, subd. (b).)

If the County Board upholds a revocation or does not issue a decision on the appeal, the Charter School may appeal to the SBE. If the County Board reverses a revocation, the District may appeal to the SBE. (Ed. Code, § 47607, subds. (i)(2),(3).)

If the County Board (without further appeal) or SBE reverse the revocation, the Charter School would return to authorization by the District. (Ed. Code, § 47607, subd. (k).)

II. SUMMARY OF ANALYSIS

The threshold question for the County Board is whether the District's revocation of the charters was supported by substantial evidence. The County Board may uphold the revocations if it finds that the revocations were supported by substantial evidence; it may reverse the revocations if it finds that they were not supported by substantial evidence.

In Napa Valley Unified School District v. State Bd. of Education (2025) 110 Cal. App. 5th 609, 625 the court explained:

> Under the substantial evidence test, our review begins and ends with a determination of whether there is substantial evidence, contradicted or uncontradicted, to support the findings. We do not reweigh the evidence and are bound to indulge all presumptions and resolve all conflicts in favor of the administrative decision. Substantial evidence is relevant evidence that a reasonable mind might accept as adequate to support a conclusion.

After issuing several requests for information and Notices of Concern to the Charter Schools over many months, the District initiated the formal revocation process by issuing a Notice of Violation (NOV) in June 2025 for material violations of the charter and Memorandum of Understanding (MOU), failure to meet generally accepted accounting principles, engaging in fiscal mismanagement, and violations of law. The Notice of Violation provided the Charter Schools with a remedy period up to and including September 26, 2025 (HCCS 28-6500; CICA 36-6428)[1]. The District concluded that the Charter Schools had not remedied the violations by the end of the remedy period. The appeal record includes adequate evidence to support this conclusion (Id.; HCCS 1254-1270, 6505-6525, 2483-2500; CICA 1439-1455, 6433-6453, 2884-2901). As a result, on November 4, 2025, the District Board issued a Notice of Intent to Revoke and moved forward with the legally required revocation proceedings, including holding public hearings on the revocations and taking final action on the revocations within the legally required time periods (HCCS 1254-1274, 8212-8217, 8170-8190; CICA 1439-1472, 7152-7157, 7110-7130).

After the District Board adopted the Notice of Intent to Revoke, the Charter Schools continued their efforts to remedy their violations after the remedy deadline through January 2026. At the January 27, 2026 Board meeting on the final revocation decisions, District staff recommended that the Board decline to revoke the charters based on staff's findings that the Charter Schools had successfully refuted or remedied all violations after the conclusion of the remedy period (HCCS 8206-8207; CICA 7146-7147). However, the District Board declined to adopt the staff's recommendations and, on January 30, 2026, adopted resolutions revoking both Charter Schools based upon the findings and supporting evidence submitted with its November 4, 2025 Notice of Intent to Revoke, in which it determined that the Charter Schools had not sufficiently remedied its violations by the end of the remedy period (HCCS 6503-6504; CICA 6431-6432).

The evidence in the appeal record shows that the District provided the notices and procedures required by Education Code section 47607, subdivision (h) before revoking the Charter Schools. The issue that arises is whether the District was required to consider the remedies performed by the Charter Schools after the close of the remedy period on September 26, 2025 to refute or remedy its violations. If not, the record contains substantial evidence to support the charter revocations.

However, if the District was required to consider the remedies performed by the Charter Schools after the close of the remedy deadline, then the County Board will need to determine whether the record contains substantial evidence, contradicted or uncontradicted, that is adequate to support the District Board's revocation decision.

III. FACTUAL AND PROCEDURAL BACKGROUND

A. Background of Charter Schools

[1] All references to the record are to the documents submitted with the HCCS and CICA appeals.

HCCS is a classroom-based charter school currently serving 613 students, with 1,668 students reported on its waitlist (HCCS 2, 4). Its charter states that it will service grades 1, 2, and 12 (HCCS 56). HCCS serves adult students from a wide range of age, ethnic, cultural and language backgrounds, specifically targeting high school dropouts, parents, immigrants, refugees, veterans, former foster youth, and ex-offenders (HCCS 2-4, 59-60). It offers a Career Technical Education (CTE) curriculum to its twelfth graders (HCCS 56-61, 75-78). The HCCS Charter identifies a main campus at 1333 Grand Avenue, Sacramento, CA 95838, and also identifies 23 other locations, consisting mostly of local businesses, agencies, and places of worship in Sacramento (HCCS 227-228). Its charter was originally authorized by the District in 2014, and its current charter term expires on June 30, 2027 (HCCS 1524).

CICA is a remote learning school currently serving 826 students, with 372 students reported on its waitlist (CICA 2-3, 37). It serves "adults 22 years of age and older, who do not have a U.S. high school diploma" (CICA 52, 1824). CICA seeks to serve unserved and underserved adults, many of whom are immigrants to the United States who are attending school to learn English, while pursuing a high school diploma and gaining career skills to make themselves employable, through a CTE curriculum (CICA 55-56). The CICA charter also identifies its location as 1333 Grand Avenue, Sacramento, CA 95838. Its charter was originally authorized by the District in 2019, and its current charter term expires on June 30, 2027 (CICA 1824).

Although not specifically the subject of the charter revocations, the Charters Schools acknowledge that, in June 2025, the California Office of the State Auditor issued an audit report accusing HCCS and CICA of compliance violations, including issues related to alleged fiscal mismanagement by members of the Charter Schools' previous leadership team. The Charter Schools assert that, even before the State Audit report was released, they had changed their Executive Director and hired a new leadership team in July 2025, who have been working to correct deficiencies caused by the prior executive leadership and move the Charter Schools into alignment with best practices. Furthermore, two appeals are pending with the Education Audit Appeals panel related to attendance accounting and credentialing and associated penalties (HCCS 4-5, 6515, 6861-6907; CICA 4-5, 7160, 7184).

B. District Revocation Proceedings

1. Allegations in June 2025 Notice of Violation

In June 2025, the District issued a Notice of Violation to HCCTS, alleging violations committed by both HCCS and CICA (HCCS 28-6500; CICA 36-6428). The Notice of Violation followed numerous Requests for Information and Notices of Concern previously issued to the Charter Schools over many months (See, e.g., HCCS 239-273, CICA 326-331 [August 2024 - March 2025 Correspondence Re Need for Material Revision to Serve Grade Levels Not Authorized by Approved Charters]; HCCS 294-302, 357-362, 394-397, 429-441, 497-508, CICA 353 - 370, 426-428, 574-575, 589-595, 658-659 [June 2024, August 2024, September 2024, January 2025, April 2025 Notices of Concern and Requests for Information Re Facility Location Discrepancies and MOU Compliance]; CICA 568 -573 [September 2024 Request for Information Re Enrollment Reports]; HCCS 510-568, CICA 697- 705 [March 2025, April 7, 2025, April 24, 2025 Requests for Information and Notices of Concern Re Independent Financial Audit Report]; HCCS 597-651, CICA 727 - 786 [October 2024 Request for Information Re Instructional Minutes; January 2025 Student Attendance Review]; CICA 1027 [April 2024 Notice of Concern Re Marysville 2 (Baseball Field) Location]; HCCS 572-574, 593-594, CICA 1098-1099, 1115-1119 [January 2025, March 2025 District Correspondence Re CALPads Reporting Errors]; HCCS 883 - 895, CICA 1316-1317, 1124-1125 [October 2024, December 2024, February 2025 District Complaint/Request for Information Re Non-students Participating in CTE Truck Driving Certification Courses], etc.).

The June 2025 Notice of Violation stated that "HCCTS has either failed to remedy multiple areas of concern despite receipt of multiple information requests and notices from the District or makes promises of future improvements without offering viable plans that either have been implemented or are capable of being implemented by HCCTS. As a result and since the District views [the Charter Schools'] material violations of the conditions, standards, and procedures of its Charter and MOU, failure to meet generally accepted accounting principles, or engaged in fiscal mismanagement, and violations of law as grounds for revocation, the District has determined that the point has been reached where it is necessary to initiate the first step in the formal revocation process contained in the Education Code, which is the issuance of a Notice of Violation..." (HCCS 44; CICA 44).

Unless otherwise indicated, the violations discussed below were alleged equally against both HCCS and CICA. The Charter Schools assert that all the violations allege conduct that either predated their current executive leadership team or relate to claims of failure by the current team to resolve issues that originated with prior leadership to the District's satisfaction (HCCS 6; CICA 6).

a. Alleged Violation of Charter

i. Grade Level Changes

The Notice of Violation alleged that both the HCCS and CICA Charters stated that they would offer grades 1, 2 and 12, but that the Charter Schools also enrolled students in grades 9 and 10 without requesting a material revision to the District, in violation of Education Code section 45604, subdivision (a)(4), which requires that "[a]fter receiving approval of its petition, a charter school that proposes to expand operations to one or more additional sites or grade levels shall request a material revision to its charter and shall notify the chartering authority of those additional locations or grade levels" (HCCS 31; CICA 39).

ii. Location Changes

The Notice of Violation alleged that both HCCS and CICA added locations not listed in their Charters, or the January 23, 2024 MOU between the parties which added additional locations, in violation of an MOU provision that the Charter Schools "submit a written request to the District if the 'Charter School seeks to establish operations at one or more additional locations(s) or move any of its existing location(s), including satellite facilities or resource centers…'" (HCCS 31; CICA 39). The MOU contains a provision incorporating its terms into that of the Charters (HCCS 1520-1523; CICA 1824-1827). The Notice of Violation also alleged that the Charter Schools failed to provide fully executed copies of lease agreements at the request of the District in violation of Education Code section 47604.3 (HCCS 32; CICA 40).

b. Alleged Violation of Law

i. Failure to Timely Submit Annual Independent Audit Report

The Notice of Violation alleged that HCCS and CICA failed to submit their annual independent audit report for Fiscal Year 2023-2024 by December 15, 2024, in violation of Education Code section 47605, subdivision (m), which requires charter schools to "transmit a copy of its annual, independent financial audit report for the preceding fiscal year...to its chartering authority...by December 15 of each year." Although the District requested the 2023-2024 audit report multiple times, as of June 2025, the audit report had not been submitted (HCCS 32; CICA 40).

The Notice of Violation also alleged that CICA's failure to timely and adequately respond to the District's inquiries regarding its audit report and operations at facilities violated Education Code section 47604.3 (HCCS 32; CICA 40).

ii. Credential Misassignments

The Notice of Violation alleged that the Charter Schools assigned a teacher with an Adult Education credential to teach subject matter in a general K-12 setting, relying on erroneous information from the San Diego County Office of Education instead of consulting with the California Commission on Teacher Credentialing (HCCS 32-33; CICA 41).

iii. Failure to Track Minimum Instructional Minutes

The Notice of Violation alleged that HCCS maintained average class sizes as high as 227 students, and that, during a site visit, students were observed arriving and leaving without intending to remain for instruction and were sent home with packets without attending the full instructional day due to limited classroom capacity. The Notice of Violation further noted that the Charter school discarded attendance records. Therefore, the District believed that Charter School students did not receive the 80 percent (80%) of classroom-based instructional minutes required for classroom-based schools (HCCS 33).

The Notice of Violation against CICA alleges that CICA confirmed in writing on September 9, 2024 that it "does not currently have an instructional minutes report" (CICA 41). After two written requests from the District for documentation showing how CICA tracked instructional minutes, the District noted the following concerns:

- Potential material changes to a Course-Based Independent Study delivery, which would require HCCTS Board approval under Education Code section 51749.5. The District did not believe the pacing guides contained all the required information that the HCCTS Board of Directors would need to certify the minutes under a course-based model.

- The hours listed for each course were not totaled and, in some cases, did not meet minimum instructional minute requirements as outlined in Education Code section 51747.5.

- No explanation for how requirements are met during weeks with less than five school days.

- No explanation whether all students are required to carry a full workload, which is required to determine whether the minimum instructional minutes were being met.

- Errors in the number of hours shown for certain courses, lack of time valuations for the "Guided Notes," and no explanation for how this course would total 103.2 hours as claimed.

- Discrepancies in the total hours and an explanation for the discrepancies are required to fully show the minimum instructional minutes are being met for English C and Pre-Algebra A.

- Discrepancies in the instructional calendar provided by the Charter Schools and in the agenda materials for the HCCTS May 15, 2025 Board meeting (CICA 42)[2].

iv. Alleged Violation of WIOA Exclusive Partnership Agreement

The Notice of Violation alleged that HCCS and CICA allowed individuals who were not enrolled students to participate in its CTE Truck Driving program, violating the legal requirement that instruction be provided exclusively in partnership with Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act (WIOA) programs, as contained in the WIOA Exclusive Partnership Agreement (HCCS 33-34; CICA 42-43).

c. Alleged Fiscal Mismanagement and Failure to Meet Generally Accepted Accounting Principles

The District alleged that HCCS and CICA committed fiscal mismanagement and failure to meet generally accepted accounting principles by securing and maintaining a site with public funds at 406 9th Avenue, Suite 310, San Diego, CA, listed as a luxury condominium with a balcony view of Petco Park, even though it serves no students in the area (HCCS 34-35; CICA 43).

The District also alleged that HCCS committed fiscal mismanagement and failure to meet generally accepted accounting principles by maintaining a site at 1431 C Street, Marysville, CA, listed in its MOU as a location for CTE programs. The District verified that the site was a baseball field, not provided for student use, for which HCCTS donated $25,000 for upgrades, including $12,500 to sponsor a privately operated professional baseball team (HCCS 34).

In response to several Notices of Concern by the District, HCCTS and the City of Marysville entered into a termination agreement for the baseball field. However, HCCTS under the agreement was still obligated to pay $33,639.80 in lease payments annually through April 30, 2026. HCCTS also sold publicly funded equipment valued at $52,494.34 to the City for $1.00 under the November 30, 2024 termination agreement (HCCS 34). The District alleged that the ongoing lease payments, the disposal of publicly funded equipment at a nominal price, and the initial misrepresentation of the site's intended use constitutes fiscal mismanagement (HCCS 35).

d. Notice of Violation Remedy Period

The Notice of Violation provided the Charter Schools a remedy period of "up to and including September 26, 2025" to provide the following responses set forth in California Code of Regulations, title 5, section 11968.5.2, subdivision (c):

(1) "Submit to the chartering authority a detailed, written response addressing each identified violation which shall include the refutation, remedial action taken, or proposed remedial action by the charter school

[2] The Charter Schools' receipt of state apportionment for instructional minutes was and is the subject of proceedings with the State of California. (HCCS 4-5, 6515, 6861-6907; CICA 4-5) specific to each alleged violation; the written response shall be due by the end of the remedy period identified in the Notice of Violation; [and]"

(2) "Attach to its written response supporting evidence of the refutation, remedial action, or proposed remedial action, if any, including written reports, statements, and other appropriate documentation" (HCCS 35; CICA 34-35).

The Notice of Violation further stated that "while the District appreciates and acknowledges HCCTS' responsiveness to various requests for information and notices of concern in other areas over the past twelve months, HCCTS has either failed to remedy multiple areas of concern despite its receipt of multiple information requests and notices of concern from the District or makes promises of future improvements without offering viable plans that either have been implemented or are capable of being implemented by HCCTS." (HCCS 35; CICA 44)

2. Notice of Intent to Revoke

On November 4, 2025, after the expiration of the remedy period, the District staff recommended that the Board take action on a Notice of Intent to Revoke. Staff concluded that the Charter Schools failed to remedy all but one of the violations identified in the District's June 2025 Notice of Violation:

> District staff have evaluated the [the Charter Schools'] Response[s] and all documentation produced by [the Charter Schools]. After conducting a thorough, objective, and data-driven review, District staff determined that [the Charter Schools] ha[ve] sufficiently addressed one of the violations, but ha[ve] failed to refute to the District's satisfaction, or remedy all of the violations identified in the NOV, and significant violations continue to exist, including material violations of the conditions, standards, or procedures of its charter, and violations of law. Consequently, District staff recommends that the Board issue this Notice of Intent to Revoke and notice of facts in support of revocation to [the Charter Schools] (HCCS 1239; CICA 1440).

The Board approved the issuance of the Notice of Intent to Revoke by a 6-0 vote, with one Board member absent (HCCS 8184-8185; CICA 7124-7125).

Following is a summary of the District's November 4, 2025 evaluation of whether the Charter Schools remedied the violations identified in the June 2025 Notice of Violation:

Violation	Charter School Response	District Determination
Charter Violations
1. Grade Level Change	HCCS acknowledged offering grades 9 and 10 beginning in 2020-2021 without seeking a material revision to the charter. HCCS submitted a request for material revision to the District under Ed. Code, §§ 47605, subd. (a)(4) and 47607 and indicated it would return to grade levels specified in the existing charter if the District disapproved of the material revision (HCCS 1242, 6507-6509, 6564, 7784, 5302; District Notice of Intent to Revoke Exh. B (HCCS 1483-1518)).	Not remedied. The request for material revision was submitted after the remedy period ended on September 26, 2025, depriving the District an opportunity to evaluate it before a recommendation was required on the Notice of Violation. While HCCTS states that it will align grades with the charter, it is currently serving students outside the charter, and its response failed to provide any plans, timelines, or actions that will be taken to transition from the current structure to the approved grade levels (HCCS 1242; CICA 1443; Notice of Violation Exh. B (HCCS 1483-1518) and TRUSD Mar. 26, 2025 letter (HCCS 1516)).
2. Location Changes	The Charter Schools acknowledged that they opened or relocated sites without seeking a material revision, as required by Education Code and MOU Amendment 3. Submitted a request for material revision to address this violation and indicated it would limit its operations to District-approved sites if the Board does not approve certain sites (HCCS 1243, 6509-6511; CICA 1444, 6435-6436, 6439).	Not remedied. The request for material revision was submitted after the remedy period ended on September 26, 2025, depriving the District an opportunity to evaluate it before a recommendation was required on the Notice of Violation. HCCS knowingly and willfully disregarded multiple Notices of Concern and District communications by repeatedly approving and occupying new locations despite its receipt of directives and warnings from the District. The Charter Schools are currently operating at locations that have not been approved by the District and failed to provide details regarding how the leases will be terminated for the locations or the corrective actions that will be taken to ensure continued compliance. The District also contends that HCCS failed to provide lease agreements in response to the District's April 23, 2025 Notice of Concern/ Request for Information regarding HCCS's sites (HCCS 1243-1244, 1742-1753; CICA 1444-1445; Notice of Violation Exh. C (HCCS 1519-1753); TRUSD April 23, 2025 Notice of Concern/ Request for Information (HCCS 1742-1753)).
Violations of Law
1. Failure to Submit 2023-2024 Annual Independent Audit Report	The Charter Schools acknowledged their obligation to provide FY 2023-2024 audit reports by December 15, 2024 under Ed. Code, § 47605, subd. (m) and that the audit reports have not been submitted and that multiple	Not remedied. The Charter Schools had not submitted the required audit report by the end of the September 26, 2025 remedy period, over nine months after the statutory deadline. The District issued a number of requests for the audit report

	deadlines were missed. Blames third party vendors for delay in finalizing the audit report and they will provide the completed audit report immediately upon its release from Eide Baily (HCCS 1245; CICA 1445-1446).	and Notices of Concern. The District found that " the delay is a direct and foreseeable consequence of internal failures in governance, fiscal oversight, and academic accountability" (HCCS 1245-1246; CICA 1446; Notice of Violation Exh. D (HCCS 1754-1813); TRUSD April 24, 2025 Notice of Concern (HCCS 1795-1796)).
2. Credential Mismanagement	HCCS and CICA laid off teachers not holding the required credential, conducted a credential review of its staff, and established support systems, hiring reforms, and governance safeguards (HCCS 1247-1249; CICA 1448-1450).	Remedied to the satisfaction of the District (HCCS 1248; CICA 1450; Notice of Violation Exh. E (HCCS 1814-2261)).
3. Failure to Track Minimum Instructional Minutes	HCCS: Cites corrective actions, including attendance tracking and enforcement, attendance policies, re-engagement strategies, and employee training (HCCS 1246). CICA: Cites compliant practices in documentation of student engagement, work product evaluation, and assessment of time-value through pacing guides (CICA 1448). HCCTS asserted there were numerous flaws with the state audit process which led to the conclusion that the Charter Schools owed a significant amount of apportionment to the state for disallowed ADA. Therefore, both Charter Schools have filed appeals with the Education Audit Appeals Panel (EAAP) (HCCS 6515, 6816-6907).	HCCS: Not remedied. HCCS failed to address unlawful practices directly witnessed by a District observer. HCCS failed to address the core issue that "students cannot be required to attend at least 80% of the time when classroom capacity does not accommodate all students listed on a teacher's roster," as "[t]he HCCS Response failed to include documentation verifying classroom capacity, student-to-teacher ratios, or teacher rosters/records necessary to confirm that enrollment does not exceed facility limitations" (HCCS 1246-1247). HCCS failed to address "observations of students being sent home with packets and others arriving and leaving intermittently without remaining for instruction" and "provided no evidence that these practices have been corrected, communicated to staff, or are being actively monitored for compliance" (HCCS 1247). HCCS submitted three versions of its student calendars, all of which contained discrepancies (HCCS 1247). The District found that HCCS's submission of revised board policies, without evidence of implementation, was insufficient to demonstrate corrective action (HCCS 1247). As the Charter School is partially relying on the pending Education Audit Appeal

		Panel (EAAP) decision to fully cure and/or remedy this violation, the District cannot determine that this violation has been remedied or cured without the final EAAP determination (HCCS 1247; Notice of Violation Exh. E (HCCS 1814-2261)). CICA: Not remedied. The District found the following deficiencies in the documentation submitted by CICA: • "[T]he pacing guides lack clarity regarding instructional sequence and expectations, and there is insufficient information describing how time values are determined for assignments or instructional activities." • "[T]he methods used to evaluate and score student work are not clearly defined, making it impossible to verify whether students are meeting stated learning objectives." • CICA submitted three versions of its student calendars, all of which contained discrepancies. • CICA student agreements lacked clarity and were not provided in the student's primary language (CICA 1448).
4. Violation of WIOA Partnership Agreement	The Charter Schools acknowledged the past violation of the WIOA partnership agreement by allowing non-students to enroll in the Truck Driving program. The Charter Schools issued a stop notice and ended this practice after investigating, taking disciplinary action against the responsible employee, discontinued the informal partnerships with the local agencies involved, suspended the Truck Driving program until the Charter Schools could ensure full compliance, and discontinued all non-student participation as of Jan. 6, 2025 (HCCS 1250; CICA 1450-1451).	Not remedied. The District found the documentation submitted in support of the remedy to be insufficient. "The three (3) exhibits submitted were identical to those previously provided to the District and did not offer any new or substantive evidence to refute or remedy the violation. Due to the absence of additional supporting documentation, the District finds that this violation remains unremedied" (HCCS 1250; CICA 1451; Notice of Violation Exh. E (HCCS 1814-2261); "Highlands Community Charter and Technical Schools - Student Attendance Review: Commissioned by Twin Rivers Unified SD," (HCCS 1842-1946); HCCS "2025-2026 Academic School Calendar," attached as Exh. AI to HCCS NOV response (HCCS 7563-7564)).

Fiscal Mismanagement
1. San Diego Administrative Location	The Charter Schools acknowledge that the decision to lease the San Diego condominium was a misstep, does not align with its mission or responsibility to students, recognizes that this was poor judgment under prior leadership, and understands the District's concerns that this was fiscal mismanagement. It has faceted the property and engaged a broker to sublease the space (HCCS 1250; CICA 1451-1452).	Not remedied. The District noted that no evidence was provided to support the contention that the condominium had been vacated, the lease remains active, and "considerable public funds were expended on a facility that has not been used to serve HCCTS students, and no evidence has been provided to demonstrate that these expenditures have been appropriately addressed, mitigated, or remedied." Therefore, "the District has determined that [the Charter School] failed to refute or remedy this violation to the satisfaction of the District" (HCC 1251; CICA 1452; Notice of Violation Exh. F, Correspondence from HCCTS to TRUSD regarding sites (HCCS 2262-2278)).
2. Marysville 2 Location	HCCS: HCCS responded that the lease of the baseball field was conducted by prior leadership and acknowledged that it did not constitute an appropriate use of public funds. HCCS terminated the lease, though it remained obligated to make payments through April 2026, and has attained net savings of $88,000 compared to the original lease terms. It also represented that this matter had been resolved to the fullest extent possible, given the inability of the current administration to prevent or unwind past decisions (HCCS 1251-1252).	Not remedied. HCCS continues to bear financial obligations under the lease. "The ongoing financial obligations associated with the lease, the disposal of equipment at a nominal price, and the initial misrepresentation of the site's intended use, collectively demonstrate a pattern of fiscal mismanagement and a failure to exercise appropriate stewardship of public funds. Therefore, the District has determined that HCCS failed to refute or remedy this violation to the satisfaction of the District." (HCCS, 1252; Notice of Violation Exh. G, TRUSD Feb. 19, 2025 Notice of Concern to HCCTS (HCCS 2367-2369); HCCTS response (HCCS 2370-2376); HCCS 2279-2376)).

