

TOM TORLAKSON
State Superintendent
of Public Instruction

Survey Results on the Inclusion of New Indicators in the High School API

TOM TORLAKSON
State Superintendent
of Public Instruction

Survey Summary

- The inclusion of new indicators in the high school API survey opened on May 31, 2013 and closed on June 20, 2013. Overall, there were 1,768 respondents (See Handout 2).

TOM TORLAKSON
State Superintendent
of Public Instruction

Survey Respondents

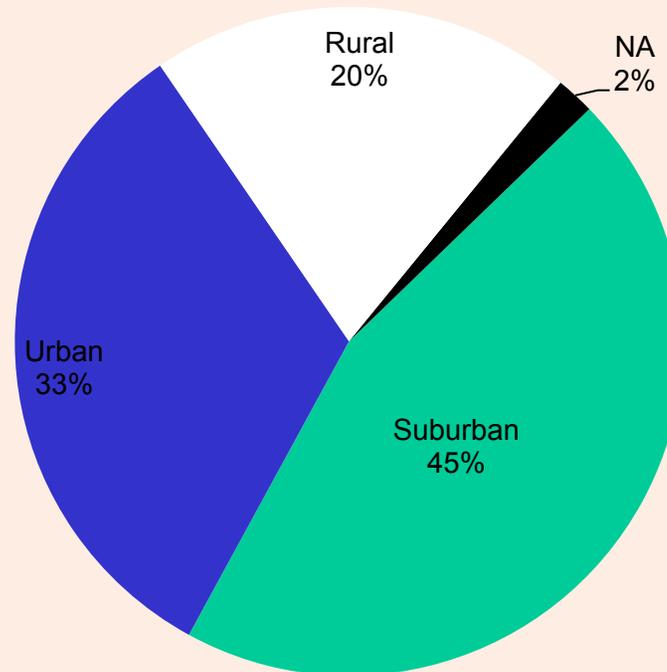

Role	Number of Respondents	Percent
Parent or Guardian	153	8.7%
Teacher (K-8)	107	6.1%
Teacher (9-12)	492	27.8%
School Administrator	359	20.3%
Other School Staff Member	92	5.2%
School Board Member	13	0.7%
District Administrator	283	16.0%
County Office of Education Administrator	52	2.9%
Other District/County Staff Member	52	2.9%
California Department of Education Staff	8	0.5%
Advocacy Group or Organization	43	2.4%
Other	114	6.4%
Total	1,768	100%

TOM TORLAKSON
State Superintendent
of Public Instruction

Survey Respondents (Cont.)

Respondents who identified themselves as staff of a school, or local educational agency (LEA) were asked to identify the school or LEA setting of urban, suburban, rural, or not applicable. There were 1,450 respondents who met this criteria.

TOM TORLAKSON
State Superintendent
of Public Instruction

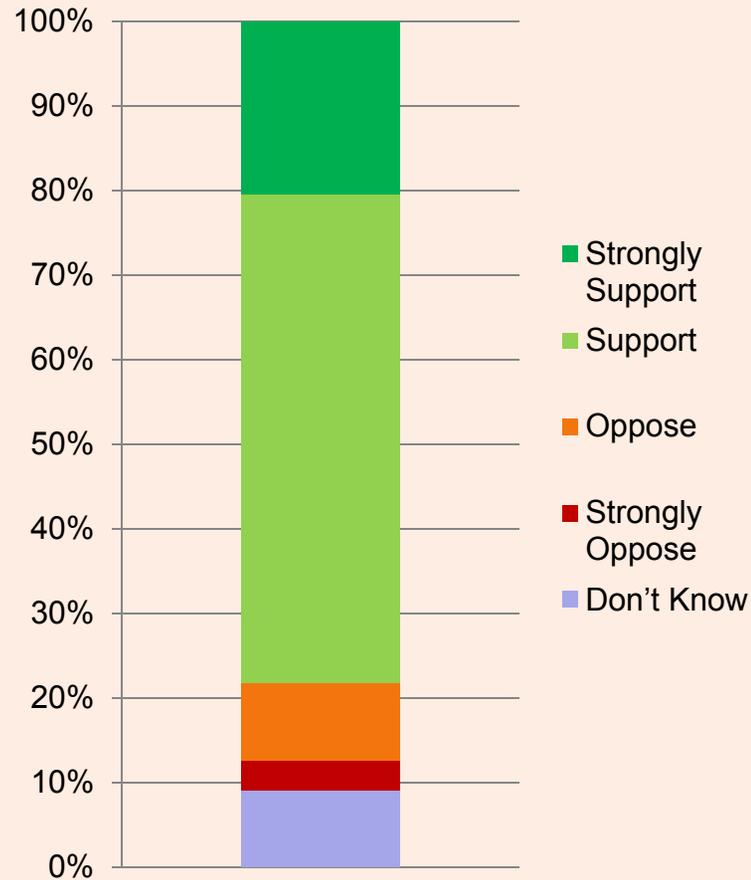

Survey Respondents (Cont.)

