Adoption Process

Steps of Instructional Materials Adoption Process

The review of publishers’ instructional materials programs involves three aspects:
1. Education content review
2. Social content review
3. Public review and comment
Adoption Process

Public Review and Comment

The adoption process ensures that the public has the opportunity to review and comment on resources considered for SBE adoption.

- Materials available for public review
- Written comments forwarded to the review panels, the IQC, and the SBE
- Public comment during deliberations process
- Three separate public hearings are held prior to adoption
Overview of the Evaluation Criteria

Criteria for Evaluating Instructional Materials: Kindergarten through Grade Eight

• Adopted July 14, 2016
• Specifies instructional materials requirements for the 2017 HSS Adoption
• Online at: www.cde.ca.gov/ci/hs/im/
Evaluation Criteria

Five Criteria Categories

1. HSS Content/Alignment with the Standards
2. Program Organization
3. Assessment
4. Universal Access
5. Instructional Planning and Support
Evaluation Criteria

Five Criteria Categories

Expectations: To be adopted, programs must

• meet all criteria in Category 1;
• have strengths in each of Categories 2–5.
Understanding the Criteria

• Examples versus requirements
  • “e.g.” or “such as” vs. declarative statements (“shall”)

• Some criteria statements call for multiple things

• Often criteria call for something but do not specify exactly where it must be included (other times, it is very specific)

• If the criteria does not specify something, it is up to the publisher
Understanding the Criteria

• Reviewers will be told that it is their task to evaluate materials in the context of the criteria, not how they would teach the content if they were writing the program.

• It is common to have disagreements about the criteria; this is why we have panels of reviewers that include a majority of teachers.

• It is essential for publishers to be ready to address reviewer questions and concerns at deliberations.
Meeting the Criteria

• “How much is enough?”
• Be prepared for extensive public comment on specific topics in the standards and framework.
• We cannot provide a preliminary evaluation of your materials.
• Refer to the official FAQ for clarification on specific criteria statements.
Evaluation Criteria

Category 1

HSS Content/Alignment with the Standards

• Instructional materials include content as specified in the HSS Standards, including the Historical and Social Science Analysis Skills.
Evaluation Criteria

Category 1

• “History–social science instructional materials must support teaching aligned with the standards and framework. Materials that are contrary to or inconsistent with the standards, framework, and criteria are not allowed. Extraneous materials should be minimal and clearly purposeful.” (criteria p. 828)

• Do not include references to national standards or standards from other states.
Overview of the Content Standards

• Adopted in 1998
• Organizational basis of the curriculum framework
• Another gatekeeper in this adoption process
Evaluation Criteria: Criterion 1.1

“Instructional materials, as defined in Education Code Section 60010(h), support instruction designed to ensure that students master all the History–Social Science Content Standards for the intended grade level. Analysis skills of the pertinent grade span must be covered at each grade level. This instruction must be included in the student edition of the instructional materials; while there can be direction in materials for the teacher to support instruction in the standards, this cannot be in lieu of content in the student edition. The standards themselves must be included in their entirety in the student materials, either at point of instruction or collected together at another location.”
People Who Make a Difference

Students in grade two explore the lives of actual people who make a difference in their everyday lives and learn the stories of extraordinary people from history whose achievements have touched them, directly or indirectly. The study of contemporary people who supply goods and services aids in understanding the complex interdependence in our free-market system.

2.1 Students differentiate between things that happened long ago and things that happened yesterday.
1. Trace the history of a family through the use of primary and secondary sources, including artifacts, photographs, interviews, and documents.
2. Compare and contrast their daily lives with those of their parents, grandparents, and/or guardians.
3. Place important events in their lives in the order in which they occurred (e.g., on a timeline or storyboard).
Overview of the Content Standards

Historical and Social Sciences Analysis Skills

The intellectual skills noted below are to be learned through, and applied to, the content standards for kindergarten through grade five. They are to be assessed only in conjunction with the content standards in kindergarten through grade five.

In addition to the standards for kindergarten through grade five, students demonstrate the following intellectual, reasoning, reflection, and research skills:

Chronological and Spatial Thinking

1. Students place key events and people of the historical era they are studying in a chronological sequence and within a spatial context; they interpret time lines.

2. Students correctly apply terms related to time, including past, present, future, decade, century, and generation.

3. Students explain how the present is connected to the past, identifying both similarities and differences between the two, and how some things change over time and some things stay the same.
Overview of the Content Standards

• Standards must be met in full
• Examples ("e.g.") vs. lists of topics/concepts

2.2 Students demonstrate map skills by describing the absolute and relative locations of people, places, and environments.

1. Locate on a simple letter-number grid system the specific locations and geographic features in their neighborhood or community (e.g., map of the classroom, the school).

2. Label from memory a simple map of the North American continent, including the countries, oceans, Great Lakes, major rivers, and mountain ranges. Identify the essential map elements: title, legend, directional indicator, scale, and date.
Evaluation Criteria: Criterion 1.2

“Instructional materials reflect and incorporate the content of the History–Social Science Framework.”
Evaluation Criteria: Criterion 1.2

What does “reflect and incorporate” mean?