3. Material Revision Request

On December 2, 2025, the District Board held public hearings on the charter revocations under Education Code section 47607, subdivision (h) and the Charter Schools' request for material revisions to obtain approval of the grade levels and site locations being operated in violation of the charters (HCCS 8193-8196, 8198, 6564, 7784, 5302; CICA 7132, 7134-7139, 5009, 6447, 5492).

On January 13, 2026, the Board declined to approve the Charter Schools' requests for material revisions (Jan 13, 2026 Minutes re CICA; Jan 13, 2026 Minutes re HCCS). The final decision on the revocation was scheduled for the January 27, 2026 Board meeting (HCCS 8200-8202; CICA 7140-7142).

4. Charter Revocation Hearings

a. January 27, 2026 Board Meeting

The Charter Schools' descriptions of the remedies implemented in response to the Notice of Violation are summarized below. Unless otherwise stated, these corrective actions were taken after the end of the September 26, 2025 remedy deadline.

Violation	Charter Schools' Position Remedy - Between Sept. 26, 2025 and Jan. 2026
Charter Violations

1. Grade Level Changes	After the District Board denied the material revision to add grade levels, HCCS reverted to only serving grades 1, 2, and 12, and ceased enrolling students into ninth (9th) and tenth (10th) grades (HCCS 8231-8232). The CICA charter states that the Charter School may serve grades up to eighth (8th) and 9-12 (CICA 7168).

Recommendation of District Staff

The District's minutes from the January 27, 2026 meeting reflect that District staff stated that CICA had cured the violations in the Notice of Violation to the satisfaction of District staff after the conclusion of the remedy period. Therefore, District staff recommended that the Board approve the issuance of a final decision declining to revoke the charter:

> While staff findings presented to the Board during the November meeting determined that CICA failed to remedy or refute all violations to the District's satisfaction, this presentation provided an update based on a review of additional > information submitted by the charter after the conclusion of the remedy period, between October 1, 2025 and January 9, 2026. This review found that CICA has successfully refuted or remedied all violations; providing evidence that grade levels were approved in the original petition, submitting plans to return to authorized locations, submitting the overdue audit report with plans to change audit firms, improving credentialing practices, the implementation of attendance compliance monitoring systems, terminating external partnerships and the CTE Truck Driving program, and adopting or revising board policies to address fiscal mismanagement. District staff recommended that the Board decline to revoke the charter (CICA 7146-7147; HCCS 8206-8207).

District staff made the same recommendation as to HCCS:

> Based on a data-driven review of the documentation and evidence submitted after the conclusion of the remedy period, District staff determined that all violations have been remedied to the district's satisfaction and recommended that the Board decline to revoke the charter (HCCS 8209-8211; CICA 7149-7150).

The District's conclusions that the Charter Schools had remedied the violations are included in the PowerPoint presented to the Board on January 27, 2026 (HCCS 2509-2523; CICA 2907-2921).

The motion to adopt the District staff's recommendations and issue a final decision declining to revoke both Charter Schools failed by a 1-6 vote by the District Board (January 27, 2026 meeting minutes, HCCS 8209; CICA 7149-7150). However, there was no motion or action taken by the Board to actually revoke the charters at the January 27, 2026 meeting.

b. January 30, 2026 Board Meeting

On January 30, 2026, the District Board held a special meeting to take action on resolutions to revoke the charters of HCCS and CICA (HCCS 8212-8213, 8215; CICA 7152-7153, 7155). The Board passed resolutions to revoke both charters by a 7-0 vote (HCCS 8215, 8218-8220; CICA 7155-7156). The District's revocation resolutions cite to the findings in the Notice of Intent to Revoke in support of the revocation:

> In support of its Final Decision to Revoke [the Charter Schools'] Charter, the Board adopts the facts and findings contained in the Notice of Intent to Revoke and its exhibits, as initially set forth in the NOV, and as stated herein, as its written factual findings, supported by substantial evidence specific to [the Charter Schools], and incorporates such findings into this Resolution as though set forth fully herein; and in support of its decision to issue a Final Decision to Revoke [the Charter Schools'] Charter, the Board further finds that:
> > (A) Substantial evidence demonstrates that the violations initially identified in the NOV, and demonstrated in the Notice of Intent to Revoke and exhibits thereto, and as further stated herein, have in fact occurred;
> > (B) [The Charter Schools] failed to refute, remedy, or propose remedial action sufficient to remedy all of the violations identified in the NOV;

> (C) The violations set forth in the NOV and Notice of Intent to Revoke, have not been sufficiently remedied by [the Charter Schools], and attempts at further corrective actions taken by [the Charter Schools], although considered by the Board, failed to sufficiently remedy the violations identified in the NOV and substantiated in the Notice of Intent to Revoke, and/or promised unsubstantiated and unreliable future performance and resulting uncertainty regarding future compliance.

The Charter Schools' appeals to the Sacramento County Board of Education followed. After the appeal was submitted, the Sacramento County Office of Education (SCOE) provided the Charter Schools and the District with an opportunity to submit optional written arguments, with page citations to the appeal documents, as to whether the charter revocations met the substantial evidence standard required by Education Code section 47607. (See,Twin Rivers Unified School District Response to HCCS and CICA Charter Revocation Appeal, April 21, 2026. Written Arguments of HCCS and CICA Re: Appeal of Revocation of Highlands Community Charter School to Sacramento County Board of Education, April 21, 2026.)

IV. APPLICABLE LEGAL STANDARDS OF REVIEW FOR REVOCATION APPEAL

Education Code section 47607, subdivision (i)(2) describes the County Board's scope of review of a district's charter revocation decision as follows: "The county board of education may reverse the revocation decision if the county board of education determines that the findings made by the chartering authority under subdivision (h) are not supported by substantial evidence."

A. Regulations Governing the Scope of Review

The regulations governing County Board consideration of charter school appeals from revocation contain the following three-part test:

> (1) In determining whether the district chartering authority's factual findings are supported by substantial evidence, the county board of education shall consider whether the district chartering authority provided the charter school's governing body as described in the school's charter a Notice of Violation, a reasonable opportunity to remedy the identified violation(s), a Notice of Intent to Revoke, a public hearing, and Final Decision, pursuant to Articles 2 and 2.5 and Education Code section 47607, subdivisions (f) through (h), inclusive.
>
> (2) If the charter school submits a response to the Notice of Violation pursuant to Title 5 of the California Code of Regulations, section 11968.5.2, subdivision (c), the county board of education shall, in determining whether the district chartering authority's factual findings are supported by substantial evidence, consider whether the charter school complied with the procedures set forth in that section.
> (3) The county board of education shall also consider whether an alleged procedural deficiency negatively impacted the charter school's ability to > refute or remedy the alleged violation or the chartering authority's ability to comply with its procedural obligations or authorizing duties (Cal. Code Regs., tit. 5, § 11968.5.4, subds. (b)(1)-(3).)

B. The "Substantial Evidence" Standard

The "substantial evidence" standard is commonly used by courts to determine the legality of governmental agency action. Under the substantial evidence standard, the County Board does not decide the appeal based upon whether it would have revoked the charter if it were in the place of the District under the same facts and circumstances. Rather, the County Board may only reverse it if it concludes that the revocation was not supported by substantial evidence.

American Indian Model Schools v. Oakland Unified School District (2014) 227 Cal.App.4th 258, 286 (AIMS), the primary published case adjudicating a school district's charter school revocation, describes the scope of review:

> Courts "may not reweigh the evidence or substitute their judgment for that of the agency. They uphold an agency action unless it is arbitrary, capricious, lacking in evidentiary support, or was made without due regard for the petitioner's rights." (Sequoia Union High School Dist. v. Aurora Charter High School (2003) 112 Cal.App.4th 185, 195.)

Topanga Assn. for a Scenic Community v. County of Los Angeles (1974) 11 Cal.3d 506, 514-515, cited by the court in AIMS, stated that "the reviewing [entity] must determine both whether substantial evidence supports the administrative agency's findings and whether the findings support the agency's decision," and implicit to this statute "is a requirement that the agency which renders the challenged decision must set forth findings to bridge the analytic gap between the raw evidence and ultimate decision or order." (AIMS, supra, 227 Cal.App.4th 258, 278.)

County Board Policy 2400 ("BP 2400 Charter School Petitions") defines "Substantial Evidence" in the context of the "renewal, non-renewal, or revocation" of County Board approved charters:

> VII. Renewal, Non-Renewal, or Revocation
>
> D(2): "Substantial evidence," within the meaning of Education Code section 47607, shall be evidence that:
>
> a. Demonstrates that the violation was material.
> b. Supports revocation when viewed as a whole, in light of all relevant information.
> c. Demonstrates that the violation actually occurred.
> d. Was not cured by the charter school during its reasonable opportunity to remedy the violation.

The courts have recognized that an inherent part of the "substantial evidence" standard is the presumption in favor of the lower tribunal's decision. In Napa Valley Unified School District v. State Bd. of Education (2025) 110 Cal. App.5th 609, 625 the court explained:

> Under the substantial evidence test, our review begins and ends with a determination of whether there is substantial evidence, contradicted or uncontradicted, to support the findings. We do not reweigh the evidence and > are bound to indulge all presumptions and resolve all conflicts in favor of the administrative decision. Substantial evidence is relevant evidence that a reasonable mind might accept as adequate to support a conclusion.

"In administrative mandate cases, abuse of discretion is established if the agency has not proceeded in the manner required by law, the order or decision is not supported by the findings, or the findings are not supported by substantial evidence in light of the whole record." (Martis Camp Community Assn. v. County of Placer (2020) 53 Cal.App.5th 569, 593.)

V. EVALUATION OF THE CHARTER SCHOOLS' APPEAL

A. Application of Three-Part Test

1. Whether the District Provided the Legally Required Notices and Procedures in Connection with the Revocation Procedures

Title 5 of the California Code of Regulations, section 11968.5.4, subdivision (b)(1) requires the County Board to determine whether the District provided the Required Notices and Procedures in Connection with the Revocation Procedures:

> In determining whether the district chartering authority's factual findings are supported by substantial evidence, the county board of education shall consider whether the district chartering authority provided the charter school's governing body as described in the school's charter a Notice of Violation, a reasonable opportunity to remedy the identified violation(s), a Notice of Intent to Revoke, a public hearing, and Final Decision, pursuant to Articles 2 and 2.5 and Education Code section 47607, subdivisions (f) through (h), inclusive. (Cal. Code Regs., tit. 5, § 11968.5.4, subd. (b)(1).)

The record demonstrates that, as required by Education Code section 47607, subdivisions (f) through (h), the District provided the Charter School with:

- A Notice of Violation dated June 12, 2025, which was adopted by the District's Board on June 19, 2025 (HCCS 28-1237; CICA 27 - 1438);
- More than a 90-day opportunity to remedy the identified violation(s) (from June 19, 2025 - September 26, 2025);
- A Notice of Intent to Revoke on November 4, 2025 (HCCS 1238-1270; CICA 1439 - 1468);
- A Public Hearing on December 2, 2025 (HCCS 8193-8194; 8198; CICA 7132; 7136-7139); and
- A Final Decision on January 30, 2026 (HCCS 8215, 8218-8220; CICA 7155).

The Charter Schools' appeal does not contend that the District failed to provide the notices and hearings as required by Education Code section 47607, subdivisions (f) through (h).

2. Whether the Charter Schools' Response to the Notice of Violation Complied with the Required Procedures

Title 5 of the California Code of Regulations, section 11968.5.4, subdivision (b)(2) requires the County Board to determine whether the Charter Schools' response to the Notice of Violation met the procedural requirements:

> If the charter school submits a response to the Notice of Violation pursuant to section 11968.5.2(c), the county board of education shall, in determining whether the district chartering authority's factual findings are supported by substantial evidence, consider whether the charter school complied with the procedures set forth in that section. (Cal. Code Regs., tit. 5, § 11968.5.4, subd. (b)(2).)

Under Title 5 of the California Code of Regulations, section 11968.5.2, subdivision (c), upon receipt of a Notice of Violation, the charter school's governing body, if it chooses to respond, shall take the following actions:

> (1) Submit to the chartering authority a detailed, written response addressing each identified violation which shall include the refutation, remedial action taken, or proposed remedial action by the charter school specific to each alleged violation. The written response shall be due by the end of the remedy period identified in the Notice of Violation. (Emphasis Added)
> (2) Attach to its written response supporting evidence of the refutation, remedial action, or proposed remedial action, if any, including written reports, statements, and other appropriate documentation.

Under Title 5 of the California Code of Regulations, section 11968.5.2, subdivision (d), after conclusion of the reasonable opportunity to remedy, the chartering authority shall evaluate the charter school's response to the Notice of Violation and any supporting evidence, if submitted, and shall take one of the following actions:

> (1) If the chartering authority has substantial evidence that the charter school has failed to refute to the chartering authority's satisfaction, or remedy a violation identified in the Notice of Violation, continue revocation of the school's charter by issuing a Notice of Intent to Revoke to the charter school's governing body as described in the school's charter; or
> (2) Discontinue revocation of the school's charter and provide timely written notice of such action to the charter school's governing body as described in the school's charter.

The Charter Schools submitted their written response by the end of the remedy period identified in the Notice of Violation, on September 26, 2025.[3] However, the Charter Schools had not remedied or refuted all the violations identified by the Notice of Violation to the District's satisfaction by the September 26, 2025 remedy deadline. Among other things, the Charter Schools' legally required 2023-2024 independent audit report had not been submitted, the Charter Schools' tracking of instructional minutes remained an issue (and the subject of pending Education Audit Appeal Panel (EAAP) proceedings), the lease for the San Diego luxury

[3] Although the District asserted that it could not access the Charter Schools' attachments on September 26, 2026, it does appear that the Charter Schools' responses were submitted by September 26, 2026.

condominium was still active, and while HCCS had terminated the lease for the Marysville baseball field, it remained obligated to make lease payments through April 2026 (HCCS 1242-1252; CICA 1443-1452).

As a result, on November 4, 2025, the District took action to continue revocation of the Charter Schools by issuing a Notice of Intent to Revoke based on its findings that the Charter Schools did not adequately respond to the Notice of Violation by the end of the September 26, 2025 remedy period (HCCS 1239; CICA 1440). The District's Notice of Intent to Revoke stated that "HCCTS has either failed to remedy multiple areas of concern despite its receipt of multiple information requests and notices of concern from the District or makes promises of future improvements without offering viable plans that either have been implemented or are capable of being implemented by HCCTS" (HCCS 35; CICA 35; See, Section II(B)(2), pp. 5-8, above).

While the Charter Schools submitted a response to the District's Notice of Violation pursuant to Title 5 of the California Code of Regulations, section 11968.5.2, subdivision (c) by the end of the remedy period on September 26, 2025, the record supports a finding that the Charter Schools had not remedied or refuted all the pending violations to the District's satisfaction by the end of the remedy period. Accordingly, as permitted by Title 5 of the California Code of Regulations, section 11969.5.2, subdivision (d), the District Board took action to continue revocation of the Charter Schools by issuing a Notice of Intent to Revoke.

3. Whether a Procedural Deficiency Negatively Impacted the Charter Schools' Ability to Refute or Remedy the Alleged Violation

Title 5 of the California Code of Regulations, section 11968.5.4, subdivision (b)(3) requires the County Board to determine whether any procedural deficiency negatively impacted the charter school's ability to refute or remedy the alleged violation:

> The county board of education shall also consider whether an alleged procedural deficiency negatively impacted the charter school's ability to refute or remedy the alleged violation or the chartering authority's ability to comply with its procedural obligations or authorizing duties. (Cal. Code Regs., tit. 5, § 11968.5.4, subd. (b)(3))

As noted above, the appeal record demonstrates that the Charter Schools had not remedied or refuted all the pending violations to the District's satisfaction by the end of the remedy period on September 26, 2025. Accordingly, as permitted by Title 5 of the California Code of Regulations, section 11969.5.2, subdivision (d), the District took action to continue revocation of the Charter Schools by issuing a Notice of Intent to Revoke on November 4, 2025 and thereafter scheduling a public hearing on December 2, 2025, and a decision hearing on the revocation on January 27 and 30, 2026, as required by Education Code section 47607, subdivision (h).

a. Was the District Board Procedurally Required to Allow the Charter Schools to Correct their Violations After the September 26, 2025 Remedy Period Deadline

The issue that arises is whether the District was procedurally required to provide the Charter Schools with additional time after the September 26, 2025 deadline to remedy its violations.

Education Code section 47607 and Title 5 of the California Code of Regulations, section 11968.5.4 do not require a school district to allow a charter school to remedy violations after the expiration of the remedy period set forth in the Notice of Violation, nor do they prohibit it from doing so.

The District Board's decision hearing on the revocation was scheduled on January 27, 2026. By this time, District staff had concluded that the Charter Schools had adequately remedied the infractions in the Notice of Violation based on actions taken by the Charter School after the conclusion of the remedy period on September 26, 2025, between October 1, 2025 and January 9, 2026. As stated in the Board minutes for the January 27, 2026 meeting:

> While staff findings presented to the Board during the November meeting determined that CICA failed to remedy or refute all violations to the District's satisfaction, this presentation provided an update based on a review of additional information submitted by the charter after the conclusion of the remedy period, between October 1, 2025 and January 9, 2026. This review found that CICA has successfully refuted or remedied all violations; providing evidence that grade levels were approved in the original petition, submitting plans to return to authorized locations, submitting the overdue audit report with plans to change audit firms, improving credentialing practices, the implementation of attendance compliance monitoring systems, terminating external partnerships and the CTE Truck Driving program, and adopting or revising board policies to address fiscal mismanagement. District staff recommended that the Board decline to revoke the charter (CICA 7146-7147; HCCS 8206-8207). (Emphasis Added)

Notwithstanding the District staff's January 27, 2026 recommendations, the District Board declined to adopt the staff's January 27, 2026 recommendations. Instead, finding that the Charter Schools' violations were not refuted or remedied to its satisfaction, it revoked the Charter Schools on January 30, 2026 (HCCS-8138-8220; CICA-7075-7157).

As the Education Code and regulations include no requirement to allow remedies after the close of the remedy period, the County Board may properly find that the District Board had the discretion to allow the Charter Schools to remedy its violations after the September 26, 2025 remedy deadline, but was not required to do so. While District staff recommended accepting the post deadline remedies, the District Board was not required to accept this recommendation.

If the County Board finds that the District Board was not required to consider remedies implemented after the September 26, 2025 remedy deadline, then it follows that the District Board's January 30, 2026 revocation resolution, which was based on the November 4, 2025 Notice of Intent to Revoke, contained substantial evidence to support revocation. The District's November 4, 2025 Notice of Intent to Revoke stated that "HCCTS has either failed to remedy multiple areas of concern despite its receipt of multiple information requests and notices of concern from the District or makes promises of future improvements without offering viable plans that either have been implemented or are capable of being implemented by HCCTS" (HCCS 35; CICA 35). (See, Section II(B)(2), pp. 5-8, above). The District's January 30, 2026 resolution memorializing the charter revocations confirms that when the District staff recommended issuing a Notice of Intent to Revoke on November 4, 2025:

> District staff evaluated the response from [the Charter Schools] and all documentation produced with the response, and after conducting a thorough, objective, and data-driven review, District Staff determined that [the Charter Schools] failed to refute to the District's satisfaction, or remedy all of the violations identified in the NOV, and that significant violations continue to exist, > including material violations of the conditions, standards, or procedures of its charter, fiscal mismanagement, and violations of law…[B]ased upon the substantial evidence demonstrating CICA's failure to refute and/or remedy multiple violations identified in the NOV, District staff recommended that the Board approve issuance of the a Notice of Intent to Revoke and notice of facts in support of revocation ("Notice of Intent to Revoke") to CICA pursuant to Education Code section 47607 and Section 11968.5.2, and the Board approved issuance of a Notice of Intent to Revoke at its meeting on November 4, 2025, supported by substantial evidence presented therewith…(HCCS 6503; CICA 6431).

If the County Board finds that the District was not required to consider remedies taken after the remedy deadline, then the District's Board had the right to demand that remedies be complete by the end of the remedy period on September 26, 2025, and to revoke the charters based upon the Charter Schools' failure to complete remedies by the end of the remedy period. In this case, the District's factual findings support its legal conclusion that the Charter Schools failed to remedy the violations set forth in the Notice of Violation. (See, e.g., American Indian Model Schools v. Oakland Unified School District (2014) 227 Cal.App.4th 258.)

B. If the Charter Schools Were Entitled to Correct Their Violations After the Original Remedy Deadline, Is there Substantial Evidence to Support a Conclusion that Violations Were Not Sufficiently Remedied

Alternatively, if the County Board finds that the District Board was required to consider remedies implemented by the Charter Schools after the remedy period but before the final revocation decision on January 30, 2026, then it must determine whether the record contains substantial evidence to support the Board's finding that the Charter Schools had failed to refute, remedy, or proposed remedial actions sufficient to remedy all the violations identified in the Notice of Violation. (See, District Revocation Resolution, HCCS 6501-6504, CICA 6429-6432.) Substantial evidence is relevant evidence, contradicted or uncontradicted, that a reasonable mind might accept to support a conclusion. (Napa Valley Unified School District, supra, 110 Cal. App. 5th at 625.)

The appeal record indicates that, as of January 27, 2026, District staff were satisfied with the Charter Schools' remedies. District staff's presentation noted that between October 2025 and January 2026, "HCCTS submitted a substantial amount of evidence showing compliance and providing confirmation that the organization has begun to take steps to remedy violations" (HCCS 2514, CICA 2912). However, members of the District's governing board expressed that the concerns in the Notice of Violations had not been remedied to their satisfaction (HCCS 8211).

If the County Board determines that there is relevant evidence to support the District Board's conclusion that the Charter Schools had not adequately remedied or refuted any of the violations to its satisfaction at the time of the Board's revocation decision, then it may uphold the District's revocation even if it finds that the District was required to allow remedies after the September 26, 2026 remedy deadline.[4]

Alternatively, if the County Board determines that the District Board's dissatisfaction with the Charter Schools' remedies as of January 30, 2026 was not supported by substantial evidence in the appeal record, then it may overturn the District's revocation decision if it also finds that the District Board was required to consider remedies implemented between the September 26 remedy deadline and its January 30, 2026 revocation decision.

C. Were there Other Procedural Deficiencies that Negatively Impacted the Charter Schools' Ability to Refute or Remedy the Alleged Violations

The Charter Schools' appeal asserts that the following procedural errors/omissions negatively impacted the District's ability to comply with its procedural obligations and duties as an authorizer:

1. Conclusory Findings

The Charter Schools contend that the District Board committed procedural errors and omissions "[b]y issuing conclusory 'findings' with no explanation of why the facts before the District Board led to the District Board's conclusion that CICA 'failed to refute, remedy, or propose remedial action sufficient to remedy all of the violations identified in the NOV…'" (HCCS 19; CICA 17). The Charter Schools contend that, as a result of the District staff's recommendation to decline to revoke the charter, and the District Board's vote to revoke, the "'analytic gap' between the 'raw evidence' before the District Board and the 'ultimate decision or order' is not bridged in any respect by the District Board's purported "findings." (citing, American Indian Model Schools v. Oakland Unified School Dist. (2014) 227 Cal.App.4th 258, 278.) (HCCS 20; CICA 18.)

This allegation does not constitute a "procedural deficiency" that "negatively impacted the charter school's ability to refute or remedy the alleged violation or the chartering authority's ability to comply with its procedural obligations or authorizing duties" (Cal. Code Regs., tit. 5, § 11968.5.4, subd. (b)(3)). The record shows that the Charter Schools were provided an opportunity to refute or remedy the alleged violations before the District adopted its findings and decision. Therefore, the District's findings could not have impacted the Charter Schools' ability to refute or remedy its violations.

