

Join us July 29, 2016 for the 2nd Annual Summit

As California embraces new ways of teaching and learning, you deserve more opportunities to connect with and learn from your fellow teachers.

On Friday, July 29, join thousands of teachers across the state for the second annual Better Together: California Teachers Summit to share ideas, build your networks, and learn concrete strategies to implement the new California Standards in your classroom.

Building on momentum from last year's event that attracted 15,000 teachers, the summit will be even bigger and better, featuring keynote addresses by education leaders, TED-style EdTalks presented by local teachers, and Edcamp discussions led by teachers, for teachers.

You will walk away from the free summit with:

- Insights from fellow teachers about innovative strategies and the latest, proven best practices to implement the California Standards in English/Language, Arts and Math and the Next Generation Science Standards
- A powerful and lasting network of colleagues from your home region to support future collaboration
- Access to the latest resources and concrete tools that are already working in classrooms across the state

The event is free to all California PreK-12 teachers, teacher candidates, school administrators, and other educators.

*"Thank you for the fantastic program!
It's the jolt of inspiration to help us engage with students through the year."*

*"I am so proud of my profession and those that I call my peers.
What a motivating and inspiring group!"*

*"The best part of this summit is just meeting all these different teachers,
and sharing ideas with them."*