- All but three counties were represented in the survey responses. There were no responses from these counties:
 - Alpine
 - Amador
 - Mono

TOM TORLAKSON
State Superintendent
of Public Instruction

Support for the Proposed CCI

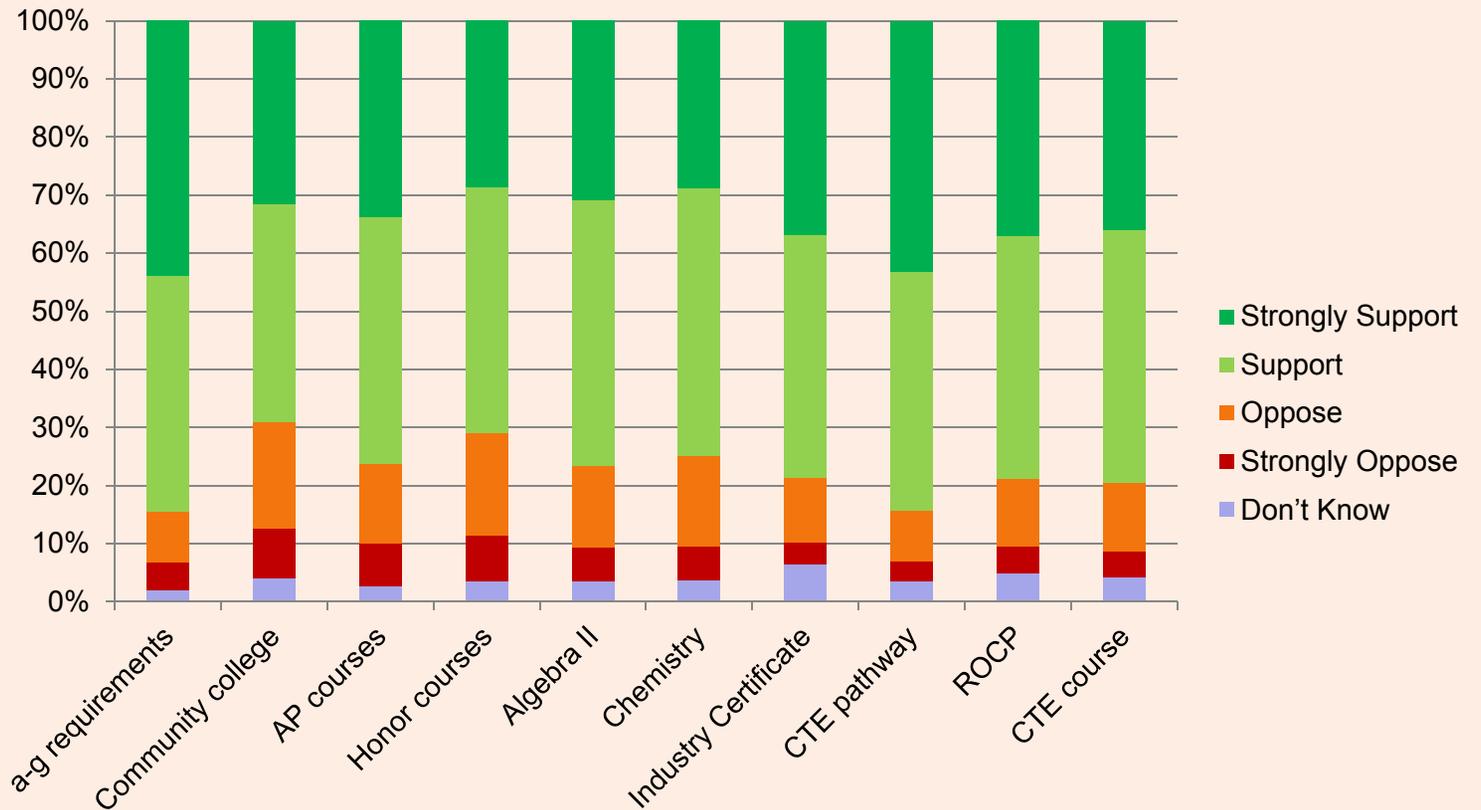

1,128 (96 percent) respondents answered this question.