[4] For example, the District Board could have determined that the remedies were not adequate because, although the Charter Schools had terminated the lease on the San Diego luxury condominium, the public funds expended on the property had not and would not be recovered; or although HCCS had terminated the lease for the Marysville baseball field, public funds were still being used to pay for the Marysville site through April 2026 and previous expenditures would not be recovered, or although the Charter Schools had made serious efforts to improve practices related to student attendance enforcement, the Charter Schools' instructional minutes tracking and attendance policy was still at issue pending the outcome of the state EAAP audit proceedings; or although the Charter Schools had "submitted plans to return to authorized locations," and "has been taking action to terminate or buy-out leases," it was not clear that this had been accomplished yet. Each of these issues were detailed in the Notice of Intent to Revoke, which was incorporated into the Board's final resolutions. (HCCS 6503-6504; 1239-1252; CICA 6431-6432, 1440-1452) And these remained issues as of January 27, 2026. (HCCS 6515, 6517, 6861-6907, 1251-1252, 2262-2278, 2279-2376; CICA 1452.)

2. Failure to Specify Which Issues the Charter Schools Were Unable to Remedy or Refute

The Charter Schools contend that "[i]t defies reason that the District Board would have found that all of the alleged violations have not been refuted or remedied because there is no information in the record to support lack of remedy for any issue and even apart from that, some of them are just not reasonably disputable." (HCCS 20; CICA 18)

Again, this contention is not a procedural deficiency that impacted the Charter Schools' ability to remedy its violations. Instead, it relates to whether the record contains "substantial evidence" to support the District Board's findings. In determining the existence of "substantial evidence," the whole record is considered. (Martis Camp Community Assn., supra, 53 Cal.App.5th at 593.)

3. The District's Failure to Act on Some Violations "For Years" Led the Charter School to Believe that the District Accepted those Violations

The Charter Schools assert that "[t]he District spent years fully aware of many of these alleged violations and either gave tacit, or in some cases, direct, approval…Instead of giving notice of alleged violations along with a meaningful opportunity to correct, as required by law, the District allowed these alleged violations to exist for years before notifying the charter school of them and refused to allow the school to change course" (HCCS 22; CICA 20).

The appeal record does not support the Charter Schools' assertion, as the record includes evidence of numerous District Requests for Information, Notices of Concern, and other inquiries to the Charter Schools over the years. (See e.g., CICA 745-746; 2018 FCMAT Audit Report noting several practices requiring correction (CICA 1327-1342); 2024-2025 District Correspondence Re need for material revision to serve grade levels not authorized by approved charters (CICA 326-331); June 2024, August 2024, September 2024, January 2025, April 2025 Notices of Concern and Requests for Information Re facility location discrepancies and MOU compliance (CICA 353-370, 426-428, 574-575, 589-595, 658-659); September 2024 Request for Information Re enrollment reports (CICA 568 -573); March 2025, April 7, 2025, April 24, 2025 Requests for Information and Notices of Concern Re Independent Financial Audit Report (CICA 697- 705); October 2024 Request for Information Re Instructional Minutes and January 2025 Student Attendance Review (CICA 727-786); April 2024 Notice of Concern Re Marysville 2 (baseball field) location (CICA 1027); January 2025, March 2025 District Correspondence Re CALPads reporting errors (CICA 1098-1099, 1115-1119); October 2024, February 2025 District Complaint/Request for Information Re non-students participating in CTE truck driving certification courses (CICA 1316-1317, 1124-1125), etc.)

Furthermore, given the gravity of the violations involving fiscal mismanagement and violations of the law, which the Charter Schools have acknowledged, it was the Charter Schools' responsibility to remedy these violations once they were raised or be subject to revocation. The District's oversight practices in previous years did not relieve the Charter Schools of the responsibility to remedy the violations nor interfere with its ability to do so. On appeal, the County Board's role is to determine whether the District complied with its procedural obligations for revocation and whether the record includes substantial evidence to support the District Board's decision to revoke.

VI. Conclusion

Under Education Code section 47607, subdivision (i), the County Board has the following three options regarding the Twin Rivers Unified School District governing board's decision to revoke the Highlands Community Charter School and California Innovative Career Academy:

- The County Board "may reverse the revocation decision if the county board of education determines that the findings made by the chartering authority under subdivision (h) are not supported by substantial evidence." (Ed. Code, § 47607, subd. (i)(2).)

- The County Board may affirm the revocation if it finds that the findings of the District Board are supported by substantial evidence. (Ed. Code, § 47607, subd. (i)(2).)

- If the County Board does not issue a decision on the appeal within 90 days of receipt, the Charter School may appeal the District's revocation to the State Board of Education (SBE). (Ed. Code, § 47607, subd. (i)(3).)

The threshold question for the County Board is whether the District's revocation of the charters was supported by substantial evidence. The County Board may uphold the revocations if it finds that the revocations were supported by substantial evidence; it may reverse the revocations if it finds that they were not supported by substantial evidence.

A California Court has described the substantial evidence test as follows:

> "Under the substantial evidence test, our review begins and ends with a determination of whether there is substantial evidence, contradicted or uncontradicted, to support the findings. We do not reweigh the evidence and are bound to indulge all presumptions and resolve all conflicts in favor of the administrative decision. Substantial evidence is relevant evidence that a reasonable mind might accept as adequate to support a conclusion." (Napa Valley Unified School District v. State Bd. of Education (2025) 110 Cal. App. 5th 609, 625.)

If the County Board finds that the District Board was not required to consider remedies implemented after the September 26, 2025 remedy deadline, then the District Board's January 30, 2026 revocation resolution, which was based on the November 4, 2025 Notice of Intent to Revoke, contained substantial evidence to support revocation.

Alternatively, if the County Board determines that the District Board's dissatisfaction with the Charter Schools' remedies as of January 30, 2026 was not supported by substantial evidence in the appeal record, then it may overturn the District's revocation decision if it also finds that the District Board was required to consider remedies implemented between the September 26 remedy deadline and its January 30, 2026 revocation decision.

If the County Board does not issue a decision on the appeal within 90 days of receipt, the District's decision is upheld, and the Charter Schools may appeal the revocation to the State Board of Education (SBE). (Ed. Code, § 47607, subd. (i)(2).)

County Board's Legal Scope of Review

Threshold Question:

- Whether the District Board's revocation of the HCCS and CICA charters was supported by substantial evidence. (Ed. Code, § 47607 (i)(2).)
- Not*: Whether County Board would have revoked on same facts if it were in the place of the District Board.*

Substantial Evidence

Legal definition of "substantial evidence":

- Relevant evidence that a reasonable mind might accept as adequate to support a conclusion
- Relevant evidence, contradicted or uncontradicted, to support the findings
- Reviewing entity may not reweigh the evidence or substitute its judgment for that of the deciding entity
- Indulge all presumptions and resolve all conflicts in favor of district's decision
- Uphold decision unless it is arbitrary, capricious, lacking in evidentiary support, or made without due regard for petitioner's rights

HCCS AR 008265

Potential Outcome: AFFIRM

- The District Board adopted a remedy deadline of September 26, 2025.
- After Charter Schools did not refute or remedy all violations by deadline, District issued Notice of Intent to Revoke (NIR) on November 4, 2025.
- The Board was not required to allow remedies after the deadline.
- The NIRs contain substantial evidence to support the revocations.
- Even if District Board was required to consider corrective actions taken after the remedy period, the record contains relevant evidence to support the Board's finding that all alleged violations were not sufficiently remedied by January 30, 2026.

Potential Outcome: REVERSE

If County Board determines both of the following:

- District Board was required to consider remedies after the September 26, 2025, remedy deadline;

AND

- The record does not contain relevant evidence to support the District Board's January 30, 2026, findings that the Charter Schools' violations had occurred, and that violation(s) had not been sufficiently remedied.

Then, the County Board may determine that substantial evidence does not support the revocation and may reverse.

MEETING OF THE

SACRAMENTO COUNTY BOARD OF EDUCATION

AGENDA ITEMS FOR THE CHARTER REVOCATION APPEALS

SUBMITTED BY THE CALIFORNIA INNOVATION CAREER ACADEMY

AND THE HIGHLANDS COMMUNITY CHARTER SCHOOL

MAY 19, 2026

MS. SABENIANO: Next, we are going to proceed with the agenda items for the charter revocation appeals submitted by the California Innovation Career Academy and the Highlands Community Charter School.

I'm going to call both agenda items, and all proceedings -- including the public hearings and public comments -- will apply to both items.

After the board has heard from SCOE staff and the charter school representatives -- and the Twin Rivers Unified School District representatives, any pub- -- public comment will be taken at that point. And then following that, the board will ask questions and deliberate.

So, I will call -- oh, sorry. The public -- yeah. The public hearing will now open at 7:09 p.m. So, yes, go ahead. Take it away, SCOE staff.

MS. STINSON: Yes. Good evening, President Corona Sabeniano, trustees, Superintendent Gordon, colleagues, and guests. Tonight, the county board will consider the charter revocation appeals for the Highlands Community Charter School and the California Innovative Career Academy.

The board and the public have received the Sacramento County Office of Education analysis of this, so tonight I'm just going to begin with a summary overview of the appeals process and the legal standard of review for charter revocation appeals.

And after I'm done with my brief presentation, then the charter school appellants from Highlands Community Charter School and California Innovative Charter -- Career Academy, as well as from Twin Rivers Unified School District, will have an opportunity to present. And then we will have the public hearing, and the board will have an opportunity to ask questions.

So, just to -- just kind of a brief overview of where we are. So, as you know, the Twin Rivers Unified School District revoked the -- both charter schools -- adopted a final decision revoking both charter schools on January 30th of 2026. Both charter schools filed timely appeals with the Sacramento County Office of Education and Sacramento County Board of Education on February 27th.

And by law, the county board may affirm the revocations of the school district if they were supported by substantial evidence; they may overturn the revocations if they were not supported by substantial evidence.

Either party may appeal an adverse ruling to the State Board of Education, and the charter school may also appeal if the -- if the -- if the county board does not make a decision or is unable to take action on the item. Then -- then the charter school may appeal.

This is just some key dates in the revocation proceedings. In 2024-25 -- and these are all included in the record, just kind of highlighting there, just to give the key dates -- there were notices of concern and information requests that were submitted to both charter schools from the school district.

On June 17th, 2025, the school district board adopted a notice of violation and set a remedy period to expire on September 26th of 2 -- 2025. As of November 4th, 2025 -- the -- the charter schools submitted a response on September 26th, 2025.

The school district reviewed those responses and exhibits and determined at a hearing on November 4th, 2025, that the violations had not been refuted or remedied by the deadline, and the district board issued the notice of intent to revoke.

Then on December 2nd, there were public hearings held on the charter revocations. On January -- meanwhile, the charter schools continued to attempt to remedy.

On January 27th, 2026, the district staff recommended against revocation, finding that the charters had cured violations to the staff satisfaction after the remedy deadline. The district board, however, did not adopt the staff recommendations, and on January 30th of 2026, the district board adopted final decisions revoking both charters.

This is just a -- a very brief overview of the violations that were alleged in the notice of violations. Under the Charter Schools Act, a charter school may be revoked for a violation of the charter, for a violation of the law, or for fiscal mismanagement, or not following generally accepted accounting principles. So, these are the -- the grounds in which the notice of violation were issued.

The allegations relating to violation of the charters was for operating grade levels that were not in the charters, and also for operating locations that were not in the charter, or an approved MOU between the district and the charter schools.

The alleged violations of law were for failure to timely submit the annual independent audit report for the 23-24 school year, violations related to credential miss assignments, failure to provide and track minimum instructional minutes, and violation of the WIOA exclusive partnership agreement.

The allegations related to fis- -- fiscal mismanagement related to leasing a luxury condominium in San Diego, which was not used for students served by the charter, and also for leasing a Mary- -- a baseball field in Marysville, which was not used for students, including donated public funds for upkeeping that baseball field and -- and using other equipment.

That lease was -- as alleged in the notice of violation, that -- the lease was terminated; however, the charter schools were required to make lease payments through April 2026, which at some point, were bought out.

So, in terms of the county board scope of review, your legal scope is to really determine -- the key to this is whether the district board's revocation of the charter schools was supported by substantial evidence. It's a -- it's a legal standard of review.

That -- the issue is not whether the county board putting itself in the shoes of the school district would have revoked the charter if it were looking at the same facts and circumstances.

So, in terms of substantial evidence, the courts have defined -- there's a number of cases out there that talk about substantial evidence, and the courts have said that it's relevant evidence that a reasonable mind might accept as adequate to support a conclusion. It's -- they've also described it as relevant evidence that is contradicted or uncontradicted to support the findings.

So, it doesn't just have to be uncontradicted evidence in the record; there has to be some evidence in there that a reasonable person could rely on to support the findings.

And when you're using this and applying the substantial evidence standard, the reviewing entity, which -- which means the county board -- is not allowed to re-weigh the evidence or substitute its judgment for that of the deciding entity. Instead, it indulges all presumptions and resolves all conflicts in favor of the lower tribunal's decision, in this case, the school district's decision, and this is right out of the case law.

And normally, the decision is upheld unless it's considered arbitrary, capricious, la- --lacking in evidentiary support, or made without due regard for petitioner's rights.

So, as I mentioned before, there's potential outcomes that the board will be considering tonight and deciding upon.

If the board were to affirm the school district's decision, it could do so on these bases: the district board adopted this remedy deadline of September 26th.

After the charter schools did not refute or remedy all the violations by the deadline, the district issued the notice of intent to revoke on November 4th, 2025, and proceeded with the remaining procedures required by the education code, it -- the board -- if it were to find that the board was not required to allow remedies after the deadline, and that the notice of intent to revoke contained substantial evidence to support the revocations.

Alternatively, even if the district board was -- the -- if the county board -- even if the county board were to determine that the district board was required to take corrective actions after the remedy period, then this county board could still affirm if it concluded that the record contained relevant evidence to support the board's finding that all of the alleged violations had not been sufficiently remedied.

If the board -- the county board were to reverse the district's decision, it would need to do on these bases: if the county board determines both that the district board was required to consider remedies after the September 26-25 remedy deadline, and that the record did not contain any relevant evidence to support the district's findings that the charter school's violations had occurred, and that the violations had not been sufficiently remedied.

If both of those were found, then the -- the county board might be able to determine that substantial evidence does not support revocation.

I will be available to answer questions at the end of the public hearing, I just kind of wanted to outline the applicable standards.

So, now we will hear from representatives of the Highlands Community Charter School and California Innovative Career Academy. Followed by that, the Twin Rivers Unified School District will have an opportunity to address you. Thank you.

[inaudible]

MR. RAYMOND: Good evening, trustees and Superintendent Gordon. My name is Jonathan Raymond; I'm here along with Jerry Simmons and Darrell Steinberg. We're representing the students and staff of Highlands Community Charter and Technical Schools.

I want to begin this evening with a story that's directly relevant to the issues before you this evening.

My first formal role in public education was serving as chief accountability officer for the Charlotte-Mecklenburg schools.

At the time, my oldest daughter was learning to read, and one day she picked up my business card, and she looked at me and she said, daddy, what does a chief accountability officer do? I smiled and said, honey, my job is to catch people doing good things.

It was a cute answer, I know. But as I've learned, there's real truth in that answer. Shortly after arriving in Charlotte, my mentor, the late Superintendent Thom Payzant, challenged me with a question that fundamentally has shaped my understanding of leadership and accountability.

He asked, what do you mean by accountability? Is it accountability, I got you, or is it accountability to get it right? And that definition really matters.

Because in education, where the stakes are so high for students and families, accountability cannot simply be about punishment. It must ultimately be about whether we are willing to do the hard work to get it right for our students.

And that's why tonight matters.

When Twin Rivers established September 26th, 2025, as the deadline to cure the notice of violations, they knew it was administratively impossible. They knew I had only recently been hired, and would not start in Sacramento until the middle of July. They knew that Highlands had laid off over 600 employees and that the organization was in trauma. And they knew there was no academic leadership structure, and that the opening of schools was only weeks away.

Under those circumstances, no reasonable organization could have fully cured every violation by that date. The deadline was arbitrary, it was unfair, and it came on the heels of a state audit that not only criticized Highlands, but that called out Twin Rivers itself for years of poor and lax oversight.

That is not accountability focused on getting it right; that is accountability focused on, I got you.

But then something important happened: Twin Rivers staff began working collaboratively with our team.

A spirit of partnership and problem solving began to emerge, and the public record reflects this clearly through numerous emails and communications, including Trustee Baker's public statement at the November 4th board meeting when he noted, and I quote, "The school will be given additional time to correct those violations or provide demonstrative evidence of progress towards compliance."

He further noted the process allows multiple opportunities for Highlands to address the issues through de- -- detailed plans and documented steps towards resolution.

The record further shows Highlands was given until January 2nd to provide evidence, documentation, and plans demonstrating compliance with the notice of violations. And we relied on these assurances.

And ultimately, that collaborative work between Twin Rivers and our staff led the Twin Rivers staff, the superintendent, and their legal counsel to recommend on January 26th that Highlands had cured the violations, and that revocation was not warranted.

To now argue otherwise, to suddenly claim Highlands failed because it had not cured by September 26th, is inconsistent with the record.

It's inconsistent with the spirit of collaboration that had followed, and it's inconsistent with the legislature's clear intent that schools be given a meaningful opportunity to improve and cure deficiencies.

But most importantly -- most importantly, it is not in the best interest of students, because Highlands is more than a school to the nearly 2,000 people that we now serve.

For many students, Highlands is a lifeline. It's a place where students feel respected, safe, and seen. It's where they learn English. They can earn a high school diploma and gain technical skills that can transform the trajectory of their lives and the lives of the families that they are part of.

These students deserve this school, and they should not be punished for the failures of prior leadership, none of whom remain affiliated with Highlands today.

In just 10 months -- 10 months, our team has worked relentlessly to restore integ- -- restore integrity, rebuild trust, strengthen our systems, raise expectations and standards, and make decisions that are grounded in the best interests of our students. We've earned the opportunity to continue this work.

So, let me be crystal clear. A vote to reverse Twin Rivers revocation allows Highlands to continue to stabilize, improving and innovating on behalf of our students. It allows their stories to continue to be shaped by their hopes and their dreams.

A vote against Highlands, or a failure to act, effectively dooms this school and disrupts the lives of nearly 2,000 students who depend on it.

And let me say this plainly. Your vote tonight is not about us up here. It's about these students right here. Stand up, students. Stand up. Stand up [inaudible].

It is about -- it is about whether we believe these students -- it's about whether we believe these students deserve an institution willing to fight for them, improve for them, and refuse to give up on them.

As I close, I want to leave you with one final commitment. Highlands will not seek reauthorization through Twin Rivers in the future. And I promise you this: If given the opportunity to continue this work, Highlands will become a school that this community, that this county, and that this state can be really proud in. Thank you.

MR. SIMMONS: Good evening -- good evening, board members. I'm Jerry Simmons and I serve as legal counsel for Highlands. I'm going to skip through some slides I have that were related to the legal standards, because Tracy did cover that -- your general counsel -- already.

However, I did want to make sure that we walked through each of the issues that were at stake in the notice of violations, and what the district staff found on each of those issues.

There was an issue about grade levels not being approved, and district staff found that Highlands had ceased the practice of enrolling students in the 9th and 10th grade; that it had in fact started enrollment in 1st and 2nd grade -- which were the grades contained in the charter -- that there was a commitment reached and agreed upon that before adding or changing grades -- that Highlands would submit a material revision request.

And that, if not approved, Highlands would continue to serve 1st, 2nd, and 12th grades as approved in their petition. So, staff found that issue was fully remedied.

Similarly, staff found that the locations issue was remedied, because the Highlands Board had been taking action to terminate or buy out leases that were not in the approved petition. And then, Highlands did move into only locations that were in the approved petition prior to the remedy date, and that was added to the record.

And further, Highlands did adopt and revise multiple board policies, including one related to school site opening and closure, to ensure this would never happen again.

There was also an issue with regard to failure to submit an audit report. This was ultimately submitted to the district on January 2nd, 2026. So, this issue was found to be remedied.

In terms of credential misassignment, this issue relates to the fact that the school had been using adult education credentials for many of its teachers. They are serving only adults, as I think all of you know, which is why they had chosen that credential.

This was questioned in the state audit, and so Highlands shifted, and laid off employees who had those adult ED credentials and replaced them with teachers who had high school credentials. The -- the district found that this was, in fact, also remedied.

Failure to track and meet instructional minutes was also found to be remedied. They found that there were corrective actions taken to improve attendance policies and procedures that were evidenced through revised calendars, bell schedules, staff trainings, and internal audits, and that the school was collaborating with its back office provider to support attendance monitoring and reporting.

There was also a question about violation of the exclusive partnership agreement where students who were not involved or enrolled in a Workforce Investment Act program had been allowed to enroll in the charter school.

Those students were disenrolled, and the program in question was terminated, and therefore, there was evidence on the record that this issue also had been fully remedied.

In terms of the fiscal mismanagement of the San Diego location, this was also found to be remedied due to a lease termination and buyout, and through adopted and revised board policies to prevent this sort of issue from ever happening again.

Similarly, with regard to the Marysville 2 -- which was the baseball facility referenced by your counsel -- this was also found to have been bought out, and also board policies adopted to resolve this issue and prevent it from occurring in the future.

There were a couple of issues that were different with regard to CICA than Highlands. I'm just going to mention those briefly.

In the case of CICA, there was no issue with grade levels, because the charter petition did authorize service of both 9 through 12, and 8th grade and below. So, essentially, a K-12 petition for CICA. So, with that evidence, staff found that the CICA had successfully refuted that alleged violation.

And then the Marysville 2 location was not applicable to CICA. That was only an issue that related to Highlands.

So, with that, I'm going to turn the balance of our presentation time over to Darrell Steinberg.

MR. STEINBERG: Thank you, Jerry. Madam President, members of the board, it's good to be before you. First time I've been on this side of the dais in a few decades. I respect the job that you do.

Process and due process matter. And while I believe strongly in Jonathan Raymond and his team's vision and the work they have done to begin turning Highlands around -- this is somewhat about that, but it's more about the flawed, and, frankly, illegal process that Twin Rivers conducted over the course of these months.

That leads to an inevitable conclusion that there is no substantial evidence on the whole record to support the board's decision to revoke.

The question has been raised numerous times; since the Twin Rivers board has final decision-making authority -- let's stipulate to that. Not the staff, the Twin Rivers Board.

Did the staff make a unilateral rogue decision, separate from the board, to give Highlands more time after September 27th of 2025? Or did they in fact authorize the staff to work with Highlands to give them more time to remedy the alleged violations?

I ask for your patience in going through a little bit of a detailed timeline in five minutes, because the timeline is dispositive here. It's what matters.

On November the 4th, 2025, the Twin Rivers board had a meeting. And at that meeting, they issued a notice of intent to revoke -- not a revocation, intent to revoke. At the same meeting, four out of the seven trustees are on the record saying, either explicitly or implicitly, that Highlands should be granted more time.

I have the transcript in front of me, and if we had time, or upon question from you, we've actually put some of the highlights of the meeting for you to watch.

But here's what President Jefferson said. "I want to see the work continue. It is my hope that we get there, but we are not there today."

She went on to say that, "We can get Highlands Charter into compliance. We can help them." Trustee one. Trustee two -- Trustee Baker said that, "We're giving them another 60 days to correct these violations."

Trustee Baker, "60 days to correct the violations." And by the way, Trustee Baker then makes the motion to pass the intent to revoke. So, Trustee Baker is saying, this is an intent. You get 60 more days.

Trustee Vogt. After the Twin Rivers legal counsel says, we're giving them more time, he says -- or Trustee Vogt said, "That would hold us to a finite, finite timeline, correct?" Correct.

And finally, Trustee Bastian said, "Tonight's vote is not about closing Highlands Charter. It's about giving more time to make it right. Is that the essence?"

Four board members gave the Twin Rivers staff the authority to go forward to continue working with Highlands. And then here is the key thing that happens after that. Three minutes.

December the 3rd of 2025, the lead staff for Twin Rivers, a woman named Sharilyn Warta, writes to Highlands and says, "You have until January 2nd to submit more evidence."

And she says -- and this is really key -- that, "We're giving you this time so that we can expand the record." Talking about the record -- substantial evidence on the record. So, it was Warta that says, "You need to submit evidence timely so that we can expand the record."

So, then what happens? They work together, of course. And the Twin River staff, after working with Highlands, concludes -- it's the only factual finding, by the way, on the completed record -- that Highlands, in fact, complied, and that there is no basis for revocation. It's clear that they said that.

What then does the board do?

The board, on January 27th, issues a resolution which relies on the November 4th, 2025 notice of intent -- notice of intent to revoke, which was the old record -- the pre-November 4th record. They rely on that when, again, on November 4th, this very same meeting, they ask for an expanded record to consider whether or not Highlands has actually come into compliance.

