Adjustments should be made by reporting the corrected figures in the Cumulative Prior Period column of the next report to be filed. Do not use negative figures in any of the columns. Note, in the Comments section on Page 2 or on an additional sheet of paper that the data in the Cumulative Prior Period column reflects changes from prior reports, so it will be clear that the current data is correct and not a mistake in transferring the data from the Cumulative Fiscal Year column of the prior report. When an amended report is submitted, all pages are required (including an original signature).