• This is a framework-aligned adoption.
• There is no framework map.
• This criteria statement will be evaluated by reviewers at the deliberations.
• Publisher citations on the criteria map should demonstrate how their materials are aligned to the framework.
• Publishers should attend carefully to the content of the framework and be prepared to address questions at deliberations.
Evaluation Criteria: Criterion 1.2

• What about specific curricula and examples referenced in the framework?
  • Classroom examples
  • Curriculum units from the EEI or the CHSSP
  • Other third-party resources

• Publishers are not required to include these items in their programs unless specified.

• Publishers may include outside resources as long as they gain permission from the provider.
Evaluation Criteria: Criterion 1.2

- Areas of divergence in the standards and framework
  - South Asia unit in grade seven
  - History of early Christianity
  - Newer historical interpretations
- Some topics must be included in overlapping grade levels (criterion 1.12 and FAQ questions 41–42).
- It is acceptable to acknowledge historical debates.
- Answers to these and other questions about the framework are in the Publisher FAQ on the CDE Web site.
Evaluation Criteria

Category 1

• Emphasis on Student Inquiry
  • “...utilizing the individual tools of each discipline to investigate a significant question and marshal relevant evidence in support of their own interpretations.” (framework p. 9)

• Criteria statements 1.4, 1.5, 1.6, 1.7, others

• A significant instructional shift in the framework and this adoption
Evaluation Criteria

Category 1

• Alignment to other documents
  • Common Core for ELA/Literacy (1.13)
  • California ELD Standards (1.13)
  • California ELA/ELD Framework (1.13)
  • Environmental Principles and Concepts (1.15)

• The language of the criteria describes the degree of alignment required

• Similar language appears in categories 3 and 4 of the criteria
Evaluation Criteria

Category 2

Program Organization

• Instructional materials support instruction and learning of the standards and include such features as the organization and design of the programs and standards; chapter, unit, and lesson overviews; and glossaries.
Evaluation Criteria

Category 3

Assessment

• Instructional materials include assessments for measuring what students know and are able to do and provide guidance for teachers on how to use assessment results to guide instruction.
Evaluation Criteria

Category 3

Different types and purposes of assessment

• Entry-level
• Formative
• Summative
• Frequent opportunities to assess
• Focus on expository writing
• Rubrics
• Multiple measures
• Information literacy
Evaluation Criteria

Category 3

Alignment to other documents

- HSS Framework: “reflect the goals” of chapter 19
- CCSS for ELA/Literacy, CA ELD standards, and ELA/ELD framework: “writing assignments are aligned with the grade-level expectations” in those documents
History–Social Science Framework
Chapter 19 – Assessment of Proficiency in History–Social Science

• Cites importance of HSS standards, ELA/Literacy standards, and ELD standards
• References inquiry model emphasized throughout the framework
• In-depth discussion of formative assessment (among other types)
Evaluation Criteria

Category 4

Universal Access

• Instructional materials provide access to the standards-based curriculum for all students, including advanced learners, English learners, students below grade level in reading and writing skills, and special education students in general education classrooms.
Evaluation Criteria

Category 4

Alignment to other documents

• HSS Framework: “reflect the goals” of chapter 20
• CCSS for ELA/Literacy, CA ELD standards, and ELA/ELD framework: “complementing the goals,” “reinforcing instruction”
• Support for integrated ELD per the ELA/ELD framework (see also chapters 2 and 9 in the HSS framework)
• Goal of the framework: support teaching of all students
• Criteria has limiting language on which groups must be supported in the submitted materials
• Strategies provided for a range of groups
• Emphasis is on a) identifying needs, and b) providing strategies to address those needs
Evaluation Criteria
Category 5

Instructional Planning & Support

• Information and materials contain a clear road map for teachers to follow when planning instruction and are designed to help teachers provide effective standards-based instruction.
Short Break
Evaluation Criteria Map

Instructions

• The evaluation criteria map lists each criteria statement for all five criteria categories.
• Publishers must complete the evaluation criteria map with citations to the content within their program.
• Complete one evaluation criteria map per program.
Evaluation Criteria Map

• Publishers provide evidence of where in their program coverage of each of the individual statements in each category of the criteria can be found.

• Criteria Category 1: Programs must cover all criteria statements.

• Criteria Categories 2–5: Programs must demonstrate strengths in each category.

Standards Map – 2017 History–Social Science Adoption
Grade Four – California: A Changing State

Students learn the story of their home state, unique in American history in terms of its vast and varied geography, its many waves of immigration beginning with pre-Columbian societies, its continuous diversity, economic energy, and rapid growth. In addition to the specific treatment of milestones in California history, students examine the state in the context of the rest of the nation, with an emphasis on the U.S. Constitution and the relationship between state and federal government.