This is the essence of an abuse of discretion.

And so -- I've got a minute 38 left, and I want to sum it up with this: in determining whether there is substantial evidence in the record to support the board's decision, please ask yourself this; which record?

Is it the record prior to September of 2025 that the board relies on in making its ultimate decision on January the 27th? Or is it the record that the board itself asked for on November 4th to consider, again, whether or not Highlands was in compliance?

They gave direction to expand the record, and the same night, they contradicted themselves -- they contradicted -- I'm -- they contradicted themselves.

The expanded record that they requested has no evidence to make a conclusion that Highlands failed to comply. In fact, just the opposite.

In the -- in the January 27th revocation itself, they did not -- they did not provide any new allegations; they did not specifically rebut the staff. They simply said, we're relying on the old record, after they had asked to create a new record.

That's an abuse of discretion.

And I would argue -- respectfully, I think your counsel did a very fine job in presenting the options -- but it's one of the clearest cases of a lack of substantial evidence in a record that the very board asked for.

So, we ask you on clear process violation to grant the appeal. Thank you.

MS. STINSON: I will now invite the Twin Rivers Unified School District representatives to make their presentation.

MR. DIGIULIO: Good evening, Board President Corona Sabeniano, members of the board, as well as Superintendent Gordon. My name -- my name is Ryan DiGiulio.

I'm the chief business official for Twin Rivers Unified School District, and I'm joined here by our attorney, William Schuetz of Dannis Woliver Kelley, and we'll be presenting to you a review of the district's revocation process and findings for both the Highlands Community Charter School and the California Innovative Career Academy.

And I'd like to say that -- apologize we don't have more representation here, but we also have a board meeting occurring tonight, so -- but everybody sends their well wishes, and we'll get started.

MR. SCHUETZ: Good evening, board and Dr. Gordon. I appreciate the time. This is -- my name is Bill Schuetz, I'm with Dannis Woliver Kelley representing the district here tonight.

So, this first slide is just really timelines, which you've already gone through earlier with counsel's presentation.

As confirmed by SCOE in their analysis of the revocation appeals, Twin Rivers satisfied all required timelines and followed the revocation procedures outlined in the education code and applicable regulations.

So, following -- after multiple and varying requests for information and notice of concern over a 12-month period, the district issued a notice of violation on June 17th, which gave the charter schools until September 26th, over 3 months, to remedy the violations. Because they failed to remedy the violations and concerns that were brought to their attention before then.

By approving the issuance of the notice of intent to revoke, the district board concluded that the charter schools failed to sufficiently remedy all the violations identified in the notice of violation by the expiration of the remedy period.

Although the charter schools submitted additional materials and took other actions after expiration of the remedy period, the board was not obligated to consider remedial efforts taken after expiration of the remedy period.

Even if the district were required to consider them, the board found that attempts at further remedial actions after expiration of the remedy period failed to sufficiently remedy the violations and-or promised unsubstantiated and unreliable future performance. And these were adopted as part of the findings of the board.

So, the core question -- and -- and Counsel Stinson mentioned earlier that it's not, was progress made, or could a different decision have been reached, but it's, was there substantial evidence in the record? Does it support the findings?

On appeal, the county board scope of review is limited to determining whether the revo- -- revocation findings made by the district board are supported by substantial evidence on the record. And as reference, that's a deferential standard.

Substantial evidence has been defined by the courts as relevant evidence that a reasonable mind might accept as adequate to support a conclusion, and the evidence must be viewed in light most favorable to the district board's decision.

As recognized by staff in their analysis, an inherent part of the substantial evidence standard is a presumption in favor of the district board's decision.

So, should the board -- this county board conclude that substantial evidence in the record supports the district's findings regarding any one of the grounds for revocation, that determination compels the county board to affirm the district's revocation decision.

So, it was mentioned briefly earlier, but the final decision whether to revoke a charter is made by the authorizer's board, not by staff. The Twin Rivers board concluded that the charter schools had not sufficiently remedied the violations by the end of the remedy period.

While staff's recommendation regarding revocation was based on post-remedy period actions taken by the charter schools to address the violations, the district board was not required to accept staff's recommendation or consider any actions taken after the expiration of that remedy period.

So, Ryan's going to go through some of those violations for you right now.

MR. DIGIULIO: So, as we go through each individual violation, you'll see in the top left corner is the school that's impacted. So, for this one it's the Highlands Community charter. The violation itself, grade levels not approved. And then we'll go through kind of the factual background, and Bill will come back and talk about the staff findings and the ultimate board decision.

So, again, this applies to Highlands Community Charter School, and there was admitted wrongdoing here. Highlands said that they would take responsibility.

To cure or remedy this violation, Highlands submitted two material revisions; Highlands withdrew both material revision requests before the Twin Rivers board could make a determination.

As part of the proposed remedy, Highlands also submitted three different grade level transition plans. The final grade level transmission plan, submitted on January 9th, stated that they would not be in compliance with their petition until July 1st of 2026.

MR. SCHUETZ: So, following that process, staff determined that once implemented, that January 9th plan would remedy the violation. But the district board decision determined that Highlands continue to serve students in grades that are not approved, therefore it had not been remedied, and promises of future compliance were not acceptable.

MR. DIGIULIO: So, the next violation related to HCCS again; locations not approved. And the location was one operating at 10013 Folsom Boulevard. Highlands did admit wrongdoing and said they have failed to comply.

To remedy the violations, Highlands submitted three material revision requests. The first two were withdrawn before determination could be made. The final request was submitted on January 2nd of this year.

During the January 27th board meeting, Highlands offered conflicting information regarding this matter. They verbally stated that they had returned to approved locations, but their presentation had said that they submitted plans to cure the violation.

To date, the district has not received evidence, such as a termination agreement, that show Highlands is vacated from 10013 Folsom Boulevard.

MR. SCHUETZ: And then staff, during the January 27th, meeting determined that CICA was in process of moving to locations that are approved, but did not confirm that -- that the Highlands have provided evidence of compliance.

The Twin Rivers board determined that Highlands had not complied with -- within the remedy period, and that plans promising future compliance were insufficient.

MR. DIGIULIO: So, also for locations not approved, we have CICA here, and they were operating at six unapproved sites, as seen on the bottom right corner of the slide right there. You can see in red.

CICA did admit wrongdoing and failed -- and said they had failed to comply. To cure or remedy this violation, CICA submitted three material revision requests. The first two requests, again, were withdrawn. The final one was submitted on January 2nd.

During the January 13th material revision public hearing, CICA stated the material revision request cured the violation, and if the material revision request was denied, they would return to approved sites.

By stating that they would return if denied, CICA admitted to continued operation at the unapproved locations through January. The school, essentially, postponed compliance until time had expired.

To date, the district has not received any evidence, such as termination agreements or communications from landlords, that CICA has vacated from the unapproved locations.

MR. SCHUETZ: So, similar to HCCS, staff concluded that CICA was in the process of moving to locations that are approved, but the board's ultimate decision was that the violation had not been remedied, and that plans of future compliance were not acceptable.

MR. DIGIULIO: And now, for both schools, related to the failure to submit the 23-24 audit report. This applies to both schools.

Highlands assigns responsibility for this failure to Eide Bailly, the auditor. Highlands asserted they had been responsive and they had provided all the necessary documentation to the auditor.

The district received unreliable reports from Highlands and CICA. The reports do not constitute what is considered a compliant audit; to the contrary, they confirm the absence of any reliable financial information to solicit an opinion upon. The auditors state they were unable to obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence to provide a basis for an audit opinion.

There is, in quote, "Substantial doubt about the organization's," quote, "Ability to continue as a going concern," quote. And therefore, quote, "We do not express an opinion on these financial statements," quote.

MR. SCHUETZ: So, as -- as mentioned and reflected in this slide, copies of other reports were provided to the district on January 2nd. The board decision was that the violation had not been remedied within the fine remedy period.

MR. DIGIULIO: The next violation regarding CICA is a failure to track and meet instructional minutes. CICA submitted three different student calen-- calendars, stating the previous version had errors. The last version was submitted on October 13th of 2025.

Without accurate calendars, the district could not evaluate compliance with instructional minutes. Calculation required that they have a number of days and the hours assigned work per day. For example, the equation student days times daily minutes equals your annual instructional minutes.

Instead, CICA relied on attendance processes, procedures, pacing guides, curriculum, lengthy explanations on synchronous learning opportunities, and more, as opposed to the calculation. That information was helpful, but the violation was -- was for failure to ensure the school met the required annual instructional minutes.

CICA continuously said they met the required 64,800 minutes, but did not provide evidence. The record failed to describe any method that showed how they met the actual requirements.

Schools cannot simply say they comply; they must have evidence to prove it.

So, during the January 27th board meeting, a CICA representative vaguely described a method for calculating instructional minutes that is omitted from all previous evidence. This was the first and only mention of such a calculation in the record. The representative said assignments have to be met or exceed six hours.

Other than -- than in this instance, there is no mention of a practical method that could verify compliance with the required annual instructional minutes.

MR. SCHUETZ: So, staff noted that improvement in attendance practices in the collaboration with charter impacted their recommendation, but did not represent that CICA had provided evidence that they met the minimum number of required annual instructional minutes.

The board ultimately decided that the violation had not been remedied within the remedy period.

MR. DIGIULIO: So, for the next two items related to fiscal mismanagement, we're going to go through the same slide, and then we're going to provide some additional evidence on a second slide.

So, this one is for both schools. It relates to the San Diego condominium location, and they admitted wrongdoing on this as well and stated it was their responsibility.

The termination or buyout agreement addressed re- -- reoccurring expenses. The lease term was scheduled to end in January of 2026. The termination agreement ended the lease in November 2025, so it only mitigated two months of payments.

The remedy plan included the adoption of a school site opening and closure board policy. The policy states that school must obtain written approval from the authorizer prior to the opening of a new facility, which is a requirement already outlined in ED code.

On December 9th, as part of the remedy plan, Highland submitted additional adopted or revised policies. These essentially equated to a promise of future compliance. Recent evidence supports that this remedial measure was not effective in addressing the violation, in fact.

The district observed that during their March 26th board meeting, Highlands bypassed one of those newly adopted board policies altogether.

The agenda said that they were waiving BP 3310 for three contracts. BP 3310 is the purchasing of vendor selection policy that they submitted as part of the remedy fan -- remedy plan promising future compliance. Together, those 3 contracts came to more than $272,000.

Here we see that less than two months after the revocation process ended, Highlands is circumventing their own internal policies, which were intended as a fiscal safeguard.

MR. SCHUETZ: And staff acknowledged that the reoccurring costs had stopped, and Highlands had a plan that promised future compliance. But the Twin Rivers board, as shared in the next slide, more -- found that more than $266,000 was spent on a condo with no attempt to address misused public funds, and that violation had not been remedied within the remedy period.

MR. DIGIULIO: And further information on this location -- and this is evidence submitted by Highlands related to the condo -- the purpose for the facility, according to Highlands, was for one employee working remotely.

This doesn't make any sense, because the very nature of remote work means that the employee does not require a location funded by the organization. Otherwise, it's not remote work. So, it just doesn't add up in our -- in our minds.

Highlands' suite 310 was also the most expensive suite in the building, and it was advertised as having unparalleled views of the baseball park. So, the organization failed to address the misspent funds in this -- in this violation.

Although the lease was terminated, the public funds expended on this property will not be recovered. They did not make a single attempt to return or recoup taxpayer money. Highlands dismissed Twin Rivers board's concerns, saying that taxpayers are not going to get their money back.

The second fiscal mismanagement violation relates to HCCS; the Marysville 2 location, the baseball field. The charter school did admit wrongdoing, saying the decision does not reflect stewardship of public resources.

The remedy plan that they set forth included the adoption of a school site opening and closure board policy -- which echoes education code -- adoption or revision of board policy, updates to their fiscal policy, and a procedure manual.

Highlands signed a termination agreement that required ongoing payments through April 30th, 2026. While they decided to submit a lump sum payment of $33,639 dollars and eighty cents all at once, this does not change the terms of the agreement.

By signing the termination agreement, Highlands effectively committed to the ongoing violation through April of 2026. The termination agreement also gifted more than $52,000 in equipment to the City of Marysville for $1.

MR. SCHUETZ: So, staff acknowledged that the termination agreement -- that there was one, and that Highlands had adopted policies offering a plan for future compliance.

But the district board ultimately determined, as Ryan will show in the next slide, that there was no attempt to address over the $228,000 in misused funds, and that that violation hadn't been remedied during the remedy period.

MR. DIGIULIO: So, you can see on this slide, as this photo evidence provides, you know, there's agreement requiring Highlands to make improvements to a minor league baseball field in the city of Marysville.

That agreement required Highlands to pay for field maintenance and repair, structural repairs, updates to plumbing, electrical, and bathrooms, replace stadium seating, pay all taxes and levies, capital improvements to the facility as well, and replace the scoreboard. And there was actually more.

While most leases consider normal wear and tear, this lease said normal wear and tear will not be a consideration. In fact, it stated that Highlands must make improvements so as to negate the effects of ordinary wear and tear.

There were no attempts to address the misused public funds. There was no evidence that Highlands even attempted to open discussion with the City of Marysville about the questionable nature of this agreement.

MR. SCHUETZ: So, getting back to that core question before you, which is, does substantial evidence in the record support the district board's findings; our -- our position is it does.

HCCS and CICA have not provided evidence of vacating approved locations. Failed to submit 23-24 audit, failed to track and meet minimum annual instructional minutes. Some of these were -- were straight from that notice of violation. Currently serving grades that are not approved, and as these last two slides discussed, they haven't addressed the misspent public funds and the significant harm to the taxpayer.

So, the conclusion to us is substantial evidence in the record supports district's findings as to all the grounds for revocation.

So, in summary, the determination and final decision to revoke was within the district board's lawful authority and is supported by substantial evidence in the record. The County Board of Education must review the evidence in light most favorable to the district board's findings, and indulge all reasonable inferences in support of those findings and its decision.

Should the County Board of Education include

-- conclude that substantial evidence in the record supports the district's findings in support of revocation for one or more of the grounds for revocation, that compels the county board to affirm, uphold, the district's revocation decision.

The district, in conclusion, reflect -- respectfully urges the county board to affirm the district board's decision to revoke HCCS and CICA as charters.

MR. DIGIULIO: We thank you for your time and consideration of the facts for this case. Thank you.

MR. SCHUETZ: Thank you.

MS. SABENIANO: Thank you. We will now move on to public comments. If you have not filled out a speaker card, you can find that in the back of the room. The yellow card. Fill that out and turn it in to Wende Watson.

And I will turn it over to Assistant Superintendent Michael Kast, who will read the names for public comment.

MR. KAST: Yeah, so, we have quite a few speaker cards, so please bear with us. We are going to ask participants to line up at the front left doors right outside in the hallway and then come in one at a time when the podium opens.

When the last of those five comes to the podium, I will call another five names to come up, and then, with that, please excuse any mispronunciations. I respectfully will do my best for all the names, and I will start calling our first five public speakers.

Zarmina Wardak [ph], Hasam Buzgaya [ph], Melissa Roberson, Shira Miranda [ph], and Julianne Neal [ph], please come to the side door, and we will let you in one at a time. We do have four overflow rooms, so please give us just a minute to get this fus- -- first group up, please.

MR. BUZGAYA: Hello. Hasam Buzgaya. The Highland Charter took $180 million of taxpayers' money while not meeting legal and [inaudible] requirements, misreporting attendance, lacking documentation for student attendance, using teacher without proper credentials, questionable spending, and on and on and on. They listed everything.

Then we stood here while we were listening to their lawyers, and I'm astonished our mayor basically doing what -- in his self-called good lawyering, while they are representing a criminal by saying to the court, yes, our client admits to doing all this misdeeds, and they did them, and we want a second chance.

It's not one, it's not two, it's not three. It strikes at the core of education. Everything they did is wrong and misrepresented the -- what they should be doing, and they misused the public money, and it's bad for the immigrant community.

And most of these immigrants right here holding the papers up, and I asked a lot of them, don't know why they're here. Don't even know why they're here. And they can't speak or re- -- or represent themselves. Right? I challenge any of them to come up here and talk. They have addressed very -- every grievance, and they wouldn't do it again. They used to show up. I'm sorry. That's all I have to say.

MS. ROBERSON: Am I ready?

MS. SABENIANO: Yeah.

MS. ROBERSON: Okay. Good evening, board members. My name is Melissa Roberson. I'm the director of accountability for Highlands Community Charter and Technical Schools. I have had the honor and privilege of working at Highlands for over 10 years. I started as a teacher.

I'm very passionate about the community that we serve, and I've worked very closely with Twin Rivers Unified School District throughout this process. I've been the recipient of the letters. I've been working very closely with -- with Ryan [ph] and Bill [ph], their legal counsel. I just want to set the record straight on a couple of items.

The first one is that we provided over 77 leases to Twin Rivers Unified School District, which showed the exact dates, the lease terminations, when the lease started, and when the leases ended. All of those leases have been provided, including for -- for the Folsom Boulevard. The leases were provided for Marysville, for San Diego. All of those leases have been provided.

I also want to acknowledge the material revisions to the charter. So during the time of collaboration, while we were working with Twin Rivers, we -- we withdrew the material revisions to the charter at their request. We drafted it originally to address two of the items that were noticed as a violation. We were addressing the locations, and we were addressing grade levels.

However, there had been other significant changes to both of the schools, and so we went in, and we updated the plan, every single thing that we had done differently. Ultimately, it was too much for their board to review, and therefore they requested that we take all of them -- all of that out and just focus on the locations that we were serving and the grade levels under the pretense that this charter could be approved.

I also want to speak about the SICA's instructional minutes. Oh, I'm sorry. Thank you.

MS. SABENIANO: Thank you.

MR. KAST: So I'd like to call up the next group of speakers to please line up. Shana Miranda, Julianne Neal, Zarmina Wardak. Some of those names are repeats. And then Oscar Aguilar [ph], Alejandro Romero [ph], and Daisy Calendrez [ph].

MALE 1: And [inaudible]

MR. KAST: We'll just go with them for now.

MS. MIRANDA: Good evening. My name is Shana Miranda, and I am an employee of the school. Over the years, I've witnessed many different leaders, many difficult moments. Past leadership have made many mistakes that deeply impacted this school and our community. But I have also witnessed the current leadership working tirelessly to repair the damage that they did not make.

What I want everyone to remember tonight is that this is more than just a school; this is about the future of our community. This school changes lives, and for many of our students and our families, this school is their safe place, their support system, and their hope for a better future.

I stand here today not for myself, but for the students of our community who depend on us. They need stability. They need support. They need adults willing to fight for their success. Allow us to do that. No school is perfect, but the work happening here matters. The impact this school has had and will continue to have is real. We can't change the past, but we sure have learned from it. And we will continue to do better.

I ask that we continue focusing on what we can control and what is best for our students. Great things are happening at Highlands. And thank you for this opportunity for m- -- to allow me to speak. Have a great evening.

MS. NEAL: Hello, my name is Julianne Neal. I am a fourth-grade teacher in the Twin Rivers District, and I am a proud, true member, Twin Rivers United Educators. I am also someone who lives in Area 3 as well as teach in Area 2.

So Highlands and CICA's operators engaged in a pervasive misuse of public education dollars. While they claim that new leadership has turned things around in the right direction, they are spending hundreds of thousands of dollars on expensive consultants for PR, lobbying strategy, and have not even been able to produce the valid audit for '23/'24 or '24/'25.

The TRUSD board of direction -- directors took the appropriate legal steps to revoke these charters, and there is no legal basis to reverse this decision. The revocation must be upheld. When considering the luxury apartment in San Diego above Petco Park, trips to Hawaii, trips to France, the baseball field in Marysville, all of the money that was misappropriated and not spent on student learning should be not just appalling to us as community members and educators, but to you as well as a board who's supposed to be responsible for students.

The violations revoke trust that we have in the community with $100,000 spent at consultants to bring buses out to bring people here to stand and say they're with that. Hiring a bus may be not the best use of funding either to come advocate for themselves. Extravagant expenditures still not there. There is no legal basis to reverse this charter revocation. TRUSD followed the legal process --

MS. SABENIANO: Time.

MS. NEAL: Thank you.

MALE 2: Okay. Speak into the mic, okay?

MALE 3: Hello, the board members. Thanks again for having me here. I think I met you guys before. English is my second language. And I'm so grateful with this -- this school that have taught me many, many things. A little bit of me. I -- I found Highlands in one of those really hard times in my life after losing everything. My English wasn't perfect as it is now. But little by little, I'm getting on top of those struggles. I have goals now. And I -- I only -- I only have to -- to give thanks to -- to my teachers and the beautiful staff who -- who is at Highlands and all the students that -- that we continue going until -- until the end because we are not going to give up. We are not going to give up. We -- we are here to continue this fight and hopefully -- hopefully you guys can change your -- your mind. Because Highlands is more than a school; it's like a family for many of us who has lost everything, and the only hope is to get better and succeed in life. In order to do that, I need to get my high school diploma, and -- and Highlands offered me that opportunity.

Once I get that, the high school, I will continue because one of these days, I'm going to be sitting in one of those chairs right there so I can -- I can -- so I can analyze and give my opinion. And you guys may -- may dimiss me -- diminish me because of my accent, of my skin color, but that's not what we learn in Highlands. Highlands, we are a big community, big family, and we are here to stay.

MS. SABENIANO: Time.

MALE 3: Thank you.

MR. ROMERO: Buenas tardes, honorables miembros del -- del buró. Mi nombre es Alejandro Romero. Soy estudiante de Highland. Vengo ante ustedes porque en sus manos está hoy la vida de -- de muchos estudiantes. Castigar a la escuela, retirando su licencia, no castiga a los antiguos administradores; nos castiga a nosotros, castiga a nuestras familias que se benefician del valor de la educación.

Muchos de los estudiantes actuales somos inmigrantes que salimos o -- y muchos de nosotros refugiados que salimos de nuestros países por guerra o pers- -- o persecución por no tener derecho a estudiar, por no tener derecho a hablar, a decir lo que queremos. Si cierran esta escuela no tenemos dónde ir y hay miles que están esperando para entrar [inaudible].

Bajo la nueva dirección de Highland, ya comenzó a cambiar y les pedimos a ustedes que fiscalicen, que vean que se gasta el dinero. Es lo importante. Pero por favor no destruyan nuestro futuro por los errores del pasado. Que el error de quienes pudieron haber abusado no se selle con el error de la clausura.

MS. ROMERO: Good evening, members of the board. My name is Alejandra Romero, and I'm a student of Highland. I'm here to ask you for not close our school. Our school is our family. It's not just students; it's family and a commun- -- a community of courage.

There are more than 4,100 students right now who come from different countries with the -- as refugees, as immigrants, or people who are hoping for another chance because they have been in jail. Please help us to sustain and keep up with our work. We are -- there are more than 4,000 persons who want to be enrolled in the program, and they can't.

Please, under the new administration on Highland, the school has been promoted and be success in making many changes. Please, please, we ask you for our future, not for thinking in our past. Ch- -- Highland's changes have helped us to have a more technology and better -- and better classroom time. I

-- I'm asking you to support our future.

MR. KAST: Thank you.

MS. ROMERO: Thank you.

MR. KAST: So we have Zarmina coming up, and then we're going to make a small change; I think we can safely make it. We're going to line the next group up in the center and I'll make sure we're tracking to make sure we get everybody's voices heard. The next group of speakers will be Daisy Calendres [ph], Gabriella Calendres [ph], Dr Addie Ellis [ph], Svetlana Evoka [ph], and Nate Garcia [ph]. Please come down the middle aisle, and we'll stop and make sure we have everybody accounted for. Thank you.

MS. WARDAK: Good evening, everyone. Good evening, everyone. My name is Zarmina. Originally, I'm from Afghanistan. I just want to say a short thing about my story with Highland. I started studying at Highland Community Charter School in 2022. When I started my studying with Highland, my English was so limited. My English was, like, just from zero.

When I started with Highland, and -- I had a lot of problems. I had so difficulties with the language barrier because English was a second language for me. And all the teachers -- when I started from the beginning, all the teachers gave me everything, like, give me this -- that much knowledge that I -- now I can speak in English. Like, not totally, but I can speak English. And they -- they helped me to improve my skills, improve my language, like, English.

With Highland, I was a mo- -- I'm a mom, I have four kids. With this responsibility, families, everything, I came to the Highland and I learned English, and I want to be -- continue with Highland. I am almost done, but Highland gives me opportunity to continue with all my responsibility.

