Outcome Rationale: Attempts were made to place the student in a CDE Approved facility. However, CDE Approved facilities would not accept the student, were not appropriate to address the student's needs and/or did not have any projected openings. Many facilities denied student for placement because of age (student was close to 18 years old and then recently turned 18 years old). In addition to having an emotional disability, the student also presents with some developmental issues and lowered cognitive abilities that led facilities reporting they were not

Reason for Waiver Request: Attempts were made to place the student in a CDE Approved facility. However, CDE Approved facilities would not accept the student, were not appropriate to address the student's needs and/or did not have any projected openings. Many facilities denied student for placement because of age (student was close to 18 years old and then recently turned 18 years old). In addition to having an emotional disability, the student also presents with some developmental issues and lowered cognitive abilities that led facilities reporting they were not appropriate to address the student's needs.

In addition, the student has violent behaviors that were concerning to facilities and beyond their ability to address. [REDACTED]