TOM TORLAKSON
State Superintendent
of Public Instruction

College and Career: Inclusion of Proposed Course Completion

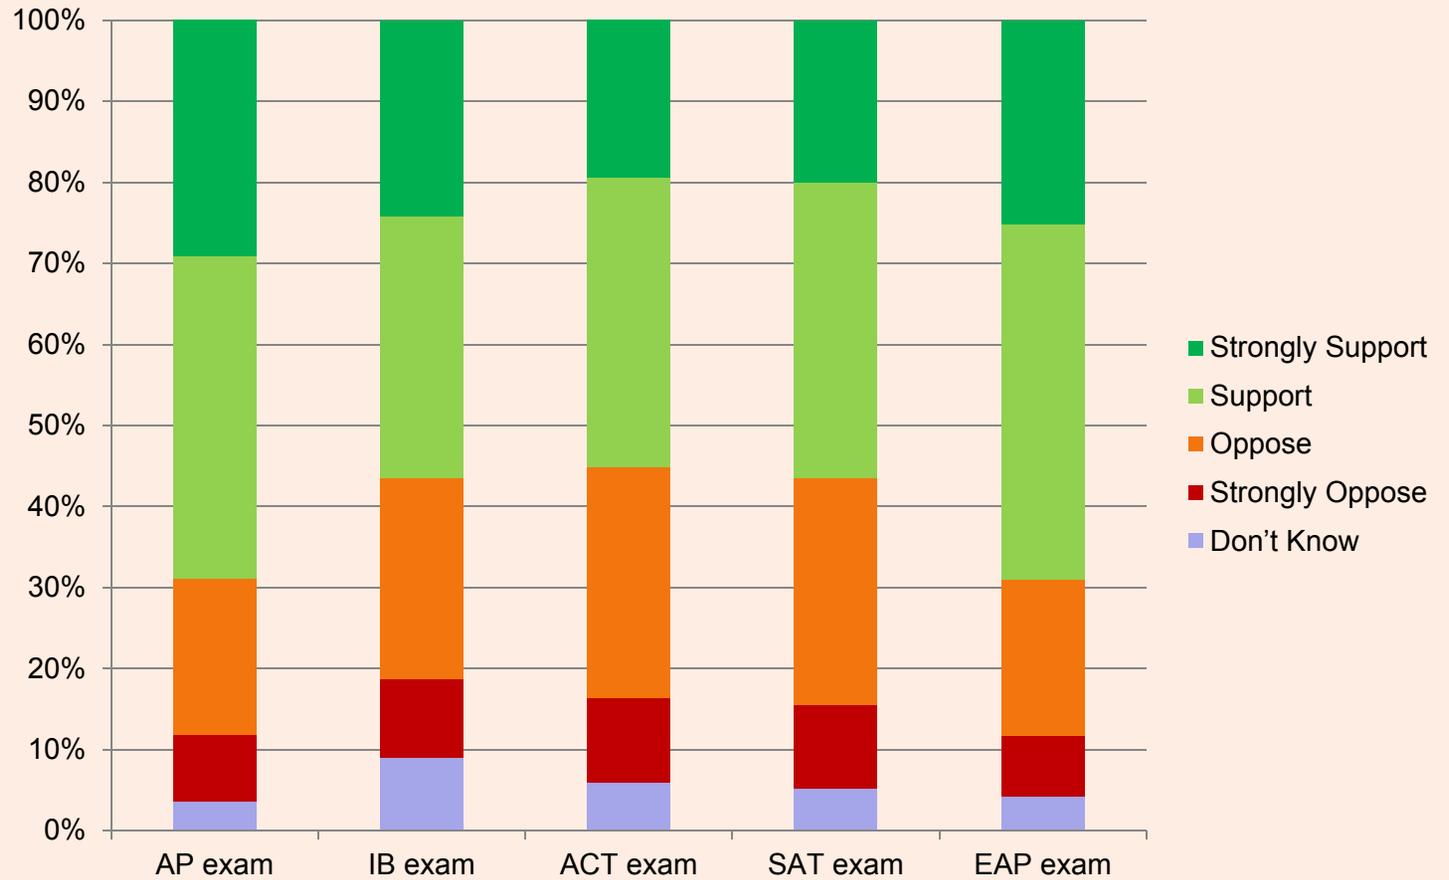

1,728 respondents (98 percent) responded to this question.