Because Highland gave us chance to, as a mom, as a responsible person in the community, I - I continue my learning, I continue my studying, and I continue -- now I -- I'm a -- I feel I'm confident, I'm a strong person, and I will be -- continue my goals and my college and my all education. Thank you so much.

ABDUL: Good evening, ladies and gentlemen. Thank you very much for giving the opportunity. My name is Abdul [ph] [inaudible]. I'm from Afghanistan, and I'm a student at Highland Community Charter School. For many students like me, the school is more than just a school. Many of us came to the United States without opportunities for education because of war, poverty, family responsibility or difficult life situation.

Some of us arrived without the English and without knowing how to continue our education or build a future. At Highland, we found hope. We learned English, job skills, communications and how to become part of our community. Our teachers supported us with patience, kindness and respect, even though many of us balance school, work and family responsibility at the same time.

This school gives immigrants and adult learners a second chance to build better lives for themselves and their families. When you support adult education, you support stronger families, stronger communities and brighter future. Please continue supporting Highland and programs like this. Highland does not only give us classes; it gives us hope, opportunity in future.

Within less than two years, I've been able to stand before you guys and speak fluently in English, so this was the community of Highland and the -- the -- the leaders from Afghanistan. [inaudible] Please the women from Afghanistan are daring to come at the evening -- at the evening learning education.

While this might be a good incident, in Afghanistan they have been banned from education, and then there is another chance of mismanagement or violation. Even though it's not their fault, but they are missing their second chance. We request you to promote this program and give the ladies especially, the females, to establish a good future and good community. Thank you.

MS. EVOKA: Hello. My name is Svetlana [ph] and I'm from Ukraine. My family came five years ago, and now I'm an event host and a radio host with the Slavic community, also the Ukrainian community activist. I'm here to support Highlands as they supported me five years ago.

When we arrived, everything felt unfamiliar, and the educational system, medical system, housing, political, financial systems, and Highlands was the first place that made me feel safe, seen and successful. The teachers and staff helped me improve my English and connected me with the tutoring materials and educational resources on the U.S. history, political systems, financial literacy, digital literacy and job readiness.

They believed I could succeed in a new country, and it really helped me to move forward. Highlands gave me academic confidence, practical skills, and critical thinking that directly helped me find my first job in the United States. The school also introduced me to mentors who guided my career choices. I graduated three years ago, and I'm still thankful.

For immigrant families like mine, access to supportive school isn't just helpful; it's life-changing. Highlands doesn't just teach; it builds community, opens doors and helps students succeed in the United States. I support Highlands so it can continue serving students of all ages with courage and hope. Thank you for listening and for considering how important this school is to families building new lives here in the United States. Thank you.

MR. KAST: Next up is Nate Garcia. If the following people could please line up: Daisy Calendres, Gabriella Calendres, Dr. Addy Ellis [ph], Sadaf Habib [ph], Jonathan Richardson [ph], and Bill Knowlton. Please line up down the center aisle.

MR. GARCIA: Hi, trustees. How are you? My time in Highlands has fed my soul in a way that I really have a hard time expressing. In my role, I have unique pleasure of sitting down with students, hearing their stories, and elevating their voices.

Stories of harrowing escapes from war-torn countries. Stories of people that have spent decades behind bars. People that have been punched down on by society. And, you know, stories that would -- you know, would just kind of make you, you know, break down and cry.

They make my problems seem sort of small, And, you know, my life isn't even really that easy. I go -- I clock out, I go home, and I'm the sole caretaker of two disabled adult children. One of them, stage five kidney failure, needs a kidney.

But the moment I start talking to these students and sitting down with them and hearing them, that melts away. Because I hear about the one thing that they take away, and it's a common thread through all these students that they take away, and that's hope. Highland's greatest product is hope. Generational hope.

Our students are your students. Parents, they're their first teachers. You're the next ones who pick up for them. We want that to be a better transaction. And our students, even with the struggles that I have, each day they give me hope. Thanks.

MS. HABIB: Good evening, everyone. My name is Sadaf Habib, and I live at Sacramento region, and I am supporting Highlands. I proudly support Highlands Community Charter School and respectfully ask that the Twin Rivers Unified District reconsider and revoke its decision.

As a member of Afghan community, I have personally seen the life-changing impact in this school has on refugees, immigrants, and adult learners. I myself earned my high school diploma through Highlands, which gave me the opportunity to continue my education and attend college. And right now, I am a student at college and doing my paralegal studies.

Highlands is more than a school; it's a place of hope, opportunity, and second chance of many families of our community. Many Afghan women, newcomers, and working adults rely on this program to build a better future for themselves and their children. Closing or limiting this opportunity would deeply affect communities that already face many barriers. Thank you so much.

MR. RICHARDSON: Good even- -- good evening. My name is Jonathan Richardson. I'd like to share a little about my background. When I was in high school, I -- I couldn't focus on my work because I had a lot on my mind. I struggled to finish school, and for many years, all I could do was wish I ha- -- had received -- received my high school diploma, but now I feel like it's my time and I am so motivated.

Highlands gave me the hope and support I needed to finally finish school and earn my diploma. When I found out about Highlands, I registered right away from the very beginning.

It gave me a positive experience and the belief that I truly can achieve my goal. My entire experience have -- has been positive.

All my teachers make learning interesting and manageable. They keep it fun, and we laugh a lot. My classmates feel like my -- feel like my family to me, and we all get along so well. I am also surprised by how much I learned. Biology has been one of my favorite subjects, but I've gained so much from history, English and computer literacy as well.

I would hate to see Highlands close; it would be devastating not just for me but for all of us who have worked so hard toward our goals. I don't know if I would ever find teachers and classmates --

MS. SABENIANO: Time.

MR. RICHARDSON: -- like the ones I have here at Highlands Community Charter School. I think my classmates feel the same way. Thank you for letting me share my thoughts with you all. It has been a pleasure.

MR. KAST: Can the following speakers please come to the center aisle: Amad Abrahami [ph], Kathy Chow Rothberg [ph], Arizo Acbari [ph], Abdul Ahmedzai [ph], and Perima Azizi [ph]?

MR. KNOWLTON: Good evening, trustees. My name is Bill Knowlton, and I'm with the Mack Road Partnership [inaudible] property and business district in South Sacramento. I have a couple of things to say, and I -- and I'll be brief. First -- first of all, thank you for your service to our community. This i- -- these jobs are not easy, and they're not glamorous a lot of times, and this is probably one of those times.

What is the right answer? We heard from one group of attorneys who said, this is the right answer, and then we heard from another group that said, this is the right answer, and both are absolute. I'm not an attorney, and I don't know if that's true. What I do know is that there's a human cost to the decision that you're about to make. That I do know. We work with this community every day. The struggles that we have as a community, a lot of it goes right to education.

There is nobody arguing that Highlands made really, really big mistakes. There's no argument there. But there's nobody sitting behind me that did this. There's not one person here that made that happen. There are a group of people who are saying, we have made these changes, substantial changes, and let's go down the road a little bit to see where this ends up. You can put whatever restrictions you want on going forward, but to say no makes a huge difference to this community.

So I would just ask you, think long and hard, really search your soul to say, what is -- what is the right thing to do? Always look at what's the next right thing. Thank you for hearing me.

MS. ROTHBERG: Good evening. My name is Kathy Chow Rothberg, and I am a refugee. I know why I'm here. I am a mother, I am a voter in District 3, I am a homeowner, I am a property owner, and I am a CEO, and a volunteer. I am here because I believe in public education. I grew up in the public education, and I was once an elected official like you as well, sitting in the dais, serving our community.

As a former city council member and a former mayor, I am here for the rights of children. I am here for the rights of young adults. I am here for the rights of parents. I am here for the rights of seniors. I am here for the rights of justice-involved adults. I am here for the rights of the homeless, those who are experiencing homelessness.

I am here for the rights of survivors, and I am here for the rights of refugees, immigrants, and I'm here for the wellness of teachers. I am here to speak about health, and the right to have education opportunity, and to have skills, and to have jobs, to have housing, to be part of society, to have health care and to have mental health care.

No one at Highland or SICA stole any of that money to use personally. They used the money to serve the community. Imagine that, how much money we have spent on homelessness and on the jails. It costs $127,000 to jail a person in our state a year. It costs $74,000 a year to put a person in a county jail. It costs $74,000 for one homeless person.

Highland is saving our community, educating our community members so that they can be a part of society. Thank you. You have a hard decision. Thank you for making the right choice. You heard all the evidence. Please make the right choice. Revoke [inaudible]. Revoke [inaudible]. Stand for our society. Thank you.

MR. KAST: Can the following five people please make their way up? Shapoola Hotak [ph], Eid Mohamed Nori [ph], Rebecca Snow [ph], Sayeed Freidenfeldt [ph] -- sorry, Caleb Freidenfeldt [ph] and Omar Kevin McColl [ph].

MS. ACBARI: Hello team -- board team members and every- -- everyone who is here today. My name is Arizo Acbari, and I am res- -- residing in Sacramento region, and I'm a victim advocate at Lao Family Community Development agency. So I'm here today to support Highland and revoke Twin Rivers decision.

I want to share and talk about the impact that Highlands have on our individuals and the families that we are serving. So we are like the peo- -- the -- we are helping through our c- -- through our -- through our organization, we are helping individuals and families from different backgrounds, especially who are in- -- involved, including survivor of domestic violence or survivors of any crime, also refugees and newcomers who really wants to rebuild their lives.

And one of the -- they -- they face a lot of barriers, and one of the biggest barriers they're facing is their language, which they -- they can -- they can -- they can go to Highlands and make the impact that Highlands have to remove this barrier from these individuals and family is that they go to -- they attend the English classes, and they are able to build their lives and contribute to the community.

They -- they are able to get work because most of the families that we are working with, they -- they have language barriers and also -- and also the -- the time is up? Okay. So w- -- when they are -- when they are learning English, so it means that they can contribute to -- to -- to the community and also get a good job, get housing, and also get a successful life. Thank you.

MR. FREIDENFELDT: Hey, thanks for having me. My name is Caleb Freidenfeldt, Area A representative of the PACE Committee, Political Action for Classified Employees, and CSEA.

So I was doing some studying yesterday. I was quite confounded by the amount of corruption that was going on with North Highlands. I'm from Grass Valley. I drove an hour and a half to be here.

And so the charter school lobby pushes legislation around one thing and one thing only: anti-regulation and anti-oversight. Speaking to members of the public, how does it feel that the anti-oversight efforts -- that this is the primary goal of charter schools is anti-oversight? They should be held accountable. And California char- -- California charter lobbying efforts' primary goal is to lobby against accountability.

So the charter school movement -- excuse me, this is a symptom of the charter school movement. Corruption and mismanagement is a feature. My brothers and sisters in CSEA are the embodiment of accountability. It is the core principle of our union. It protects our students. It protects the public trust. And North Highlands Charter has failed on both accounts. Thank you.

MR. McCOLL: Hi, everyone. My name is Omar. I am the resident of Elgrove and also representing refugee communities. In addition, I am working with Lao Family Community Development organization, which helping delivering service to the refugee communities.

So I am here to speak on behalf of the refugee communities who are left behind of the education, learning English, and a school diploma. I am here to speak on behalf of those refugee communities who left their countries to come here and make their lives better.

I am here to speak on behalf of those refugee communities that the schools and educations are banned on their country and they coun- -- struggled so many problems to come here and learn something.

So, as we know, language is the biggest barrier towards the employment, social adjustment, housing, and even parenting sometimes. So Highland Charter is not only an educational center; it was also a community center that was helping the refugee communities to get together, know each other's l- -- cultures, networking and introduce with different people from different countries. It means that it was helping their mental health as well.

So I'm here to request to give an opportunity for that single mom who doesn't know English and needs a high school diploma.

To give an opportunity for these students who are here, to give an opportunity for those students that they are not able to make it happen to come here, and finally to give an opportunity for Highland Charter. So please revoke this decision of the Twins River and give another opportunity for Highland Charter to continue. Thank you so much for your time.

MR. LAHOTAK: Good evening, everyone. My name is Shefiel Lahotak [ph], and I'm a community lead volunteer. So I'm -- I reside in District -- District 3, but I do have connection in broader Sacramento community, and like a bridge. So we connect the needy family where they need the services.

So I believe it's a good time that summer break is coming. We all have planning to go on a break, to go travel, to go somewhere. So when we make our planning, so we do provide everything. We have our document, we have our passports, we have everything prior we leave. But pretend and remind those days when the Afghan evacuated from Afghanistan.

I have a story. I used to work for a non-profit or a settlement agency. One of our clients, he gave us a story, which he has half of his clothes while he was crossing the wall to get into the airport and to come to the United States. So pretend that he has no document. He left all his education document.

He left everything over there, and whatever left behind at home, it's turned out and it's burned because it was a challenge for them, for their family, remaining family. So they have no document when they end up to Sacramento.

So we -- as a community, we lead them. We take them to Highland Charter to give them a succeed, a way. So Highland Charter is, wherever it's happened, that's Highland happened. But that's -- that's a key. That's a key to success. So we need -- we need the success. If you want to continue and have these community members who end up to Sacramento to succeed and to have an opportunity, so we need to keep opening this door.

And when we're closing Highland Charter door, it's not just mean that we're closing the Highland door, but we're closing thousands of other families who need income. I have two individuals, Syed [ph] and Mohamed [ph], who get his document, he succeed, he had a job. Syed, who didn't complete the Highland, so he didn't able to get the job. So we want to continue and have Highland Charter in the community. Thank you.

MR. MOHAMED: Distinguished board members and respected trustees and my peers, friendly like a family, and all the participants who have participated in this meeting today, good evening to you all.

This is Eid Mohamed, an immigrant from a war-torn country, Afghanistan, that everybody knows. I, as an immigrant, started school here, and I have somehow improved my English, the accent, the understanding that caused me to get a new job as a medical interpreter. This credit goes back to Highland Charter School. If I did not attend this school, how possible I could be employed as a medical interpreter?

So now my proposal is you guys have the capacity, the decision makers, the trustees. So please consider Highland Charter School. Like the coins, it has two sides. So the negative sides, everybody mentioned, yes, corruption this and that. Okay.

One, two, three, four persons may be corrupted or corruption, so why you are not prosecuting those corrupted people and now you're punishing the immigrant community, the people, the students, the parents who do not have their certificates from homeland? Now they have to get high school diploma plus learn English to have a brighter future.

So at the last not the least, but I'm mentioning that Mark Twain, who died 116 years ago, he said, be kind. Kindness is the language that deaf can hear and blind can see. So please kind to Highland. Thank you.

MR. KAST: Can the following five speakers please approach the center aisle: Michael Strillo Smith [ph], Nikki Ramon Tuxbury [ph], Sahar Ahmadi [ph], Adiba Hadi [ph] and Anna Mozgova [ph]?

MR. IBRAHIMI: Good evening, everyone. My name is Ahmed Ibrahimi [ph]. I'm a student's enrollment special at Highland Community Charter School and also serve as a board member of Afghan community in Sacramento. For many people, school is just a building, but for immigrant and refugee Highland is much more than that.

Highland is a second home. It is a place where people who lost hope began to believe in themselves again. Many of our students came to this country after surviving war, fear, poverty, and heartbroken situation in their home countries. Many parents never had an opportunity to go to school or earn a high school diploma before they were focused on survival.

Every day I see mothers and fathers walk into Highlands carrying a heavy responsibility. Some works long hours. Some are learning English for the very first time. Some bring their children with them because they have nobody else to help, yet they still come to school and determine and courage.

Highland changed lives. It gives dignity, confidence, education, and -- and hope to the peoples who have already faced so many struggle. For many Afghan families and immigrants, immigr- -- immigrant community, Highland is not just a school; it is a bridge to future. It helps refugees become independent, support their family, improve their English, continue their education, and become proud contributors to their countries.

Keep Highlands open means keeping a dream alive for a thousand California residents who simply wants a chance, a chance to learn. a chance to succeed, a chance to give their children opportunity themselves never had. Thank you so much for listening and support our community and our second home, Highlands.

PARIMA: Hello, my name is Parima [ph]. I am a mother. I have been studying English with Highlands for three years. I'm very happy to be a student at Highlands.

Being a student at Highlands, I've learned a lot of things, including I can communicate with my children's school, I can see the -- I can read the messages, I can read the flyers and understand them, and I can also speak English, but I got a little anxious here, so I'm not able to communicate in English

Please help us by not closing Highland because by closing Highland, you're going to close our future. When you're thinking about Highland, please think about the -- the future of us -- of -- of us students. Thank you.

MR. SMITH: Good evening. My name is Michael Strillo Smith, and I have been teaching at Highlands since April 13th. And with over 20 years of experience in public, private charter schools and as an arts educator in the public sector and nonprofit, I thought I had seen it all. Then I came to Highlands.

In just over one month, I've had the honor of meeting the most remarkable students. Each one brings a unique and powerful story. Some of those stories are heartbreaking, but what stands out most is their resilience. Their determination doesn't just inspire me, it humbles me.

We often say education is a fundamental human right. It's not just about academics; it is about dignity, opportunity, and hope. Yet many of our students come from places where access to education was never guaranteed, or those whose circumstances were interrupted at some point in their life. What unites them is this. They do not take this opportunity for granted.

Our students are balancing so much. They are working, supporting families, raising children, all while attending school full-time. I've met students determined to break generational cycles, to become role models, and to build better futures, not just for themselves, but for their communities. Without Highlands, these opportunities disappear.

I commute two hours each way from San Jose every single day for the privilege, the privilege of teaching at Highlands. It is that special. Our students want to be there. They believe in what we offer. As educators, we are not here to close doors; we are here to open them, to create opportunity and to ignite a love of learning.

These students, many of whom have endured sacrifices most of us could never imagine, deserve our support. They deserve our encouragement. And above all, they deserve the unwavering opportunity to continue learning in our classrooms. Thank you.

MS. TUXBURY: Good evening. It's an honor to stand here in front of you, you know? My name is Nikki Ramon Tuxbury. I'm the [inaudible] woman with all these foreigners I go to school with at 61.

I started 2018, I left over there at Grant. This time I came back, and I want to succeed because I'm doing something you guys are doing. I have -- I'm going through a non-profit to help people and I'm going to be on the board.

And -- and for you guys being here making your choices, I'm going to have to make those choices of the bad and the good. And through Highlands, I'm learning an education. I'm -- I'm learning different cultures while I'm there, you know?

Yeah, I understand we had bad apples; they're gone out of the barrel because I'm nosy, I want to see -- I want to see what they're doing. Why did they do this? Why does it ha- -- has nothing to do with Highland School; it's just the bad people. It's like the gamble. You place your bet; you're going to win or lose.

But what's the real meaning behind this is to help people succeed. They come from a different country. You don't want them sitting on welfare. You don't want them lying around. These people are very intelligent.

Some of them have education, but they can't move forward here unless they get a diploma. That's where you come in. And kike I said, it's a gamble. They are cleaning house. They are making those moves. Thank you.

MS. SABENIANO: Time.

MS. TUXBURY: Thank you.

MS. AHMADI: Good evening, everyone. My name is Sahar Ahmadi, and I'm the Sacramento region resident. I'm here today to support Highlands Community Charter School and to ask you to reconsider the Twin River decision.

I'm representing the Afghan community. Many members of our community need ESL classes so they can learn English, become employed, become self-sufficient, and build a stronger community.

So I'm here to ask you to give Highlands Community Charter second chance so that everyone in the community can be self-sufficient, have employ, pay taxes, and make the community stronger in power. Thank you.

MS. HADI: Good evening. My name is Adiba Hadi. As a refugee Afghan woman and someone who works closely with refugee and immigrant communities every day, I have personally seen the impact that Highlands Community Charter School has on people's lives.

Highland -- Highlands gives opportunity to many Afghan women that would not have had in Afghanistan: opportunities to receive education, learn English, gain job skills, and build independence for themselves and their families. For many women, this is their first real chance to persuade education in a safe and supportive environment.

Highlands serves refugees, immigrants, survivors of domestic violence and homelessness, working parents, seniors, young adults who do not -- who -- who did not complete their -- complete high school. These are individuals who are trying to rebuild their lives and continue to contribute to the community.

In Sacramento County, more than 550,000 people speak a language other than English at home, and over 122,000 adults do not have a high school diploma. Highlands helps build -- bridge the gap by providing education, English language support, and workforce -- -force opportunities at a time when the cost of living continues to rise.

This school is not just a building; it's hope for thousands of people who deserve a second chance. I respectfully ask you to consider the real human impact this decision will have on vulnerable communities who rely on Highlands every day. Thank you for your time.

MR. KAST: Can the next five speakers please line up down the center aisle: Maria Sandoval [ph], Yuri Ethmov [ph], Carla Rios [ph], Adam Graham [ph] and Annabelle Meza [ph].

MS. MEZA: Good evening respect to -- respected trustees. My name is Anna, I'm biology teacher at Highland School. I want to tell you who we are. Our school is much more than just education; it changes and saves people's life.

I am an immigrant and for my first year in the United States, I could not find friends. I became very withdrawn. I cried a lot because people didn't understand me and I felt invisible. It was very painful and lonely time for me.

But then I found Highlands and I graduated from this school. Here, people helped me to adapt. They helped me to understand the American system, learn English, get a profession and start working. Highlands became the steppingstone that helped me achieve the American dream.

Even in Ukraine, people heard about -- about Highlands. Many came to Sacramento because they knew there is a place where they will be welcomed and supported. America is a country where people can truly see and hear one another, and our school is a powerful example of that.

The teachers at Highland show me what real Americans are like. They are people with open hearts, a willingness to help each other. Today, I pass this spirit onto my students, and they pass it onto their families and their friends.

That is how we build different Sacramento, a city where people truly see and hear and -- each other. And I want to let you know that today I received my single subject teaching credentials. Thank you so much.

MS. SANDOVAL: Good evening. When I first came to this country, I remember trying to put gas on my car and not knowing -- knowing how because in my home country, an employ- -- an employee does it for you. When I asked one employee if they are going to help with this, respon- -- with this, his response was no. You have to do it yourself.

So I went back to and tried to figure out how to use a gas pump. But my English was not very good, and I had no idea what the gas pump said, so I was lost, and I tried to speak in English with one guy, but I was happy when he began to spend- -- speaking Spanish. After realizing that I was struggling, he decided to assist me, so I -- I turned him and said, you saved my life today, and I knew then I had to learn English.

Good evening, Highlands members, teachers, parents, and fellow students, and members of the board. My name is Maria Sandoval, and I'm a Student Leadership Council member from Howe Avenue site.

And today, I'm -- I'm -- I want to talk about the incredible journey that started when I joined Highlands. What -- what will happen if your children's school is closed? What will happen to those children's future without an education, without a job, without money? These are the questions being asked of the Highlands students if this could work to close down.

The students will not know where to go for help and no hope. Today it's difficult to see how many people like me are trying to forge their goals and dreams but with the closing of Highlands, you are destroying too many lives and bright futures.

There is some sadness and mixed emotions because it is difficult to leave a place that shaped too many lives and considered like home. This school means more than just a building. After 20 years of working and worrying about --

MS. SABENIANO: Time.

MS. SANDOVAL: Oh, sorry, I just want to finish with this. Just imagine, without Highlands, how many people like me will find themselves back at the gas station trying to use the gas pump without knowing what to do because can't read English. They will be lost just like I was once trying to ask for help, but -- but no one could understand me or help me. That would be truly catastrophic, sad, and painful. Thank you. Thank you for listening and good day.

MR. ETHMOV: Hello, everyone. My name is Yuri, and I am a student of Highland School. I am 41, and I came to the United States from Russia to build a new life here. When I came to the United States in October 2023, everyday American speech sounded like fast, unbreakable noise to me. I realized how much I needed to learn to truly survive and build a life here.

This is where the Highlands Community Charter School changed a lot for me. At Highlands, I didn't just start learning English grammar and pronunciation; I started learning about American society, American history, civics, and culture.

They didn't just teach me vocabulary; they taught me how to understand the American way of life. For instance, I learned idioms like to hit the ground running, which is exactly what immigrants try to do every single day.

I am deeply grateful to the United States. I am not just here to s- -- to receive. I am also to contribute. I work, I pay taxes, and I volunteer at the Rancho Cordova food locker to give back to the community and practice my English.

Even when I drive and see obstacles in the road like abandoned shopping carts or fallen pipes I stop to remove them, because I want to be a good neighbor and a responsible member of -- of American society. We are taking our very first steps on this new land, and we want to take them faster. Highlands Community Charter School is a bridge that helps us to do that.

Right now, I'm studying [inaudible] government in this school. I'm learning that in this country the people's voice truly matters. I hope our voices matter to you today. Please keep this school open. Investing [inaudible] is an invest- -- in -- as an investment in people who will make American stronger, richer, and more diverse.

Little bit -- little bit left. Can I explain finally? And finally, if you understood my speech today it means my time at Highlands has not been in vain. Thank you so much for your time.

MS. RIOS: Good evening everyone. My name is Carla Rios [ph]. I know why I am here. I'm here because I want to support Highlands. Highlands teach -- teach me how -- Highlands teach me nothing is import- -- nothing is impossible when you follow it. Highlands work with you nothing is impossible.

So Highlands help me to achieve my dreams. Highlands helped me to achieve my goals. And now I have my high school diploma. I have three careers. Highlands pay me three careers, and he pay me for manicure, he pay me for esthetician, and digital navigator. Now I feel from of Highlands, because Highlands help me to open my business. Now I can communicate with the others. I can communicate with people speak English, because English is my second language.

And then, I don't feel -- it's not embarrassed for me when something is difficult to communicate. But now I feel so proud of Highlands because he help me when I'm studying and I need a glasses. Highlands provide me glasses. When I need a computer, Highlands provide me computer, and they teach me how to use. And they teach me how to use social media. And now everything Highlands teach me help me to imp- -- improve my business. So I feel so proud of Highlands. Thank you so much.

MR. MESA: Good evening. My name is Anabel Mesa [ph]. I'm here because I was a student in Highlands Community Charter in the program of English as second language. When I came to the US, my family told me that I was never going to be able to work as civil engineer as I was in Mexico. So I knew about Highlands. And even when I was working as labor in construction, I just started to study in the afternoons.

They help me to improve my English and be able to communicate. The professors take the time to help me to revise my resume, and also, they gave me good advices for the interviews. I started working as the -- as a technician in different -- in a different company. And with the time I also did my exam for work -- for get my certificate as engineering training.

Currently, I'm working as civil engineer for the state. And I'm very concerned because many people is not going to be able to have this opportunity that I have if the program is ended. Also, the professors were very -- very helpful. They helped me to improve to different people that gave me advices how to success here in the US. Thank you so much.

MR. KAST: Can the five -- five following speakers please line up in the middle aisle: Laura Kerr [ph], Ali Hussein Amadi [ph], Sean Frame [ph], Horizona Hassani [ph], and Ali Euwar Hussan [ph]. Thank you.

MR. GRAHAM: Good evening. My name is Adam Graham. I'm the accountability coordinator at Highlands Community Charter Technical Schools. I started in 2019 as a teacher. I came here from Oregon, because I heard there was a school that was serving immigrants and refugees. And in my student teaching I had always thought there should be such a place, and I was amazed to discover that there was.

The best things I've ever done in my life were here in the last seven years I have worked for Highlands. It is unqualifiably the best experience I have ever had, the most service I have ever been to other people.

When Jonathan Raymond, Eric Chatman, and Theresa Cummins came on, I experienced a level of discussion of wide ranging and deep discussion, and understanding about what would be best for our students that I have never experienced before in my life.

Subsequently, we worked very, very hard with the staff at Twin Rivers to give them everything they need to clear these notices of violations. And it was not easy. There were a lot of them. They were very technical, very specific. And it was a very hard recommendation for anybody at Twin Rivers, I think, to make to clear those recommendation, but they gave us the all clear.

They recommended that they would not revoke the charter. The board didn't listen, didn't have any discussion. They just did what they were going to do in what I can only assume is a political process, that once again the powerful are being spared and the vulnerable are suffering the consequences. So I urge you to not let that happen today. Thank you very much.

MS. KERR: Chair and trustees, my name is Laura Kerr. I'm the chair of school developmental center. I want to thank you for the staff report and for your time and thoughtful consideration of this revocation. We sent in a letter and we think that this revocation should be reversed.

We've been following this process. I was there on January 30th when the board set aside the staff recommendation that had been endorsed by the CBO, the superintendent, their attorneys. And it said -- made some references to feeling the heat from constituents. And I get that. I definitely get that. But process really matters.

And tonight if you don't reverse the revocation regardless of all the procedural challenges, this isn't the end of the road for this community. And we think that they deserve another chance. If you do reverse the vocation, Twin Rivers can start the process again and do it right. Right?

And we think that this community deserves at the very least.

The most, I'm a Sacramento resident. And I understand that Highlands has made some mistakes. I think that the school plays a really important role in our community. I'm very proud of it. And so, I'd love to see the school continue, and I have a lot of faith in Jonathan Raymond. Theresa Cummins, and the team.

We know that they've been turning it around. They deserve our faith. And you know what, I was on the other side of the dias [ph] with him, and so it's -- it's fun to be on the side, and really to be here. Not fun I wouldn't say.

I would say I understand that Jonathan Raymond is -- and his team has a lot of integrity, and they want to make you proud. And they want to do it right. And you can trust them to do that. Thanks.

MR. KAST: Can the following five speakers please make their way up to the font aisle? Sohala Amadi, Anna Aguilar, Abdul Hussein Amadi, Sayada Masuma, and Megan McMullen.

MR. FRAME: Good evening trustees, Superintendent Gordon, President [Inaudible] Sabiano [ph]. My name is Sean Frame. I'm chief job steward for CSEA Chapter 480. I came here tonight with a great speech written about the incredible malfeasance I saw in the California State Auditor's Report about Highlands, and then I listened to these great speeches tonight, and I just want to say it's a very amazing thing to -- to -- to have your heart rendered this way.

I too stand with immigrants as does the Twin Rivers board that revoked this charter. It is a very cynical thing to make the case that those who would revoke this charter do not stand with immigrants.

Who let these immigrants down? Was it the Twin Rivers board? No. It was the criminals running Highlands Charter who let them down. That's who let this community down. That's who we should be talking about.

And when somebody has that level malfeasance they do not deserve a second chance. We want accountability for public funds. We want these students to get everything they deserve, not luxury suites and a baseball stadium, not a baseball stadium purchased with public funds, not trips to Hawaii and Paris. None of them got to go on those trips.

I've sat here all night and I've heard these amazing speeches, and it made more angry by the minute that that they were let down with your oversight or lack thereof. Four of you have received charter school money for your elections. One of you sitting right there smugly looking at his phone right now is taking money right now. Pay attention when people come here to talk. That's rude. That is rude.

I'm shaking because I'm so angry because the folks here deserve better. They deserve all of the services provided but with full public accountability. Uphold the revocation. Thank you.

MR. KAST: Could the next following five speakers please line up: Estaban Nunez, Ken Mendoza, Cabella Sulaman, Tyrone Shiff, and Sonia Bennett or Bonnet [ph].

MS. AGUILAR: Good evening trustees and County Superintendent Gordon. My name is Anna Aguilar. I am secretary of the Twin Rivers United Educators. Speaking on behalf of our union. And I also happen to be a parent in a constituent in Area 3, taxpayer, a voter of Area 3, and I work at a school in Area 2.

I urge you to uphold the revocation of the Highlands and seek a charter revocations. Fraud and misappropriation of education funds by charter operators have been in the news for several years, and still the state legislator has not taken action to put protection for students and taxpayers in place.

The TRUSD board acted responsibly. And you know our -- our relationship has -- had been contentious not too long ago.

And in this case we are standing arm in arm with our district, and they acted responsibly and legally to revoke these charters in the public's interest. Reversing this decision will send a message once again that fraud and misappropriation of our public school money is perfectly fine in the Sacramento County Board of Education.

Despite the claims of new leaders and reformers being put in place at these schools it's clear that the new leadership doesn't view the role of stewards of public money seriously. They have not even provided the legally required audit for the most recent fiscal year.

If they can't meet this most basic deadline of fiscal accountability this new leadership is no better than the old. Please do the right thing and uphold the TRUSD's decision to revoke both of these charters. Thank you.

MR. MENDOZA: Hello board members. My name is Kent Mendoza. I'm with Anti-Recidivism Coalition, a non-profit community based organization based out of Los Angeles and Sacramento in G Street. We are a reentry organization that supports people who a coming home in -- coming home from incarceration.

We work with people that value education, that understand what it -- it is to go through trauma who, you know, issues that put them in situations that were maybe a traditional might not be the best traditional pathway for them. Charter school like Highlands, like Highlands Charter School is a -- is a valued thing -- valuable thing that we need to have in our communities.

We need to continue to have this. I mean, it was just -- I've been here for the past two hours and just hearing everybody how beneficial something like Highlands has been, it's just -- it's shocking to hear that we're trying to remove that.

So, you know, as someone that has been to charter school myself and believe in second chances and was given a second chance, we should give Highlands a sec- -- second chance so we can continue to hear these amazing people getting better in their education and in their accents, you know.

I got better in my accent too, so I would love to see everybody continue to have those opportunity to blossom in -- in our economy and be contributing members of our society in Sacramento.

Thank you.

MS. SULLIVAN: Good evening. My name is Isabella Sullivan. I'm speaking to my -- on behalf of the Anti-Recidivism Coalition as well, but also as someone who personally understands what it means to need a second chance, but most importantly, to be held accountable, and deeply understand the importance of accountability.

I work every day with individuals who are trying to rebuild their lives after incarceration, trauma, homelessness, addiction, poverty, and years of being pushed out of traditional systems.

But this work is personal for me too. I know what it feels like to have your future reduce to your worst moment. I know what it feels like to try to re- -- rebuild your life while carrying barriers that most people never have to think about.

As someone who has maintained a 4.0 after incarceration and is enrolled to law school, one thing I have learned about pers- -- both personally and professionally is that education can completely change the direction of someone's life. For many students Highlands Charter School is not just a school. It is one of the last places willing to believe in them.

It serves working class adults, clients -- immigrants, refugees, justice impacted individuals, and people who have failed by the traditional education systems. And when we talk about shutting down a school like this, we have to remember who is truly impacted. It is not the entities who have caused the harm.

It is the students of all ages and backgrounds who are finally close to graduating, the parent trying to finish school or raising children, who is also me, to give them a better life. The person coming home from incarceration trying to build a future and find a purpose instead of returning to survival mode just like I did.

It is the people escaping oppression and unimaginable violence with hopes of a safer brighter future. I absolutely understand the concerns that brought us here tonight, and accountability manners, but I also believe deeply in rehabilitation, growth, and the opportunity to improve systems. Thank you.

MR. NUNEZ: Good evening. My name is Esteban Nunez. I'm here on behalf of the Sacramento Area Reentry Colloboration and the Anti-Recidivism Coalition. I'm here to express strong support for Highlands Community Charter and Technical Schools. Tonight we respectfully urge you to support the appeal to allow Highlands the opportunity to continue its reform process and continue serving the students that need it most.

Highlands provides essential educational and workforce opportunities to some of the most vu- -- vulnerable populations and members in our community, including those who are reentering society after incarceration.

Education is arguably one of the most effective improving tools to rehabilitate somebody, yet access to it for adults remains scarce. Highlands is filling a critical gap here in Sacramento County, so we respectfully ask that the board continue working in partnership with the school so that its students many of whom are rebuilding their lives after incarceration, homelessness, or other hardships as you've heard are not denied the opportunity they have worked so hard to earn.

For them this is more than education. It is a lifeline to a second chance. Your vote today preserves public safety and it's a necessary resource for this community. Thank you.

MR. SHIPP: So good evening. My name is Tyrique Shipp. I'm here with the Anti-Recidivism Coalition as well. I won't reecho what some of my colleagues just said. I'll just say I'm somebody who went to a charter school. I was one of those at-risk youth. I didn't speak well. I spoke with a lisp. I still do, but I'm somebody who was given that opportunity when nobody would give me the chance.

And I think that's what -- what everybody here is asking for, an opportunity. It's not about what somebody else did or what somebody else has done, but the opportunity for you all to work with this school and -- and bring it back up to shape and help our people. Right?

And I think if -- when somebody did that for me it changed my life. Currently, I am somebody who is getting their master's at the University of Southern California, and that's through a charter school.

If I didn't have that opportunity, if I didn't have a school willing to accept me and -- and -- and cut me off because of my -- because my background or where I came from or could -- because I couldn't speak, then I would have fail, and that is a public safety issue. And we have seen crime drop across California. And that's because of education mostly. And I think we need to invest in our education. Thank you.

MR. KAST: Can we please have the following five speakers? Please line up in the middle. Mariah Kendella, Angela Andres, Louis Gonzales, Fabian Gutierrez, and Jazmine Advincula [ph].

MS. BARNETT: Good evening boards and members. My name is Celia Barnett [ph]. I am on the student leader board on 33rd in Oak Park District School. And I am here tonight to save my school, because I have been attending -- I have been attending since the end of 2024. I think it's time to get my diploma.

I'm here advocating for you guys to please keep our schools open. I'm not the only one here tonight wants to get our di- -- our diploma, but I'm just asking you guys, I want to change my life. I have four children. I'm 68 years of age. I'm tired of pay -- pay musical chairs.

It will be 2027 probably when I graduate, but I'm not going to give up. I love you guys. You got to hear for us. I want to get my diploma so I can put it on the wall. I'm 68 years old.

It's time for me -- I -- I -- Highlands gave me -- I earned the certificate for food license. I can open my own cafeteria, my restaurant if I choose. They have helped me. I want to get my diploma, and I just want to thank you guys. Please keep the schools open, man.

MS. CAMBELLA: Hi everybody. My name is Marty Cambella [ph]. I am a 12 year SAC County educator veteran. I taught in four different school districts throughout the county. I've even collaborated and done some trainings here at the County Office of Ed.

My rule at Highlands is of a full-time mentor teacher. So the entire reason that my job exists and why I am here serving this community is because of the efforts to get our school into compliance with credentialing.

What I will share is that within the first three days of my job I met some of the most amazing teachers I have ever worked with, and I've worked with hundreds of teachers across the dis- -- across the county.

Our teachers are so remarkable that when I was meeting teachers in the credential program that just started out, I was meeting folks with double master's degrees, folks with master's in TESOL, the perfect, you know, educational backgrounds to serve our students.

I met a teacher that was a physician from his home county in a credential program. Right? I showed up and I thought, what am I here for? What is my job? Because these teachers have more experience than I do, they have more wisdom, and on top of all of that, I have worked again with hundreds of educators across the county. I have never met more dedicated teachers in my life.

These teachers were laid off a year ago. They were told, "We're done." They didn't have any job security. They didn't know what was going to happen to them, and then they were asked to come back and they did, and they're still here. Thank you.

MR. GUTIERREZ: Good evening. My name is Fabian Gutierrez, and I just come to talk about the main problem that we are having. Most of us that we speak two, three language we've been having issues in communication. If we don't communicate right then we cannot survive. We cannot get a job, we cannot get anything.

The main problem for us is not about the corruption or the school, its about communication, because through the communications, through Highlands we know that we have a build a bridge where we can communicate and we can get a better life. For example, I used to be an engineer in Mexico, but here I started studying at night then I can maybe come an electrician. I get my own company.

But now I can start getting more work for other people, helping the community. So my thought is if we have strong families, if we get a better life, we can have our sons understanding the problematic that they can have and then we can help them.

We can -- strong families can create strong communities, so we can start becoming a better communities in -- in our town. So Highlands is an opportunity that is like a bridge for us to start getting a better end. So I would recommend if you can help us to keep Highlands alive, because it's necessary for us. Thank you.

MS. ADVINCULA: Good evening President Solvineordo [ph] and board trustees. I'm Jazmine Advincula with the Sacramento Asian Pacific Chamber of Commerce in strong support of Highlands Charter. For more than a decade Highlands has served those most often left behind, immigrants, working adults, and families striving for stability.

This is not just a school system, it is a workforce pipeline and a bridge to economic self sufficiency. Sacramento residents rely on Highlands to learn English, finish high school, and gain job schools that directly support our local economy.

Under new leadership, Highlands has taken significant corrective actions including restructured governance for better accountability, implementation of stronger systems and installing new academic and operational leadership. These are not promises, they are measurable steps already underway. Shutting Highlands down will cause adult learners to lose access to education and job training overnight.

Employers including small businesses will lose a critical workforce pipeline. The ripple effects will be felt across Sacramento's economy and communities. We are asking you to recognize progress. Highlands is demonstrating the willingness to rebuild trust and to meet the standards expected of them. We urge you to allow a path forward that include strong oversight, continued reform, and the opportunity to get this right. Thank you for your time.

MR. KAST: Can the following five speakers please line up in the middle? Carla Patricia Ro- -- Rosso, Ali Hussein Amadi, Mariah Inez, Zena Williams, and Zabby Hula Alminua -- Alminure [ph]. Sorry.

MR. HERNANDEZ: Good evening, board members. My name is Louis Fernando Gonzales. I'm from Mexico. [Inaudible] I'm from Mexico, and I would like to give thanks to share my experience with Highlands.

I am an immigrant and one of the most problems we face is the language, and I had to face that problem, the language. I came -- I came Highlands through a friend. He -- he told me about Highlands. He was already a student at Highlands, and I start learning English for -- from Level seven.

And I remember my first teacher was Mohammad. His name is Mohammad. And he taught me all -- all -- all my -- my -- my English I know now. And he told me all English basic and how to make a good sentence.

Also, he became and inspiration for me, because he was a guy from Afghanistan and he speaks seven language including my language, and he inspired me because he -- he can speak seven languages and -- and inspired me to -- to start learning English.

And now, I'm still learning English for sure, but I'm able to speak with other people, people understand me now, and I can communicate with them. And also, I can write a good paragraph. I want to get my high school diploma, and I'm very committed to this goal.

CLERK: Time.

MR. HERNANDEZ: Oh sorry. Can I continue?

CLERK: [Inaudible].

MR. HERNANDEZ: I work -- yeah? Can I? [Inaudible].

MS. SABENIANO: No, just -- just finish your thought.

MR. HERNANDEZ: Huh?

MS. SABENIANO: Finish -- finish your last sentence.

MR. HERNANDEZ: Oh.

MS. SABENIANO: Yeah.

MR. HERNANDEZ: Thank you. I go to school for three years. I leave a home at 7 a.m. and return at home at 10 p.m. I'm very proud when I remember when I came to this country and I didn't know anything about English. I fe- -- I feel very grateful for Highlands and for the teacher, because they help me to became the person I want to be. After Highlands I would -- I would like to go to college and get my certificate for electrician, and thank you for hearing me.

MS. SABENIANO: Go head. You can start. Maybe if we can restart the time, Wendy.

MS. WILLIAMS: Good evening board members. My name is Zena Williams, and I am a graduate. I'm graduating this year, and I learn so much from Highlands. Proud of making it this far. Highlands have helped us earn our high school diploma. This journey wasn't always easy. Today I celebrate my growth and my hard work and future.

Please consider keeping Highlands open for the upcoming graduates. This is a great opportunity for adults to get their education and high school diploma. Thank you.

MR. KAST: Can our last two speakers please come to the center aisle? Sayade Najha Hizzada [ph], and Valerie Bryan.

MR. VIVIN: Chloe Vivin [ph]. I'm the last but not least. Do not only look at the empty half of the glass. Please also look at the full half. The full half is the students and pupil whose life has changed, who learned well and move closer to their dreams because of Highlands. Before making any final decision please consider the positive impact this school has had on hundreds of lives. For many of us Highlands has been a great tower of our future, our goal, and our dreams. Thank you.

MS. SABENIANO: [Inaudible].

MS. BRYAN: Good evening everybody. My name is Valerie Bryan. I am a teacher at Highlands. I teach the grades one, two, the newcomer foundations. I've been with Highlands for a little over two year. Before that I was 36 years in the public school system teaching.

I love kids, but I was done. I -- I like the adults now. I can talk to adults. Anyway, it has really opened my eyes being in the classroom with -- with them, yes, hearing their stories, hearing their struggles, everything that they have to learn.

Yes, I do teach them English, but I also teach them the daily knowledge and life skills that they need here in this country, especially for ethnic groups like the Afghans. Their culture is one hundred percent different from hours. And the other countries that people -- that immigrants come from, there are so many differences, and there is no one to teach them. That's the problem.

They don't have the money to go to school. They don't have the resources that we as parents provide our kids. We teach them the English. They apply it. Right now the subject in my room is health and pharmacy. How do they read a medicine bottle? How do they call doctor? It's a very important role we play.

We did not -- the teachers and parents and staff did not cause the problems that Highlands had. The school -- the students did not cause the problem, but they and all of us employees are paying for it. I'm with the other speaker who said much earlier tonight, go after the ones who actually committed the fraud. Go after them. They have the rubber stamp, not us. So please, do not revoke that charter.

Twin Rivers has -- they're just as deep in it as we are. At least we're trying to change. And this new administration -- I've worked with a lot of administrations over the years. This is one heck of a good one, and they work very hard, because their goal is the students. Please keep our charter. Thank you.

MR. KAST: And we have no more public speaker cards on that item.

MS. SABENIANO: Thank you. I will -- now the public hearing will close at 9:33 p.m. I'll turn it back to the board for any questions or comments. You can start off -- I just -- first of all, I just want to say thank you to all the speakers over here. I know it's late. It's after work, after hours, so just really appreciate you for taking the time to come here and to share your thoughts with us.

Maybe to our counsel and -- maybe can you speak a little bit? I have a question about -- on the record came up a couple times of what the record is, and I was hoping that maybe you can just kind of clarify that for us, or me, I guess.

MS. STINSON: Yes. The record is the appeal record that was submitted. As you know, there were about 16,000 documents, so that is the record. You look at the entire record as a whole deter- -- to determine whether the substantial evidence to support the revocation or not substantial evidence.

MS. SABENIANO: But --

MS. STINSON: Was that -- was that helpful? If not I could --

MS. SABENIANO: Yeah. I think maybe just -- sorry. Oh, a little -- just a little bit more information on -- so there was -- we have the date, right, in the presentation that you gave us and what the district spoke about. Sorry, let me find it. Oh yes, yes.

The September 26th date and then we have a November fourth. And it sounds like there was some information from the charter school representatives that spoke about an additional record and the change of when that record is. So maybe can you speak a little bit to that?

MS. STINSON: Yes. So I -- I wasn't quite clear if -- if they were referring to the record was the hearings before the -- before the Twin Rivers

School District board. That would certainly be part of the record. So the record includes all of the evidence that would have been submitted as part of this appeals. And you look at the entire record, not just one piece of it.

So for example, the record would be the notice of violations. The -- the board agendas, the board minutes, the board recordings I believe were included in part of it. There was the Notice of Intent to Revoke. The resolutions, that look at the entire record not just one piece of the record. And so, I think there might have been a reference to the board hearings. That's one piece of the record. It's not the entire record.

MS. SABENIANO: Okay.

MS. STINSON: Is -- was that --

MS. SABENIANO: Yes.

MS. STINSON: -- I mean -- and again, I'm happy to add to that if --

MS. SABENIANO: No it's okay.

MS. STINSON: -- that will clarify it.

MS. SABENIANO: Thank you. No thank you.

MS. STINSON: Okay.

MS. SABENIANO: Thank you. Let's see, Tracy Caigoy.

MS. CAIGOY: I also echo -- echo the sentiment of our -- our president. Thank you to all the speakers on both sides who came out tonight. It's late night and -- so thank you for your comments. I -- I do too have a question, Tracy, about tonight from Twin Rivers. A new set of evidence was essentially submitted.

The presentation that was presented at the January 27th meeting from the same staff stated that all the findings had been -- had been rectified, right. And so, I guess the question is here not taking into consideration the feelings and emotions here, but actually what it is that our job is here on the board and looking at what Ed code is. And I'm reading Ed code right now.

The County Board of Education may reverse the revocation decision if the County Board of Education determines that findings made by the chartering authority under Subdivision H are not supported by substantial evidence.

If I go to Subdivision or -- yeah -- if I go to H, it says, the chartering authority shall not revoke a charter unless it makes written factual findings supported by substantial evidence specific to the charter school that supports its findings.

And so, I guess it's just a question right now of which presentation do we go off of, because the presentation that was provided by staff on January 27 was what was entered into record.

This presentation that we got this evening is essentially provided to us after the revocation vote and after Resolution 1612 and 1613 were adopted. And so, I guess I'm just trying to clar- -- get clarification as to going back to that question of what is record, are we stopping -- in this situation here tonight -- are we stopping at January 30th when Resolution 1613 and 1612 were --

MS. STINSON: So what you --

MS. CAIGOY: -- adopted.