TOM TORLAKSON
State Superintendent
of Public Instruction

College and Career: Inclusion of Proposed Exam Results

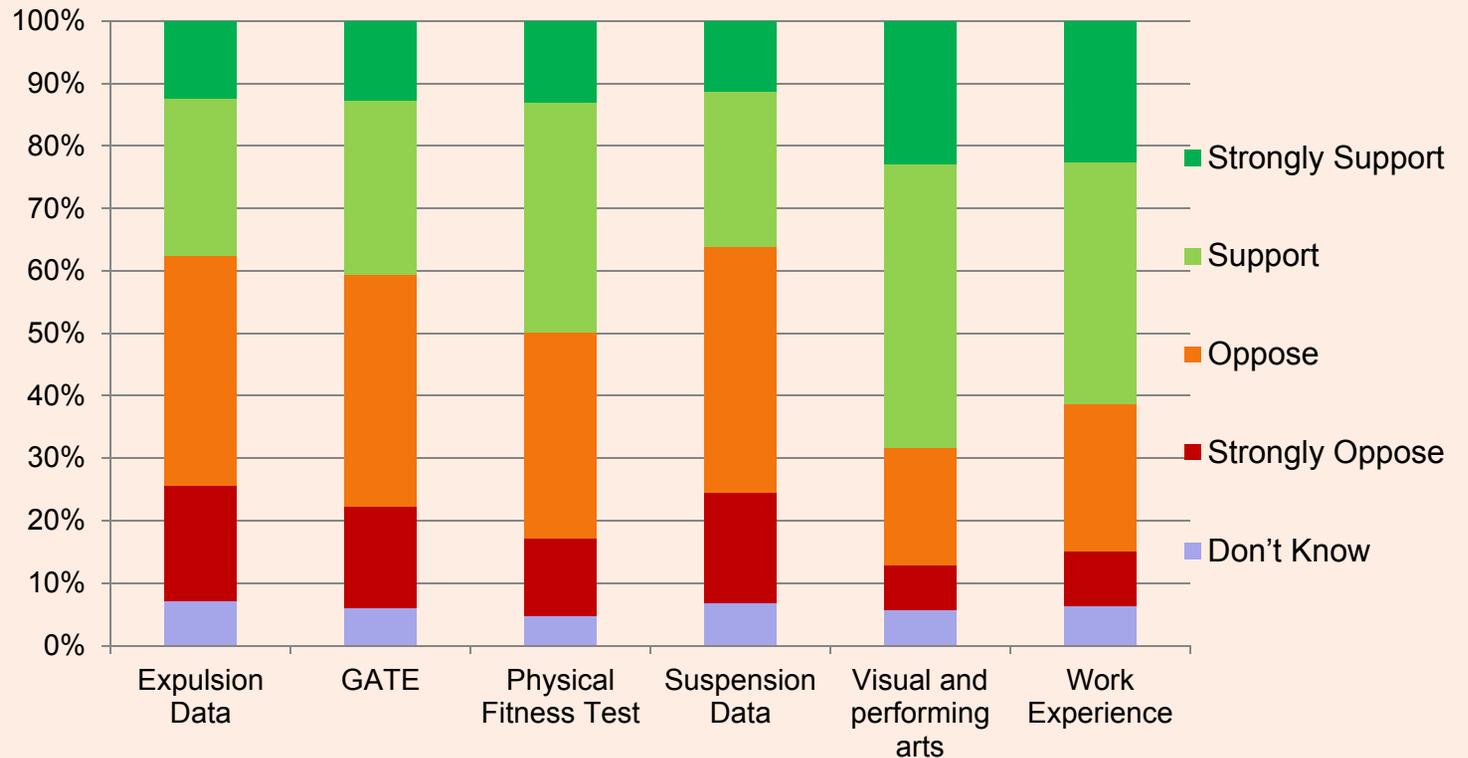

1,728 respondents (98 percent) responded to this questions.

TOM TORLAKSON
State Superintendent
of Public Instruction

Inclusion of Other Proposed Indicators

1,722 respondents (97%) responded to this question

TOM TORLAKSON
State Superintendent
of Public Instruction

Other Indicators Proposed by Respondents

Indicator	Number of Respondents
Student Attendance	62
Community Service	53
Individual Student Growth	40
Extracurricular Activities	36
Foreign Language	20
Civic Engagement/Education	20
College Acceptance	19
Redesignated English Proficient Students	14
Technology Skills	14
Classroom Size	10
Social Studies	10

903 respondents suggested additional indicators