MS. STINSON: -- so the findings that you're looking at are the Twin Rivers School Districts Resolution, and the Twin Rivers School Districts Resolution that is the decision by the board. The Twin Rivers School Districts Resolution, that is the resolution that incorporated the Notice of Violation and Notice of Intent to Revoke as the findings. It did not incorporate the staff's report as the findings. That was the -- I mean, the staff's report I think you're referring to is the January 27.

There was a staff report expressing that the staff was satisfied or that they believe that the remedies were sufficient. That was the staff's recommendations, and then the board, of course, has a right to look at the record and its own and decide whether it believes that the -- that the -- the remedies were sufficient for the violations.

MS. CAIGOY: Okay. So then, I guess my second question is going back to what Ed Code states it says the chartering authorities shall not revoke a charter unless it makes written factual findings supported by substantial evidence.

When I look at Resolution 1612 and 1613 adopted by Twin Rivers Board on January 30th, it states, the board adopts the facts and findings contained the Notice of Intent to Revoke and it exhibits as initially set forth in the Notice of Violation or NOV. I guess my question is, this is not going back to Ed Code again, written factual findings supor- -- supported by substantial evidence.

And so, the way I am reading this, and so that's why I'm asking you if I'm misreading this, is that Twin Rivers had an obligation at the time of the adoption of these resolu- -- of revocation, which was on January 27th, to provide written -- written factual findings suspo- -- supported by substantial evidence referencing to a Notice of Violation that had multiple violations listed after the school had sent in substantial evidence clearing those violations, as also indicated in the staff report on January 27th.

I guess I am wondering is that same referencing to Notice of Violation the intent of the law was for the -- for the school to know why they were being closed. Right? I -- I just want to clarify.

MS. STINSON: Yes. So the -- the resolution is in writing. It adopts the written -- it -- it adopts the exhibits in the Notice of Violation and it also adopts the Notice of Intent to Revoke, and the Notice of Intent to Revoke explained a note of each of their -- each of the violations and each of the remedies that had been proposed as of September 26 or thereafter.

It was -- it was those remedies that I guess had been instituted as of November 4th. So what the resolution did, is it adopted the -- the Notice of Intent to Revoke as its finding. So I think -- I guess it was in writing. It was their findings. I guess the question is whether the board believes that that included substantial evidence.

MS. CAIGOY: So they do not have to write out the reasonings that they felt were not met?

MS. STINSON: The statutes is -- unfort- -- here is the problem with statutes, this is why people hire lawyers and whatnot, because if everything was black and white you wouldn't need lawyers, and so it's -- it doesn't specifically say you have to do it this way. It says you have to adopt written findings supported by substantial evidence. It doesn't say how you have to do that.

It's clear it has to be in writing, it's clear they have to be supported by substantial evidence, but it doesn't say you have to specify this, this and this. It doesn't give very prescriptive -- so again, that's going to be for the board to decide whether that's sufficient, but it doesn't -- it doesn't specify exactly how they have to do it.

MS. CAIGOY: So when looking at ED Code I -- I guess I'm -- I'm just wondering if really is the intent that the legislatures had made when they created this Ed Code, was it just to shut down schools. Right? And I -- I would say no. But when we talk about due process and we talk about what is the charter schools right in this situation, I am looking at these resolutions and it doesn't state substantial evidence of the findings as to why the board revoke the charter.

MS. STINSON: What it does is it incorporate the Notice of Intent to Revoke, and the Notice of Intent to Revoke was the document that went through each of the violations and explained why or what they -- why or what -- why or why not the district and the district board believe that they have in remedy. And so, that's what -- that's what it incorporated.

MS. CAIGOY: And so, then going back to what is considered the record it is all of the documents that I had written, right? The state audit report and notice of violations from June, the staff report, our staff report, the minutes, the agendas, the resolutions.

MS. STINSON: You look at every- --

MS. CAIGOY: That's everything, right?

MS. STINSON: -- you look at -- you look at the entire record.

MS. CAIGOY: Okay. Okay.

MS. STINSON: Yeah.

MS. CAIGOY: Thank you.

MS. SABENIANO: Oh, I'm going to go to Trustee Brown. I see him waving at me.

MR. BROWN: Thank you. Thank you. Thank you. I have one question. And that is, can we hear from Gerald Steinberg or Jo- -- Johnathan Raymond about the November 4th ruling as a district and how that happens? And also, we have new leadership, a new leadership team.

And the prior leadership failed to remedy the alleged violations. But how many violations have occurred under the new leadership that has met district staff's evaluation. And if you could sort of clarify the November 4th as a part of the record how the staff decided to -- to remedy the situation.

MR. STEINBERG: Thank you very much, Trustee Brown. I'll share the mic with Jonathan Raymond. Of course, been in the middle of all this per se I do want to respond to -- [inaudible] counsel said if -- at least to where I understood it, that it's not enough for the Twin Rivers board to simply say what they -- what they think based upon November 4th -- pre November 4th set of facts in the record.

The law is real clear. I'm going to read it. Implicit in this statute is a requirement that the agency, which renders the challenge decision must set forth findings to bridge the analytic gap between the raw evidence and the ultimate decision or order.

That -- that means you have to actually explain. You need to say why you're seeking to overturn your staff recommendation, why you're not considering the post September 27th evidence, why you're not considering the cure.

They did none of that. As Counsel said, however, the record includes and in fact is dominated with one specific set of factual set of findings, and that is the Twin Rivers staff findings that Highlands actually came into compliance. That's the record. That's the analytics, and that's the analytic gab that you need to look at.

Now, as to November 4th, this is the core of the issue. On November 4th the board issued a Notice of Intent to Revoke. They are right, and it was probably actually the right thing to do. I'll editorialize. Because they put Highlands on notice that you need the cure.

Now, I cited to one of the trustees who -- four trustees gave that direction, and one of them, Baker, actually made the motion to -- to have the board issue the Notice to Intent to Revoke, which meant what they were saying was you're on notice on warning, but we're going to give you 60 days.

And then, the staff, of course, follows up on December the 3rd. They not only say we want to -- we want you to work with us, but they actually come close to using the term record, record, which is what this is about, what Trustee asked about.

She says that -- Sheri Wertha [ph] from Twin Rivers -- "We are working to remain as flexible as possible regarding how your school submits evidence in response ot the identified violations." In other word, the board, and then the staff said, "We want to create a complete record that includes whether or not you have cured."

That's the only substantial evidence by the way, that exists on anything. Because on the 27th of January when the board actually makes the decision to revoke, they don't even discuss any of that. They go back and refer to November 4th and the pre November 4th. This is a clear abusive discretion. There is no substantial evidence, because they were deliberately inconsistent. And in terms of the presentation by the way from the find attorneys from Twin River, what I really heard was an effort tonight to invent this new record before you tonight. Right? But none of that was on the record when they actually made their decision and the board ruled, and that's the fundamental process and due process problems here. Jonathan.

MR. RAYMOND: Jonathan. Yeah. I just -- I want to address Trustee Brown's question about what we've been doing to cure. Well, first of all, you know, we work our tails off, you know, to cure with a skeleton team. And I want to give you just an example.

Twin Rivers knew for several years that Highlands was operating as a high school even though the -- the charter for Highlands required it to be really first grade, second grade, and 12. And so, they asked for a material revision, which is in essence a new education plan. You know, they asked for that when -- when I started. They asked for it June. I started in July. I didn't even have a chief academic office, who didn't start until August.

Nonetheless, we put a very detailed education plan as to how we would do this. We worked closely with them. So then -- then come December the -- the Twin Rivers team said, "You know what, it's -- it's -- it's too detailed for us, and we don't want to spend our winter break going -- going through it, so you need another plan." So we did. We came up with a plan to go back to being in compliance with the original charter.

So while they were on winter break, my team -- my team worked the whole Christmas break, they worked New Year's, they worked the weekend, so that when our students came back to school in January there was a first and a second grade, we call foundations. And that program today silver lining is, we've enrolled over 800 students in this program since January, since January.

We're probably the only charter school in California that's seen that dramatic growth, but that's just one example of what we did to be able to cure. We have exited leases. Now, my predecessors, they entered into long-term monthly year leases. Hard things to get out of, but my team has worked tirelessly to get out of these leases, to try the surplus vehicles.

And the public dollars, I don't have police powers, but you know that Hawaii trip that got -- that got referenced, we sent everyone who went on that a -- a demand letter, pay us back. And then, you know what we did, we took them to small claims court, the only policing power we could do.

So everything we have -- we have done to try to cure, we have cured, and that was the recommendation of the staff. And I even have conversations with Superintendent Martinez. He says, "You don't even have to have it all cured, you just need a plan to show us how you're going to cure." So we had plans, and we had also cures.

MR. KEEFER: I have a question --

MS. SABENIANO: Okay. Thank you.

MR. KEEFER: -- for chair.

MS. SABENIANO: Do you have any other questions [inaudible]?

MR. KEEFER: Yeah. I have a question for Jonathan Raymond?

MS. SABENIANO: Just want to make sure, Trustee Brown, do you have any other questions? No?

MR. BROWN: You know, basically, I just wanted to make a statement, not really a question. That is -- actually, all that is critical to know why did this big staff recommended that the board decline to revoke the charters based on staff findings? That the charter school has successfully refuted and remedy all violations at the conclusion of the remedy, period. And that's the only statement I would like to make at this time. Thank you.

MS. SABENIANO: Okay. Okay. Thank you. Go ahead.

MR. KEEFER: Yeah, I have a question for Mr. Raymond. I have a question for Mr. Raymond. So, Mr. Raymond, when you were hired or when you were preparing to be hired, when -- when was the notice to cure for the missing audit, when did you become aware of that?

MR. RAYMOND: That was in the original Notice of Violations that were issued by the Twin Rivers in -- in June. So, you know, when I came in shortly, you know, as -- as part of my honeymoon, there -- there were -- there was none. You know, we -- we had to at the time -- I want to explain the context here -- we had a preliminary clean audit from IBailey [ph] back in the spring.

And the state audit comes out at the end of June, and IBailey posed the audit saying they have to take another look at it. Well, that another look at it was months, months and months and months. We had to finally send them a -- a legal letter threatening to -- to bring legal action in order to get the audit from them. So we finally get the audit months and months later.

And yes, Twin Rivers kept asking for it. And we eventually got it, and they disclaimed on -- on that. They said that with the state auditor's finding of $180 million they could not make a determination. But that's the audit that -- and once we accepted that we gave it to Twin Rivers and that cured their Notice of Violation.

MR. KEEFER: So the -- in my documentation it says the notice was sent from Twin Rivers on April 24th, and you being a superintendent how important is having an audit and actually running a business?

MR. RAYMOND: Well, of course, it's very important to -- to have an audit. And, you know, if we can't get an audit finalized from an auditor, all we can do is continue to ask, continue to ask, and -- and, you know, luckily we have a -- a new audit firm who is going back and is doing the au- -- the audit for '24, '25, and we'll do the '25, '26 audit.

But, you know, I- -- Bailey, we asked them, asked them asked. You know -- you know, we couldn't get something that they wouldn't give us. They finally gave it to us, but I was -- to answer your question, I was made aware of it when I started in July.

MR. KEEFER: What was your communication with the board with -- with staff and the board of Twin Rivers regarding the audit? How did you personally invest time into seeking a cure for that?

MR. RAYMOND: Well, again, I was working with our CBO at time, working with our general co- -- counsel to do everything we could to get the audit from IBailey. In fact, that's when we had to draft a letter, you know, threatening to -- to move into legal action until we got the audit.

And in conversations with staff at Twin Rivers we -- we said, "We're doing everything we can," and they understood that. They -- they understood it, and which is why when we eventually got the audit before January 2nd, the deadline that they gave us, they -- they checked that off as having been remedied.

MR. KEEFER: Okay. Thank you.

MR. RAYMOND: You're welcome.

MS. SABENIANO: Any other questions or comments? Yes, Trustee Fong.

MR. FONG: Yeah. I wanted to thank all of the -- the parents and students and the staff that came here and gave their information on why the charter should stay alive.

But I do want to give Twin Rivers a chance to respond to Mayor Steinberg and Jonathan Raymond's comments about what they said just now on the questions. So if -- if you could, you know, you can give your response and put that on the record.

MR. SCHUETZ: Thank you. And just going back to an original question earlier, the resolution was adopted by the board did -- was based on substantial evidence on the record. The findings were made in the Notice of Intent to Revoke by staff, which the board adopted at that time.

And there is no obligation for the board to consider any remedial actions past that point, but they -- they did, and they considered they were sufficient, that's reflected in the resolution findings.

I -- I do -- and I believe general counsel in their staff analysis concurs with that. As education code and regulations include no requirement to allow remedies after the close of the remedy period, the county board may properly find that the district board have the discretion to allow the charter school to remedy its violations after the September 26 -- 25th deadline, but was not required to do so.

While district staff recommended accepting the post deadline remedies, the district board was not required to accept that rec- -- recommendation. So our -- our position is there was no obligation. There was substantial evidence -- evidence in the record as reflected in the -- at the time of the notice of intent to revoke, which the board adopted as its findings in support of revocation.

And substantial evidence, as mentioned a few times tonight, as a -- as a deferential standard. And even so your -- your existing policy, SCOE's own board policy 2400 cites -- cited by Highlands and us in our response to their appeal, substantial evidence with [inaudible] code 477605 -- 7 -- shall be evidence that demonstrates that a violation was material, supports revocation -- revocation when viewed as a whole in light of all relevant evidence -- information, demonstrates that the violation actually occurred, and was not cured by the charter school during the reasonable opportunity to remedy the violation.

So that's reflected itself in your policy which we believe actually supports furthermore that substantial evidence was found.

MR. DIGIULIO: I'd like to add too, there's been a lot of mention about current management, not old management. We understand that. And -- and it's not -- this isn't a determination based on who's in management and what certain management teams did. Education code requires you to make a determination based on the schools. So we have to consider evidence for the school as a whole.

MR. FONG: I have a question to our attorney. You know, if there was conflicting evidence provided by, you know, the people that want to keep the charter, do we have to by law resolve that in favor of Twin Rivers?

MS. STINSON: If -- what the court cases say is that there is conflicting evidence, then you resolve it in favor of the lower tribunal's decision that would be in favor of the district's decision.

MR. FONG: Okay. And in the findings, if the determination of substantial evidence supports the findings, even though they didn't write out each particular one, each specific violation in the resolution that they make reference to their notice of intent to revoke, is that good enough to say that there was substantial evidence in support of the findings?

MS. STINSON: Well the -- the notice of intent to revoke included a very extensive writeup of the violations and the -- and the -- and what the -- the district and the district board believed had not been remedied.

And I think as -- as Mayor Steinberg referenced that you do have to have findings that bridge the analytic gap between what the evidence is and the ultimate decision or order. I think the notice of intent to revoke was as -- was an attempt to do that.

Now there's of course the issue of did the district have to accept remedies after the September 26 deadline. I think if it didn't have to, it's very clear there's substantial evidence in the record. If it did have to or somehow gave -- if -- if the board were to find that somehow there was some requirement that it accept evidence after that, then you'd have to look at more.

I would say just so that the board knows it's there, in the notice of intent to revoke, there was language that was put there about for example the -- the San Diego condominium, that although it acknowledged that the district or that the charter schools had tried to mitigate the extent it could, that because the past monies had been expended and were not used on students, that money may never be recovered.

And same thing with the Maryland property, that it was -- we understand -- in other words what the district did is they acknowledged that -- that -- that the charter schools had done as much as they could. But they also acknowledged that it may never be resolved because the -- the public funds weren't actually retrieved. And that -- that was public funds that was used.

So those are things -- I just set that out there so you know that that's in the notice of intent to revoke. But again it's for this board to decide whether it feels that that's substantial evidence or not.

MR. FONG: So I -- I have another question related to -- even though it was alleged that the deadlines were -- for carrying the violations were, quote, described as arbitrary.

And the decisions that were made by the board members who wanted to give them 60 days more notice and extend their ability to provide evidence after the original deadline. Was it -- if that was -- can that be construed as abuse of discretion.

So like the -- the -- the reasons why we would overturn what the -- yeah, we -- we felt that there was abuse dis- -- of discretion and things were done arbitrarily. Now were -- were any of those instances where the deadlines that was set was arbitrary because there was no staff around to respond to Twin Rivers?

MS. STINSON: I -- I --

MR. FONG: And that, you know, four board members wanted to give them more time, but they -- they may have -- they -- they appeared to have said they wanted to give them more time. And the staff worked with them the day they had more time. And they produced setting a document saying that they remedy all of the violations.

But the board decided not to take that and staff recommendations. And wanted to use the -- the original notice of -- of revocation back in September and use that. Now is that an abuse of discretion?

MS. STINSON: So I think -- I think the abuse of discretion and whether it's arbitrary or capricious really goes to whether there's substantial evidence or not. Something is arbitrary and capricious if there's no evidence to support your action. If you -- if you don't have evidence in your record to support the decision you made, then you're making an arbitrary and capricious decision.

So it really goes to that. To me -- the issue of whether the district had to give additional time or not, that's a separate issue. That's an issue I think that's before this board, right.

The -- the statute doesn't say you have to give more than the remedy period. But that doesn't mean the board couldn't give more than the -- the remedy -- the board always has a right to give more time if they want. But I don't think the statute requires them to.

MR. FONG: Okay. Thank you. And I just wanted to say that all of the people who came and -- and spoke about wanting to be American citizens, wanting to learn English, wanted to have the opportunity to become part of the American society by going to an adult education program that provides that for them, I am all in favor of doing this for you.

It's just that companies and corporations are people. And even though the peop- -- the management has changed, the corporation violated a lot of things. And there were admissions to those violations. And for me to try to say that I'm going to overlook that and give them a second chance, I'm not the judge on this.

I have to go with what's in the law and what was done by the corporation regardless of the past management and the -- and the current management. You know, I -- I just kind of feel that that is the case here in -- in terms of what we're looking at. And I wish there was a way to provide an adult education program in Twin Rivers. So --

[talking over each other]

MR. FONG: So they -- the staff at Twin Rivers, you know, I hope you would find a way to provide for all of the people that -- the 4,000 people that want an adult education program and do it for them.

But in the case of this, I will not be supporting, you know, giving them a second chance. That's not what we're here for. We're here to apply the law to the situation.

MS. SABENIANO: Trustee Lef- -- sorry, Trustee Caigoy is first. And then Trustee Lefkovitz. Go ahead.

MS. CAIGOY: Oh, okay. Thank you. I'm sorry, all the attorneys sat down and I have a question for the attorneys. Okay. In regards to November 4th, I guess this is in -- this is regarding process. And so I read the transcripts. I watched the recordings. I even read the minutes and every single documentation that you guys sent to me.

And so I'm looking at-- I'm -- I'm think -- I'm -- the recording, going off of the recording now, the actual what happened in the November 4th meeting. And several of the trustees had asked about time, and what clarification on timeline, and clarification of the timeline of to re- -- when to remedy.

And then they were responded to by their own staff and attorneys, right. I'm -- I'm asking. That's -- okay. That's -- well --

MR. RAYMOND: [inaudible] I assume so.

MS. CAIGOY: Okay. All right. Fine. So, yes, I did watch the video. Thank you. And so anyways, staff and attorney, legal counsel, answered the questions that were brought up by multiple trustees around the timeline. Then after they got that clarification, there were no other questions. Then they voted to continue on with the revocation process.

On December 3rd, Twin Rivers emailed the school saying, hey, your new deadline is January 2nd. Schools don't communicate with the board. We authorize for charter schools. And they do not communicate with us.

So I guess my question is, if the district is communicating to the school, saying their new deadline is this, and what took place in the November 4th meeting with multiple trustees, verifying that they were going to indeed get additional time to remedy, and then they took action to continue on with the revocation process, I -- I -- I guess I'm -- I'm wondering, does that mean that -- I mean because I keep on hearing they don't have to, they don't have to take that into consideration.

However is that truly giving the school due process if the board, one, clarified the timeline, received responses from their own legal counsel and staff, that they indeed were provided more time and they were going to be given more time. It is in written record and response from the district saying that they indeed have more time.

So I -- I'm wondering, is that completely fair to say the -- to -- from the board's perspective, we're going to just throw out all evidence that's submitted by that new deadline that was established. I -- I -- I'm trying to figure out what did -- what's the -- is there an assumption or, you know, if I were the school, I would think if the board -- my authorizer is communicating with me, that is record.

I don't communicate with our charter schools. So I -- I -- I just need some clarification -- someone.

MR. RAYMOND: So thank you for that question, Trustee Caigoy. One of the things I wanted to point out to you is that there's actually a Title V regulation that we think is applicable to exactly this scenario that you're asking about right now.

And it's 11968.5.4B3. And it says, you, the County Board of Education, shall also consider whether an alleged procedural deficiency negatively impacted the charter school's ability to refute or remedy the alleged violation.

Again, the -- the County Board of Education shall also consider whether an alleged procedural deficiency negatively impacted the charter school's ability to refute or remedy the alleged violation.

And we believe that that's exactly the situation here. Because the district did in fact, as you noted on the record, we had a majority of the board say there would be more time.

There was an official communication from the district. That's just one communication, by the way, from the district. There were also in person meetings --

MS. CAIGOY: December 8th, right?

MR. RAYMOND: And there were -- and there were -- and they were -- so there were a variety of conversations going back and forth between the district staff and the charter school staff. That email that you referenced just being one of those communications indicating, you know, some ongoing collaboration, right, relative to expanding the record.

And so -- and so it did impact directly the charter school's ability. Because had the charter school known that it would not be afforded any additional time, the charter school maybe could have done some different things. It would have had options to do different things.

So for example, right, you know, it could have bought out the lease in San Diego and Marysville sooner. It could have done it. Why didn't it do that? Why did it instead submit a plan to do that?

It did that because it was trying to be cognizant of using additional taxpayer dollars to buy out a lease that it hoped it could find a subtenant for. And thus try to preserve as much of the taxpayer dollars as possible.

This management team didn't enter into that lease. It was trying to do its best to extricate the school from that situation without incurring any additional liability that wasn't necessary. So that's why for example it submitted a plan.

Now again, the district had said submitting a plan would be good. That would be sufficient as long as they thought that plan was, you know, cognizable, that it was reasonable, that that could be an effective answer. And in fact the Title 5 regulations also address that issue and allows specifically for a plan to be submitted.

And so that's why the school chose to take that particular course. And so the district now attempted to argue that all of what its trustees said, what its legal counsel said on the record, what staff said on the record, should all be disregarded and all of that process should be disregarded, right.

It is creating a -- a due process issue for the charter school. And it is also creating a detrimental reliance issue. The school detrimentally relied on that commitment and that promise that it had additional time.

MS. CAIGOY: Thank you for that. And I guess I do have an additional question. And anyone can answer that, so come on up, come on up. Based on the report that you all provided this evening, Twin Rivers, since these were not presented in January, I -- I guess the question is, you guys could -- you guys could essentially start the revocation process over tomorrow; correct? And then note all of these findings that you noted this evening.

MR. SCHUETZ: And those aren't new -- are new findings. They're a reflection of their status leading up to the notice of intent to revoke. And then reflecting some of the failures of their remedial action plan since, in between that revenue period ended until the actual decision board meeting.

So there was a period of things -- so just backing up, the -- the regulation and statutes provide by nature additional time. Doesn't mean the board had to consider actions taken past that remedy period expiration date in their final decision. So we have the notice of intent to revoke and the regulation has public hearing and then another set date before actual decision to revoke must occur.

So while there -- yes, there were actions taken during that period, the board concluded and even, you know, staff recognized, and even to this date we have things that have not been addressed sufficiently including locations that are being operated out of compliance with their MOU. We really don't know where they're operating.

They had a policy that we've recognized in our -- in our presentation tonight where they -- it was part of their plan submitted to address their fiscal mismanagement issues. And they're not even following that policy. They're bypassing it, which raises serious concerns about that continued violation.

But I want to get back, you know, really to -- and -- and the procedural errors argument that was raised, that was addressed by general counsel, county office in their analysis, that there was nothing to that. I mean we're hearing some new arguments tonight that were not reflected earlier in the notice of appeal.

But I want to get the board, you know, back hopefully to the -- the central question here which is not was progressed made or -- or could the -- a different decision have been made. It's whether the substantial evidence in the record support the district's findings.

And the district's board's resolution not only adopted the findings that were represented by staff in that notice of intent to revoke, but -- and found that substantial evidence demonstrates that the violations initially identified in that notice of intent to revoke. And that even though they didn't need to, the violations set forth in that notice of intent to revoke have not been sufficiently remedied by each charter.

And attempts to further corrective actions taken by the charter, although considered by the board, failed to sufficiently remedy the violations identified in the notice of violation and substantiated in those and intent to revoke, and/or promised unsubstantiated, unreliable future performance, and resulting uncertainty regarding future compliance.

That was in the board's decision, discretion to make. And despite recommendations from staff it was ultimately the board's decision. And they -- they did adopt that.

MS. CAIGOY: Yeah. So my question was regarding the November 4th meeting and the communication that came from the board.

MR. SCHUETZ: No. There was no -- I don't think there's any communication from the board -- [talking over each other]

MS. CAIGOY: There was -- so when I say communication, so communication could be multiple things, right --

MR. SCHUETZ: Okay --

MS. CAIGOY: -- it could be comments, it could be statements --

MR. SCHUETZ: Okay --

MS. CAIGOY: And so there were questions as to the timeline. I'm not sure if it was you or if it was you who answered the board's question around the extension of time.

MR. SCHUETZ: And I --

MS. CAIGOY: And --

MR. SCHUETZ: I -- if I may, I think that's

-- it was addressing the fact that the -- the process, the regulatory process has additional time built into it just by virtue of the process playing out. You have the decision issue [inaudible] intent to revoke. And if you look back at our timeline, you had a public hearing on December 2nd.

And then the final decision determination meeting wasn't until the -- the 30th. We had one on the 29th, which the board did not accept the district's recomm- -- the staff's recommendation. And they came back on the 30th and adopted the resolutions in support of the denial determination. So I don't know how -- what -- how that -- that may have been taken out of context along those lines, where the -- the process has time built into it by virtue where they could have taken actions to remedy it.

MS. CAIGOY: Time that was on record that they were going to have additional time. And so -- but there's communications from your district to the school from your staff. There was an email on December 3rd. And then there was a in person meeting on December 8th.

MR. SCHUETZ: Yeah.

MS. CAIGOY: To -- they met in person on December 8th. And they discussed this timeline. And the school was told that the new date to remedy was January 2nd. And you're telling -- and you're saying that that is not -- they don't have to take that into consideration? But it came from your district.

MR. SCHUETZ: And the board, you know, did -- did consider staff's recommendation and disagreed.

MS. CAIGOY: Okay.

MR. SCHUETZ: And that was within their discretion to do.

MS. CAIGOY: Got it. Thank you.

MS. SABENIANO: Okay. We're going to pause just for one second to take a vote to allow us to go past 10:30. Since we're close to that time. Is there -- is there a motion to extend the meeting?

[talking over each other]

MS. SABENIANO: Okay. Is there a motion to waive the four hour board meeting limit and extend the board meeting until the completion of our agendized business.

MS. CAIGOY: So moved.

MS. SABENIANO: Okay.

MR. FONG: Second.

MS. SABENIANO: Is there a second? Trustee Caigoy moved. And second by Trustee Fong. Any discussion? All those -- or roll call vote for that, please.

CLERK: On the motion to -- to extend the meeting, Trustee Lefkovitz?

MS. LEFKOVITZ: Yes.

CLERK: Vice President Keefer?

MR. KEEFER: Yes.

CLERK: Trustee Fong?

MR. FONG: Yes.

CLERK: Trustee Davis?

MS. DAVIS: Yes.

CLERK: Trustee Caigoy?

MS. CAIGOY: Yes.

CLERK: Trustee Brown?

MR. BROWN: Yes.

CLERK: County Board Member Dunbar?

MS. DUNBAR: Yes.

CLERK: President Corona Sabeniano?

MS. SABENIANO: Yes.

CLERK: Unanimous vote.

MS. SABENIANO: Okay. Thank you. And now we're going to go to Trustee Lefkovitz.

MS. CAIGOY: Oh, I wasn't done.

MS. SABENIANO: Oh, you were not done? Okay, sorry. Go ahead.

MS. CAIGOY: Okay. Thank you. Okay. So going to the definition of substantial evidence test, what's in our -- what's in our report. That has -- that came from a case that had nothing to do with a revocation. That was a -- that was a denial. That was a petition that came before the district that was denied and then appealed.

And so I'm wondering why we're using the substantial evidence test from something that has nothing to do with this case.

MS. STINSON: Because the courts define substantial evidence in a number of different contexts. They define it in administrative processes. And so there are cases where they've done it in the context of charters. There -- I think there's a case cited in our staff report that has to do with a revocation. There's also one that has to do with a denial.

But the substantial evidence is defined by the California courts and courts of appeal in a number of different contexts. And it's basic -- it's -- it -- they -- that's how they define substantial evidence. And it doesn't have to specifically be a revocation. Substantial evidence is a legal standard.

MS. CAIGOY: Got it. Okay. And I, you know, thank you for that, Tracy. Appreciate it. And thank you to both attorneys. Appreciate you both answering these questions. The question tonight is not regarding the $180 million that's in question. That's -- that's not what was in the notice of violation.

I just, you know -- and I agree with the sentiments that were said. It is egregious. It is disgusting. It was a misuse of public funds. And that was done by the prior leadership. I heard tonight that current leadership is in pending litigation with the prior leaders to recuperate some of the taxpayers' lost dollars.

And my question is, if the school were to close, what happens to pending litigation and current talks that are happening with the state regarding the recoupera- -- recouperation of that 180 million lost?

MR. SIMMONS: So if -- if the board does not act to reverse the revocation, then at this time the school is not -- both schools are not receiving any state funding because of the revocations that took place. So as a result there is, you know, a very limited capacity, both to settle with the state if that is an option that ever comes on the table, right, or to repay the state if ultimately at the end of the audit appeal process it's found that the school does owe those dollars, okay?

And then in terms of litigation against others, obviously the school is -- has a very limited capacity to engage in that sort of endeavor particularly given, you know, that right now all the -- all they're operating on is reserves. So I'm not going to speak on behalf of the Highlands board about what their strategies may be around those things, right. But I think that's a fair answer to your question. I would say also that, you know, to the extent -- and I think Jonathan made this clear on the record at the district, as did I on behalf of the board -- that the current Highlands board and administration does not support some of the financial decisions that were made by prior management teams.

So I think to the extent that the district or the county office wanted to join us in any way and provide assistance or come alongside us, that could be incredibly helpful regardless of, you know, this issue. I hear the public and its desire for accountability. I -- I hear that. But I think we're doing all we can do by ourselves.

So if the county office or the district wants to join us in some regard in that, I think there'd be openness to conversations.

MS. CAIGOY: But the 180 was not mentioned in the notice of violation. And right now we're supposed to be taking into account only the record, which is a notice of violation; correct?

MR. SIMMONS: That is correct.

MS. CAIGOY: Okay. Thank you.

MS. SABENIANO: Trustee Lefkovitz.

MS. LEFKOVITZ: I'm -- yeah, I'm still struggling a little bit with this extension and whether it was like -- I don't know if legal is the right word, but whether or not they actually had an extension by the board. I get the board didn't have to follow the staff.

But it's -- it's just confusing to me that it appears that the board -- that the board members were asking them or telling them they could submit more evidence. And then the staff sends them a letter saying you have until June -- January 2nd.

And I feel like that's a fundamental issue that if they actually had that time, and if we all agreed that that was allowed and expected, that that could -- that that would impact at least the board's consideration of evidence. So it's confusing to me that we -- we aren't coming to some consensus around that. It's just like you each decide whether you agree that's correct. Is -- is -- am I -- am I reading that correct? It's up to each of us to decide whether we think that extension was required or --

MS. STINSON: I -- I think so because I don't think I would -- I would tell you that it was -- that it was. And I think -- I think you've heard testimony from both sides about whether it was and whether they thought it was granted. So I think -- so I think that's for you all --

MS. LEFKOVITZ: Okay.

MS. STINSON: -- to decide. Yeah.

MS. LEFKOVITZ: Okay. And then I just have two questions. One is, can the board only consider for revocation those things in the notice of violation? And if it's not in the notice of violation, then it sounds like they can't be considered. Is that a correct understanding --

MS. STINSON: The notice of violation was the basis upon which the school district started the revocation proceeding. So yes, that's correct because that's the notice they gave. Here's the violations and here's what we're asking you to correct, so that is correct.

MS. LEFKOVITZ: Okay. So then in reading -- and I know this document really isn't supposed to be considered because it was received on April 21st after all of this -- after all the hearings. But the council sent us -- sent a letter to our board or to you that you shared about their I guess response to our staff report. And we got it. It was dated April 21st.

MS. STINSON: Yes. So what -- what I invited the parties to do is to submit written arguments. And I made it very clear it could not include new evidence. It -- I -- I was asked that it include citations to the record. But it was -- you have an opportunity if you'd like. You don't have to. But here's an invitation if you'd like to submit written arguments that are tied to the record and that new evidence would not be considered.

MS. LEFKOVITZ: Okay. Well I will say I had wished that that document had been read into the record on January 30th because it was actually helpful. And it did seem like contained a lot of information that was useful. But it did reference two things that I wondered if were in the record. And that was -- or were part of the notice of violation.

And that was an expectation that the leases would be -- the monies spent on the leases would be repaid. Like that wasn't any -- in any of the staff report, in any of the stuff that the staff outlined was in the notice of violation. So that one struck me as odd that that was included in that letter that the board is relying on or is including in their -- one of their reasons for revoking.

And then the other one for me was the notice of violation just said that the audit report had to be submitted. It -- it spoke nothing to the -- whether the audit report was, you know, what was found in the audit report. So do we literally take that as it just has to be submitted versus what was in the con- -- inside the audit report and what its findings were.

MS. STINSON: I think it would be tied to whatever the notice of violation had asked for. I don't know if the district has more of a response to that than I would. But --

[talking over each other]

MS. LEFKOVITZ: Yeah. It just [inaudible] --

MS. STINSON: -- it should be tied to the notice of violation.

MS. LEFKOVITZ: It just said an audit should be submitted. It didn't say an audit that had a clear audit was to be submitted. Go on.

MR. DIGIULIO: Just to clarify, we wanted a valid audit, right, so one that met all the requirements of an audit. And so it didn't meet the requirements when an opinion wasn't expressed. Just for clarification.

MS. LEFKOVITZ: But the word valid I don't think was included in the language.

MR. DIGIULIO: I understand. But there's an audit guide of what's required in an audit. So there are things -- I agree with you, there are things that weren't necessarily stated there that are required as part of law.

MS. LEFKOVITZ: Okay. Okay. And then you can stay there because I have another question. My question here is about curing. And I was wondering of the state law requires that the charter actually had to cure the problems or if they only had to see if reasonable plans and assurances because --

MR. SCHUETZ: I believe the standard is refute, remedy, or propose a plan that sufficiently remedies. Just subject to interpretation of what's a sufficient remedi- -- remedial action plan. And they -- they did submit part of their response to that notice of violation, a plan. But as was kind of outlined -- well first of all, initially it was determined that that notice of intent to revoke the [inaudible] plan was insufficient.

But they did other things along the way after that date. And -- and as you reflected in our presentation tonight, which is based on the record, it's nothing -- that was not new information. Multiple attempts at these plans throughout then were still repeatedly insufficient during that time period.

So that -- that's the standard from the regulation. I just want to mention briefly too, anything in our response was based on what was submitted as part of the appeal record by -- by the charter schools. And I believe we cited even to the record where it was. So I'd have to look at that specific item you referenced. But it -- it should be in the record somewhere.

MS. LEFKOVITZ: Okay. Thanks.

MR. RAYMOND: May I [inaudible]

MS. LEFKOVITZ: Yeah. Is that all right? Okay.

MR. STEINBERG: Counsel is correct that Title 5 of the code of regulations does not require the charter school to remedy the -- the -- the problem or to cure the problem, as you said. It requires proposed remedial action by the charter school. Proposed remedial action. Which they did and then of course the Twin Rivers staff said it not only submitted a plan, they actually cured.

But then there's the County Board of Education policy's definition of substantial evidence. And this is 2400 BP Section 2000. It says that definition of substantial evidence is if the violation, quote, was not cured by the charter school during its reasonable opportunity to remedy the violation. So then you go back to the facts of the case here. The board, Twin Rivers board, and the staff gave the school the opportunity to cure with the 60 day extension. And in fact the only evidence on the record again is with that additional 60 days, Highlands cured during its reasonable opportunity to remedy the violation. So it met that definition. It met the definition. And that's County Board of Education's definition, your board's definition of substantial evidence.

MS. LEFKOVITZ: Okay.

MR. KEEFER: I have a question on that.

MS. SABENIANO: You're next, Vice President Keefer.

MR. KEEFER: So I would ask Twin Rivers, was the audit cured now? Is it cured? Because I feel like I'm playing ping pong here. And --

MR. DIGIULIO: [inaudible]

MR. KEEFER: I mean --

MR. DIGIULIO: The entire part of an audit is to have an opinion rested on the financials. They cannot issue an opinion. So to us we do not have a complete audit. So it was not cured --

[talking over each other]

MR. KEEFER: So it's not cured. Okay. Thank you.

[talking over each other]

MR. KEEFER: That's all. That's it. Yeah.

MS. SABENIANO: Trustee Davis.

MS. DAVIS: Okay. Good evening, everyone. We got to hear from all of you tonight. And that was really amazing. It isn't really the decision that we're making, but I very much enjoyed it. I appreciate the gentlemen who picks up the garbage cans and the garbages. I'm really excited for you that got your credential today for your single subject.

I want you to know, each and every one of you that spoke, like I really heard what each and every one of you had to say. And I want to explain a little bit on our behalf of what we do up here. And it's a weird thing.

My name's Heather Davis. And I am in my third term. I've been elected three times. I can't imagine coming up and speaking. English is my only language. And I can't imagine coming and doing what you did. That was very brave. And it took a lot of courage. And as a board member, we're elected by the people of our districts and their voters. And that's what we are. I'm not a lawyer. I can promise you that. And so it gets complicated up here because they've just asked us, the voters have asked me to help with my board to make this decision and to figure it out. And it's a lot to navigate. I think we can all agree on that after this evening. And so I just want to speak to a couple of things as far as this decision goes. So whereas I understand what was brought before us for all of your plea, I want to speak to what I heard from both sides. Because some of it, in speaking to my board of colleagues, some of it is strange, right. Like why -- why like is Twin Rivers all of a sudden like so passionate now, when it was going on for a long time. Like where were they?

Like it's -- I mean it's not -- I don't mean that to be like -- I'm literally like -- I'm like sitting here just as a person, a voter, I'm mom. I'm wondering, what the heck was going on, number one. Number two, our board -- I -- I -- I don't want to speak on behalf of them, but I will anyway.

I feel that this next step of where we're going is that we want to be innovative, and we want to be open, and we want to be making change. And I can't imagine why we would like try to get in the way of stopping that. I'm not really sure that I know like if -- if there -- if the, you know, if these students are being served. Because I think like that this school happens to be serving students that no one else is serving, as far as I can tell maybe.

So to me, I think -- I think education should be all those things moving forward, innovative. I'm not sure. It feels -- this feels a little political to me, which seems uncomfortable. As -- as somebody -- like so this is how I'm going to break it down for you and where I'm at, guys, is this.

First of all I do want to say that I think where this board is going and what we are looking for is people who are willing to say, you know what, seems like things are turning around, so let's see what can happen. And I think that's what we're looking for, for me.

So with that said, I want to say this, that what I heard is that the board authorized staff, which I would hope that our board -- I mean our staff would if we had a direction that they authorized them, is -- is my -- the way I see it. They authorized High- -- to give Highlands more time.

And I think of it like this. If I'm a mom, which I am, I have three children. I've raised three children. And if one of them -- they've made mistakes, they're not perfect. If they went out and they made a mistake and did some things -- and I told them, you have a timeline to turn things around.

And then I started to see some serious -- and I think everybody can follow me on this -- and I started to see some serious change. I do think it would be abusive discretion of me to then come back and completely say, no, that is not what we meant, that isn't it.

So for me, if I'm having to make that decision based on the arguments of what I've heard tonight, and what I have seen, and what's been written, that to me is kind of how I'm -- I'm looking at this. And -- and -- and that's -- that's what I was hearing. And that's kind of where my mindset is at. So just to lend that I think, you know, thanks guys for everybody being here to late and for doing this. And yeah.

MR. FONG: [inaudible]

MS. SABENIANO: Sure. Yes. Trustee Fong.

MR. FONG: Yeah. I -- I just wanted to kind of remind the board that our decision is not to reweigh the evidence that was presented here. And our decision should be determined by the substantial evidence that supports the findings.

And the findings that were presented by the Twin Rivers, we -- there may have been some -- some -- some difficulties in terms of whether they gave them 60 days more time or not, or whether these students are being -- not being served by anybody else.

We need to look at what is the reasonable substantial evidence that a normal person would accept, that the evidence was there. So if you read the findings and the notice of revocation, all of those things are there. They were asked time and time and time over for many of these documents to -- to be given to them.

And it didn't come. And it didn't come on time. And even when it did come on time, there were shortcomings to it. So for us to try to reweigh the evidence, that's not what we're here for. We're here to just look at if they did the right things, they crossed their Ts, dot there is, and a document was presented to us with substantial evidence of their findings.

And that's what we're here for. Not -- not all this other stuff that was being brought up about, you know, oh, things were looking good, we should give them another chance. It's not that. It's not my opinion or my individual opinion. It's the legal things that we should be doing here and make that decision based on that.

MS. SABENIANO: Trustee Brown.

MR. BROWN: I agree with Trustee Fong that we have to look at the record. And if we look at the record, it will tell us that the new leadership was not on board when all these demands were made of Highlands. Am I correct about that?

And so we have to take that into consideration along with what happened on November 4th, where four of the board members wanted to give more time. And that's a part of the record.

But we're here to talk about what a reasonable man would do or a reasonable woman would do based on the facts. And a reasonable person would definitely not take away the ability of Highlands to do their job.

MS. SABENIANO: Okay. I also have struggled with this, I think just hearing the comments here tonight. I -- I'm a daughter of immigrants. English learner myself. My parents are English learners.

So I definitely hear what you all are sharing, the experience, and commend you for your passion for pursuing your education, for continuing even when things get difficult. And at the same time supporting your families and being there for your -- your families, your kids, and so forth. So just really want to commend you for that.

But I think for me, the evidence that we have, what -- for me what the record is, really is what was done, what the deadline was that September 26, what the Twin Rivers board gave. To me that was their deadline.

And if I had seen maybe more information provided between September 26 and November 4th, from the -- the charter, providing more information during that time to cure, rather than waiting till that meeting where the notice of revocation -- or the intent to revoke was approved, I think maybe I would weigh this a little bit differently, think a little bit differently about it.

But I don't see that in the record and the information that we have. And that was kind of my question when I asked our counsel earlier what our record was.

And I know Trustee Fong already read the piece about -- that we are required to look at what the district did. And I looked back to see. And the district's final vote was 7-0. So to me that speaks volumes that that is what the board that is the original authori- -- authorizer was looking at.

So our role here is really not to say the quality is not what it is, you know, the program, the curriculum is not providing the education that students need, or if there is a role for -- for Highlands in Twin Rivers or any other district. I think our question is very, very clear. Is there substantial evidence to revoke the charter. And I do see that in -- in the record.

I think for me also like part of our role is being accountable to the public and -- and those public funds. And for those reasons I'm not going to be able to support reversing the decision of Twin Rivers today.

And Trustee Caigoy, you have a question.

MS. CAIGOY: Yeah. So I'm just going back to -- because I keep on hearing the September 26th date. And ed code clearly states that the chartering authority shall notify the charter school of any violations of this section and give the school a reasonable opportunity to remedy the violation.

And a reasonable person, because I keep on hearing the definition of what is a reasonable person up here, but I can think of many ways of why that September 26th date was not reasonable. We just heard from the current charter school leader that he just came in after this notice of violation was issued.

Second, we heard that the board changed, the complete board, complete staff changed in August. School also started around that time. We have a room full of educators right now who know how busy that time of year is. Because the focus is supposed to be on the students.

I am not refuting that there have been bad choices, egregious disgusting choices. But that is not our job right now. Our job is to make sure that the board, the authorizing board, gave due process to the charter school. And that they followed ed code, that they followed law. Ed code is law.

And so I think that is also what our job is up here. And at this time that is what's before us, is that notice of violation that was issued and what they specify. If there was a detail that Twin Rivers meant to add in, they can start the process over tomorrow and add in those details. But the thought -- the -- to -- to say that we are taking out into account evidence that was not submitted at the time of the vote, ed code clearly states that we are supposed to go off of the record from the notice of violation to the revocation vote. Nothing after. And so that's -- I just want to say that and I just want to put that on record.

MS. SABENIANO: Okay. Any other comments or does someone want to make a motion? Question. Go ahead.

MS. CAIGOY: So can you state -- I have four copies of the same resolution in my folder. So can you just state what the -- what the options are here.

MS. STINSON: Yes. There are two potential resolutions for each of the charter schools. For the -- pardon me. For the California Career and Innovative Career Academy there is resolution number 26-16A which affirms the Twin Rivers Unified School District Board of Trustees decision to revoke the CICA charter.

And then there's proposed resolution number 26-16B, reversing the Twin Rivers Unified School District Board of Trustees decision to revoke the CICA charter. So those are the two resolutions for the California Career and Innovative Academy. And there's also two similar resolutions for the Highlands Community Charter School.

MS. CAIGOY: So I have four copies of 26-

16A.

MS. STINSON: Well --

[talking over each other]

MS. CAIGOY: Thank you.

[talking over each other]

MS. CAIGOY: And are we supposed to be making a motion for two separate motions? Or can we make one? What -- what's the deal?

MS. STINSON: [inaudible] pardon me. These are two separate agenda items. We held the public hearings together. So there should be -- there should be -- you should take action on one charter school first and then take a -- take action on the other separate.

MS. CAIGOY: Okay.

MR. FONG: Okay. I would like to move resolution 26-16A, which is to affirm Twin Rivers' decision to revoke California Innovative Career Academy.

MS. SABENIANO: Is there a second?

MR. KEEFER: Second.

MS. SABENIANO: Any discussion? Will you please call the roll?

CLERK: On -- on the motion to approve resolution number 26-16A, Trustee Lefkovitz?

MS. LEFKOVITZ: No.

CLERK: Vice President Keefer?

MR. KEEFER: Yes.

CLERK: Motion -- motion fails.

MS. SABENIANO: Is there another motion?

MS. DAVIS: I'll put forth the motion to approve the resolution reversing the Twin Rivers Unified School District Board of Trustees decision to revoke the Highlands Community Charter School. So resolution number 26-17B. Is that correct, Tracy? Did I say all that correctly?

MS. STINSON: 26- -- for the California Innovative Career Academy, it's 26-16B.

MS. DAVIS: Can I put that together -- all at -- like both of these at the same time or --

MS. STINSON: We should do one at a time -- [talking over each other]

MS. DAVIS: Do you want me to do it separate? Okay.

MS. STINSON: Yes.

MS. DAVIS: All right.

MS. SABENIANO: Is there a second?

MR. BROWN: Second.

MS. SABENIANO: Okay. Any discussion? Please call the roll.

CLERK: This is on the motion to reverse resolution number 26-17B.

MS. STINSON: 26-16B.

CLERK: 26-16B. Sorry. On the motion to reverse --

MS. STINSON: The California -- this is for the California Innovative Career Academy, 16B.

CLERK: Reverse resolution number 26-16B. Trustee Lefkovitz?

MS. LEFKOVITZ: Yes.

CLERK: Trustee Keefer?

MR. KEEFER: No.

MS. DUNBAR: Abstain.

CLERK: President Corona Sabeniano?

MS. SABENIANO: No.

CLERK: Pass -- passes, 4-1 -- 4-3.

MS. SABENIANO: Okay. And then moving -- so now we'll move on to Highlands Community Charter School. Is there a motion?

MS. DAVIS: So moved.

MS. SABENIANO: Which one?

MS. DAVIS: The 17 -- 26-17B. Is that right now?

MS. SABENIANO: Yeah.

MS. DAVIS: Do you want me to read that? Okay. Resolution reversing the Twin Rivers Unified School District Board of Trustees decision to revoke the Highlands Community Charter School.

MS. SABENIANO: Is there a second?

MS. DAVIS: Is that all right?

MR. BROWN: Second.

MS. SABENIANO: Any discussion? Will you please call the roll?

CLERK: Reversing resolution number 25-17B, Trustee Lefkovitz?

MS. LEFKOVITZ: Yes.

CLERK: Trustee Keefer?

MR. KEEFER: No.

CLERK: Trustee Fong?

MR. FONG: No.

MS. CAIGOY: Yes.

CLERK: Trustee Brown?

MR. BROWN: Yes.
